This method of "considering questions relating to matters of ordination, character, and Conference relations" does not, however, seem to be on the same level as the "open session" method. Instead of the word "or," which is used between the two methods of an open session, and might be logically expected here if a new sentence were not to be introduced, we have the word "provided"—"Provided that the Conference may order an Executive Session of the ministerial members to consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character, and Conference relations." The general trend of the Paragraph as a whole would indicate that the closed session is to be used only in unusual circumstances. But the wording is so cloudy, not to say obscure, that such an inference cannot be pronounced implicit, and in practice has not been so understood and followed.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The above brings us to a consideration of:

(A) The right of an Annual Conference to choose the medium through which it will "consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character, and Conference relations" of its ministerial members.

(1) No one questions its right to an open session wherein "inquiries shall be made as to whether all the ministerial members of the Conference are blameless in their life and official administration," nor does any one question its right to choose between the two methods outlined in the first part of Paragraph 646, by means of which that end may be attained.

(2) Does it have a right to choose such a closed session as is provided for in the latter part of Paragraph 646? We think it does, and for the following reasons:

(a) It is a choice of the entire membership, laymen as well as ministers. It is not an arbitrary rule imposed by a particular bloc of the membership, but the result of the adoption of a motion which is subject to debate and upon which all members who choose to do so, may vote. Even if it has been made a Standing Rule, it may be revised at any annual session. If parliamentary rules should obstruct a motion to reconsider or amend, one to rescind, repeal or annul can be offered, motions which bring up the entire matter, are debatable, yield to all privileged and incidental motions, and to which all the subsidiary motions may apply. (See Robert's Rules of Order.) This would seem to give the Conference as a whole ample opportunity to express its desire.

It has been objected that the ministers in an Annual Conference outnumber the laymen and can thus impose their will upon the latter:

First, we doubt whether that assertion can be universally supported. It may be true of some Conferences, the Southern California-Arizona, as far as we can determine by the General Minutes, being one in evidence. But neither the preachers on trial, nor local preachers acting as supplies have a vote, and in many Annual Conferences they, taken together, will outnumber the retired preachers (many of whom do not attend), members of General Boards, etc., etc., so that if there be present a duly elected layman from each pastoral charge, the laymen will have approximately equal voting strength with the ministers—sometimes greater strength. Of course, if a great number of them neglect to attend the session to which they have been accredited, some things may be done of which they do not approve, but under such circumstances a plea that their constitutional rights have been invaded cannot be sustained.

Second, this objection rests on the supposition that all the preachers will vote alike and all the laymen alike. That is a pretty far-fetched supposition. We have never seen "rugged individualism" more rampant, upon the part of both ministry and laity, than in an Annual Conference. Methodist polity may not be as independent as that of Baptist, but Methodist people are about as independent in their thinking and acting as anybody we know, and have a confirmed habit of sooner or later breaking up blocs, whether of ministers or laymen, with complete ruthlessness and happy abandon.

Third, if worse comes to worst, there is always the vote by orders, which equalizes any discrepancy in numbers.

We cannot see that the rights of either ministers or laymen are jeopardized if the Conference orders such a closed session as is set out in the latter part of Paragraph 646.

(B) The Annual Conference is competent to designate, if it so chooses, a particular group of its membership to perform for it a specific item of business. That is exactly what it does when it chooses to order an Executive, i.e., a closed session, composed of its ministerial members only. That group then occupies a position equivalent to an Executive Committee to which has been referred a matter with power to act. This power to act is, in this case, enhanced and made imperative by the Constitution of the Church which says: "Lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character, and Conference relations of ministers." (Paragraph 22 of the Discipline.) The Conference, voting as a whole, ministers and laymen, has chosen to perform this part of its business through those designated and without either the presence or voice of any outside this group. That it should designate this part of its membership to act for it, is wholly a matter of its own choice. It could have chosen the open session. It chose the closed one, with all implications involved clearly before it.

It goes without saying that if this group goes beyond the bounds specifically assigned it, viz., "to consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character, and Conference relations," its actions are null and void. It would thereby exceed the authority committed to it by the choice of the Conference. But as long as it confines itself to a consideration of, and action upon, the matters set forth, its session is as legal as any other of the daily sessions of the Annual Conference. It is the Conference in action through a method which it has chosen, and which method is not in conflict with either the Constitution or the Laws of the General Conference.

Moreover: in the final analysis, the question of whether or not lay members of the Annual Conference have a constitutional right to be present and participate in the discussions in the Annual Conference relating "to the character and Conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers" even though they have no right to vote on such matters, may be and perhaps should be determined solely from the language and implications of Article II, Section VII of the Constitution (Paragraph 22, 1944 Discipline)—the only article in the Constitution relating to the subject under consideration.

It appears significant that the only right sought to be protected by that Article with reference to several matters is the right to vote. Note the language of the Article:

"The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote . . ."

To vote on what?

First, to vote on "all constitutional amendments."

Second, to vote "on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional and Central Conferences."

Third, to vote "on all matters relating to the character and Conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers."

Thus the Constitution does not specifically provide that either ministerial members or lay members shall have the right to be present and participate in the discussions relating to any of these matters on which the right to vote is reserved to the Annual Conference.

It is argued, and is here conceded, that the right to vote carries with it an inherent right to be present and participate in the discussions leading up to such vote. On the other hand, and by the same token, the specific denial to a group of the right to vote on a given question negatives any presumption of an inherent right in the members of that group to be present and participate in the discussions leading up to such vote.

The same Article of the Constitution (Paragraph 22, 1944 Discipline) specifically denies to the lay members of the Annual Conference the right to vote on "matters relating to the character and Conference relations of its ministerial members and on ordination of ministers." We believe that this Constitutional denial of the right to vote on these matters precludes any inference that the lay members of the Annual Conference have an inherent or Constitutional right to be present and participate in the discussions relating to such matters.

This same article reserves to the Annual Conference "such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution." That appears to be sufficient Constitutional authority for the Annual Conference, the basic body of the Church, to adopt its own method of procedure in voting upon a matter specifically reserved to the Annual Conference. At least there is no such clearly defined Constitutional right given to the lay members of the Annual Conference in relation to such matters as would justify the striking down as unconstitutional an Act of the General Conference granting to the Annual Conference, the basic body of the Church, the right to regulate its procedure in connection with a matter on which the lay members of the Annual Conference are, by the Constitution itself, specifically denied the right to vote.

We cannot refrain from saying that in our judgment Paragraph 646, as at present framed, is ambiguous and ought to be rewritten, but we can find no logical ground for declaring it unconstitutional. We therefore give it as our opinion that it is Constitutional, and that sessions of an Annual Conference held under its provisions are legal sessions. April 23, 1947.

Dissenting Decision by H. R. Van Deusen

The majority opinion—a very scholarly and able document—makes a careful analysis of Paragraph 646, pointing out the different procedures that may be followed by an Annual Conference in the performance of the powers reserved to it by the Constitution (Paragraph 22, Discipline 1944) “on all matters relating to the character and Conference relations of its ministerial members, and on ordination of ministers.”

It is pointed out that one of the alternate procedures which Paragraph 646 seems to provide is found in the last clause which reads “provided that the Conference may order an Executive Session of the ministerial members to consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character and Conference relations,” and this is interpreted to mean that such an Executive Session may be called only by a vote of the entire Annual Conference including both lay and ministerial members. Thus, it is argued, the lay members are not deprived of any rights they may have as members of the Annual Conference, if the Conference by a majority of the body including both lay and ministerial members votes to adopt this method.

The basic fallacy of this argument seems to be that this procedure assumes that the Annual Conference can delegate the exercise of one of its most important rights and duties to an Executive Committee, or an Executive Session, or some other segment of its membership. This right is one of the most important rights reserved to the Annual Conference, and when action is taken, after the report of Committees or otherwise, irrespective of the voting rights, the action must be by the Annual Conference as a body, and not by a segment thereof.

Therefore, the lay members being an integral part of the Annual Conference, as such Constitutional members they may not be prevented from being present and participating in every session of the Conference, including participating in a discussion of matters affecting the ordination, character and Conference relations of ministers.

It, therefore, should be held that the General Conference had no power to enact the provision contained in the last paragraph of Paragraph 646, and that the same is unconstitutional.

Dr. G. W. Henry joins in the foregoing dissent.

Re: Bishop Costen J. Harrell's Decision at North Alabama Annual Conference on Whether or Not the Annual Conference May Exclude Retired Members From Service on Boards, Commissions and Committees

DIGEST OF CASE

A Standing Rule of an Annual Conference adopted according to Paragraph 631, Discipline 1944, which provides that "a retired minister may not serve on a Quadrennial Board or Commission," is not contrary to the Constitution.

BISHOP'S RULING

On October 26, 1946, Bishop Costen J. Harrell, presiding over the North Alabama Conference, in response to a request made by W. F. Price and others, rendered the following Episcopal ruling:

Under the provisions of Paragraph 631, 1944 Discipline, an Annual Conference may adopt Standing Rules for its procedure that are not contrary to or in violation of the Constitution and legislation of the Church. In the exercise of the rights granted under the said Paragraph the North Alabama Conference had duly adopted certain Standing Rules which are published on pages 3 and 4 of the Journal of the Conference (1945). Among them is the following: "A retired minister may not serve on a Quadrennial Board or Commission." Rule 11, Art. (2).

In open session of the said Conference a request for an Episcopal decision, signed by seven members of the Conference, was presented as follows:

"First, What rights, privileges and powers are taken from a Traveling Preacher when he is given the retired relation,

"Second, Since the General Conference prescribes the conditions for becoming an Elder, can an Annual Conference deprive a retired minister of his legal right to serve on Boards, Commissions, and Committees?

"(This last question deals only with a legal right and not the question of expediency.)"

Paragraph 367, 1944 Discipline, defines the status of a retired minister as follows: "A retired minister is one who, at his own request, or by action of the Annual Conference, upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, has been placed in the retired relation." Paragraph 368 states that when a member of an Annual Conference is duly granted a retired relation by his Conference he is "retired from the active ministry." By these provisions we conclude that a retired minister is relieved of active duty and responsibility in the exercise of his ministerial office. Service on a Quadrennial Board or Commission is an active duty and responsibility. The status of a retired minister is clearly established in the law and practice of the Church. The Conference and the duly constituted appointing powers of the Church cannot require a retired minister to serve a church or pastoral charge. He may with his consent be appointed as a Retired Supply (Paragraph 370), in which case he serves as a Supply Pastor and the rule governing his appointment is as in Paragraph 316. Neither can a retired minister demand of the Conference and the duly constituted appointing powers a church or pastoral charge, else his retirement would have no meaning. The Chair rules that since service on a Quadrennial Board or Commission is, as the pastorate, an active duty and responsibility, the same rule applies, and a retired minister cannot demand of the Conference appointment on the said Boards or Commissions. The law of the Church grants to the Annual Conference the privilege and responsibility of naming the members of its Boards and Commission, with certain directions and restrictions (Paragraphs 778, 1282, 1441, 1471, 1558, 1581, etc.), and it may decline to name any or all of its retired ministers on the said Boards or Commissions.

Therefore, it is ruled that Rule 11, Art. (2) as quoted above is not contrary to the Constitution or legislation of the Church nor to its procedure and intent; that it is in harmony with the rights granted the Annual Conference by the Discipline; and that the said Rule 11, Art. (2) is properly a part of the Standing Rules of the North Alabama Conference.

Decision of the Judicial Council

This ruling has been properly certified to the Judicial Council and is now regularly before the Council for review.

Without adopting as a whole the language used in the decision, but passing solely upon the conclusion expressed by Bishop Harrell in his ruling, the Judicial Council hereby affirms said ruling.

Attention is called to the fact that question "Second," reading as follows:

"Second: Since the General Conference prescribes the conditions to become an Elder, can an Annual Conference deprive a retired minister of his legal right to serve on Boards, Commissions and Committees? (This last question deals only with a legal right and not the question of expediency)" assumes that retired ministers have a legal right to serve on Boards, Commissions and Committees. With this assumption we cannot agree. They may so serve provided the Annual Conference so directs. Paragraph 631 of the 1944 Discipline provides that an Annual Conference may make rules to govern its own procedure "provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted it by the General Conference."

We find no constitutional prohibition against an Annual Conference adopting a method of procedure, by rule or otherwise, under which only members in the effective relationship may serve on Boards, Commissions and Committees. Article II, Section VII of the Constitution (Paragraph 22, 1944 Discipline) provides that "It" (the Annual Conference) "shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine." The General Conference, as set out in Paragraph 631 of the 1944 Discipline, and quoted above, has given to the Annual Conference specific authority and power to make rules for its own procedure, and the Conference Rule No. 11 quoted in Bishop Harrell's opinion is in harmony with that authority.

Dr. W. G. Henry voted a dissent to the foregoing decision. April 23, 1947.

Concurring Decision

The procedure of the North Alabama Annual Conference in setting up Rule 11, Article (2) among its Standing Rules, the questions propounded to the presiding Bishop of the session of said Conference in 1946, and his answer, raise some questions as follows:

(1) From what is a preacher retired?

Bishop Harrell quotes Paragraph 367 verbatim:

"A retired minister is one who, at his own request, or by action of the Annual Conference, upon recommendation by the Committee on Conference Relations, has been placed in the retired relation."

This, as is readily seen, gives no concrete definition of what the "retired relation" consists. He then paraphrases Paragraph 368 as follows:

"Paragraph 368 states that when a member of an Annual Conference is duly granted a retired relation by his Conference, he is 'retired from the active ministry.'"

The fact is that a preacher falling into the category covered by this paragraph is not "granted a retired relation by his Conference." According to this Paragraph his Conference has neither voice nor vote in the matter. He is "automatically retired" by a law passed by the General Conference of 1940 and adjudged Constitutional by an 8 to 1 vote of the Judicial Council of that year. (See Judicial Council Decision 7.)

The Bishop seems to base his argument largely on the phrase, "retired from the active ministry." The fact is that such a phrase is used only in the Paragraph which provides for an automatic retirement by age-limit, and would not necessarily apply to the preceding Paragraph under which by far the larger number of ministers retire.

Nevertheless, I think we may take the Bishop's conclusion, viz., that a "retired minister is relieved of active duty and responsibility in the exercise of his ministerial office," as approximately correct as respects both those retired "by action of the Annual Conference upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations" and those "automatically" retired. That is to say, a preacher is retired from the itinerancy; he is retired from the obligation to move from place to place according to the appointing power of a Bishop; he is retired from any and all positions to which otherwise a Bishop might have a right to appoint him, i. e., the pastorate, a professorship in a school, etc., etc. (See Paragraph 432). In a word, a retired preacher is one who has suffered a change in the ministerial relation he bears to his Conference, in that he has been removed from the "effective" list and placed on that of Superannuates. It follows as a natural corollary that he is relieved of the "duties and responsibilities" of the position from which he is removed. It is a matter which has to do solely and entirely with his relation as a minister.

This brings us to another question:

(2) What does a retired preacher retain?

It goes without saying that he retains his license to preach and his orders (deacon and/or elder). But he also retains his membership in the Conference. An Annual Conference has a right to terminate the membership of any one of its members by: (a) Conviction of immoral conduct. (b) Voluntary location. (c) Involuntary location. (d) Surrender of ministerial office. (e) Withdrawal. No one of these processes is carried out in the superannuation of one of its members. The retired minister remains responsible to the Conference for his conduct, and must submit annually to the passage of his character, just as the effective one. While he has been relieved of the duties and responsibilities of his former ministerial relation, he has retained all the duties, responsibilities, rights and privileges of his Conference membership.

It is just here that confusion seems to arise. Ministerial relationship is one thing; Conference membership is another. With this in mind, the question seems to be:

(3) Whether an Annual Conference has a right to set up a Standing Rule which excludes from service on its Quadrennial Boards and Commissions those of its members who fall within a given ministerial relationship?

I am compelled to concur in the answer of the majority of this Judicial Council. Neither a retired preacher, nor one in any other ministerial relationship, has an inherent right to serve on some Board or Commission. No one has such a right. As Bishop Harrell so aptly says: "The law of the Church grants to the Annual Conference the privilege and responsibility of naming the members of its Boards and Commissions, with certain directions and restrictions." It is not under necessity to name, in whole or in part, the members who fall under any group of ministerial relations, but may exclude any bloc which it thinks either incompetent or deserving of relief from the active duties of both the ministry and membership.

I think the "Standing Rule," referred to above, is legal, but I am equally sure that it is of doubtful propriety. The entire spirit of Methodism leads it to deal with its ministers as individuals, rather than as blocs or groups. An applicant is licensed to preach as an individual; he is received on trial into the traveling connection as an individual; he is received into full connection as an individual; he is ordained a deacon and/or an elder as an individual; he is granted a sabbatical leave as an individual; he is granted a supernumerary relation as an individual; he is granted a superannuate relation (except in the case of those falling under Paragraph 368) as an individual; he must annually pass an examination of character as an individual. For an Annual Conference to set up legislation whereby it deals with its ministerial members as groups or blocs, seems to me to lean toward bureaucratic, rather than democratic, procedure.

I join with the majority of the members of the Judicial Council in affirming the decision of Bishop Harrell, but I do so regretfully, remembering a saying of St. Paul's: "All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient."

In Re: Annual Recommendations for District Superintendents' Support, Paragraph 788

DIGEST OF CASE

In Annual Conferences which provide for support of District Superintendents according to Paragraph 788 of the 1944 Discipline, the amount of such support (including salary and allowances) and the apportionments thereof, must be recommended annually by the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, and may not be regulated by a Standing Rule of the Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Acting under the provisions of Paragraph 631, 1944 Discipline, by which an Annual Conference may make Standing Rules for its procedure, provided they are not contrary to the Constitution and legislation of the Church, the North Alabama Conference did, in regular session assembled, October 26, 1945, on motion duly made, seconded, and carried, amend Rule 9 of its Standing Rules to read, as finally agreed upon, as follows:

"9. District Superintendents' Support. (1) The maximum salary of the District Superintendents of the North Alabama Conference shall be $5,000 annually.

"(2) A sum equal to 8-1/3 per cent of the pastors' salaries shall be apportioned, collected as for pastors, and sent to the Conference Treasurer, who shall pay to each District Superintendent $350 monthly, for eleven months, borrowing if necessary; for the twelfth month the Conference Treasurer shall pay to each District Superintendent the balance of his salary.

"(3) District Stewards shall provide District Parsonages and their upkeep." (Journal of North Alabama Conference, 1945, pages 3, 49, 51.)"

At the same session of the North Alabama Conference (1945) the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance made no recommendation concerning District Superintendents' support. The Chairman of the Commission has asked for a ruling on the following point: Is the support of District Superintendents provided for from year to year under Rule 9 for the North Alabama Conference, or shall the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance make recommendations to the Conference each year for the action and determination of the said Conference?

The Discipline provides two methods by either of which provision may be made for a "sufficient and equitable support for the District Superintendents":

(1) A common fund, raised throughout the Conference, and out of which all the District Superintendents of the Conference severally receive their support. (Paragraph 788); (2) A fund raised and administered "in each of the several Districts" "through the Board of District Stewards." (Paragraph 789.) The North Alabama Conference has elected to follow the plan first above mentioned, and therefore our method and procedure in the matter of District Superintendents' support must be in harmony with Paragraph 788, which is as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, unless otherwise provided (Par. 789) to estimate the total amount necessary to furnish a sufficient and equitable support for the District Superintendents of the Conference, including salary and suitable provision for dwelling, travel, and office expense. The Commission shall recommend to the Annual Conference for its action and determination the amount estimated, including the salary and other allowances specified above, for each of the several District Superintendents. The Commission shall also recommend to the Annual Conference for its action and determination the basis and method by which the total amount shall be apportioned to the Districts or charges in harmony with Paragraph 802. The Conference Treasurer shall, as far as practicable, remit monthly to the several District Superintendents the amounts due them, respectively, and with the approval of the Conference the Commission on World Service and Finance, or the Treasurer, as the Conference may determine, may borrow the funds necessary to make this possible."

RULING OF THE BISHOP

The presiding Bishop, Costen J. Harrell, ruled as follows: Rule 9 violates Paragraph 788 in the following particulars:

1. It is the intent and purpose of Paragraph 788 that the salary of the District Superintendents shall be estimated and recommended annually. The words "at each session of the Annual Conference" (Paragraph 786) are applicable to Paragraphs 787 and 788. The current funds of the Church are estimated and apportioned on an annual basis. (Paragraphs 738, 782, 786, 787, 785, 784.) The support of District Superintendents, by every interpretation of our Church law, is, as other current funds of the Church, to be estimated annually, otherwise great injury might be done the Superintendents.

2. Paragraph 788 further provides that the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall in its annual report estimate and recommend to the Conference a definite salary for each District Superintendent. Rule 9 does not indicate a definite salary, but only a maximum salary.

3. The procedure by which the support of District Superintendents is to be considered by the Annual Conference is clearly stated in Paragraph 788. This question of their support is not properly before the Conference for its action until the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance has made its recommendations. It is the clear intent of the law that the Commission shall be a body of review to consider all the financial obligations assumed by the Conference and to make its recommendations, in order that the Conference may act intelligently and justly with reference to all the causes appealing for support, whether regular causes or extraordinary causes. (Paragraphs 780-788 and Paragraph 795.)

4. Paragraph 788 provides that "the Conference Treasurer shall, as far as practicable, remit monthly to the several District Superintendents the amounts due them, respectively." Rule 9 on the contrary limits monthly payments made to the District Superintendents whether the funds are available or not.

For these reasons it is ruled that Rule 9, Articles 1 and 2 are contrary to Paragraph 788, 1944 Discipline, and therefore are deleted from the Standing Rules of the North Alabama Conference. The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance is required by the provisions of the Discipline to make recommendations annually concerning District Superintendents' support for the action and determination of the Conference.

Article 3 of the said Rule 9, to wit: "District Stewards shall provide District parsonages and their upkeep" is in harmony with the law of the Church and powers granted unto the Annual Conferences, and therefore is not deleted from the Standing Rules.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The foregoing ruling of the presiding Bishop in the North Alabama Conference is hereby affirmed.

Re: The Decision of Bishop Magee in the Illinois Annual Conference, on the Right of Annual Conference to Make Appropriations Out of Its Benevolence Funds to Organizations on the Governing Boards of which the Annual Conference Has No Representation

DIGEST OF CASE

An Annual Conference may by proper action make appropriations from Conference Funds to institutions or organizations on the governing Boards of which the Annual Conference is not represented by Trustees, Directors or other officials.

REQUEST FOR RULING

The following request was presented at the Illinois Conference which met at Jacksonville, Illinois. It was presented at the morning session Saturday, June 15, 1946. It reads as follows:

"In view of the action which has just been taken placing the Student Foundation at St. Paul's Church, Chicago, and the student work at Northwestern University on the list of Conference benevolences of the Illinois Conference, an action with the spirit of which we are in complete accord, the Board of Education desires to ask a ruling from the Bishop as to the right of the Annual Conference to make such appropriations from Conference benevolence funds, in view of the fact that the Illinois Conference is not represented on the Governing Board of either of these organizations. (Paragraph 780 refers only to 'Conference causes' in speaking of the 'Conference benevolence budget.') (Paragraph 782 says that the Commission shall combine the 'World Service apportionment' with the 'Conference Benevolence Budget.')

RULING OF THE BISHOP

The reply which the presiding Bishop J. Ralph Magee made is as follows:

"In accordance with the request for a ruling on the above referring to Paragraphs 780 and 782 it is my judgment that these Paragraphs do not require Conference representation in all Boards of Agencies to which Conference benevolences are contributed."

Decision of the Judicial Council

This ruling has been properly certified to the Judicial Council and is now regularly before the Council for review. The ruling, having been given careful consideration by the Judicial Council, is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Titus Lowe in Indiana Annual Conference as to Fractional Years of Service Under Pension Regulations Interpreting Paragraph 1618 Discipline 1944

DIGEST OF CASE

The provision of Paragraph 1618, Discipline 1944, subsection (i) as to calculating years of service of a Conference claimant, covers "all cases" and refers to all service of retired ministers, irrespective of whether before or after the year 1944.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

During the Indiana Annual Conference held in the Summer of 1946, A. M. Brown, Chairman of the Board of Conference Claimants, presented the following Resolution which was adopted. (See Indiana Annual Conference Year Book 1946, pp. 442-443.)

"Forasmuch as there is much complaint and dissatisfaction in the Indiana Conference relative to only three-fourths annuity year being allowed for the short nine-months year served in 1941-42 when the Conference session was changed from Fall to Spring;

"Forasmuch as there is nothing in the Discipline to indicate what constitutes a legal year of service, the time between sessions of an Annual Conference, or the 12 months year, as allowed by the Board of Pensions in Chicago;

"Forasmuch as we have a Judicial Decision, Par. 1337, page 477 of the 1940 Discipline, which allows a full year to one who entered a Spring Conference and retired in the Fall, a seven-month period;

"Forasmuch as men who were in the course of study and on trial were allowed a full year for their work;

"Forasmuch as no man in the Indiana Conference who was serving at the time of the nine-months year and who retired in the said Conference can ever work out a full calendar year, as the law will not permit a man to be retired between sessions of the Annual Conference;

"We request our Bishop to make a formal interpretation at this 1946 session of the Annual Conference of Paragraph 1618, Article 5, Section 1 of the 1944 Discipline. The question is: "Is a 'year of approved service' to be interpreted as meaning full-time service rendered under appointment between sessions of an Annual Conference, even if that time should be more or less than 12 calendar months?" An interpretation is likewise requested of Paragraph 1618, Section 2, subsection (h). The question is, "Is the legislation of this section retroactive?"

INTERPRETATION OF BISHOP TITUS LOWE

Question 1, "Is a 'year of approved service' to be interpreted as meaning full-time service rendered under appointment between sessions of an Annual Conference, even if that time should be more or less than 12 calendar months?"

Bishop Lowe's answer to Question No. 1, "It is."

Question No. 2, "Is the legislation of this section retroactive?"

Bishop Lowe's answer to Question No. 2, "It is not."

Decision of the Judicial Council

The above quoted interpretations by Bishop Lowe are properly before the Judicial Council for review under Paragraph 43, Section 3, "To pass upon decisions of law by Bishops in Annual or District Conferences."

Paragraph 1618, Article 5, of the Discipline 1944, reads in part as follows:

"1. The term 'years of approved service' shall mean full-time service rendered in and to any appointment mentioned in Section 2 of this Article. Part-time service cannot be counted for Annuity claim except by a three-fourths vote of the Annual Conference upon recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants.

"2. The following years of approved service in the effective relation in an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, as defined in Section 8 of this Article, may be counted for the purpose of determining both the annuity claims and the annuities payable thereon.

"(i) In calculating fractional years of service of a Conference Claimant, the following formula shall be used in all cases including those involved in clearinghouse operations: Any period up to one month and fourteen days shall not be counted; one month and fifteen days to four months and fourteen days shall be counted as one-quarter of a year; four months and fifteen days to seven months and fourteen days shall be counted as one-half of a year; seven months and fifteen days to ten months and fourteen days shall be counted as three-quarters of a year; ten months and fifteen days to eleven months and twenty-nine days shall be counted as one year. Each of the above-mentioned periods shall be inclusive of all days therein."

In 1944 a general pension code was established effective in both the Illinois and Missouri Corporation territories and thus universally applicable within the Church.

After the General Conference of 1944, records of ministerial service for the two territories were changed in accordance with the above-mentioned regulations regarding "fractional years."

Without this rule ministers serving for example a seven-months year (in cases in which this was a change from a Fall to a Spring Conference) would receive credit for twelve months. If this kind of situation were to occur in an individual case more than once, on account of transfer to another Conference, the minister could finish with more years of service to his credit than he could possibly have served counting on an actual calendar year basis, which would naturally be inequitable.

The Judicial Decision referred to in the resolution as Paragraph 1337 of the 1940 Discipline on Page 477 is no longer in effect. Some of the Judicial Decisions quoted in Paragraph 1337 of the 1940 Discipline were retained in the 1944 Discipline under Paragraph 1630 under the caption of "General Regulations" and were enacted as part of the legislation rather than as decisions. This particular decision above referred to was dropped by the General Conference of 1944 in view of the distinct conflict with the legislation contained in Paragraph 1618, Section 2 (i) of the 1944 Discipline.

The words "in all cases" as used in Paragraph 1618, Section 2 (i) show clearly the scope intended by the General Conference and are determinative of the questions at issue. Those words are specific and must refer to all service of retired ministers, irrespective of whether before or after 1944.

From the foregoing it necessarily follows that both of the rulings of the Bishop were in error and must now be and hereby are reversed.

In Re: Appeal of Edwin L. Morgan From Judgment of Committee on Appeals, Southeastern Jurisdiction

DIGEST OF CASE

A minister tried in the year 1941, in accordance with the provisions of the 1940 Discipline, and the judgment of the trial court affirmed by the Jurisdictional Committee of Appeals in 1942, which judgment became final under the provisions of the Discipline, may not appeal to the Judicial Council to review the case for alleged errors of law under the provisions of Paragraphs 1033 and 1045, Discipline 1944, which legislation was enacted in 1944 to cover cases decided after said Paragraph became effective; and therefore such an attempted appeal was dismissed.

History of the Case

Edwin L. Morgan, then a member of the Memphis Conference, was brought to trial in October, 1941, according to the procedure prescribed by the 1940 Discipline. The trial was presided over by the late Bishop J. L. Decell. The charge was immoral conduct on specifications alleging issuance and cashing of a number of worthless checks.

At the conclusion of the trial, the defendant was found guilty as charged and the penalty fixed was deposition from the ministry. The verdict of the Trial Committee was unanimous.

An appeal was then taken to the Committee on Appeals of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, under the provisions of Paragraphs 694-97, Discipline, 1940. This appeal was heard on April 13, 1942, and the judgment of the trial court was affirmed.

No further action was taken by the Appellant until March, 1947, when the transcript of the record of the trial before the Conference Trial Court was filed with the Secretary of the Judicial Council and exceptions thereto filed by Counsel for the Appellant.

It is to be particularly noted that the Defendant was tried and found guilty in the year 1941, and that the decision of the Jurisdictional Committee of Appeals was rendered in the year 1942. The Discipline of 1940, Paragraph 694, provided that decisions of Jurisdictional Committees on Appeals should be final, and no right of appeal to the Judicial Council then existed, except in cases of conflict of decisions between two Jurisdictions.

In 1944, the General Conference enacted new legislation, and provided for an appeal as to matters of law in cases of this character from the Jurisdictional Court of Appeals (see Paragraphs 1033 and 1045, Discipline 1944); provided the procedural steps therein set forth be complied with by the appellant. As there was no right of appeal when the Committee of Appeals affirmed the Judgment of the Trial Committee in this case, and it became final, the subsequent enactment of laws allowing such appeals afforded this defendant no right to appeal the decision rendered in 1942. Laws are always to be regarded as prospective in their operation, and never retroactive unless they are clearly and explicitly made retroactive by the terms of the act.

The appellate features of Paragraphs 1033 and 1045 are all prospective and provide for appeals in cases decided after said paragraphs became effective.

Decision of the Judicial Council

It is apparent that we have no jurisdiction of this attempted appeal, and we are under the necessity of dismissing the appeal.

It is accordingly dismissed.

In Re: Petition of Bishops of Western Jurisdiction as to Assignment of a Bishop to Supervision of Missions

DIGEST OF CASE

A Jurisdictional Conference has the right under Paragraph 440, Discipline 1944, to assign a Bishop to the supervision of Mission Conferences and Provisional Annual Conferences, even though the geographical territory covered by such Mission and Provisional Conferences may overlap the geographical territory assigned to other Bishops, as there is nothing in the Discipline that would limit the phrase "Episcopal Area" as used in Paragraph 440, to a geographical definition.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Bishops James C. Baker, Wilbur E. Hammaker and Bruce R. Baxter, being all the Bishops of the Western Jurisdiction, presented to the Judicial Council a petition for a Declaratory Decision, with respect to the right of the Jurisdictional Conference, under the authority granted to the Jurisdiction and to the Bishops in The Constitution, Paragraph 37, Article IV, and in Paragraph 440 of the 1944 Discipline, to "legally assign a Bishop to the supervision of The Missions and The Provisional Annual Conferences within the territory of the United States, when the territory that is covered by these groups would overlap the territory of another Bishop."

Paragraph 914, Discipline 1944 provides: "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any Paragraph or Paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, any authority in the Church affected thereby that would have the right to appeal thereon to the Judicial Council under the law of the Church from any action of any Conference, ruling of a Bishop or any Board, Commission or body of the Church, may petition the Judicial Council for a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation, or Paragraph or Paragraphs of the Discipline."

The petition submitted by the unanimous action of the Bishops of the Western Jurisdiction for a Declaratory Decision is in harmony with the provisions of this Paragraph 914 since the Bishops of a Jurisdiction are an authority in the Church that would be affected by a Decision with respect to the meaning of these Paragraphs and they have the right of appeal. Their petition is therefore properly before the Judicial Council for consideration and decision.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The Constitution, Paragraph 37, Article IV, states:

"The Bishops of each Jurisdictional and Central Conference shall arrange the plan of Episcopal Supervision of the Annual Conferences, Mission Conferences and Missions within their respective territories."

Paragraph 440 of the 1944 Discipline reads:

"Each Jurisdictional Conference may fix the Episcopal residences within its Jurisdiction and assign the Bishops to the same. The Bishops of the Jurisdiction shall fix the boundaries of the Episcopal Areas."

In their petition for a Declaratory Decision with respect to the rights and powers of the Jurisdictional Conference under these Paragraphs the Bishops set forth these facts:

1. The Western Jurisdiction, by act of the Uniting Conference was authorized to elect four Bishops.

2. Up to the present moment only three Bishops have been elected by the Western Jurisdiction to serve in that territory.

3. Since, in the Western Jurisdiction there are the Hawaii Mission, the Oriental Provisional Annual Conference, the Latin-American Provisional Annual Conference, the Japanese Provisional Annual Conference, the Alaska Mission, and the Utah Mission, in addition to the Annual Conferences, there is enough work of supervision to occupy fully the time and effort of a fourth Bishop.

4. There has been discussion of the possibility of electing a fourth Bishop to take over the Mission work and the Provisional Annual Conferences, but doubt as to the legality of assigning a Bishop to such supervision in cases where the territory covered by these groups overlaps territory assigned to the other Bishops.

After a careful study of the unqualified form in which power is granted in Paragraph 440 to the Jurisdictional Conference to fix the Episcopal residences within its Jurisdiction, and to the Bishops to fix the boundaries of the Episcopal Areas and to arrange the plan of Episcopal supervision, the Judicial Council can find no valid reason for denying to a Jurisdictional Conference the right to assign a Bishop to the supervision of the Mission Conferences and the Provisional Annual Conferences, if it desires to do that, even though the territory covered by these Missions and Provisional Annual Conferences would overlap the territory assigned to the other Bishops. It is further the judgment of the Judicial Council that there is nothing in these Paragraphs that would limit the phrase "Episcopal Areas" as used in Paragraph 440, to a geographical definition. A functional definition of Episcopal supervision, where such is desired, is quite within the rights of the Jurisdictional Conference.

It is therefore the opinion of the Judicial Council that such an assignment of Episcopal supervision would be legal and not in violation of the Constitution of The Methodist Church. April 24, 1947.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Arthur F. Wesley in the River Plate Annual Conference as to Time Requirements for Preachers on Trial Before Admission into Full Connection
Interpreting Paragraph 341
Discipline 1944

DIGEST OF CASE

The proviso in Paragraph 341, Discipline 1944, as to admission into full connection in the Annual Conference of one who while a student has been regularly appointed as pastor, does not eliminate the two-year trial period as required by the first part of this Paragraph.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

During the session of the River Plate Annual Conference held January 18, 1948, at Buenos Aires, Argentina, Bishop Arthur F. Wesley decided, on the basis of the latter portion of Paragraph 341 of the 1944 Discipline, that the reception into full membership of the Conference of several seminary students who had spent "the proper length of time" (two years) under the regular appointment in a circuit, was in order. These students were received on trial at the same Conference session at which they were later received into full connection. Bishop Wesley, who was the presiding Bishop, considered that they had fulfilled the time period requirement of service.

The Conference voted that this ruling should be referred to the Judicial Council for their decision.

Decision of the Judicial Council

This ruling is properly before the Judicial Council for review both as an appeal from a Bishop's decision under Paragraph 43, Section 2 and as passing upon a decision of law made by a Bishop at an Annual Conference under Paragraph 43, Section 2.

Paragraph 341 of the 1944 Discipline reads as follows:
Admission into Full Connection

"Paragraph 341. A preacher on trial who has been appointed in the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations, or as an instructor in one of our institutions of learning, for two successive years from the time he was received on trial, may be admitted into full connection in the Annual Conference after he has given satisfactory evidence of his knowledge of the subjects covered in the first two years of the Conference course of study, and after the examination before the Conference prescribed in Paragraph 343 of this Chapter; provided this shall not be so construed as to prevent the admission into full connection of one who, while a student in any college or theological seminary of The Methodist Church approved by the authorized standardizing agency, or other evangelical theological seminary of equal rank, has been for the proper length of time regularly appointed as pastor in a circuit or station under the appointment of the District Superintendent."

Both from a historical viewpoint and from a reading of the above Paragraph it is clear that before a preacher may be admitted into full connection in the Annual Conference he must first have been received on trial, and have remained on trial for at least two successive years prior to the date of his admission into full connection.

The proviso in this Paragraph does not eliminate the time requirement but simply provides that being a student does not prevent him from at the same time serving his two-year trial period as a pastor under appointment of the District Superintendent.

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the decision of the Bishop was not in accord with the provisions of the Discipline and it is hereby reversed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop C. C. Seceman in the North Texas Annual Conference Relating to Assessment of the Conference for Conference Claimants, Under Pars. 1618, 1623, and 1624 of the Discipline

DIGEST OF CASE

None of the provisions of the Pension Code, with particular reference to Paragraphs 1618, 1623 and 1624, Discipline 1944, limit an Annual Conference, in making an apportionment for Conference Claimants, to an amount exactly necessary to meet the disbursements for that particular year; but under the provisions of Paragraph 1613 any excess amount raised by such an apportionment may be used to create a reserve fund for future years.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Journal of the North Texas Annual Conference held at Dallas, Texas, June 4 to 8, 1947, Page 49, contains the following:

A letter was read by the Bishop which had been given to him by George C. French, relative to an Episcopal decision is as follows:

Dear Bishop Seceman:

As provided for in our 1944 Discipline, Paragraph 40, I am herewith asking for your official ruling on a matter growing out of the action taken by the North Texas Annual Conference (over which you are presiding) in this session Saturday afternoon, June 7, 1947.

The following provisions are found in our 1944 Discipline:

Paragraph 1618, Article 5, Section 5—"The annuity rate shall mean the sum determined annually by the Annual Conference, payable as an annuity, for each approved service year of a retired minister, rendered in The Methodist Church. The annuity rate shall be determined by the Annual Conference without restriction. . . ."

Paragraph 1623, Article 10, Section 1—"After the annuity rate payable has been determined by the Annual Conference on recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants, the said Board shall compute the amount necessary to meet the prospective annuity, according to the annuity rate determined, and said amount shall be apportioned to the pastoral charges, either as a percentage of the pastor's cash salary or on the basis of a graduate scale, to be determined by the Conference."

Paragraph 1624, Article 11, Section 1—"The amount payable by any pastoral charge, on the apportionment for Conference Claimants shall be directly proportionate to the amount of cash received by the pastor or pastors, on his salary. The apportionment for Conference Claimants being stated as a percentage on the pastor's salary, an amount equivalent to the percentage shall be paid to the Board of Conference Claimants on the basis of the payments made to the pastors." And from Section 2—"The amount apportioned to each pastoral charge for the support of Conference Claimants shall be paid to the Conference Treasurer monthly or quarterly, and the Conference Treasurer shall remit monthly to the treasurer of the Board of Conference Claimants all amounts received from the pastoral charge for the support of conference claimants."

The North Texas Annual Conference by its actions yesterday did the following:

1. It fixed the annuity rate at sixteen dollars.
2. It ordered that sums be apportioned to the pastoral charges and to be paid by them during the conference year 1947-48 for the support of Conference Claimants to the amount of 12½% of the amount paid on the pastors' salaries.
3. It also ordered that none of the increased incomes resulting from the payment of that 12½% shall be used for the benefit of any Conference Claimant during the Conference year 1947-48, but shall be held for the benefit of such Claimants during the Conference year 1948-49.

I claim that the provisions in the Discipline as cited above clearly require that such increases of income for the Board of Conference Claimants resulting from the payment by pastoral charges on the basis of 12½% of the pastor's salary when so apportioned, and so paid to the Annual Conference Claimants, should be used by that Board for the benefit of Conference Claimants during the Conference year 1947-48, and not held for the support of Conference Claimants during the Conference year 1948-49.

I am asking your official ruling on this point; when payments are made by pastoral charges on apportionments for the support of the Conference Claimants as above cited and provided for by the Annual Conference result in an increased amount being paid for the support of the Claimants, has the Annual Conference the right to deprive the Conference Claimants of the year 1947-48 the benefit of such an increase, and order that it be held for the benefit of the Conference Claimants of the Conference year 1948-49.

Signed,
GEO. C. FRENCH.

RULING OF THE BISHOP

"The North Texas Annual Conference acted within its rights as defined in the Discipline in this instance."

Signed,

CHARLES C. SELECMAN.

The decision of Bishop Selecman, as therein set forth, is properly before the Judicial Council for review.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The report of the Board of Conference Claimants, as set out on pages 86 and 87 of the Journal, contains the following provisions:

1. That the annuity rate for the ensuing Conference year, beginning July 1, 1947, be set at $16.00 per service year for the retired preachers and a proportionate amount for the widows.

2. That the Churches be assessed an amount equal to 12½% of the salary of the pastor and his assistant pastors in the hope that at the next Annual Conference we may be able to set the annuity rate at $20.00 per service year.

The report was adopted by the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 1616 of the 1944 Discipline of The Methodist Church reads as follows:

"Paragraph 1616, Article 3, Approval of Claim. The Annual Conference shall be the sole judge of the admissibility and validity of the annuity claims and shall be fully competent to determine all payments, disallowances, and deductions thereunder, subject to the specific regulations relating thereto contained in the Discipline."

We find no specific regulation in the Discipline prohibiting the Annual Conference from making an assessment in excess of the apportionments for the pending year. The claim of each retired minister is not based on the assessment. It is based on a specific formula set out in Par. 1619 of the Discipline, namely:

"The annuity claim of a retired minister shall be for an amount equivalent to the total years of approved service multiplied by the annuity rate as defined above," etc.

Paragraph 1623, Article 10, requires that an apportionment be made to the pastoral charges in "the amount necessary to meet the prospective annuity disbursement according to the annuity rate determined."

It is true that this particular provision does not specifically authorize an apportionment in excess of the amount necessary to meet the prospective annuity disbursement for that particular year. On the other hand it does not specifically prohibit such excess apportionment.

However, under the provisions of sub-division 10, of Paragraph 1613, the Conference Board of Claimants and the Annual Conference had ample authority for doing what they did in this instance. That provision reads as follows:

"Paragraph 1613, Article 10. When it is deemed expedient, the Board of Conference Claimants may build up a reserve fund from the income for Conference Claimants in order to stabilize the annuity rate payable in the Conference. Such reserve fund should be, at least, the equivalent of twenty-five per cent of the annual income of the Board of Conference Claimants for all purposes for the five years immediately preceding. Such reserve fund shall be held as the Annual Conference shall direct."

This reserve is to be built up "from the income from Conference Claimants." The payments made by charges on the apportionments for Conference Claimants constitute the major portion of the "income for Conference Claimants." How could a surplus be built up from such income unless the apportionments are made to exceed the prospective annuity disbursements of a particular year?

It appears in this instance that the Board of Conference Claimants and the North Texas Annual Conference were undertaking to stabilize the annuity rate on a higher level than that previously existing in that Conference and were wholly within their rights in taking an action now under consideration.

The ruling of Bishop Selecman, as set forth, is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop William C. Martin at 1947 Session of Nebraska Annual Conference Relat- ing to Payment of Pastors' Expenses as Affected by Provisions of Par. 1624, Art. 11, Sec. 4 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church in the Year 1944

DIGEST OF CASE

An allowance for "travel expenses" to pastors is not to be regarded as supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment under the terms of Paragraph 1624, Discipline 1944; provided always that such item represents an actual expense for the purpose stated, and is not a cover-up for additional salary paid to the Pastor.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At its 1946 session the Nebraska Conference adopted the following Resolution:

"Whereas Paragraph 1624, Article 11, Section 4 of the Discipline of 1944, does not specify or define the meaning of 'supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment.'

"And, whereas the Nebraska Annual Conference has adopted a Resolution which states: 'All Churches in the Nebraska Annual Conference be permitted to allow an expense account for the pastor's automobile. This account shall not be counted as salary nor be subject to "pro rata" apportionment.'

"And, whereas, it is currently reported that Churches in the Nebraska Conference are making payments to pastors in addition to reported cash salaries and are designating such payments as 'Expense Allowance' or by some similar nomenclature and are not making proportional payments of such sums paid to pastors as provided in Paragraph 803 of the Discipline of 1944.

"And, whereas, it is desirable and necessary to determine the legality of the Resolution adopted by the Nebraska Annual Conference permitting an expense account for the pastor's automobile which shall not be counted as salary, nor be subject to 'pro rata' apportionment and also to determine if such payments under those conditions and/or the receiving of money by pastors under 'Expense Accounts' render a pastor liable to the responsibilities and penalty provided in Paragraph 1624, Article 11, Sections 3 and 4, and Paragraph 1630, Article 17, Section 2, all of the Discipline of 1944.

"Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Nebraska Annual Conference request Bishop William C. Martin to secure through the Council of Bishops and/or the Judicial Council, or in whatever may be the legal and appropriate manner, a ruling on the points covered above and to transmit the same to the Annual Conference of 1947."

The question submitted is whether or not the allowance for travel expense to pastors which was authorized by the Nebraska Conference at its 1946 session is to be regarded as "supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment."

RULING OF THE BISHOP

Thereupon the Bishop ruled as follows:

"Such allowance for Expense to Pastors is not to be regarded as supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment."

This interpretation is based largely upon the following statement which was made to the General Conference by Dr. Thomas A. Stafford, Secretary of the Board of Pensions, Illinois Corporation, in explanation of the legislation which was then under consideration:

"I think it should be understood clearly what is meant by the word 'bonus.' It does not have any reference to a man's expense account at all. It is an additional payment on salary that is concealed through some conspiracy or arrangement between the people on the local charge and the minister so that he receives more salary than he reports, the idea being to keep down the apportionment for Conference Claimants. That is all that is involved. It doesn't involve expense accounts or anything of that kind." (Proceedings of the Forty-first General Conference of The Methodist Church, 1944, page 118, column 1.)

On the facts set forth in this case, the Judicial Council affirms the ruling as aforesaid. It should be said, however, that in the legislation on this subject matter in the 1944 Discipline, as well as any probable future legislation relating to the same, it should be borne in mind that every case must be decided on its facts, and that the rule to be applied is whether or not any "expense" item, no matter what the same includes, must not be a cover-up for additional salary or compensation paid the pastor.

With this understanding, the ruling of the Bishop is affirmed.

In Re: Appeal by Quarterly Conference of First Methodist Church of North Little Rock, Ark., As to Advancements from the Board of Church Extension

DIGEST OF CASE

The Quarterly Conference of a local Church may not appeal to the Judicial Council, nor petition for a Declaratory Decision, as it is not an "Authority in the Church that would have the right of appeal," under the provisions of Paragraph 914, Discipline 1944.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

From time to time from 1913 to 1919 the Board of Church Extension (M. E. Church, South) advanced certain sums for the building and improvement of a church in North Little Rock, Ark. As evidence of these advancements the local church executed three instruments which were recorded in the Public Recorder's Office of Pulaski County, Ark., referring to these advancements as "conditional donations," the church agreeing to repay same if the property ceased to be used for church purposes. In 1947 the local church purchased a more desirable site for a new church, and proposed to sell the old church property. The Board of Church Extension was requested to transfer the liens from the old church to the new church property, but refused to do so in the manner requested. Thereupon the Quarterly Conference of said First Church of North Little Rock, Ark., appealed to the Judicial Council.

This appeal is an attempt by a Quarterly Conference of a local church to secure a Declaratory Decision under the provisions of Paragraph 914 of the Discipline 1944. The right of appeal is granted therein to "Any authority in the Church affected thereby that would have the right to appeal thereon to the Judicial Council."

Following the precedent in other cases, particularly, In Re: Powers of Trustees Fourth Street First Methodist Church, Wheeling, West Va., reported in Judicial Council Decision 29, the Judicial Council holds that the Quarterly Conference is not such a body as may appeal, and accordingly the case is dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

In Re: Right of Central Conference Bishop to Vote
In the Council of Bishops

DIGEST OF CASE

The provisions of Paragraph 555, Discipline 1944, giving a Central Conference Bishop the right to vote in the Council of Bishops "whenever the interest of his Central Conference, or the interests common to all Central Conferences are involved," is Constitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a session held May 6, 1948, the General Conference by proper action under the provisions of Paragraph 43, Discipline 1944, requested the Judicial Council to determine the Constitutionality of the last phrase of Paragraph 555, Discipline 1944, which reads as follows: "A Bishop elected by a Central Conference shall have a membership in the Council of Bishops, and shall have the privilege of full participation with vote in the meeting of the Council whenever the interest of his Central Conference or the interests common to all Central Conferences are involved."

Decision of the Judicial Council

The Constitution, Paragraph 20, Section 2, provides as follows: "The Bishops of the Central Conferences shall have membership in the Council of Bishops with vote limited to matters relating to their respective Central Conferences."

Since the interests common to all are important and are related to each, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the phrase quoted from Paragraph 555 is Constitutional. May 6, 1948.

In Re: Re-enactment of Enabling Acts Adopted
By General Conference of 1940 and 1944

DIGEST OF CASE

Enabling Acts, adopted in 1940, and in 1944, as to continuing the corporate life or operation of various Corporations, Boards and other Agencies of the Church, where the incomplete status still continues, do not need to be re-enacted in 1948, as this legislation, unless specifically limited as to time, is in effect until repealed or amended.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the General Conference, May 6, 1948, the Committee on Enabling Acts and Legal Forms moved that Judicial Council be asked for a Declaratory Decision as to whether or not certain Enabling Acts adopted by the General Conference of 1940 and re-enacted by the General Conference of 1944, should again be re-enacted by the General Conference of 1948. These Enabling Acts appear as Paragraphs 1634, 1635, 1636, 1639, 1641, 1643, 1646, 1648, 1649, 1650 and 1651 of the 1940 Discipline. The General Conference so ordered.

Generally speaking these Enabling Acts provided that various Corporations, Boards, and other Agencies of the three Uniting Churches of 1939 should continue to operate under existing charters and until all property held should be transferred to their successors and other corporate purposes fully completed. Just what are the facts as to each and all of these various Corporations and Agencies does not appear of record, but it is assumed that the incomplete status still continues.

The legislation of the General Conference of 1940 and 1944, unless specifically limited as to time, is in effect until repealed or amended. This principle applies to these Enabling Acts. Wherefore, based upon the foregoing statement, the decision of the Judicial Council is that it is not now necessary to re-enact the foregoing Enabling Acts at the 1948 session of the General Conference.

In Re: Constitutionality of Report No. 6 of the Committee on Conferences, Calendar No. 115, General Conference 1948, As to Change of Jurisdictional Boundaries

DIGEST OF CASE

When the procedure provided by the Constitution for making changes in Jurisdictional Conference boundaries has been complied with, the enactment of legislation by the General Conference making such boundary changes is Constitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Report No. 6 of the Committee on Conferences (Calendar No. 115) was adopted by the General Conference this afternoon, May 6, 1948, and was immediately referred by the proper vote of the General Conference to the Judicial Council for determination of its constitutionality.

The memorial adopted by the General Conference reads as follows:

"We hereby memorialize the General Conference of The Methodist Church to be held in 1948 to change the boundaries of the Central Jurisdictional Conference and the boundaries of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference so that the New York and New York East Annual Conferences shall have the authority to organize and promote new Negro work, which work, when organized, shall be within the geographical boundaries of the Conference in which it is organized, and shall be constituent churches thereof, said boundary change to be effected without infringement of the rights or opportunity of the Delaware Conference to organize and promote Negro work anywhere within its boundaries."

Changes in the boundaries of Jurisdictional Conferences, under the Constitution, can be made by the General Conference only upon the consent of a majority of the Annual Conferences of each of the Jurisdictional Conferences involved. (Paragraph 28, Article III, the Discipline.)

The Secretary of the General Conference has furnished to the Judicial Council Certificates from a majority of the Annual Conferences of these two Jurisdictions showing that this proposed change in boundaries has received the approval of these Annual Conferences in both the Central Jurisdiction and the Northeastern Jurisdiction.

Since the procedure provided in the Constitution for the making of changes in the boundaries of Jurisdictional Conferences has been fully complied with, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the above quoted action of the General Conference changing the boundaries of the Central Jurisdictional Conference of The Methodist Church is constitutional.

In Re: Change of West Texas Annual Conference Boundaries, Constitutionality of Report No. 4 Committee on Conferences, General Conference 1948

DIGEST OF CASE

Under the Constitutional provisions contained in Paragraph 8, Section 12, Discipline 1944, the General Conference may change the boundaries of Jurisdictional Conferences only by consent of a majority of the Annual Conferences in each Jurisdiction as therein prescribed. Accordingly any legislation attempted by General Conference without complying with these provisions is invalid.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the General Conference of May 6, 1948, Report No. 4 of the Committee on Conferences, Serial Number 74, Daily Christian Advocate, Page 193, was adopted, and immediately thereafter was referred by the proper vote to the Judicial Council to determine its constitutionality.

The report so adopted was as follows:

"Amend Part IX, Chapter II, Section III, Paragraph 1784 of the 1944 Discipline, deleting the last two words which are 'and Arizona' so that Paragraph 1784 amended shall read:

"West Texas Conference shall embrace the Negro work in that part of Texas which is not included in the Texas Conference of this Jurisdiction, and shall include any Negro mission work that may be established in New Mexico."

Decision of the Judicial Council

The legal effect of this proposal would be to change Annual Conference and Jurisdictional Conference boundaries by allocating to the territory of the Southern California-Arizona Conference of the Western Jurisdiction, a Negro church or churches heretofore included in the West Texas Conference of the Central Jurisdiction.

The definite provisions which must be fully complied with in order to change boundaries of Jurisdictional Conferences are found in the Constitution of The Methodist Church. See Paragraph 8, Article IV, Section 12, and Paragraph 28, Article III. These provisions distinctly provide that no such change may be effected without the consent of a majority of the Annual Conferences of each Jurisdiction involved.

As this present procedure represented by Committee on Conferences Report No. 4, does not comply with the foregoing Constitutional provisions, the decision of the Judicial Council is that this legislation is invalid.

In Re: Fixing Boundaries of Episcopal Areas, Constitutionality of Provision Requiring Consent of Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy

DIGEST OF CASE

An amendment to Paragraph 440, Discipline 1944 which would require the consent of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy for fixing boundaries of Episcopal areas, is unconstitutional, as this power is reserved to the Bishops as a part of Episcopal administration under the Constitution.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the evening session of the General Conference on May 5, 1948, the Conference adopted Serial Report No. 51, being Report No. 4 of the Committee on Ministry, which is as follows:

"Part III, Section VI, Paragraph 440 shall have added, AFTER CONSULTATION WITH, AND WITH THE CONSENT OF THE JURISDICTIONAL COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY and shall be amended to read as follows:

"Paragraph 440. Each Jurisdictional Conference may fix the Episcopal residences within its Jurisdiction and assign the Bishops of the same. The Bishops of the Jurisdiction shall fix the boundaries of the Episcopal areas, AFTER CONSULTATION WITH, AND WITH THE CONSENT OF THE JURISDICTIONAL COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY."

Following the adoption of this Report the question of its constitutionality was raised, and by vote of the required number of the General Conference, was referred to the Judicial Council for a determination of its constitutionality. It is therefore properly before the Judicial Council for consideration.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Division Three of the Constitution deals with Episcopacy. Article I of that Division (Paragraph 34 of the Discipline of 1944) says:

"Article I. There shall be an Episcopacy in the Methodist Church of like plan, powers, privileges, and duties as now exist in the Methodist Episcopal Church and The Methodist Episcopal Church, South."

In The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, both law and practice committed to the Bishops of the Church the responsibility for planning and carrying out the Episcopal supervision of the Annual Conferences. In the Discipline of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for 1934, under Section I of Article Three, Question 5 reads: "What are the duties of a Bishop?" Answer 8, being Paragraph 131 of that issue of the Discipline, reads in part as follows:

"To provide, as far as possible, a uniform policy of administration, so as to secure true Church leadership."

No authority was granted to any other group or individual to plan this Episcopal administration.

In the Discipline of The Methodist Episcopal Church for 1936, Chapter V of the Appendix is entitled Episcopal Supervision. Paragraph 1531 says in part:

"Presidential Supervision is entirely in the control of the Bishops." Section 5 of this same Paragraph speaks of the assigning of Bishops to residences by the Committee on Episcopacy of the General Conference, but no other limitation is placed on the power of the Bishops to plan and to control the Area system of Episcopal Supervision.

Thus it would seem that the historic definition of the powers of Episcopacy includes the right to plan Area Boundaries and thus to provide for adequate Presidential Supervision of the Annual Conferences.

Article IV of Division Three of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 37 of the Discipline of 1944) provides:

"The Bishops of each Jurisdictional and Central Conference shall arrange the plan of Episcopal Supervision of the Annual Conferences, Mission Conferences, and Missions within their respective territories."

The meaning of this Paragraph becomes clear when we ask what activities the words, "arrange the plan of Episcopal Supervision," include. It does not include the fixing of boundaries, for the boundaries of the Jurisdictional Conferences are fixed by the General Conference Par. 8, Art. IV, Section 12), with the consent of a majority of the Annual Conferences in each Jurisdictional Conference involved; and the boundaries of the Annual Conferences are fixed by the Jurisdictional Conference (Par. 15, Art. V, Section 4). The Jurisdictional Conference and the Annual Conferences are fixed units with which the Bishops must deal in arranging a plan for Episcopal Supervision. The maximum number of Bishops in a Jurisdiction is determined by the General Conference (Par. 439). Therefore the plan referred to must be the plan for grouping the Annual Conferences and arranging for their Residential and Presidential Supervision by the number of Bishops available.

In implementing the plan of Episcopal Supervision arranged by the Bishops of a Jurisdiction, a Jurisdictional Conference may assign the individual Bishops of the Jurisdiction to residences, but no power is conferred by the Constitution upon a Jurisdictional Conference to modify the plan that the Bishops may devise for Episcopal Supervision. The authority conferred on the Jurisdictional Conference by Par. 15, Art. V, Sec. 5, "To make rules and regulations for the administration of the work of the Church within the Jurisdiction, subject to such powers as have been or shall be vested in the General Conferences," cannot abrogate the power clearly conferred on the Bishops by Article IV of Division Three, Paragraph 37, Discipline 1948.

It is within the right of the General Conference to request the Bishops to consult with the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy regarding the formation of Episcopal areas or to consider the recommendations of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, as has been done in Par. 532 of the Discipline of 1944, but it may not abrogate the powers of the Bishops at this point.

Report No. 4 of the Committee on Ministry, amending Par. 440 of the Discipline of 1944, so as to require the consent of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy for the fixing of the boundaries of the Episcopal areas, is therefore unconstitutional.

In Re: Special Act of General Conference Concerning Ordination of Elders in Germany Central Conference

DIGEST OF CASE

Under the Constitution, the General Conference has unlimited authority, inter alia, to define and fix the qualifications of elders and deacons, and accordingly a special act of the General Conference prescribing that in the Germany Central Conference the ordination of an elder may take the place of ordination as a deacon, and that the ordination as a deacon may be omitted, is constitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a session of the General Conference on May 7, 1948, there was adopted, on a memorial presented by the Germany Central Conference, Report No. 21, Committee on Ministry, Serial No. 157, Daily Christian Advocate, page 271, which amended Paragraph 579, Discipline 1944, relating to the ordination of ministers in a Central Conference by adding thereto the following: "or that the ordination of an elder may take the place of the ordination as deacon, and the ordination as deacon be omitted." The Report was amended so that it applies only to Germany Central Conference, and not to all Central Conferences. See Daily Christian Advocate, pages 418, 419. It was therefore enacted as special legislation only for Germany Central Conference.

The General Conference immediately after the adoption of the report, by the proper vote, referred this action to the Judicial Council to determine its constitutionality.

Decision of the Judicial Council

According to Par. 8, Art. IV, Sec. 2 of the Constitution, the General Conference has authority "To define and fix the qualifications and duties of elders, deacons, supply preachers, local preachers, exhorters, and deaconesses."

Section 14 of Par. 8, Art. IV provides that the General Conference has the authority "To enact such other legislation as may be necessary subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution of the Church."

Since there is no constitutional limitation on the power of the General Conference in this matter, this act, therefore, is constitutional.

Dissenting Opinion

J. Stewart French dissents on the ground that The Methodist Church recognizes two orders in the ministry, deacons and elders, and neither may be omitted, nor one substituted for the other without doing violence to the historic position of The Methodist Church regarding ministerial orders. H. R. Van Deusen joins in this dissent. May 6, 1948.

In Re: Constitutionality of Affirmations of Faith

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Judicial Council has no jurisdiction to determine constitutionality of Affirmations of Faith.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a session of the General Conference May 6, 1948, on motion of Chester A. Smith, a Resolution was adopted as follows: "Resolved that there be submitted to the Judicial Council the following question: Was the action of the General Conference of 1944 in approving the second and third Affirmations of Faith as part of the Orders of Worship a violation of the constitution?" See Discipline 1944, pages 420 and 421.

The argument of the proponent as found on page 364, Daily Christian Advocate 1948, was that these Affirmations of Faith contravene the Articles of Religion which are a part of the Constitution.

Decision of the Judicial Council

It is the opinion of the Judicial Council that the Judicial Council was not set up as an interpreter of doctrine but as an interpreter of law from the strictly legal standpoint. Therefore we cannot see that any question of constitutionality is involved in the foregoing resolution and we accordingly hold that the Council has no jurisdiction over the subject matter therein contained.

In Re: Constitutionality of Clause in Par. 607, Discipline 1944, As to Election of Delegates to Jurisdictional Conferences by Provisional Annual Conferences

DIGEST OF DECISION

That portion of Paragraph 607, Discipline 1944, reading "and they (Provisional Annual Conferences) may elect one ministerial and one lay delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference" is unconstitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a session of the General Conference on May 7, 1948, Report No. 20, Committee on Conferences, Serial No. 207, Daily Christian Advocate, pages 279, 280, as amended, was adopted, and by vote of the General Conference, the Judicial Council was requested to determine the constitutionality of a portion of Paragraph 607, Discipline 1944. For a more complete statement as to the question involved, see Report No. 20 as printed in the Daily Christian Advocate, and also discussion of same, Daily Christian Advocate, page 383.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Report No. 20, Committee on Conferences, presented to the General Conference at the morning session on May 7, 1948, raised the question of the constitutionality of one clause in Paragraph 607, Discipline 1944, respecting the right of Provisional Annual Conferences to elect delegates to the Jurisdictional Conferences to which they belong.

Sec. 5 of this Report stated the doubt of the General Conference in these words: "If it is now unconstitutional, certain of the delegates who have been elected to forthcoming Jurisdictional Conferences are not qualified to be seated and should be informed as soon as possible."

By a vote of 627 to none the legislative portion of Report No. 20 was adopted. The question of constitutionality was then referred to the Judicial Council by a vote of the required number of the members of the General Conference. The question is therefore properly before the Judicial Council for determination.

It is evident on the basis of the clear language of the Constitution, as interpreted by the Judicial Council in a previous case, "In Re: Election of Delegates to Jurisdictional Conferences by Mission Conferences" May 2, 1940 (See Judicial Council Decision 5), that the clause in Par. 607 reading: "and they [Provisional Annual Conferences] may elect one ministerial and one lay delegate to the Jurisdictional Conferences" is unconstitutional, and that elections held under the supposed authority of this clause are not valid. In Re: The Appeal of the Council of Bishops to the a Declaratory Decision as to the Status of a Central Conference Bishop Who Fails of Re-election

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

A Central Conference Bishop whose term of office expires and he is not re-elected, is returned to membership in the Annual Conference of which he ceased to be a member when elected Bishop. His term of office expires at the close of the Central Conference at which his successor is elected, hence he would be entitled to participate as a Bishop in the consecration of his successor.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

D. D. Alejandro was elected a Bishop of the Philippines Central Conference for a term of four years with the privilege of re-election. He was not re-elected a Bishop of the Philippines Central Conference in 1948 when his term of office expired.

The matter properly comes before the Judicial Council at the request of the Council of Bishops for a Declaratory Decision as to the present status of Bishop D. D. Alejandro.

Decision of the Judicial Council

From the statement of facts accompanying the request coming from the Council of Bishops, it is clear that Bishop D. D. Alejandro was not retired by the Philippines Central Conference and it is, therefore, the Decision of the Judicial Council that upon the expiration of the term of office of D. D. Alejandro as Bishop of the Philippines Central Conference on November 14, 1948, the said D. D. Alejandro was no longer a Bishop but became a member of the Conference of which he ceased to be a member at the time of his election as Bishop. His term of office as Bishop expired at the close of the session of the Central Conference, and, therefore, he was fully entitled to participate in the consecration of the successor Philippines Central Conference Bishop. In Re: The Appeal of the Council of Bishops to the Judicial Council Concerning the Constitution-ality of Paragraph 901, Article 1 of the 1948
Discipline Which Reads, "Provided
However That as a Result of the Election Each Jurisdiction Shall Be Represented on the Council"

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

The act of the 1948 General Conference adding to Paragraph 901, Article 1 of the 1948 Discipline, the following clause: "Provided however that as a result of the election each Jurisdiction shall be represented on the Council" is constitutional. The decision is based on the interpretation that same refers to the manner of election and does not constitute any member of the Judicial Council as the representative of any particular group, section, Area or Jurisdiction. The Judicial Council is a judicial tribunal, and not a representative body as such. The members are to be free from any sectional interests and to serve the entire Church. Any other interpretation of the act in question would render it wholly unconstitutional.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Under the authority of Paragraph 904 of the 1948 Discipline which reads "The Judicial Council shall determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of a majority of the Council of Bishops, etc.," the conditions having been met, the appeal is properly before the Judicial Council.

Paragraph 42, Article 1, states: "There shall be a Judicial Council. The General Conference shall determine the number and qualifications of its members, their term of office, and the method of election, and the filling of vacancies."

The Judicial Council is not authorized to pass upon the wisdom or the unwisdom of the act included in Paragraph 901, Article 1, which was adopted by the General Conference in 1948. The Constitution does give authority (Paragraph 42, Article 1) to the General Conference to enact such legislation.

In this connection it is the decision of the Judicial Council that such a Council is in no way a representative body but is clearly a judicial tribunal under the plain provisions of the Constitution. The members must be left free from sectional or Jurisdictional interests. The Judicial Council concludes that the clause, "each Jurisdiction shall be represented on the Council," relates to the manner of selection of the members and does not constitute the members of the Judicial Council representatives of any group, section, Area, or Jurisdiction. Any other interpretation of this term now under consideration would render it wholly unconstitutional.

It is, therefore, the decision of the Judicial Council that the action of the General Conference now before us for review was and is constitutional.

NOTE: J. Ernest Wilkins voluntarily refrained from participating in the discussion in connection with this matter and from voting on the decision.

April 29, 1949.

Dissenting Decision

When the present Methodist Church came into being in 1939 a form of Church organization was set up quite distinct from that existing previously in the constituent Methodist bodies, inasmuch as it was based on a written Constitution. This written Constitution became a sacred compact between the then contracting parties, and must be strictly adhered to now by the United Church.

This Constitution set up three branches of Government, the Executive, the Legislative, and the Judicial, and to each branch of Government were granted certain powers with certain limitations. In the prior Church polity we were familiar with the Executive and the Legislative branches, but the Judicial was distinctly new, except for a short period in the M. E. Church, South from 1934 to 1939. Under the new form of Constitutional Church Government, this Judicial branch became highly essential, as it was granted the determination of all Constitutional questions, particularly whether any enactment of the Legislative branch contravenes the provisions of the Constitution.

The construction of Constitution is the peculiar province of the Courts, and to the Courts belongs the final decision. A Constitution should be construed as fundamental law and should be interpreted in such a manner as to carry out the broad general principles of the Government thereby set up, and must be so construed as to ascertain and give effect to the intent and purpose of the framers. The basic principle of construction is that, in ascertaining the meaning of a Constitution, it must be construed as a whole.

To arrive at any determination of this most important case, there should first be a very careful analysis of the provisions of the Constitution relating to the Judicial Council. It must be borne in mind that all the powers and the jurisdiction of the Judicial Council and all other matters relating to it are derived only from this Constitution, and that the General Conference has no right or power to enact any legislation relating thereto that is not in strict accord with the Constitution.

All these Constitutional provisions are contained in Division Four, Articles I, II and III, and a part of Article VII of Division Three. Therefore, any questions as to election of members of the Council or their powers, duties and procedure must be answered by a legal interpretation of these provisions, and these only.

The Constitutional provisions may be studied under three headings: (a) The composition of the Council, including method of election; (b) Powers and Duties; (c) Procedure.

(A) Composition of Council. The power to determine the number and "qualifications" of members, the terms of office and "Method of Election" is granted to the General Conference by Paragraph 42, Discipline 1948, being Article I of Division Four, of the Constitution. In enacting legislation pursuant to this provision the General Conference must act within the limits prescribed for any legislative body created by a written Constitution, so that any enactment which seeks to set down "qualifications of Members," or "Method of Election," must not do violence to any other provision of the Constitution, nor the Constitution as a whole.

(B) Powers of Judicial Council are specifically set forth in Article II, Division Four, of the Constitution (Discipline 1948, Paragraph 43), and the latter part of Paragraph 40. So far as these grants of power are specific, they cannot be altered by any action of the General Conference. Accordingly no legislation of the General Conference can add to nor take away any power granted by the Constitution, but simply implements such grants of powers. In addition to the specific powers so granted, the General Conference may confer on the Judicial Council "Other powers and duties" (Paragraph 43 [5]), which powers and duties of course must not conflict with the other provisions of the Constitution.

(C) Procedure. The Constitution further provides that the Judicial Council itself shall provide its own methods of organization and procedure. This grants to the Council the complete right to determine when and where it shall meet, as well as all other procedural matters such as adopting Rules of Court and the like.

It is, therefore, of great significance that our Church Constitution recognized a distinct separation of functions and powers of what in Civil Governments are generally known as the Executive, the Legislative, and the Judiciary. So far as our Church may be said to have any Executive Department this is represented by the Episcopacy, and the Legislative is represented by the Conferences, particularly the General Conference with the powers and duties therein prescribed. But by a new departure in Church law a distinct Department was created, "The Judiciary." The framers of this Constitution must be construed to have intended exactly what this purports to mean: that is to say, a separate Judicial branch of the Church, similar to the Judicial branch of Civil Governments, to be created and to function only in strict accord with the language of the Constitution.

By this questioned legislation the election of members of the Judicial Council is limited by the following clause, "provided, however, that as a result of the election each Jurisdiction shall be represented on the Council."

This limitation on qualification is basically unsound, and although it may not conflict with any specific clause of the Constitution, yet it is in conflict with the spirit of the provisions of the Constitution setting up a Judicial Council. The basic fallacy of course is assuming that the Judicial Council is a "representative" body as evidenced by the use of the word "represented" on the Council.

The Legislative branch and the Judicial branch of any Government are never constituted on the same basis. In any Government of a democratic nature, the Legislative branch should be so constituted as to be representative of the different elements composing the electorate.

However, a Court of Law is not set up to legislate or to take any action that reflects the wishes (or the whims) of the Electorate or any part thereof. A Court, particularly a Supreme Court, has no jurisdiction to frame laws, but only to interpret them. It does not recognize any part of the constituency as being entitled to any favor or any special consideration, except only as provided by the Constitution and legislation enacted in conformity therewith.

If this erroneous representative principle should be applied to the Supreme Court of the United States, and the highest courts of the States, we would see attempts being made for representation from every minority and pressure group, so that in the end the great majority might have only minority representation.

If the framers of our Constitution had intended that a Jurisdiction was to be "represented" on the Judicial Council, they would have provided for the election of such "representative" by the Jurisdictional Conference, as certainly one Jurisdiction has no right to elect the "representative" of any other Jurisdiction.

It is to be noted that the majority opinion in this case, at least by inference, indicates that this legislation is unwise and to be deprecated. The proponents seek to justify this on the ground that the General Conference was granted the right to determine the "qualifications" of the members of the Judicial Council, and to determine the method of election.

As to the test of "qualifications" it is submitted that this has no basis in law. By Bouvier's Law Dictionary, page 2776, "Qualification" is defined as relating to the fitness or capacity of a party for a particular purpose or profession. In 51 Corpus Juris III, "Qualification" as applied to persons means eligibility or fitness, or as a requisite to election to office and refers to capacity, eligibility or fitness for place, office or employment such as education, age, and citizenship.

Thus it appears that as a "qualification" for election to the Judicial Council, the General Conference may prescribe age limits, educational attainments, or other personal matters including status as a minister or layman. However, even if by some stretch of definition this be extended to cover a "qualification" based upon membership in any Conference, area or Jurisdiction, yet the fatal fact in this case is that it was not so enacted, but was enacted so that a Jurisdiction be "represented" on the Council. Therefore, the very language of this legislation negatives this argument.

Furthermore, as to the "Method of Election," it is to be noted that members of the Judicial Council are elected as prescribed by Paragraph 901, without the new proviso. When the election ends and certain persons are elected, the election has been finished and the status of those elected is fixed. But the new proviso declares that "as a result of the election each Jurisdiction shall be represented on the Council."

This proviso then is not intended to become effective until the election is completed, and certain members having received the highest votes are declared elected. But how is this new proviso to be enforced if it refers to residence of members? Who are to be declared to be illegally on the Council—one of the newly elected ministers, or a newly elected layman, or one of the older members whose term will expire before those of the new members? Or is the whole election void? It stands to reason that an elected member cannot be declared ineligible because of his residence, nor can he be removed because other members are not scattered as to residence. In other words, this new proviso is meaningless, and cannot be enforced. Accordingly on this ground also it is unconstitutional and void.

It is to be regretted that the Constitutionality of this legislation was not raised at the 1948 General Conference session, before any election thereunder, so that there could have been a more complete and timely discussion and understanding of the whole matter. But to quote from an opinion by Mr. Justice Frankfurter in a recent case in the U. S. Supreme Court, we may say that "wisdom too often never comes, and so one ought not to reject it merely because it comes late." Therefore it seems we would be compounding error if we did not now sound a warning to future General Conferences indicating the limitations within which they may attempt to usurp powers not granted by the Constitution.

If this proposition has such merit that it should be made a part of our basic law, the way is open for an amendment to the Constitution by due process, but such an important matter should never be enacted merely by a majority vote of a General Conference.

Legislative bodies, including General Conferences, are notoriously subject to influence by sympathies and passing emotions which leads to unwise action. It is for that very purpose that Constitutional limitations are laid down. Accordingly it seems that the Judicial Council is failing to do its duty to the Church by not maintaining a firm position in such cases.

Therefore after careful study of our Constitution as a whole, with its historic background, and interpreting it from all four corners, the only logical conclusion is that this questioned legislation be declared unconstitutional.

M. E. Lawson concurs in the foregoing dissenting decision.

In Re: Ruling by Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam at the Troy Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, April 22, 1949, Relative to the Right of a Local Church to Designate All Funds Received on World Service and Annual Conference Benevolences to World Service Alone and None to Annual Conference Agencies

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Designated gifts under Paragraph 775 of the 1944 Discipline (Paragraph 745 of the 1948 Discipline) are subject to the settled and established plan that contributions for the cause of "World Service and Conference Benevolences" by a charge shall first be divided on the ratio prescribed by the Annual Conference.

Only that portion of such contributions allocated under the Conference ratio to World Service can be designated to World Service projects; and only that portion of such contributions allocated under the Conference ratio to Conference Benevolences can be designated to Conference Benevolence projects.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Mr. Harry N. Van Antwerp, a lay member of the Troy Annual Conference and a member of the Third Avenue Methodist Church of Watervliet, New York, made the following request for a Ruling from the Bishop at the Troy Annual Conference in session at Saratoga Springs, New York, April 8, 1948:

"The Third Avenue Methodist Church of Watervliet, on the authority of Paragraph 775 of the 1944 Discipline of The Methodist Church, elected to designate the causes to which their World Service contributions should go, namely, to the approved program of the World Service Agencies, none to the Troy Conference Benevolences.

"Inasmuch as the Treasurer of the Troy Annual Conference refuses to accept these checks so designated on accredited Benevolences, the Third Avenue Methodist Church of Watervliet and the writer request a Ruling from the Bishop as to who is in error: the Third Avenue Church or the Conference Treasurer, and whether or not Paragraph 775 means what it says in English or not.

"To make the issue clear; we insist that the clear meaning of the language of Paragraph 775 permits either church or individual to do exactly what we did, and that the Conference Treasurer is in conflict with the Discipline in refusing our checks designated for accepted World Service Benevolences only, and that we are within our rights in asking for credit on Benevolent Askings."

Ruling of the Bishop

The Third Avenue Methodist Church of Watervliet, New York, did not have the right to designate all receipts on World Service and Annual Conference Benevolences solely to World Service Agencies and none to Troy Annual Conference Agencies by vote of its Quarterly Conference after the every-member canvass had been made.

Bishop Oxnam presented in connection with this ruling an able statement of the case and brief on the law applicable to the situation, which, for the sake of brevity, is not repeated here, as the main features of same are included in the following:

Decision of the Judicial Council

The above quoted ruling having been requested in writing in a session of the Annual Conference and the ruling thereon having been officially reported to the Judicial Council by the Bishop making the ruling (the Journal of the Conference not yet having been printed) such ruling is now legally before the Judicial Council for review under the Constitution (Paragraph 43 of the 1948 Discipline) and laws (Paragraph 909 of the 1948 Discipline) of The Methodist Church.

There is and has been for years confusion concerning the interpretation of the Disciplinary provisions relating to designated gifts. Paragraph 745 of the Discipline, standing alone, adds to that confusion. It cannot be properly interpreted, however, except in relation to the other Paragraphs of the Discipline relating to World Service and Conference Benevolences.

The question here propounded involves an official interpretation of the meaning of Paragraph 745 of the 1948 Discipline. The Quarterly Conference of Watervliet Charge, Troy Conference, N. Y., interpreted it to mean that it could direct all contributions of its membership for benevolent causes to those causes represented by the General Conference World Service Agencies to the total exclusion of all causes represented by Conference Benevolences. Bishop Oxnam's ruling is to the effect that this cannot be done; that there must be a distribution of such funds between World Service administered by the General Conference Agencies and the Annual Conference Benevolences.

In the opinion of the Judicial Council, Bishop Oxnam's interpretation is correct. Through numerous acts the General Conference has, for the mutual protection of both classes of Benevolences, established a firm fixed policy of equitable distribution of such funds.

Paragraphs 731 to 733 state a basic plan for Church Finance. It provides for a Budget including both World Service and Conference Benevolences.

Paragraphs 782 to 787 provide how the Budget is to be set up. It is to be a combined Budget for World Service and Conference Benevolences. It is to be distributed by such divisions and ratios as the Conference may approve. It may be distributed by the Annual Conference to the Districts or direct to the several charges in the Conference.

Paragraph 261 (1948 Discipline) provides that this combined Budget for World Service and Conference Benevolences shall be presented and explained in detail to the congregation in the local charge, and makes it the special duty of certain officials to see that this is done. Then at the First or Second Quarterly Conference an acceptance is to be made. It may be the exact amount that has been apportioned to the charge by the Annual Conference or by the District Stewards "for World Service and Conference Benevolences," or it may be less or it may be more. "The amount voted by the Quarterly Conference shall be the amount assumed by the charge for this cause," to-wit World Service and Conference Benevolences.

Paragraph 264 makes it the duty of the Official Board or Board of Stewards to provide a Budget including this combined apportionment for "World Service and Conference Benevolences."

Paragraph 791 makes it the duty of the Conference Treasurer to "divide the total amount thus received, setting aside the proper amount for World Service and the proper amount for Conference Benevolences."

In Paragraph 268 the same safeguard is thrown around the Fourth Sunday offerings. They, too, must be divided on the approved Conference ratio between World Service and Conference Benevolences.

Since the General Conference has so meticulously set up a definite uniform fixed policy by a mass of legislation, it is hardly conceivable that by this one Paragraph (Paragraph 745 1948 Discipline) it intended to jeopardize this plan or either of the causes so combined in the plan. It is, therefore, the decision of the Judicial Council that Paragraph 745 of the Discipline means that within the limits of the respective proportions of such funds raised for World Service and Conference Benevolences the charge or the individual donors may make designations to specific projects. The part of the fund set aside by the Conference ratio to World Service may be designated to World Service projects approved by the General Conference Agency. The part of the fund set aside to Conference Benevolences may be designated to Conference Benevolence projects approved by the Conference Agency administering same. The whole amount of the combined offering for World Service and Conference Benevolences cannot be designated either for World Service projects or to Conference Benevolence projects.

Accordingly, the ruling of Bishop Oxnam that "the Third Avenue Methodist Church of Watervliet, New York, did not have the right to designate all receipts on 'World Service and Conference Benevolences' solely to World Service Agencies and none to Troy Annual Conference agencies," is affirmed. April 29, 1949.

Episcopal Decision By Bishop Clare Purcell Concerning Legality of Action of Upper South Carolina Annual Conference Relating to Transfer of Lander College to the Lander Foundation

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

An Annual Conference can dispose of by gift to a non-denominational body, a College owned and controlled by it even though same has been built by private donations; PROVIDED that if there should be assets belonging to the College made in consideration of its remaining a Methodist college under the control and management of the Annual Conference, the disposition of such particular assets would be a matter of property rights and controlled by civil law, over which property rights the Judicial Council would probably have no jurisdiction.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

(Taken from the Journal of the Upper South Carolina Conference)
Near the end of the special session of the Upper South Carolina Annual Conference at Columbia College, Columbia, S. C., Monday, June 21, 1948, the following request for a ruling was made by the gentlemen whose names are signed thereto:

"To the Presiding Bishop

Upper South Carolina Annual Conference
Columbia College, Columbia, S. C.

"We respectfully request from the presiding Bishop of the Called

Session of the Annual Conference meeting at Columbia College June 21, 1948, a ruling on the legality of the action of the Upper South Carolina Annual Conference meeting at Main Street Methodist Church, Columbia, S. C., Nov. 18, 1947, in regard to the action taken relative to the transfer of Lander College and its assets to the community of Greenwood, S. C.

(Signed) B. L. KILGO
E. R. MASON

Ministerial members of the Upper South Carolina Annual Conference."

The action taken by the Upper South Carolina Annual Conference on November 18, 1947, was as follows:

I. The Educational Policy of South Carolina Methodism shall be as follows:

1. Wofford shall be maintained as a standard "A" Grade college, for men primarily, but it may become co-educational, if there is a demand for this, and when the Board of Trustees shall have provided for such a change.

2. Columbia College shall be maintained as a standard "A" Grade college for women.

3. That Lander College, its campus, and all its assets be offered as a gift to the Greenwood community. In the event the Greenwood city or county government or some other responsible agency representing the community agrees to accept the college, the following conditions and reservations be set forth in behalf of the Annual Conference or Conferences in South Carolina:

a. The property and assets of Lander College may be used by the agency representing the Greenwood community only as long as they are used exclusively for educational purposes. Under no circumstances may the property or assets of Lander College be disposed of without the consent of the Annual Conference or Conferences of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in South Carolina.

b. The name "Lander" may be used as long as the institution is operated as a standard four-year college. In the event the controlling agency should proceed to operate the college on a lower academic level (a junior college, for instance), the name "Lander" must be immediately surrendered.

c. The title to the property and the ownership of all assets of Lander College shall remain with the Annual Conference or Conferences of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in South Carolina until such time as the college shall become fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. If and when Lander is so accredited, the Church agrees to surrender all claims upon the property and endowed assets of the college within one year of the date of accreditation. In the event of Lander's failure to attain full accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools within ten years of the date of the acceptance of this proposal by the Greenwood community, this contract shall become null and void and the Church shall be free to dispose of the college and its assets (excepting those legally controlled by other agencies) in any way that may seem proper and fitting.

4. That in the event of the rejection on the part of the Greenwood community of the offer set forth in section 3 by June 15, 1948, the Lander property shall be sold to the best possible advantage and that all assets of this institution be equally divided between the two remaining Methodist Colleges in South Carolina.

II. All the institutions named above shall remain for the time being at least, in their respective places of present location.

III. All of these two institutions shall be under the control and management of one President, or Chancellor, and of one Board of Trustees, consisting of 13 members. Each institution shall be under the local management and direction of a Dean, Headmaster, Principal, or President, working in accord with, and under the direction of the above-mentioned President, or Chancellor, and Board of Trustees.

IV. That South Carolina Methodism shall immediately enter upon a campaign to raise not less than $1,000,000.00 for the better development of the two above-named institutions. The proceeds from this campaign shall be divided between the two institutions in the following ratio: Wofford $600,000.00 and Columbia College $400,000.00.

The presiding Bishop and the Cabinets of the two Conferences are requested to select and appoint a Commission of seven to organize, launch and direct the said campaign.

The above action was taken in adjourned sessions of both the South Carolina and the Upper South Carolina Conferences on November 18, 1947. Pursuant to this action the Campaign Commission of Seven was appointed.

On request of the two Conferences, the presiding Bishop also appointed a Committee of Five to act as a liaison with representatives of the Greenwood community consisting of the following: H. O. Chambers, George K. Way, J. H. Kohler, W. D. Gleaton, and F. T. Cunningham. These gentlemen accordingly met with representatives of the Greenwood community and signed an agreement with them embodying the above conditions of the transfer. At subsequent called sessions of the two Annual Conferences held at Columbia College on June 21, 1948, the agreement was approved and a Resolution was passed in each of the Conferences requesting the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to give its consent to the transfer proposed in the Resolution adopted November 18, 1947. This was done to meet the requirements of Paragraph 541 of the 1944 Discipline.

Rev. B. L. Kilgo and Rev. E. R. Mason who requested the ruling on the legality of the action of the Conference in its adjourned session last November 18, 1947, stated that their request was based upon their interpretation of Paragraph 541 of the 1944 Discipline, which is as follows:

"541. No invested funds, fiduciary trusts, or property acquired by bequest, donation, or otherwise, for specific objects within the boundaries of an Annual Conference or Conferences may be diverted to other purposes except by the consent of the Annual Conference or Conferences involved and with the consent of the Jurisdictional Conference or Conferences concerned, and civil courts approval when necessary: . . .

Provided, moreover, that trust funds may not be divided or diverted to other purposes than for the specific objects for which donated, even with the consent of the Annual Conferences or Jurisdictional Conferences, unless the said Conferences are the beneficiaries of said trust fund or control them."

Ruling of the Bishop

The Bishop presiding when the request for this ruling was made has serious doubt that he should entertain the request. It should be noted that the request was not made in the session of the Conference which took the action in question. That session of the Conference was an adjourned session and was duly adjourned sine die on November 18, 1947. The session of the Conference in which the request for a ruling was made was a special session held on June 21, 1948, more than seven months later. (See Paragraph 40.) In the meantime the Committee of Five had already entered into agreements with the Greenwood agency for the operation of Lander College. The agency is "The Lander Foundation" and they have employed a President and faculty and have made numerous other commitments. It would, therefore, appear that the request for a ruling at this late day should be dismissed. Furthermore this request is tantamount to a motion for reconsideration which certainly would have been ruled out of order.

Assuming, however, that the request is in order, the Bishop's decision is that the action taken by the Upper South Carolina Annual Conference in adjourned session at Columbia, S. C., November 18, 1947, was entirely legal and well within the provisions of Paragraph 541 of the 1944 Discipline.

The only part of Paragraph 541 on which the question of legality could be raised is the final provision that trust funds may not be divided or diverted to other purposes than for the specific objects for which donated, even with the consent of Annual Conferences or Jurisdictional Conferences, UNLESS the said Conferences are the beneficiaries of said trust funds or control them.

The charge of illegality is based upon a misinterpretation of the above provision. The plaintiffs assume that the proviso means that trust funds cannot be diverted from their original purpose unless the Conference REMAIN the beneficiaries or CONTINUE to control said trust funds. If this were the meaning of the proviso, a Conference could not give away trust funds if it did not keep them—a reductio ad absurdum. Being a beneficiary or being in control of these funds is a precedent and not a subsequent condition of Conference prerogative. The proviso means exactly what it says—that the Conference cannot divert something of which it is not the beneficiary or controlling agent at the time of the diversion and not after.

Even though it might be shown that there exist certain funds or trusts which were donated for specific objects, this could not nullify the over-all action of the Conference in beginning the process by which Lander College can be transferred to the "Lander Foundation" in the future—possibly ten years—when certain other conditions have been met. It could only prevent the transfer of such funds which were donated for specific objects, and it could not prevent the transfer of the property and other assets not included in funds donated for specific objects. Moreover, there is no evidence that any funds exist as having been donated for specific objects among the assets of Lander College.

The claim has been made that the action of the Conference November 18, 1947, was illegal because the Jurisdictional Conference had not given its consent prior to action by the Annual Conference. This position is untenable because the agreements made between the Committee of Five and approved by the Annual Conferences are contingent upon two things: (1) approval by the Jurisdictional Conference, which approval has been requested by the Annual Conferences in South Carolina, and (2) the fulfillment of certain specific obligations by the "Lander Foundation"—such as maintaining an institution and for educational purposes only; it must be a standard "A" Grade four-year college and not a junior college; it must be fully accredited within ten years. "The title to the property and the ownership of all assets of Lander College will remain with the Annual Conference or Conferences of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in South Carolina until such time as the college shall become fully accredited. . . ." It is clear that the action of the Conference on November 18, 1947, was only the initial step by which the College could within the next ten years be transferred to the "Lander Foundation." To deny an Annual Conference the right to make this beginning would be to disregard a fundamental right. Such denial would nullify the purpose of Paragraph 541 which is to provide a method by which an Annual Conference may legally divest itself of trust funds even though they were donated for specific objects. The next step in this process will be the action of the Jurisdictional Conference as requested by the Annual Conferences. To say that the Conferences could not proceed in the making of a contract until the Jurisdictional Conference approved is another reductio ad absurdum. No Jurisdictional Conference could or would approve a contract not previously approved by the contracting parties. The language of Paragraph 541 presupposes subsequent and not antecedent approval by the Jurisdictional Conference.

In the light of the above considerations it is the decision of the undersigned that the action of the Upper South Carolina Annual Conference relative to the transfer of Lander College and its assets to representatives of the Greenwood Community.—viz., "The Lander Foundation—" was and is legal.

(Signed) CLARE PURCELL, Presiding Bishop

June 26, 1948.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The above quoted request for a decision by the Bishop and the decision thereon having been made in open session of the Upper South Carolina Annual Conference and duly recorded in the Journal of said Conference, such decision by Bishop Clare Purcell is now legally before the Judicial Council for review under the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Article II, Subsection 3, Division Four of the Plan of Union. Paragraph 43, Subsection 3 of the 1948 Discipline).

The principal objection urged against the decision of the Bishop is based on the last paragraph of Paragraph 541 of the 1948 Discipline which reads as follows:

"Provided, moreover, that trust funds may not be divided or diverted to other purposes than for the specific objects for which donated, even with the consent of the Annual Conferences or Jurisdictional Conferences, unless the said Conferences are the beneficiaries of said trust funds or control them."

The written record is silent on the question of whether or not there are trust funds on hand now in connection with Lander College donated to Lander College or to the Annual Conference on the specific condition that it remain a Methodist College under the control of the South Carolina Annual Conferences. The Bishop in his opinion makes the following statement:

"Moreover, there is no evidence that any funds exist as having been donated for specific objects among the assets of Lander College."

If the Bishop's assumption in this respect is correct, then the clause out of Paragraph 541 quoted above is not applicable in this case. Furthermore, all other provisions of Paragraph 541 having been complied with, we approve the statement in the Bishop's ruling reading as follows:

"Even though it might be shown that there exist certain funds or trusts which were donated for specific objects, this could not nullify the over-all action of the Conference in beginning the process by which Lander College can be transferred to the 'Lander Foundation' in the future—possibly ten years—when certain other conditions have been met. It could only prevent the transfer of such funds which were donated for specific objects, and it could not prevent the transfer of the property and other assets not included in funds donated for specific objects."

In affirming the ruling of the Bishop, the Judicial Council is not bound by his reasoning. With some of his reasoning the Judicial Council is in disagreement. But assuming that there are no trust funds now on hand in connection with Lander College, donated on condition that said College remain the property of and under the control of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the decision of Bishop Purcell that "the action of the Upper South Carolina Conference relative to the transfer of Lander College and its assets to representatives of the Greenwood Community—viz., 'The Lander Foundation'—was and is legal" is hereby affirmed.

But if there be among the assets of Lander College donations made on conditions as above indicated then the disposition of those particular donations is a matter of property rights controlled strictly by civil law, over which matter the Judicial Council would probably have no jurisdiction.

April 29, 1949.

Dissent

I am unable, for the first time, to agree with my brethren. I must dissent.

Lander College has been in existence since 1903, as Lander College, succeeding Williamston Female College. On November 18, 1947, the South Carolina Conferences adopted a plan of education, expressed to be an educational policy. A part of that policy provided that Lander College, a corporation, its campus and all its assets be offered as a gift to the Greenwood City or County government, or some other responsible agency representing the community on certain conditions set out at length. It provided that the name "Lander" might be used as long as a standard four-year college was maintained. Otherwise the name "Lander" must be surrendered. It provided that the title to the property and ownership of all assets of Lander College "shall remain with the Annual Conferences of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in South Carolina, until the college should become fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, at which time the Church agrees to surrender all claims upon the property and endowed assets." If it failed to be so accredited within ten years "the Church should be free to dispose of the college and its assets (excepting those legally controlled by other agencies) in any way." If such Greenwood organizations, or one of them, did not accept the gift on those terms, then provision was made to sell the property and divide the proceeds equally between the remaining two Methodist Colleges in South Carolina.

Answering a question in writing, Bishop Clare Purcell ruled that under Paragraph 541 of the 1944 Discipline, the action proposed was entirely legal. The only portion of that Paragraph that might be considered applicable is "Provided, moreover, that trust funds may not be divided or diverted to other purposes than for the specific objects for which donated, even with the consent of Annual Conferences, or Jurisdictional Conferences, unless the said Conferences are the beneficiaries of said trust funds, or control them."

On argument we were assured that no funds were held in trust but that Lander College owned all the property involved. However, the terms used in the proposal to give the property away such as "endowed assets" and "excepting those legally controlled by other agencies" rather leaves me in doubt.

Criticism might easily be made of these provisions, but I prefer to put my dissent solely on the ground that the Bishop who ruled as stated, had no jurisdiction to pass upon it, and that we have no jurisdiction in the premises.

The question is one of title to property. The title does not depend upon our construction of any Constitutional or Disciplinary Paragraph or Church law, but upon the laws of South Carolina. The title to property can only be settled by a civil court. In many states it would be decided in a Cy Pres action but South Carolina does not recognize that proceeding. It no doubt has courts administering equity that could reach and determine the issues. In any event, in my opinion, we have no such power.

In the majority opinion, it is said that if it should develop that there are trust funds held specially, they would not be affected but would remain subject to court action. In other words, the property upon which the proceeds of the trust would be used would be given away and the trust property hang in the air. You cannot harvest wheat with a combine that has been given away and removed.

I believe we should hold this matter to be for the civil courts, and not for this court.

When Paul was brought before Gallio, Deputy or Governor of Achaia, and a question of his violation of the laws of the Jews arose, the record (Acts 18, Verses 14 and 15) reads:

"14. And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you;

"15. But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it, for I will be no judge on such matters"

I respectfully dissent.

In Re: Decision of Hazen G. Werner Made in Lima District Conference

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Terms and provisions set out in Paragraph 807 of the 1948 Discipline are defined or interpreted as follows:

(1) "At any regular session" means any session of an Annual Conference at which business is transacted.

(2) "Regular active itinerants," as used in said Paragraph, includes only effective members of the Annual Conference serving as pastors, and does not include District Superintendents and members of the Conference serving under special appointments.

(3) By "Basic" is meant the schedule of salaries to be paid pastors and supply pastors from a common treasury under any basic salary plan adopted by an Annual Conference; such salaries to be uniform, subject only to the variants allowed under said Paragraph 807. Such salaries may be augmented by pastoral charges as provided in Section 3, Paragraph 807.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Ohio Annual Conference at its 1948 session adopted a recommendation that there be created a Commission in that Conference to study the salary situation in the light of new legislation enacted by the 1948 General Conference, this legislation providing for the adoption of a basic salary plan as set forth in Paragraph 807 of the 1948 Discipline.

At a recent session of the Lima District Conference four questions, as follows, were propounded to Bishop Hazen G. Werner, presiding over the Ohio Area:

1. Does "at any regular session" enable a Conference to deny the franchise to those necessarily absent from the session?

2. Who are "regular active itinerants"?

3. How shall "basic" be interpreted?

4. Is this legislation applicable to District Superintendents?

These questions are based upon the following excerpts from Paragraph 807 of the 1948 Discipline.

"1. An Annual Conference may by a two-thirds majority vote at any regular session adopt a basic salary plan for the support of its active itinerants and supply pastors who are giving their full time to the ministry of the Church; . . .

"2. The basic salary plan shall provide an established salary schedule for the support of the regular active itinerants and supply pastors giving their full time to the ministry of the Church, which may allow for differences of living conditions, number of dependents in the family, and other variants." . . .

To these questions the Bishop made the following replies in the Lima District Conference:

"There need be no preclusion of the use of franchise on the part of any members of the Annual Conference when this issue is considered. Treasurers, secretaries, statisticians, and others have the privilege of voting and having their votes recorded similarly as in situations in which elections are being conducted for General and Jurisdictional delegates. It is altogether likely that the above would be notified in order that the franchise could be exercised. The Conference has a right to say that certain matters of business will be taken up at certain times. In fact, an agreed time for consideration of this issue would obviate any danger at this point.

"While this term 'regular, active itinerants' does not appear in the Constitution of the Church, nevertheless, it has been in common usage from the beginning of Methodism. The definition of the words is, 'specifically the system of rotation of the clergy practiced by The Methodist Church.'

"'Basic.'—The confusion here seems to arise because of the term: 'an established salary schedule.' The latter, however, lends itself to the interpretation of established, alterable by amendment as circumstances might require. 'Basic' itself has to do with what we mean by 'norm.'

"I do not find reference to 'the support for the several District Superintendents' in the Paragraph."

This decision having been made by the Bishop in a District Conference in conformity with the provisions of Paragraph 909 of the 1948 Discipline and having been properly certified to the Judicial Council, it is properly before the Judicial Council for determination.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The ruling of Bishop Werner, as above set out, is hereby affirmed with the following observations and modifications:

1. The question of adopting a basic salary system could be taken up at any session of the Annual Conference when business is being transacted. Such a matter being of great importance, however, interested parties should secure a Special Order of the Day to consider same.

2. Historically the term "regular active itinerant" has been understood to mean ministers admitted on trial or into full connection in an Annual Conference and who are serving under appointment by a Bishop.

As used in Paragraph 807 of the 1948 Discipline, it seems that the General Conference in dealing with the question of basic salary used the term "regular active itinerants" to include only effective members of the Annual Conference serving as pastors and not to include District Superintendents and members of the Conference serving under special appointment.

This is the interpretation the Judicial Council here gives to the term "regular active itinerants" as used in this particular legislation.

3. By the term "basic" as used in Paragraph 807 is meant the schedule of salaries to be paid to pastors and supply pastors out of a common treasury under any basic salary plan adopted by an Annual Conference. Such salaries are to be uniform, subject only to the variants allowed under said Paragraph 807. Such "basic" salaries may be augmented by pastoral charges as provided in Paragraph 807, Section 5.

4. District Superintendents, as indicated above in answer to question 2, are not included by the term "regular active itinerants" as used in this particular paragraph.

In Re: Election of Conference Lay Leader Bishop's Ruling—Kentucky Annual Conference 1948

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

The Judicial Council does not have jurisdiction to review the decision of a Bishop not requested or made in open session of an Annual or District Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

From the many documents and papers submitted and other relevant evidence in this case, we find the essential facts, stated as concisely as possible, to be as follows:

A. NOMINATION OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

In connection with the regular session of the Kentucky Annual Conference, at Richmond, Ky., on August 27, 1948, there was held a meeting of the Conference Board of Lay Activities. The total membership of the Board was 40, but only 18 attended. At this meeting a ballot was taken for nomination of Conference Lay Leader resulting in nine votes for Carl W. Haggard and eight votes for Marcus C. Redwine, and this was duly recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

B. CONFERENCE ACTION ON BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES NOMINATION

The record of the proceedings of the Kentucky Annual Conference, Saturday afternoon session, August 28, 1948 (See Journal Kentucky Conference 1948, page 34), shows the following:

"Board of Lay Activities, Marcus Redwine asked for a ruling on the number required to make a legal meeting of the Board of Lay Activities. Bishop Watkins discussed ordinary procedures and then ruled that on the day specified there was not a quorum present at the meeting of the Board of Lay Activities, and that the nomination to the Conference was not valid."

In a subsequent explanatory paper filed in this case, the Bishop stated the basis of his ruling to be that Rule 21 of the Standing Rules of the Kentucky Annual Conference provides "The rules of the preceding General Conference, insofar as they may apply, otherwise Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the procedure in the Annual Conference," and that according to these Rules no quorum was present at the meeting of the Board of Lay Activities on August 27, 1948, and, therefore, it was not a legal meeting.

Thereafter in answer to Disciplinary Question 14, "Who is elected Conference Lay Leader," it was recorded "No one."

C. SUSPENSION OF RULES, AND ELECTION OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER.

Later in the same afternoon session of Conference, a motion was made, and carried to suspend Rule 21 of the Annual Conference. This was followed by a motion made and carried that the meeting of the Board of Lay Activities of the previous day be declared a legal meeting and its nomination for Lay Leader be placed before the Conference. The report of the Board then being read and Disciplinary Question No. 14 being again read, the Conference elected Carl W. Haggard as Conference Lay Leader.

D. PETITION TO PRESIDING BISHOP

On the following day, Sunday, August 29, at the closing session of the Conference, while the appointments were being read, but after a motion to adjourn sine die, a paper was delivered to the Conference Secretary, which paper was intended as a request for Bishop's ruling on the action of the Conference of the preceding day, or in the alternative, to act as an appeal to the Judicial Council on the whole record. There is no record of this petition in the Conference Journal.

E. BISHOP'S DECISION

However, as a subsequent date, to wit, September 20, 1948, the Presiding Bishop prepared a paper which appears on page 130 of the Conference Journal. In brief, this restated the issue on which a decision was requested as follows: "Was the act of the Kentucky Annual Conference in suspending rules and declaring the meeting of the Board of Lay Activities legal and valid on August 28, 1948, itself a valid procedure?" To which the Bishop answered:

"I hold that the act of the Annual Conference in suspending rules and declaring the meeting of the Board of Lay Activities on August 27, 1948, valid, is a fully legal act, and that Mr. Carl W. Haggard, elected on the hearing of the reading of the minutes of the Board of Lay Activities at which he was nominated, is the legal Lay Leader of the Kentucky Annual Conference." This decision of the Bishop forms no part of the proceedings of the Conference as such and is not entered on the minutes.

In addition to the foregoing facts, many other statements and papers were submitted to the Council attempting to set out in detail the motives of the parties, the conversations, each step taken by the laymen to secure a ruling or an appeal, and explaining exactly when and how the paper entitled "Motion and Petition" was filed in relation thereto. It would seem, however, that these are irrelevant and that the essential facts are those disclosed by the record as above.

Decision of the Judicial Council

As to whether the Judicial Council can determine the merits of the questions involved in this case depends entirely upon the question as to whether or not the Council has jurisdiction under the unusual and rather involved facts and circumstances outlined above.

The jurisdiction of the Judicial Council in such cases is defined by the Constitution as follows; Discipline Paragraph 43, "The Judicial Council shall have authority:

"2. To hear and determine any appeal from a Bishop's decision on a question of law made in the Annual or District Conference when said appeal has been made by one-fifth of that Conference present and voting.

"3. To pass upon decisions of law made by bishops in Annual or District Conferences." The procedure in such cases is further defined in Paragraph 908 and Paragraph 909 of the Discipline.

From the statement of facts it will be noted that in this particular case we do not have before us any appeal from a Bishop's decision to conform to Paragraph 43 (2) and Paragraph 908; nor do we have any decision of law made by a Bishop and made a part of the record to conform to Paragraph 43 (3) and Paragraph 909.

It is perhaps to be regretted that the required procedure to give the Judicial Council jurisdiction was not followed, so that such important questions as to the nomination and election of Conference Lay Leader could be properly adjudicated. Therefore, in declining to take jurisdiction of this case, it must be understood that we neither affirm nor overrule any ruling or statement of the presiding Bishop. Neither is this action to be construed as any reflection on the worthy laymen concerned in this matter.

However, for the reason stated, the Judicial Council holds that on the state of the record, it has now no jurisdiction over the subject matter.

In Re: Appeal From South Central Jurisdictional Conference—Report of Board of Education

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Under the Constitution, Paragraph 15 of the 1948 Discipline, the Jurisdictional Conference has authority "To make rules and regulations for the administration of the work of the Church within the Jurisdiction." The act of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference recommending that "no Annual Conference establish a Conference Encampment without consideration by the Conference Board of Education" is constitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the 1948 session of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference held in El Paso, Texas, the Jurisdictional Committee on Education presented its Report No. 2, which in part is as follows:

"We recommend that:

"2. The Jurisdictional Conference endorse the action of the Jurisdictional Board of Education which adopted the following motion in keeping with the Discipline:

"No Annual Conference establish a Conference Encampment without consideration by the Conference Board of Education."

On Friday, June 25, 1948, at the afternoon session of the Jurisdictional Conference, as is recorded in the Daily Christian Advocate, Page 19, Column 1:

"Report Number 2 from the Committee on Education involving certain recommendations from the Jurisdictional Board of Education was presented.

"Paul F. Holmes (Central Kansas) offered an amendment to omit recommendation No. 2, page 13, from the report of the Jurisdictional Council. The amendment was seconded. Dr. Score spoke to the motion and upon vote, the amendment was lost. Report Number 2 from the Committee on Education was approved by the Conference."

"MOTION TO RESCIND: Paul Holmes (Central Kansas) moved that the action of the Conference on Education, item 2 of the report of the Board of Education as carried in the Report of the Jurisdictional Council be rescinded and spoke to the motion. On motion of R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas) the motion to rescind was laid on the table."

The Reverend Mr. Holmes then presented a motion as follows: "I move an appeal to the Judicial Council challenging that portion of the Report of the Committee on Education, Report number 2, referred to on page 20 of the Daily Christian Advocate, and further in paragraph 2 at the top of page 13 in the printed report of the Jurisdictional Council which reads as follows: "The Jurisdictional Conference endorse the act of the Jurisdictional Board which adopted the following motion in keeping with the Discipline: No Annual Conference establish a Conference Encampment without consideration by the Conference Board of Education."

This motion is referred to on page 122 of the Journal of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference. The item appearing as follows:

"APPEAL TO JUDICIAL COUNCIL: Paul Holmes, Central Kansas, then moved that the Jurisdictional Conference appeal to the Judicial Council for a ruling as to the constitutionality of this section, and the motion was adopted."

This appeal, therefore, is now properly before the Judicial Council for determination.

Decision of the Judicial Council

This action of the Jurisdictional Conference is challenged as being unconstitutional, on the ground that (quoting the appellant) it "infringes upon the rights, privileges and powers of three groups, as provided by the law of the Church, i.e., the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Annual Conference, and the General Conference." We consider it unnecessary to discuss these objections under the three headings noted by the appellant, but only to decide the question on the broad ground as to whether or not it infringes upon the Constitution.

To determine whether or not this legislation is or is not Constitutional we must first examine the Constitution to ascertain what powers are granted to the Jurisdictional Conferences. By Paragraph 15 it is provided:

"The Jurisdictional Conferences shall have the following powers and duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference: (1) To promote the evangelistic, educational, missionary and benevolent interests of the Church, etc. . . . (5) to make rules and regulations for the administration of the work of the Church within the jurisdiction, etc."

There seems to be no specific provision in the Discipline, reflecting any action by the General Conference that assigns the Camping Program to the General Board of Education, the Jurisdictional Board of Education, or the Conference Board of Education. But there are many provisions which might be cited as to the promotion of educational matters of a similar character, indicating a purpose to co-ordinate the entire educational program of the Church.

By the Constitution of the Church, Paragraph 22, the Annual Conference is the basic body of the Church, and generally speaking, except as to such powers as may be granted to the General Conference and the Jurisdictional Conferences by the Constitution, it has reserved to it all powers in relation to Church matters. It is, therefore, argued by the appellant that as the General Conference has not legislated specifically as to camping projects, the sole right to control such matters is still in the Annual Conference.

This argument, however, overlooks the powers granted to the Jurisdictional Conferences by the Constitution to promote the educational interests of the Church, in any manner not in conflict with General Conference action. The action in question was certainly in promotion of the educational interests of the Church, and is certainly included in the "administration of the work of the Church within the Jurisdiction." The action in question was not altogether directive in character, but may be considered as advisory. It does not infringe upon the power of the Annual Conference to establish and conduct camping projects in any particular manner, but recommends that the matter be first considered by the Conference Board of Education which, itself, is the creature of the Annual Conference.

We are of the opinion that any action of a Jurisdictional Conference must be within the limits of the grant of powers by the Constitution, fairly interpreted, and that the Judicial Council has a duty to perform to guard the Constitution. In this particular case, however, as we view the action taken to be of an advisory nature, and by a fair construction of the language quoted, to be included in the general grant of powers to the Jurisdictional Conference, we must hold that the action taken was constitutional and the same is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Request of Board of Pensions for Declaratory Decision

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

When a minister is elected and consecrated as a Bishop in The Methodist Church, he ceases to be a member of an Annual Conference and is no longer subject to the Ministers Reserve Pension Plan.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Prior to his election to the Episcopacy in 1948, Bishop Richard C. Raines was a member of the Reserve Pension Fund of the Northern Minnesota Annual Conference.

After his election, the Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church requested the General Commission on World Service and Finance to pay from the Episcopal Fund to the Board of Pensions, in behalf of Bishop Raines' pension, the annual payment required of the employer under the Ministers Reserve Pension Plan. This payment had, of course, been made annually by the Northern Minnesota Annual Conference.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance took the position that it had no authority to make any payments for pension of Bishops other than the annual $3,600 retirement allowance authorized by the General Conference, and suggested that the matter be submitted to the Judicial Council for interpretation of the Disciplinary provisions relating thereto.

Accordingly, the Board of Pensions instructed its Executive Secretary, Dr. T. A. Stafford, to submit to the Judicial Council the following question:

"Are Bishops who were members of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, immediately prior to election to the Episcopacy, required by the Discipline to remain under the provisions of the aforesaid Fund for their respective pensions, and is the Episcopal Fund liable in such cases for the contribution on account of the member?"

This was done on December 23, 1948, and the matter is properly before us under the provisions of Paragraph 43, Section 4 and Paragraph 914 of the rules governing requests for Declaratory Decisions.

Decision of the Judicial Council

In affirming a Ruling of Bishop Flint, May 2, 1944, the Judicial Council adopted the Bishop's language which was:

"A Bishop, effective or retired, is not a member of an Annual Conference. . . . No provision should be made for him as a Conference Claimant; other provision has been made by the General Conference; nor is he subject to Annual Conference assessments."

The Constitution of The Methodist Church in Paragraph 8, Article IV, Section 5, provides that the General Conference shall have authority "to define and fix the powers, duties, and privileges of the Episcopacy, to adopt a plan for the support of Bishops, to provide a uniform rule for their superannuation, and to provide for the discontinuance of a Bishop because of inefficiency or unacceptability."

Paragraph 1643, Section 2, of the legislation which set up the Reserve Pension Fund, states "support of a member of the fund shall mean:"

"(a) The sum or sums annually received from a pastoral charge as compensation for his services, plus an amount equivalent to fifteen per cent thereof, if the minister occupy a parsonage free of rent.

"(b) The salary of a District Superintendent received from the District as compensation for his services, plus an amount equivalent to fifteen per cent thereof if he occupy a district parsonage free of rent.

"(c) The salary of a Bishop received from the Episcopal Fund as compensation for his services, plus the allowance for Episcopal residence."

From the foregoing it seems clear that:

1. Bishop Raines ceased to be a member of The Northern Minnesota Annual Conference when he was elected to the Episcopacy.

2. The only authority for continuing him as a member of the Reserve Pension Fund after his election is that found in Paragraph 1643, Section 2 (c) noted above.

3. That the legislation in Paragraph 1643, Section 2 (c) is in conflict with the constitutional requirement in Paragraph 8, Section 5, "to provide a uniform rule" for the superannuation of the Episcopacy. The General Conference has provided such a uniform rule governing pensions for the Bishops. This pension is provided in the Episcopal Fund. To place him in the category of a member of the Reserve Pension Fund would violate such uniform rule.

The decision of the Judicial Council is therefore:

Bishops who are members of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, immediately prior to election to Episcopacy, are not permitted by the Constitution to remain under the provisions of the aforesaid fund for their respective pensions.

In Re: The Power of an Administrative Committee in a Central Conference

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Under the grant of powers to Central Conference by General Conference legislation within the provisions of the Constitution, the Germany Central Conference had authority to create an Administrative Committee to have charge of current matters of business, and to represent that Conference in legal matters arising between Conference sessions. Such Committee, however, shall be responsible to the Central Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

This case arose because the Germany Central Conference in session at Frankfurt on October 9, 1948, reduced the Northeast Germany Annual Conference to the status of a Provisional Annual Conference. The Administrative Committee of the Germany Central Conference later declared that the vote of the Central Conference, by which the Northeast Germany Conference was reduced to the status of a Provisional Annual Conference, was invalid, and continued the Northeast Germany Conference as an Annual Conference.

Under the authority of Paragraph 906 of the 1944 Discipline, Bishop J. W. E. Sommer, being the only Bishop in that Central Conference, requested the Judicial Council to hear and determine the legality of such action.

The basis of the question of the legality or illegality of the action stated is as follows:

Paragraph 580 of the 1944 Discipline provided that no Annual Conference should be continued as such with fewer than twenty-five (25) ministerial members after the General Conference of 1948. In accordance with that law, the Northeast Germany Conference petitioned the General Conference of 1948 that the Germany Central Conference be permitted to reduce the number of its Annual Conferences to four, or to continue the Northeast Germany Conference as a Provisional Annual Conference; and the General Conference so voted. In another action the General Conference passed an Enabling Act extending the time limit mentioned in Paragraph 580 to the General Conference of 1952. The Germany Central Conference in session in Frankfurt on October 9, 1948, decided to reduce the Northeast Germany Conference to the status of a Provisional Annual Conference. At that time the 1948 Discipline had not been received by the members of that Central Conference, although its acts had become law. So the vote of that Conference was taken under the misapprehension that their action was required by the provisions of Paragraph 580 of the 1944 Discipline.

Later the Administrative Committee, becoming aware of the extension of time by the General Conference of 1948, sought to declare the action of the Germany Central Conference to be invalid because it was taken under a "misconception" of the state of law, acting for the Central Conference, as provided in the Discipline and in the corporate charter of such Executive Committee, continued the Northeast Germany Conference as an Annual Conference.

Therefore, the question of the power of the Administrative Committee so to act becomes important. It perhaps should be noted that the word "invalid" was not correctly used, as what the Committee actually did was to repeal or rescind the action of the Conference. Neither the Committee nor the Conference itself would have power to declare any such legislation to be "invalid," as that is a judicial function.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The Constitution of The Methodist Church, Paragraph 19, describing the powers and duties of Central Conferences, states in Sections 3 and 5 thus:

"3. To establish and constitute such Central Conference Boards as may be required and to elect their administrative officers.

"5. To make such rules and regulations for the administration of the work within their boundaries as the conditions in the respective areas may require, subject to the powers that have been or shall be vested in the General Conference."

Paragraph 595 of the 1948 Discipline reads as follows:

"A Central Conference, where the laws of the land permit, shall have the power to organize and incorporate one or more Executive Committees, Executive Boards, or Councils of Co-operation, with such membership and such powers as may have been granted by the Central Conference, for the purpose of representing it in its property and legal interests and for transacting any necessary business that may arise in the interval between the sessions of the Central Conference, or that may be committed to said Boards or Committees by the Central Conference."

The Methodist Church of Germany, in its Constitution adopted September 4, 1934, provided:

"The Central Conference shall organize an Administrative Committee. This Committee shall consist of the Bishop as presiding officer and an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates, of whom one shall act as substitute presiding officer and three others shall be elected as first, second, and third Secretaries.

"The Administrative Committee shall have charge of the current matters of business and shall represent it legally and otherwise. It shall be responsible to the Central Conference for the conduct of its business."

We therefore hold that such action of the Administrative Committee in continuing the Conference as an Annual Conference was within the powers conferred upon such Committee by Paragraph 19 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church and by the Corporate Charter of the Germany Central Conference.

With respect to this action, however, the Administrative Committee is responsible to the Central Conference. The decision of the Administrative Committee will stand and be effective until changed or abrogated by the Central Conference, or by General Conference legislation.

In Re: Basic Salary Plan

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Although by the general terms of Paragraph 807, Discipline of 1948, District Superintendents are not included in the classification of "regular active itinerants" (see Judicial Council Decision 65), yet in an Annual Conference which provides for support of District Superintendents on recommendation of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance (Paragraph 788), if it also adopts the Basic Salary Plan, there should be included therein the support of District Superintendents.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the 1949 session of the Judicial Council, there was submitted for review a decision of Bishop Hazen G. Werner made in the Lima District Conference as to the application of the legislation adopted by the 1948 General Conference concerning the "Basic Salary Plan." (See Judicial Council Decision 65.)

One of the questions propounded to the Bishop for a ruling thereon was as to whether or not the provisions of Paragraph 807, Discipline 1948, applied to District Superintendents. On the record, as submitted to the Judicial Council at that time, the Judicial Council then held as follows: "District Superintendents, as indicated in answer to question 2, are not included by the term 'regular active itinerants' as used in this particular Paragraph."

Subsequent to the handing down of the foregoing opinion, there has been submitted a statement to the Judicial Council by Bishop Werner referring to his previous ruling, and quoting a clause from Paragraph 788, Discipline of 1948, as follows:

"If an Annual Conference adopts the Basic Salary Plan (Paragraph 807) for ministerial support, the support for the several District Superintendents thereof shall be included therein."

The Judicial Council is accordingly now asked to reconsider the ruling heretofore affirmed, as affected by the clause above quoted, and to review the whole matter involved therein.

Decision of the Judicial Council

For an adequate consideration of the proposition it must be noticed that there are different plans provided by the Discipline for the support of District Superintendents. The first plan is set forth in Paragraph 788, wherein it is made the duty of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance "to estimate the total amount necessary to furnish a sufficient and equitable support for the District Superintendents of the Conference, including salary and suitable provisions for dwelling, travel, and office expense."

Another plan is set forth in Paragraph 789, which permits Annual Conferences to "provide for support of District Superintendents through the Board of District Stewards in each of the several Districts."

The foregoing Paragraphs are substantially the same as Paragraphs 788 and 789 of the 1944 Discipline, except that in Paragraph 788 of the 1948 Discipline, there has been inserted the sentence quoted above as to which the Judicial Council is now asked to rule. It is to be particularly noted that the so-called "Basic Salary Plan" is new in our Church legislation, and first appears as Paragraph 807 in the 1948 Discipline, which provides how an Annual Conference may adopt such a plan. It was with reference to the legal application of this Paragraph 807 that the Judicial Council was asked to review the ruling of the Bishop at its 1949 session. On the record as then presented to the Judicial Council, the ruling of the Bishop was affirmed, and we now hold that such affirmation was correct.

What we are now asked to rule upon is the application of the sentence inserted in Paragraph 788, above quoted. We accordingly now hold that, in those Annual Conferences which provide for the support of District Superintendents on the recommendation of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance (Paragraph 788), and which also adopt the Basic Salary Plan as set forth in Paragraph 807 the support of District Superintendents shall be included.

However, as this clause was inserted only in Paragraph 788 it must be concluded that it does not apply to any other plan for the support of District Superintendents. Therefore, as to Paragraph 789, where support is provided through the Boards of District Stewards, even though such Annual Conference might adopt the Basic Salary Plan of Paragraph 807, the District Superintendents would not be included therein.

Accordingly as modified by the foregoing opinion, the ruling of the Judicial Council as heretofore handed down is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Re-enactment of Enabling Act Adopted by General Conference of 1940

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Enabling Acts, adopted in 1940, and in 1944, as to continuing the corporate life or operation of various Corporations, Boards, and other Agencies of the Church, where the incomplete status still continues, do not need to be re-enacted, as this legislation, unless specifically limited as to time, is in effect until repealed or amended.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Paragraph 1637 of the 1940 Discipline was referred to the Judicial Council, along with a number of other similar Paragraphs, by the General Conference of 1948, with the request that the Council rule on the necessity for re-enacting these Paragraphs. It has been called to our attention that Decision 54, announced by the Judicial Council on May 6, 1948, covering this matter contained no mention of Paragraph 1637. Therefore, the following decision on Paragraph 1637 of the 1940 Discipline is hereby announced:

Decision of the Judicial Council

In Decision 54 of the Judicial Council, as reported on pages 1074-75 of the Journal of the General Conference of 1948, ruling upon the request of the General Conference as to whether or not certain Enabling Acts should be re-enacted, it was held by the Council that the legislation of the General Conferences of 1940 and 1944, unless specifically limited as to time, is in effect until repealed or amended by the General Conference. This principle applies to all these Enabling Acts, including the Enabling Act appearing as Paragraph 1637 in the 1940 Discipline.

We, therefore, hold that said Enabling Act, since it contains no limit of time, is still in full force and effect until repealed or amended by the General Conference.

In Re: The Interpretation of Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline Originating in Little Rock Annual Conference of The Methodist Church

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline applies only to the four year course of study and does not apply to the two years graduate study required of members of the Conference admitted by the three-fourths vote rule under Paragraph 323 of the Discipline. The Annual Conference under Paragraph 22 of the Discipline has authority to prescribe time in which these two years of graduate study must be completed. For dereliction of a member in this respect the Annual Conference could, under other provisions of the Discipline, take appropriate action.

JURISDICTION

First: Under Paragraph 914 of the Discipline certain bodies may petition the Judicial Council for a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision as to the meaning of a Paragraph in the Discipline that seems to be of doubtful meaning or application.

Paragraph 347 of the Discipline seems to come within that category.

The Little Rock Annual Conference of The Methodist Church made such a petition for an interpretation of Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline as shown by the following quotation from the Journal of said Conference:

"Resolution—Arthur Terry submitted a Resolution asking the Judicial Council for a declaratory judgment of Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline as it would apply to the case of Warren Douglass Golden. The Resolution was adopted. Attached." (Page 26, 1949 Journal, Little Rock Annual Conference.)

"PETITION TO JUDICIAL COUNCIL"

"Whereas, it has been ruled by the Board of Ministerial Training of the Little Rock Conference that Paragraph 347, 1948 Discipline refers to the additional two years of study required of those admitted into an Annual Conference under the three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) rule as exceptional and unusual cases, as well as to the regular course of study, and was so ruled by the resident Bishop, presiding; thereby terminating the Conference membership of Warren Douglass Golden who had completed the four year course of study in five years but who had not completed the additional two years study in eight years from the time he began the course.

"And whereas there yet remains doubt in the minds of some as to the correctness of the interpretation, we, therefore, petition the Judicial Council under provisions of Paragraph 914 and 915, of the 1948 Discipline, for a Declaratory interpretation of Paragraph 347, of the 1948 Discipline, as said Paragraph relates to the additional two years of study for exceptional and unusual cases in the course of study.

"Respectfully submitted,

"Signed by the following: Arthur Terry

J. M. Hamilton

Edward W. Harris

Kenneth L. Spore"

(Pages 64-65, 1949 Journal, Little Rock Annual Conference.)

It is to be regretted that the Judicial Council cannot assume jurisdiction in this case under the provisions of Paragraph 914 of the Discipline. It has already been adjudicated by the Judicial Council that Paragraph 914 of the Discipline does not include the Annual Conference, and that, therefore, the Annual Conference is not authorized under that Paragraph to petition the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision. (See Judicial Council Decision 37.)

Second: Paragraph 43, Section 3 of the Discipline, which is a part of the Plan of Union (Constitution) of The Methodist Church, provides that the Judicial Council has power "to pass upon decisions of law made by Bishops in Annual or District Conferences."

As will appear from the analysis of the record as hereinafter set forth, the question involved in this case is in effect a ruling of the presiding Bishop in the 1949 session of the Little Rock Conference, and, under Section 3, Paragraph 43 of the 1948 Discipline, the Judicial Council does have jurisdiction to hear and determine the same.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The question before the Judicial Council originated in the Little Rock Annual Conference under the following conditions as reflected by the 1949 Journal of that Conference:

On page 24 of the Journal is the following entry:

"Warren Douglass Golden was located under the provisions of Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline."

"Report No. 3 of the Board of Ministerial Training was filed for record with the Secretary."

Report No. 3 of the Board of Ministerial Training is set out in full on page 15 of the Journal, and reads as follows:

ON THE CASE OF REV. WARREN DOUGLASS GOLDEN

"The Reverend Warren Douglass Golden was admitted on trial to the Little Rock Annual Conference November 14, 1940, by a three-fourths vote of the Conference, as a Special Case, because of insufficient educational qualifications, under the special Disciplinary provisions. Under this special provision, he was required to take the regular four year course of study, plus two years of graduate work. The first four years were to be finished within six years and all six years of work to be finished within eight years.

"He completed the first four years October 29, 1945, or five years later. Last year, October 1948, three years later, he had finished only a portion of one of the four graduate courses. Last Conference also marked the end of the eight years allowed Brother Golden. Upon recommendation of the Board with the concurrence of the Bishop, and by vote of the Conference, consideration was given to periods of illness, and he was allowed an additional year of grace, bringing the total to nine years. It was the opinion of the Board and Bishop Martin last year that we were exceeding our authority in granting the ninth year, or year of grace. The Conference and Brother Golden were so informed at the time, and he was told that no further extensions could be granted. Fortunately, our Bishop has not been challenged thus far on this decision.

"This year the work still remains unfinished, and the request was made to the Board by Brother Golden for an additional extension of time, making a total of ten years. According to the law our Bishop could not allow such an extension, if the years were totaled as ten, which was the case this time. The Board, seeking to save Brother Golden, sought desperately for loopholes by which the years could be reduced by means of a legitimate recount. Otherwise, our Bishop would face possible charges of mal-administration. Such a proposed recount of two previous years was before the Board, and was defeated by a majority vote. It, therefore, became the judgment of the Board that no extension of time could be made, in addition to the year of grace already granted. Quote, Paragraph 347, 'Any member in full connection who fails to complete the entire four years of the course of study within six years shall be located, unless extension of times shall be recommended by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and authorized by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference. In no case shall a person have a larger total than eight years in the course of study, and any person failing to complete the course within this eight-year period shall not be permitted to join a Conference again on trial. This section, however, shall not apply for the period of time in which the candidates are carrying regular work in residence in a school of theology approved by the University Senate.' We regretfully report this decision, knowing full well its meaning for Brother Golden and his family. They, as well as the church he now serves, along with the brethren of the Conference, may be assured that this decision was made in brotherly love, and after much anxious labor on his behalf and soul searching prayer."

There was some conflict between the statements made to the Judicial Council by the representative of the Board of Ministerial Training, and Warren Douglass Golden on the question of whether or not this report was adopted by the Annual Conference. The Council feels that in this regard it should rely on the printed record. So far as the Council can determine from a careful study of the Journal, there is no entry in the Journal specifically recording the adopting of the report by the Annual Conference.

On page 24 of the Journal is the following entry:

"Board of Ministerial Training—Charles H. Giessen presented the Reports of the Board of Ministerial Training as follows:

"The names of those eligible for Deacon's Orders were read and they were elected. . . .

"The names of those who are members of the class of admission on trial were called, reported upon, introduced, and they were admitted. By recommendation of the Board and by vote of the Conference John Gold was readmitted.

"The names of the Undergraduates were called, reported upon and advanced in their respective classes.

"Warren Douglass Golden was located under provisions of Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline.

"Report No. 3 of the Board of Ministerial Training was filed for record with the Secretary."

It will be noted that in the case of John Gold it is recorded that he was readmitted "by vote of the Conference." The record does not show that Warren Douglass Golden was located "by vote of the Conference." The negative is implied by the Journal entry that the report announcing his discontinuance was simply "filed for record with the Secretary." In this respect the action indicates that the location was in effect the result of the ruling of the presiding officer rather than by vote of the Conference. This interpretation is implemented by the following:

(1) The first paragraph of the petition for a Declaratory Decision adopted by the Annual Conference, which first paragraph reads as follows:

"Whereas it has been ruled by the Board of Ministerial Training of the Little Rock Conference that Paragraph 347, 1948 Discipline refers to the additional two years of study required by those admitted into an Annual Conference under the three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) rule as exceptional and unusual cases, as well as to the regular course of study, and was so ruled by the resident Bishop presiding; thereby terminating the Conference membership of Warren Douglass Golden who had completed the four years course of study in five years but who had not completed the additional two years study in eight years from the time he began the course."

(2) By the following exhibit signed by the presiding Bishop attached to the petition for a declaratory decision:

"EXHIBIT B

"I, Paul E. Martin, the presiding Bishop, concurred in the action of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications concerning the disposition of the case of the Rev. W. D. Golden which resulted in his location under the provisions of Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline, which action is found on page 24 of the Little Rock Annual Conference Journal of 1949. Brother Golden was then listed as an Accepted Supply Pastor, which is recorded on page 29 of the same Journal issue. He was appointed by me to the Ashdown charge, in the Texarkana District, as an Accepted Supply, the charge which he had served previously for one year. The Judicial Council will do this Bishop, Conference, Board, and Minister a great service if its members will render a Declaratory judgment that would interpret Paragraph 347 of the 1948 Discipline, stating specifically whether it was the intention of the legislation to include or exclude the two years of graduate work in the total of eight years allowed for the course of study.

"Paul E. Martin, (signature)
Paul E. Martin, Presiding Bishop
Arkansas-Louisiana Area"

From the information furnished to the Judicial Council during the argument of this case, it appears that the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications of the Little Rock Conference and Bishop Martin, in making this ruling, were relying on an interpretation of Paragraph 347 made by the General Commission on Ministerial Training and Qualifications; that there was doubt in their own minds as to whether the interpretation reflected in the ruling was correct; and that such ruling was not intended as an arbitrary interpretation of the law, but more as a means of getting the question before the Judicial Council of an authoritative interpretation of Paragraph 347 of the Discipline. This is clearly indicated by the exhibit, signed by Bishop Martin and attached to the petition for a Declaratory Decision, and also by the fact that Edward W. Harris, Chairman of the Little Rock Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, signed the petition for a Declaratory Decision. (See the petition and exhibit hereinbefore set out in full.)

The Judicial Council not having jurisdiction under the present law of the Church to determine this case on the petition from the Little Rock Annual Conference for a Declaratory Decision, but having jurisdiction under Section 3, Paragraph 43 of the Discipline, submits the following as its Decision herein.

The portion of Paragraph 347 to be interpreted herein reads as follows:

"347. Any member in full connection who fails to complete the entire four years course of study within six years shall be located, unless extension of time shall be recommended by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and authorized by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference. In no case shall a person have a larger total than eight years in the course of study, and any person failing to complete the course within this eight-year period shall not be permitted to join a Conference again on trial."

By the specific terms of this Paragraph it applies solely to the four years course of study. The four years course of study is the subject matter of the Paragraph as indicated by the use of that term in the first sentence of the Paragraph. The course of study to which it refers is an entirety within itself as shown by use of the phrase "the entire four years of the course of study."

Furthermore, by the commonly accepted rules of grammatical construction, the phrases "the course of study" and "the course" appearing in the body of the Paragraph refer to the course of study which is the subject matter of the Paragraph. No reference is made in this Paragraph to the two years of graduate work required by Paragraph 323 of members of the Conference admitted under the three-fourths vote rule set out in that Paragraph. Paragraph 347 deals solely with the four years course of study; hence no other course of study can be read into it by construction or implication.

It will be noted that under Paragraph 347 six years are arbitrarily given, without penalty, in which to complete the four years course of study. If a member in full connection fails to complete this four years course of study in six years and the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the Annual Conference fail to extend the time, the penalty is location: such member "shall be located."

If the Board and Conference grant the full two years extension, and at the end of the eight-year term the member has not completed the four years course of study, the penalty is not only location but such member "shall not be permitted to join a Conference again on trial."

In the case here under consideration it is undisputed that Warren Douglass Golden was a member in full connection of the Little Rock Annual Conference, and that he had completed the four years course of study in five years. It appears that he had complied with every requirement under Paragraph 347. That being the case, he was not subject to location under that Paragraph of the Discipline.

It is likewise undisputed that Warren Douglass Golden was admitted into the Little Rock Annual Conference under the three-fourths vote rule provided in Paragraph 323 of the Discipline. Under that Paragraph he was required to pursue the two years of graduate work. At the end of three years after he had completed the four years course of study, he had not completed these two years of graduate work required of him. It is undisputed that for a considerable portion of this time he was ill. The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the presiding Bishop, and the Annual Conference recognized his affliction and even under the misconstruction that had been given to Paragraph 347 granted him a year of grace beyond what they considered to be the limit under such Paragraph. Thus he was given four full years in which to pursue and complete the two years of graduate work after he had completed the regular four years course of study required of all members of the Conference. Thus it appears that the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications the Little Rock Annual Conference and Bishop Paul E. Martin the presiding Bishop in that area had shown Brother Golden great consideration and had dealt with him leniently and in a brotherly fashion with respect to these two years of graduate work. It is further evident from the report of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to the 1949 session of the Annual Conference as hereinbefore set out that further extension of time would have been granted if some plausible or reasonable basis could have been found to avoid the effect of the interpretation of Paragraph 347 under which they were laboring.

Paragraph 323 of the Discipline provides that these two years of graduate work are to be taken under the direction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. The Annual Conference, under the Constitution (Paragraph 22 of the Discipline), has the right and authority to vote "on all matters relating to the character and Conference relationship of its ministerial members." Under Paragraph 631 of the Discipline, the Annual Conference has the power and right to "make rules to govern its own procedure, provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted it by the General Conference." Therefore, on recommendation of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the Annual Conference could prescribe the time in which the two years of graduate work shall be completed. For dereliction of a member of the Conference in this respect it could, under other provisions of the Discipline, take appropriate action. In the opinion of the Judicial Council, however, in such a case Paragraph 347 would have no application.

It follows, therefore, that a member in full connection in an Annual Conference who has completed the four years course of study within six years cannot be automatically located under the provisions of Paragraph 347.

Under the record in this case and the undisputed facts as hereinbefore set out, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the ruling of the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications concurred in by the presiding Bishop in the case of Warren Douglass Golden cannot be sustained. Such ruling of the presiding Bishop in the 1949 session of the Little Rock Annual Conference is hereby reversed. April 29, 1950

In Re: Ruling of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam in the Newark Annual Conference, May 24-28, 1950, in Bloomfield, New Jersey

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference has the authority to instruct its Board of Conference Claimants to include supply years in computing the annuity years of a member of the Conference.

JURISDICTION

One of the ways by which a question can come to the Judicial Council is found in Division Four, Article II, Section 3 (Paragraph 43, 1948 Discipline) of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, viz., "To pass upon decisions of law made by Bishops in Annual or District Conferences." Since the request for a ruling was made in writing and the answer is recorded in the Conference Journal (See Paragraph 40, 1948 Discipline), the matter is properly before the Judicial Council for consideration.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the Newark Annual Conference held in Bloomfield, New Jersey, May 24-28, 1950, the Reverend Hedding B. Leech, a retired member of the Conference, requested a ruling upon the following question:

"Many ministers have served as full-time Supply Pastors prior to their Admission on Trial in an Annual or Mission Conference. Has a Conference the authority to instruct its Board of Conference Claimants to include supply years in computing the annuity years of such ministers?"

Ruling of the Bishop

The Bishop ruled that the Annual Conference has the authority to instruct the Board of Conference Claimants to include supply years in computing the annuity years of such ministers citing as his authority the 1948 Discipline of The Methodist Church, Paragraph 1630, Section 16, which reads as follows: "Years served as a full-time accepted supply pastor may be counted on the same basis as a Special Conference Claimant in determining the annuity or dependency benefit claim of a Regular Conference Claimant."

Decision of the Judicial Council

Since the phrase "full-time supply" used in the question propounded to the Bishop appears to be well within the intended meaning of the phrase "Accepted Supply Pastors" used in the Paragraph of the Discipline cited, and in particular as applied to those full-time Supply Pastors who served in any one of the three uniting Churches as they existed before union, and before the term "Accepted Supply Pastors" appeared in the Discipline, we therefore judge the ruling of the Bishop to be correct. The ruling is therefore affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam in Response to a Request from Hallam M. Richardson, in the New York East Annual Conference, May, 1950, Relating to the Legality of Lay Members Holding a Separate Business Session at the Annual Conference

A business session of the lay delegates to an Annual Conference would be illegal if not called for the purpose of electing lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the Session of the New York East Annual Conference, held in Hansen Place—Central Church of Brooklyn, May 17-21, 1950, when the Presiding Bishop, G. Bromley Oxnam, took the Chair to call the Conference to order for the afternoon session, a request was sent forward asking the Bishop to announce a special meeting of the lay members of the Conference at 2:30 P.M. of the same day. The Bishop advised the Conference of the request but stated that he could not make such announcement since the Conference itself was then in session and it appeared to him improper for lay members of the Conference to be called to attend another meeting at the time the Conference was in session.

In a subsequent session of the Conference, Hallam M. Richardson, a lay member, presented to the presiding Bishop the following request for a ruling:

"Is it in accordance with the Methodist Discipline and the rules of our Conference for Lay Delegates to assemble for a business session, either at some hour when the Conference is in recess or while the Conference is in session?"

Ruling of the Bishop

The Bishop made his ruling as follows:

"It is illegal for Lay Members of an Annual Conference to meet for a business session either at some hour when the Conference is in recess or while the Conference is in session."

This ruling has been properly certified to the Judicial Council and is now regularly before the Council for review.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The Constitution of The Methodist Church in Paragraphs 22-25 of the Discipline sets out the constitutional powers of the Annual Conference. Paragraph 22 states that it is the "basic body in the Church," and that there are reserved to it certain voting rights and "such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution."

In the same Paragraph (Paragraph 22) appears the following constitutional provision:

"It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

This seems to restrict the Constitutional powers of the Annual Conference to those powers specifically enumerated in Paragraphs 22-25 in the Constitution. This interpretation is implemented by the following provision of the Constitution:

Division Two, Section I, Article IV (Paragraph 8 of the Discipline): "The General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctly connectional, and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority as follows: . . .

"3. To define and fix the powers and duties of Annual Conferences, . . ."

The Constitutional provisions relating to the powers of Annual Conferences (Paragraphs 22-25) do not specifically authorize Annual Conferences to order or hold separate meetings either of its ministerial or of its lay delegates.

The General Conference has granted to the Annual Conference (Paragraph 631) power to make rules to govern its own procedure, "provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted it by the General Conference." We believe, however, this would not authorize the Annual Conference to order or hold a separate meeting of its lay delegates or of its ministerial delegates without specific authority from the General Conference.

The General Conference, in Paragraph 646, has authorized the Annual Conference to order a separate meeting of its ministerial delegates "to consider questions relating to matters of ordination character, and Conference relations." The constitutionality of this provision has been sustained by the Judicial Council. (See Decision 42, In Re: Executive Sessions of Annual Conference Excluding Lay Members; Constitutionality of Paragraph 646, Discipline 1944, H. R. Van Deusen and W. G. Henry dissenting.)

The General Conference (Paragraph 502, Section 2) has conferred upon the Annual Conference the right to have separate meetings of the ministerial and lay members for the purpose of electing delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Apparently these two Paragraphs (Paragraph 646 and Paragraph 502) are the only two instances in which the General Conference has authorized the Annual Conference to hold separate meetings of its ministerial or of its lay delegates. The authority conferred under these two Paragraphs has its basis in the Constitution (Paragraph 8, Section 3).

The question submitted to Bishop Oxnam for ruling reads as follows:

"Is it in accordance with the Methodist Discipline and the rules of our own Conference for lay delegates to assemble for a business session, either at some hour when the Conference is in recess or while the Conference is in session?"

Since the question of electing delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences was not before the New York East Annual Conference in May 1950, the above question could not be interpreted as asking for a ruling on the validity of Paragraph 502 above referred to. It must be construed as relating to some other proposed meeting of the lay members of the Annual Conference. Since the General Conference has not authorized the Annual Conference to hold or authorize separate meetings of its lay delegates except as provided in Paragraph 502, no such meeting can legally be held.

Accordingly the ruling of Bishop Oxnam is affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Hazen G. Werner in Ohio Annual Conference with Reference to Election of Trustees for White Cross Hospital

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, now being the White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio, is the source of ultimate control of the White Cross Hospital and has the right and power at its discretion to change or amend the method of electing the Trustees of the corporation; but, until the Annual Conference changes the method set forth in Art. VI of the present Constitution of said White Cross Hospital Association, it is bound thereby.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the 1950 session of the Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, the question of the election of Trustees for Methodist Hospitals in the operation of which said Conference participates, came up for consideration. During the discussion concerning the same the presiding Bishop, Hazen G. Werner, made an official ruling as reflected in the following excerpt from the 1950 Journal of the Ohio Annual Conference:

EXTRACT FROM THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE OHIO ANNUAL CONFERENCE FOR 1950

"The nominations of Trustees—Charles A. Jones read the list of nominations for Trustees for Christ Hospital. Members of the Conference raised the question as to why there were not more ministers among the nominees, and what percentage were in The Methodist Church. The institutional representatives made satisfactory response to these questions. The question of making nominations from the floor arose. Charles A. Jones quoted from the Constitution of White Cross Hospital, which states that the Trustees are to be nominated by the Board and elected by the Conference. He felt that nominations were not permissible from the floor. The Bishop, however, ruled otherwise: 'Upon the request for the privilege of nominations in respect to the election of members to the Boards of Trustees of Methodist Hospitals, nominations made from the floor would be in order.'

"Bishop Werner ruled that 'Nominations by other than the Board are in order, and that inherently in the institution of elections is the possibility of choice.'"

(From the Proceedings of the Fourth Day, Saturday, June 10, 1950, Pages 672 and 673).

After this ruling Bishop Werner permitted nominations from the floor for Trustees for White Cross Hospital in addition to the nominations for said Trustees that had been made by the Board of Trustees of White Cross Hospital. The persons nominated from the floor were elected. The hospital has refused to seat those thus elected and maintains that the Annual Conference has no right to use its own judgment with respect to who shall be nominated and elected as Trustees of White Cross Hospital.

JURISDICTION

Division Four, Article II (Paragraph 43 of 1948 Discipline) of the Constitution of The Methodist Church reads in part as follows:

"Art. II—The Judicial Council shall have authority: . . .

"3. To pass upon decisions of law made by Bishops in Annual or District Conferences."

The Journal of the 1950 session of the Ohio Annual Conference shows clearly that such a ruling was made in said Annual Conference by Bishop Werner with respect to the matter here under consideration. Accordingly, we hold that the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to review and pass upon said ruling made by Bishop Werner in the 1950 session of the Ohio Annual Conference.

Decision of the Judicial Council

On March 16, 1891, nine citizens of the State of Ohio associated themselves together under the name, "Protestant Hospital Association of Columbus, Ohio," and executed and filed with the Secretary of State a charter for a non-profit corporation bearing the name, "Protestant Hospital Association of Columbus, Ohio." The main purposes of the corporation were stated to be:

"(1) To provide medical and surgical aid for the sick and disabled;

"(2) To train suitable persons in the duties of nursing and attending upon the sick."

The Charter makes no provision for Trustees or Directors. Presumably the method of administering the affairs of the corporation was left to the Association sponsoring the same.

In 1922 the Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church became the "Protestant Hospital Association of Columbus, Ohio," with full powers of control over said corporation. This is proclaimed by multiple references in the Journals of the Ohio Annual Conference, by the periodical statements of the Board of Trustees administering the affairs of the corporation, by amendment to the Charter of the Corporation, by the fact that the Annual Conference became joint obligor with the corporation for $750,000 in aid and support of the White Cross Hospital and by other facts hereinafter referred to.

The 1922 amendment to the Charter is most significant. By that amendment the name of the corporation was changed from "Protestant Hospital Association of Columbus, Ohio," to "White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio," the latter being distinctly Methodist nomenclature.

Between 1922 and 1925 two or three different methods of electing Trustees to manage the affairs of the Corporation were experimented with. In 1925, however, a procedure denominated "Constitution and By-Laws of White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio" was adopted by the then Board of Trustees and approved by the Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The part of this procedure denominated the "Constitution" recognized the ultimate control of the Corporation to be in said Annual Conference and specifically provided that the property of the corporation was being held by Trustees "in trust for the use of the Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and according to the usages and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

The Board of Trustees in its reports from time to time have recognized and referred to the White Cross Hospital as an institution of the Ohio Annual Conference. In the presentation of this matter before the Judicial Council it was admitted by all parties concerned that the White Cross Hospital (the corporation and its assets) is the property of the Ohio Annual Conference.

In this "Constitution" adopted by the Ohio Annual Conference in 1925, provisions were made for the election of Trustees as follows:

"ARTICLE VI

"The term of service of Trustees shall be five years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. . . . Election of Trustees shall take place in the following manner. The requisite number to fill the Board annually shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees and elected by the Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. . . ."

Article X of this "Constitution" gave the Board of Trustees power to fill vacancies until the time for the next annual election of Trustees.

Article XII, relating to amendments to the Constitution, reads as follows:

"ARTICLE XII

"This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Trustees at any regular meeting, provided that such amendment has been presented in writing at a regular meeting one month previous to its adoption, or by a majority of the Trustees at a meeting held for that purpose upon notice given personally to each member; and provided further no amendment shall be made to the Constitution affecting the election or qualification of the Trustees without the approval of the Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

An interpretation of these provisions of the "Constitution" of the White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio seems necessary to a final decision on the question now before the Judicial Council.

The Articles further proclaim the fact that the residuary control of the Corporation vests in the Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. This Conference delegated to the Board of Trustees of the corporation power to amend the Constitution and the By-Laws, but took particular care to preserve its ultimate control by denying to the Trustees the right to change the method of electing Trustees without the approval of the Annual Conference—the source of ultimate control.

The Annual Conference having become the "White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio" became possessed of full and unrestricted control of the Corporation. Once having obtained that power and still remaining the Association sponsoring the Corporation, it still has that power. In delegating to the Board of Trustees certain privileges it did not surrender its ultimate power of control and by direct action has the right to assert that power at its will.

That the grant of authority to the Trustees to amend the Constitution, as set out in Article XII, is merely permissive and is not a surrender of any power or authority vested in the Annual Conference is clearly shown by the contents of Article XII itself. This Article contains no words or phrases that can be construed to prohibit the Annual Conference from changing the Constitution. The language used definitely establishes the fact that the grant of power to the Trustees to change the Constitution was merely the granting of a privilege and not the surrender of a power or right. Note particularly the use of the word "may" in the first line of that paragraph as contrasted with the double use of the word "shall" in Article VI. This being only a permissive grant of power or privilege, the Annual Conference having the right to grant such power or privilege possesses also the power to make amendments to the Constitution on its own volition. This residual right and power in the Annual Conference to control the provisions of the Constitution is accentuated by the provision of Article XII of the Constitution prohibiting the Trustees from making any change in the method of electing Trustees without the consent of the Annual Conference.

The Annual Conference, however, having itself set up a rule which, by the double use of the word "shall" appears to be mandatory until changed, is bound by such rule and must act in accordance therewith until another rule has been established to take its place. Such an amendment to this rule may and can be made either by action of the Board of Trustees approved by the Annual Conference, or by direct action of the Annual Conference, the ultimate and residual source of all power for the control of the corporation.

Some members of the Council are of the opinion that the action of the Annual Conference in electing Trustees as it did at its 1950 session was the exercise of that residuary power vested in the Annual Conference. The majority of the Council, however, are of the opinion that by the adoption of this method of electing Trustees and emphasizing it by the double use of the word "shall" and by safeguarding the ultimate control of the Corporation by prohibiting the Trustees from changing that method without its approval the Ohio Annual Conference manifested an intention to be bound by that method until the Conference, by direct and unmistakable action, should change that method of electing Trustees.

Some members of the Council believe that the action taken by the Annual Conference in its 1950 session, by accepting nominations from the floor in addition to the nominations made by the Board of Trustees, was in effect an exercise by the Annual Conference of its residuary power to change the method of electing its Trustees. The majority of the Council, however, are of the opinion and hold that such action of the Annual Conference at its 1950 session was not intended to constitute a change in the established rule, but was merely the result of an interpretation of the rule as it now exists.

In the opinion of a majority of the Judicial Council the rule under consideration is not subject to the interpretation given to it by Bishop Werner. While Robert's Rules of Order are always acceptable authority on parliamentary procedure where other rules or precedents have not been established, we believe the well-established rules of procedure of The Methodist Church, as manifested in numerous provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, should control here. Many provisions are contained in the Discipline for nominations by one body and election by another body without the requirement that there should be a multiplicity of nominees so as to give the electing body a choice between nominees. In a sense this is a ratification rather than an election, but it is denominated in the Discipline as an election.

Furthermore, where a multiplicity of nominees is required, so as to give the electing body a choice between nominees, specific provision is made therefor. For example see Paragraph 901 of the 1948 Discipline relating to the election of members of the Judicial Council.

Since the rule established by the Ohio Annual Conference for the election of the Trustees of the "White Cross Hospital Association," and followed by it for twenty-five years, did not provide for nominees from the floor, we do not believe that was permissible under such rule.

The majority of the Judicial Council believe and so hold that the Ohio Annual Conference is the "White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio"; that it has full and unrestricted power to control the Corporation by that name and to determine by direct action from time to time as it may deem best the method by which the Trustees of the Corporation may be elected. Until, by direct action of the Annual Conference, the present method of electing such Trustees is changed, it appears that the Annual Conference is bound by the rule set out in Article VI above quoted and as herein interpreted.

In our opinion the major rules for the government of a Corporation cannot be ignored at will even by the body that has the power to amend or change those rules merely to suit an occasion. In this case a definite rule has been established for the election of Trustees. All persons interested in the White Cross Hospital have a right to rely upon the rules and regulations as prescribed until a lawful change is made. We, a majority of the Council, believe the Ohio Annual Conference is bound by that rule until it makes a change therein and that no different method of electing Trustees can be pursued by the Annual Conference until after it has made such change.

We believe this interpretation is in keeping with the rules and precedents of The Methodist Church, and the corporate statutes of the State of Ohio. It is supported by Decision 38 of this Judicial Council, In Re: Corporate Meetings, Central Kansas Conference.

Accordingly the ruling of the presiding Bishop at the 1950 session of the Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, to the effect that in the election of Trustees for the White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio nominations from the floor were permissible, is hereby reversed. January 3, 1951

J. T. Alton, at his own request, was excused from participating in the discussion and decision of this case, because of his recent membership in the Board of Trustees of White Cross Hospital.

Dissenting Decision

The White Cross Hospital Association of Ohio is a non-profit corporation organized and existing under the Statutes of the State of Ohio, Ohio General Code 8623-97 et seq. The members of the Corporation are members of the Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church. As such members they have all the voting and other rights accorded to members of any Corporation so organized.

It is held by the majority opinion of the Judicial Council in this case, however, that by means of a provision contained in the so-called "Constitution and By-Laws" of this association the voting rights of the members may be restricted or entirely abrogated. With this proposition we cannot agree.

We are in accord with the Decision wherein it is held that the members of the Corporation have the right to amend or alter the questionable provision in the "Constitution and By-Laws." But we believe it should be held that the rights of the members are not limited merely to an amendment of by-laws, but may be exercised in the manner which actually took place at the last session of the Ohio Annual Conference.

We should study carefully this provision relied upon by the hospital Trustees. This reads as follows: "Election of Trustees shall take place in the following manner: The requisite number to fill the Board annually shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees, and elected by the Ohio Annual Conference."

It is a general rule of law which applies to all corporate elections, whether same be business corporations with share capital, or non-profit or charitable organizations, that the members thereof at the duly appointed time, under the provisions of statute and such rules and regulations as may have been adopted, have the inherent right of election of Directors or Trustees. To facilitate such elections it is quite customary to provide for a Nominating Committee to suggest a slate of Directors or Trustees. It is not thereby intended that other nominations may not be made at the proper time, nor even to prevent any voting member from casting a ballot for some person not on any nomination list.

To give the provisions of Article VI of the White Cross Constitution and By-Laws the narrow interpretation insisted upon by the hospital Trustees, which in effect would give the hospital Trustees the right to perpetuate themselves, would do violence to a fundamental legal principle as to the control of any subsidiary organization of a religious or charitable body. This is recognized by the majority opinion in this case. If the Annual Conference is to elect, it must in the very nature of things have the right to "select by vote," or "to choose in preference to another or others." The right and duty of the members of the Corporation is not merely to approve the election of a slate submitted to them, but to exercise independent judgment thereon and elect or select from any names that may come before them.

It is to be noted that this is not a provision contained in the Charter and that it is not provided for by any statute. Yet it is contended that this clause granted to the existing Board of Trustees the exclusive right of nomination of successors, thus virtually giving the Board the right of continuing their control indefinitely. At the most all that this clause does is to provide a convenient manner of having names presented for consideration of the members. The use of the word "shall" in the clause is not to be construed as an exclusive method for nominations; but it is to be interpreted as making it mandatory on the Board of Trustees to submit an initial list of candidates for Trustees. In other words, it is the duty of the Trustees to present nominations to the Conference. In case they fail to perform this duty, it is still the right of the members to nominate and proceed to election of Trustees in the usual manner of corporate elections. By no possible grammatical or legal interpretation can the language used in this paragraph be construed to provide an exclusive method of nominations.

It must be clearly kept in mind that when the members of the Ohio Annual Conference were convened to elect Trustees of the White Cross Hospital Association, they were meeting in a corporate capacity as the members of the Corporation, and that the nomination and election of such Trustees must be governed by statutory provisions and applicatory law.

It is argued that in some instances in the Discipline of The Methodist Church provision is made for the selection or appointment of certain Officials or Committees through the medium of a nominating body. However, there is a very vital distinction between such cases involving the appointment of administrative officers or advisory and promotional Boards (even if the designated method of selection by a nominating body be held to be the exclusive method), and the present case which involves the election of the governing body of a Corporation. In other words, no such By-law as in this case can deprive the members—that is, the stockholders—of exercising their franchise in the election of Trustees under the provisions of Charter and statute. To hold otherwise would not be democracy nor good law.

Based upon the foregoing unquestioned legal principles as applied to the facts in this case, we would hold that the ruling of the Presiding Bishop in permitting nominations from the floor at the time of the annual election of trustees of this corporation should be affirmed.

In Re: Request of Council of Bishops for Decision with Respect to Constitutionality of Par. 502, Sections 2 and 3

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Section 2, Paragraph 502 of the 1948 Discipline is not unconstitutional. The following sentence in Section 3, Paragraph 502, "A spring Annual Conference may elect the delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences at its third regular session following the adjournment of the General Conference," is unconstitutional.

JURISDICTION

At the session of the Council of Bishops held April 26, 1951, at Grand Canyon, Arizona, the Council of Bishops voted unanimously to request the Judicial Council to determine the constitutionality of Sections 2 and 3 of Paragraph 502 of the 1948 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

In Paragraph 43, Article II, Section 1 of the Constitution the Judicial Council is authorized "to determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of a majority of the Council of Bishops." Thus, the Judicial Council is authorized to take jurisdiction.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Paragraph 24, Article IV of the Constitution provides for the election of ministerial delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences by the ministerial members of the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 25, Article V of the Constitution provides for the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences by the lay members of the Annual Conference.

Nothing is said in the Constitution that will either permit or prevent the ministerial and lay members of the Annual Conference from meeting separately to vote for delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Paragraph 22, Article II of the Constitution states that "the Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on . . . the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional Conferences, . . . and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution."

It would seem from these provisions of the Constitution that the Annual Conference is given a wide range of interpretation of the plan by which the ministerial and lay delegates are to be elected. Paragraph 631 of the 1948 Discipline states, "The Annual Conference may make rules to govern its own procedure, provided that no Annual Conference shall make any rule contrary to the Constitution or to the powers granted it by the General Conference."

Whether the ministerial and lay members of the Annual Conference must sit together in one room while voting, or in different sections of the same room, or whether they may have more privacy by meeting in separate rooms, would be a matter for the Annual Conference to determine, providing the place of meeting is declared to be the bar of the Conference and the meeting is under the direction of the Bishop.

In Decision 42, rendered by the Judicial Council on April 24, 1947, the constitutionality of an Annual Conference's ordering an Executive Session of the ministerial members to consider questions relating to matters of ordination, character, and Conference relations was upheld. Therefore, Section 2 of Paragraph 502 of the Discipline should not be regarded as unconstitutional.

In Section 3 of Paragraph 502 of the Discipline the statement is made that "a spring Annual Conference may elect the delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences at its third regular session following the adjournment of the General Conference."

Paragraph 23, Article III of the Constitution and the first sentence of Section 3 of Paragraph 502 both require that delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences shall be elected "at the session preceding the General Conference." Strict interpretation of that requirement does not permit the election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences at any session of the Annual Conference except "the session preceding the General Conference." The first sentence of Section 3 of Paragraph 502 is in complete harmony with the requirement of the Constitution. "The election of delegates, by ballot, shall [not "may"] be held at the session of the Annual Conference immediately preceding the General Conference." The second sentence of Section 3, Paragraph 502 clearly permits a violation of the requirement of both Paragraph 23, Article III and the first sentence of Section 3, Paragraph 502. This second sentence, therefore, is unconstitutional and is so declared. November 28, 1951

In Re: Rulings of Bishop William T. Watkins at the 1951 Session of the Kentucky Annual Conference

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

1. A report to an Annual Conference, containing a financial statement which the Discipline requires to be audited, should not be approved until the audit is made and the financial statement is shown to be correct. Other parts of the report may be approved pending such audit.

2. The Discipline does not specify the manner of presenting nominations for Conference Lay Leader to the Annual Conference; hence oral nominations are permissible unless the Annual Conference has provided otherwise.

3. In the Kentucky Annual Conference the nomination of the Conference Lay Leader, to be valid, must be made by the Annual Conference Board of Lay Activities by ballot at a meeting of such Board, at which a majority of the members of the Board are present and voting, and by a majority vote of the members of the Board present and voting.

4. The Discipline does not require that a certificate reciting the process by which the nomination was determined shall be presented with the nomination. When the nomination of a Conference

Lay leader is presented to the Annual Conference by a representative of the Board of Lay Activities, the regularity of same will be presumed in the absence of a showing to the contrary.

JURISDICTION

At the 1951 session of the Kentucky Annual Conference, Marcus C. Redwine, a Lay Member of the Annual Conference, propounded in writing to Bishop William T. Watkins the following questions:

1. "Can the annual Report of the Conference Board of Lay Activities be approved before compliance with Paragraph 722 'Audit' of the 1948 Discipline?"

2. "Can a Conference Lay Leader be nominated, except on certificate in writing that at a regular meeting, with a quorum present, that person so nominated was so named by ballot by a majority of said quorum of the Conference Board of Lay Activities?"

3. "May the nomination of the Board of Lay Activities for Conference Lay Leader be made orally, or must it be made in writing?"

To these questions Bishop Watkins made answer in writing before the Annual Conference. Therefore the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to hear and determine the issues involved in the rulings of Bishop Watkins above referred to.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The first question propounded is as follows:

"Can the annual Report of the Conference Board of Lay Activities be approved before compliance with Paragraph 722 'Audit' of the 1948 Discipline?"

To this question Bishop Watkins answered as follows:

"The failure by oversight of a Board of an Annual Conference to observe some legal requirement does not prevent a Board from making a Report to the Annual Conference, nor does it invalidate the right of an Annual Conference to accept the Report."

Before passing judgment upon this ruling of Bishop Watkins we call attention to the fact that the Kentucky Conference, under its Rule 21, operates, as far as they apply, under the Rules of the last General Conference; "otherwise Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall govern the procedure in the Annual Conference." (See Judicial Council Decision 66.)

Paragraph 53 of Robert's Rules of Order states that a motion to "accept" a Report is equivalent to adopting the Report.

Paragraph 54 of Robert's Rules of Order provides:

"If it [the Report] is a Financial Report, as in the case of a Board of Trustees or a Treasurer, it should be referred to an Auditing Committee, as the vote to accept the Report does not endorse the accuracy of the figures, for the assembly can only be sure of that by having the report audited. Whenever such a Financial Report is made, the Chair, without any motion, should say it is referred to the Auditing Committee or auditors."

In this case we have no record to show what disposition was made of the financial portion of the Report of the Board of Lay Activities: It is pertinent here to say that in the light of the provisions of Paragraph 722 of the 1948 Discipline, and the above quotations from the rules governing the Kentucky Conference, it was improper for that Conference to accept, in the sense of adopting, the financial Report of the Conference Board of Lay Activities until same had been audited and the figures found to be correct. In no wise should the provisions of Paragraph 722 of the Discipline be ignored or disregarded.

Even though some of the District Lay Leaders may not have reported, the Board should have presented its Report on the data at hand and had its financial statement audited, thus placing the blame for the incomplete Report where it belonged.

However, other portions of the Annual Report which do not relate to finances can be considered by the Conference at the will of the Conference. In so far as Bishop Watkins' ruling relates to matters that are not financial and which are not required to be reviewed by anybody except the Annual Conference, it is hereby affirmed. The financial part of the Report should have been referred to the Auditing Committee for audit and report.

The second question propounded is as follows:

"Can a Conference Lay Leader be nominated, except on certificate in writing that at a regular meeting, with a quorum present, that person so nominated was so named by ballot by a majority of said quorum of the Conference Board of Lay Activities?"

To this question Bishop Watkins answered as follows:

"When a member of a subordinate body makes a nomination to the Annual Conference for that body it is not necessary for him to state that the subordinate body has kept the law of the Church in arriving at its decision. Failure by the one making the nomination to state that the vote was by ballot and that there was a quorum present does not invalidate the nomination. Neither law nor custom requires such."

With this portion of the Bishop's ruling we concur and same is hereby affirmed.

To the third question:

"May the nomination of the Board of Lay Activities for Conference Lay Leader be made orally or must it be made in writing?"

The Bishop made answer as follows:

"There is no requirement in Paragraph 1494 of the Discipline that the nomination be in writing."

The Discipline does not specify the manner of presenting nominations for Conference Lay Leader to the Annual Conference; hence oral nominations may be made unless the Annual Conference has provided otherwise. We have no evidence of any action on the part of the Kentucky Annual Conference requiring such nomination to be in writing.

The questions propounded, however, have implications that are more far-reaching than the matter of whether the nomination can be made orally, or must be made in writing. They seem to inquire as to what constitutes a quorum, and what constitutes a legal nomination for Conference Lay Leader in the Kentucky Conference.

For a nomination for Conference Lay Leader in the Kentucky Conference to be valid, same must be determined by the Conference Board of Lay Activities by ballot, as provided in Paragraph 1494 of the Discipline. For said Conference Board of Lay Activities to make a valid nomination there must be a majority of the members present and voting, and the nominee must receive a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.

This statement is supported by the following:

1. The Kentucky Annual Conference is governed as far as possible by the Rules of the last General Conference. The Rules of the last General Conference (Handbook for Delegates, the General Conference, 1948, pp. 179-80, Section 3 of Paragraph 4) provide that a majority of the members of its Committees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

2. Robert's Rules of Order, Page 258, provides that in the absence of a specific provision for a lesser number, a quorum consists of a majority of the body.

3. In the former ruling of Bishop Watkins above referred to, relating to the election of a Conference Lay Leader in the Kentucky Conference, Bishop Watkins ruled that to constitute a quorum for the nomination of a Conference Lay Leader a majority of the Conference Board of Lay Activities was required to be present and that a nomination made at a meeting of the Board at which a majority of the members of the Board was not present was invalid.

Mr. Redwine in his brief filed in the pending case, states: "That was a correct ruling."

The Judicial Council concurs in this statement of the law. A nomination made otherwise is illegal and invalid.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council, however, that when such nomination is made to the Annual Conference by a representative of the Board, the regularity of the proceeding by which such nomination was determined will be presumed in the absence of a showing to the contrary. We draw an inference from the meager record before us that Brother Redwine, who propounded these questions to the Bishop, was present when the proceedings complained of took place. There is nothing in his brief or in the Bishop's ruling indicating that there was any irregularity in arriving at the nomination presented. We cannot hold that it was the duty of the Bishop to engage in an investigation of the proceedings of the Conference Board of Lay Activities in determining the nomination before putting same to the vote of the Conference. We feel that it would have been the moral duty of anyone knowing the facts to challenge such proceeding if there had been any irregularity therein. There is no evidence in the record indicating such irregularity. Bishop Watkins, in his statement in support of his ruling, asserts that there was a quorum of the Board present, and that the nomination was made by ballot, and that the nominee reported to the Annual Conference received a majority of the votes of the members present and voting. He further states: "All of these facts are conceded by the Plaintiff."

Brother Redwine, in his brief, makes no denial of this assertion, but states that it is "totally outside the record." Since the record is silent as to any indication of irregularity in connection with the nomination it can safely be presumed that there was no irregularity, and that the nomination and election were legal and valid.

Except as hereinbefore modified, the rulings of Bishop Watkins are affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke in Pittsburgh Annual Conference with Reference to Adoption of Ministers Reserve Pension Plan

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

The Annual Conference has no authority to delegate its responsibilities and powers to Quarterly Conferences except as explicitly given that authority by the General Conference. Therefore the Pittsburgh Annual Conference had no authority to delegate to the Quarterly Conferences the power to determine whether or not the Annual Conference would adopt the Reserve Pension Plan.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the meeting of the Pittsburgh Annual Conference, held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on May 19, 1950, the Annual Conference Committee on Reserve Pension Plan made its Report recommending, inter alia: "That the Pittsburgh Conference join the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund of The Methodist Church." Motion was made to adopt this recommendation of the Committee. Thereafter the following substitute motion was offered: "Before this legislation can become officially a part of the Conference financial program it must be approved by two-thirds of the Quarterly Conferences of the churches of the Conference." (See Journal of the Pittsburgh Conference, 1950, P. 501.) This motion prevailed, and Presiding Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke was requested in writing to rule on the validity of the above action of the Conference.

Bishop Wicke ruled that "such reference to the Quarterly Conferences for referendum would be a delegation of powers for which the Constitution makes no provision," citing Paragraph 22 of the Constitution and Section II of Paragraph 1642 of the 1948 Discipline. The question is presented: "Is the ruling of the Presiding Bishop valid?"

Division Four, Article II (Paragraph 43 of 1948 Discipline) of the Constitution of The Methodist Church reads in part as follows:

JURISDICTION

"Art. II.—The Judicial Council shall have authority: . . .

"3. To pass upon decisions of law made by Bishops in Annual or District Conferences."

Excerpts from the minutes of the 1950 Session of the Pittsburgh Annual Conference show clearly that such a ruling was made by Bishop Wicke with respect to the matter now under consideration. We therefore hold that the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to review and pass upon said ruling made by Bishop Wicke in the 1950 Session of the Pittsburgh Annual Conference.

Paragraph 22, Article II of the Constitution reads as follows:

"The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and Conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers, and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution, with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character, and Conference relations of ministers. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

A careful analysis of the provisions of Paragraph 22 above quoted shows affirmatively that the Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church and exercises such powers as are granted by Paragraph 22 above quoted. We can find nowhere therein any statement authorizing the Annual Conference to delegate any of its powers to the Quarterly Conferences.

Because of the importance of the matter herein involved, the Annual Conference could properly and wisely seek the advice of the Quarterly Conferences of its constituent churches by any means it deems proper. The Annual Conference cannot, however, leave the final determination of the question involved to any other body than the Annual Conference itself.

If we carefully note the provisions of Paragraph 1642, Section 2 of the 1948 Discipline, the relevant part of which reads as follows: "An Annual or Provisional Annual Conference, at any time, on its own determination, by a two-thirds vote of its membership present and voting, may enter the fund," we see that only the Annual Conference has the power to determine whether it shall enter the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. By no stretch of the imagination can this section be construed to give the Annual Conference the right to delegate this power to the Quarterly Conferences of the Annual Conference.

In those instances where the Church law has authorized the Annual Conference to delegate any powers to the Quarterly Conferences the power has been specifically set forth.

Since we find no authority in the applicable law of the Church authorizing the delegation by an Annual Conference to the Quarterly Conferences of said Conference the final determination of the question whether or not the Annual Conference shall enter the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, we must conclude that the delegation of this authority by the Pittsburgh Annual Conference to the Quarterly Conferences of that Conference was an unlawful delegation of authority; and the ruling of Bishop Wicke is therefore affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop J. Ralph Magee in Illinois Annual Conference with Reference to Adoption of Ministers Reserve Pension Plan

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

The Annual Conference has no authority to delegate its responsibilities and powers to Quarterly Conferences except as explicitly given that authority by the General Conference. Therefore the Illinois Annual Conference had no authority to delegate to the Quarterly Conferences the power to determine whether or not the Annual Conference would adopt the Reserve Pension Plan.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a special meeting of the Illinois Conference held in Bloomington, Illinois, on February 12, 1951, for the purpose of voting upon a Reserve Pension Plan for the Illinois Conference, a Report was made by a Commission to study the Reserve Pension Plan. (Pp. 804-5, Journal and Year Book, Illinois Conference, 1951.) A motion was made to adopt the Report of the Commission.

The following motion was made to amend the Report: "That the plan, when approved, shall be subject to ratification by three-fourths of the Quarterly Conferences of the member churches of the Illinois Conference, and shall be in effect and a campaign undertaken following such ratification."

The amended Report was adopted by a vote of 236 for and 178 against.

On May 21, 1951, Bishop Magee was requested in writing to rule upon the validity of the above action in a Special Session of the Illinois Conference.

On June 7, 1951, at the regular session of the Illinois Conference, Bishop Magee ruled as follows:

"It is my judgment and I rule that the Annual Conference has no authority to delegate its responsibilities and powers to the Quarterly Conferences, except as explicitly given that right by the General Conference. . . . It was moved that the plan, when approved, be subject to ratification by a three-fourths majority of the Quarterly Conferences of the member churches of the Illinois Conference before the plan becomes operative or a campaign be undertaken. This was clearly out of order. The Illinois Annual Conference must determine by its own vote whether it will enter the Reserve Pension Plan."

The question is presented: "Is the ruling of Bishop Magee valid?"

JURISDICTION

The above ruling was made in open Conference and is properly before the Judicial Council for review.

Decision of the Judicial Council

While the facts presented in this case differ slightly from the facts presented in the matter of the ruling of Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke in the Pittsburgh Conference, heretofore decided by the Council at this session (Decision 78), the question of law involved is the same.

The ruling of Bishop Magee is accordingly affirmed for the reasons heretofore set forth in the decision of the Council in re the Pittsburgh Conference case above cited. November 28, 1951

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Jose L. Valencia in the Philippines Annual Conference Relative to the Conference Status of D. D. Alejandro, Whose Term as Bishop of a Central Conference Has Expired; and of D. D. Alejandro's Appeal Therefrom, and Petition for Rehearing

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

A Central Conference Bishop whose term of office expires or is terminated is returned to membership in the Annual Conference of which he was a member when elected Bishop. D. D. Alejandro is bound by the 1946 action of the Central Conference under which he was elected, consecrated, and served as Bishop. At the close of the 1948 Session of the Philippines Central Conference he automatically became an effective member of the Philippines Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

For all intents and purposes this issue has already been determined, as the status of Brother D. D. Alejandro was determined by the Judicial Council at its April 28-30, 1949, Session. (See Judicial Council Decision 61.)

The present proceeding is in the nature of an appeal by D. D. Alejandro for a rehearing on the issue involved, though brought in the form of a ruling made by a Bishop in an Annual Conference.

The Constitution provides that the decisions of the Judicial Council shall be final (Paragraph 44, 1948 Discipline). Neither the Discipline nor the rules and regulations governing the procedure of the Council provide for a motion or petition for rehearing. However, should it be brought to the attention of the Council in any manner that an error has been made in a Decision, it will correct such error even to the overruling of a former Decision.

We have carefully considered the petition, argument, and exhibits presented by Brother Alejandro in behalf of his appeal. We agree with him that the action of the 1944 Session of the Central Conference was somewhat "muddled." The intent of the action of 1944 was clarified, however, in the action of the 1946 Central Conference when a new election was ordered for a term of two years. This action provided further that the Bishop then to be elected be consecrated for the two-year service, and contained the following provision:

"Upon the completion of such service of consecration, the term of office of the Bishop fixed by the 1944 Central Conference shall be considered terminated."

Brother Alejandro was elected for this two-year term, accepted same, was consecrated as a Bishop, and served two years. He is therefore bound by the provision above quoted and under which he was elected, consecrated, and served.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Neither the Constitution nor the Discipline provides the length of the term for a Central Conference Bishop. The "tenure" or term is to be fixed by the Central Conference under certain limitations. It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the 1946 action of the Central Conference under which D. D. Alejandro was elected, and was consecrated, and under which he served for the two years therein provided, was in accord with Paragraph 573 of the 1944 Discipline, and was therefore valid and binding on the appellant.

There being no merit in the appeal, the petition for rehearing is denied, and the ruling of Bishop Valencia thereon in the 1951 Session of the Philippines Annual Conference is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Pension Claim of Walter L. French

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

A retired minister whose pension payments from the Annual Conference were reduced during the quadrennium 1944-48 in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 1630, Section 1, Discipline of 1944, has no right to claim from the Board of Conference Claimants the amount of such reductions.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Walter L. French took the retired relationship in the Wyoming State Conference at the Session in June, 1944. According to the record he moved to California and took work as a Methodist Supply Pastor. During the quadrennium 1944 to 1948 his pension was reduced according to the provision of the 1944 Discipline, Paragraph 1630, Section 1. He protested to the Board every year and asked that the money withheld be paid to him. He has not at any time alleged any miscalculation, but has always protested that the legislation was unjust and invalid, and now he states that the General Conference of 1948 recognized it as such and therefore removed the provision (Paragraph 1630, Section 1) from the law of the Church.

Walter L. French asked the Board of Conference Claimants of the Wyoming State Conference to pay him all moneys withheld from his pension during the quadrennium 1944 to 1948 under the provision of Paragraph 1630, Section 1, Discipline of 1944.

The Board, in session at the Conference on June 15, 1951, adopted an action refusing the request. The Board directed the Secretary to report the entire matter on the floor of the Conference, and to request the ruling of the presiding Bishop, Glenn R. Phillips, on the legality of the action by the Board. Such ruling was made in open conference and is properly before the Judicial Council for review.

Ruling of the Bishop

"Ruling on the case of Walter L. French, a retired member of the Wyoming State Conference who appeals for special consideration in connection with his annuity claim for the years 1944-48, it is my ruling that, according to Paragraph 1630, Section 1, of the 1944 Discipline of The Methodist Church, the Board of Conference Claimants of the Wyoming State Conference is legally justified in refusing to grant the request of Walter L. French for a distribution to him which would necessarily be made without reference to the qualifying provisions concerning said years."

Decision of the Judicial Council

The appellant in this case seems to base his claim, not on the ground that the legislation of the General Conference of 1944, Paragraph 1630, Section 1, was unconstitutional, but that it was unjust. The Judicial Council has no jurisdiction to pass upon the wisdom of any General Conference legislation, nor whether it may perhaps work hardship as alleged in this case. The Judicial Council can only determine whether such legislation comes within the Constitutional power of the General Conference. Furthermore, the repeal of any legislation is not of itself an admission of any Constitutional error. In this case it merely indicates that the General Conference adopted a different method in handling this very controversial subject, for a period after 1948.

While the provisions of Paragraph 1630, Section 1 of the 1944 Discipline were in effect, the Board of Conference Claimants had no alternative but to carry out its terms. We must not overlook the grant of power to the Annual Conference (See 1948 Discipline, Paragraph 1616, and previous Disciplines) to be the sole judge of the advisability and validity of annuity claims. The basic right of a retired minister is only a right to make an annuity claim. He has no contractual rights "unless and until provision shall have been made therefor on an actuarial reserve basis" (Paragraph 1615 of the 1948 Discipline). It is the Annual Conference, under the provisions of the Discipline, that decides what shall be granted on the claim.

Accordingly, the decision of the Judicial Council must be that the Bishop was correct in upholding the action of the Board of Conference Claimants in this case, and therefore the ruling of the Bishop is hereby affirmed.

In Re: Ruling of Bishop Valencia in the Philippines Annual Conference with Respect to a Full-Time Ministry

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

It is not necessary to adopt a fixed rule to determine the applicability of the term "full-time ministry" (Paragraph 343, Question 17, Discipline of 1948), as each case must be considered by the Committee on Conference Relations on the facts applicable thereto.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a Session of the Philippines Annual Conference in March, 1951, the Conference reviewed action taken by it at previous sessions in 1948, 1949, and 1950 as to the interpretation and application of the provision in the Discipline as to "full-time ministry," with particular reference to Paragraph 343, Question 17, Discipline of 1948. At the 1950 Annual Conference Session there was adopted, on the recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, the following:

"By Full-Time Ministry we mean to include: first, the Pastors regularly appointed to pastoral charges who derive their income from the Church; second, ministers who are appointed by the Bishop under special appointment; third, students studying in approved institutions who are also pastors of churches."

At the session of the Annual Conference of March 29, 1951, the Presiding Bishop, Jose L. Valencia, made a ruling on the above matter as follows:

"In view of the fact that the 1948 Discipline required that the work of the ministry be full time and every member of the Annual Conference has taken a pledge to devote himself wholly to God and His work as provided in Paragraph 343, I hereby rule that the action on full-time ministry taken on February 18, 1950, is not necessary and the same is therefore ordered expunged from the records, and that any violation of the obligations contained in said Paragraph 343 or any other related provision of the Discipline may be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for action."

Decision of the Judicial Council

It is evident that the members of the Philippines Annual Conference were endeavoring to adopt some workable definition of the term "full-time ministry" which could be applied under the conditions existing in that country. In other words, they were trying to bind the Committee on Conference Relations to some fixed standards. It is evident that any such standards would have to be rather flexible, and that each case as it comes up before the Committee would have to be considered in connection with the particular facts applicable thereto.

Accordingly, as so interpreted, it is evident that the ruling of the Bishop was generally speaking correct in saying that any such rule is unnecessary. However, it was not in order to order the foregoing action to be expunged from the records, but simply to say that the same should be rescinded.

With the foregoing qualification, therefore, the ruling of the Bishop in this case is hereby affirmed.

In Re: The Continuation of a Central Conference Bishop in Effective Relation as a Bishop, He Having Reached His Seventieth Birthday Prior to the First Day of the Regular Session of His Central Conference

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

Under present provisions of the Discipline no age limit has been made for the retirement of Central Conference Bishops. Paragraph 436 of the 1948 Discipline applies only to Bishops assigned to Jurisdictions under the Plan of Union and those elected by Jurisdictional Conferences since Union. Under Paragraph 8 of the Discipline the General Conference has the right to prescribe a uniform rule for the superannuation of all Bishops, but to date it has not exercised that power.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following request for a Declaratory Decision has been received by the Judicial Council from the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, to wit:

"TO THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

"The Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas requests a Declaratory Statement of the Judicial Council upon the following:

"Whereas Par. 5, Art. IV, Sec. 5 of the 1948 Discipline in line 3 of said Section 5 provides that the General Conference shall 'provide a uniform rule for their superannuation' and

"Whereas Par. 438 states that 'each Central Conference shall determine the rules for retirement of its Bishops,' and

"Whereas the General Conference in Par. 436 (1) has set the following rule: 'A Bishop whose seventieth birthday precedes the first day of the regular session of his Jurisdictional Conference shall be released at the close of that Conference from the obligation to travel through the connection at large, and from Residential Supervision,'

"Therefore, the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas respectfully asks if a Bishop elected by a Central Conference may be continued in effective relation as a Bishop after having reached his seventieth birthday before the first day of the regular session of his Central Conference.

"LEON T. MOORE, Secretary of the Commission."

JURISDICTION

The Judicial Council, under Paragraph 914 of the 1948 Discipline, has jurisdiction to grant the request and to render a Declaratory Decision on the question submitted.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Article IV, Section I, Division Two of the Constitution (Paragraph 8 of the 1948 Discipline) grants to the General Conference "full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional." This is a broad grant of power, and unless there is found elsewhere in the Constitution some modification of, or a limitation to, this power, the General Conference has the right to prescribe one age limit for the retirement of Bishops assigned to or elected by Jurisdictional Conferences and another rule for the retirement of Bishops elected by Central Conferences.

The legislative history on this question reveals that the General Conference has so interpreted its powers in this respect. In Paragraph 436 of the Discipline it has established a rule for the retirement of Bishops assigned to or elected by Jurisdictional Conferences. In Paragraph 438 it has undertaken to delegate to Central Conferences the power to establish rules for the retirement of Central Conference Bishops. Whether the provisions of Paragraph 438 constitute an illegal delegation of power and authority need not be determined in order to answer the question here under consideration.

Central Conference Bishops constitute a part of the "Episcopacy" of The Methodist Church. (See Judicial Council Decision 4.) Under Section 5 of Paragraph 8 of the Discipline, reading as follows:

"To define and fix the powers, duties, and privileges of the Episcopacy, to adopt a plan for the support of the Bishops, to provide a uniform [italics ours] rule for their superannuation . . .," as well as under the blanket grant of "full legislative power on all things distinctively connectional," given in the first clause of Paragraph 8, the General Conference does have the right to provide a uniform rule for the superannuation of all Bishops, including Central Conference Bishops. So far, however, such uniform rule for the superannuation of all Bishops has not been provided by the General Conference.

It has been suggested that the provision in Section 5 of Paragraph 8 authorizing the General Conference "to provide a uniform rule for [the] superannuation" of Bishops, constitutes a limitation upon the legislative power granted in the first clause of Paragraph 8; and that a proper interpretation of Paragraph 8 as a whole is that in legislating upon the question of superannuation or retirement of Bishops it is limited to prescribing a uniform rule for the retirement of all Bishops.

In view of the broad grant of power contained in the first clause of Paragraph 8, and the fact that the provision set out in Section 5 of Paragraph 8 is not a clearly expressed limitation on this broad grant of power contained in the first clause of said Paragraph, it does not appear that the Paragraph as a whole is subject to the interpretation suggested. It would appear that a more reasonable interpretation would be that the General Conference has "full legislative power on all matters distinctively connectional," including the power and authority "to provide a uniform rule" for April 26, 1952.

In answer to the specific question submitted to the Judicial Council by the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, it is the decision of the Council that under present legislation on the subject a Bishop elected by a Central Conference may be continued in effective relation as a Bishop after having reached his seventieth birthday before the first day of the regular session of his Central Conference, but that the General Conference has the constitutional power to provide a uniform rule for the superannuation of all Bishops, including Central Conference Bishops, if it desires to exercise that power.

In Re: Election of Bishops by Jurisdictional Conferences for a Specific Area

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

All Bishops elected by a Jurisdictional Conference under Paragraph 439 of the 1948 Discipline have the same status as any Bishop assigned to a Jurisdiction under the Plan of Union or who has been elected by a Jurisdictional Conference; and any Bishop assigned to or elected by any Jurisdictional Conference may be assigned to any Area over which the Jurisdiction has been given Episcopal Supervision, including missions outside the territory of such Jurisdiction.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At a session held January 10, 1952, the Council of Bishops voted to petition the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision upon a question phrased as follows:

"What interpretation should be placed upon the election of General Superintendents by a Jurisdiction, under authority of the General Conference, for a specified Area?"

JURISDICTION

This case comes before the Judicial Council under the provisions of Paragraph 914, as a petition for a ruling as to the effect of actions taken by Jurisdictional Conferences purporting to be in accordance with legislation duly enacted. This petition complies with the above provisions, and we accordingly hold that the Judicial Council has jurisdiction.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The question referred to the Judicial Council as above quoted does not specify any particular act of the General Conference to be construed. We assume, however, that what is requested is an interpretation of Paragraph 439 of the Discipline, which reads as follows:

"Each Jurisdiction having 500,000 church members or less shall be entitled to four Bishops, and for each additional 500,000 members or two thirds thereof shall be entitled to one additional Bishop, provided that the General Conference may authorize any Jurisdictional Conference to elect one or more Bishops beyond the quota herein specified in order to provide Episcopal Supervision for mission fields outside the territory of a Jurisdictional Conference."

The latter part of this Paragraph was an amendment, adopted by the General Conference of 1944, to Paragraph 339 of the 1940 Discipline. In pursuance of the foregoing amendment the General Conference did authorize the election of additional Bishops in certain Jurisdictions. (See Paragraph 602 of the 1948 Discipline.)

Two questions seem to be involved in the inquiry, viz.:

(1) Were the Bishops elected under the provisions of Paragraphs 439 and 602 elected to serve only in a particular Area outside the United States of America, and

(2) May Bishops elected by a Jurisdictional Conference be assigned to Residential and Presidential Supervision in missions outside the boundaries of their respective Jurisdictions?

To answer these questions it appears necessary to consider and construe some Constitutional provisions that appear on first reading to be in conflict.

As a prelude to this analysis of Constitutional provisions, it is to be noted that a Bishop elected by a Jurisdictional Conference is not just a Bishop of that Jurisdiction, but is a Bishop of The Methodist Church.

Missionary Bishops are mentioned in Paragraph 441 as Bishops having been elected to serve in specified mission fields; but in none of the legislation providing for the election and assignment of Bishops by a Jurisdictional Conference is there any provision for the election of a Bishop to serve in a specified Area.

Paragraph 38, a part of the Constitution, provides that Bishops shall have Residential and Presidential Supervision in the Jurisdictional Conferences in which they are elected, or in the Jurisdiction to which they may be transferred in the manner therein provided. It has been suggested that this specific grant of power in this particular provision of the Constitution precludes the General Conference from authorizing such Bishops to exercise Residential and Presidential Supervision in missions outside of their respective Jurisdictions.

As bearing on that question, attention is called to the following significant constitutional provisions:

Paragraph 15 reads in part as follows:

"The Jurisdictional Conferences shall have the following powers and duties and such others as may be conferred by the General Conference" [italics ours].

Then follow six subdivisions setting out specific powers and duties of the Jurisdictional Conferences. The first clause in the Paragraph, however, precludes the construction that these six subdivisions are the exclusive powers and duties that the Jurisdictional Conferences may be authorized to exercise. The General Conference is given specific authority to prescribe other powers and duties for the Jurisdictional Conferences.

Paragraph 8 of the Discipline, also a part of the Constitution, confers upon the General Conference "full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional," and grants specific authority and power to the General Conference:

"4. To provide for the organization, promotion, and administration of the work of the Church outside the United States of America.

"5. To define and fix the powers, duties, and privileges of the Episcopacy," etc.

"10. To fix a uniform basis upon which Bishops shall be elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences," etc.

"14. To enact such other legislation as may be necessary, subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution of the Church."

It appears that these broad grants of power, including: (a) full legislative power over all matters distinctly connectional; (b) the power to assign to Jurisdictional Conferences powers and duties in addition to those specifically set out in Paragraph 15; (c) power to provide for the "administration of the work of the Church outside the United States of America"; and (d) the specific power "to define and fix the powers, duties, and privileges of the Episcopacy," forbid a construction of Paragraph 38 as meaning that the General Conference is without power to provide for Residential and Presidential Supervision of mission fields in the manner provided in Paragraph 439. Otherwise Section 5 of Paragraph 8 would be meaningless.

Section 6 of Paragraph 601 of the Discipline provides that the General Conference shall make provision for the Episcopal Supervision of work in territory outside the United States which is not now included in Central Conferences.

Paragraph 602 makes provision for such Episcopal Supervision in keeping with the provisions of Paragraph 439.

In the light of these broad grants of legislative power to the General Conference contained in Paragraph 8 and Paragraph 15 of the Constitution, it is unreasonable to presume that the specific powers granted to Bishops in Paragraph 38 were intended to be exclusive or a limitation upon the legislative powers granted to the General Conference in Paragraphs 8 and 15.

It is the Decision of the Judicial Council that the General Conference acted within its constitutional right in enacting the amendment to Paragraph 439 quoted above and in enacting Paragraph 602 in pursuance thereof. It is the Decision of the Judicial Council also that the Bishops elected under the provisions of Paragraphs 439 and 602 have the same status as Bishops assigned to a Jurisdiction under the Plan of Union or who have been subsequently elected as Bishops by the Jurisdictional Conferences, and that any Bishop assigned to a Jurisdiction or elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, is, under Paragraph 439, subject to assignment to Residential and Presidential Supervision in missions outside of the territory of such Jurisdiction, but which have been attached by the General Conference to such Jurisdiction for Episcopal Supervision.

In Re: General Legislation to Permit Individual Churches of the Central Jurisdiction to Become a Part of Any Other Jurisdiction

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

The transfer of a local church of the Central Jurisdiction to an Annual Conference of another Jurisdiction can be done only in accordance with appropriate action of the General Conference, Jurisdictional Conferences, and Annual Conferences, as provided in the Constitution. This method of making such a change can only be changed by a Constitutional Amendment.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The General Conference has referred to the Judicial Council the following proposed legislation for a Declaratory Decision as to the constitutionality thereof, to wit:

"COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCES

REPORT No. 1

"Subject: Membership in Jurisdictions.

"Your Committee recommends the passage of necessary enabling legislation, so that any local church or churches of the Central Jurisdiction may become a part of any other Jurisdiction in which the church or churches concerned may be located, providing such membership is mutually desired by the said church or churches of the Central Jurisdiction concerned, the particular Annual Conference of each Jurisdiction concerned and a majority of the Annual Conferences of each Jurisdiction concerned."

(See page 187 of the Daily Christian Advocate.)

JURISDICTION

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to determine the constitutionality of proposed legislation under Resolution adopted by the General Conference April 29, 1952, reading as follows:

"Be it resolved that to facilitate the determination of the constitutionality of proposed legislation when same seems important, that the Judicial Council be and it is hereby given jurisdiction to pass upon the constitutionality of any proposed legislation when such Declaratory Decision is requested by the General Conference or by the Council of Bishops."

No specific legislation is contained in the above quoted Report. Since it was referred to the Judicial Council by the General Conference immediately following the above Resolution, it is to be assumed that the General Conference intended that the Judicial Council should have jurisdiction to pass upon the subject in general, such Declaratory Decision to serve as a guide to Committees and other parties in framing legislation relating to the subject involved.

On that assumption the Judicial Council here determines that it has jurisdiction to render a Declaratory Decision of a general nature on the subject outlined in the above quoted report.

Decision of the Judicial Council

The character of the proposed legislation indicated by the Report involves the question of changing boundaries of Jurisdictions. In the presentation of the matter in argument before the Council representatives of the Committee on Conferences referred to Paragraph 538 of the Discipline reading as follows:

"538. For methods of changing the number, names, and boundaries of the Jurisdictional and Annual Conferences see Paragraphs 28, 29 in the Constitution."

Par. 28 of the Constitution relates to changes in Jurisdictions, and reads as follows:

"28. Art. III.—Changes in the number, names, and boundaries of the Jurisdictional Conferences may be effected by the General Conference upon the consent of a majority of the Annual Conferences of each of the Jurisdictional Conferences involved."

The proposed legislation indicated by the Report under consideration is based upon an interpretive theory that this Constitutional provision for the changing of the "number, names, and boundaries of Jurisdictional Conferences" authorizes such change in racial boundaries as well as in geographical boundaries.

With this interpretation of this Constitutional provision the Judicial Council is in accord. Otherwise it would have no meaning for the Central Jurisdiction. It was so determined by the Judicial Council in Decision 55 of date May 6, 1948, in which a proposal to change the boundaries of the Central Jurisdiction and the Northeastern Jurisdiction so as to allow the "New York and New York East Annual Conferences . . . to organize and promote new Negro work, which work, when organized, [to] be within the geographical boundaries of the Conference in which it is organized, and . . . be constituent churches thereof."

The Report under consideration indicates that the legislation to be proposed is to deal with individual local churches, and that in addition to the Constitutional provisions by which the boundaries of Jurisdictions may be changed, the legislation will also require the approval of the local church or churches involved and the consent of the particular Annual Conference affected in each Jurisdiction concerned.

Under Paragraph 8 of the Constitution the General Conference has "full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional." It appears, therefore, that it does have the power to throw around the matter of such changes in the boundaries of Jurisdictions other safeguards to arbitrary action of Jurisdictional and Annual Conferences contrary to the wishes of the local church or churches involved.

Under the Constitution, however (Paragraph 28), it appears that each change must rest upon its merits, and must be proposed by a specific act of the General Conference and be approved by a majority of the Annual Conferences in each Jurisdiction involved; but that the General Conference, under its broad legislative powers, may enact a general act to apply to all such proposed changes in the boundaries of Jurisdictions requiring that before such change can be effected, consent therefor must be had from the local church or churches involved and from the particular Annual Conferences concerned.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that no blanket enactment may be made by the General Conference for changes in the "number, names, and boundaries of the Jurisdictional Conferences," it appearing from the content of Paragraph 28 of the Constitution that specific action on each case is required.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council, however, that the General Conference may pass legislation applicable to all such proposed changes, requiring the consent of the local church or churches involved and the consent of the particular Annual Conferences concerned, and may prescribe the method in which such consent shall be obtained—either by petitions or memorials to the General Conference in advance of action by the General Conference, or by ratification or consent after the action of the General Conference. In all cases, however, there must be an act of the General Conference making the particular change in the boundaries of the Jurisdictions desired.

Since the inclusion of a local church of the Central Jurisdiction in an Annual Conference of another Jurisdiction would be, from a racial standpoint, the changing of the boundaries of an Annual Conference, it appears from the provisions of Paragraph 29 and Section 4 of Article 15 of the Discipline that the Jurisdictional Conferences of the two Jurisdictions involved would also have to take appropriate action.

It is argued by some that such a complicated procedure for such changes is not in keeping with the trend of the thinking in our Church, and therefore should not be held to be necessary. Regardless of such changes in sentiment and thought it must be held in mind that this Constitution was prepared with a view of getting it adopted by all three of the Uniting Churches, and such procedural restrictions were inserted as seemed necessary to bring about the desired result—Unification. Along with these restrictions, however, were inserted provisions for the amendment of the Constitution. It is not the province of the Judicial Council to effect by judicial interpretation changes in the procedure set out in the Constitution. Apparently a more liberal procedure should be provided. It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the Constitutional provisions for the transfer of work from the Central Jurisdiction to another Jurisdiction can be changed only by Constitutional amendment as provided under the Constitution.

In Re: Constitutionality of Proposed Legislation Referred to the Judicial Council by the General Conference

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

(1) The sentence: "Such a society of believers, being within The Methodist Church and subject to its Discipline, is also an inherent part of the Church Universal, which is composed of all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and which in The Apostles' Creed we declare to be the holy catholic Church," is not so clearly in violation of the First Restrictive Rule as to continue its insertion in the proposed legislation of which it forms a part, a legal matter of such a nature as to authorize the Judicial Council to take jurisdiction and render a Decision as to its Constitutionality.

(2) The proposal to add by legislation the words, "is the creation of God and" to Paragraph 101 of the report under consideration same being Article XIII of the Articles of Religion, does alter and change said Article. It is therefore in violation of the First Restrictive Rule, and is unconstitutional.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On April 28, 1952, the General Conference has referred to the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision as to the Constitutionality thereof the following:

One—The last sentence of Paragraph 102 of the Report of the Commission on the Study of the Local Church, which sentence reads as follows:

"Such a society of believers, being within The Methodist Church and subject to its Discipline, is also an inherent part of the Church Universal, which is composed of all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and which in the Apostles' Creed we declare to be the holy catholic Church."

Two—A proposal to insert in the first line of Paragraph 101 of such Report (said Paragraph 101 being an exact quotation of Article XIII of the Articles of Religion) the following expression: "is the creation of God"; making the first clause in said article to read:

"Paragraph 101. The visible Church of Christ is the Creation of God and," etc.

These two Paragraphs, 101 and 102 of the Report under consideration, read in full as follows:

"101. The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men in which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance, in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same (Paragraph 73).

"102. The local church is a connectional society of persons who have professed their faith in Christ, have been baptized, have assumed the vows of membership in The Methodist Church, and are associated in fellowship as a local Methodist church in order that they may hear the Word of God, receive the Sacraments, and carry forward the work which Christ has committed to His Church. Such a society of believers, being within The Methodist Church and subject to its Discipline, is also an inherent part of the Church Universal, which is composed of all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and which in the Apostles' Creed we declare to be the holy catholic Church."

Paragraph 101 is a quotation of Paragraph 73 of the Discipline known as Article XIII of the Articles of Religion.

Paragraph 9 of the Discipline, known as the "Restrictive Rules," is a part of the Constitution. Section 1 thereof is known in Church history as the First Restrictive Rule. It reads as follows:

"1. The General Conference shall not revoke, alter, or change our Articles of Religion, or establish any new standards or rules of doctrine contrary to our present existing and established standards of doctrine."

On the first item referred it was argued by the member of the Conference moving the reference that the insertion in the pending legislation of the last sentence of Paragraph 102 quoted above violates said First Restrictive Rule and is therefore unconstitutional.

As to the second item referred, it was argued by the one moving its reference that the insertion of the words "is the creation of God and" in Paragraph 101 would not be in violation of the First Restrictive Rule or any other Constitutional provision and therefore would not be unconstitutional.

JURISDICTION

At this session of the General Conference general authority was granted to the Judicial Council to render Declaratory Decisions on the Constitutionality of proposed legislation when referred to it for such decisions by the General Conference, or by the Council of Bishops. This action was supplemental to, and does not in any way alter or amend, the last sentence of Paragraph 914 of the Discipline relating to Declaratory Decisions of the Judicial Council, such sentence reading as follows:

"The Judicial Council shall determine from the facts in connection with each such petition whether or not it has jurisdiction to hear and determine the same."

In a Decision handed down May 7, 1948 (see Decision 59), the Judicial Council held that it "was not set up as an interpreter of doctrine but as an interpreter of law from the strictly legal standpoint." To that general principle the Council adheres. In each case submitted the Council must determine from the facts in that particular case whether or not it has jurisdiction.

Both of the items referred are of a theological nature. If it appears clear that the language used does "revoke, alter, or change our Articles of Religion," it becomes a legal matter of which the Judicial Council should take jurisdiction.

On the other hand if the language used does not clearly constitute a violation of the First Restrictive Rule, it should not be regarded as of such a legal nature as to authorize the Judicial Council to take jurisdiction and pass upon its Constitutionality.

The insertion in the legislation of the last sentence of Paragraph 102 as quoted above is not so clearly in violation of the First Restrictive Rule as to authorize the Judicial Council to take jurisdiction and interpret the same.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that as to the matter set out under Paragraph One in the foregoing Statement of Facts, the Judicial Council should not and does not take jurisdiction to render a Declaratory Decision as to the Constitutionality thereof.

The insertion of any word or phrase into one of our Articles of Religion, however, would constitute a violation of the First Restrictive Rule. The Judicial Council, therefore, takes jurisdiction to pass upon the Constitutionality of the matter set out in Paragraph Two of the foregoing Statement of Facts.

Decision of the Judicial Council

As shown above, Paragraph 101 of the Report of the Commission on the Study of the Local Church is Article XIII of the Articles of Religion and is so designated in the Report by reference to Paragraph 73 of the Discipline of 1948.

The first clause reads as follows:

"The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men," etc.

The proposal under consideration is to add to this clause by legislation six additional words, to wit: "is the creation of God and," so as to make this clause read as follows:

"The visible Church of Christ is the creation of God and is a congregation of faithful men," etc.

The only answer possible is that the introduction of the phrase, "is the creation of God and," though generally accepted as true, would be changing or altering the plain and simple language of Article XIII, not to say adding to it, and is therefore in violation of the First Restrictive Rule (Paragraph 9, Section 1, of the Constitution).

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the insertion by legislation of the words "is the creation of God and" in the first clause of Paragraph 101 of the report under consideration would be unconstitutional.

May 3, 1952

Dissenting Opinion

With the "Statement of Facts" as given in the majority opinion, the undersigned finds himself in full agreement. But he believes that the contention that, when the General Conference asks the Judicial Council to determine whether legislation, or proposed legislation, is Constitutional or unconstitutional, the Council is free to take or refuse jurisdiction, as it may choose, is not valid. It is the conviction of the undersigned that when the General Conference has requested a clear Decision, the Judicial Council is under legal as well as other obligation to make such a Decision.

The Articles of Religion are direct and clear, but they are likewise broad and profound; and though they state their truth dogmatically, this does not mean that the Church holding them can say nothing about them or that it is not warranted in drawing from them, within their expressed or implied meaning, such conclusions, corollaries, and applications as disciplined reason may deduce. For uncounted generations the doctrine of the universality of the Church has been preached from the pulpits of the Churches throughout the world and devoutly believed by the people, sometimes according to one confession, sometimes another, and not least among Methodists.

Very evidently the General Conference has no power to enact legislation which is at variance with Article XIII of the Articles of Religion, or which in any manner or measure renders its meaning doubtful or ambiguous, or less than simple, clear and straightforward.

The question before us is, Does the second sentence of Paragraph 102 of the Report of the Commission on the Study of the Local Church render the meaning of Article XIII of the Articles of Religion doubtful or ambiguous or complex, and does it add to or take from or in any way alter the meaning which it has historically been conceived to hear?

In my opinion the Judicial Council does have jurisdiction to give a plain answer to this plain question, and to say whether Paragraph 102 of the Report under consideration lies within or without the area of Christian faith and doctrine covered by Article XIII of the Articles of Religion. This is not a question of abstract theology, but of the definition of the concrete "visible Church of Christ." The Article declares that this Church is a "congregation of faithful men." Whether that "congregation" be present and existing in the flesh at a particular spot or a particular time, or whether it embraces the sum and assembly of all Churches in the world, or whether it includes all who have ever been a part of it, it is still a "congregation of faithful men." Article XIII also asserts that this "congregation" is a place or a company "in which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance." What can be more visible or real or concrete than that?

In determining this issue we are under obligation to avoid obscurantism and legalism and to give a clear and positive answer to the question propounded to the Judicial Council by the General Conference.

Let it be reiterated, therefore, that Article XIII of the Articles of Religion declares, "The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men in which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance." This is true whether the "visible Church" be of the Methodist or any other name. Methodists have historically so declared it in the Apostles' Creed, continually repeated by worshiping local congregations everywhere. This universal or "holy catholic Church" can be composed of none other than all Churches "in which the pure Word of God is preached and the Sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance." Therefore such a local church or "society of believers is an inherent part of the Church universal," and so to declare it does not violate the constitution of The Methodist Church.

Hence Paragraph 102 of the Report of the Commission on the Study of the Local Church, as adopted by the General Conference on April 25, 1952, is within the plain meaning of Article XIII of the Articles of Religion, and does not contravene, modify, or alter the fundamental law of the Church, and is constitutional.

In Re: The Right of a Retired Traveling Preacher to Vote in Annual Conference

DIGEST OF THE DECISION

There is nothing in either the Constitution or the General Legislation of The Methodist Church that would deprive a retired traveling preacher of his right to vote as a full member of the Annual Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 3, 1952, the General Conference in session at San Francisco referred to the Judicial Council the following memorial submitted by the Northern Philippines Annual Conference requesting a Declaratory Decision:

"We respectfully memorialize the General Conference of The Methodist Church, now in session, to: clarify whether or not a retired pastor retains his right to vote in the Annual Conference. If the right to vote is retained, we recommend that it be so stated in Paragraph 367, or some other appropriate Paragraph."

JURISDICTION

Paragraph 43, Article II of the Constitution states:

"The Judicial Council shall have authority:

"1. To determine the Constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of a majority of the Council of Bishops, or one fifth of the members of the General Conference.

"5. To have such other duties and powers may be conferred upon it by the General Conference."

Paragraph 914 of the 1948 Discipline reads as follows:

"When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any Paragraphs or Paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, any authority in the Church affected thereby that would have the right to appeal thereon to the Judicial Council under the law of the Church from any action of any Conference, ruling of a Bishop, or of any Board, Commission, or body of the Church, may petition the Judicial Council for a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation, or Paragraph or Paragraphs of the Discipline; and the Decision of the Judicial Council thereon shall be as binding and effectual as a Decision on appeal under the law relating to appeals to the Judicial Council.

"But only those who could appeal from an action under such an act, legislation, or laws can ask for such Declaratory Decision by the Judicial Council. Moot and hypothetical questions shall not be decided, but only those where some action is desired and some doubt or question as to the meaning or application of an act, legislation, action, or ruling is apparent."

From the above quotations from the Constitution and the general law of the Church, it is apparent that on the question set forth in the memorial presented by the Philippines Annual Conference and referred to the Judicial Council for a Decision, the Judicial Council is authorized to take jurisdiction.

Decision of the Judicial Council

Paragraph 21, Article I of the Constitution (1948 Discipline) defines the composition of an Annual Conference as follows: "The Annual Conference shall be composed of all traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge." From the earliest history of The Methodist Church the term "traveling preacher" has been interpreted to mean an ordained member of the Conference as distinguished from a local or licensed preacher, and "full connection" has referred to one who has been graduated from the course of study and passed from "On Trial" status to full membership. There can be no doubt that when a Methodist preacher retires either voluntarily, or by age limit prescribed by the legislation of the General Conference, such retirement does not terminate his "full connection" in the Annual Conference.

Moreover there is nothing in either the Constitution or the general legislation of the Church that would deprive a retired preacher the right to vote as a full member of the Annual Conference.

So far as the Judicial Council has been able to determine, the right of a retired preacher to vote in the Annual Conference of which he is a member has never before been questioned.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a retired traveling preacher "retains his right to vote in the Annual Conference" of which he is a member in full connection.

IV. LOUISA C. REILLY ESTATERESOLUTION

Adopted April 29, 1952. See Journal, page 319.

WHEREAS in connection with the Louisa C. Reilly Estate in Coke County, Texas, the residue of which was left by Will to the "Methodist Protestant Church," title to which property upon the probating of said Will, under the Texas law, automatically vested in the legal Trustees of the Methodist Protestant Church; and,

WHEREAS, the technical name of the Trustees of said Methodist Protestant Church was, "TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH," said body being a corporation of perpetual succession created by the Legislature of the State of Maryland in 1896 (Page 306, Chapter 192, of the 1896 Laws of the State of Maryland); and,

WHEREAS, the 1948 General Conference of The Methodist Church, assuming that legal title to said Louisa C. Reilly Estate had vested in "THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH" (said THE METHODIST CHURCH being the legal successor or of the METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH), authorized and directed said THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH to administer the property coming into its hands from the said Louisa C. Reilly estate, and to sell or otherwise dispose of same; and,

WHEREAS on advice of counsel it appeared that it was necessary in order to clear the record title to said property in THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH a quit claim to said Board should be obtained from the TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH, the Maryland corporation; and,

WHEREAS it appeared that the original trustees named in said Maryland Charter of 1896 were all deceased; and that under the Charter their successors were to be elected by the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church; and,

WHEREAS the Methodist Protestant Church had been merged in 1939 with the M. E. Church and the M. E. Church, South, to form "THE METHODIST CHURCH," but the Executive Committee of the Methodist Protestant Church with broad powers, had been continued in existence for the purpose of winding up and transacting any further business necessary in connection with the affairs of said former Methodist Protestant Church; the following procedure for clearing the record title to said property in THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH and in disposing of said property was adopted and pursued;

First: The Executive Committee of the Methodist Protestant Church met in session and elected the following persons as TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH, they to act as directors of the Maryland Corporation by that name, to-wit:

Bryan, J. F.	4637 Schenley Rd., Baltimore 10
Bunce, E. L.	2705 St. Paul St., Baltimore 18
Dudley, J. A.	2426 W. Lanvale St., Baltimore 16

Sexsmith, E. A.	2912 Rittenhouse St., Wash. 15, D. C.
Smith, L. B.	3612 Edmondson Ave., Baltimore 29
Warner, Paul F.	Linthicum, Maryland
Benson, F. M.	Davison Bldg.—Chas. & Fayette Sts.
Dexter, G. W.	7 Longwood Road

Perkins, W. C.	114 St. Dunston's Road
Reiner, Chas. Jr.	516 N. Charles Street

said trustees or directors to serve as such until the next General Conference of The Methodist Church, successor of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Second: Said TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH thereupon met and organized, and executed a quit claim to THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH to all of the following property situated in the State of Texas, to-wit:

"All right, title and interest of this Corporation and of the Methodist Protestant Church in and to all the property, real estate, personal property, mixed property, mineral interests, —all property of every kind and character in the State of Texas—bequeathed to the Methodist Protestant Church by Mrs. Louisa C. Reilly by Will of date March 2, 1945 duly probated in the probate court of Limestone County, Texas."

Third: The 1948 General Conference in its action directing THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH to administer said estate and to sell or otherwise dispose of same and make appropriation thereof suggested that the Board take into consideration the particular needs in the area where such property is located, and the needs of the Bronte Methodist Church, located in Bronte, Texas, in which town most of the property involved is located, and of the former Methodist Protestant Church at San Angelo, Texas (then known as Bethel Methodist Church, but now known an Angelo Heights Methodist Church), thirty miles away.

In keeping with this suggestion, investigation was made and it appeared that the Bronte Methodist Church at Bronte, Texas, and the Bethel Methodist Church at San Angelo, Texas, the latter now being known as Angelo Heights Methodist Church, San Angelo, Texas, were each engaged in a building campaign and each needed all the immediate help possible. The trustees of these churches felt that if the property was divided between them, they could sell a good portion of it now and thus obtain immediate aid to their respective building programs.

The Board feeling that such a disposition was strictly in keeping with the purpose of the Will and with the action of the 1948 General Conference with reference thereto, did, on March 8, 1952, divided the town property in the townsite of Bronte and additions thereto, between the two churches, deeding to their respective Boards of Trustees by Special Warranty Deed the property allotted to each in such division. Property to the value of $750.00 was first allotted to the Angelo Heights Methodist Church to match an appropriation in cash of $750.00 previously made to the Bronte Methodist Church, and the remainder of the property was divided equally as to value between the two churches.

Two or three small mineral interests out of the townsite of Bronte and its additions were retained by the Board for further administration; and,

WHEREAS, it appears that all these proceedings were necessary and for the best interest of the Church, and that said estate has been handled by said BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH with painstaking care and the greatest fidelity;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the General Conference of The Methodist Church as follows:

First: That the action of the Executive Committee of the Methodist Protestant Church in selecting trustees or directors for the Maryland Corporation, TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH be and same is ratified, approved and confirmed, and that the action of said Trustees on behalf of said Corporation in quit claiming the Louisa C. Reilly property in Texas to THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH be and the same is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed.

Second: BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the following persons be and they are hereby elected as trustees or directors of said Maryland Corporation "TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH" to serve until the next session of the General Conference of The Methodist Church and until their successors are elected:

Chairman: Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia)

Vice-Chairman: Welsh Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh)

Secretary: Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona)

Courtesies and Privileges. There shall be a Committee of fourteen, composed of one minister and one layman from each Jurisdiction and one minister and one layman from among the delegates representing Annual Conferences outside the United States, known as the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, having the following duties and responsibilities:

- a. To consider, as presented to it by members of the Conference, what said members regard as questions or matters of privilege, to decide whether they are such or not, and, if they are regarded as being such, to recommend to the Conference that they be heard.
(Note: Only questions or matters of privilege which are so urgent that they cannot wait for consideration by this Committee may be presented immediately to the Conference as provided in Rule 9, Page 16.)
- b. To prepare with due regard for brevity, and present to the Conference for its action, such complimentary Resolutions as occasion may demand.
- c. To arrange for extending courtesies of the Conference to any to whom they may be due, fraternal delegates and official visitors excepted.
- d. To arrange for a Memorial Service, at some time agreeable to the Conference, for deceased delegates-elect, for Bishops and General Officers of the Church who have died since the adjournment of the last preceding General Conference.
- e. To limit its report, including the statements of the Chairman and the hearing of such persons as may be presented, to a maximum of twenty minutes in any one business session. No person or persons shall be presented after the sixth day unless approved by a 2/3 vote of the Conference.

4. CREDENTIALS

Chairman: Henry L. Bradway (New Jersey).

Secretary: Elmer E. Collins (*) (Montana).

Credentials. There shall be a Committee of seven on Credentials. To this Committee the Chairman of the respective Annual Conference delegations shall report, on a form provided for that purpose, the names of absent delegates and of available reserve delegates to be substituted for said absentees. This Committee shall in turn report all such cases of absence to the Conference with recommendations as to the seating of reserves if such are available. No reserve delegates shall be seated except by action of the Conference and after a report has been made upon the case by this Committee; provided, that reserve delegates reported by the Chairmen of the respective Annual Conference delegations as substituted for absentees at the opening session shall be seated tentatively without the action of this Committee; provided, further, that such substitutions shall be reported to this Committee for review and report to the General Conference for its action.

All changes in the personnel of the seated delegates of the Annual Conference delegations shall be reported to this Committee on blanks provided by the Secretary of the Conference. Per diem allowances shall be paid on the basis of the report of this Committee.

THE COMMISSION ON ENTERTAINMENT REPORT

Adopted April 23, 1952. See Journal, Page 226

The Commission on Entertainment for the General Conference of The Methodist Church, 1952 session, presents for your consideration the following:

1. Your Commission, pursuant to authority given it by the General Conference, 1948 session, proceeded in due time and form to select the city in which the 1952 session of said Conference would be held, and selected the city of San Francisco, Calif., and has designated the seat of the Conference to be the Civic Auditorium in said city, and recommends that its action in this respect be approved.

2. That it has allocated the seats in the Civic Auditorium by lot among the several Conferences of said Methodist Church and that the allocation of seats as published in the seating plan as given on pages 5-6 of The Daily Christian Advocate of this date, April 23, 1952, be approved as the official seating plan of this Conference, subject, however, to such minor changes as may be found necessary; and your Commission respectfully requests that it be authorized to make from time to time such adjustments and changes as are found necessary.

Par. 501—Sec. 2 of the 1948 Discipline provides "General or Executive Secretaries of the General Boards of the Church who are not elected members of the General Conference shall have the privilege of the floor on matters affecting the interests of their Boards, but without vote and at the expense of their respective Boards."

In accordance with this provision and in harmony with the titles of the administrative officers of the various Boards and their Divisions, your Commission has provided seats for the Executives of the following:

Board of Missions and Church Extension

Division of Foreign Missions

Division of Home Missions and Church Extension

Woman's Division of Christian Service

Joint Division of Education and Cultivation

Board of Education

Division of Educational Institutions

Division of the Local Church

Editorial Division

Board of Temperance

Board of Lay Activities

Board of Hospitals and Homes

Board of Evangelism

Board of Pensions

It is the feeling of the Commission on Entertainment that the Par. 501, Sec. 2, in using the words "General Boards" intended to include all of the Administrative Agencies mentioned in Part VII of the Discipline and so has provided seats also for the following:

The Methodist Publishing House
Commission on World Peace
Commission on Ministerial Training
Commission on Public Information
Commission on World Service and Finance
Commission on Chaplains

3. That it has suggested meeting places for the Legislative Committee of the Conference in Committee rooms located in said auditorium. The correct list of said meeting places is published on pages 3, 4 and 5 of the Handbook and the Commission recommends that its suggestions in this respect be approved.

4. Your Commission has provided offices for the general officers of the Conference and a place of meeting for the Judicial Council in various rooms of said auditorium, a correct list of which is published in the Handbook on pages 3, 4 and 5, and your Commission respectfully requests your approval of its action in this respect.

5. Your Commission recommends that the bar of the Conference be fixed to include that portion of the floor of said auditorium which has been assigned for the seating of official delegates to said General Conference and authorized representatives of the various Boards and Commissions of the Church, including the platform, as shown on the printed diagram of said floor and shown on pages 5-6 of The Daily Christian Advocate of Wednesday, April 23, 1952.

6. Your Commission has provided press tables in front of the platform and we recommend that the representatives of the press as designated from time to time by this Commission be given seats at these tables.

7. Your Commission recommends that the nine (9) members of the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church be seated upon the platform during all business sessions of the Conference.

8. Your Commission recommends that the public offerings to be taken be limited to four in number. This recommendation is necessary because of the fact that an additional charge is made for the use of the Auditorium for every session at which an offering is taken. It is recommended that the four offerings be as follows:

1. April 23—Communion service offering to be taken for the Fellowship of Suffering and Service.
2. April 26—Offering to be taken to meet the additional auditorium expense for April 26, balance to be reserved for the expenses of the San Francisco Committee.
3. April 27—Offering to be taken to meet the additional auditorium expense of April 23 and April 27, balance to be reserved for the expenses of the San Francisco Committee.

4. May 4—Offering to be taken to meet the additional auditorium expenses of May 4, balance to be made available as an honorarium for the ushers and pages.

9. The Commission recommends that none of the evening addresses, other than the Episcopal address, shall be printed in the General Conference journal.

10. Arrangements have been worked out through the Radio and Film Commission of The Methodist Church to have a tape recording made of all Conference and evening sessions, and it is recommended that the Commission on Entertainment be authorized to designate a Sub-committee which shall be empowered to determine what portions of said recordings shall be released and under what conditions. It is further recommended that no tape recordings other than the above be permitted.

11. Your Commission recommends that Fraternal Delegates and distinguished guests be seated on the platform from time to time as occasion requires.

12. Your Commission recommends that the date and place of the 1956 sessions of the General Conference be fixed by the Commission on Entertainment in harmony with the provision of the Discipline.

13. Your Commission recommends that the General Conference vote a per diem of $11.00 to each delegate for the days he is in attendance upon the sessions of the General Conference.

14. Your Commission requests that when the Council of Bishops makes its nomination of members to serve on the Commission on Entertainment for the General Conference of 1956 that they appoint one of the Bishops to convene the Commission for organization within eighteen months.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK B. NEWELL, Chairman;
AUBREY S. MOORE, Secretary.

7. JOURNAL

Chairman: Clyde O. Law (*) (West Virginia).

Secretary: William H. Becker (*) (Central Kansas).

Journal. There shall be a Committee of seven which shall daily examine the record of the Secretary, comparing it with the stenographic record, and report its findings to the Conference, recommending appropriate action. Any error subsequently discovered in a section of the Journal which has been approved shall be reported to the Conference for corrections.

8. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER

Chairman: A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana).

Vice-Chairman: Harold S. Swales (Central New York).

Secretary: M. LaFayette Harris (Lexington).

Rules. There shall be a Committee of seven on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. The Secretary of the Conference shall be an ex-officio member and one of the seven. To this Committee shall be referred any proposed amendments to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. To it may be referred any other matters relating to parliamentary order or procedure in the business of the General Conference.

The Committee shall study the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, and, after making such modifications and adaptations therein as in its judgment are necessary, shall present them to the General Conference for its consideration and final action, the same to be published in the Journal of the General Conference.

The Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the General Conference shall be the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order as published in the Journal of the preceding General Conference until they have been altered or modified by the action of the General Conference (For this particular paragraph 3 of No. 10, Rules, see Par. 505, 1952 Discipline, of The Methodist Church.)

(Note: Under the name of each Committee will be found the following abbreviations: M P F A N. What do they mean?)

M: Total membership of this Committee.

P: Number present when this Report was acted upon.

F: Number voting for the adoption of this Report.

A: Number voting against the adoption of this Report.

N: Number not voting.

REPORT NO. 1. RULES

SUBJECT: AMENDMENT OF SECTION VI. ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW BOARDS, ETC.

Adopted April 28, 1952. See Journal, Page 292.

M, 7; P, 6; F, 6; A, 0; N, 0

Your Committee on Rules has considered the proposed amendment to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order offered by Dr. J. E. Skillington under Section VI, proposal to affect new Board, Commission or Committee, page 173 of the Handbook and recommends the following:

In line three substitute the word "final" for the word "any"; and, in line four, following the word "Conference," add the following phrase: "establishing such Board, Commission or Committee," so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

When any proposal is submitted to the General Conference to establish an interim or continuing Board, Commission, or Committee, before final action is taken by the General Conference establishing such Board, Commission or Committee, said proposal shall be referred automatically to the Council on World Service and Finance, or its Executive Committee, with the request that it bring to the General Conference an estimated Budget of the expense of operation of the proposed Board, Commission or Committee for the next quadrennium and a statement of how the adoption of such proposal will affect the Budget or Budgets for the existing Boards, Commissions or Committees as already presented by the Council on World Service and Finance.

REPORT NO. 3. RULES

SUBJECT: AMENDING (1) COMMITTEE OF CHAIRMEN

Adopted April 30, 1952. See Journal, Page 332.

M, 7; P, 7; F, 7; A, 0; N, 0

Your Committee having had under consideration the suggested amendment to the Plan of Organization and the Rules of Order, offered by Leon T. Moore, and referred to it in the session of Tuesday, proposing a change in the composition of the Committee of Chairmen, as provided in Section V, Para-

The second line of the paragraph, delete the word "and," and the third line, following the word "Rules," add the following: "and the Chairman of the Committee on Entertainment," so that the paragraph shall now read, "(1) Committee of Chairmen. The Chairmen of the several Legislative Committees, the Chairman of the Committee on Rules, and the Chairman of the Committee on Entertainment shall be constituted a Committee whose function it shall be to arrange for the presentation of Committee Reports to the Conference in such order as to expedite the business."

A. WESLEY PUGH, Chairman;

M. LAFAYETTE HARRIS, Secretary.

REPORT No. 4. RULES

SUBJECT: PUBLICATION OF PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER FOR 1956

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 358

M, 7; P, 7; F, 7; A, 0; N, 0

The Committee has had under consideration paragraph (10), page 168 of the Handbook, entitled "Rules," as referred to it by the action of the General Conference in the session of Wednesday upon motion of Dr. Nolan Harmon.

The Committee makes two recommendations:

1. Amend the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the General Conference so that the latter paragraph of section (10), page 168 of the Handbook having to do with the functions of the Committee on Rules shall read:

The Committee shall study the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order and, after making such modifications and adaptations therein as in its judgment are necessary, shall present them to the General Conference for its consideration and final action, same to be published in the Journal of the General Conference.

2. Amend the Discipline Part IV, Chapter I, Section III, having to do with General Conference procedure, by adding a new Paragraph to be numbered Paragraph 505 with appropriate re-numbering of the Paragraphs following, the new Paragraph to read:

The plan or organization and rules of order of the General Conference shall be the plan of organization and rules of order as published in the Journal of the preceding General Conference until they have been altered or modified by the action of the General Conference.

REPORT No. 5. RULES

SUBJECT: PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER
FOR 1956 GENERAL CONFERENCE

Amended—Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 608, 662

M, 7; P, 7; F, 7; A, 0; N, 0

Your Committee on Rules, following the order of the General Conference, presents for the consideration and adoption of the General Conference, the following:

A. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

I. OPENING SESSION AND ORGANIZATION

The General Conference shall assemble at 10 o'clock A.M., on the day fixed and at the place determined upon in accordance with action taken by the preceding General Conference. The Holy Communion shall be celebrated by the Conference, the Council of Bishops being in charge; after which the Conference shall be called to order by the Bishop designated, as provided in Paragraph 8, Item 11, of the "Discipline."

The following order of business shall be observed.

A. Roll Call. The Roll shall be called by the Secretary of the preceding General Conference in the following manner:

1. There shall be called the names of the Bishops who have died since the adjournment of the preceding General Conference, and likewise the names of Delegates-elect who have died.

2. The record of attendance shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the General Conference by a. The Secretary of the Council of Bishops for the Bishops and

b. The Chairman of each delegation for its membership. The Chairman shall be provided with a blank form on which to report in writing the attendance of its members, noting absentees and substitutions, which reports shall be tabulated by the Secretary and published in The Daily Advocate. Any Reserve seated in the place of a Regular Delegate shall have been duly elected as a Reserve Delegate by his Annual Conference, and shall meet the requirements set forth in the "Discipline." Delegates, including Reserves, when the latter are substituted for a Delegate or Delegates, shall be seated in the order of their election, except when a Reserve is seated temporarily, in which case he shall occupy the seat of the Delegate for whom he is substituted. All Delegates arriving after the opening Roll Call shall be reported by the Chairman of the Delegation to the Committee on Credentials, in order to be properly enrolled.

3. A majority of the whole number of Delegates to the General Conference shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. (Paragraph 503, "Discipline.")

B. Election of Secretary. If a quorum be present, the Conference shall elect from the ministry or lay membership of The Methodist Church, on nomination from the floor, a Secretary, which election shall be by ballot if there be two or more nominees. (See Section IV.)

Should the Secretary not be a Delegate, he shall have the privilege of the floor, but without vote.

C. Committee Nominations and Elections. The Council of Bishops shall present nominations for the Administrative Committees, and such other nominations as are hereinafter committed to it, for election by the General Conference.

D. Miscellaneous Business.

E. Adjournment.

II. EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

There shall be a session of the General Conference held at 8:00 P.M., on the opening day, for the purpose of hearing the Quadrennial Address of the Council of Bishops.

III. PRESIDING OFFICERS

The Presiding Officers for the several sessions of the Conference, the opening session excepted (See Sec. I), shall be chosen from among the effective Bishops in the following manner: The Council of Bishops shall at the opening session nominate for election by the Conference a Committee on Presiding Officers composed of one minister and one layman from each Jurisdiction, and one minister and one layman from among the Delegates representing the Annual Conference outside the United States. The Committee thus constituted shall select the Presiding Officers for each session of the Conference, notifying the Bishop of his selection at least 24 hours in advance, and in each instance report its selection to the Conference prior to adjournment of the session immediately preceding.

IV. SECRETARIAL STAFF

1. The Secretary of the General Conference elected as hereinbefore provided shall serve until the next General Conference is organized and a successor elected.

2. The Conference shall elect, upon the nomination of the Secretary, such Assistant Secretaries from the ministry or lay membership of The Methodist Church, as it may deem wise.

3. If in the interim of the quadrennial sessions of the General Conference the office of Secretary shall for any reason be vacated, the Council of Bishops shall elect a successor to serve until the next session.

V. ENTERTAINMENT AND PROGRAM

There shall be a Commission on Entertainment and Program of the General Conference composed of one minister and one layman from each Jurisdiction who shall be nominated by the Council of Bishops and elected by General Conference. The Secretary of the General Conference and the Treasurer of the General Administration Fund shall also be members ex officio, but without vote. This Commission shall determine the place and time (within such limits as may be set up by the General Conference) of the next General Conference and shall make all necessary arrangements in connection therewith including arrangements for the publication of a Book of Quadrennial Reports of the General Boards and other General Agencies of the Church, the same to be published by The Methodist Publishing House.

The Council of Bishops shall designate one of their number to convene and organize the Commission within eighteen months following the adjournment of the General Conference. The Commission shall arrange for the local entertainment of Fraternal Delegates for the reasonable period of time required for their presentation to the General Conference.

VI. COMMITTEES

The General Conference shall have the Standing Committees hereinafter indicated with such functions, responsibilities, and limitations respectively as are hereinafter prescribed, and such Special Committees as it may order.

1. Administrative Committees

(1) Committee of Chairmen. The Chairmen of the several Legislative Committees, the Chairman of the Committee on Rules, and the Chairman of the Commission on Entertainment shall be constituted a Committee whose function it shall be to arrange for the presentation of Committee reports to the Conference in such order as to expedite the business.

(2) Correlation and Editorial Revision. There shall be a Committee of three known as a Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision. This Committee shall be composed of three persons not members of the General Conference, appointed by the Council of Bishops. They shall be entitled to travel expense and per diem allowance, the same as the Delegates. The functions of this Committee shall be:

(a) To review all legislation enacted by the General Conference and to report promptly to the Legislative Committees concerned, or to the General Conference as the situation may warrant, any and all contradictions, duplications and inconsistencies discovered therein.

(b) To report to the Chairmen of the several Legislative Committees all changes it has made in the language of the Reports adopted by the General Conference.

(3) Courtesies and Privileges. There shall be a Committee of fourteen, composed of one minister and one layman from each Jurisdiction and one minister and one layman from among the Delegates representing Annual Conferences outside the United States, known as the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, having the following duties and responsibilities:

a. To consider, as presented to it by members of the Conference, what said members regard as questions or matters of privilege, to decide whether they are such or not, and if they are regarded as being such, to recommend to the Conference that they be heard.

(NOTE: Only questions or matters of privilege which are so urgent that they cannot wait for consideration by this Committee may be presented immediately to the Conference as provided in Rule 9.)

b. To prepare with due regard for brevity, and present to the Conference for its action, such complimentary Resolutions as occasion may demand.

c. To arrange for extending courtesies of the Conference to any to whom they may be due, Fraternal Delegates and official visitors excepted.

d. To arrange for a Memorial Service, at some time agreeable to the Conference for deceased Delegates-elect, for Bishops and General Officers of the Church who have died since the adjournment of the last preceding General Conference.

e. To limit its Report, including the statement of the Chairman and the hearing of such persons as may be presented, to a maximum of twenty minutes in any one business session. No person or persons shall be presented after the sixth day unless approved by a 2/3 vote of the Conference.

f. To prepare and publish in the Daily Christian Advocate contemporaneously with the list of the nominees for election to the Judicial Council, biographical sketches not to exceed 100 words in length for each nominee.

(4) Credentials. There shall be a Committee of seven on Credentials. To this Committee the Chairmen of the respective Annual Conference delegations shall report, on a form provided for that purpose, the names of absent Delegates and of available Reserve Delegates to be substituted for said absentees. This Committee shall in turn report all such cases of absence to the Conference with recommendations as to the seating of Reserves if such are available. No Reserve Delegates shall be seated except by action of the Conference and after a report has been made upon the case by this Committee; provided, the Reserve Delegates reported by the Chairman of the respective Annual Conference delegation as substituted for absentees at the opening session shall be seated tentatively without the action of this Committee; provided, further, that such substitutions shall be reported to this Committee for review and Report to the General Conference for its action.

All changes in the personnel of the seated delegates of the Annual Conference delegations shall be reported to this Committee on blanks provided by the Secretary of the Conference. Per diem allowances shall be paid on the basis of the Report of this Committee.

(5) Fraternal Delegates. There shall be a Committee of seven whose function it shall be to extend the courtesies of the Conference to the Fraternal Delegates and Official Visitors and present them to the General Conference at its pleasure. The terms "Fraternal Delegates" and "Official Visitors" shall be interpreted to include only persons who have been duly elected by the Christian Communions of which they are respectively members to represent the same before the General Conference, and who present the appropriate Credentials of such elections.

(6) Journal. There shall be a Committee of seven which shall daily examine the record of the Secretary comparing it with the stenographic record and report its findings to the Conference, recommending appropriate action. Any error subsequently discovered in a section of the Journal which has been approved shall be reported to the Conference for correction.

(7) Presiding Officer. See Section III.

(8) Reference. There shall be a Committee of Reference composed of one ministerial and one lay representative from each Jurisdiction, at least two of whom shall be lawyers and one minister and one layman from Conferences outside the United States, to be appointed by the Council of Bishops from the regularly elected delegates to the ensuing General Conference at the winter meeting of the said Council of Bishops, preceding the session of the General Conference. Said Committee shall meet with the Secretary of the previous General Conference at the seat of the Conference on the Monday preceding the opening of said Conference. This Committee shall be convened by the Secretary of the General Conference. After ascertaining that the Memorials, Resolutions and similar communications dealing with the regular business of the Conference meet the requirements herein specified, this Committee shall refer the same to the appropriate Administrative or Legislative Committees. This Committee shall be responsible for such assignment of all Memorials, which may be in the hands of the Secretary prior to the opening session, including the Episcopal Address, the Book of Printed Quadrennial Reports, and all other communications which shall come into his hands after the convening of the General Conference. The third day of the Conference shall be fixed as the deadline for the introduction of Memorials and Petitions.

The Committee of Reference may withdraw a paper after having assigned it to a Committee, either upon a request or upon its own motion. It may also withhold from reference or publication any document it shall deem improper, promptly advising the author, or authors, thereof of its action in order that an appeal may be made to the Conference if desired. The Committee shall publish as promptly as possible, in The Daily Advocate, lists of the communications it has referred to the several Standing Committees, identifying each by number, title, origin, and destination. No Memorial or Petition shall be assigned by the Committee of Reference to any General Conference Committee unless it comes from some organization, minister, or member of The Methodist Church, and also contains information essential to the verification of the alleged facts concerning its origin.

All Memorials should be presented in triplicate. Each should deal with only one general subject. Not more than one Memorial should be presented on a single sheet of paper.

(9) Rules. There shall be a Committee of seven on Plan of Organization and Rules of Orders. The Secretary of the Conference shall be an ex-officio member and one of the seven. To this Committee shall be referred any proposed Amendments to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. (See Rule 40.) To it may be referred any other matters relating to parliamentary order or procedure in the business of the General Conference.

This Committee shall restudy the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order and, after making such needed changes and adaptations therein as in its judgment are necessary, shall present them to the General Conference for consideration and final action, same to be published in the Journal of the General Conference.

The Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the General Conference shall be the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order as published in the Journal of the preceding General Conference, until they have been altered or modified by the action of the General Conference. (See Par. 505, 1952 Discipline, The Methodist Church.)

(10) Sifting Committee. There shall be a Committee of seven to whom shall be referred, without motion or debate, all questions, proposals, Resolutions, communications, or other matters not included in the regular business of the General Conference, as set forth in this Plan of Organization. This Committee shall determine whether or not the matter presented shall be considered by the Conference. If matters of the nature above described shall be introduced in open Conference without having been approved by this Committee, the Presiding Officer shall, as soon as he shall have discovered the character of the same, refer all such matters to this Committee without reading, and the same shall not be publicized in The Daily Advocate unless and until they have been approved and presented to the Conference by the Sifting Committee; provided, however, that should the Sifting Committee determine that any matter referred to it should not be brought before the Conference for consideration, then if a petition signed by twenty, or more, members of the Conference shall be presented to the Conference requesting consideration, unless a two-thirds vote of the members of the Conference present and voting shall refuse consideration, the matter shall be referred by the Sifting Committee to a Standing Committee of its choice.

(11) Tellers. There shall be a Committee of sixty, to act as Tellers for the purpose of reporting on count votes and ballots ordered by the General Conference. The Tellers shall be divided into two groups of thirty each. Each group shall have Reserve Tellers in such number as the Council of Bishops may deem proper.

2. Legislative Committees

The General Conference shall have the following Standing

Legislative Committees which shall consider all proposals looking toward new legislation or changes in the present legislation of the Church and report recommendations relating thereto to the Conference. The term "legislative," however, as descriptive of the functions of these Committees, is not to be interpreted with absolute strictness, inasmuch as they may consider matters calculated to eventuate in the form of Advices, Resolutions, Appeals, etc., as well as in legislation.

(1) Conferences. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the General, Jurisdictional, Central, Provisional Central, Annual, Provisional Annual, District, Quarterly, and Church Conferences, and Missions, and the organization of the local church.

(2) Education. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to the Board of Education and to the interests and activities which by the law of the Church are made the concern of this Board.

(3) Lay Activities. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating distinctly to Lay Activities and the Board of Lay Activities.

(4) Membership and Evangelism. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to church membership, including conditions, duties, and transfer thereof; and all matters pertaining to Evangelism and to the devotional life and literature of the Church, made by the law of the Church the concern of the Board of Evangelism.

(5) Ministry. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to the ministry of the Church in all its forms, grades, and orders.

(6) Missions. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the Board of Missions and church extension and to the interests and activities made by the law of the Church the concern of this Board.

(7) Pensions. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to the support of retired and supernumerary ministers, widows, and dependent children of deceased ministers, not including Bishops, and all matters relating to pensions of Lay Employees of Church Organizations, Boards, Agencies or institutions.

(8) Publishing Interests. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to the Board of Publication and to the interests and activities made by the law of the Church the concern of this Board.

(9) State of the Church. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to social service, labor relations, Sabbath observance, divorce, amusements, and those elements, factors, and aspects of the social and spiritual welfare of the Church not made the responsibility of any other Committee.

(10) Temporal Economy. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to Trustees, properties, church finance (general and local), and to such activities of the Church at large in and through its institutions and Boards as are not made the specific responsibility of any other Committee.

(11) Temperance and Prohibition. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to temperance and prohibition of the liquor traffic and all matters relating to the Board of Temperance and to the interests and activities made by the law of the Church the concern of this Board.

(12) Hospitals and Homes. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to the Board of Hospitals and Homes, to the interests and activities which by the law of the Church are made the concern of this Board, and to all the eleemosynary work and responsibility of the Church not comprehended in the responsibility of any other Legislative Committee.

(13) Inter-Denominational Relations and Activities. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to Inter-Denominational activities, relations, interest, and responsibilities of The Methodist Church, including the American Bible Society, the National Council of Churches of Christ in U. S. A., and the World Council of Churches.

(14) Judicial Administration. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to the formal disciplining, trial, and appeal of members and ministers of The Methodist Church and relating to the Judicial Council and the judicial procedure within the Church.

(15) Ritual and Orders of Worship. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc. relating to ritual and orders of worship.

(16) Enabling Acts and Legal Forms. There shall be a Committee of seven charged with the responsibility of preparing and presenting for adoption by the Conference such Enabling Acts and Legal Forms as may be needed in the continuing process of unifying the interests and agencies of the Church.

3. Membership of Committees

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan of Organization, or ordered by the General Conference, the membership of all Committees shall be constituted by election of the Conference, on nomination of the Council of Bishops. In making nominations the Council of Bishops shall maintain as nearly as practicable and advisable an equal ratio of representation between Ministerial and Lay Delegates on all Committees.

(2) Legislative Committees numbered 11 to 15, inclusive (Temperance and Prohibition, Hospitals and Homes, Inter-Denominational Relations and Activities Judicial Administration, and Ritual and Orders of Worship), shall each consist of two ministers and two laymen from each Jurisdiction, and one minister and one layman from the Delegates representing Annual Conferences outside the United States.

(3) Each Delegate shall serve as a member of one of the Legislative Committees numbered 1 to 10. Within the Delegation each member shall choose from the Legislative Committees 1 to 10 the Committee on which he shall serve, the choice being made in order of election. (See footnote*) The Layman first elected shall be entitled to the first choice the Minister first elected to the second choice, and thus the right of choice shall continue to alternate between Lay and Ministerial Delegates in the order of their election; provided, that two members of a Delegation may not serve on any one of the above designated Legislative Committees 1 to 10, unless the said Delegation is represented on each of them. All Delegations composed of twelve or more members shall assign all members in excess of ten according to this same principle of distribution. (For example, a Conference with sixteen

"Your Committee recommends that the first choice on Committees should alternate from quadrennium to quadrennium between the ministerial and lay delegates." This would mean that the laymen had first choice of Legislative Committees in 1944. In 1948 the minister first elected had the first choice of Legislative Committees. In 1952 the laymen first elected had first choice of the Legislative Committees. In 1956 the minister first elected will have first choice of the Legislative Committees.

Delegates shall have two members on each of any six of these ten Committees, and one on each of the remaining four. Each Delegate may in the order of his turn to choose, select any one of these ten Committees, provided that the foregoing division of Delegates among the Committees is maintained.)

If a matter is under consideration in any Legislative Committee which in the judgment of any Annual Conference Delegation vitally affects the interests of its constituency, and if the said Annual Conference is not represented in the membership of said Committee, then the said Delegation may choose one of its number to represent its Annual Conference in the Committee when the matter judged to be vital to the interests of its constituency is under consideration. Such a person shall be entitled to sit with the Committee while this particular matter is being considered. He shall be entitled to the floor, subject to such limitations as are imposed on the regular members of said Committee, but he shall not be entitled to vote.

4. Meetings of Committees

(1) For Organization. The Legislative Committees shall meet for organization on the afternoon of the first day of the General Conference sessions. Those numbered 11 to 16, inclusive, at 2:30 o'clock, and those numbered 1 to 10 inclusive, at 3:30. A Bishop appointed by the Council of Bishops and an Assistant Secretary appointed by the Secretary of the General Conference shall serve, respectively, as Chairman and Secretary to effect an organization in each of the several Committees.

- a. The first named on each of the other Committees shall act as Convenor, calling a meeting for organization at the earliest practicable date. The Secretary of the General Conference shall convene the Committee of Chairmen.
- b. The election of Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Secretary of each Committee, both Administrative and Legislative shall be by ballot.
- c. The Assistant Secretary appointed for the organization of each Legislative Committee shall report in writing to the Secretary of the Conference at the earliest possible date the officers elected. In the case of all other Committees the Secretary elected shall make such report immediately to the Secretary of the Conference.

(2) Regular Meetings. The Legislative Committees 1 to 10, inclusive, shall meet each weekday at 2:30 P.M., unless otherwise ordered by the Conference, until their work is completed, and at such other times as the Committees may themselves determine.

Legislative Committees 11 to 16, inclusive, shall meet each weekday at 7:30 P.M., or such other times as they may themselves respectively determine until their work is completed.

(3) Quorum for Committee Meetings. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business in all Committees.

5. Function and Authority of Committees

(1) The Administrative Committees, without specific instruction or direction from the Conference, shall assume responsibility for considering and reporting to the Conference upon all matters which would logically fall within their respective purviews, if it seems wise to do so, as these are indicated hereinbefore.

(2) The Legislative Committees may not originate business, but shall consider and report only upon that which is referred to them directly by the Conference or through the Committee of Reference, the Sifting Committee, or the Committee of Chairmen.

VII. PROPOSAL TO ESTABLISH NEW BOARD COMMISSION OR COMMITTEE

When any proposal is submitted to the General Conference to establish an interim or continuing Board, Commission, or Committee, before final action is taken by the General Conference establishing such Board, Commission or Committee, said proposal shall be referred to the Council on World Service and Finance, or its Executive Committee, with the request that it bring to the General Conference an estimated Budget of the expense of operation of the proposed Board, Commission or Committee for the next quadrennium and a statement of how the adoption of such proposal will effect the Budget or Budgets for the existing Boards, Commissions or Committees as already presented by the Council on World Service and Finance.

VIII. DELEGATES' EXPENSE ACCOUNT

1. The Report of the Committee on Credentials shall be the basis for settlement with Principal and Reserve Delegates for their per diem allowance.

2. The total traveling expense shall be payable to the Principal Delegate if he be present and seated. If during the session of the Conference a Reserve Delegate is seated in his place, he shall adjust the travel expense with such Reserve on the basis of the time served by each.

3. Travel expense for Delegates to the Conference shall be on the basis of railroad fare by the most direct route (clergy fare for Ministers) lower berth or roomette (Pullman) and meals en route. Overseas Delegates will be allowed the equivalent of second class ship fare for that portion of their trip which is by water. When two or more Delegates come in one automobile the owner shall be allowed 6 cents per mile for his car plus the cost of room and meals en route. Guest passengers who are members of the General Conference shall submit only the cost of room and meals en route. In all cases Delegates shall report only the actual cost of travel.

B. RULES OF ORDER

I. DAILY SCHEDULE

Rule 1. The following shall be the daily order for the General Conference, Sundays excepted:

- (1) 8:30 a.m. to 9 a.m.—Devotional Service under the direction of the Council of Bishops.
- (2) 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.—Conference business with recess for ten minutes at 10:30.
- (3) 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.—Committee Meetings.
- (4) 7:30 p.m.—Committee Meetings.

Rule 2. After devotional service the daily sessions of the Conference shall be conducted as follows:

- (1) Report of Committee on Journal of the previous meeting or meetings.
- (2) Report of Committee on Courtesies and Privileges.
- (3) Reports of other Administrative and Special Committees.
- (4) Calendar.
- (5) Miscellaneous business.

II. PRESIDING OFFICERS

Rule 3. The Bishop presiding shall be the legal Chairman of the General Conference. He shall decide points of order raised by the members, and shall rule on points of order not raised by the members, as he deems necessary to conform to these Rules of Order; subject, in both cases, to an appeal to the Conference by any member without debate; except that the Chairman and the Appellant, in the order here named, shall each have five minutes for a statement in support of their respective positions. A tie vote in the case of appeal shall sustain the Chair. When any member raises a point of order he shall cite, by number, the Rule he adjudges to have been violated.

Rule 4. When the Chairman stands in his place and calls the Conference to order, no member shall speak, address the Chair, or stand, while the Chairman stands.

III. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS

Rule 5. Attendance and Seating Reserves.

No member, unless hindered by sickness or otherwise from being present, shall absent himself from the sessions of the Conference without permission of the Conference, and all absentees shall be reported by the Chairman of the several Annual Conference delegations to the Committee on Credentials on a form provided for this purpose. No Reserve Delegate shall have the privilege of membership until the substitution has been approved by the Conference, except at the first session of the Conference, as provided in the Plan of Organization, Division I, Section A, Subsection 2b.

Rule 6. Directions for "Securing the Floor."

When a Delegate desires to speak to the Conference, he shall arise at his designated seat, respectfully address the Presiding Officer, using the term, "Mr. Chairman," and after recognition, proceed to the speaker's platform, where, before speaking, he shall give the Chairman, in writing, his name and that of the Annual Conference which he represents; which, in turn, the Chairman shall then announce to the Conference.

If by reason of the intended brevity of his remarks he speaks from one of the microphones in the aisles of the assembly hall, he shall first announce his name and the name of the Annual Conference which he represents, which in turn, the Chairman shall then announce to the Conference.

Rule 7. Interrupting the Speaker.

No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that the time has arrived for a Special Order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

Rule 8. Speaking More Than Once; Length of Speech.

No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, nor more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 37. This ten-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the Conference at any time, and for any period of duration.

Rule 9. Question of High Privilege.

A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the Chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure or until the Chairman judges that he has exhausted his privilege. (See Plan of Organization, Division V, Section 1, Subsection 3a.)

Rule 10. Voting Area of Conference.

Only Delegates within the area of the Conference when the vote is taken shall be entitled to vote. All Delegates within the area at the time a question is put, shall vote, except such as shall have been excused for special reasons by the Conference.

Rule 11. Voting Procedure.

Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. An "aye" and "no" vote if taken, shall be by signed ballot. A count vote may be ordered on call of many member supported by one-third of the members present and voting, in which case the Delegates shall rise from their seats and stand until counted.

No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the Previous Question has been called, until the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the Report of the Secretaries on a count vote, or an "aye" and "no" vote. The count shall be made by members seated next to the aisles, who shall be designated by the Secretary of the General Conference, and whose names shall be printed in The Daily Advocate.

Rule 12. Division of Question.

Before a vote is taken any Delegate shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as he indicates. If no Delegate objects, the division shall be made, but if there is objection the Chair shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

Rule 13. Vote by Orders.

The Ministerial and Lay Delegates shall deliberate as one body; but upon a call, by motion of any Delegate, seconded by another Delegate of the same order and supported by one-third of the members of that order voting, the Ministerial and Lay Delegates shall vote separately. But when the Conference votes by orders no measure shall be passed without the concurrence of a majority of both classes of Delegates. In cases of such a vote the order calling for it shall vote first; provided, however, that the Conference may not vote by orders on a proposed Amendment to the Constitution. (Discipline, Paragraph 10, Item 2.)

IV. BUSINESS PROCEDURE

Rule 14. Motion for Adoption of Reports and Resolution Unnecessary.

Whenever a Report of a Committee signed by the Chairman and Secretary thereof, or a Resolution signed by two or more members of the Conference, shall be presented to the Conference for its action, it shall be deemed in proper order for consideration by the Conference without the formality of a motion to adopt and a second thereto.

Rule 15. Required Forms for Reports, Resolutions, Motions.

All Resolutions and Committee Reports shall be presented in triplicate; and, when requested by the Secretary, motions, including amendments shall be presented in writing.

Rule 16. Reading of Reports and Resolutions.

All Resolutions, Committee Reports, and Communications to the Conference shall be read by the Secretary except as otherwise provided in Rule 34.

Rule 17. Alterations of Motions, Etc.

When a motion is made and seconded or a Resolution is introduced and seconded, or a Committee Report is read, or is published in the Daily Advocate, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Conference, and may not be altered except by action of the Conference. (See Rule 33.)

Rule 18. Undebatable Motions.

The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- (1) To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
- (2) To suspend the rules.
- (3) To lay on the table, except as provided in Rule 37.
- (4) To take from the table.
- (5) To call for the Previous Question.
- (6) To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
- (7) To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- (8) To call for the Orders of the day.

Rule 19. Rights of "The Main Question."

The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: To adopt, to commit, or refer, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider. No new motion, Resolution, or subject shall be entertained until the one under consideration shall have been disposed of except as provided in Rule 11. The foregoing does not apply to secondary motions if otherwise allowable in the existing parliamentary situation.

Rule 20. Precedence of Secondary Motions.

If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

- (1) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
- (2) To adjourn.
- (3) To take recess.
- (4) To order the previous question.
- (5) To lay on the table.
- (6) To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- (7) To postpone to a given time.
- (8) To commit or refer.
- (9) To amend or to substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment.)
- (10) To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 21. Tabling Related Motions.

No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

Rule 22. Referring Reports, Etc.

It shall be in order for the Conference to refer to a Committee a section or part of a Report or Resolution which is before the Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

Rule 23. Procedure for Consideration of Substitutes.

When a Resolution or Committee Report is properly before the Conference for consideration and action (even if amendments thereto are pending), a substitute therefor may be offered by any member moving that the same may be substituted for the Resolution or Report under consideration. The motion to substitute may not be considered or put, however, until the original Report or Resolution is perfected, including consideration of and action on any amendments to it which may have been offered. The Conference may terminate this perfecting process by ordering the Previous Question on the motion to adopt the Report or Resolution. If this be done, the vote shall immediately be taken on any amendments, to the Report or Resolution then pending, but the vote shall not be taken on the adoption of the Report or Resolution or on making the substitution until the substitute is also perfected. The main question, or Report, or Resolution, having been perfected, the substitute shall be considered, which consideration may be terminated at any time by ordering the Previous Question, in which case, after action on any amendments to the substitute then pending, the vote shall be taken on the motion to substitute. After this, without further notice, debate or amendment, the vote shall be taken on the motion to adopt, if the Previous Question thereon was ordered as above indicated as being allowable, or if it was ordered later. In the course of the foregoing perfecting process in the case of either the main question or the substitute, or both, the time to be consumed in presenting, considering and acting on amendments may be limited by action of the Conference. If this be done, the Previous Question may not be put on the adoption of the Report or Resolution, or on making the proposed substitution until two members (including the Chairman of Committee presenting the report and the member presenting the substitute, if the pending question is the adoption of a Report of a Committee) shall have spoken on each side of the proposal to substitute or adopt, as the case may be, after the motions to amend, if there be any, have been acted upon if there be those who desire so to speak.

Rule 24. Previous Question (See Rules 18-5, 23, 25, 37).

When any member moves the Previous Question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) he shall indicate to what he intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If he does not so indicate, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and shall require a two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption, and if adopted the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies without further debate except as provided in Rule 37.

Rule 25. Unlawful Motion After Speech.

It shall not be in order for a member immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

Rule 26. Exceptions to Majority Vote.

A majority of those voting, a quorum being present, shall decide all questions with the following exceptions:

- (1) One-third of those present and voting shall suffice to sustain a call for a count vote in case the decision of the Chair is doubted. See Rule 11. A tie vote sustains the Chair, Rule 3.
- (2) A call for a vote by orders shall prevail if sustained by one-third of the members of the order from which the call came, present and voting. (See Rule 13.)
- (3) A two-thirds vote shall be required to sustain a motion to suspend (See Rule 39) or amend (See Rule 40) to rules; to sustain a motion for the Previous Question (See Rule 24); to set aside a Special Order; to consider a Special Order before the time set therefor, or any motion whose adoption would limit debate; to sustain the request of the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges for the presentation of any person after the sixth day of the General Conference; to sustain a petition against a ruling of the Sifting Committee.
- (4) A two-thirds vote shall be required to approve a proposal for a Constitutional amendment. (See Par. 10, Discipline.)

Rule 27. Reconsideration.

A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

Rule 28. Calendar Regular: Non-concurrence.

The Secretary shall keep a chronological record of Orders of the Day and of reports of Committees (See Rule 32) and this record shall be called the Calendar, and the matters of business placed on it shall be considered in order, unless by a two-thirds vote of the Conference an item is taken up out of its order.

Legislative Committee Reports recommending Non-concurrence shall be kept upon a separate Calendar to be taken up when the regular Calendar is exhausted or at the pleasure of the Conference except when a Minority presents a Report recommending concurrence, in which case both shall be included in the regular Calendar.

Rule 29. Motion to Adjourn in Order Except—

The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except

- (1) When a Delegate has the floor.

- (2) When a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
- (3) When the Previous Question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
- (4) When a motion to adjourn has been lost, and no business or debate has intervened.
- (5) When the motion to fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn is pending.

The foregoing does not apply to a motion to final adjournment of the Conference.

V. COMMITTEES

Rule 30. Rules of Order of Legislative Committee.

The Rules of Order of the General Conference shall be observed in meetings of Legislative Committees insofar as they apply.

Rule 31. Duties and Prerogatives of Committees.

When a Memorial or Resolution or any similar item is referred to one of the several Legislative Committees, it shall be understood that the whole question with which the paper has to do is referred to that Committee for such action as it may deem wise. Committees shall report to the Conference upon all matters referred to them by the Conference directly or through the Committee of Reference. Committee Reports on Resolutions, Memorials, Petitions, etc., shall cite the same, identifying them by the numbers they bear respectively, in the published reports of the Committee of Reference, or in some other suitable manner.

When a Committee ascertains that another Committee is or should, in its judgment, be considering a subject which the former is considering, it shall report the matter to the Committee of Reference for such adjustments as the situation may require.

Rule 32. Legislative Committees Report to Secretary.

At the close of each day's meeting the Chairmen and Secretaries of the several Legislative Committees shall provide the Secretary of the Conference with copies in triplicate of all Reports adopted by their respective Committees for presentation to the Conference. The Secretary shall enter said Reports on the Calendar in the order in which they reach him, and shall furnish the editor of The Daily Advocate with one copy of each of the said Reports for publication in the next day's issue. Reports from Committees (and Minority Reports) recommending proposed changes in the Discipline shall give Chapter Section, and Paragraph to be affected.

They shall quote the language of the part it is proposed to change, underscoring it, and then state the language as it will appear if adopted, with the new part only in CAPITALS. The Daily Advocate shall follow the same rule in printing such reports substituting italics for Underscoring and Heavy Black-faced Type for CAPITALS.

Rule 33. Published Reports in Possession of Conference.

A Report of any Committee signed by the Chairman and Secretary thereof and printed in The Daily Advocate shall be regarded as in the possession of the Conference, and on the day following its first appearance in The Daily Advocate, or any time thereafter, in order for its consideration at the pleasure of the Conference. The same rule shall apply to a Report of a Minority of any Committee signed by one-tenth of the members of the Committee or by ten members thereof. (See Rule 17.)

Rule 34. Preparation and Printing of Reports.

All Committee Reports shall be presented to the Secretary of the Conference in triplicate on paper provided therefor and bearing at the top the name of the Committee, its total membership, the number present at the time the Report was adopted, the number voting for and the number voting against the report respectively, and the number not voting. Reports of the Legislative Committees shall be printed in The Daily Advocate at least one day before being presented for consideration by the Conference and they shall not be read unless by its order.

Reports of Minorities of Committees adopted by them with a view to their being offered as substitutes for Committee reports shall likewise conform to this rule so as far as it is applicable, indicating clearly to what Committee the respective minorities belong and for what Reports by Serial Numbers, etc., they propose the respective substitutes.

Rule 35. Committee Chairman Not in Harmony with Report.

When the Chairman of a Committee is not in harmony with a Report adopted by the Committee, it shall be his duty to state the fact to the Committee, which shall elect one of its members to represent it in the presentation and discussion of the Report in the Conference; but if, in such a case, the Committee shall fail to select a representative, the Chairman shall designate a member to represent the Committee, and said representative shall have all the rights and privileges of the Chairman in relation to such Report.

Rule 36. Presentation of Report of Minority.

A member selected by the signers of a report of a Minority of a Committee to present the same, shall have the same rights and privileges in relation thereto which belong to the Chairman in the presentation of the regular (Majority) Report of the Committee, except that he may not present said Minority Report until the Majority Report has been presented, and shall then offer it as a substitute therefor, and except, further, that in closing the debate on the question of making the substitution the member presenting the Minority Report shall speak first and the Chairman last. (See Rule 23.)

Rule 37. Speakers For and Against.

When the Report of a Committee is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the Presiding Officer to ascertain, when he recognizes a member of the Conference, on which side he proposes to speak, and he shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.

Except for undebatable motions, no Report shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least one speech for and one against the said proposal; provided that right is claimed before the Chairman or duly authorized member representing the Committee's Report or the Minority Report if there be such, is presented to close the debate.

When all have spoken who desire to do so or when (and after) the Previous Question has been ordered, the Chairman or/and duly authorized member or members presenting the Committee's Report (and the Minority Report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.

This right of the Chairman and/or other member or members to close the debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of five minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the Report under consideration; provided that this five minutes limit shall not apply to a motion to substitute a minority report for a regular (Majority) Report of a Committee.

Rule 38. Legal Enactment.

All actions of the General Conference of The Methodist Church shall become effective upon the final adjournment of the session of the General Conference at which they are enacted, unless otherwise specified, except as provided in Paragraph 591 of the Discipline.

VI. SUSPENDING, AMENDING, AND SUPPLEMENTING

Rule 39. Suspension of Rules.

The operation of any of the provisions of this Plan of Organization or of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the Conference. Rule 26 (3).

Rule 40. Amending Rules.

This Plan of Organization and these Rules of Order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the Conference; provided the proposed change or amendment has been presented to the Conference in writing and referred to the Committee on Rules, which Committee shall report thereon not later than the following day. Rule 26 (3).

Rule 41. Robert's Rules of Order Revised, Supplemental Authority.

In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by this Plan of Organization or these Rules of Order, the General Conference shall be governed in its action by Robert's Rules of Order Revised.

A. WESLEY PUGH, Chairman;

M. LAFAYETTE HARRIS, Secretary.

9. PRESIDING OFFICERS

Chairman: George A. Fallon (New England).

Secretary: James S. Chubb (Nebraska).

Presiding Officers. The Presiding Officers for the several sessions of the Conference, the opening session excepted (see Sec. 1), shall be chosen from among the effective Bishops in the following manner: The Council of Bishops shall at the opening session nominate for election by the Conference a Committee on Presiding Officers composed of one minister and one layman from each Jurisdiction, and one minister and one layman from among the delegates representing the Annual Conferences outside the United States. The Committee thus constituted shall select the Presiding Officer for each session of the Conference, notifying the Bishop of his selection at least 24 hours in advance, and in each instance report its selection to the Conference prior to adjournment of the session immediately preceding.

10. REFERENCE

Chairman: Stewart Clendenin (Texas-SC).

Vice-Chairman: Lester L. Roush (Ohio).

Secretary: Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines).

Reference. There shall be a Committee of Reference composed of one ministerial and one lay representative from each Jurisdiction, at least two of whom shall be lawyers and one minister and one layman from Conferences outside the United States, to be appointed by the Council of Bishops from the regularly elected delegates to the ensuing General Conference at the winter meeting of the said Council of Bishops, preceding the session of the General Conference. Said Committee shall meet with the Secretary of the previous General Conference at the seat of the Conference on the Monday preceding the opening of said Conference. This Committee shall be convened by the Secretary of the General Conference. After ascertaining that the Memorials, Resolutions and similar communications dealing with the regular business of the Conference meet the requirements herein specified, this Committee shall refer the same to the appropriate Administrative or Legislative Committees. This Committee shall be responsible for such assignment of all memorials, which may be in the hands of the Secretary prior to the opening session, including the Episcopal Address, the Book of Printed Quadrennial Reports, and all other communications which shall come into his hands after the convening of the General Conference. The third day of the Conference shall be fixed as the deadline for the introduction of memorials and petitions.

The Committee of Reference may withdraw a paper after having assigned it to a Committee, either upon a request or upon its own motion. It may also withhold from reference or publication any document it shall deem improper, promptly advising the author, or authors, thereof of its action in order that an appeal may be made to the Conference if desired. The Committee shall publish as promptly as possible, in the Daily Advocate, lists of the communications it has referred to the several Standing Committees, identifying each by number, title, origin and destination. No memorial or petition shall be assigned by the Committee of Reference to any General Conference Committee unless it comes from some organization, minister, or member of The Methodist Church, and also contains information essential to the verification of the alleged facts concerning its origin.

All memorials should be presented in triplicate. Each should deal with only one general subject. Not more than one memorial should be presented on a single sheet of paper.

The Committee of Reference has received and referred the Memorials numbered in this Report to the various General Conference Committees as indicated.

The names of the Committees are printed in BOLD-FACE TYPE.

There are two sentences presented with each Memorial. The first sentence contains the Subject of the Memorial; the second sentence indicates the author or the source of the Memorial.

11. SIFTING COMMITTEE

Chairman: Fred G. Holloway (Baltimore).

Secretary: James K. Mathews (Bombay).

Sifting Committee. There shall be a Committee of seven to whom shall be referred, without motion or debate, all questions, proposals, Resolutions, communications, or other matters not included in the regular business of the General Conference, as set forth in this Plan of Organization. This Committee shall determine whether or not the matter presented shall be considered by the Conference. If matters of the nature above described shall be introduced in open Conference without having been approved by this Committee, the Presiding Officer shall, as soon as he shall have discovered the character of the same, refer all such matters to this Committee without reading, and the same shall not be publicized in the Daily Advocate unless and until they have been approved and presented to the Conference by the Sifting Committee; provided, however, that should the Sifting Committee determine that any matter referred to it should not be brought before the Conference for consideration, then if a petition signed by twenty, or more, members of the Conference shall be presented to the Conference requesting consideration, unless a two-thirds vote of the members of the Conference present and voting shall refuse consideration, the matter shall be referred by the Sifting Committee to a Standing Committee of its choice.

This Committee had no Report, as no matters were referred to them. (Editor.)

The following Resolution is hereby submitted by the Committee on Conferences as a substitute for Memorial No. 1623, found on page 187 of the Daily Advocate, Calendar No. 17.

Paragraph 538 of the Discipline shall be amended as follows:

1. Any Methodist church shall be transferred from the Jurisdiction of which it is part to another Jurisdiction in which it is located geographically upon completion of all the following actions regardless of the order in which taken:

(a) Approval by the membership and the Quarterly Conference of said church.

(b) Approval by both the Annual Conference of which the church has been a part and the Annual Conference to which transfer is desired.

(c) Approval by a majority of the Annual Conferences and also by the Jurisdictional Conference of both the Jurisdiction of which the church has been a part and the Jurisdiction to which transfer is desired.

(d) Approval by the General Conference in the form of an Enabling Act.

(e) Such transfer shall be effected when all of the required actions have been certified to the Council of Bishops by the Secretaries of all the Conferences involved, whereupon the Council of Bishops shall issue a declaration to the effect that the transfer has been duly effected.

(See Report No. 2-A)

We, your Committee on Conferences, submit the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the effectiveness of a Bishop, both physically and administratively, is impaired in ministering to Episcopal Areas covering extremely large land areas; and,

WHEREAS, the average size of the Episcopal Areas in the South Central Jurisdiction is 131,621 square miles, thus impairing the effectiveness of Episcopal supervision to the churches in this Jurisdiction,

Therefore we respectfully memorialize the General Conference of The Methodist Church meeting in San Francisco in April, 1952, to change the ratio of church members for the election of bishops from 500,000 members to 400,000 in all Jurisdictions where the average Episcopal Area is greater than 70,000 square miles, by inserting in Paragraph 439 of the Discipline, these words following line 4—"provided, however, that in those Jurisdictions where this requirement would result in there being an average of more than 70,000 square miles per Episcopal Area, such Jurisdiction shall be entitled to four Bishops for each 400,000 church members or less, and for each additional 400,000 church members or two-thirds thereof shall be entitled to one additional Bishop." The entire Paragraph would read—(Chapter VI, Section V, Paragraph 439).

Each Jurisdiction having 500,000 church members or less shall be entitled to four Bishops, and for each additional 500,000 shall be entitled to one additional Bishop, provided, however, that in those Jurisdictions where this requirement would result in there being an average of more than 70,000 square miles per Episcopal Area, such Jurisdiction shall be entitled to four Bishops for the first 400,000 church members or less, and for each additional 400,000 church members or two-thirds thereof shall be entitled to one additional Bishop, provided further, that the General Conference may authorize any Jurisdictional Conference to elect one or more Bishops beyond the quota herein specified in order to provide Episcopal Supervision for mission fields outside the territory of a Jurisdictional Conference.

"1. Annual Conference Deaconess Boards shall be set up in all Conferences where five or more deaconesses are working; Annual Conference Deaconess Boards may be set up in Conferences where fewer than five deaconesses are working. All active deaconesses within the bounds of the Conference shall be members of the Conference Deaconess Board, Superintendents of Districts in which there is deaconess work, or effective elders as alternates, two representatives of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, and at least one non-deaconess representative from the local Board of Managers of each institution within the Conference where deaconesses live or are employed and the Annual Conference representative to the Jurisdictional Deaconess Association shall also be members of the Conference Deaconess Board."

We, your Committee, recommend that the following be substituted for Par. 914 of the 1948 Discipline of The Methodist Church:

"Par. 914. When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any Paragraph or Paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning, or application, the Judicial Council, on petition as hereinafter provided, shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a Declaratory Decision as to the meaning, application and effect of such act, legislation, or Paragraph or Paragraphs of the Discipline; and the decision of the Judicial Council thereon shall be as binding and effectual as a Decision made by the Judicial Council on appeal under the law relating to appeals to the Judicial Council.

"The following bodies in The Methodist Church are hereby authorized to make such petitions to the Judicial Council for Declaratory Decisions:

- (1) The Council of Bishops.
- (2) Any General Conference Board or body, on matters relating to or affecting the work of such Board or body.
- (3) A majority of the Bishops assigned to any Jurisdiction on matters relating to or affecting Jurisdictions or the work therein.

- (4) Any Jurisdictional Conference, on matters relating to or affecting Jurisdictions or Jurisdictional Conferences or the work therein.
- (5) Any Jurisdictional Conference Board or body, on matters relating to or affecting the work of such Board or body.
- (6) Any Central Conference, on matters relating to or affecting Central Conferences, or the work therein.
- (7) Any Central Conference Board or body, on matters relating to or affecting the work of such Board or body.
- (8) Any Annual Conference, on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein.

"The Judicial Council shall determine from the facts in connection with each such petition whether or not it has jurisdiction to hear and determine the same."

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. 143

Amended. See Journal, Page 390.

Calendar No. 5. Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 390.

The Committee recommends that Part VII, Chapter III, Section I, be amended as follows:

Paragraph 1326. 1. In line 2 at the top of page 298 delete the following words: "and one youth representative twenty-three years of age or under at the time of his election, and chosen from nominations made by the Youth Organizations of the Annual Conferences within the Jurisdiction; provided that if any youth representative shall attain his twenty-fourth birthday during the quadrennium, the period of service shall terminate at the close of the session of the annual meeting of the Board next following; and he shall be replaced by one within the youth age range by the Board, from nominations made by the Conference Youth Organizations of the Jurisdiction affected," and in their place substitute the following "one youth representative or student representa- tive, twenty-one years of age or under at the time of his election, and chosen from nominations which have been made by Annual Conference Methodist Youth Fellowships and State units of the Methodist Student Movement, and selected by the National Conference of Methodist Youth, which shall nominate six representatives, four from Youth Commission and two from Student Commission, alternating student and youth nominations each year so as to rotate their representation from the Jurisdiction; provided, that if any youth or student representative shall attain his twenty-fourth birthday during the quadrennium, the period of service shall terminate at the close of the session of the annual meeting of the Board next following; and he shall be replaced by one within the youth age range by the Board from nominations made by the National Conference of Methodist Youth."

2. Delete the last sentence of this Paragraph, which reads as follows:

"The Board, on nomination of its Committee on Nominations, shall elect the members to three Divisions—Educational Institutions, Local Church, and Editorial—in the ratio of five, five and two." The Paragraph as amended shall then read:

Paragraph 1326. The Board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of all effective Bishops of The Methodist Church resident in the United States, together with additional members selected as follows: Upon the nomination of its Committee on Education, each Jurisdictional Conference shall elect to membership in the Board one minister, one layman, one youth representative or student representative, twenty-one years of age or under at the time of his election, and chosen from nominations which have been made by Annual Conference Methodist Youth Fellowships and State units of the Methodist Student Movement, and selected by the National Conference of Methodist Youth, which shall nominate six representatives, four from Youth Commission and two from Student Commission, alternating student and youth nominations each year so as to rotate their representation from the Jurisdiction; provided, that if any youth or student representative shall attain his twenty-fourth birthday during the quadrennium, the period of service shall terminate at the close of the session of the annual meeting of the Board next following; and he shall be replaced by one within the youth age range by the Board from nominations made by the National Conference of Methodist Youth." In addition, upon nomination of the Committee on Education the Jurisdictional Conference shall elect one minister and one layman for each 300,000 members or major fraction thereof within the Jurisdiction. Not more than three members of the Board shall come from any one Annual Conference. Members as elected, and officers and Committees as constituted under this Constitution, shall continue in office until their successors are chosen and organized as provided in Paragraph 1327. Ad interim vacancies in the Board shall be filled by the Board from the Jurisdictions in which the vacancies occur.

Paragraph 1327. Delete this Paragraph and in its place substitute the following:

Paragraph 1327. Within three months after the adjournment of the last Jurisdictional Conference to meet in that year, the elected members of the Board shall be assembled by a convener, designated by the Council of Bishops, to organize in the following manner:

1. A. Nominating Committee shall be elected which shall be composed of one member chosen by the members from each Jurisdiction and one Bishop chosen by the Bishops who are members of the Board.

2. The Nominating Committee shall nominate all the members of the Board of the three Divisions—Educational Institutions, Local Church and Editorial—in the ratio of five, five and two; and shall nominate a President and a Recording Secretary.

3. The members of the Division and the President and Recording Secretary of the Board shall be elected quadrennially from the membership of the Board.

4. Each of the Divisions shall elect a Chairman and these Chairmen shall be Vice-Presidents of the Board.

5. The Executive Secretaries of the Division of Educational Institutions and the Division of the Local Church shall be elected for the quadrennium by the Board from nominations made by the respective Divisions. The Executive Secretary of the Editorial Division shall be elected as hereinafter provided.

6. The Treasurer shall be elected by the Board upon the nomination of the Executive Committee.

7. No member of the Board shall be a salaried officer of the Board.

8. The salaries and duties of all employees of the Board except in the Editorial Division shall be fixed by the Board.

Paragraph 1343. In line 2, page 301, change twice to once, and add the following sub-paragraph following sub-paragraph 2:

The Treasurer of the Board shall be the custodian of all the funds of the Board. He shall keep the accounts of the assets, liabilities, receipts and disbursements of the Board and of the Division of Educational Institutions and the Division of the Local Church. He shall pay out funds upon the order of the Executive Secretaries of these Divisions. He shall report annually to the Board and to the Executive Committee as requested by it. An Associate Treasurer may be elected by the Board upon nomination of the Executive Committee, so that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

Paragraph 1343. The Executive Committee of the Board shall be composed of the President, Vice-Presidents, and Recording Secretary of the Board, and the members of the Advisory Committees of the three Divisions as hereinafter provided: Educational Institutions, seven; Local Church, seven; and Editorial, four. The President of the Board shall be ex officio a member of each Advisory Committee, but he shall not be charged against any Division's quota as established above. The Vice-Presidents of the Board and the Recording Secretaries of the Divisions shall be included in the representation of their respective Advisory Committees. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum.

The Executive Committee shall manage the funds of the Board under such regulations as the Board may adopt; appoint Finance and Investment Committees, which shall render to it detailed reports at each meeting; fix the official bond of the Treasurer and of any other officers entrusted with the handling of funds; consider and approve the Administrative Budgets of the Board and its Divisions, except the Editorial Division.

The Treasurer of the Board shall be the custodian of all the funds of the Board. He shall keep the accounts of the assets, liabilities, receipts and disbursements of the Board and of the Division of Educational Institutions and the Division of the Local Church. He shall pay out funds upon the order of the Executive Secretaries of these Divisions. He shall report annually to the Board and to the Executive Committee as requested by it. An Associate Treasurer may be elected by the Board upon nomination of the Executive Committee.

The Board may commit to the Executive Committee such other powers and duties as it may determine. Minutes of the Executive Committee shall be sent to the members of the Board and submitted to the annual meeting of the Board for approval. Meetings of the Committee shall be held at least once each year, not including meetings held in connection with the annual meetings of the Board.

The Committee received a number of Memorials regarding more adequate support for the Church's institutions of higher education and for Wesley Foundations, and recommends the adoption of the following statement, including the Resolution contained in section V:

Message on Methodism and Higher Education

I. The Christmas Conference of 1784 which organized the Methodist Episcopal Church planned also for the first Methodist college. Methodism has ever since been deeply concerned about Christian higher education. Today there are 118 Methodist schools and colleges related to the Board of Education, creating an educational network spreading from coast to coast. Valued at over a half billion dollars, these institutions enroll more than 250,000 students, or over 10 per cent of the total enrollment in institutions of higher learning in the United States.

The colleges were founded by dedicated men and women to keep a stream of Christian leadership flowing into the Church and into every other area of American life. These were to be the "creative minority," the saving remnant, which should strive through the Church for the redemption of society. Any fair appraisal of the results since 1784 fully justifies the faith of the founders.

II. The growth of state and independent colleges and universities required that the Church make provision to meet its youth at these institutions too, and in 1913 the Wesley Foundation movement was born at the University of Illinois. A Wesley Foundation is the Church at work on the university campus. A center of Christian training and recruitment, where study, fellowship, and worship are primary means to Christian ends, a Wesley Foundation is a "home away from home." From the Foundations, as from the colleges, has come a steady flow of life-service candidates to enrich the Church directly.

Now there are 160 Wesley Foundations and 22 interdenominational units, located in every State of the union, and on campuses enrolling over 116,000 Methodist students. More than 55 per cent of this total are being touched by the movement, at least 20,000 intimately. Today the 56 Wesley Foundation Student Centers are valued at more than five million dollars. During the past quadrennium alone 26 new structures have been built, and 22 reconstructed or rehabilitated.

III. Church colleges and Wesley Foundations represent Methodism's approach to higher education. Together they form a system unparalleled by any other denomination in the United States. From ranks of students and faculty has grown the Methodist Student Movement, a community witnessing for Christ within the fellowship of the Church.

IV. The influence of Methodism in higher education is required today more than at any time in the history of the nation, for secularism, which says there is no God, threatens to make practical atheism the American philosophy. Our present danger is the loss of our highest spiritual life and of the vitality of our social institutions. As a nation we are now struggling to gain the very qualities which secular education makes impossible.

But as the need for the Christian emphasis in higher education intensifies, the desperate difficulties facing the colleges and foundations increase also. Rising deficits confront many colleges, making their survival precarious. Although institutions have been able to weather depressions, they are far less able to live through inflation. Especially acute is the crisis facing the Negro institutions of the Church, now being asked to meet higher standards of accreditation, which involve much larger financial resources. These institutions are needed as never before, in spite of the gradual breakdown of segregation in colleges and universities of the South.

Once relatively few Americans attended colleges and universities. In 1900, only 4 per cent of the population from ages 18 to 21 were enrolled in institutions of higher learning, but by 1940 the number had risen to 15 per cent. In 1950 over 30 per cent were in colleges and universities. It will not be long before half or more of those from 18 to 21 are attending college or university. Higher education is clearly a spreading frontier for Christianity, a new challenge and a new danger. To neglect higher education is an invitation to disaster.

This is the Day of Decision!

V. In view, therefore, of the extreme urgency of the problems facing the colleges and foundation, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the General Conference recognize the dangers confronting our schools, colleges, and Wesley Foundations, and take decisive steps to lay upon the conscience of every Methodist the necessity for immediate and adequate support for Methodist responsibilities in higher education.

2. That the General Conference concur in the recommendation of the Commission on World Service and Finance that each Annual Conference be encouraged to provide annually, as a minimum, a sum equivalent to 50 cents per church member for the schools and colleges, and a minimum of 15 cents for the Wesley Foundations; and that these funds be given recognition in a column in the pastor's Report to the Annual Conference.

3. That the General Conference give endorsement to efforts of the educational institutions and Wesley Foundation which seek to strengthen educational plants and equipment to keep pace with the needs of the nation and of the Church.

4. That the General Conference urge all local churches to participate in the observance of Race Relations Sunday, thus to increase the financial aid to Negro institutions.

5. That the General Conference give endorsement:

- (a) To the legislation designed to set higher educational standards for Wesley Foundations and through co-operation with the Annual Conference Board of Education, to give the Foundations proper classification, and
- (b) To the legislation designed to strengthen the religious program among students in Methodist colleges and in Wesley Foundations, and to strengthen the work of the Methodist Student Movement.

6. That in view of the urgency of the times the General Conference instruct its Board of Education to take exceptional steps:

- (a) To acquaint the Church with the needs, opportunities, and distinctive qualities of Christian higher education;
- (b) To encourage enrollments for our institutions from among our own youth, particularly those who have made life-service commitments;
- (c) To promote adequate facilities for all Methodist students desiring education in Methodist institutions;
- (d) To provide financial counseling to institutions and Annual Conferences for securing resources needed for the development and maintenance of our educational institutions;

- (e) To give special attention to the religious life of students in Methodist colleges and Methodist students on non-Methodist campuses:
 - (1) By standardizing and developing the program of student religious work in Methodist colleges.
 - (2) By continuing the program for the development of educational standards for Wesley Foundations.
 - (3) By correlating the total student religious program of The Methodist Church in Methodist colleges, in Wesley Foundations and in all other units; and by strengthening the work and projects of the Methodist Student Movement.
 - (4) By continuously presenting to Methodism its primary responsibility for the religious life of its students, potential leaders of the Church of tomorrow.

VI. The time has come for the schools to acknowledge that union with the Church means more than financial support. It means the increasing of their opportunities for the highest sort of service. Keeping religious faith within a modern educational institution can best be achieved by the institution rededicating itself to religious purposes and making vital the historic union created by Church and school. By giving priority to religion the educational institution will find its real place in life.

VII. The section on higher education in the Episcopal Address strongly affirms the aims of these Resolutions, and in the following words clearly defines the educational issues confronting the Church:

"We rejoice that our colleges and Wesley Foundations are drawing closer to the Church which gave them birth. Ever more seriously they are seeking to give religion a full expression in life and at the same time conserve their intellectual integrity and their search for the truth. They are recognizing that our culture needs an integrating unity, a central core of reality which lends significance to the mystery of our fragmentized existence, and this they are finding in a theistic conception of the universe.

"On the other hand, the Church must move closer to the colleges. . . . If the Church wants Christian higher education it must pay for it. This for years it has not done with either liberality or adequacy. We shall not get good education on a bargain counter. Our Conferences must accept much larger apportionments for their colleges, and our Methodist people should support, by their gifts, their loyalty, and their patronage, our own Methodist institutions. Unless the Church is concerned to pour into the stream of our democratic life men and women schooled in a Christian sense of values, and fired with a passion for public service, the drift toward materialism and nihilism will go steadily on to our confusion and shame."

SUBJECT: ANNUAL CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS AND INTER-BOARD COMMITTEES ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. 134

Amended May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 693.

Calendar No. 21. Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 693.

The Committee recommends the following changes in Part IV, Chapter VIII, Section III. In Paragraph 640, line 2, delete the words Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations (Par. 1415), and in their place substitute the following words, Annual Conference Commission on Christian Vocations (Par. 643). After "with" in line 4 insert the Bishop. Delete "and" at the beginning of line 5, and after "pastors" insert "and laymen," so that this section of this Paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Paragraph 640. The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in each Annual Conference shall seek, through co-operation with the Annual Conference Commission on Christian Vocations (Paragraph 643) and with the Bishop, the District Superintendents, pastors and laymen of the Conference, to enlist suitable candidates for the Christian ministry, and shall keep a record of all persons enlisted within the bounds of the Conference. It shall seek in every way practicable to provide guidance and counsel to them in their training and preparation for the ministry, recommending properly accredited colleges and seminaries.

No change in the remaining sections of the Paragraph.

Delete Paragraph 643, page 155, and in its place substitute the following:

Paragraph 643. In each Annual Conference there shall be a Commission on Christian Vocations. The membership of this Commission shall be: a representative of the Cabinet, the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, the Conference Director of Youth Work, the Chairman (or Registrar) of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the Secretary of Missionary Personnel of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service; and one representative each from the Conference Boards of Hospitals and Homes, Missions, Deaconess Work, Lay Activities, Evangelism, World Peace, the State or Regional Methodist Student Movement, and one youth under 23 years of age. The Cabinet or the Commission may appoint other persons to membership on the Commission when advisable.

It shall be the duty of this Commission: (1) to co-operate with the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations (Paragraph 1415), and with the Committee on Christian Vocations in every pastoral charge (Paragraph 147.9); (2) to promote among youth and adults a philosophy of Christian vocation that recognizes the potential sacredness of all useful work and all opportunities for Christian life service; (3) to organize a program for presenting to youth and adults the opportunities and claims of the pastoral ministry and other Church vocations; (4) to take into account the basic interests and aptitudes of interested youth and adults and inform them of the necessary preparation for specific Church vocations; (5) to keep accurate and useful records of each youth who has indicated an interest in Church vocations from the time of his first commitment until he is appointed to full-time work in the Church, or until such time as responsibility for him is accepted by the proper Annual Conference Board or Commission; (6) each Annual Conference, in whatever way it may decide shall make adequate provision for the financial support of the work of the Conference Commission on Christian Vocations, so that the Commission may be able to carry forward an effective program and guidance in the field of Christian Vocations.

In Part VII, Chapter III, Section V, Paragraph 1415, line 3 of sub-paragraph 2 on page 318, delete the word five and substitute the word four. In line 6 following the word "Homes" insert one representative of the Association of Methodist Theological seminaries. In the third line from the bottom of page 318 delete Paragraph 643, and in its place substitute Paragraphs 147.9, 150, 640, 643, 1189, 1389, 1534 so that the Paragraph as amended will read:

Paragraph 1415. There shall be an Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations. Its purpose shall be to develop plans and correlate efforts for the more effective enlistment and guidance of persons in vocations in the Church and its Agencies, and to seek to interpret to the Church through its several Agencies the total field of vocation in Christian terms. It shall give leadership in developing a philosophy of Christian vocation, always stressing the potential sacredness of all useful work. It shall lead in discovering and making known the various needs of the Church at home and abroad, and seek to enlist youth for Christian service through all the appropriate Agencies of the Church.

The Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocation shall be composed of three Bishops, to be selected by the Council of Bishops; four representatives of the Board of Missions, four representatives of the Board of Education, two representatives of the Board of Hospitals and Homes, one representative of the Association of Methodist Theological Seminaries, one representative of the Commission on World Peace, one representative of the Board of Lay Activities, and one representative of the Board of Evangelism, to be selected by their respective Agencies; the Educational Director of the Commission on Ministerial Training; and the Secretary of the National Conference of Methodist Youth.

It shall elect from its membership an Executive Committee of seven persons, consisting of one Bishop, one representative from the Commission on Ministerial Training, one from the Board of Hospitals and Homes, two from the Board of Education, and two—one a woman—from the Board of Missions.

There shall be a Secretary for the Committee. He shall be elected by the Board of Education, on nomination of the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations. He shall be responsible to that Committee. He shall be administratively related to the Division of the Local Church and have such Staff relationships with the other participating Agencies as shall be necessary to the promotion of his work.

The expenses of the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations shall be met by the participating Boards and Commissions upon such ratio as they may decide. (See Paragraphs 147.9, 150, 640, 643, 1189, 1389, 1534.)

SUBJECT: MATTERS RELATED TO THE DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION
MEMORIAL: SERIAL No. 134

Amended May 3, 1952. See Journal, Page 509.
Calendar No. 22. Adopted May 3, 1952. See Journal, Page 509.

Paragraph 1399 was referred to the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision at the morning session of Saturday, May 3, 1952, with instructions.

The Committee reported to the morning session of Monday, May 5, 1952. For their Report see page 569.

The Committee recommends the following changes in Part IV, Chapter IX, Paragraph 667. Beginning in line 10 of this Paragraph delete the following words, the District Director of Young People's Work, of Adult Work, of Children's Work, and in their place substitute the following: the District Directors of Children's, Youth and Adult Work, and General Church School Work, so that the Paragraph as amended will read:

Paragraph 667. A District Conference shall be composed of all the preachers, traveling, superannuated or retired, supernumerary, and local—the exhorters, the Church-School Superintendent and the President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service from each church in the District, the District Stewards (Par. 146, Sec. 3, Pars. 784, 789), the District Trustees (Par. 708), the District Lay Leader and Associate District Lay Leaders (Pars. 1499, 1510), the Charge Lay Leaders (Pars. 1505, 1511), the President of the District Woman's Society of Christian Service, the District Directors of Children's, Youth, and Adult Work, and General Church School Work, and such other persons as the Annual Conference may determine.

In Part VII, Chapter III, Section V, between Paragraphs 1397 and 1398 insert two new Paragraphs, as follows:

Paragraph 1398. The Division shall provide guidance for local churches in equipment, arrangement, and design of Church School buildings or rooms. It shall develop standards governing the work of Local Church Directors of Christian Education and concerning their certification as provided for in Paragraph 192. It shall develop standards governing the work of the Local Church Director of Music and serve as may be possible in advancing this field of work in the Church.

Paragraph 1399. The Division shall have authority to determine the statistical questions which shall be asked concerning the Church School in the Quarterly Conference and Annual Conference blank forms and shall co-operate with the Commissions on Statistical Blanks in the organization of these questions in the authorized forms.

On page 315 of the Discipline, immediately following Paragraph 1403, insert three new Paragraphs as follows:

Paragraph 1404. The Division of the Local Church in co-operation with the Division of Educational Institutions shall be authorized to sponsor the National Conference of Methodist Youth. Some of the functions of the National Conference are the following:

(1) To provide for the free expression of the voice of Methodist youth.

(2) To provide for fellowship of Methodist youth and students from the entire Church.

(3) To select projects of particular interest to youth which shall be promoted and supported by them.

(4) To give youth free opportunity to participate creatively in planning the Church's program by making recommendations to all the Boards and Agencies of the Church and through the youth members of the General Boards and Agencies and through fellowship with the Staff members of these Boards and Agencies.

The members of the National Conference of Methodist Youth shall consist of the Presidents of Annual Conference Youth Organizations and the Presidents of State Student Organizations, eight students at large, six State Directors of Methodist Student Work elected by the National Methodist Student Commission, and six Conference Directors of Youth Work elected by the National Methodist Youth Fellowship Commission. The following shall be ex officio members of the National Conference: members of the Staff of the Division of the Local Church who have responsibility for Youth Work, members of the Staff of the Division of Educational Institutions who are responsible for Student Work, four representatives of the Staff of the Division of Education and Cultivation of the Board of Missions, one Staff member from each of the other General Boards. Each of the other General Boards and Agencies which have work with youth shall be invited by the Board of Education to appoint one representative each to participate in the meetings of the National Conference.

The National Conference shall meet annually and shall elect from its membership a President, Vice-President, and a Secretary. The Treasurer of the General Board of Education shall be the Treasurer of the National Conference. The financial support of the National Conference shall be provided for by the General Agencies which co-operate with it. The National Conference may make by-laws governing its operations. It shall report annually on its meetings and activities to the Board of Education.

Projects selected by the National Conference shall be administered by one or more Project Secretaries under the supervision of the Joint Staff on Youth and Student Work of the Division of the Local Church and the Division of Educational Institutions. Project Secretaries shall be selected by the Executive Secretaries of the Division of the Local Church and the Division of Educational Institutions of the General Board of Education from nominations made by the National Conference of Methodist Youth.

Paragraph 1405. (1) For the purpose of correlating Youth and Student Work of the Board of Education, the Division of the Local Church and the Division of Educational Institutions shall develop Inter-Staff co-operation between the members of the Staffs of the two Divisions who are responsible for Youth Work and for Student Work. This Joint Staff shall correlate Youth and Student Work of the Board, giving particular emphasis to areas of mutual concern; it shall develop an effective program for older youth of The Methodist Church. This Joint Staff shall meet at least twice each year. The President of the National Conference of Methodist Youth, the Chairman of the National Methodist Youth Fellowship Commission, and the Chairman of the National Methodist Student Commission shall meet with this Joint Staff.

(2) The Division of the Local Church shall be responsible for unifying Youth Work of The Methodist Church and the Division of Educational Institutions shall be responsible for unifying Student Work of The Methodist Church so that there may be no overlapping and duplicating programs of Work for youth and students. To this end at least once each year representatives of the other Boards and Agencies which are concerned with work with youth and students shall be invited to participate with the members of the Staff of the Division of the Local Church and the Division of Educational Institutions who are responsible for work with youth and students in a joint Inter-Board Youth Staff for the purpose of the inclusion of the interests, emphases and concerns of the Boards of The Methodist Church in the unified program of Youth Work and the unified program of Student Work. The following shall also be invited to participate in this meeting: the youth and student members of the Board of Education; the President, Vice-President and Secretary of the National Conference of Methodist Youth; three representatives of the National Methodist Youth Fellowship Commission; three representatives of the National Methodist Student Commission; these representatives to be elected by these Commissions. The Executive Secretaries of the Division of the Local Church, Educational Institutions, and the Editorial Division of the Board of Education shall attend these Staff conferences.

Paragraph 1406. There shall be a National Methodist Youth Fellowship Commission for the purpose of fellowship, evaluation and program planning in the areas that relate to general Youth Work, particularly in the local church.

It shall be composed of the Presidents of Conference Youth Organizations, the Conference Directors of Youth Work, the Conference Directors of Intermediate Work, the Staff of the Youth Department of the Division of the Local Church, one-half the youth members of the Boards and Agencies of the Church, and the Staff related to Youth Work of other Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church.

There shall be a National Methodist Student Commission for the purpose of fellowship, evaluation and program planning in areas that relate to Student Work. It shall be composed of the Presidents of State or similar Regional Student Organizations, at least eight representative students at large, State Directors of Student Work, the Staff of the Department of College and University Religious Life, one-half the youth members of the Boards and Agencies of the Church, and the Staff related to Student Work of other Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church.

Each Commission shall have power to make recommendations to all groups, Agencies, and Boards in the Church which have work with youth, particularly to the Youth Department of the Division of the Local Church and the Department of College and University Religious Life of the Division of Educational Institutions.

In Paragraph 1400, line 4, delete "an annual" and substitute "a," so that the Paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Paragraph 1400. The Division shall have authority to cooperate with the Jurisdictional and Conference Boards of Education, the Editorial Division, and other Agencies in the promotion and holding of a meeting to be known as the Methodist Conference on Christian Education.

In Part VII, Chapter III, Section IX, Paragraph 1443, in the first line at the top of page 327 after the words "terminate at the" add the words "beginning of the," so that the Paragraph when amended shall read:

Paragraph 1443. The Board shall be composed: (1) of an equal number of laymen and ministers elected quadrennially, the number and manner of election to be determined by the Annual Conference; and (2) of the President of the Conference Youth Organization and three other young people, twenty-three years of age or younger at the time of their election, two of whom shall be chosen by the Annual Conference Youth Organization and the other chosen by the Annual Conference Board of Education from nominations from State or Regional Student Organization or Organizations operating within the territory of the Annual Conference; provided, that in event of a change in the President of the Conference Youth Organization the current President shall be the representative; and provided, further, that if any of the three youth representatives attain their twenty-fourth birthday during the quadrennium the period of service on the Board shall terminate at the beginning of the session of the Annual Conference next following, and they shall be succeeded by other youth representatives chosen as they were; and so on to the end of the Paragraph.

In the second line of Paragraph 1444 after the word "Treasurer," add "elected quadrennially." After the word "Board" in line 4 delete "in such manner as it may determine" and substitute the words "after consultation with the Bishop and his Cabinet and confirmation by the Annual Conference," so that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

Paragraph 1444. The officers of the Board shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer elected quadrennially, and an Executive Secretary (who may serve two or more contiguous Conferences), elected by the Board after consultation with the Bishop and his Cabinet and confirmed by the Annual Conference. provided, that in the filling of a vacancy which occurs between sessions of an Annual Conference, the approval of the Annual Conference shall not be required for the interim period.

The retiring Board shall complete the business and make its annual Report to the Conference. The retiring Board shall make such recommendations as it may desire to the new Board, which Board shall take charge immediately, and shall make recommendations to the Annual Conference.

In line 19 of Paragraph 1448, on page 328, delete the period and the words, "The District Superintendent," and substitute for them the word "and." In the seventh line from the last line of this Paragraph after the words "of Children's Work" add the words "District Director of General Church School Work," so that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

Paragraph 1448. The Executive Secretary shall have responsibility for the general oversight and promotion of all the work of the Board and for the direction and supervision of its salaried and volunteer workers. He shall give leadership and direction to the program of Christian education in the local churches; give active co-operation to the Methodist schools and colleges within the Conference; and help to integrate the work of Christian education as undertaken by the local church and by the schools and colleges. On nomination of the Executive Secretary, such other salaried and volunteer workers as the Board may deem necessary shall be elected annually. In the case of the Annual Conference Directors of Youth Work the nomination shall be made after consultation with the responsible officers of the Annual Conference Youth Organizations under the direction of the Conference Board of Education. The Executive Secretary shall consult with the District Superintendent relative to nominations for the District Staff of Christian Education, and shall report to the Board for confirmation by the Annual Conference those persons agreed upon who, with the District Superintendent, shall constitute the District Staff; District Director of Adult Work, District Director of Youth Work, District Director of Children's Work, District Director of General Church School Work, and such other workers as may be desired. The Executive Secretary shall make a full Report annually both to the Conference Board of Education and to each of the three Executive Secretaries of the General Board of Education. Workers, salaried or volunteer, shall report as may be required to the Executive Secretary.

In Paragraph 1453, line 5, delete the words "an annual" and substitute the article "a," so that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

Paragraph 1453. The Board shall have authority to co-operate with other Annual Conference Boards in matters of common interest. It shall also have authority to co-operate with the General and Jurisdictional Boards of Education and other Agencies in the holding of a meeting to be known as the Methodist Conference on Christian Education. (See Par. 1400.)

In Paragraph 1454 delete the last sentence in sub-paragraph 1, which reads The General Board shall be the certifying agency for persons serving as Directors of Christian Education at the time of the session of the General Conference in 1948, and shall report to the Conference Board for recording and publishing as provided. Delete from sub-paragraph 2 the last two words, "of 1952," so that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

Paragraph 1454. 1. It shall be the duty of the Conference Board of Education to determine whether applicants meet the standards of the General Board of Education for Directors of Christian Education (Par. 192) and to certify and keep a record of those who do. In discharging this duty the Conference Board shall set up a Committee to review the credentials of candidates for the office of Director of Christian Education, and make recommendations to the Board for certification. Whenever possible one or more Directors should serve on this Committee. The Directors shall furnish information for purposes of review and approval of status annually to the Conference Board upon blanks provided by the General Board.

2. A roster of Certified Directors shall be included in the annual Report of the Conference Board of Education and published in the Conference Journal. Certified Directors may move to another Annual Conference and be recorded there without re-establishing status. Certified Directors of Christian Education may be consecrated and commissioned at a session of an Annual Conference or other suitable time, for which a ritual shall be provided and published in the Discipline.

F. BRINGLE MCINTOSH, Secretary.

NO. 5-A. EDUCATION

REPORT OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE
TO STUDY THE RELATION OF THE EDITORIAL
DIVISION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION TO THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION

Amended May 3, 1952. See Journal, Page 508.

Adopted May 3, 1952. See Journal, Page 508.

The Committee to Study the Relation of the Editorial Division of the Board of Publication was formed by the General Conference of 1948 in adopting Report No. 14 of the Committee on Education.

This Report is as follows:

"The Committee requests the General Conference to authorize the appointment of a Committee of sixteen, five from the Board of Education, five from the Board of Publication, and six others (one from each Jurisdiction appointed by the College of Bishops), to study the relation of the Editorial Division of the General Board of Education to said Board and the Board of Publication, with a view to arriving at the soundest possible organization and administrative procedure, guaranteeing editorial freedom and consistently progressive educational policies. This Committee shall make a Report to each Board and a Joint Report to the General Conference of 1952."

The members of the Committee are as follows: (See Paragraph 2173, the Discipline 1948.

Appointed by the College of Bishops: Rector W. Johnson (Minister) (WJ), C. H. Dubra (Minister) (CJ), Leroy A. Martin (Minister) (NEJ), John C. Murphree (Layman) (SCJ), C. E. Lundy (Minister) (SEJ), C. A. McPheeters (Minister) (NCJ).

Appointed by the Board of Publication: (The election of Marvin Franklin to the Episcopacy created a vacancy in the Board of Publication group which has been filled by the Board of Publication Chairman William H. Swiggart's appointment of J. A. Bays. Judge Swiggart also appointed an alternate on this Committee, Arthur R. Howard.) J. Lester Buford (Layman) (NCJ), J. A. Bays (Minister) (SEJ), Frank C. Probert (Layman) (NEJ), Marshall T. Steel (Minister) (SCJ), Rufus C. Baker (Minister) (WJ), Arthur R. Howard (Minister) (CJ).

Appointed by the Board of Education: Paul E. Martin (Bishop) (SCJ), Leon M. Adkins (Minister) (NEJ), C. M. Dannelly (Layman) (SEJ), J. N. R. Score (Minister) (SCJ), Frank D. Slutz (Layman) (NCJ), (Lud H. Estes was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of J. N. R. Score.)

The Committee held two meetings during the quadrennium—the first in Cincinnati, Ohio, July 15, 1949; the second in Nashville, Tennessee, January 5, 1951.

The Committee organized with the following officers: Chairman, Bishop Paul E. Martin; Vice-Chairman, Marshall T. Steel; Secretary, Rector W. Johnson.

The Convener of the Committee, Bishop Paul E. Martin, brought to the first meeting a statement concerning the history of developments in Methodism which formed a background for the appointment of this Committee, certain developments in the Church regarding the concern for choosing and electing the Editor of Church School Publications, which led to a number of Memorials being presented to the Legislative Committee of the Board of Education, and finally to the General Conference of 1948. The Convener's statement included the statement above from the Education Committee Report No. 14, and a list of the members of the Committee as provided by Paragraph 2173, the Discipline 1948.

A statement concerning the plan and functioning of the Editorial Division of the Board of Education and the Board of Publication from unification to the year 1948 was made available by Dr. C. A. Bowen, Editor of Church School Publications, and the Publishing Agents, Dr. Roy L. Smith and Mr. Lovick Pierce. These men were asked to meet with our Committee to be available for information and resource data which might be required—the Committee to meet in executive session at any time it seemed necessary to the members.

Your Committee considered the reasons for its appointment, its duties and scope of its work, and the history, plan, work, and related functions of the Editorial Division and the Board of Publication. This covered some data previous to unification, and down to the present quadrennium.

The Committee considered the composition of and the work of the Curriculum Committee, the method of selecting the Editor of Church School Publication, choosing of Editorial Assistants, and other personnel, and the problem of "time lag" in choosing Editorial Assistants in General Conference years. It sought to find answers to the following questions: Where does final authority rest in editorial policy? What are the distinct and separate functions and co-operative functions of the Editorial Division and the Board of Publication? Who nominates, and who elects the Editor of the Editorial Division and the Editorial Assistants? Is final authority with the Editor of the Editorial Division as to what shall be included in Church School Publications, or is it in the Board of Publication? What is the financial relation of these two?

In addition the Committee made a thorough study and analysis of all the Memorials concerning the relation of the Editorial Division to the Board of Publication which were submitted from across the Church to the General Conference in 1948.

Therefore, the members of your Committee, following a unanimous vote of all members present (three members absent) at Nashville, Tennessee, January 5, 1951, desire to submit the following Reports:

1. That Paragraph 1132, the Discipline 1948, which reads:

"The Assistants to the Editor of Church School Publications shall be elected annually by the Board of Publications upon nomination of the Editor of Church School Publications. The Board of Publication shall fix and pay the salaries of the Editor of Church School Publications and his Assistants and shall have full financial responsibility for all other expenses connected with the work of the Editor of Church School Publications."

be changed to read as follows:

"The Assistants to the Editor of Church School Publications shall be appointed by the Editor of Church School Publications. The Board of Publications shall fix and pay the salaries of the Editor of Church School Publications and his Assistants and shall have full financial responsibility for all other expenses connected with the work of the Editor of Church School Publications."

2. That there be added to Paragraph 1130, the Discipline 1948, the following:

"The Editor of Church School Publications shall be responsible to the Board of Education through its Editorial Division for editorial policies and content, and preparation of curriculum materials, including periodicals, undated materials and books authorized for use in the program of Christian education; and in matters related to the publication and financing thereof he shall be responsible to the Board of Publication."

3. That the first sentence of Paragraph 1423, the Discipline 1948, which reads:

"The Assistants in the Editorial Division shall be elected annually by the Board of Publication upon nomination of the Editor of Church School Publications."

be changed to read:

the second half of Paragraph 1423, the Discipline 1948, to remain as it is.

Paragraph 1425. After "responsible" in line 5 delete the remainder of the sentence, and add the words "to the Board of Education through its Editorial Division for Editorial Policies and Content, and preparation of Curriculum

Materials, including periodicals, undated materials and books authorized for use in the program of Christian Education; and in matters related to the Publication and financing thereof he shall be responsible to the Board of Publication."

Then add a sentence: "He shall also be responsible for the preparation of visual education materials relating to the curriculum."

The Paragraph shall then read as follows: "Through the Editorial Division, working in co-operation with the Curriculum Committee, the General Board of Education shall provide all curriculum materials necessary for carrying on its work. The Editor of Church School Publications shall be responsible to the Board of Education through its Editorial Division for editorial policies and content, and preparation of curriculum materials, including periodicals, undated materials and books authorized for use in the program of Christian Education; and in matters relating to the publication and financing thereof to the Board of Publication. He shall also be responsible for the preparation of visual education materials relating to the curriculum. The circulation of the literature prepared by this Division shall be a joint responsibility of the Board of Education and the Board of Publication.

By action of our Committee a copy of the foregoing recommendations were conveyed to Mr. Thomas A. Harwood of George Fry & Associates, Management Engineers, employed to make a research study of the administrative organization and procedures of The Methodist Church.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL E. MARTIN, Chairman;

RECTOR W. JOHNSON, Secretary.

The Committee recommends adoption of the following Resolution:

WHEREAS, Since the growth of the Church and the growing need for trained ministers will place increasing demands upon the Methodist theological schools, and

WHEREAS, Since the schools themselves cannot make unlimited increases in size without endangering the quality of training which they offer, Therefore Be It

Resolved, That the General Conference provide that during the next quadrennium a systematic study be made:

1. Of the optimum size of our ten Methodist theological schools;
2. Of the possible need for, and desirable location of, any new Methodist theological schools;
3. Of the possibility and wisdom of designating any present existing non-Methodist theological schools to receive Methodist sanction and support; and that any move to establish new theological schools or to sanction and support existing non-Methodist schools be postponed until after this study has been completed.

SUBJECT: CHURCH SCHOOL LITERATURE

MEMORIALS: SERIAL NOS. 100, 162, 264, 1567, 1645

Calendar No. 62. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 655.

The Committee, having carefully considered the Memorials listed above, makes the following statement relative to them:

We note that these Memorials are concerned with matters of faith and interpretations of social issues rather than with matters which can be implemented into legislation by action of the Conference.

However, we sincerely feel that these Memorials should not be slighted simply because they cannot become matters of legislation.

In different ways and in diverse degrees of intensity they have called upon the Editors of our Church School Publications for special emphasis upon various Doctrines both of religion and social theory. In some instances the plea has been made that editorial content should be severely limited to a particular point of view.

We have the most sincere regard for the need of great care in the advancement of true Christian Doctrine and righteous social theory by Editors and writers engaged in producing our Church School literature. The above Memorials are appreciated in so far as this is their intention although we feel that it would be impossible to vote concurrence or non-concurrence because of their non-legislative nature.

Having said this, we feel that it is needful to remind the Church that the entire content of all the above Memorials has been more than adequately cared for in two statements of the Curriculum Committee of the Board of Education. In 1948 a statement entitled, "Some Points of Needed Emphasis in Making the Curriculum of Christian Education" was issued to the Church. It was uncompromising in its devotion to the basic principles of Methodist belief and Christian social ethics. The recent (1952) statement of the Board of Education's Curriculum Committee is entitled, "Educational Principles in the Curriculum." It is a fifty-page presentation of the basic religious Doctrines which our Church School literature should proclaim. As for social doctrines underlying our literature, this document rightly asserts (p. 46), "The curriculum does not set itself up to be a judge, but is designed to help persons become aware of the problems involved and the possible solutions, to supply resources that help persons to think and to clarify issues, to weigh values and to find their way through to decisions that are in keeping with the Christian faith."

We are convinced that a prayerful reading of these two statements of the Curriculum Committee of the Board of Education would be an adequate answer to those who are fearful that subversive religious or social doctrines will creep into our literature.

To all those within The Methodist Church whose concern for our Church School publications has been heightened during these years of tension, we urge a thoughtful study of the above suggested documents which may be followed by careful reading of all our publications.

This would be a large but worthwhile task; and those who read all that is now being published will discover that the policies and views of the Curriculum Committee of the Board of Education have been faithfully observed in the production of our Church School literature which, according to the Discipline of 1948, Par. 1134, "This literature is to be of such type and variety as to meet the needs of all groups of our people."

To assist the churches in becoming acquainted with all these types of literature we recommend the chart "Resources for Christian Teaching" which is available from The Methodist Publishing House.

We further refer all those who are interested in the general subject of these Memorials to several sections of the Episcopal Address of 1952, especially those dealing with the following subjects: "Our Church-School Literature," "What Methodists Believe," "The Negro in The Methodist Church," "The Church and the Achievement of Peace," "Freedom in American Life in Methodism."

Adherence to the principles stated therein will insure that our Church School literature will be "of such a type and variety as to meet the needs of all groups of our people." (Par. 1134.)

SUBJECT: THE NEED FOR EMPHASIS ON YOUTH IN THE NEXT QUADRENNIUM

MEMORIAL: SERIAL No. 1568

Calendar No. 76. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 655.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following Resolution on the need for emphasis on youth in the next quadrennium:

American youth are growing up in a baffling environment. They are confronted with momentous decisions while conflicting voices cry for their loyalty. False and destructive ideologies claim their attention.

Six million American youth are members of Protestant Churches. These youth are being taught the Christian way of life. They are committed to Christ and loyal to the Church. They are the hope of the future. But twenty million American youth do not belong to any Church or Synagogue. They need Christ and the ministries of the Church. Left without Christian teaching they may become the seedbed of communism, fascism, secularism and atheism. Won for Christ, they will be the bulwark of freedom and the heralds of Christ around the world.

It is a safe estimate that in the next ten years the youth population will increase by six and one-half million. On the basis of Church membership of Protestant Churches in the United States, The Methodist Church should have 14 per cent of American youth as members of our Church. On that basis our Methodist youth membership should be 4,600,000 by 1960. It is now 1,125,000.

The situation facing youth presents The Methodist Church with one of its greatest challenges and opportunities. If the Church is to meet its responsibility, it is essential that it give strong leadership—

To help youth find an undergirding faith in God, a vital dedication of personal life to Christ, and a passionate sense of mission to serve Christ in every relationship of life.

To reach additional millions of youth with a program of Christian education through which life will be transformed.

To help youth share in creative Christian experience through study, worship, evangelism, missions, church attendance, recreation, volunteer service, and Christian vocations.

To recruit and train thousands of adult workers with youth.

To help youth become world minded, with a commitment to the world mission of the Christian faith and to world peace.

To provide guidance to youth for the establishment of Christian homes.

Throughout its history The Methodist Church has sought to provide a vital program of Youth Work. In the face of present emergencies and pressures it is imperative that we strengthen our program and discover new and more effective means of ministering to the youth of this generation.

The Commission of Youth Workers of the Methodist Conference on Christian Education has presented a Memorial to the General Conference calling for this movement.

In the light of these conditions, and this challenge to the Church,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the General Conference of 1952:

First, That we call upon The Methodist Church to place a special emphasis during the quadrennium 1952-56 upon developing, improving, and extending its Youth Program and upon reaching increased numbers of youth for the Christian life and membership in the Church.

Second, That we call upon the Bishops, District Superintendents, Conference Boards of Education, pastors, youth and adult members of our Church, for leadership and support in this movement in their Conferences, Districts, and local churches.

Third, That we call upon the Division of the Local Church of the Board of Education to assume administrative responsibility for planning and promoting this movement and that we call upon the other Boards, Divisions of Boards and Agencies which have interest in the youth of the Church, to give co-operation.

Fourth, That we request the Council on World Service and Finance to counsel and advise with the Division of the Local Church regarding the necessary funds for the direction and promotion of this particular enterprise.

The Committee recommends that in Part V, Chapter I, Section X on page 248 of the 1948 Discipline Paragraph 1144 be deleted and the following substituted in its place:

Paragraph 1144.1. There shall be a Radio and Film Commission of The Methodist Church.

Amend Par. 1144, Sec. 2. Substitute the following:

2. The membership shall be constituted from and elected by the following agencies: Two members from the Council of Bishops; three members from the Board of Missions (including the two Executive Secretaries of the Joint Section of Education and Cultivation and one other elected by the Board); three from the Board of Education; two from The Methodist Publishing House; and one each from the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Lay Activities, the Commission on World Peace, the Board of Temperance, the Board of Social and Economic Relations, the Commission on Public Information, the Board of Pensions, and the American Bible Society; one from each Jurisdiction, elected by the College of Bishops of that Jurisdiction; and five members at large elected by the Commission.

3. Officers of the Commission shall be composed of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, elected on a quadrennial basis in such manner as the Commission may determine.

4. The purpose and function of the Radio and Film Commission shall be:

a) To unify and co-ordinate the audio-visual programs of all Methodist Agencies dealing with projected pictures, recordings, transcriptions, radio and television programs and other audio-visual materials.

b) To make the studies necessary for the development of a unified and comprehensive program of resources to serve all age groups in the home, Church, and community, and to represent the great causes of the Church.

c) To produce and distribute such programs and materials in the area of the work of member Agencies as the Agencies may request and finance, and such other resources as are needed to serve the great causes of the Church. In so far as practical the rental or sale of materials for Methodist use shall be handled through The Methodist Publishing House.

d) To represent The Methodist Church in the Central Department of Broadcasting and Films of the National Council of Churches and any other Inter-Denominational Agencies working in the area of mass communication.

e) To provide funds for scholarships, and other training opportunities, to prepare qualified persons for full-time Christian service in this field, and to provide training opportunities for ministers and lay leaders so that resources provided may be effectively used.

5. The financial support of the Commission shall be de-terminated as follows: The General Conference shall determine and provide from World Service Funds, upon the recommendation of the Commission on World Service and Finance, the Budget of the Radio and Film Commission. The Budget shall include provision for necessary Staff and administrative cost and such funds as may be deemed necessary to enable the Commission to fulfill its stated functions. Additional contributions may be accepted from member Agencies which are not supported by World Service Funds.

The General Conference, upon recommendation of the Council on World Service and Finance, and the Radio and Film Commission, shall allot such funds as it deems wise to the Central Department of Broadcasting and Film of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. If this apportionment is included in a total Church Budget for the National Council of Churches, it shall be paid only after annual approval by the Radio and Film Commission.

The Committee recommends the following changes in Part VII, Chapter III, Section II, 1948 Discipline, pages 302-307.

Insert this sentence at the beginning of Paragraph 1351: There shall be a Division of Educational Institutions which shall represent The Methodist Church in all activities connected with secondary, higher, theological, and ministerial education. Delete "The Division of Educational Institutions" and substitute "it" before "shall have"; change "relation" to "relationship" and delete "in the business and educational management of," putting in its place the word "to"; insert "and" before "Wesley Foundations"; delete the comma after "Foundations"; delete "and other educational institutions related to" and instead put "affiliated with." Insert a period after "Church" and delete "in the United States except those institutions owned or supervised by other Boards." Add the following sentence: "Upon request, it may act in advisory capacity to the educational institutions in the United States, its territories and dependencies, owned or supervised by the several Agencies of The Methodist Church." Delete "object of this advisory relationship" and insert instead: "principal objectives of the Division" in the first sentence of the second sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1351. After "to develop" change "a" to "an" and delete the word "Methodist"; after "plan and purpose" delete the words "in which the educational institutions of the Church shall be definitely related to" and insert "which shall definitely relate the educational institutions of"; change "and" to "to" and delete the words "assume adequate obligation for their financial support"; after "within" change "the" to "these"; delete the words "maintenance of" after "institutions"; after "standards" add the following: "and soundest business practices"; after "create" insert the words "and maintain" and after "atmosphere" insert the words "in the institution"; delete the comma after "life" and also the words "a Christian standard of conduct, and membership in Christ's holy Church" and insert "to the end that all members of the college and university communities may possess a knowledge and understanding of the Christian faith and that students may emerge from their educational experiences prepared to witness to the gospel in every area of life." Delete the remainder of Paragraph 1351, so that Paragraph 1351 as amended shall then read:

Paragraph 1351. There shall be a Division of Educational Institutions which shall represent The Methodist Church in all activities connected with secondary, higher, theological, and ministerial education. It shall have an advisory relationship to all universities, colleges, schools, theological schools, and Wesley Foundations affiliated with The Methodist Church. Upon request, it may act in advisory capacity to the educational institutions in the United States, its territories and dependencies, owned or supervised by the several Agencies of The Methodist Church.

The principal objectives of the Division shall be: (1) to develop an educational plan and purpose which shall definitely relate the educational institutions of the Church to the Church; (2) to foster within these institutions the highest educational standards and soundest business practices; and (3) to create and maintain an atmosphere in the institutions conducive to the development of a Christian philosophy of life to the end that all members of the college and university communities may possess a knowledge and understanding of the Christian faith and that students may emerge from their educational experiences prepared to witness to the gospel in every area of life.

Change Paragraph 1352 as follows: After "Board" delete the remainder of the paragraph and insert the following: "of education, the Division of Educational Institutions shall devise ways and means to aid the educational institutions of the Church. To this end, it may organize and maintain such departments, engage personnel for their operation, appoint such Commissions and Committees and adopt such regulations as are necessary for the discharge of its responsibilities."

The second sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1352 shall be the first sentence from the fourth sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1351 of the 1948 Discipline, with no changes. Change the third sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1352 to begin with this sentence: "The Board through this Division shall have an advisory relationship to the theological schools in the planning of their educational programs and in the development of their financial support." Add the third sentence of the fourth sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1351 of the 1948 Discipline. Make the fourth sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1352 the fourth sentence of the fourth sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1351 of the 1948 Discipline, with these changes: Delete "It" and add "the Board through this Division"; after "shall" delete "seek to"; after "tax-supported" delete "and other"; after "institutions" add "and others," so that Paragraph 1352 as amended shall read:

Paragraph 1352. Subject to the approval of the Board of Education, the Division of Educational Institutions shall de-wise ways and means to aid the educational institutions of the Church. To this end, it may organize and maintain such departments, engage personnel for their operation, appoint such Commissions and Committees, and adopt such regulations as are necessary for the discharge of its responsibilities.

The Board through this Division may establish and conduct schools in the United States in communities in which facilities for education are not adequately provided.

The Board through this Division shall have an advisory relationship to the theological schools in the planning of their educational programs and in the development of their financial support. It shall develop and conduct in-service programs for Supply Pastors, and for persons engaged in the regular ministry.

The Board through this Division shall promote the religious training and activities of students at institutions of The Methodist Church and of Methodist students at tax-supported institutions and others not related to The Methodist Church.

Change Paragraph 1353 as follows: Make the first sub-paragraph the same as the first sub-paragraph in Paragraph 1353 of the 1948 Discipline. The second sub-paragraph shall be Paragraph 1357 of the 1948 Discipline with no changes, followed by the third sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1358 of the 1948 Discipline, with no changes. The third sub-paragraph shall be as follows: "The Division shall co-operate with the General and Annual Conferences in their efforts to provide the institutions related to them adequate financial income for the operation of accredited educational programs." The fourth sub-paragraph shall be the same as Paragraph 1359 of the 1948 Discipline. The fifth sub-paragraph shall be the same as Paragraph 1354 of the 1948 Discipline. The sixth sub-paragraph shall be as follows: "The Division may take such action as necessary to protect or recover the investment which it or an Annual Conference has made in capital funds to any institution founded, organized, developed, or assisted under the direction or with the co-operation of The Methodist Church, should any such institution discontinue operation or move to sever its connection with the Church," so that Paragraph 1353 as amended shall then read:

Paragraph 1353. The Division shall disburse such funds as are approved by the Board for the maintenance and promotion of the work committed to it under such rules as the Board may adopt.

The Division shall give attention to the financial needs of the institutions related to it and from funds which are available may make appropriations toward their support. In making appropriations for the support of educational institutions, the Division shall give due consideration to the actual current needs of such institutions as shown in carefully prepared Reports presented by them on forms provided by the Division. Appropriations to institutions from funds at the disposal of the Division shall not debar those institutions from soliciting aid from their supporting Conferences or from other sources. In no case shall the Division aid an institution which announces a change in its classification until the University Senate shall have approved the new classification.

The Division shall co-operate with the General and Annual Conferences in their efforts to provide the institutions related to them adequate financial income for the operation of accredited educational programs.

The Division shall recommend to Jurisdictional and Annual Conference Boards of Education that the appropriation of Annual Conference funds shall be made only to those approved institutions whose educational and religious aims and programs are in active accord with the policies of the Church as expressed in the Discipline, and through special General Conference enactments.

The Division shall have power to administer under the rules and regulations of the Board any and all funds, gifts, and bequests which have been or may be committed to the Board for the purpose of the Division; and, subject to the approval of the Board, it may solicit or create special funds for its projects. The purposes for which the funds are given and accepted shall be sacredly observed.

The Division may take such action as necessary to protect or recover the investment which it or an Annual Conference has made in capital funds to any institution founded, organized, developed, or assisted under the direction or with the co-operation of The Methodist Church, should any such institution discontinue operation or move to sever its connection with the Church.

Change Paragraph 1354 so that its two parts shall be the same as the first and second sub-paragraphs of 1358 in the 1948 Discipline.

Make no change in Paragraph 1355.

Delete all of Paragraph 1356 and substitute the following:

Paragraph 1356. The Division shall promote the work of Christian education throughout the Church. In co-operation with the Annual Conferences under the leadership of the pastors it shall bring to the attention of our members the contribution of Christian education to the life and character of youth and the place it has in the preservation and propagation of Christianity.

It shall be responsible for promoting the Special Days, Race Relations Sunday and Methodist Student Day, referred to in Paragraph 233, Sections 3 and 4, and 1350 of the 1952 Discipline.

Make Paragraph 1357 Paragraph 1360 of the 1948 Discipline, with the following changes:

Delete the first three words, "In fulfillment of," and in their place put "to fulfill"; after "Division" delete the words "shall" and substitute "may"; after "maker" delete "such"; after "appropriations" delete "as the funds at its disposal shall warrant"; after "maintenance of" insert "approved"; after "Wesley Foundations" place in parentheses the words at the end of the sentence: "under conditions approved by the Division," so that "may hereafter be established" will be the end of the sentence. After "A Wesley Foundation" delete "in a non-Methodist institution or a student" and substitute "is The Methodist Church at work at State and independent colleges and universities. The Division shall revise annually a list of approved Wesley Foundations which have met the requirements of the Division." Make the second subparagraph begin with the words: "A Wesley Foundation or other" before the word "religious"; after "Methodist" insert "or non-Methodist"; delete "making request for" after "institution" and substitute "Receiving"; after "submit" delete "for consideration carefully prepared" and insert "annually"; after "Reports" insert "of its work and financial operations"; after "on" delete "Budget." After "Appropriations" insert "made"; after "maintenance of" delete "student"; after "work at" change "a" to "any"; after "shall not" delete "debar it from soliciting" and substitute "preclude the solicitation of," so that Paragraph 1357 as amended shall then read:

Paragraph 1357. To fulfill its responsibility for the religious training and activities of Methodist students, the Division may make appropriations for the maintenance of approved Wesley Foundations (under conditions approved by the Division) and other organizations with similar purposes in the United States, which have been established or which may hereafter be established. A Wesley Foundation is The Methodist Church at work at State and independent colleges and universities. The Division shall revise annually a list of approved Wesley Foundations which have met the requirements of the division.

A Wesley Foundation or other religious program in a Methodist or non-Methodist institution receiving financial aid shall submit annually Reports of its work and financial operations on forms provided by the Division. Appropriations made by the Division toward the maintenance of religious work at any given institution shall not preclude the solicitation of additional funds from supporting Conferences.

Paragraph 1358 shall be Paragraph 1361 of the 1948 Discipline with the following changes:

After "division" delete "may employ one or more persons whose duty it shall be" and substitute "shall have responsibility in co-operation with Annual Conferences"; after "and" delete "carry on" and substitute "maintain"; after "independent institutions" delete "where practicable"; after "and" delete "may co-operate with" and substitute "assist"; after "the" delete "colleges of the Church in promoting student" and substitute "Methodist institutions of higher education in their." After "needs of" delete "the campus" and substitute "students"; delete "to offer advice in planning programs," so that Paragraph 1358 as amended shall then read:

Paragraph 1358. The Division shall have responsibility in co-operation with Annual Conferences to organize and maintain Wesley Foundations at State and independent institutions and assist the Methodist institutions of higher education in their religious activities. It shall also be its duty to study the religious needs of students, to enlist suitable candidates for full-time religious vocations, and to assist in evangelistic work.

Delete the entire first sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1362 in the 1948 Discipline. Make the first sentence of the second sub-paragraph of Paragraph 1362 the first sentence of Paragraph 1359 with the following changes: After "Committee" insert "or a Board of Directors." Insert "qualifications for membership and duties of the Committee or Board of Directors shall be outlined by the Division" as the second sentence, followed by two entirely new Paragraphs, so that Paragraph 1359 as amended shall then read:

Paragraph 1359. There shall be a Campus-Church Relations Committee or a Board of Directors in every college community where The Methodist Church is at work. Qualifications for membership and duties of the Committee or Board of Directors shall be outlined by the Division.

The Division of Educational Institutions shall appoint a Commission to be known as the Standardizing Commission for Wesley Foundations. This Commission shall be the Standardizing Agency for all student work related to The Methodist Church at State and independent campuses in the United States. It shall be composed of six members of the Division of Educational Institutions and five persons, not members of the Board of Education, who are actively engaged in Wesley Foundation work and who are fitted by training and experience to establish standards and evaluate the educational, religious, and financial program of Wesley Foundations. This Commission shall report to the Division of Educational Institutions the Wesley Foundations which meet the standards established by the Commission and therefore qualify for financial support from the General Board of Education and the Annual Conference or Conferences.

A Wesley Foundation approved by the Wesley Foundation Commission on Standards shall have a Board of Directors composed of members from the local campus church community and members at-large representing the interests of the Annual Conference or Conferences. Board members shall be elected by the Annual Conference or Conferences on nomination of the Conference Board of Education or Boards of Education. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the direction and administration of the Foundation in accordance with the policies and standards established by the Annual Conference Board or Boards and the General Board of Education.

Insert as Paragraph 1360 the following:

Paragraph 1360. The Division is responsible for the operation and maintenance of religious work among Methodist students enrolled in institutions of higher education. The Division shall be related to the campus Christian organization on Methodist college campuses. Wesley Foundations at State and independent colleges and universities, and such other organizations as may be developed in an Inter-Collegiate Student Christian Movement. There shall be such State or similar area units, regional and national, the Division shall see fit to maintain. The Division shall publish such materials as are necessary to develop this work.

Insert as Paragraph 1361, Paragraph 1363 of the 1948 Discipline, with the following changes: After "given state" in the first sentence change "may" to "shall"; after "Religious Work" insert "to co-ordinate all Inter-Collegiate work of the Methodist Student Movement and"; after "oversight to" delete "all such projects in" and substitute "student work at"; after "higher learning" change "within" to "in"; put a period after "state" instead of a comma, delete the word "and" and begin a new sentence with "It." After "Boards of Education" insert "in consultation with the Division of Educational Institutions of the General Board of Education," so that Paragraph 1361 as amended shall then read:

Paragraph 1361. The Board of Education of the Annual Conferences of a given State shall create at the beginning of each quadrennium an Inter-Conference Commission on Student Religious Work to co-ordinate all Inter-Collegiate work of the Methodist Student Movement and to give general oversight to Student Work at the institutions of higher learning in the State. It shall have such powers and responsibilities as the Conference Boards of Education in consultation with the Division of Educational Institutions of the General Board of Education shall delegate to it.

Paragraph 1362 shall be the same as Paragraph 1364 of the 1948 Discipline.

Paragraph 1363 shall consist of two sub-paragraphs: the first the same as Paragraph 1367 of the 1948 Discipline and the second the same as Paragraph 1368 of the 1948 Discipline.

Paragraph 1364 shall be the same as Paragraph 1365 of the 1948 Discipline except for the deletion of the two words "for Negroes" after "educational work in institutions."

Paragraph 1365 shall be the same as Paragraph 1366 in the 1948 Discipline.

SUBJECT: THE STUDENT LOAN AND SCHOLARSHIP FUND
MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. A COMMITTEE STATEMENT

Calendar No. 138. Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 694.

The Committee recommends the approval of the following statement regarding the Student Loan and Scholarship Fund.

The Student Loan Fund of The Methodist Church now celebrates its eightieth year of service to Methodist college and university students. Founded in 1872, the first loan of $100.00 was granted a year later to a young man from India studying at Drew Theological Seminary. Since that day more than 70,000 students have received loans totaling nearly $11,000,000. Every dollar in the fund in 1873 has been used at least eight times by different students.

In 1944 the General Conference broadened the function of the Student Aid Fund to provide scholarships as well as loans. This action was the result of a keen awareness of the increased financial needs of students and of greater possibilities for the Fund. At present the offerings received on Methodist Student Day are divided 9 per cent for scholarships and 10 per cent for Loan Funds.

The scholarships have helped to draw to the colleges and universities of the Church young Methodists of outstanding attainment. The results have fully borne out the aims of the Church. Twenty-three per cent of those receiving scholarships between 1945 and 1951 have become teachers, 19 per cent ministers, 12 per cent workers in local churches, and 3 per cent missionaries. Medicine, nursing and social work have claimed another 12 per cent. From the beginning in 1944, National Methodist Scholarships have symbolized the concern of the Church for Christian character, scholarship and leadership.

The collection of loans granted to Methodist students has received careful attention. Honesty toward obligations to the Church is essential, for only thus can faith be kept with the contributors whose sacrificial gifts sustain the Funds.

The history of the Loan and Scholarship Programs reveals unusual opportunities for the encouragement of future Church leadership. What happens across the country on Methodist Student Day has therefore great significance for the future of the Church. As the need for scholarships grows more acute, the calls upon the loan fund will probably exceed $400,000 in 1952-53.

These are investments in our youth!

REPORT NO. 2. INTER-DENOMINATIONAL RELATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

M, 26; P, 17; F, 17; A, 0; N, 0

SUBJECT: AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. COMMITTEE ACTION

Calendar No. 182. Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 732.

For 132 years, the American Bible Society has been the official agency of The Methodist Church for translation, publication, and distribution of the Holy Scriptures for missionary and evangelization purposes. Over 400,000,000 copies of the Bible or books of the Bible have been distributed during this period.

An all-time record was made in 1951 when over 16,000,000 volumes of Scripture were supplied at home and abroad by the American Bible Society. The Society is currently publishing in over 140 languages and dialects, not including the 35 editions and languages for the blind.

The Methodist Church is proud to have had part in sustaining the work of the Society, and recognizes its opportunities and responsibilities during the coming quadrennium. Nearly one-half of all the missionary Scriptures of the world are being provided by American Protestants through the agencies of the American Bible Society. America and Methodism must not permit any neglect of this primary and basic need to provide God's Word to every man on earth in his own tongue.

We rejoice in the evidences of success in spreading more and more widely the written record of our Lord and His salvation. We commend the American Bible Society for its steady assistance in bringing out new translations and revisions and in reaching newly literate peoples.

We offer and pledge our co-operation in the strategic and vital ministry of the American Bible Society, and we recommend continued generous support.

SUBJECT: THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. 933

Calendar No. 183. Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 732.

We recommend that The General Conference of The Methodist Church urge The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America to expand the services of its Washington office to meet the needs of its constituent Denominations that have concerns and programs in the field of Christian citizenship.

REPORT NO. 4. INTER-DENOMINATIONAL RELATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

M, 26; P, 17; F, 17; A, 0; N, 0

SUBJECT: COMMISSION ON UNION

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. 938

Amended May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 732.

Calendar No. 184. Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 732.

We commend our Commission on Church Union for its leadership in the field of Church Union. The 1948 General Conference gave the strongest endorsement ever given to the movement for a larger Protestant Union and instructed its Commission to seek union with any and all Churches minded to discuss union with the people called Methodists. Acting under these instructions our Commission has (1) begun discussions with the Evangelical United Brethren Church leaders, which it has hoped may result some day soon in formal discussions and negotiations; (2) it has met four times in the quadrennium the Committee on Approaches to Unity of the Protestant Episcopal Church seeking to explore paths to union between these two great Churches which have so much in common; (3) it has been a part of the Conference on Church Union, which has brought together representatives of eight Denominations to formulate and consider the first plan ever drawn for uniting great Churches in the United States with differing traditions and policies.

In lands beyond the seas Bishops and members of our Church have been participating in discussion of union with other Denominations. The urge in the younger Churches is even stronger than in the homeland.

All of these movements we approve, and we give instructions no less compelling than the 1948 General Conference for the continuance of these discussions, and for the initiation of others that may arise. It is impossible to conceive of a follower of John Wesley who is not co-operative. As was so well said in the Episcopal Address, "What deeply concerns us is that this universal movement toward Christian unity should create within the hearts of individual believers and local churches a sense of the supernal grandeur of the Church to which they belong, and lift their eyes from the round of petty interests and sectarian rivalries to the lofty endeavor of making a whole world Christian."

To this end we recommend a Commission on Church Union to be composed of 1 Bishop, 1 minister, and 1 layman from each Jurisdiction to be nominated by the Council of Bishops for election by the General Conference. The duties of this Commission shall be as follows: (1) to consider specific overtures or proposals for organic union with other Denominations and report to the General Conference, (2) to initiate studies looking toward organic union, (3) to confer with representatives of other Denominations in any general discussion of Church Union, (4) to encourage Inter-Denominational co-operation through the Church and to have responsibility for any Inter-Denominational activities not specifically cared for by other agencies.

REPORT No. 7. INTER-DENOMINATIONAL RELATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

M, 26; P, 17; F, 17; A, 0; N, 0

SUBJECT: WORLD METHODIST COUNCIL

Calendar No. 187. Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 733.

The Eighth Methodist Ecumenical Conference of Methodism, held at Oxford, England, in the late summer of 1951, was one of the most important Methodist Conferences held since the days of John Wesley, and the most constructive of all Methodist Ecumenical Conferences. Beginning in 1881 Ecumenical Conferences were held at ten year intervals until 1931. The Second World War prevented the holding of the Seventh Conference until 1947 in Springfield Massachusetts. That Conference began the re-organization of the whole movement. Hitherto Ecumenical Conferences were gatherings for discussion and fellowships. A Methodist World Organization, begun at Springfield, was completed at Oxford. For the first time in the history of Methodism the followers of him who called the world his parish were brought into A World Organization. A Bishop of our own Church was named to a position of high honor and great responsibility as the first leader of World Methodism; two able ministers were selected as Secretaries in London and New York; as honorary Vice-Presidents and members of the Council were chosen influential ministers and laymen of our Church. To carry on the widening program of co-operation, Committees were named; the building of a hostel for Methodist students at Oxford University was proposed as an enterprise of World Methodism; and a great Campaign of Evangelism among all Methodist churches and lands was launched for 1953, the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of John Wesley's birth. We pray God's blessing on this great enterprise and confirm the selection of all our Church leaders elected at Oxford as our representatives.

One result of the Oxford Conference has been the organization of a fellowship known of the member churches in the United States of the World Methodist Council. It has brought together for consultation representatives of The Methodist Church, the A.M.E., the A.M.E. Zion Colored Methodist Churches. A Bishop and leader of the A.M.E. Church in this country for forty years has said, "This is the most constructive thing done for Negro Methodism in our time and the one who has brought it about was truly led of God and the Holy Spirit."

May all that has been done to make Methodists one people around the world strengthen the World Council of Churches as we believe it will, and hasten the coming of the Kingdom of God as it will bring together the broken fragments of Christ's Holy Church!

The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. unites twelve great Inter-Denominational Agencies in the most significant expression of Christian co-operation in the history of the nation. The Methodist Church has been a charter member of all major Inter-Denominational Agencies and has made contributions second to none. We pledge our continuing support in personnel and finance, and call upon our people to participate in its service and to remember it in our prayers.

We rejoice in the formation of The World Council of Churches, at Amsterdam in 1948. This was one of the great events in the history of the Christian Church. The World Council of Churches is not a Church, but is the Churches themselves in co-operation at the world level. It is a fellowship of Churches that believe in Jesus Christ as God and Saviour.

We commend The World Council to the people called Methodists and voice our gratitude for the remarkable achievements of the first four years of its history. We are proud of the contribution in leadership and in financial support made by our people, and of the fact that the Second Assembly of 1954 will meet upon the campus of a Methodist university at Evanston.

The World Council has our full support and we pledge our co-operation as we record our commendation. We request the Council of Bishops to nominate for election by their General Conference Methodist representatives in the 1954 Second Assembly.

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. 941

Amended May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 653.

Par. 935 of the Discipline is amended to read as follows:

"The Bishop in charge, or the District Superintendent or the traveling elder duly appointed by the Bishop in charge, within ten days after receipt of a copy of such charges, shall appoint counsel for the Church and notify the accused in writing to appear at a fixed time and place no less than seven days after service of such notice and within a reasonable time thereafter to select the members of the Trial Court.

"At the appointed time, upon nomination by the majority of the District Superintendents of the Annual Conference of twenty-one effective elders of the Annual Conference, of which the accused is a member, and in the presence of the accused and his counsel, if requested, and counsel for the Church, thirteen effective elders shall be selected as a Trial Court.

"The counsel for the Church and the accused shall have each peremptory challenges to the number of four and challenges for cause without limit. If by reason of challenges for cause being sustained the number is reduced below thirteen, additional elders shall be nominated, in like manner as was the original panel, to take the places of the numbers challenged, who likewise shall be subject to challenge for cause. This method of procedure shall be followed until a Trial Court of thirteen members has been selected.

"The presiding officer in charge shall also fix the time and place for the trial, notice of which shall be given in writing to the accused by the counsel for the Church seven days in advance of the time fixed; provided that, with the consent of the accused, the time of the trial may be fixed at an earlier date. The Bishop in charge, or another Bishop invited by him, or a traveling elder appointed by him, shall preside at the trial. The presiding officer shall appoint a Secretary, who shall keep a record of the proceedings and of the testimony.

"The court thus constituted shall have full power to try the accused and upon his conviction by a vote of nine or more thereof shall have power to suspend him from the exercise of the functions of his office; to depose him from his office or the ministry or both; to expel him from the Church; or in case of conviction of minor offenses, to fix a lesser penalty.

"Its findings shall be final, subject to appeal to the Committee on Appeals of the Jurisdictional Conference, or the Central Conference, as the case may be. It shall make a faithful report in writing of all its proceedings, signed by the President and Secretary of the Committee, to the Secretary of the Annual Conference for permanent record, and deliver to him therewith the bill of charges, the evidence taken, and the decision rendered, together with all documents brought into the trial."

REPORT NO. 1. MEMBERSHIP AND EVANGELISM

M, 66; P, 54; F, 54; A, 0; N, 0

SUBJECT: WORLDWIDE MISSION OF EVANGELISM

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NOS. 357-363

Calendar No. 8. Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 377.

Whereas the World Methodist Council at its recent session in Oxford, England—August 28 to September 7, 1951—recommended that a World-wide simultaneous Evangelistic Mission be carried out in all the Methodist Churches of the world in 1953; and

Whereas the year 1953 will mark the 250th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley, the illustrious founder of Methodism,

Therefore Be It Resolved, That we recommend:

First, that all our Churches co-operate to the fullest extent in the Evangelistic Campaign recommended by the World Methodist Council;

Second, that we identify specifically this World-wide Evangelistic Program in 1953 with the commemoration of the 250th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley, who said, "The World is my parish";

Third, that we designate the period from World-wide Communion Sunday, October 5, 1952, to Watch Night Service, December 31, 1952, as a period of intensive evangelistic preparation;

Fourth, that we designate the year 1953 as a period of World-wide Evangelism with Pentecost Sunday (which in the year 1953 falls on Aldersgate Sunday, May 24th) as one of the high points of emphasis for the entire period;

Fifth, that we instruct the Board of Evangelism to create a Committee of Fifty, with representatives from all Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church, to inaugurate, implement, and carry out this World-wide Evangelistic Program;

Sixth, that we make this World-wide Evangelistic Movement an integral part of whatever forward movement the General Conference may adopt for the ensuing quadrennium, and instruct the Council of Bishops, the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Missions, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Board of Education, the Board of Lay Activities, The Methodist Publishing House and other appropriate Agencies of the Church to co-operate in the promotion of this Evangelistic Campaign.

SUBJECT: MEMBERSHIP ON ANNUAL CONFERENCE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Calendar No. 9. Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 392.

We respectfully memorialize the General Conference of The Methodist Church, now in session to make the District Secretaries of Evangelism and the Chairman of the Christian Witness Commission of the Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship members of the Conference Boards of Evangelism, by adding the words "District Secretaries of Evangelism" after the words "District Superintendents" and "the Chairman of the Christian Witness Commission of the Methodist Youth Fellowship" after the words "the Secretary of Spiritual Life of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service" in Paragraph 1559 of the 1948 Discipline.

This Paragraph now reads:

"1559. Each Conference Board of Evangelism shall include in its membership the District Superintendents, one pastor and one lay member from each of the Districts, such members of the Jurisdictional Board as may reside within the bounds of the Annual Conference, the Secretary of Spiritual Life of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Conference Secretary of Evangelism, together with such further organization as the Annual Conference may desire; provided that no salaried officer, employee, or one receiving remuneration from the Conference Board of Evangelism shall be a member thereof."

When amended the Paragraph will read:

"1559. Each Conference Board of Evangelism shall include in its membership the District Superintendents, the District Secretaries of Evangelism, one pastor and one lay member from each of the Districts, such members of the Jurisdictional Board as may reside within the bounds of the Annual Conference, the Secretary of Spiritual Life of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Conference Secretary of Evangelism, the Chairman of the Christian Witness Commission of the Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship, together with such further organization as the Annual Conference may desire; provided that no salaried officer, employee, or one receiving remuneration from the Conference Board of Evangelism shall be a member thereof."

Program of Evangelism

(Memorials 354 and 1483 and Board of Evangelism)

Inasmuch as the fundamental task of the Church is individual and social salvation and the present civilization is sick and tottering, waiting for the healing hand of God upon the individual and this tormented world,

Be It Hereby Resolved, That in keeping with the action of the World Methodist Council calling all branches of Methodism to a World-Wide Program of Evangelism and in response to the challenge of the Episcopal Address which revealed the sobering fact that in the United States of America alone there are 18 million homes that do not have a single member in any Church, we do adopt the following Program of Evangelism for the quadrennium 1952-56:

- I. A. Every local church participating in the World-Wide Mission of Evangelism:
 1. Through intensive evangelistic preparation from World-Wide Communion Sunday, October 5, 1952, to Watch Night Service, December 31, 1952.
 2. Co-operation during 1953 in the year of World-Wide Evangelism, with one of the high points of emphasis being Pentecost Sunday, May 24, which in the year 1953 is also Aldersgate Sunday.
- B. Every local church implement its program throughout the quadrennium as follows:
 1. A Spiritual Life Mission in every local church, annually, to activate the inactive and to deepen the spiritual life of all members.
 2. A systematic visitation of all members in the local church.
 3. A prayer group in every local church, and the cultivation of a prayer movement.
 4. Family worship in every home, including grace at meals.
 5. Making and keeping an up-to-date prospect and constituency roll.
 6. In each local church a group organized for regular and systematic Lay Visitation Evangelism, with every member of the local church a "witness" and personal worker.
 7. Every new member trained in church membership and the Christian life.
 8. Every member taking his place for Christ in the community life and activities.
 9. Every local church co-operating with District or City Board of Missions in organizing new churches and reclaiming abandoned churches.

II. Every District co-operating through:

1. A United Evangelistic Mission conducted on a District or Inter-District level.
2. A Spiritual Life Mission for preachers and laymen in every District.

III. Every Annual Conference co-operating through:

1. Seeking to secure at least a ten per cent net gain in membership during the quadrennium.
2. Conducting annually, on a Conference or Area basis, a Youth Work Camp in Evangelism, in co-operation with the Board of Education.
3. Seeking definitely to build up the spiritual tone of the Annual Conference session.
4. Encouraging the use of every helpful method of evangelism and that full use be made of such technique as radio, television, and audio vision, that, in the spirit of St. Paul we may be all things to all men if by any means we may win some.

To Replace Par. 2029 in the 1948 Discipline.

Call to Evangelism

Fully aware of the perils and evils confronting us, we affirm our faith in the Church of Christ. We repudiate that pessimism, often masquerading as realism or prophecy, which belittles the contemporary power of the Church. Being human, we cannot diagnose our spiritual condition with certainty, but this we believe: that, compared with her Lord, the Church is shamefully unworthy; that there is much need for the improvement we intend; but that, nevertheless, the Church is today healthy and strong. For this, thanks be to God.

Humbly and gratefully, we note that The Methodist Church is still growing. We see in the eight years of Crusade and Advance, in lay evangelism, in missionary enterprises far and near, evidences that our Church is alert, devoted, and zealous.

Thank God for a strong, evangelistic Church. Our desperate world desperately needs it. Neither science, nor knowledge, nor government, nor any human power or instrument, can save us. We need God. Only the salvation manifest and available in Christ will suffice.

Evangelism is the top-priority need of our time. Every available resource should be used, our total Christian manpower drafted, every energy and intelligence employed, to win our world to Christ. Only He can save us. Nothing else we can do is as important as leading men to love and obey Him.

If we are to lead enough men to Him soon enough, we need more and better evangelists. No one can be Christian without being evangelistic. Nothing could be more untrue than the notion that evangelism is merely a part of Church program, a separate activity to be carried on sporadically by a select few. The whole business of the Church is to save souls. Its entire program has the single goal of bringing persons into Christlike life. Education and evangelism, nurture and conversion, administration and admonition, worship and social service, are dynamic, inseparable elements of one passion and purpose.

No sermon speaks as it should unless it is evangelistic. No anthem sings as it should unless its voice is redemptive. Let seminaries remember that evangelism is their reason for existence. Let Church-related colleges remember that evangelism is their primary task. Let public school teachers, physicians and nurses, lawyers and engineers, scholars and unskilled laborers, housekeepers and businessmen, husbands and wives and families, remember that their vocation is to win the world to Christ.

Where there is special need there is special duty. We lay upon the conscience of Christians the neglected, the spiritually underprivileged: whether they be rich or poor, chronically ill or criminal, students or faculties, labor unions or manufacturer associations. We must rise above prejudices of race and nation and ecclesiastical fraternity and economic caste, that we may love our way into the hearts of all who need our Saviour.

We must learn to make better use of the newer media of communication. The Word must continually be re-made flesh. Continuing the Incarnation should lead us to use every effective means of revelation. Why should whiskey distillers be more adroit than we in magazine advertising? Why should religious drama be flagrantly inferior to the secular? We must pay the price, in cash and creative effort, to make moving pictures and television more effectual vehicles of Christian witness.

In stressing the uses of such media of communication, we do not forget that evangelism is largely person-to-person ministry. While there is nothing like a fixed evangelistic pattern, well we know that the love of Christ burns its way from heart to heart. In all evangelistic work, we share a glory that has come to us: which means that it must come to us before we can share it. Hence, it is incumbent on us constantly to seek for close communion with the Master; to cultivate holy habits and pray ceaselessly for purity of heart; to discipline ourselves daily in study of the Scriptures and in meditation before the divine Presence; to persevere in consecration and service; in every possible way to seek to make ourselves fit for use by the Spirit.

Not only individuals, but local churches also are called to extend the saving grace of Jesus. Prayer groups and planning conferences, are urgently recommended. Let every Methodist church have a specific, organized program of lay evangelism.

In all our efforts, let us be heralds of hope. There is need for criticism and judgment. But above these negative imperatives there should be faith, hope, and love. Christ, not John the Baptist, is our Saviour. We must proclaim glad tidings over against the despair, the insecurity, the terror, on every hand. Our Redeemer lives! The Lord God Omnipotent reigns! Let us say so!

In all our witness, let us never forget we are servants of the Holy Spirit. Christ works with us and within us and through us. The Church is God's strategy: we are the extension of His might, His wisdom, and His love.

The Committee had before it certain Memorials dealing with the increase in the number of Methodists on the inactive membership lists. The General Board of Evangelism has suggested ways to overcome this problem but efforts so far carried out by the Church seem inadequate to meet the situation.

The Committee commends the General Board of Evangelism for lifting up the problem before the Church and for the efforts so far made to meet the problem. We believe there is need for a more intensive educational program among all members to advise them of the need for transfer of membership promptly on removal to a new location and to urge them to take this action.

We request the General Board of Evangelism in co-operation with other Agencies of the Church to carry out a broad educational program in an effort to overcome the increase in inactive members. We wish to emphasize to all District Superintendents and pastors the need for continuous attention to the use of the Discipline plan for transferring members between churches. (Par. 132.) We urge that ministers emphasize to new members that they are joining The Methodist Church, not only a local congregation.

It is suggested further that the General Board of Evangelism take steps to issue through appropriate channels a pamphlet on this subject which may be put into the hands of transferring members by pastors to advise them of the desire of the Church to help them place their membership in a church that is located conveniently to them and in a position to serve the needs of each member.

We memorialize the General Conference to clarify the legislation with reference to the appointment of members of Annual Conferences to serve as Conference Evangelists (hitherto called "Approved" Evangelists). To do this we recommend the following:

Delete the words in Par. 432.5 on lines 7 and 8 "to do evangelistic work in the Conference" also add a new Paragraph after 432.5 as follows:

Par. 432.6. On the recommendation of the Conference Board of Evangelism, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference, the Bishop may appoint an effective member of the Conference as Conference evangelist; provided the appointee meets the standards set up by the General and Annual Conference Boards for Conference evangelists.

Changes in Discipline: Delete from Paragraph 308 all that appears between the word "charge" in the second line from the beginning of the Paragraph to and including "annually" in the fourth line from the end of the Paragraph. Delete in first line, the word "local preacher."

Delete from Paragraph 352 that portion of the second paragraph beginning "an unordained pastor."
Substitute

For the portions deleted in Paragraph 308 insert in the first line after "an unordained" the word "pastor" and in second line after "change" "may be authorized to administer the Sacrament of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and if the laws of the State permit, to perform the marriage ceremony, within the bounds of his pastoral charge, provided:"

"(a) He has passed the course of study for Admission on Trial—"

"(b) And each year, thereafter, passes one full year of the course of study looking to full ordination. Failure to complete one full year annually shall cause suspension of this privilege."

In Paragraph 352, 2, third line after the word Discipline add parenthetically (See Paragraph 308).

The amended Paragraphs then shall read: Paragraph 308—An unordained pastor, only while serving as a regularly appointed pastor of a charge may be authorized to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and, if the laws of the State permit, perform the marriage ceremony, within the bounds of his pastoral charge, provided:

(a) He has passed the course of study for Admission on Trial.

(b) And each year, thereafter, passes one full year of the course of study, looking to full ordination. Failure to complete one full year annually shall cause suspension of this privilege. In all foreign mission fields the conferring of such authority shall rest with the Central Conferences in which they are pastors. (For requirements for ordination see Paragraph 392-402.)

Paragraph 352, 2, shall read: "To administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, to perform the marriage ceremony and to bury the dead, according to the Discipline. (See Paragraph 308.)"

Calendar No. 91. Minority Report. Not Substituted
May 3, 1952. See Journal, Pages 541, 550, 554, 555.

Paragraph 308. An unordained local preacher, only while serving as a regularly appointed pastor of a charge, may, upon recommendation by his District Superintendent and written consent of the resident Bishop, be authorized to administer the Sacrament of Baptism and, if the law of the State permit, to perform the marriage ceremony. Any exercise by him of his authority outside the bounds of his charge shall be sufficient cause for the revocation of his authorization by his Bishop upon recommendation of his District Superintendent. Written consent by the Bishop shall be on a form prepared by The Methodist Publishing House and must be renewed annually. In all foreign mission fields, the conferring of such authority shall rest with the Central Conference in which they are pastors.

Paragraph 402

Section 1: In first line, change "four" to "two."

In last line, on page 116, after word "completed," drop the remainder and substitute: "to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the studies prescribed for local deacons, who are candidates for local elder's orders. (See Paragraph 2054-2055.)"

Section 2: In line four, change "two" to "one"; in line five, change "full" to "third year in the." Following "prescribed," add "for local elders' orders (see Paragraphs 2054-2055) add: the fourth year in the Conference Course of Study must be completed within two years if the candidate is to be continued as an Approved Supply Pastor."

Section 3: In line 3, change "two" to "one." In line 4, following election, add "to elders' orders." In next to last line, change after the word "completed" by dropping remainder of the Paragraph and inserting, "to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications the studies prescribed for local elders' orders (see Paragraph 2054-2055)."

Add: In order to be continued as an Approved Supply in an Annual Conference, he must continue and complete all of the required Courses of Study under the direction of the Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications within the requirements of Paragraph 320.

Section 4: In line 3, change "two" to "one" and remove "successive." In next to last line of Paragraph after "completed" drop remainder and insert: "to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the studies prescribed for elders' orders (see Paragraph 2047-2048)."

Add following Paragraph 2047-48: "he must comply with Paragraph 347."

Under section 5: In line three, after section 4, drop the remainder of the Paragraph and insert: "and have completed two years of the Bachelor of Divinity degree or its equivalent in an accredited theological seminary or have completed to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the studies required for elders' orders; (see Paragraph 2047-2048) and have been deacons for at least one year; and have been admitted into full connection."

The Paragraph now reads:

An elder has authority to preach, to conduct divine worship, to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to perform the marriage ceremony. Preachers of the following classes are eligible to the order of elder:

1. Local preachers—those who have been for four consecutive years local deacons, or have served as regularly appointed Supply Pastors for two full years after having been ordained deacons; and who present a recommendation for elder's orders from the District Conference (Paragraph 671) or, where no District Conference exists, from the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675, Section 2), duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary thereof; and who have completed, satisfactorily to the Annual Conference, the studies prescribed for local deacons who are candidates for elders' orders.

2. Accepted Supply Pastors—those who have been ordained deacons under the provisions of Paragraph 393, section 2, who have been serving as regular Accepted Supply Pastors for two full years since their ordination, and have satisfactorily completed the full conference course prescribed.

3. Local deacons who have been received on trial—those who have been in full connection in the Annual Conference, who have been local deacons for two consecutive years immediately preceding such election, and who have completed satisfactorily to the Conference, the Conference Course of Study.

4. Conference members in the Conference Courses—those who have been in full connection in the Annual Conference for two successive years, and also deacons during the same time, and have completed, satisfactorily to the Conference, the Conference Course of Study.

5. Seminary students—those who have been received on trial and elected to the office of deacon under the provisions of Paragraph 393, section 4, and have completed, satisfactorily to the Conference, the Conference Course of Study; have been deacons at least one year; and have been admitted into full connection.

6. Missionaries—those who are members of, or have been received on trial in, an Annual Conference, and have been appointed to a Chaplaincy in the Army or Navy, or in a hospital, prison, reformatory, sanatorium, or a charitable institution, or to a foreign mission, or to the pastorate of a church in a foreign country outside of a Mission or Conference, or to a Mission among foreign people within an English-speaking conference.

The Paragraph will then read:

An elder has authority to preach, to conduct divine worship, to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to perform the marriage ceremony. Preachers of the following classes are eligible to the order of elder.

1. Local preachers—those who have been for two consecutive years local deacons, or have served as regularly appointed Supply Pastors for two full years after having been ordained deacons; and who present a recommendation for elder's orders from the District Conference (Paragraph 671) or, where no District Conference exists, from the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675, section 2) duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary thereof; and who have completed to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications the studies prescribed for candidates for local deacons, who are candidates for local elders' orders. (See Paragraph 2054-2055.)

2. Approved Supply Pastors—those who have been ordained deacons, under the provisions of Paragraph 393, section 2, who have been serving as regular Approved Supply Pastors for one full year, since their ordination as deacon and have satisfactorily completed the third year in the Conference Course prescribed for local elders' orders. (See Paragraphs 2054-2055.) The fourth year in the Conference Course of Study must be completed within two years if the candidate is to be continued as an Approved Supply Pastor.

3. Local deacons who have been received on trial—those who have been in full connection in the Annual Conference, who have been local deacons for one consecutive year immediately preceding such election to elders' orders, and who have completed to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications the studies prescribed for local elders' orders (see Paragraph 2054-2055). In order to be continued as an Approved Supply in an Annual Conference, he must continue and complete all of the required Courses of Study under the direction of the Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications within the requirements of Paragraph 320.

4. Conference members in the Conference Courses—those who have been in full connection in the Annual Conference for one year, and also deacons during the same time, and have completed to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications the studies prescribed for elders' orders. (See Paragraph 2047-2048.) He must comply with Paragraph 347.

5. Seminary students—those who have been received on trial and elected to the office of deacon under the provisions of Paragraph 393, section 4, and have completed two years of the Bachelor of Divinity Degree or its equivalent in an accredited theological seminary or have completed to the satisfaction of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, the studies required for elder's orders: (see Paragraph 2047-2048) and have been deacons for at least one year; and have been admitted into full connection.

6. Missionaries—those who are members of, or have been received on trial in an Annual Conference, and have been appointed to a Chaplaincy in the Army or Navy, or in a hospital, prison, reformatory, sanatorium, or a charitable institution, or to a foreign mission, or to the pastorate of a church in a foreign country outside of a Mission or Conference, or to a Mission among foreign people within an English-speaking Conference.

Paragraph 303:

Under 1-c, 20b, in last line, after "from" drop the remainder of the sentence and add: "Before a license to preach is granted any applicant, the Committee shall call upon him to make a complete rededication of himself to the highest ideals of the Christian ministry."

The Committee shall also stress the great importance of living an exemplary life, and the fact that every minister of The Methodist Church is expected to keep himself free from all harmful practices which would discount his ministry, such as the use of intoxicants, narcotics, tobacco, and other forms of self-indulgence and urge that he consecrate himself to purity of life in body, mind, and spirit."

The sections now read:

1. To qualify for a license to preach where a District Conference exists, the person must take the following steps:

(c) Pass a satisfactory written examination in the studies prescribed for candidates for license to preach, be examined on the subject of doctrine and discipline, and agree to abstain wholly from the use of tobacco.

2. To qualify for a license to preach where there is no District Conference, the person must take the following steps:

(b) Pass a satisfactory written examination in the studies prescribed for candidates for license to preach, be examined on the subjects of doctrine and discipline, and agree to abstain wholly from the use of tobacco.

CHAPTER III

Traveling Preachers

Section 1—Admission.

Paragraph 321:

In the last line at bottom of page, after "trial," change period to comma (,) and add: "or have completed one-third of the requirements for the B.D. degree or equivalent, from an accredited theological seminary. He must present a satisfactory certificate of good health, on the prescribed form, from a physician approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications."

In line 6 (page 97), drop the word "health."

Section 4, change to: "Before a candidate is received on trial into an Annual Conference the Committee shall call upon him to make a complete rededication of himself to the highest ideals of the Christian ministry. The Committee shall also stress the great importance of living an exemplary life free from all harmful practices which would discount his ministry, and urge that he consecrate himself to purity of life in body, mind and spirit."

The Paragraph now reads:

A candidate for the traveling ministry who applies for Admission on Trial to an Annual Conference must present a recommendation duly signed by the President and Secretary of the District Conference (Paragraph 671) or by the Chairman and Secretary of the Interim District Licensing Committee (Paragraph 672), or where no District Conference exists, by the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675, section 2).

He must have passed a written examination on the studies prescribed for candidates for Admission on Trial (Paragraph 324). He must deposit with the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in duplicate on the prescribed form—one copy to be filed with the Secretary of the Annual Conference and one to be retained by the Board—satisfactory written answer to questions which may be asked concerning such matters as his age, health, religious and church experience, call to the ministry, educational record, and plans. The following questions shall be included:

(1) Are you convinced that you should enter the ministry of the Church?

(2) Are you willing to face any sacrifices that may be involved?

(3) Are you in debt so as to interfere with your work, or have you obligations to others which will make it difficult for you to live on the salary you are to receive?

(4) Will you abstain from the use of tobacco and other indulgences which may injure your influence?

(5) Will you keep before you as the one great objective of your life the advancement of God's Kingdom?

The Paragraph will then read:

A candidate for the traveling ministry who applies for Admission on Trial to an Annual Conference must present a recommendation duly signed by the President and Secretary of the District Conference (Paragraph 671) or by the Chairman and Secretary of the Interim District Licensing Committee (Paragraph 672) or where no District Conference exists, by the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675, section 2). He must have passed a written examination on the studies prescribed for candidates for Admission on Trial (Paragraph 324), or have completed one-third of the requirements for the B.D. degree, or equivalent, from an accredited theological seminary. He must present a satisfactory certificate of good health on the prescribed form, from a physician approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. Add this Preface to Paragraph 301.

The Preface and Paragraph will then read:

"Where a member of a local church evidences a desire to preach, it shall be the duty of his pastor to counsel with him and if persuaded that this member possesses gifts, grace and promise of usefulness, shall encourage him to become a candidate for a local preacher's license and shall guide him toward qualifying for examination by the District Conference or Interim Committee."

Paragraph 301. In order that we may try those persons who profess to be moved by the Holy Spirit to preach, let the following questions be asked, namely:

"1. Do they know God as a pardoning God? Have they the love of God abiding in them? Do they desire nothing but God? Are they holy in all manner of conversation?"

"2. Have they gifts, as well as grace, for the work? Have they a clear, sound understanding; a right judgment in the things of God; a just conception of salvation by faith? Do they speak justly, readily, clearly?"

"3. Have they fruit? Have any been truly convinced of sin and converted to God, and are believers edified by their preaching?"

As long as these marks concur in anyone, we believe he is called of God to preach. These we receive as sufficient proof that he is moved by the Holy Spirit.

Approved Supply Pastors

Section II

Paragraph 315-1: Drop the first paragraph and substitute the following:

"1. The Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall recommend annually to the Annual Conference those who have met the requirements to become Approved Supply Pastors for the ensuing year."

2. In first line after "Preacher" drop "employed as a pastor" and insert: "desiring to become an Approved Supply." In last line, drop "Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors" and substitute, "Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications."

3. In second line, drop the 4th and 5th words "employ, but," and insert: "appoint a local preacher, not on the ap-" proved list." In third line, change comma to period, after "Conference," then add: "He cannot appoint an unapproved local preacher for more than a portion of a Conference year. If a local preacher fails to be approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, he cannot serve as a Supply Pastor. (Paragraphs 671-672.)"

The Paragraph now reads:

"1. The Bishop and District Superintendents shall nominate and the Annual Conference elect not more than nine elders to be a quadrennial Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors. The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and the Committee on Conference Relations shall be represented by one or more each on this Committee. This Committee shall recommend annually to the Annual Conference those who may become Supply Pastors for the ensuing year.

"2. Any local preacher employed as a pastor must have his character, fitness, training, and effectiveness passed by a majority vote of the District Conference (Paragraph 671), a unanimous vote of the Interim District Licensing Committee (Paragraph 672), or a majority vote of the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675, section 2) and by the Annual Conference, after reference to and recommendation by the Committee on Accepted Supply Pastors.

"3. Between sessions of the Annual Conference, a District Superintendent may employ, but only until the next session of Annual Conference, as a Supply Pastor, a local preacher who is not listed as an Accepted Supply."

The Paragraph will then read:

"1. The Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall recommend annually to the Annual Conference those who have met the requirements to become Approved Supply Pastors for the ensuing year classifying them in one of the following categories: (1) Approved Student Supply Pastors who are in schools, colleges or seminaries preparing for Conference membership. (2) Approved Part-time Supply Pastors other than students. (3) Approved Full-time Supply Pastors who are elders or are taking one Course of Study preparing for ordination as required by Par. 320 and are giving full time to pastoral work.

"2. Any local preacher desiring to become an Approved Supply Pastor must have his character, fitness, training, and effectiveness passed by a majority vote of the District Conference (Paragraph 671), a unanimous vote of the Interim District Licensing Committee (Paragraph 672), or a majority vote of the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675-section 2), and by the Annual Conference, after reference to and recommendation by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

"3. Between sessions of the Annual Conference a District Superintendent may employ a Local Preacher not on the list of Approved Supply Pastors until the next session of the Annual Conference. He cannot appoint an unapproved Local Preacher for more than a portion of one Conference year. If a Local Preacher fails to secure approval as an Approved Supply Pastor he cannot serve as a Supply Pastor.

"4. The Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications may recommend annually to the Annual Conference, students of other denominations in any Accredited School of Theology, to serve as Student Pastors for ensuing year, under the supervision of the District Superintendent."

We further recommend that Par. 651, Section 17 be changed so as to include the categories as indicated above.

Paragraph 2041.

In note 1: Drop "810 Broadway," and insert 101 19th Avenue, South.

In note 2: Drop 1952, insert 1956.

In note 3, a: Drop the sentence beginning with "It may" and ending in "difficult course."

In note 4: Drop entire Paragraph, and substitute: "The general suggestions in the Student's Handbook are to be read each year. Take up each book in the order listed. These directions must be carefully followed. All examinations must be in writing."

In note 5: Drop Gammon School of Theology, Atlanta, Georgia.

The Paragraph now reads:

"Note 1—The Commission on Ministerial Training, 810 Broadway, Nashville 2, Tennessee, administers this work.

"Note 2—The following Courses of Study will be in operation in the Church until the General Conference of 1952, unless books listed go out of print.

"Note 3—Two courses appear here: (a) Course I (Paragraph 2043-48) is required of candidates for Conference membership who do not have a B.D. Degree from an accredited seminary. It may also be used for Supply Pastors in any Annual Conference where they are judged capable of taking this more difficult course. (See Paragraphs 321-27, 345-47). (b) Course II (Paragraphs 2050-55) is for Supply Pastors. The first two years are required for local deacon's orders, all four years for local elder's orders. Conference Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications may choose this course for their candidates for the ministry after securing the permission of the Commission on Ministerial Training. (See Paragraphs 321-27, 345-47.)

"Note 4—It will be noted that some books are for examination and others for collateral study. All are to be carefully studied according to the requirements of the Student's Handbook, 1948 edition (available in the fall of 1948), which is a required part of each year's work. The 'General Suggestions' are to be read each year. The 'Directions for Books to Be Studied' take up each book in turn including those for collateral study, and indicate just what is required. These directions must be carefully followed. All examinations must be in writing.

"Note 5—It is recommended that these courses be taken through one of the authorized Correspondence Schools: Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Georgia; Gammon School of Theology, Atlanta, Georgia; Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas.

"Note 6—Paragraph 2043 indicates the four books required for License to Preach. The written examination in these may be given by the District Licensing Committee (Paragraph 672), the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675), the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications of the Annual Conference, or the Correspondence School, as the District Superintendent may determine. Those taking this examination shall repeat the same studies if and when they decide to enter the ministry.

"Note 7—In the case of local preachers who are candidates for the traveling ministry, examinations may be suspended while they are pursuing regular Courses of Study in our theological seminaries or in universities or colleges approved by the University Senate, until they shall become candidates for deacon's or elder's orders.

"Note 8—Paragraph 323 explains the minimum educational requirements for Conference admission. Many Annual Conferences have their own regulations in advance of these.

"Note 9—Candidates for the ministry are urged to make early contact with the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications of their own Annual Conference, and to consult with the Board with regard to educational plans. Note that many colleges and seminaries are not accredited.

"Note 10—Local preachers and Supply Pastors who give only part time to the work of the ministry are urged to take the Course of Study as rapidly as possible to increase their effectiveness and also the likelihood of their continued use as Supply Pastors."

The Paragraph will then read:

"Note 1—The Commission on Ministerial Training, 101 19th Avenue, South, Nashville 3, Tennessee, administers this work.

"Note 2—The following Courses of Study will be in operation in the Church until the General Conference of 1956, unless books listed go out of print.

Paragraph 342: Cancel this Paragraph and substitute the following:

The Paragraph now reads:

An Annual Conference may require a physical examination of a candidate before his Admission either On Trial or into Full Connection from membership on Trial or on credentials from other Churches.

The Paragraph will then read:

Every candidate for Admission on Trial or for recognition of credentials from other Churches must present a satisfactory certificate of good health, on the prescribed form, from a physician approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Paragraph 675—Amend by substituting.

The Paragraph now reads:

In every District where there is no District Conference there shall be a District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers, of which the District Superintendent shall be Chairman. The Committee shall be nominated annually by the District Superintendent and approved by the Annual Conference. It shall examine each person who applies for a license to preach or for a renewal of such a license. Where there is evidence that his gifts, usefulness, and faithfulness and proficiency in study warrant, it may recommend that the Quarterly Conference of the church in which he is a member issue or renew his license to preach. (Paragraph 150, section 2.) Without this recommendation no Quarterly Conference may issue a license. (See Paragraph 303, section 2.) The District Superintendent shall furnish a certified list of persons licensed in his District to the Secretary of the Annual Conference for insertion in the Journal. (Paragraph 362, section 10.) 2. The District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers shall have the responsibility, similar to that of the District Conference, of recommending to the Annual Conference, suitable candidates for acceptance as Accepted Supply Pastors, for Admission on Trial, for Local Deacon's Orders, for Local Elder's Orders, for Readmission into the Traveling Connection, and for Restoration of Credentials. The vote in all such cases shall be by individual written ballot by the members. (See Paragraph 671.)

The Paragraph then will read:

There shall be a District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, of which the District Superintendent shall be Chairman. The Committee shall be composed of the District Superintendent and five traveling preachers of the District, nominated annually by him, and approved by the Annual Conference. Interim vacancies may be filled by the Chairman. The duties of the Committee shall be:

1. Examine each person who applies in writing for a license to preach, or for a renewal of such license (Paragraph 321, 341-343). Where there is evidence that his gifts, graces and usefulness warrant, it may, upon recommendation of the Quarterly Conference of the church in which he is a member (Paragraph 150-2), issue or renew his license to preach, provided that where a District Conference exists, final action on licensing of such local preachers shall be taken by the District Conference.

The District Superintendent shall furnish a certified list of persons licensed in his District to the Secretary of the Annual Conference for insertion in the Journal (No. 362-10).

2. The District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications shall have the responsibility of recommending to the Annual Conference Board of Ministerial Qualification suitable candidates for acceptance as Approved Supply Pastors, for Admission on Trial, for Local Deacon's Orders, for Local Elder's Orders, for Restoration of Credentials.

3. The vote of the Committee in all such matters shall be by individual written ballot, and require a three-fourths majority vote of the Committee for license or approval.

4. The Committee shall report its work to the District Conference for approval where one exists.

Paragraph 150

2. Change "Recommended" to "recommend"; delete "Conference for license to preach" (Paragraph 670-673) and add, "Committee on Ministerial Qualifications" (No. 675). Put it and period after "warrant." Delete the balance of the Paragraph.

The Section now reads :

"Recommended by written, secret ballot proper persons to the District Conference for license to preach (Paragraph 670-673), when in its judgment their gifts, graces, and usefulness shall warrant; or, in case no District Conference is authorized by the Annual Conference, license such persons to preach, provided they have previously received the written approval of the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers (Paragraph 675).

The Section will then read :

2. Recommend by written, secret ballot persons to the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications (Par. 675), when in its judgment their gifts, graces, and usefulness shall warrant it.

Paragraph 303 : Amended by substitution. The Paragraph now reads :

A person may be licensed to preach by the District Conference (Par. 670) or, if there is no District Conference, by the Quarterly Conference of the Church in which he is a member (Par. 150-2 and 675-1). 1. To qualify for a license to preach where a District Conference exists the person must take the following steps:

c) Pass a satisfactory written examination in the studies prescribed for candidates for license to preach, be examined on the subject of doctrine and discipline, and agree to abstain wholly from the use of tobacco.

2. To qualify for a license to preach where there is no District Conference, the person must take the following steps:

b) Pass a satisfactory written examination in the studies prescribed for candidates for license to preach, be examined on the subjects of doctrine and discipline and agree to abstain wholly from the use of tobacco.

Then the Paragraph will read:

Paragraph 303. A person may be licensed to preach by the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications (Par. 675). Unless the license is renewed, it expires after one year.

To qualify for a license to preach, the person must take the following steps:

1. Receive the approval of the Quarterly Conference of the church in which he holds his church membership (Par. 150).

2. Appear before and secure the written approval of the District Committee on Ministerial Qualifications (Par. 675).

4. Pass a satisfactory written examination in the studies prescribed for candidates for license to preach, be examined in the subjects of doctrine and discipline (Par. 2043).

5. (Statement about tobacco??).

Paragraph 651, Section 4

Add:

d) and make it to read:

Paragraph 651-4

d) Approve the District Committees on Ministerial Qualifications. (Re-number the balance of the Paragraph.)

Paragraph 670. Delete.

Paragraph 671. Delete.

After the word "in" at the end of second line of first sentence of the first Paragraph, strike out the remainder of the Paragraph as found on page 356, and substitute the following: "the procurement, endorsement, and general oversight of all Methodist ministers serving as Chaplains in the Armed Forces, Veterans Administration, and Federal Prisons. The duties of the Commission on Chaplains shall include also the general supervision of Chaplains in public and private institutions (other than those of The Methodist Church) and industry. The Commission shall render such other services to these Chaplains as may be referred to it by the Council of Bishops."

And in the second section of Paragraph 1595, on page 357, after the word "of" at the end of the first line, strike out the remainder and substitute the following:

"one Bishop, one minister, and one layman from each Jurisdiction, elected by the General Conference on nomination of the Council of Bishops. Vacancies shall be filled by the Council of Bishops. A member Bishop shall serve as Chairman. The Commission may elect one advisory member from each Department of the Armed Forces, the Veterans Administration and from other fields of service where Methodist Chaplains are used."

So that the amended Paragraph will read as follows:

"There shall be a Commission on Chaplains, which shall represent The Methodist Church in the procurement, endorsement, and general oversight of all Methodist ministers serving as Chaplains in the Armed Forces, Veterans Administration, and Federal Prisons. Paragraph 411:

In first paragraph, line 3, after first word "standing," insert through the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

In first paragraph, in line 6, after the word "ministry" insert, if they present a satisfactory certificate of good health on the prescribed form, from a physician approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and meet the requirements of Paragraph 321-328, in the following manner:

Section 2: In line 4, after "ference" and before "may" insert upon the recommendation of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Section 3: In line 3, drop the word "directly" and insert through the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Section 4: In first line after "Annual Conference" insert: Upon recommendation of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Section 5: At the end of the Paragraph change (Paragraphs 322-326) to (Paragraphs 321-326).

The Paragraph now reads:

Ministers coming from other evangelical Churches, provided they present suitable testimonials of good standing, and give assurance of their faith, Christian experience, and other qualifications, and give evidence of their agreement with us in doctrine and discipline, may be received into our ministry in the following manner:

1. The Quarterly Conference may receive them as Local Preachers, not entitled to administer the Sacraments, pending the recognition of their Orders by the Annual Conference. The Annual Conference may recognize their Orders as Local Deacons or Elders, provided they pass an approved examination in the Course of Study prescribed for Local Preachers.

2. Upon recommendation by the District Conference, or the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers where no District Conference exists, the Annual Conference may recognize their Orders and admit them into the membership of the Conference either On Trial or in Full Connection, and may, at its discretion, require them to pursue, in whole or in part, the Conference Course of Study.

3. Ministers from other Churches, who can meet the educational standards required of Methodist ministers may apply directly to the Annual Conference, which may recognize their credentials, and receive them On Trial or Into the Full Membership of the Conference; provided that candidates for admission under this or the preceding item, be required to answer satisfactorily the questions in Paragraphs 321, 343; and further, that those from other than Methodist Churches must take upon themselves our ordination vows, without the reimposition of hands.

4. The Annual Conference may also receive on equal standing preachers who are On Trial in the ministry of another Methodist Church, using, however, special care that before they are Admitted to Full Membership their examination be entirely satisfactory.

5. All preachers coming into our ministry from other Churches shall be required to comply with Paragraphs 322-26.

The Paragraph will then read:

Ministers coming from other Evangelical Churches, provided they present suitable testimonials of good standing, through the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and give assurance of their faith, Christian experience, and other qualifications, and give evidence of their agreement with us in doctrine and discipline, may be received into our ministry if they present a satisfactory certificate of good health on the prescribed form, from a physician approved by the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications and meet the requirements of Paragraphs 321-328 in the following manner:

1. The Quarterly Conference may receive them as local preachers not entitled to administer the Sacraments, pending the recognition of their orders by the Annual Conference. The Annual Conference may recognize their Orders as Local Deacons or Elders, provided they pass an approved examination in the Course of Study prescribed for Local Preachers.

2. Upon recommendation by the District Conference, or the District Committee on Qualifications of Local Preachers where no District Conference exists, the Annual Conference, upon the recommendation of the Conference Board of Min- isterial Training and Qualifications may recognize their orders and admit them into the membership of the Conference either On Trial or In Full Connection, and may, at its discretion, require them to pursue, in whole or in part, the Conference Course of Study.

3. Ministers from other Churches who can meet the educational standards required of Methodist ministers may apply through the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications to the Annual Conference which may recognize their credentials and receive them On Trial or Into the Full Membership of the Conference provided that candidates for admission under this or the preceding item, be required to answer satisfactorily the questions in Paragraphs 321, 343; and further, that those from other than Methodist Churches must take upon themselves our ordination vows, without the reimposition of hands.

4. The Annual Conference, upon recommendation of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, may also receive on equal standing preachers who are On Trial in the ministry of another Methodist Church, using special care before they are Admitted to Full Membership, if their examination is entirely satisfactory.

5. All preachers coming into our ministry from other Churches shall be required to comply with Paragraphs 321-326.

Paragraph 412:

In the first line change "The Committee on Conference Relations" to the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Then the Paragraph will read:

The Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications of an Annual Conference is required to ascertain from a minister seeking admission into the membership of an Annual Conference on credentials from another denomination whether or not membership in the effective relation was previously held in an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, or one of its legal predecessors, and if so, when and under what circumstances his connection with such Annual Conference was severed.

Paragraph 638:

In line 5, drop "give consideration to matters pertaining to, etc." down to "superannuated in line 6 and insert "make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the relations of all Annual Conference members seeking the following relationships:"

In last line drop the following words: "Local Deacons and Elders."

Then the Paragraph will read:

The Annual Conference shall elect a Committee on Conference Relations. This Committee shall consist of not fewer than six traveling elders, arranged as far as practical in classes to serve three years each. It shall make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the relations of all Annual Conference members seeking the following relationships: Superannuated or retired members, supernumeraries, ministers asking sabbatical leave, students appointed to attend school.

Paragraph 640:

In second paragraph, first line, between "for" and "admission," insert "use as Supply Pastors."

In line 9 of the second paragraph, after the word "mission," insert (See Paragraph 343-347).

At the end of the second paragraph, second line from the bottom, after "concerning" drop the remainder of the sentence and add: (a) Candidates for admission on trial, (b) ordination as Deacons, (c) ordination as Elders, (d) those to be received from other Churches, (e) those transferred into the Conference, (f) those to be recommended as Supply Pastors.

In line three of the third paragraph, change "quadruplicate" to "duplicate." Beginning with "one copy," drop the remainder of the paragraph and substitute the following: "One copy of this record is to be kept by the Registrar of the Board, and one copy is to be mailed, after each Annual Conference to the Educational Director of the Commission on Ministerial Trainin, Nashville, Tennessee."

The Paragraph now reads:

The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in each Annual Conference shall seek, through co-operation with the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations (Paragraph 1415) and with the District Superintendents and pastors of the Conference, to enlist suitable candidates for the Christian ministry, and shall keep a record of all persons enlisted within the bounds of the Conference. It shall seek in every way practicable to provide guidance and counsel to them, in their training and preparation for the ministry, recommending properly accredited colleges and seminaries.

The Board shall examine all applicants for Admission on Trial as to their fitness for the ministry, as provided in Paragraphs 321-331, and shall make full inquiry as to the fitness of candidates for Admission into Full Connection. This must include an examination as to character, habits of life, conversion, call to the ministry, Christian experience, age, domestic situation, co-operation with others, ability to lead a service of worship, and understanding of the Church's mission. The answers to these questions may be submitted in writing. The Board shall report recommendations concerning each candidate to the Annual Conference as the Bishop of the Conference shall call for such Report.

The Board shall certify all information and recommendations concerning each candidate to the Annual Conference in quadruplicate. One copy of this record shall be furnished to the Bishop, in advance of presentation to the Conference and one copy to the Conference Secretary. One copy is to become part of the records of the Registrar of the Board, and if the candidate is not a seminary graduate, one copy is to be sent to the Secretary of the Correspondence School in which he is enrolled.

Then the Paragraph will read:

The Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in each Annual Conference shall seek, through co-operation with the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations (Paragraph 1415) and with the District Superintendents and pastors of the Conference to enlist suitable candidates for the Christian ministry, and shall keep a record of all persons enlisted within the bounds of the Conference. It shall seek in every way practicable to provide guidance and counsel to them in their training and preparation for the ministry, recommending properly accredited colleges and seminaries.

The Board shall examine all applicants for use as Supply Pastors, for Admission on Trial as to their fitness for the ministry, as provided in Paragraphs 321-331, and shall make full inquiry as to the fitness of candidates for Admission into Full Connection. This must include an examination as to character, habits of life, conversion, call to the ministry, Christian experience, age, domestic situation, co-operation with others, ability to lead a service of worship, and understanding of the Church's mission (See Paragraph 343-347). The answers to these questions may be submitted in writing. The Board shall report recommendations concerning: (a) candidates for Admission on Trial, (b) Ordination as Deacons, (c) Ordination as Elders, (d) those to be received from other Churches, (e) those to be recommended as Supply Pastors, (f) those transferred into the Conference who are not Elders in Full Connection; (g) Full Connection.

The Board shall certify all information and recommendations concerning each candidate to the Annual Conference in duplicate. One copy of this record is to be kept by the Registrar of the Board, and one copy is to be mailed, after each Annual Conference to the Educational Director of the Commission on Ministerial Training, Nashville, Tennessee.

Your Committee had before it a Memorial from the Foreign Missions Policy Conference held in Colorado Springs, Colo., March 23-April 4, 1952, under the auspices of the Inter-Division Committee on Foreign Work, Board of Missions and Church Extension.

We respectfully memorialize the 1952 General Conference to do the following specific things to strengthen Methodism Overseas:

- (1) Increase the amount of World Service money for Foreign Missions.
- (2) Continue the emphasis on Foreign Mission Specials which in the Advance Program has brought so much new vitality to our work.
- (3) Continue the Week of Dedication Program which has meant so much to the Foreign Mission work especially through the Crusade Scholarships, its funds for important projects and its funds for the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

SUBJECT: METHODIST COMMITTEE FOR OVERSEAS RELIEF
MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. 575

*Amended May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 624.
Calendar No. 53. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal,

The Committee recommends that Paragraph 2009, Appendix 1948 Discipline, Chapter III, be continued with the following amendments:

Insert "Methodist" before "Committee for Overseas Relief" in the title and in the first line of Paragraph 1; change the word "provided" to "with the proviso" at the beginning of line 2 and insert the word "next" immediately preceding quadrennium; at the end of line 2 and beginning of line 3 delete the words "of 1948-52"; change the words "be transferred" to "assigned" at the end of line 6.

Delete the word "three" following "thirty" in line 1 of Paragraph 2; change the word "six" to "three" preceding the word "members" in line 5, and delete the words "Board of Missions and Church Extension, taking into account the several Divisions of the Board" beginning at the end of line 5, Paragraph 2, and continuing to semicolon on line 7; delete "Board of Education" at the beginning of line 8, same Paragraph, and insert "Division of Foreign Missions of the Board" of Missions and Church Extension," delete the words "In addition" beginning sentence in line 8, and begin the sentence with the words, "The Committee"; in line 11 change the word "board" to "Department or Division"; in line 12 add the word "by" after the word "members."

In Paragraph 5 delete the words "special-gift" preceding "vouchers" in line 2, so that Paragraph 2009, Chapter III, Appendix, 1948 Discipline when amended shall read:

"Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief

"1. The Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief shall be continued: with the proviso that, if at any time during the next quadrennium the Council of Bishops, the General Commission on World Service and Finance, together with the Board of Missions decide that the specific work of the Committee is no longer needed, the Committee shall be discharged and its responsibilities and assets assigned to such Agency as those two bodies may determine.

"2. The Committee shall consist of twelve representative members as follows: one person from each Jurisdiction nominated by each College of Bishops, and elected by the Jurisdictional Conference; three members to be elected by the Foreign Department of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, and three members to be elected by the Division of Foreign Missions of the Board of Missions and Church Extension. The Committee shall be empowered to co-opt not more than seven members at large. Vacancies shall be filled by the body concerned: the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction affected, or by the Department or Division involved, or, in the case of the co-opted members, by the Committee itself.

The Committee is authorized to elect its own officers, to appoint sub-committees if desired, to employ such assistance as may be needed, and to provide for its necessary expense of administration and promotion out of undesignated receipts. Its financial officers shall be bonded.

"3. The Committee is authorized and empowered:

(a) To be the representative of The Methodist Church in the field of Overseas Relief; also in the field of rehabilitation, in conference with the Division of Foreign Missions and the Foreign Department of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Board of Missions and Church Extension;

(b) To transmit to the Church the appeals for help from recognized Agencies, and to receive and allocate the funds contributed for relief purposes by churches, groups, or individuals;

(c) To give special attention and assistance to the national workers and the people of our Methodist churches overseas who are in need because of war or other disasters. In countries where the Board of Missions and Church Extension is at work, it is expected that the administration of specifically Methodist relief be through the Board and the Bishops in charge and, where possible, the indigenous Church.

(d) To co-operate with Church World Service and other Interdenominational Relief Agencies, as the Committee may deem wise from time to time;

(e) When considered desirable, to supplement the work of other agencies ministering to the relief of human suffering in the spirit of Christ.

"4. In order to provide adequate means for the prosecution of this work, the Committee, in addition to its receipts by voluntary gifts and by participation in the communion offerings, including in particular the offering on World-wide Communion Sunday, shall be included in any general Church-wide appeal for war emergencies or postwar work.

"5. Authorization is given to the Committee to acknowledge gifts by its own vouchers. Such gifts, however, cannot receive credit on World Service Apportionments."

The Committee recommends:

A. That in view of the size and the world-wide connections and responsibilities of The Methodist Church and of the undiminished need in a score of nations, to most earnestly petition the General Conference to provide in its coming Quadrennial Program an ample place for the appeal to the Methodist people on behalf of this humanitarian and spiritual ministry.

B. That the General Conference give expression to its sympathy with and approval of the Department of Church World Service of the National Council of Churches, the chief channel for the co-operative relief and reconstruction work of more than twenty denominations.

C. That the present Committee for Overseas Relief, with its officers and sub-committees, be authorized to continue to function until its successor shall be organized.

D. That the Council of Bishops be asked to appoint a Convener for the new Committee and to set the time and place for its organizational meeting.

PART I

Report of Commission to Study Deaconess Work

By order of the General Conference of The Methodist Church, meeting in Boston, Massachusetts, in 1948, a Commission to Study Deaconess Work was authorized. The study was to be made "in the light of the total plan of enlistment and employment of women in the various Agencies of the Church" (P. 2014, 1948 Discipline).

The members of the Commission included three Bishops, three ministers, two representatives from the Board of Missions and Church Extension, one representative from the Woman's Division of Christian Service, one representative from the Board of Education, one representative from the Board of Hospitals and Homes, one representative from the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel, two deaconess members and the Executive Secretary of the Bureau of Deaconess Work.

To aid in the study there were innumerable personal and group conferences; more than 2,300 questionnaires were distributed to Bishops, ministers, deaconesses, Directors of Christian Education, members of General Boards, Officers of Jurisdiction and Conference Woman's Societies of Christian Service and others.

The Commission submits the following Report which is divided into two parts: first, a brief statement of basic principles; second, legislative suggestions looking toward the implementation of these principles.

The office of deaconess has a long and honorable history in our Church. Only those acquainted with that story can fully appreciate the debt we owe to these consecrated and devoted women. For over two generations they have served their Lord through the open doors of the Church's many institutions with singular fidelity and devotion.

Our society is increasingly welcoming women into its industrial and commercial life. We believe that likewise the Church should take ever wider cognizance of the capabilities of women and open every possible avenue for their service.

To that end we recommend:

1. That women be given ample opportunity to serve every Agency of the Church not requiring full clergy rights.
 2. That the local church and Annual Conference emphasize the nature of this holy calling and by every means at their command seek to elevate the office to its appointed place.
 3. That because of the breath of the opportunities which face the Church and because of their urgency the entire Church through its several Agencies should lend its efforts seriously and prayerfully to the task of enlistment for service in this office.
 4. That ample opportunities for education and training be provided so that those who have pledged their lives in His service shall be provided with the best skills which our times afford and require.
 5. That to these persons who have freely given their services to the Church we owe a more adequate compensation as well as a more nearly reasonable security for retirement.
- In order that these basic principles may be kept before our people and that the office of deaconess may grow to the fullness of its stature we submit the following suggestions for legislative consideration:

Chairman: BISHOP LLOYD C. WICKE;

Secretary: MISS MARY LOU BARNWELL (*):

(Part I was submitted by the Commission to Study Deaconess Work. Editor.)

PART II

The Committee had before it Part I of the Report to General Conference by the Commission to Study Deaconess Work, relating to proposed legislation covering changes in the Discipline of 1948, which was referred to it in Memorial 1153. The Committee recommends concurrence as follows:

Chap. III, Paragraph 150—Add a new 3 as follows:

"The Quarterly Conference shall recommend and send to the Annual Conference Deaconess Board credentials for young women who may become candidates for the office of deaconess."

Subsequent numbers to be 4, 5 and 6.

Chap. VI, Paragraph 431—Substitute for 5 which reads, "To appoint the deaconesses" the following phrase:

"To read the appointments of deaconesses."

Chap. VIII, The Annual Conference—Insert a Paragraph 623 to read as follows:

"Deaconesses serving within the bounds of an Annual Conference, shall be seated in the Annual Conference sessions, and given the privilege of the floor without vote."

Chapter VIII, Paragraph 651, add to 37, the question, "What deaconesses have died during the year?" so that the revised 37 will read:

"What ministerial members have died during the year?
What Deaconesses have died during the year?"

Part VI, Chap. II, Sec. 8, Paragraph 99—Delete the words "permit her to withdraw" in third line following the word "may," and insert in their place the words "recommend to the Commission on Deaconess Work that she be permitted to withdraw," so that the Paragraph as amended will read:

"When a Deaconess is accused of an offense and desires to withdraw from the Church, the Annual Conference Deaconess Board may recommend to the Commission on Deaconess Work that she be permitted to withdraw, in which case the record shall be, 'Withdrawn under complaints.' " If formal charges have been presented, such deaconess may be permitted to withdraw; in which case the record shall be 'Withdrawn under charges.' In either case the status shall be the same as if the deaconess had been expelled."

Chap. III, Sec. 2, Paragraph 966—In line 6, delete "deaconess administration under which the accused serves" and substitute "Commission on Deaconess Work." On page 222, same Paragraph, in line 5 after "shall" insert "recommend to the Commission on Deaconess Work that she be suspended or deprived of office and credentials" with deletion of the balance of Paragraph beginning with the word "suspend," so that the Paragraph as amended will read:

"When a deaconess is accused of any violation of a moral law, the District Superintendent under which supervision she works shall call a Committee of three or more for investigation and preside at the investigation. This Committee shall consist of one representative of the Commission on Deaconess Work and two or more members of the Annual Conference Deaconess Board of which the accused is a member. She shall appear before this Committee, and, if the charges are sustained, she shall be suspended from all deaconess services pending trial. The said District Superintendent shall notify the Bishop in charge, who within seven days of receipt of such notice shall fix the time and date for the convening of the Trial Court. In this instance the Annual Conference Deaconess Board shall be the Trial Court. If the accused is found guilty the Annual Conference Deaconess Board shall recommend to the Commission on Deaconess Work that she be suspended or deprived of office and credentials."

Chap. V, Sec. XI, Paragraph 1053—Two references in Paragraph to "Bureau of" be changed to "Commission on" in lines 2 and 7; delete beginning "subject only" to end of Paragraph, placing a period after the word case, so that the Paragraph will read as amended:

"In case of conviction, a deaconess shall be allowed to appeal to the Commission on Deaconess Work; provided that within thirty days after her conviction she shall signify in writing to the District Superintendent or President of the Annual Conference Deaconess Board by which she has been tried her determination to appeal to the Commission on Deaconess Work, which in full session, or by a Special Committee of not less than seven nor more than nine, shall hear the appeal; and its decision shall be the final determination of the case."

Chap. V, Sec. XI, Paragraph 1054—Change "Bureau of" to "Commission on."

Part VII, Chap. II, Sec. III, Paragraph 1189—At the end of the Paragraph delete period and add "and deaconess service in the United States," so that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

"Art. 8. Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel. There shall be a Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel of the several Divisions of the Board which shall be responsible for the enlistment, cultivation, training and recommendation of candidates for missionary service at home and abroad and deaconess service in the United States."

Part VII, Chap. II, Sec. III, Paragraph 1191—Delete after the word "missionary" in first line the phrase "or deaconess." Add a new sentence to read, "A person shall be constituted a deaconess when she has met the necessary requirements, including a period of probation, and has been duly licensed, consecrated and commissioned by a Bishop," so that the paragraph as amended will read:

"A person shall be constituted a missionary and receive support as such from the funds of the Board when such person has been commissioned by the Board and has been assigned to some definite field. A person shall be constituted a deaconess when she has met the necessary requirements, including a period of probation, and has been duly licensed, consecrated and commissioned by a Bishop."

Sec. VI, Paragraph 1247—Change "Bureau of" to "Commission on."

Sec. VI, Paragraph 1252-1253-1254—Since almost complete structural change of these Paragraphs is involved, we ask for the deletion of these Paragraphs and the substitution of the following:

Sec. VI, Paragraph 1252—

"1. The office of deaconess is hereby authorized in The Methodist Church. This office entitles a woman to serve The Methodist Church through any of its agencies in any capacity not requiring full clergy rights.

a. All deaconess work in the United States and its dependencies shall be under the supervision of the Commission on Deaconess Work of the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

b. All deaconess work outside of the United States and its dependencies shall be under the supervision of the Central Conferences or Provisional Central Conferences concerned, or the Annual Conferences where there is not a Central Conference.

c. There shall be an Executive Secretary who shall be nominated by the Commission in consultation with the Woman's Division of Christian Service and elected by the Board of Missions and Church Extension."

"2. All properties, trust funds, permanent funds, other special funds, and endowments now held and administered by or for the several forms of administration of deaconess work under the uniting Churches shall be carefully safeguarded and administered by the several forms of administration in the interest of those persons and causes for which said funds were established."

"3. The Commission shall be composed of one Bishop chosen by the Council of Bishops; four persons from each Jurisdiction chosen by the Jurisdiction Deaconess Association, two of whom shall be deaconess members of the Association, one a minister of the Jurisdiction, and one, the President of the Jurisdiction Woman's Society of Christian Service: three representatives of the Woman's Division of Christian Service chosen by the Division; one representative of the Board of Pensions; one representative of the Board of Hospitals and Homes; one representative of the Board of Education; Secretary of the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations; one Personnel Secretary of the Board of Missions and Church Extension. The Executive Secretary of the Commission shall be a member, without vote."

"4. The duties of the Commission shall be:

a. To recommend to the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel standards and procedures for enlisting and training young women for deaconess work in The Methodist Church.

- b. To establish minimum salary standards for deaconesses.
- c. To receive and act upon recommendations from Annual Conference Deaconess Boards, Jurisdiction Deaconess Associations and other Agencies.

d. Other duties in harmony with the Constitution may be set forth in the By-laws of the Commission.

5. The Commission shall meet annually. Its officers shall be elected quadrennially.

6. There shall be an Executive Committee. Such other Committees may be constituted as are necessary for carrying out the duties of the Commission.

7. Appointment: A deaconess shall receive her appointment through the regular channels of the Commission on Deaconess Work and the Annual Conference Deaconess Board.

8. A sabbatical leave for a definite period of time, not exceeding a year, to be spent in special study, may be granted with full or part salary upon recommendation of the Executive Secretary of the Commission on Deaconess Work and the Conference Deaconess Board. Pension credit is granted for such sabbatical leave. All agencies employing deaconesses shall be encouraged to make an annual payment into the Commission Fund for Sabbatical Leave."

"9. Pensions:

a. There shall be a contributory pension plan for all deaconesses commissioned on or after July 24, 1940.

b. For deaconesses commissioned or consecrated previous to July, 1940, former agreements are continued and the administrations with which they were connected are responsible for the pensions.

c. A deaconess employed by an Agency having its own pension plan shall participate in that plan during her term of service with that Agency."

"10. Leave of absence:

A deaconess may be granted a leave of absence, not to exceed three years, for health reasons, study or necessary home duties, with the privilege of continuing her participation in the pension plan. If an extension of leave is granted by the Commission on Deaconess Work, participation in the pension plan for additional years on leave shall not be permitted.

A deaconess on leave of absence shall be a member of the Quarterly Conference and the Annual Conference Deaconess Board where she resides on leave.

"11. Withdrawal:

A deaconess shall surrender her credentials when she is no longer available for an appointment in The Methodist Church.

"12. Reinstatement:

A person may be reinstated as a deaconess upon recommendation of the Annual Conference Deaconess Board and the Commission on Deaconess Work and approval by the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel."

Sec. 6, Paragraph 1253—Jurisdiction Deaconess Association.

"1. In each Jurisdiction there shall be a Jurisdiction Deaconess Association.

"2. Composition.

a. All active deaconesses working within the bounds of the Jurisdiction shall be members of the Association.

b. All deaconesses with the retired relation shall be honorary members of the Association.

c. Other members shall be the President of the Jurisdiction Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Jurisdictional Secretary of Home Work, and the President of each Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service within the Jurisdiction.

"3. There shall be a meeting of the Association held annually or biennially in connection with the Jurisdiction Woman's Society of Christian Service.

"4. The Association shall elect its officers.

"5. There shall be an Executive Committee in the Association.

"6. Duties:

a. The Jurisdiction Deaconess Association shall promote deaconess work as authorized by the Commission on Deaconess Work.

b. It shall arrange Workers' Conferences.

c. It shall provide opportunities for fellowship among workers in the Jurisdiction.

d. Other duties in harmony with the Constitution may be set forth in by-laws."

Sec. VI, Paragraph 1254—Annual Conference Deaconess Board:

"1. In each Annual Conference there shall be an Annual Conference Deaconess Board.

"2. Purpose:

The purpose of the Annual Conference Deaconess Board is to create and maintain interest in deaconess work, to establish and interpret deaconess relationships to the Annual Conference, and to co-operate with the Commission on Deaconess Work in forming policies and making recommendations regarding deaconess work,

"3. Composition:

All active deaconesses serving within the bounds of the Conference; the members of the Cabinet of the Annual Conference; ministers of local churches employing deaconesses; four representatives of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service; one representative from the Commission on Christian Vocations; one representative, not a deaconess, from the local Board of Managers or Committee of each project within the Conference where deaconesses live or are employed. Retired deaconesses living within the bounds of the Conference shall be honorary members, having the privilege of the floor without vote.

"4. Duties:

a. To review, evaluate and report annually to the Commission on Deaconess Work the standing of all deaconesses within the Conference.

b. To study credentials received from Quarterly Conferences and recommend to the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel possible candidates for the office of deaconess.

c. The Board shall co-operate with the Commission on Deaconess Work in the Annual appointments of deaconesses. It shall submit the list of appointments to be read by the Bishop presiding at the Annual Conference, and to be printed in the Journal.

d. To arrange for the licensing and the consecration service of those deaconesses assigned to the Conference for these purposes.

e. The Annual Conference Deaconess Board, in co-operation with the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service and other agencies of the Church, shall initiate and develop plans for the promotion of deaconess work, including an Annual Program on Deaconess Work.

f. To consider complaints and charges against deaconesses; to act as a trial court in case of trial; and make recommendations to the Commission on Deaconess Work.

"5. The Board shall meet annually and elect its officers.

"6. There shall be an Executive Committee and other Committees as are necessary for carrying out the duties of the Commission.

"7. The Annual Conference Deaconess Board shall report annually to the Annual Conference, the Jurisdiction Deaconess Association and the Commission on Deaconess Work. Its report shall be printed in the Journal of the Annual Conference."

Part X, Paragraph 1924—For ritual on top of page 522 substitute the following for the first Paragraph:

"Dearly beloved, these are they whom we purpose this day to consecrate deaconesses in the Church of God. After inquiry and examination we discover that they have met the stated requirements of the Church, and believe them to be worthy and proper persons for this office."

"Dearly beloved, we rejoice that in the providence of God you have been led by the Holy Spirit to devote yourself to Christlike service under the direction of the Church of Christ. You are to give yourselves to the service of the Lord going about doing good. You are come as your Master to lead the sick and sinning world to the Saviour. Such service lays upon you solemn responsibility."

Part X, Paragraph 1925—After Paragraph 1 on page 530 insert the following:

"To deaconesses, the Bishop shall say, '(Name), I commission you a deaconess to take the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ into all the world in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.'"

Appendix, Chap. VII, Paragraph 2100, page 616—Substitute the following as the definition of a deaconess:

"A deaconess is a woman who has been led by the Holy Spirit to devote herself to Christlike service under the direction of the Church. She is one who, having met the requirements prescribed by the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel, including a period of not less than one year of probation, has been duly licensed, consecrated and commissioned by a Bishop."

REPORT NO. 8. MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

M, 102; P, 84; F, 82; A, 0; N, 2

SUBJECT: BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION
MEMORIALS: SERIAL NO. Memorial Serial Number, or Numbers, 1489 (also Memorial 580 in conformity with proposed Sec. VI, Par. 663; and Memorials 589 and 1151 as related to proposed Par. 1295).

Calendar No. 128 Amended; Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 737.

The Committee recommends concurrence in the proposed amendments submitted in Memorial 1489, and notes concurrence in Memorials 580, 589 and 1151 which are in conformity with Paragraphs included in this proposed legislation, as follows:

The Board of Missions and Church Extension of The Methodist Church hereby memorializes the 1952 General Conference of The Methodist Church to amend the 1948 Discipline as follows:

Par. 202, Article 5. Amend as follows: In line 3, insert "a Treasurer" after the words "Recording Secretary" and delete the words "a Treasurer" after the word "promotion"; in line 7, insert "of Status of Women," after the words "supply work," and add the following sentence to the end of the Paragraph:

"Where a simpler form of organization is necessary in a small church, there shall be five officers or more, as may be determined by the local society. These officers shall share the responsibility for promoting the work of a full quota of officers as listed in this Paragraph."

Par. 202, Art. 7. Amend as follows: In the first line change "shall" to "may." In the last line insert "last" before "annual," delete the period after "Division" and add "in the quadrennium."

Article 5 and Article 7, of Par. 202, will then read:

"Par. 202, Article 5. Officers and Elections. The officers of the Society shall be a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, a Secretary of Promotion, and Secretaries of Missionary Education and Service, of Christian Social Relations and Local-church Activities, of Student Work, of Youth Work, of Children's Work, of Spiritual Life, of Literature and Publications, of Supply Work, of Status of Women, and such other officers in charge of lines of work as may be required. These officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Society. Where a simpler form of organization is necessary in a small church, there shall be five officers or more, as may be determined by the local society. These officers shall share the responsibility for promoting the work of a full quota of officers as listed in this Paragraph.

Art. 6. No change.

Art. 7. Amendments. Proposed amendments to this Constitution may be sent to the Recording Secretary of the Woman's Division of Christian Service at least forty days before the last annual meeting of the Division in the quadrennium.

Par. 233 (page 76, 1948 Discipline) 2. In line 5, after the word "congregation" add the following: "Adult, youth and children." In line 7, conclusion of Paragraph, change "too," and add "and approved missionary materials for children and youth."

Par. 233, 2, will then read:

2. To plan each year, under the leadership of the pastor with the co-operation of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and the Board of Education, for a church-wide school of missions in order that the entire congregation, adults, youth, and children, may be drawn into a period of intensive study, using the study book and other materials issued by the Division of Education and Cultivation, and approved missionary materials for children and youth."

Par. 241. In the second Paragraph, after the words "parsonage property," add the following sentence, "Where there are more than five churches on a charge, each church shall be entitled to elect one Parsonage Trustee." The Paragraph will then read:

"Par. 241. For each charge there shall be a Board of Trustees of Church Property consisting of not less than three or more than nine persons, each of whom shall be not less than twenty-one years of age and at least two-thirds of whom shall be members of The Methodist Church. They shall be elected for a term of three years or until their successors shall have been duly elected, provided that one-third shall be elected each year. Such Board shall elect its own Chairman except where the charter otherwise provides. When a charge consists of two or more churches located at different places, the foregoing provisions shall apply to each such church with the same force and effect as if it were a separate charge.

Wherever there are two or more churches on a pastoral charge, a separate Board of Trustees, consisting of not less than three nor more than five persons, shall be elected by the Quarterly Conference of such charge to be the custodians of the parsonage property. Where there are more than five churches on a charge, each church shall be entitled to elect one Parsonage Trustee. Such Trustees shall have the same qualifications as are required for Trustees of church property."

Par. 248. Amend by adding sentence to the end, making it a new Paragraph, as underlined. The Paragraph will then read:

"Par. 248. All deeds by which premises are hereafter acquired for use as a place of divine worship shall contain the following trust clause:

In trust, that said premises shall be used, kept, and maintained as a place of divine worship of the Methodist ministry and members of The Methodist Church; subject to the Discipline, usage, and ministerial appointments of said Church as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Conference, and by the Annual Conference within whose bounds the said premises are situated. This provision is solely for the benefit of the grantee, and the grantor reserves no right or interest in said premises.

Provided, however, that this requirement for a trust clause shall not be applicable to those grants from national governments or from governmental agencies or subdivisions which require that the property shall revert to the grantor if and when the use of the same as a place of divine worship has been terminated.

Premises so acquired may be disposed of in conformity with the provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church when the use of such property as a place of divine worship has been terminated.

In the case of unincorporated churches, title shall be vested in the duly elected and acting Trustees of the charge (naming the individual Trustees) and their successors in trust."

Par. 252. Amend as follows: In the last sentence change the word "purchase" to "purchasing"; insert a comma after the word "purchasing," delete the word "or," insert after the word "building" the words "or improving" and at the end of the sentence delete the period and add "or church building," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 252. When two or more churches comprise a single charge and one or more thereof is separated from such charge and established as a charge or united with another charge which does not own a parsonage, each such church shall be entitled to receive its just share of the then reasonable value of the parsonage, in which it has invested funds; and the amount of such value and just share shall be determined by a Committee of three persons, appointed by the District Superintendent, who shall not be members of any of the interested churches. Such Committee shall hear all interested parties, and shall take into account the investment of any church in any such property before arriving at a final determination. From any such determination there is reserved unto each of the interested churches the right of appeal to the next succeeding Annual Conference. Any sum received as or from such share shall be used for no purpose other than the purchasing, building or improving of a parsonage or church building."

Par. 255.1. Amend by adding the following sentence:

"Where a church property has been abandoned by its membership and no abandonment action has been taken by the Annual Conference, and circumstances make immediate action necessary, the Annual Conference Trustees may take control of the property, with the consent of the Bishop of the Area and the District Board of Church Location and Building of the District in which the property is located. And in the event of the sale or lease of said property the Trustees of the Annual Conference shall recommend to the Annual Conference at its next session the disposition of the proceeds derived from such sale or lease."

Par. 255.1 will then read as follows:

"Par. 255.1. With the consent of the Presiding Bishop and of a majority of the District Superintendents and of the District Board of Church Location and Building (Pp. 704-7) of the District in which the action is contemplated, the Annual Conference may declare any charge or church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned. Upon a charge or church's being thus discontinued or abandoned, it shall be the duty of its Board of Trustees to make such disposition of the property thereof as the Annual Conference shall direct, and if no such lawful Trustees remain or if for any reason said Trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Annual Conference to sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference. Where a church property has been abandoned by its membership and no abandonment action has been taken by the Annual Conference, and circumstances make immediate action necessary, the Annual Conference Trustees may take control of the property, with the consent of the Bishop of the Area and the District Board of Church Location and Building of the District in which the property is located. And in the event of the sale or lease of said property the Trustees of the Annual Conference shall recommend to the Annual Conference at its next session the disposition of the proceeds derived from such sale or lease."

No change in remainder of Par. 255.

Par. 258. Amend as follows: In third line from bottom of page 83 (1948 Discipline), delete the sentence which begins "When such undertaking" and ending with the words "tangible asset secured." Add clause (transferred from Par. 1237, where it now appears at Item 11), as follows:

"Trustees or other members of local churches shall not be required to guarantee personally any loan made to the particular church by any Board created by, or under the authority of, the General Conference."

Par. 258, will then read as follows:

"Par. 258. Any church desiring to purchase, build, or remodel a church building shall first secure the District Superintendent's written consent thereto and the Quarterly Conference's authorization after not less than ten days' notice of such proposed action shall have been given from the pulpit of the charge. Thereupon the Quarterly Conference shall appoint a Committee of not less than three members of such church, who shall make an estimate of the amount required to complete such undertaking or enterprise; and such estimate, amount, and proposed undertaking shall be submitted for approval to the members of the church not less than twenty-one years of age at a meeting called for that purpose. If such undertaking is that of building a church, the purchase price of the lot or lots on which such church is to be erected shall be paid in full, and before any such building is begun or contract is entered into for the construction thereof or for the purchase or remodeling of an already erected church, it shall be the duty of the Quarterly Conference to acquire a fee simple title to such premises by deed of conveyance executed in the form and manner as in this Chapter provided, and to secure in cash and tangible assets one half of said estimated cost. The provision of this Paragraph shall not apply to any repairs or remodeling the cost of which will not exceed ten per cent of the value of the building affected. (See also Pp. 704-7, describing the District Board of Church Location and Building, which is charged with the responsibility of approving or disapproving the proposed building, purchase, or remodeling of church or parsonage property.) Trustees or other members of local churches shall not be required to guarantee personally any loan made to the particular church by any Board created by, or under the authority of, the General Conference."

Sec. VI.

Add new Section. At present there is no Par. 663 and no Sec. VI, since Chapter VIII entitled "The Annual Conference" ends with Sec. V, Par. 662, and Chapter IX entitled "The District Conference" begins with Par. 666. The new Sec. VI, Par. 663, would read as follows:

Sec. VI. Constituting a New Methodist Church.

Par. 663, 1. The District Superintendent shall after a survey has been made and a need for a church is determined recommend to the District Board of Church Location and Building the site for the proposed new congregation. If there is a City or District Board of Missions and Church Extension that body shall also be asked to approve the site.

2. The District Superintendent shall organize the new church and appoint the necessary first officers to make up the Quarterly Conference. When the first officers are appointed and the Quarterly Conference held, the church will have been organized.

3. The Annual Conference shall give recognition to any new churches that have been organized during the year and shall, through the presiding Bishop and the Secretary, send to each new church a certificate of organization. The District Superintendent shall on behalf of the Conference present the certificate to the new church in an appropriate ceremony."

Par. 1172. Amend as follows: Line 19, after (2) (a) insert new (b) to read "(b) and six additional names nominated by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction"; In present (b), third line, remove "al" from the word "Jurisdictional." Present (b) would become (c), present (c) would become (d). In the next to the last literary paragraph, add "of the Board" and rearrange the wording of last sentence to read "who shall serve as members at large of the Division and of the Board."

Par. 1172 will then read:

"Par. 1172. The Board of Managers shall be composed as follows: (1) all effective Bishops of The Methodist Church resident in the United States of America; (2) members elected quadrennially by the Jurisdictional Conferences—one minister and three lay members, two of whom shall be women, from each Jurisdiction for each 450,000 members, or major fraction thereof, in the Jurisdiction and, in addition, one young man and one young woman under twenty-one years of age from each Jurisdiction; provided that no Jurisdiction, in addition to its effective Bishops, shall have fewer than two ministers and six lay members, four of whom shall be lay-women and two laymen, and, in addition, two youth members, one man and one woman, under twenty-one years of age. In nominating and electing such members, the Jurisdictional Conference shall have as a basis for choice the following: (a) one minister and one layman designated by each Annual Conference of the Jurisdiction, on nomination of its Board of Missions and Church Extension; (b) and six additional names nominated by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction; (c) twice the necessary number of lay members, who shall be designated by the Jurisdictional Woman's Society from the three members nominated by each Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Jurisdiction; (d) and one young man and one young woman from those nominated by the Youth Organization of each Annual Conference in the Jurisdiction. Vacancies in the Board of Managers shall be filled by the Bishops of the Jurisdiction in which the vacancies occur ad interim, having regard to the various classifications of members.

The Board, on nomination of the Council of Bishops, is authorized to elect quadrennially twenty-four laymen—four from each Jurisdiction, twelve assigned to the Division of Foreign Missions and twelve to the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension—who shall serve as members at large of the Board.

The Board, on nomination of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, is authorized to elect quadrennially twelve women two from each Jurisdiction, who shall serve as members at large of the Division and of the Board.

The Board shall elect to membership the Chairman of the Commission on Missions and World Friendship of the National Conference of Methodist Youth."

Par. 1173. Amend as follows: Delete the last phrase beginning with "at the first regular meeting" and substitute therefor the following:

"at a meeting to be held within ninety days after the adjournment of the last meeting of the several Jurisdictional Conferences held after the adjournment of the General Conference."

Par. 1173 will then read:

"Par. 1173. The term of office of all members of the Board of Managers whose election is provided for in Par. 1172 shall begin, and the Board of Managers shall organize, at a meeting to be held within ninety days after the adjournment of the last meeting of the several Jurisdictional Conferences held after the adjournment of the General Conference."

Par. 1176.6. Amend by deleting the words "and commission."

Par. 1176. 6. will then read:

"6. To elect, on nomination of the Divisions, the Executive Officers of the respective Divisions."

Par. 1178, Art. 5. Amend as follows: In the last line after "Service," add "(4)" before "Division of Education and Cultivation," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1178, Art. 5. Divisions. The Board shall conduct its activities through three Administrative Divisions and a Division of Education and Cultivation, namely: (1) Division of Foreign Missions, (2) Division of Home Missions and Church Extension, (3) Woman's Division of Christian Service, (4) Division of Education and Cultivation."

Par. 1179, Art. 6. Amend in seventh line from top of page 254, 1948 Discipline, by deleting the words "shall have co-ordinate power. They," making Par. 1179, Art. 6, read:

"Par. 1179, Art. 6. Executive Secretaries. The Board shall elect quadrennially one or more Executive Secretaries for each of the three Administrative Divisions, and two (one man and one woman) for the Division of Education and Cultivation, with such assistants as the needs of the work may require. Said Secretaries shall be nominated by their respective Divisions, and shall be elected by the Board.

These Secretaries shall be subject to the direction of the Board and of their respective Divisions. Upon the recommendation of the Divisions their salaries shall be fixed and paid as the Board may determine. They shall be employed exclusively in the work of the Board, promoting its activities as the Board may approve.

(Third literary paragraph unchanged.)

Par. 1189, Art. 8. Amend by the addition of a new sentence at the end of the paragraph, to read as follows:

"This Committee shall co-operate in the work of the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations."

Par. 1189, Art. 8, will then read:

"Par. 1189, Art. 8. Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel. There shall be a Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel of the several Divisions of the Board which shall be responsible for the enlistment, cultivation, training and recommendation of candidates for missionary service at home and abroad. This Committee shall co-operate in the work of the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations."

Par. 1195. The Division shall be composed as nearly as in three places, so that it will read:

Par. 1195. Amend by changing "one third" to "one half" possible of one half of the effective Bishops, and the remaining members shall be as follows: one half of the ministers, one half of the laymen, one half of the laywomen, and one half of the youth members of the Board. The Division shall meet annually at the time of the meeting of the Board, and at such other times as it may deem necessary."

Par. 1210. Amend as follows: Change "one third" to "one half" in three places so that it will read:

Par. 1210. The Division shall be composed as nearly as possible of one half of the effective Bishops, and the remaining members shall be as follows: one half of the ministers, one half of the laymen, one half of the lay-women, and one half of the youth members of the Board. The Division shall meet annually at the time of the meeting of the Board and at such other times as it may deem necessary."

Par. 1214. Delete the first sentence "The Division shall have one or more Executive Secretaries." So that the Paragraph will read:

Par. 1214. The Division shall have two sections: Section of Home Missions and Section of Church Extension."

Par. 1215. Amend by adding another letter under Item I, as follows: "(f) Department of Research and Surveys." The first Paragraph will then read:

"Par. 1215. The section of Home Missions shall have the following Departments, or such Departments and Administrative Units as the Board, upon recommendation of the Division, may determine:

- (a) Department of City Work.
- (b) Department of Town and Country Work.
- (c) Department of Goodwill Industries.
- (d) Department of Negro Work.
- (e) Department of Spanish-speaking and Indian Work in the Southwest.

(f) Department of Research and Surveys.

The Departments shall work in close co-operation with one another, particularly in any overlapping areas."

2. Unchanged.

3. Unchanged.

Par. 1221. Amend as follows: Lines 2 and 3, delete "Department of City Work," and substitute the word "Division," and in the last line delete the word "Department" and substitute the word "Division," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1221. All city or District Societies shall be auxiliary to the Division, and shall make each year to the Division a detailed statement which shall include: (1) number of ministers or missionaries supported in whole or in part, the amount paid to each, and the kind of work in which each is engaged; (2) expenses of administration; (3) the total amount raised by the Society and how expended. The Report shall also include such other items as the Division shall require."

Par. 1222. Amend as follows: In (d) delete the words "Department of City Work" and substitute in their place the word "Division" so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1222. A city or District Society in order to receive financial assistance from the Division, shall meet the following conditions: (a) It shall be organized according to the Discipline; (b) it shall have an Executive Committee meeting at least once every quarter; (c) it shall be actively at work; (d) it shall have made a report as required by the Division; (e) it shall endeavor to raise annually by collection or otherwise an amount at least equal to that appropriated to it by the Board, exclusive of appropriations made the work among foreign-speaking peoples."

Par. 1230. Amend by adding a new item, to be numbered "5," as follows:

"5. The Department shall promote the organization of District Missionary Societies wherever possible and practicable."

The Paragraph will then consist of the following items:

"Par. 1230. 1. The Department of Town and Country Work shall promote, in co-operation with Board and Agencies, etc. . . .

2. The Department shall give encouragement and support to Annual Conference Boards of Missions and Church Extension, etc. . . .

3. The Department shall administer such appropriations as may be committed to it, etc. . . .

4. The Department shall seek to aid Annual Conferences and local churches, etc. . . .

5. The Department shall promote the organization of District Missionary Societies wherever possible and practicable."

Par. 1234. Amend as follows: In the last line substitute the word "nation" for "country." And add new sentence, as follows:

"The Department of Negro Work shall promote the organization of District Missionary Societies wherever possible and practicable."

The Paragraph will then read:

"Par. 1234. The Department of Negro Work shall study and promote missionary work among Negroes and conduct other activities which, from time to time, the developments of the work may require, and which the Section may assign to it, and administer such appropriations as may be committed to it by the division. It shall co-operate with the Boards and Agencies of the Central Jurisdiction, the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, and other Boards and Agencies as their work may affect the Negro population of the nation. The Department of Negro Work shall promote the organization of District Missionary Societies wherever possible and practicable."

Add new Paragraph 1236. (NOTE: This will advance the numbers of all succeeding paragraphs, but for the purpose of ease in comparing with the Discipline, present numbers will be used in the remainder of this Memorial.)

New Par. 1236 will read as follows:

"Par. 1236. The Department of Research and Surveys shall conduct surveys and research studies both in cities and rural territories, giving attention to migrations of population, new and growing communities, changed neighborhoods, and religious conditions of racial and other groups, the necessary location and adaptation of church buildings and the programs required for needy and congested communities. It shall co-operate with Annual Conference Boards, and with City and District Societies in making surveys. It may promote kindred activities on college and seminary campuses and within various Areas of The Methodist Church. It may produce and circulate materials designed to aid administrators and pastors in conducting community self-studies and surveys."

Par. 1237. Amend as follows:

Item 1.—Line 3, after word "supplied" change ";" to ";;" and insert the word "and" after the ";;". In the next to the last line, after the word "needed," change the ";;" to a period, ending the sentence with the words "is most needed." Delete the remainder of the sentence which reads, "and shall give special attention to church architecture."

Item 2. Add new Item 2, as follows:

"2. The Section of Church Extension shall give special attention to church architecture. Churches seeking financial aid from the Section of Church Extension shall submit their architectural plans and specifications to the Section for approval."

Item 4. (present Item 3.)

Item 5. (present Item 4.) Amend as follows: In the next to the last line on page 271, 1948 Discipline, change the ";;" after the word "Extension" to a period and delete the remainder of the sentence which reads, "or a similar Board in the Jurisdiction." In the first line, top of page 272, 1948 Discipline, after the word "Division," delete the remainder of the sentence which reads "or the Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Section and the Secretary or Secretaries." Add the following, "its Executive Committee, or such other Committee as the Division may designate."

Item 6 (present Item 5). Amend as follows: In the third line from the end substitute the word "five" for the word "two." In the next to the last line insert a new sentence between the sentence ending with the word "less" and before the sentence beginning with the words "In case of relocation," to read as follows:

"Said lien may be subordinated to enable the Trustees of the church involved to give a first mortgage for a loan."

Item 7 (present Item 6). Amend as follows: In the next to the last line change the comma after the word "Extension" to a period and delete the remainder of the sentence which reads, "and that appropriations to the Annual Conference may be withheld if need be to insure such protection."

Item 8 (present item 7). Amend as follows: In line 1, insert after the word "division" the words "or its constituent corporations," and after the words "a loan fund" insert the words "and a Revolving Loan Fund."

Line 3, last word, change "for" to "or."

Line 5, after the word "Division" insert the words "or its constituent corporations."

Last sentence change first word "It" to "These funds" and insert after the word "security" the words "or upon such terms as may be," deleting the words "to be" immediately following "security."

Item 9 (present Item 8). Amend as follows: Beginning in line 5, delete everything after words "beneficiaries; provided" and add the following:

"That in all cases the Division or any of its constituent corporations shall conform to the laws of the State or States in which they are incorporated."

Item 10. Delete present Item 9 in its entirety and substitute therefor, the last portion of present Item 8, which reads as follows:

"The requirement of the charter of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which states that 'the aggregate of annuities that the Board shall assume to pay shall never be allowed to exceed one half of the annual interest receivable on the loans made by said Board,' shall be binding and in effect on all annuities made by it."

Item 11 (present Item 10). Merely change the number.

Present Item 11. Delete in its entirety and make it a part of Par. 258.

Par. 1237, as amended, will then read:

"Par. 1237. The Section of Church Extension shall conduct its work under the following provisions and regulations:

1. The Section of Church Extension shall encourage the erection of churches in communities not already adequately supplied, and shall assist in the building of churches, parsonages, and other mission buildings where assistance is most needed.

2. The Section of Church Extension shall give special attention to church architecture. Churches seeking financial aid from the Section of Church Extension shall submit their architectural plans and specifications to the Section for approval.

3. The Division shall appropriate money for the various types of work in the field and the conduct of the office. The Section shall recommend to "the Executive Committee of the Division what amount should be donated or loaned to each applicant and shall administer all donation aid, loan funds, and endowments contributed and established for the work of Church Extension except such as may be administered by the Annual Conferences; and do such other business as may be legitimate and proper for it to do.

4. Aid in the form of donations in the erection, remodeling, and repairing of churches and parsonages shall be made available primarily to clearly missionary projects. Assistance in the development of other types of church property, if and when granted, shall be provided as loans.

5. All applications for aid from the Section of Church Extension shall be made through the Annual Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension. Grants shall be made by the Division, Its Executive Committee, or such other Committee as the Division may designate upon recommendation of the Section and the Secretary or Secretaries.

6. In granting donations to churches and parsonages the Division shall require from the Trustees of each aided church an obligation, which shall be a lien upon the property involved, for the return of the amount donated, with lawful interest thereon, from date of alienation, in the event that the work shall cease or the property shall be alienated from The Methodist Church; provided that these provisions may be waived in cases involving donations of five hundred dollars or less. Said lien may be subordinated to enable the Trustees of the church involved to give a first mortgage for a loan. In case of relocation the Division's investment and lien may be transferred to the new property.

7. When a donation is granted by the Division where the property involved is held in trust by the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference, no lien shall be required by the Division, provided the Trustees of the Annual Conference agree, with the approval of the Annual Conference, that the property shall not be conveyed without protecting the claim of the Section of Church Extension.

8. The Division or its constituent corporations shall raise and administer a Loan Fund and a Revolving Loan Fund which shall be held separate from funds secured for general distribution. It shall consist of all money or other properties especially donated or bequeathed to the Board or Division or its constituent corporations as a permanent fund, subject to annuity or otherwise, where the gift is intended to assist in the building and financing of churches and parsonages in the field of the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension. These funds shall be used only as loans on adequate security or upon such terms as may be determined by the Section.

9. It shall be lawful for the Division to accept contributions to its funds from any person or persons capable of making the same, subject to annuity, payable to the persons making such donations, or other contractual beneficiaries, provided, that in all cases the Division or any of its constituent corporations shall conform to the laws of the State or States in which they are incorporated.

10. The requirement of the charter of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which states that "the aggregate of annuities that the Board shall assume to pay shall never be allowed to exceed one half of the annual interest receivable on the loans made by said board," shall be binding and in effect on all annuities made by it.

11. The Section shall have a Department of Finance and Field Service. A fund may be set up by the Section to be secured from gifts and legacies and the income be used in supporting the work of this Department. The purposes of the Department shall be:

a) Securing funds for the building of churches, parsonages, and religious educational equipment, and for remodeling and repair projects.

b) Raising funds for the liquidation of church debts.

c) Assisting and guiding churches in developing effective budget and other financial plans.

d) Providing counsel and suggesting plans for church building enterprises.

e) Co-operating in making surveys of new fields and other community centers with special reference to the location and adaptation of church buildings and equipment.

Par. 1241. Amend in the fourth line from end of Paragraph by removing "al" from "Jurisdictional" so that the last four lines after the words "for its work:" will read:

"to organize Jurisdiction, Conference, District, and local-church Societies for adults, young people and children as auxiliary to the division; and to recommend constitutions and by-laws for the same."

Par. 1245. Amend as follows: In 1, third line, delete the word "and" and in the fourth line change the "period" after the word "Jurisdiction" to a "," and add "and such members of the Division as may be appointed by the Department."

The Paragraph will then read:

"Par. 1245. The Department of Work in Foreign Fields shall administer and promote the work of missions outside the United States of America, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Dominican Republic.

1. There shall be a Standing Committee composed of the Chairman, the Executive Secretary or Secretaries of the Department of Work in Foreign Fields, the Secretaries of Foreign Work in the several Jurisdictions, and such members of the Division as may be appointed by the Department.

2. There shall be an Inter-division Committee on Foreign Work. (See Par. 1199-2.)"

Par. 1247. Amend as follows: In first line, top of page 278, 1948 Discipline, delete "and its territories" and the parenthesis marks; substitute the word "including." Same Paragraph 1, third line, delete "and" last line delete "in home fields," place the word "home" before "work," and add "and such members of the Division as may be appointed by the Department." Insert new 4 to read, "4. There shall be a Committee on Co-operation and Counsel with the General Board of Education. (See Par. 1365.)"

Renumber present 4 to 5.

The paragraph will then read:

"Par. 1247. The Department of Work in Home Fields shall administer and promote the work of missions within the United States of America including Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic.

1. There shall be a Standing Committee in this Department composed of the Chairman of the Department, the Executive Secretary or Secretaries of the Department, the Secretaries of Home Work in the several Jurisdictions, and such members of the Division as may be appointed by the Department.

2. There shall be an Inter-division Committee on Work in Home Fields. (See Par. 1239.)

3. There shall be an Inter-Board Committee with the Board of Hospitals and Homes for conference and consultation on matters of common concern. (Par. 1537.)

4. There shall be a Committee on Co-operation and Counsel with the General Board of Education. (See Par. 1365.)

5. In the Department of Work in Home Fields there shall be a Bureau of Deaconess Work. (See Par. 1252.)"

Par. 1248. Amend as follows:

1. Second line, substitute "group" for "class," third line substitute "world" for "national."

4. Second line strike out "Executive Secretary," substitute "Secretaries." Third line strike out "Chairman of the Resource Committee," substitute "the Chairman of the Committees." Fourth line, strike out "al" on "Jurisdictional."

Par. 1248 will then read:

"Par. 1248. The Department of Christian Social Relations and Local-Church Activities shall supervise and promote the work of the Division along the lines of community service and social relations.

1. It shall seek to make real and effective the teachings of Jesus as applied to individual, group, racial, and world relationships. It shall endeavor to enlist the participation of church women in such questions as have a moral or religious significance or an important bearing on public welfare.

2. It shall seek to inspire in the women of the local church a greater devotion to and concern for the total life and work of the local church.

3. It shall seek to co-operate with other Agencies of the Church having similar purpose, endeavoring to develop Christian fellowship and to deepen concern for the total responsibility of the Church.

4. This Department shall have a Standing Committee, composed of the Secretaries and Chairman of the Department, the Chairman of Committees, the Jurisdiction Secretaries of Christian Social Relations and Local-Church Activities and such other persons as the Division may provide upon recommendation of the Department."

Par. 1252. Amend in Paragraph 3, in the sixth line and in the eighth line, by removing "al" from "Jurisdictional."

Par. 1253. Amended as follows: In the title of the Paragraph; in the first line of Paragraph 3; in the second line of Paragraph 4; in the second line of Paragraph 5, remove "al" from "Jurisdictional."

Par. 1254. Amend as follows: In the third line of Paragraph 2; in the third line of Paragraph 5, remove "al" from "Jurisdictional."

Begin with the third line, top of page 285, "At the last meeting," etc. In the third line after "last" insert "annual." Fourth line from top of page 285, after the word "shall" insert (1). Fifth line from top of page 285, after the word "Discipline" insert "(P. 1255.3.) six." Seventh line from top of page 285, remove "al" from "Jurisdictional"; after the word "Society" change the "." to a ";" and delete the sentence beginning with "Three Women" and ending with "Church Extension" and substitute therefor the following:

"(2) (P. 1172-b) Nominate three women for membership on the General Board of Missions, the names to be sent to the Jurisdiction Woman's Society."

In the next to the last line insert "of the Conference Woman's Society" before the word "preceding," and after the word "delegates" insert "to the Assembly."

Art. 7. Present Art. 6 becomes new Art. 7. Amend as follows:

Line 3, insert "last" before "annual," add at the end of the sentence the words "in the quadrennium."

Par. 1256 will then read:

"Par. 1256. Constitution of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service:

Art. 1. Name.—In each Annual Conference there shall be organized a Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service auxiliary to the Jurisdiction Woman's Society and to the Woman's Division of Christian Service. This shall include the Wesleyan Service Guild for gainfully employed women.

Art. 2. Purpose. The purpose of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service shall be to plan and direct the work of the society within the Conference in accordance with the Constitution and By-laws of the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Art. 3. Membership and Officers. The Conference Woman's Society shall be composed of representatives from Societies in the local church the number to be determined by each Conference according to its requirements; such District officers as the Conference Society may determine, from each District; all Chairmen of Conference Standing Committees; officers or members of the Woman's Division or of the Jurisdiction Woman's Society residing within the bounds of the Conference; and the following Conference Officers: a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, a Secretary of Promotion, a Secretary of the Wesleyan Service Guild, a Secretary of Student Work, a Secretary of Youth Work, a Secretary of Children's Work, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Service, a Secretary of Christian Social Relations and Local-church Activities, a Secretary of Literature and Publications, a Secretary of Supply Work, a Secretary of Spiritual Life, a Secretary of Status of Women, a Secretary of Missionary Personnel, and such other Secretaries of lines of work as may be required.

Art. 4. Annual Conference Relationships. The President of the Conference Woman's Society shall be seated in the Annual Conference, but without the right to vote unless she is otherwise a member of the Conference.

Art. 5. Meetings. There shall be an annual meeting of the Conference Woman's Society when reports shall be received from the Conference Officers and from the Districts. Officers shall be elected, the necessary business transacted, and pledges made for the year. There shall be a program of inspiration and information in harmony with the plans and projects of the Jurisdiction Woman's Society and the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Art. 6. Elections. At the last annual meeting of the quadrennium the Conference Woman's Society shall (1) elect, according to instructions in the Discipline (P. 1255.3) six women from the Conference, three of whom shall be Conference Officers, for membership in the Jurisdiction Woman's Society, (2) (P. 1172-b) nominate three women for membership on the General Board of Missions, the names to be sent to the Jurisdiction Woman's Society. At the annual meeting of the Conference Woman's Society preceding the Assembly (P. 1251), delegates to the Assembly shall be elected in accordance with the stated membership.

Art. 7. Amendments. Proposed amendments to this Constitution shall be sent to the Recording Secretary of the Woman's Division at least forty days before the last annual meeting of the Division in the Quadrennium."

Par. 1257. Amend as follows: Art. 1, in third line, add a sentence as follows: "This shall include the Wesleyan Service Guild for gainfully employed women."

Art. 6, third line, insert "last" before "annual" and add at the end of the sentence "in the quadrennium."

Par. 1257 will then read as follows:

"Par. 1257. Constitution of the District Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Art. 1. Name. There may be a District Woman's Society of Christian Service auxiliary to the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service. This shall include the Wesleyan Service Guild for gainfully employed women.

Art. 2. Unchanged.

Art. 3. Unchanged.

Art. 4. Unchanged.

Art. 5. Unchanged.

Art. 6. Amendments. Proposed amendments to this Constitution shall be sent to the Recording Secretary of the Woman's Division at least forty days before the last annual meeting of the Division in the quadrennium."

Par. 1268. Amend by inserting in line 7, after the word "Service" the words "one of whom shall be the President of the Division," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1268. The Division of Education and Cultivation shall be composed of six Bishops, one from each Jurisdiction; six men and two women from the Division of World Missions, elected by that Division; six men and two women from the Division of National Missions and Church Extension, elected by that Division; eight women from the Woman's Division of Christian Service, one of whom shall be the President of the Division, elected by that Division; one Executive Secretary from the Division of World Missions; one Executive Secretary from the Division of National Missions; three Executive Secretaries from the Woman's Division of Christian Service; and the two Executive Secretaries of the Division of Education and Cultivation. In all these selections there must be due regard to equipable representation from the Jurisdictions. This Division shall undergird with education and cultivation the total program of the Board."

Par. 1275. Amend at top of page 288, 1948 Discipline, by omitting "and" after the parenthesis and after the word "Secretaries" add the words "a Treasurer who shall be the Secretary in charge of one of the Departments of the Division," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1275. The Division shall lect quadrennially a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, and a Recording Secretary. The Division shall also nominate for election by the Board two Executive Secretaries (one man and one woman), other Secretaries, a Treasurer who shall be the Secretary in charge of one of the Departments of the Division, and such other officers as the Division may determine. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board on nomination of the Division. The Division shall determine the powers and duties of its officers and staff and shall recommend the remuneration of its employed officers and workers."

Par. 1291. Amend as follows: In the fifth line, omit "al" from "Jurisdictional."

Par. 1292. Amend as follows: In the eighth line, omit "al" from "Jurisdictional."

Par. 1295. Amend as follows: Beginning in the fifth line from the bottom of page 293, 1948 Discipline, delete the words "of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance or," and in the third line from the bottom of page 293, delete the first word in the line, "other." In the first line at the top of page 294, after the word "Secretaries," insert "the Presidents and" so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1295. The Conference Board of Missions shall be auxiliary to the General Board and the Jurisdictional Board, and shall be composed of the following members elected quadrennially: One or more lay members from each District, and an equal number of ministers; five members at large, nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee after consultation with the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions and elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference; two young men and two young women, nominated by the Conference Youth Organization and elected annually by the Annual Conference; the Conference Missionary Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference Secretary of Evangelism, the President of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, the members of the General Board residing within the bounds of the Annual Conference; and the Chairman of such Agency as may be created or designated by the Conference to administer the Minimum Salary Plan (Par. 806-5). The District Superintendents, District Missionary Secretaries, the Presidents and full-time Executives of City or District Societies and the Chairman of the Conference Town and Country Commission may be members of the Conference Board of Missions at the discretion of the Annual Conference."

Par. 1365. Amend as follows: In the next to the last line, page 307, 1948 Discipline, delete the words "for Negroes," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1365. There shall be a Committee on Co-operation and Counsel of ten members, five to be appointed by the General Board of Education and five by the Board of Missions, nominated by the Home Department of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, to take under consideration all matters involving educational work in institutions in which Agencies of both Boards may have responsibility."

Par. 1414. Amend as follows: At the end of the fourth line, page 317, 1948 Discipline, insert after the words "elected by the" the following words: "Division of National Missions of the," and in the seventh line, after the word "churches" place a "comma," delete the word "and," add the words "parsonages and religious," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1414. There shall be a Joint Committee on Architecture composed of the Executive Secretary of the Division of the Local Church, three others to be elected by the Board of Education, and four other persons elected by the Division of National Missions of the Board of Missions. This Committee shall have authority to prepare standards for the architecture of churches, parsonages and religious educational buildings and to recommend them to the co-operating Boards; and shall be authorized, under such provisions as the Boards may agree upon, to offer counsel in the erection of such buildings. The Committee shall meet annually and at such other times as its work may require."

Par. 1891. Amend as follows: In the last line omit the word "United" leaving the name "Church of Christ in Japan," so that the Paragraph will read:

"Par. 1891. Affiliated Autonomous Churches: Methodist Church of Mexico, Methodist Church of Brazil, Methodist Church in Korea, and the Church of Christ in Japan."

Par. 2002. "Enabling Acts." Approved recommendation to "Amend Enabling Act," as follows:

To provide for the quadrennial election of the officers and managers of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, by the Division of Home Missions of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church rather than the Board. (See Par. 2002.)

Art. III of the Constitution of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to read as follows:

"ARTICLE III. The Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Board, under its direction, and shall be subject to the authority and control of the Board and of the Division of Home Missions of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, by whom his salary shall be fixed and paid. He shall reside where the Board is located."

*Reconsidered—Amended May 5, 1952. Re-Adopted
May 5, 1952. Calendar No. 628.*

The Committee recommends that Chapter VIII, Section I, Par. 622 of the 1948 Discipline be amended as follows:

Change the period to a comma at the end of the sentence, and add the phrase "without vote, and by authorization of a Central Conference national lay workers may be given the same privileges." Par. 622, as amended, will then read:

"Lay missionaries, both men and women, regularly appointed by the Board of Missions in fields outside the United States may be seated in the Annual Conference session and given the privileges of the floor, without vote and by authorization of a Central Conference national lay workers may be given the same privileges."

(NON-CONCURRENCE WITH REFERENCE)

SUBJECT: NORTH AFRICA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
MEMORIAL: SERIAL No. 587

Referred to Committee or Correlation and Editorial Revision May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 630.

The Committee, in recommending an action of non-concurrence, has ascertained that the General Conference is being memorialized through the Committee on Structure of Methodism Overseas to recognize a "North Africa Provisional Conference," in which recommendation this Committee concurs.

It wishes to report the matter to the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision for such adjustment as the situation may require.

REPORT NO. 11. MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

M, 102; P, 63; F, 63; A, 0; N, 0

SUBJECT: MISSION SPECIALS

MEMORIALS: SERIAL NO. 577-593

Calendar No. 131. Withdrawn May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 630.

The Committee had before it Memorials from the Virginia Annual Conference and Southwest Texas Annual Conference to continue the program of Mission Specials. The Committee recommends concurrence because these Memorials are in conformity with the Report of the Committee of Twenty-eight. The Memorial from the Southwest Texas Annual Conference suggests that "no allocations of goals or quotas for Advance Specials be made to Annual Conferences, Districts or local churches."

SUBJECT: NO OVER-ALL QUADRENNIAL CHURCH-WIDE PROGRAM

Calendar No. 132. Withdrawn May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 630.

The Committee had before it a request from the Southwest Texas Annual Conference to memorialize the General Conference to "inaugurate no over-all quadrennial Church-wide program but rather leave Annual Conferences, areas and local churches to work out their own programs with the guidance and assistance of the regularly established General Board of the Church."

The Committee voted to concur in this recommendation since it is in conformity with the report of the Committee of Twenty-eight.

PENSIONS AND PERMANENT FUNDS

CHAPTER I

BOARD OF PENSIONS

SECTION I.

(Section 1 adopted May 3, 1952, with exception of Par. 1602-1, which was amended and adopted May 6, 1952. See pages 556 and 739.)

Organization

¶ 1601, § 1—No change.

¶ 1602, § 1.

The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, hereinafter, for the sake of brevity, called the Board, shall be composed of one Bishop to be elected by the Council of Bishops for a term of four years, and one minister, and one layman from each Jurisdiction for every 1,000,000 church members in the Jurisdiction, or major fraction of that number, to be elected for a term of eight years; provided, however, that there shall be at least one ministerial and one lay member from each Jurisdiction; and provided, furthermore, that at its first meeting following the General Conference in 1952, the Jurisdictional Conference shall elect one-half of its quota of members for a term of four years and one-half of its quota of members for a term of eight years so that thereafter the Jurisdictional Conference shall elect one-half of its quota of members each quadrennium for a term of eight years.

In addition there shall be two members at large to be elected by the other members of the Board for a term of four years.

The Executive Secretaries of the Board shall be ex officio members of the Board without vote.

A member of the Board shall serve during the term of office for which he was elected or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Members elected by a Jurisdictional Conference need not be delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

§ 2.—No change.

§ 3. In all matters not specifically covered by General Conference legislation, the Board shall have authority to adopt rules and policies for the administration of the support of Conference Claimants, with variations for each of the territories assigned respectively to the Illinois Corporation and to the Missouri Corporation as conditions may require and shall take such measures as it may deem advisable to co-ordinate the work of the Illinois Corporation and the Missouri Corporation.

§ 4. The Board shall meet annually for the review and consideration of the work committed to its care; provided, however, that special meetings of the Board may be called by any two of the officers mentioned in ¶ 1603, § 1.

¶ 1603, § 1—No change.

CHAPTER III

ANNUAL CONFERENCE ORGANIZATIONS

SECTION I.

(Adopted May 3, 1952, see page 556)

Authorization

¶ 1612. 1. Annual Conferences are authorized to establish and maintain investment funds, Preachers' Aid Societies, and organizations and funds of similar character, under such names, plans, rules, and regulations as they may determine, the income from which shall be applied to the support of Conference Claimants. It is recommended that each Annual Conference provide a corporation to administer its permanent funds, under some other corporate name than that used by The Board of Pensions.

§ 2—No change.

§ 3—No change.

§ 4. Provided that no laws of the State in which it is organized or incorporated prohibit its so doing, an Annual Conference shall have power to require from its ministerial members and Approved Supply Pastors who are appointed with annuity claim on the Conference an annual contribution to either its permanent or reserve fund or for current distribution or to a Preachers' Aid Society for the benefit of its annuitants, subject to the following provisions: (1) the annual payment may be made in installments as provided by the Annual Conference; (2) the Conference may fix a financial penalty for failure to pay; (3) in case his membership in the Annual Conference is terminated under the provisions of the Discipline, the Conference may refund the amount so paid, in whole or in part; (4) the making of such payment shall not be used as the ground of contractual obligations upon the part of the Conference, or as the ground of any special or additional annuity claim of a member against the Conference, neither shall it prevent disallowance of his annuity claim by Conference action; (5) ministers entering an Annual Conference shall not be charged an initial entry fee by any organization mentioned in § 1 of this Paragraph; furthermore, the annual contribution required from a ministerial member of the Conference or an Approved Supply Pastor shall not exceed the equivalent of three per cent of his cash salary.

§ 5—No change.

§ 6. Each Annual Conference on recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants or one of the organizations mentioned in § 1 of this Paragraph shall select a Sunday in each year to be observed in the churches as Retired Ministers Day, in honor of the retired ministers, their wives, and the widows of ministers, and in recognition of the Church's obligation for their support. The Bishop shall request each Annual Conference in his Area to insert the Retired Ministers Day in its calendar and he shall diligently promote the observance of it.

SECTION II.

(Adopted May 3, 1952, see page 557)

Board of Conference Claimants

¶ 1613, § 1—No change.

§ 2. The Board of Conference Claimants shall be composed of not less than twelve members, not indebted to or beneficiaries of Conference Claimants' funds of the Conference, effective ministers and laymen in equal number, and so arranged in two equal classes that one-half shall be elected quadrennially, provided that beginning with the first sessions of the Annual Conferences following the General Conference in 1952, two classes shall be elected, one class for a term of four years and one class for a term of eight years, and thereafter each class shall be elected for a term of eight years; and in addition thereto any ministerial member of the Annual Conference or lay member of a church within the Annual Conference who is a member of the General Board of Pensions.

§ 3. (a) The Board of Conference Claimants shall organize by electing a Chairman, Vice-chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall serve during the ensuing quadrennium, or until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. These officers shall constitute an Executive Committee; provided, however, that three members may be added thereto by the Board of Conference Claimants. The office of Secretary may be combined with that of Treasurer. Calls for special meetings of the Board of Conference Claimants shall be issued by the Secretary on request of the Chairman, or the Vice-chairman, when the Chairman is unable to act.

(b)—No change.

§ 4. The members of the Board of Conference Claimants shall assume their duties at the adjournment of the session of the Annual Conference at which they were elected.

§ 4. (renumbered § 5).

§ 5. (renumbered § 6).

§ 6. (renumbered § 7).

§ 7. (renumbered § 8).

§ 8. (renumbered § 9). The Board of Conference Claimants shall administer all annuities and relief provided for the benefit of Special Conference Claimants. (¶ 1631).

§ 9. (renumbered § 10).

§ 11. (renumbered § 12).

§ 12. (renumbered § 13). The Board of Conference Claimants may build up a stabilization fund from the income for Conference Claimants in order to stabilize the annuity rate. Such stabilization fund should be, at least, the equivalent of twenty-five per cent of the average annual income of the Board of Conference Claimants for all purposes for the five years immediately preceding. Such stabilization fund shall be held as the Annual Conference shall direct and shall be subject to the requirements of § 11 of this paragraph.

CHAPTER IV

GENERAL PENSION REGULATIONS

(Adopted May 3, 1952, see page 558)

¶ 1614. Definition of Conference Claimants.—Retired ministers, the widows of ministers, and dependent children of deceased ministers are Conference Claimants.

¶ 1615—No change.

¶ 1616. Approval of Claim.—The Annual Conference shall be the sole judge of the admissibility and validity of annuity claims and shall be fully competent to determine all payments, disallowances, and deductions thereunder, subject to the specific regulations relating thereto contained in the Discipline.

¶ 1617. Retirement.—1. The Annual Conference may place any ministerial member thereof in the retired relation, with or without his consent and irrespective of his age, if such relation be recommended by the Committee on Conference Relations. (¶ 367.)

§ 2. At his own request, the Annual Conference may place any ministerial member thereof in the retired relation, with the privilege of making an annuity claim, if he has attained age sixty-five prior to the first day of the session of the Annual Conference to which said request is presented (¶ 369.)

§ 3. Every ministerial member of an Annual Conference who has attained age seventy-two prior to the first day of the session of the Annual Conference shall be placed in the retired relation. (¶ 368.)

§ 3 (renumbered § 4). Retirement prior to attaining age sixty-five with the privilege of making an annuity claim on the ground of a minister's personal disability, shall be permitted only after a thorough investigation of his case by and presentation of a medical certificate to, the Committee on Conference Relations. This certificate shall be made on a form approved by The Board of Pensions, and shall be given by a regular medical doctor, other than the personal physician of the applicant, who has been approved by the Committee on Conference Relations. If such disability continue for more than one year, such medical certificate shall be required annually.

§ 4 (renumbered § 5). If retirement take place before attainment of age sixty-five for other reasons than personal disability, the right to make an annuity claim from the time of retirement until the ministerial member attains that age shall be granted upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations and a three-fourth vote of the Annual Conference; provided, however, that in case of emergency occurring between sessions of the Annual Conference the Board of Conference Claimants shall have authority to grant relief at its discretion.

§ 5 (renumbered § 6). When because of physical or mental incapacity, a minister is forced to give up his ministerial work during the Conference year, upon recommendation of the Cabinet, accompanied by a medical certificate, as set forth in § 3 of this Paragraph, the Board of Conference Claimants may grant him an appropriation from an emergency fund for the remaining part of the Conference year.

§ 7. The Board of Conference Claimants, upon recommendation of the Cabinet may grant aid to a minister in the effective relation who has attained the age of voluntary retirement and has been compelled because of an emergency to relinquish his ministerial work during the Conference year.

¶ 1618, § 1—No change.

§ 2. The following years of approved service in the Effective Relation or On Trial in an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, as defined in § 8 of this Paragraph, are eligible to be counted for the purpose of determining the annuity claims payable thereon:

(a)—No change.

(b)—No change.

(c) Service rendered under special appointment to an institution, organization or agency, which in the judgment of the Annual Conference rendered to it some form of service, direct or indirect, sufficient to warrant granting an annuity from the Conference Fund therefor, or to a community church; provided, however, that such institution, organization, agency or community church accepts and pays annually such apportionments as the Annual Conference may require in accordance with the provision as set forth in ¶ 1623, § 6; and provided, furthermore, that any institution, organization, agency or community church may arrange for a pension related to such service through the Joint-Contributory Annuity Fund administered by The Board of Pensions. (All service in special appointment as ministerial members of Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church prior to May 29, 1924, shall be regarded as valid, irrespective of subsequent limitations enacted by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and furthermore, nothing hereinbefore provided in this sub-section shall prevent an Annual Conference from fulfilling any special arrangement which it may have entered into prior to January 1, 1946, whereby it agreed to assume the annuity responsibility for a minister while serving under special appointment to an institution or organization not under the control of the Conference.)

(d) Service under special appointment as an evangelist; provided, however, that if annuity responsibility be accepted by the Annual Conference therefor, such Annual Conference may require the payment of an apportionment by such evangelist in accordance with the provision in ¶ 1623, § 6.

(d) (reletter (e)). As a student left without appointment to attend school.

(e) (reletter (f)). Sabbatical leave (¶ 364).

(f) (reletter (g)). As the wife of a minister during his years of approved service. (¶ 1620.)

(g) (reletter (h)). Service rendered prior to December 31, 1946, as a reserve Chaplain on full-time active duty with the armed forces of the United States, in case no government pension is granted for such years of service; provided, however, that provision for pension on account of service rendered after December 31, 1946, as a reserve Chaplain on full-time active duty shall be made by the CHAPLAINS PENSION FUND administered in connection with the JOINT-CONTRIBUTORY ANNUITY FUND in accordance with rules and regulations to be determined jointly by The Board of Pensions and the Commission on Chaplains.

(h)—Delete.

(i)—No charge.

§ 3. (a) No change.

(b)—No change.

§ 4. Upon recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants and approval by the Annual Conference, special appointments shall be listed in the Conference journal as follows: (1) with annuity claim (a) upon this Annual Conference or (b) upon a General Board, an institution, or an Agency of The Methodist Church; (2) without annuity claim on this Annual Conference. If at any session the Annual Conference shall fail to make such listing, it may be done subsequently, whenever desirable, under the Disciplinary question, "What other personal notation should be made?" (§ 651, Question 43.)

§ 5—No change.

§ 6. The average salary of the Conference for the purposes of this annuity plan shall mean the average salary (including house rent at a valuation equivalent to fifteen per cent of the cash salary in cases in which a parsonage is occupied or house rent is provided) of the ministers in the Annual Conference who are in the effective relation as pastors or District Superintendents, based on the salaries as published in the Statistical Report of the Annual Conference. In computing the average salary of the Conference, no account shall be taken of salaries of ministers who shall have served less than one year on a pastoral charge. The average salary shall be established by the Board of Pensions for each Annual Conference biennially, based upon the Annual Conference Reports for odd-numbered years.

§ 7. Dependent child shall mean a child of a deceased minister or a child legally adopted before the minister's retirement or death, under sixteen years of age, and dependent for his or her support. If the child be kept in a standard school, the age limit may be extended not to exceed five additional years by action of the Board of Conference Claimants.

§ 8—No change.

§ 9—Delete.

§ 10 (renumbered § 9).

§ 11 (renumbered § 10).

§ 12 (renumbered § 11). On recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants, the Annual Conference shall determine the Methodist institutions and organizations related to such Annual Conference service in which shall be approved for annuity responsibility of the Conference; provided, however, that such list may be revised at any session of the Annual Conference. Such list shall be printed annually in the Conference journal under the Disciplinary question "What Methodist institutions or organizations are approved by the Conference for annuity responsibility?" (§ 651, Question 13.)

¶ 1620. Claim of a Widow.—1. The annuity claim of a widow shall be for an amount equivalent to the total of her years of approved service (¶ 1618, §§ 2f, 3b) multiplied by seventy per cent of the annuity rate. The seventy per cent may be raised to seventy-five per cent at the option of the Annual Conference. The fact that a widow served as the wife of a minister of The Methodist Church until his death and after an intervening period of widowhood, served again as the wife of another minister of The Methodist Church shall not prevent the approval of all such years of service for the purpose of computing her annuity claim.

§ 2. The annuity claim of a widow of a ministerial member or of an Approved Supply Pastor shall become effective immediately upon the death of such husband; provided, however, that the annuity claim of a widow of a ministerial member or an Approved Supply Pastor who was himself a Conference Claimant or a Special Conference Claimant at the time of his death shall become effective with the date of the next payment which would have been scheduled for him if he had lived.

§ 3. If a widow of a deceased ministerial member of an Annual Conference or of a deceased Approved Supply Pastor is remarried she shall have no annuity claim during such marriage but if such subsequent marriage is dissolved by such husband's death or by legal process, the Annual Conference on recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants may reinstate her annuity claim thereafter subject to the provisions of the Pension Code.

§ 4. The Board of Conference Claimants shall obtain annually satisfactory evidence that a widow is living and is eligible to receive annuity payments in accordance with provision of the Pension Code.

¶ 1621. Claim of a Dependent Child.—§ 1. The claim of an unmarried dependent child shall be determined by multiplying the equivalent of the deceased father's years of approved service by one fourth of the annuity rate to which the retired ministers are entitled; provided, however, that in no case shall the total claim of the dependent children in the deceased minister's family exceed the annuity claim which would correspond with his years of service multiplied by the annuity rate payable to retired ministers.

§ 2. The claim of an unmarried dependent child shall become effective immediately upon the death of the father and shall cease upon attainment of age sixteen. If the child be kept in a standard school, the age limit may be extended not to exceed five additional years, by the action of the Board of Conference Claimants. Upon recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants and approved by two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference given annually a claim may be validated for a child past sixteen years of age in case of evident mental or physical incapacity to provide self-support; provided, however, that before allowing such claim the Board of Conference Claimants shall require a medical certificate and may require subsequent certificates certifying the continuance of such incapacity.

§ 3. A certificate of attendance of a dependent child at a standard school shall be obtained annually between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one by the Board of Conference Claimants, on a form to be provided by the Board of Pensions.

§ 5—Delete.

¶ 1622, § 1—No change.

§ 2—No change.

¶ 1623. Apportionments.—§ 1. After the annuity rate payable has been determined by the Annual Conference on recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants, the said Board shall compute the amount necessary to meet the prospective annuity disbursements according to the annuity rate determined, and said amount shall be apportioned to the pastoral charge on the basis of a percentage of the cash salaries of the ministers. (See ¶ 802.) In case there is more than one minister serving a pastoral charge, the apportionment thereto shall be on the basis of all cash salaries paid such ministers. If so determined by the Annual Conference a graduated scale of apportionments may be used,

(¶ 1624, § 2, 3.)

§ 2—No change.

§ 3. The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall include in its recommendations to the Annual Conference the amounts computed by the Board of Conference Claimants as necessary to meet the needs for annuity payments and relief. (¶ 785.)

§ 4—No change.

§ 5—Delete.

§ 6—Delete.

§ 7—Delete.

§ 5. The apportionment to a federated Church, the membership of which is under the jurisdiction of a Quarterly Conference, if and when it is served by a ministerial member or an Approved Supply Pastor of the Annual Conference, shall be made on the same basis as the apportionments to the pastoral charges of the Annual Conference; provided, however, that an annual apportionment may be made to a federated Church in accordance with the terms of an agreement between the Board of Conference Claimants and such federated Church.

§ 8 (renumbered § 6). (a) An Annual Conference which accepts annuity responsibility in any Conference year for service rendered by a member thereof under special appointment to an institution, organization, agency or to a community church, as provided in ¶ 1618, § 2c may make an apportionment to such institution, organization, agency or community church served for such amount as the Annual Conference may determine; provided, however, that such apportionment shall not exceed an amount equivalent to twelve times the annuity rate which has been adopted for that Conference year.

(b)—No change.

(c)—No change.

¶ 1624. Proportional Payment.—1. The amount payable by any pastoral charge on the apportionment for the support of Conference Claimants and for the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund shall be directly proportionate to the total amount of cash salary or salaries paid by the charge to the minister or ministers serving it under Episcopal appointment or to a Supply Pastor. Such apportionment, being stated on the basis of a percentage of the total amount paid for ministerial salary or salaries on the charge, an amount equivalent to the aforesaid percentage shall be due from the charge on the basis of the salary or salaries paid. (¶ 802, ¶ 803.)

§ 2—No change.

§ 3. The Treasurer of the pastoral charge shall be primarily responsible for the application of the provisions of § 1 of this Paragraph; but in the event of his failure to apply such provisions, the pastor shall adjust his cash salary and the payment according to the proper ratio, as provided above, before he enters the respective amounts in his Statistical Report to the Annual Conference. And, on retirement, amounts in default shall be deducted from his annuity; provided, however, that not more than one quarter of the annuity payable by the Annual Conference in which the debt was incurred shall be appropriated in any year for such purpose; and, provided, furthermore, that if such pastor be a member of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, the annual contribution by the Conference to the service annuity credit of such member shall be withheld in any Conference year unless and until proportional payment, as required herein, has been observed.

§ 4. In the event of the failure of a retired minister to observe the provisions of this Paragraph while serving as a Supply Pastor in any Conference year, the amount of such default shall be deducted from such retired minister's annuity during the ensuing Conference year.

§ 4 (renumbered § 5).

¶ 1625. Distribution.—1. Moneys designated for distribution to the Claimants as annuities shall be distributed on the basis of approved years of service, and shall consist of:

(a)—No change.

(b)—The income from investments for annuity distribution held for this purpose.

(c)—No change.

(d)—No change.

§ 2—No change.

(a)—No change.

(b) Money received from the apportionment to the pastoral charges, provided that each Annual Conference shall set aside for necessitous and emergency distribution such part of its funds as it may deem necessary, but not to exceed ten per cent of the total amount collected on apportionment to the pastoral charges.

§ 3. The Board of Conference Claimants shall pay annuity and relief benefits quarterly provided, however, that on recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants any Annual Conference by a two-thirds vote may order such payments to be made monthly, semiannually or annually.

§ 4. The amount received each year from the pastoral charges shall be divided at the end of the Conference year between the Annuity Distribution and the Relief Fund in proportion to the amount asked from the pastoral charges for each fund respectively at the previous session of the Annual Conference; any part of such amount received in advance of the Conference session shall be reserved for appropriation and expenditure during the ensuing Conference year, unless the Conference receives and distributes the income on a current basis. As quickly as feasible, the Annual Conferences paying annuities on a current income basis shall change to a collection of income one year in advance of the payments.

¶ 1626. Relinquishment.—1. For a year at a time, a Conference Claimant may voluntarily relinquish in writing his or her annuity claim and any amount payable thereunder; provided that the disposal of the relinquished amount shall be entirely under the control of the Board of Conference Claimants.

§ 2. Any agreement made prior to retirement to relinquish at retirement a future annuity claim shall be null and void.

§ 3. The Secretary of each Annual Conference shall publish annually in the Annual Conference journal the chronological roll of ministerial members and Approved Supply Pastors; indicating the number of service years of each. (¶ 632.)

§ 4—No change.

§ 5. The Secretary of the Conference shall have the power to require from each and every ministerial member of it a signed statement concerning the date of his birth, the date of birth of his wife, the date of their marriage, and the dates of birth of their dependent children and to require similar data from Accepted Supply Pastors.

¶ 1630, § 1—No change.

§ 2—No change.

§ 3. The annuity claim of an effective minister cannot be recognized by the Board of Conference Claimants between annual sessions of the Conference; he must be retired first. Provision for emergency cases may be made in accordance with ¶ 1617, § 5.

§ 4—No change.

§ 5—No change.

§ 6—No change.

§ 7—No change.

§ 8—No change.

§ 9—No change.

§ 10—No change.

§ 11—No change.

§ 12. A minister On Trial or the widow and dependent children of a minister who was On Trial at the time of his death may become Conference Claimants subject to the provisions of the Pension Code.

§ 13. A widow of a retired minister who married him after his retirement or a child born of such marriage is not entitled to make an annuity claim on an Annual Conference, except as provided in the last sentence of ¶ 1620, § 1.

§ 14. A minister in the supernumerary relation cannot make an annuity claim, but may be granted emergency relief by the Board of Conference Claimants.

§ 15—No change.

§ 16. In determining the annuity claim of a regular Conference Claimant, the approved years of service as a full-time Approved Supply Pastor rendered prior to Admission on Trial by an Annual Conference may be counted and payment made therefor at the rate for a Special Conference Claimant. (§ 1631.)

§ 17. Full-time service rendered as pastor-in-charge between the date of termination of membership in an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference and the date of re-admission into the membership in an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference may be approved for an annuity claim on recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants and vote of the Conference.

§ 17 (renumbered § 18). The widow of a deceased minister whose membership in an Annual Conference had been terminated in accordance with the provisions in §§ 375-382 and §§ 991-995 shall have a right to make an annuity claim upon the Annual Conferences concerned based upon her years of approved service; provided, however, that such claim shall be approved on recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants and a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

§ 19. In cases in which the Annual Conference provides a dwelling for the use of a Conference Claimant an adjustment may be made in his/her annuity as determined by the Annual Conference, after recommendation by the Board of Conference Claimants.

¶ 1631. Special Conference Claimants.—1. An Approved Supply Pastor who shall have rendered not less than ten years of full-time approved service as pastor-in-charge may upon retirement make an annuity claim as A Special Conference Claimant; provided, however, that any period of less than one full year of service in any Conference may not be counted.

§ 1 (renumbered § 2). On recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations an Approved Supply Pastor who has attained age sixty-five prior to the first day of the session of the Annual Conference and who has rendered the minimum number of years of approved service may request retirement and upon retirement shall be designated A Special Conference Claimant.

§ 2—Delete.

§ 3. Every Approved Supply Pastor who has attained age seventy-two prior to the first day of the session of the Annual Conference shall be retired. (§ 368.)

§ 3—Delete.

§ 4. A Special Conference Claimant (§§ 1, 2) shall be entitled to make an annuity claim for each year of approved service rendered as a regularly appointed pastor, the equivalent of one per cent of the average salary (including house rent at a valuation equivalent to fifteen per cent of the cash salary) of the regularly appointed Approved Supply Pastors of the Conference as computed by the Board of Conference Claimants; provided, however, that any Annual Conference may apply the same annuity rate to the claims of Special Conference Claimants as to the claims of the regular Conference Claimants.

Present § 3, no change, renumbered § 5.

§ 4 (renumbered § 6).

§ 5 (renumbered § 7). The regulations of the general Pension Code, including those on proportional payment and the claims of widows and children, shall apply to the administration of funds for special Conference Claimants with the exceptions specified in this Paragraph; provided, however, that all years of approved service of such Claimants shall be the direct responsibility of the Annual Conference in which the service was rendered and shall not involve clearinghouse operations.

§ 6 (renumbered § 8).

§ 7 (renumbered § 9).

§ 10. The following questions shall be added to the business of the Annual Conference: (a) "What Approved Supply Pastors are credited with annuity claim on account of full-time service during the past year?" (b) "What Approved Supply Pastors have been retired: This year? Previously?" (¶ 651.)

§ 7—No change.

§ 8—No change.

¶ 1633—No change.

¶ 1634. Liens on Annuities.—1. Whenever a Conference Claimant shall be in debt to the Conference or any of its organizations on account of unpaid assessments, obligations, or pledges for the benefit of Conference Claimants, such debt shall constitute a lien on the annuity of the person involved, and the Conference shall have power to appropriate and apply his or her annuity, or any part thereof, to the payment of such debt; provided, however, that not more than one quarter of the annuity payable by the Annual Conference in which the debt was incurred shall be appropriated in any year for such purpose, and provided, furthermore, that such power shall not be interpreted as applying to the settlement of other debts of a Conference Claimant.

§ 2—No change.

¶ 1635. Operation Through The Board of Pensions.—1. When authorized by the Annual Conference, the Board of Conference Claimants may deposit all or any part of the funds under its control with the proper Corporation of The Board of Pensions as set forth in ¶ 1601, § 2.

§ 2. The Annual Conference may authorize such Corporation to make the periodical payments to the Conference Claimants; and, in such case, the Board of Conference Claimants shall prepare annually a complete schedule of the plan of distribution for the guidance of such Corporation in making such payments, and shall co-operate fully with it, in order to ensure efficient and prompt service. Checks issued by such Corporation under the provisions of this section shall show plainly the name of the Conference for which the disbursements are made.

§ 3. Such Corporation shall be entitled to collect an annual service fee, figured on a cost basis, for the work specified in the preceding section.

§ 4. Such Corporation shall furnish annually to the Board of Conference Claimants a report showing full details of the transactions under § 2 of this Paragraph.

¶ 1636. Disallowance of Annuities.—Disallowance can be made only by the Annual Conference where membership is held or, in the case of a widow or minor dependent children, the Conference with which the claimant is directly connected. (¶ 1627.)

¶ 1637. Divided Annuity Responsibility.—1. The responsibility for annuity for approved years of service of a Conference Claimant shall rest with the Annual Conference in which the service was performed, or its legal successor.

§ 2. The clearinghouse system of distribution of divided annuity responsibility shall be continued. The clearinghouse figures shall be determined by the Board of Pensions, subject to such modifications as may be necessitated by the provisions of § 1 above. The Board of Pensions shall have authority to fix annually in advance the clearinghouse rate of annuity for each Annual Conference. The clearinghouse rate shall be based on a conservative estimate of the prospective income available for distribution and need not coincide with an annuity rate fixed subsequently by the Conference. In the event that the Conference fixes a higher rate than the clearinghouse rate, the difference shall be paid directly to all Claimants within and without the Conference.

§ 3—Delete.

§ 3. Beginning with the first of the Annual Conferences held after January 1, 1953, the Executive Secretaries of The Board of Pensions shall organize a unified clearinghouse system covering the territories of the Illinois and the Missouri Corporations respectively. Clearinghouse accounting for divided annuity responsibility shall be done for each territory separately, but with the provision that service in any case in the territory of the corporation other than the one doing the accounting shall be cleared through the other corporation and not through the individual Annual Conference concerned.

§ 4—Delete.

§ 4. The Board of Pensions is authorized and empowered to make all the rules concerning details that may be necessary to put this Paragraph into effect, and shall determine the distribution of service responsibility for each Conference Claimant involved in the operation of the clearinghouse.

§ 5—Delete.

§ 5. The fiscal year for clearinghouse operations shall be the calendar years.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS EFFECTIVE IN THE TERRITORY OF THE ILLINOIS CORPORATION

¶ 1638. Annuity Responsibility in Missions or Provisional Annual Conferences.—1. The responsibility for the annuity on account of years of approved service in a Mission or Provisional Annual Conference, within the United States, shall rest jointly with (1) the Mission or Provisional Annual Conference concerned, (2) the Illinois Corporation of The Board of Pensions, and (3) the Division of National Missions.

§ 2. The revenue for annuity purposes covering such service shall be provided by the Mission or Provisional Annual Conference concerned, the Illinois Corporation of The Board of Pensions, and the Division of National Missions in accordance with such plan or plans as may be mutually agreed to by the aforesaid parties.

§ 11. New entrant shall mean a minister who shall be admitted On Trial in an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference on or after the entry of such Conference into the Fund, including a minister who on May 1, 1952, was On Trial in a Conference which prior to that date had entered the Fund. (Approved service On Trial as defined in ¶ 1618, § 2, rendered by a minister, who became a member of the Fund prior to May 1, 1952, may be approved for annuity claim under the provision of the Pension Code, or under the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund as provided in ¶ 1644, § 5.)

§ 12. Previous entrant shall mean a minister in good standing On Trial or in Full Membership in an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference, prior to the entry of such Conference into the fund.

§ 13. Pension Code shall mean the rules and regulations concerning pensions and relief contained in ¶¶ 1614-41 inclusive.

¶ 1644. Membership.—1. The membership of the Fund shall consist of the new entrants in Annual or Provisional Annual Conferences in the United States of America.

§ 2—No change.

§ 3. First sentence—no change.

§ 3. Second sentence renumbered § 6.

§ 4. A member of the Fund shall be classed as a new entrant while serving in any Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund.

§ 5. The accrued service obligation of an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference under the Pension Code for a member of the Fund may be funded by such Conference upon entry into the Fund in such manner and amount as shall be satisfactory to the Executive officers of the corporation of The Board of Pensions concerned.

§ 6. When a member of the Fund shall transfer to an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference not participating in the Fund, he shall be subject to the provisions of the Pension Code for years served in such Conference; but upon subsequent entry into an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund such member shall resume contribution and receive credits therefrom.

¶ 1645. Contributions by the Conference.—1. Each Annual or Provisional Annual Conference that hereafter enters the Fund shall contribute annually thereto an amount equivalent to not less than nine per cent of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in the Pension Code) for each qualified member of the Conference who is also a member of the Fund; provided, however, that any Annual Conference shall continue the rate of contribution in force at the time it entered the Fund, with the right of increasing its rate of contribution to nine per cent, or more, computed on the basis hereinbefore provided.

§ 2. In case of the transfer of a member of the Fund into an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund the contribution required on behalf of such member shall be proportional to the number of days of service rendered such Conference during the Conference year in which the transfer shall have been effected.

§ 3. In case of the transfer of a member of the Fund out of an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund the contribution required on behalf of such member shall be proportional to the number of days of service rendered such Conference during the Conference year in which the transfer shall have been effected.

§ 2 (renumbered § 4).

§ 3 (renumbered § 5).

§ 4 (renumbered § 6).

§ 5 (renumbered § 7). A deficiency in the payment of the annual amount required of an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference shall reduce accordingly the service annuity credits of the members of the Fund in such Conference and also any other benefits provided by the Fund for them, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference as provided in § 8.

§ 6 (renumbered § 8).

§ 7—Delete.

§ 9. Each Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund shall elect quadrennially a Committee on Reserve Pensions, to consist of not fewer than five nor more than nine persons, whose duty it shall be to instruct the newly enrolled members of the Fund concerning the rules and regulations of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, to co-operate with The Board of Pensions in obtaining information from members as may be required by the Fund, and to adjudicate matters pertaining to contributions to the Fund; provided, however, that the duties of this Committee may be delegated to the Board of Conference Claimants.

§ 8 (renumbered § 10). When a member of the Annual Conference who is also a member of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund is under special appointment without annuity claim upon such Annual Conference, the organization he is serving shall contribute annually to the Fund the equivalent of the current contribution made on behalf of each qualified member of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund in good standing. Failure to make such contribution in any Conference year shall deprive the appointee concerned of service annuity credit for that Conference year.

¶ 1646—Delete §§ 1-4 and substitute the following:

§ 1646. Contributions by Members.—1. An annual contribution, the equivalent of three per cent of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in ¶ 1618, § 6 of the Pension Code), shall be paid directly to the Fund by each qualified member thereof in quarterly installments, payable in advance in accordance with the schedule of payment dates as determined by The Board of Pensions; provided, however, that if his support (as defined in ¶ 1643, § 2) be less than the average salary of the Conference, a member may elect to contribute annually the equivalent of three per cent of such support. Such contributions shall be applicable to income annuity credit only.

§ 2. In case of the transfer of a minister into an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund who, by reason of such transfer, becomes a member of the Fund the first installment due from him shall be that which next falls due for the members of the Fund in that Conference following the date of such transfer.

§ 3. In case a member of the Fund transfers out of an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund, the last installment due from him while he is a member of such Conference shall be that which normally falls due before the date of such transfer.

§ 4. In case the transfer of a member of the Fund is effected between Conferences, both of which are participating in the Fund, the amounts of the quarterly installments and the dates upon which installments fall due shall be adjusted in accordance with the schedule of payment dates for such Conferences as determined by The Board of Pensions.

§ 5—No change.

§ 6—No change.

¶ 1647. Service and Income Annuities.—1. No change.

§ 2—No change.

¶ 1648. Widows' Pension.—1. If a member of the Fund die prior to retirement, a pension shall be paid to his widow, based on her age and provided by the total of her deceased husband's personal contributions, together with the regular interest accumulated thereon, plus seventy per cent of his service annuity credits together with the regular interest accumulated thereon at the time of his death.

§ 2. If the pension of a widow be less than $600, at the discretion of The Board of Pensions she may be granted annually an additional amount; provided, however, that in such case the total of the pension and the grant received by her shall not exceed $600 per annum.

¶ 1649. Child's Pension.—1. Each unmarried minor child of a deceased member of the Fund may be granted an annuity of $150 until attainment of age sixteen, to be discontinued immediately thereafter, unless the child be enrolled and regularly attending a standard school or college.

§ 2. Upon presentation to it annually of a satisfactory certificate of enrollment, attendance, and work done in a standard school or college, The Board of Pensions may grant an unmarried child of a deceased member of the Fund an annuity of $300 from age sixteen until attainment of age twenty-one.

¶ 1650. Limitation of Annual Payments.—1. If a member of the Fund die prior to retirement, the total of the annual payments thereafter, in any year, to his widow and minor children shall not exceed seventy per cent of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in the pension code).

(¶ 1618, § 6).

§ 2—No change.

¶ 1651, § 1—No change.

§ 2—No change.

§ 3—No change.

§ 4—No change.

¶ 1652. Disability Benefits.—1. An annual disability allowance may be given to a disabled member of the Fund under age sixty-five if disability shall have been evident for a period of not less than one hundred eighty days, and the member shall have submitted to such examinations as may be required by The Board of Pensions, and it shall appear from the reports that his health has failed as a result of a disease or injury, and that presumably he is totally and permanently incapacitated for both ministerial work and the support of his family.

The annual disability allowance shall not exceed one third of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in the Pension Code. ¶ 1618, § 6). At the discretion of The Board of Pensions, the initial payment of the allowance may be made to cover all or any part of the waiting period of one hundred eighty days, or only the period of disability following the termination of the waiting period.

§ 6—No change.

§ 7—No change.

¶ 1653. Funds.—1. The annual contributions required in ¶ 1645, § 1, up to and including 9 per cent of the average salary of the Conference, shall be appropriated for the purposes of the Fund according to the following percentages:

Service Annuity Fund	70%
Disability, Widows' and Children's Fund	27%
Contingent Fund	3%

The amount of the contributions, in excess of 9 per cent of the average salary of the Conference, shall be allocated to the Service Annuity Fund.

§ 2. The seventy per cent of the contributions of an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference for the Service Annuity Fund shall be apportioned equally among its members in the effective relation and probationers who shall be also members of the Fund, except as provided in ¶ 1645, §§ 7, 8, 10, and shall be allocated to each of them annually. The amounts so allocated together with the regular interest thereon shall be held by The Board of Pensions for the service annuities described in ¶ 1647, § 1.

§ 3. The twenty-seven per cent of the contributions of the Annual or Provisional Annual Conference for the Disability, Widow's and Children's Fund shall be administered by The Board of Pensions as indicated in ¶¶ 1647-50, 1652.

§ 4—No change.

§ 5—No change.

§ 6—No change.

¶ 1654, § 1—No change.

§ 2—No change.

¶ 1655. Authorization.—1. The Board of Pensions is authorized, instructed, and empowered to put the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund plan as herein set forth into operation in any Annual or Provisional Annual Conference after such Conference shall have decided to enter and shall have made provision for the requisite Initial Reserve Fund specified herein.

¶ 1656—Delete entire and substitute the following:

¶ 1656. Partial Reserve Funding.—The Board of Pensions may make provision for partial reserve funding of annuities payable under the Pension Code as described in ¶¶ 1614-1641.

§ 1. An Annual or Provisional Annual Conference, at any time, on its own determination, by a two-thirds vote of its membership present and voting, may actively participate in the Partial Reserve Pension Fund, when it accepts the conditions and fulfills the requirements herein set forth.

§ 2. Membership.—(a) The membership of the Fund shall consist of the ministers who are On Trial or in Full Connection, in an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference which is actively participating in the Fund, and who are not members of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund.

(b) When a member of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund is received by transfer into a Conference participating in the Partial Reserve Pension Fund, but not in the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, he shall be subject to the provisions of the Partial Reserve Pension Fund for the years served in such Conference (§ 1644, § 3).

§ 3. Contributions by the Conference.—(a) Each Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund shall contribute annually to the credit of each qualified member of the Fund such sum as it may designate, based on a percentage of the average salary of the conference (as defined in the Pension Code, § 1618, § 6).

(b) Each Annual or Provisional Annual Conference shall determine the plan by which it shall secure the amount necessary to make the contributions required in § 3a and shall make suitable and adequate provision therefor.

(c) A deficiency in the payment of the annual amount required of an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference shall reduce accordingly the credits of the members of the Fund in such Conference.

(d) The provisions in § 1645, §§ 2, 3, shall determine the amount of contribution to the credit of a member of the Fund transferring into or out of a Conference actively participating in the Fund.

§ 4. Contributions by Members.—(a) An annual contribution, the equivalent of three per cent of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in § 1618, § 6 of the pension code), shall be paid directly to the Fund by each qualified member thereof in quarterly installments, payable in advance in accordance with the schedule of payment dates as determined by The Board of Pensions; provided, however, that if his support (as defined in § 1643, § 2) be less than the average salary of the Conference, a member may elect to contribute annually the equivalent of three per cent of such support. Such contributions shall be applicable to income annuity credit only.

(b) The provisions of § 1646, §§ 2, 3, 4, shall determine the amount and the date of payment of the contribution required of a member who transfers into or out of a Conference actively participating in the Fund.

(c) A member of the Partial Reserve Pension Fund, while he is a member of a Conference not participating in the said Fund, shall have the right to continue contributions toward the accumulations for providing income annuity.

§ 5. Each Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund shall elect quadrennially a Committee on Reserve Pensions, to consist of not fewer than five nor more than nine persons, whose duty it shall be to instruct the newly enrolled members of the Fund concerning the rules and regulations of the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, to co-operate with the Board of Pensions in obtaining information from members as may be required by the Fund, and to adjudicate matters pertaining to contributions to the Fund; provided, however, that the duties of this Committee may be delegated to the Board of Conference Claimants; and provided, furthermore, that this Committee shall be the same as that provided for in ¶ 1645, § 9, if and when such a Committee has been set up.

§ 6. Initial Reserve Fund.—(a) An Annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund may provide an Initial Reserve Fund from which there shall be allocated the annual contributions to the credit of the members of the Fund as required in § 3a.

(b) The amount of such Initial Reserve Fund shall be determined by the Board of Pensions on request of the Conference concerned.

(c) The Initial Reserve Fund and the earnings therefrom shall be used exclusively in financing the aforesaid annual contributions.

(d) The Board of Pensions shall determine the circumstances under which an Initial Reserve Fund shall be required of a Conference in order to participate in the Fund.

§ 7. Service and Income Annuities.—(a) A member of the Fund who shall have attained age sixty-five and who shall have been granted the retired relation shall receive thereafter during his lifetime, a service annuity. Upon the death of a member of the Fund while receiving a service annuity the equivalent of seventy per cent of such annuity shall be continued to his widow, if their marriage took place before the member entered into the service annuity.

The service annuity and the seventy per cent thereof to be continued to the widow shall be the actuarial equivalent of his allocated service annuity credits together with the regular interest accumulated thereon, determined on the basis of the actual ages of the member and his wife at the time of entry into the service annuity.

(b) An annual or Provisional Annual Conference participating in the Fund may regard the service annuity based upon the contributions made by such Conference as a part of the annuity provided for a Conference Claimant by such Conference under the Pension Code (§§ 1619, 1620, 1631).

(c) At the same time that a member of the Fund is granted a service annuity, he shall be entitled to an income annuity of a type identical with his service annuity, the amount thereof, to be the actuarial equivalent of his personal contributions to the Fund together with the regular interest accumulated thereon. The income annuity payable under the provisions of this section shall be considered as an addition to the pension normally provided under the Pension Code.

(d) The service annuity and the income annuity shall be determined according to the tables of annuity rates for such purpose in current use by The Board of Pensions.

§ 8. Widow's Pension.—If a member of the Fund die while in the effective or supernumerary relation, a pension shall be paid his widow, based on her age and provided by the total of her deceased husband's personal contributions together with the regular interest accumulated thereon, plus seventy per cent of his service annuity credits together with regular interest accumulated thereon at the time of his death.

§ 9. Refund.—The regulations concerning refunds as provided in § 1651 shall apply in the Partial Reserve Pension Fund.

Participation in the Partial Reserve Pension Fund does not imply any right of the participant to make a claim on The Board of Pensions for disability or other benefits not specifically provided for in this Paragraph.

§ 10. A Contingent Fund shall be created and administered by The Board of Pensions for the Partial Reserve Pension Fund to which shall be credited:

(a) The excess interest earnings above regular interest credited.

(b) The service annuity credits released when a minister ceases to be a member of the Fund.

(c) Any resources of the Partial Reserve Pension Fund not otherwise designated or allocated.

The Contingent Fund shall be used at the discretion of The Board of Pensions in such ways and for such purposes as in the judgment of the said Board shall best serve the interests of the Fund.

§ 11. The Board of Pensions is hereby authorized to administer the Fund and to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the efficient operation of the Fund, subject to the limitation that this power shall not be exercised so as to nullify any of the disciplinary provisions of the plan.

CHAPTER VIII

LAY EMPLOYEES PENSION FUND

(Adopted May 3, 1952, see page 561)

¶ 1658, § 1—No change.

§ 2. Definition.—(a) Employer shall mean any church, Board, Commission, Agency, institution, organization, or ecclesiastical office in the United States of America listed in the book of Discipline of The Methodist Church or in the directory printed in the journal of any Annual Conference of The Methodist Church situated in the United States of America.

(b)—No change.

(c)—No change.

(d)—No change.

(e)—No change.

§ 3. Contributions.—(a) Any employer may become a participating employer by indicating its intention so to do on appropriate forms provided therefor, and contributing to the fund annually a sum equivalent to not less than six per cent (6%) of the amount of compensation paid to its lay employees except as hereinafter provided in § 3c. If house rent, board, lodging, or similar accommodations be furnished a participating lay employee by a participating employer, then a sum equivalent to the reasonable value thereof shall be added to the amount of compensation aforesaid for the purpose of computing said contribution.

(b) Each participating employer shall deduct from the compensation of its lay employees at the time such compensation is paid, and the accommodations set forth in § 3a are furnished, a sum equivalent to not less than three per cent (3%) of the same amount used in the computation set forth in § 3a, except as hereinafter provided in § 3c, which sum shall be forwarded to the Illinois Corporation concurrently with the contribution set forth in § 3a.

(c) The minimum amount of the contribution required of a participating employer as set forth in § 3a and the minimum amount of the contribution required of a participating lay employee as set forth in § 3b may be adjusted by agreement with the Illinois Corporation if and when such participating employer and such participating lay employee are concurrently participating in some other pension program in addition to the Lay Employees Pension Fund.

(c) (relettered (d)).

(d) (relettered (e)). Any participating employer may contribute to the Fund, for the credit of any of its participating lay employees on account of his or her services rendered in prior years to such participating employer, such amount as may be agreed upon between such participating employer and the Illinois Corporation.

(f) The participating employer shall remit quarterly or monthly to the Fund the amounts contributed by such participating employer as provided in § 3a and the amounts deducted from the compensation of its participating employees as provided in § 3b.

§ 4—No change.

§ 5—No change.

§ 6—Retirement.—(a) No change.

(b) At the time of retirement, a participating lay employee may request and, subject to the approval of the Illinois Corporation, a joint and survivorship annuity may be paid to such participating lay employee and to his or her spouse or to such participating employee and some other person designated by such participating employee. Such annuity shall be computed on the same actuarial basis as provided for in § 6a.

§ 7—No change.

§ 8. Termination of Employment.—(a) In the event the employment of any participating lay employee shall be terminated prior to his or her retirement, the aggregate amount of the contributions made by such participating lay employee, together with the interest credited thereon, shall be returned to the participating lay employee, and thereupon such participating lay employee shall have no further interest in or claim upon the Fund; provided, however, that if the participating lay employee allows his or her contributions to remain in the Fund until he or she attains age sixty, then the contributions made by the participating employer on account of such participating lay employee shall likewise remain in the Fund, and when he or she attains age sixty, the aggregate sum standing to the credit of such participating lay employee on the books of the Fund shall be used to provide an annuity for such participating lay employee on the same basis as set forth in §§ 6a and 6b.

(b) In the event the employment of any participating lay employee shall be terminated and the Illinois Corporation shall return his or her contributions, as provided in § 8a, the actual amount of the contributions made by the participating employer on account of such participating employee shall be returned to the participating employer.

§ 9—(a) No change.

(b) No change.

(c) No change.

(d) Delete.

§ 10. Certificates.—The Illinois Corporation shall issue to each participating lay employee a Certificate of Participation.

Said Illinois Corporation shall provide for each participating lay employee a copy of the rules of the Fund affecting participating lay employees that may be published from time to time by said Illinois Corporation.

§ 11. Fees.—Each participating employer shall pay annually to the Illinois Corporation on account of each participating lay employee the sum of three dollars ($3.00).

§ 12. Allocation of Interest.—The Illinois Corporation shall have the sole and exclusive right to determine the amount of interest which shall be credited annually at the close of the fiscal year of said Illinois Corporation to the accounts of the participating lay employees.

§ 14 (renumbered § 13).

§ 15 (renumbered § 14).

CHAPTER IX

PENSIONS SPECIALLY FUNDED

¶ 1659—Delete entire and substitute the following:

¶ 1659, § 1. Effective June 1, 1948, any person then resident within the United States who was then serving as a Secretary of an effective Bishop of The Methodist Church or who had previously served as a Secretary of an effective Bishop or Bishops of The Methodist Church and was then serving or thereafter shall serve in any form of employment connected with The Methodist Church upon retirement or being no longer in the employ of a Bishop, Board or Agency of The Methodist Church and upon attainment of age sixty shall be entitled to make an annuity claim upon the Episcopal Fund for the secretarial service rendered an effective Bishop or Bishops prior to June 1, 1948.

§ 2. The Bishops, Boards or Agencies respectively shall be responsible for informing their employees concerning their pension rights under this Paragraph and shall notify all who are involved in providing the pension.

§ 3. Effective June 1, 1952, the full-time lay employees of an effective Bishop resident in the United States of America shall be enrolled as participating lay employees in the Lay Employees Pension Fund of The Methodist Church, in accordance with the rules and regulations of said Fund as set forth in ¶ 1658.

§ 4. As the participating employer of such participating lay employee/s the Bishop shall deduct the required contributions from the compensation of such participating lay employee/s and shall forward such amounts concurrently with the required employer's contributions to the Fund; provided, however, that the employer's contributions shall be paid from the allowances made by the Episcopal Fund or other sources for office expense of the Bishop.

§ 5. Effective June 1, 1952, The Board of Pensions shall transfer the individual accounts held for Secretaries, Assistant Secretaries or other office employees of a Bishop, to-bility it shall be to study the operation of the various Pension Fund, and thereafter such employees shall be enrolled as participating lay employees in the Lay Employees Pension Fund, as provided in § 3 of this Paragraph.

¶ 1660—Delete and insert the following:

¶ —. The Board of Pensions shall appoint a Committee on Pension Legislation for the Quadrennium 1952-1956 from its membership which shall consist of two Bishops, one minister, and one layman from each Jurisdiction whose responsibility it shall be to study the operation of the various Pension Programs and to present recommendations to the General Conference of 1956. This Committee shall have a claim on the General Administration Fund for an amount not to exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000) for expenses during the quadrennium. Special consideration shall be given to the following:

1. The feasibility of providing for minimum pensions for ministers and widows of ministers.
2. Methods of making apportionments to the pastoral charges for the support of Conference Claimants.
3. In co-operation with the Division of National Missions, the allocation of pension responsibility on account of approved service of ministers given to pastoral charges in a mission or a Provisional Annual Conference prior to or after merger with an Annual Conference.
4. The feasibility of arranging for reciprocity with the Pension Plans of other denominations in cases of ministers transferring their ministerial standing to or from The Methodist Church.
5. A uniform Staff Pension System for the General Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church.
6. A plan for reciprocal acceptance of pension responsibility by Methodist institutions on account of service given two or more such institutions.
7. In co-operation with the Council on World Service and Finance, a plan for the reserve funding of the pensions of Bishops and widows of Bishops.
8. The feasibility of providing legislation permitting the approval by an Annual Conference of the annuity claim of the divorced wife of a ministerial member or former ministerial member of an Annual Conference.
9. In co-operation with the National Council of the Churches of Christ, to study the desirability and feasibility of the inclusion of the service of Ministers in Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance (O.A.S.I.) on a voluntary basis; provided, however, that in the event that legislation is presented to the Congress of the United States relative to this matter during the quadrennium, the Council of Bishops, the Council of World Service and Finance, the Council of Secretaries, and The Board of Pensions shall be authorized to take such joint action as they may deem to be advisable.

SUBJECT: BISHOPS ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION

Your Committee had before it Memorial No. 1169 referring to "Bishops on the Board of Publication." Your Committee recommends that Paragraph 1110, Section II of the Discipline be amended to include the additional words, "In addition there shall be upon the Board of Publication two Bishops who shall be elected by the Council of Bishops, each for a term of four years, and who shall be ineligible to succeed themselves as members upon the said Board. Vacancies in the episcopal membership of the Board shall be filled by the Council of Bishops" after the words "unexpired term" in next to the last line of the Paragraph, so that the Paragraph when amended shall read:

Paragraph 1110. The Board of Publication shall be constituted by the respective Jurisdictional Conferences, with a representation of each in proportion to church membership upon a basis of one member of the Board for each 150,000 church members or major fraction thereof within the Jurisdiction; provided that no Jurisdictional Conference shall have fewer than three members, and provided, further, that the ministers and laymen shall be in equal number, as nearly as possible. In case a Jurisdictional Conference by the ratio has an odd number of representatives it shall decide whether the major number of its representatives shall be ministers or laymen. The term of office of the members of the Board shall be eight years, but in the first election, one half shall be elected for only four years, the Conference determining in case of an odd number. In case a vacancy occurs between sessions of the Jurisdictional Conference for any cause, including removal from the Jurisdiction, the Board shall fill the vacancy from that Jurisdiction in whose representation the vacancy occurs until the next session of the Jurisdictional Conference. The Jurisdictional Conference after such a vacancy occurs shall elect a successor to fill the unexpired term. In addition there shall be upon the Board of Publication two Bishops who shall be elected by the Council of Bishops, each for a term of four years, and who shall be ineligible to succeed themselves as members upon the said Board. Vacancies in the episcopal membership of the Board shall be filled by the Council of Bishops. The Publishing Agents shall be ex officio members of the Board without vote.

Your Committee had before it Memorial No. 615 on the subject "Publishing House to Be Represented at the Meeting of the Council of Secretaries."

The Committee voted concurrence with the recommendation that the Publishing Agents be advisory members of the Council of Secretaries, without vote, and recommends that Paragraph 751, Section III, Chapter II, be amended by adding after the words "Boards and Agencies" at the end of the Paragraph the following words: in addition to the above the Publishing Agents shall be advisory members of the Council of Secretaries, without vote, so that the Paragraph will read as follows:

Par. 751. The General Boards and Agencies participating in the World Service Fund shall, severally and co-operatively, promote throughout the Church the World Service Program and the causes represented therein. To the end that duplication, overlapping, and competition may be eliminated, the work of promotion is especially committed to the Executive Secretaries of the said participating General Boards and Agencies and the Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance, organized as a Council of Secretaries. The Council shall co-ordinate the promotion of the causes represented in the total World Service Program of the Church, shall prepare and publish such materials as will inform our people concerning the same, and shall use such means as they judge to be most effective to enlist their full and hearty support. The expense of the promotion committed to the Council of Secretaries shall be a prior claim on the World Service Fund, and shall be payable before distribution is made to the respective Boards and Agencies.

In addition to the above the Publishing Agents shall be advisory members of the Council of Secretaries, without vote.

REPORT NO. 7. PUBLISHING INTERESTS

M, 53; P, 45; F, 42; A, 0; N, 3

SUBJECT: QUADRENNIAL REPORT OF BOARD OF PUBLICATION
TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

MEMORIAL: SERIAL NO. SUMMARY REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

With reference to the Quadrennial Report of the Board of Publication, which was referred by the General Conference to the Committee on Publishing Interests, the Committee submits the following summary report:

It has been said that "Every generation must make its past serve its future" and this applies with particular emphasis to such an institution as The Methodist Publishing House, whose past extends back through a period of 163 years.

A Report such as this can emphasize cold figures, and in this instance they pay eloquent tribute to the business ability of the management of our Publishing House, but we feel it proper to keep in mind at all times the historical past of this institution. By doing this, by keeping in mind at all times the vision, courage, ideals and perseverance of those who pledged their resources in order to launch the publishing work of the young Church, we realize the quality of Methodist leadership back of them. They and all they represent from the past, serve to inspire us to a greater and more useful future.

Your Committee feels that emphasis in this year's Report can very properly be placed first upon some phases of service rendered during the quadrennium rather than upon business statistics.

We desire to refer first to "The Interpreter's Bible," which has become a fact during the quadrennium, realizing a dream which has been before the Board of Publication for more than two quadrenniums. It is difficult to put into words an adequate tribute to this undertaking. Press and speakers have undertaken such tribute, but it should be borne in mind that your Board of Publication, in launching this venture, undertook a project far beyond anything ever projected in the field of religious publishing. This 12-volume Commentary represented faith on the part of the Board of Publication, but in this case faith had to be matched with approximately half a million dollars before a single volume could be placed on sale, and when the project is completed it will represent an investment of more than $1,000,000. Recogn-nition of the service rendered by the Board of Publication is proper, but such recognition should also include the names of Dr. Fred D. Stone and B. A. Whitmore, Publishing Agents at the time the project was inaugurated, and Mr. Pat Beard, Director of Publishing.

While it is reported that the project is meeting with success far beyond earlier expectations, we should not lose sight of the faith and vision which has made it possible. No one can estimate the good that will come to the cause of Christ and His Church through the publication of this great work. It is gratifying to know that "The Interpreter's Bible" has been honored by the publishing industry as one of the outstanding creative publishing projects of the year. Certainly it is in line with the vision of John Wesley and particularly that of John Dickins, whose $600 started Methodist publishing on its way.

The Methodist Church has every reason to point with pride to this conspicuous undertaking but it is only one of many contributions rendered by the Publishing House. Signal service has been rendered during the quadrennium in the field of books, periodicals, church-school literature and audio-visual education.

During the quadrennium the program of book publishing has been appreciably enlarged. The name Abingdon-Cokesbury is recognized in the field of religious publishing as identified with books of exceptionally high order. This branch of the Publishing House serves as a wide interdenominational reading constituency. During the quadrennium there have been produced 242 new cloth-bound, 512 reprints of cloth-bound books old and new, 307 different titles in paper binding, and 507 pamphlet printings, resulting in a total of 7,297,475 volumes of all types produced and distributed throughout the world. Approximately 1,800 manuscripts were submitted for consideration during the quadrennium, indicating somewhat the volume of editorial work involved in the publishing of books. It is noteworthy that a number of those manuscripts when published have been selected by religious book clubs and have been honored by the American Library Association.

The Methodist Publishing House through The Board of Publication is responsible for The Christian Advocate, the Central Christian Advocate, and Religion in Life. Statistics indicate that these ventures represent a financial loss. The Reports of the Publishing Agents indicate that every effort is being made to reduce these deficits. This is commendable and these efforts should not be abated in the least, but it is well in such instances to keep in mind at the same time the services rendered by them. The value of many Methodist services cannot be measured in dollars and cents and certainly this applies to such publications as these.

Your Committee notes with satisfaction that many compliments are heard concerning improvements made in these publications, particularly The Christian Advocate. The Board of Publication has had a Special Committee working for the past two years and many improvements have resulted from the work of this group. This work should be a source of satisfaction to the Church, but it should be in order to place upon the hearts of Methodists the part they can play continuing the improvement of these publications. The Christian Advocate could have a circulation of a million copies per issue if our people will give their paper the co-operation it deserves. This means a challenge to the lay members of the Church, but even a heavier responsibility upon our ministers. Ministers should give greater support to Religion in Life or consent to its discontinuance.

The Publishing House has rendered outstanding service in the field of Church School literature. The Church should understand that this has been produced in co-operation with the Editorial Division of the Board of Education, the responsibility for the editorial content of the literature resting with that body and the responsibility for publishing and distribution resting with The Publishing House. There are now 71 Church School publications, certainly an impressive figure, the circulation of this material now reaching a total of 5,613,046 per issue.

The quadrennium has marked a substantial increase in the publication of children's books, and an excellent start is being made in the field of fiction, it being felt there is need today for such books at a time when there is so much literature which parents feel should not be in our homes.

We note in the report of The Publishing House a new department—Audio-Visual Service. This Department has grown so rapidly during the quadrennium that it is now the largest distributor of religious films in America. For the year ending May 31, 1951, film rental amounted to $214,343, a gain of 225 per cent in four years. A continuance of this gratifying record may be anticipated.

While emphasis has been placed upon service, the business side of the record of The Publishing House during the quadrennium is very impressive. It should be a source of gratification to our Church to know that The Methodist Publishing House is today probably the largest religious publishing house in America if not the world. It is the conviction of this Committee that such a record would not be possible if the institution was failing to live up to the vision of John Wesley and its founder in America.

The assets of The Methodist Publishing House are in excess of $14,000,000, representing an increase in net worth during the quadrennium of $2,514,178. Additions to the printing plant at Nashville during the past quadrennium represents a total of more than $1,500,000, with more than $850,000 invested in new equipment. The Publishing House is now able to produce the highest grade of printing in both the letter-press and offset fields.

The greatest service rendered the Church is revealed in the millions of dollars worth of books, periodicals, tracts, Church School and other religious literature supplied to The Methodist Church annually. The educational and spiritual value of the work of our oldest Methodist agency is beyond computation.

During the past quadrennium a total of $1,600,000 has been paid to Conference Claimants. It is impossible to estimate the value of this service. This is a large sum of money—it means a great deal to those who receive it, and at the same time we should endeavor to have in mind the results in many homes had the money not been received.

The Publishing House is today operating in 16 different cities. There are 12 regional houses which handle mail order business and serve as retail outlets. There are Cokesbury stores in two other cities and a book room in still another city. We note that improvements have been made in the facilities of these stores. Our store at Dallas, Texas, is now recognized as the finest book store in the world.

The soundness of the organizational structure of The Methodist Publishing House is important. The statistical records found in the Quadrennial Reports of the agencies of the Church indicate that this structure under the administration of the Publishing Agents is sound, that the business is ably administered through five administrative divisions—Sales, Publishing, Manufacturing, Accounting and Public Relations and Personnel.

In closing this Report your Committee feels that recognition should be given two agencies which appear to us to be responsible for the outstanding success of The Methodist Publishing House. The two Publishing Agents, Lovick Pierce and Dr. Roy L. Smith, have rendered service of exceptionally high order. We compliment their stewardship.

Back of the Publishing Agents, however, stands The Board of Publication and your Committee feels the Church owes this group of men a deep debt of gratitude. The entire Board, its Executive Committee and various other Committees have gone far beyond what might reasonably be expected of them and this Report would be incomplete without recognition of their service to Methodism.

It is likewise in order to recognize the service rendered by the 1,800 employees of The Publishing House. Without their loyalty and devotion to the Church such a Report as we have received would hardly be possible. Too often it is customary to recognize the services rendered by those at the top of an enterprise and overlook the teamwork which must prevail through the organization to make the work of the leaders effective.

It is abundantly evident that the foundations of The Methodist Publishing House are embedded deeply in the vision and faith of the circuit-riding Methodist pioneers who believed Methodism should operate its own publishing business to assure the Church the quality of product that would advance the cause of Christ and His Church. Those pioneers commissioned the publishing branch to pay its own way, through efficiency and economy of operation, show a net produce that could be used for the relief of our veterans of Christian service. The record since Union at Kansas City is good, we take pride in it and commend the agency of the Church which has made it possible.

REPORT NO. 8. PUBLISHING INTERESTS

M, 53; P, 43; F, 41; A, 0; N, 2

SUBJECT: PUBLISHING INTERESTS—CORPORATE STRUCTURE OF THE METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE

Calendar No. 65. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 642.

Your Committee recommends that Part VII, Chapter I, Section I of the 1948 Discipline of The Methodist Church, dealing with the Corporate Structure of The Methodist Publishing House be amended as follows:

Delete Paragraph 1104, which reads as follows:

"Paragraph 1104. The several corporations through and by means of which the publishing interests shall be conducted by the Board of Publication shall be collectively known as The Methodist Publishing House, each corporation having power to transact its business under its own corporate name, as the Board may direct."

Renumber Paragraph 1107 as Paragraph 1104 and amend to delete the words "several corporations," in the first line, and substitute therefor the words "operations of The Meth- odist Publishing House," so that the Paragraph will then read as follows:

"P. 1104. The net produce of the operations of The Methodist Publishing House, after setting up proper reserves for the efficient operation of the business and necessary expansion, shall be paid into a single fund and distributed annually by The Board of Publication to the several Annual Conferences for the persons who are and shall be Conference claimants."

Delete Paragraph 1105, which reads as follows:

"Paragraph 1105. The four corporations, known by the following names, to wit: The Methodist Book Concern, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of New York; The Methodist Book Concern, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Ohio; The Board of Publication of the Methodist Protestant Church, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania; and the Book Agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Tennessee; shall be presently continued, the members of the Board of Publication serving and acting as Trustees and Directors of each such corporation. The Board is empowered and authorized to continue the printing and manufacturing business of the Church at New York, Cincinnati, Chicago, Nashville, Pittsburgh, and Baltimore, and later to combine the allocated activities into a smaller number of publishing units as the Board may determine to be for the best interest of the whole Church; provided that one of the principal plants shall be continued within the present territory served from the Publishing House located at Nashville, Tennessee. Branch houses, distributing agencies, depositories, and offices may be established or continued or discontinued, in the discretion of the Board."

Renumber Paragraph 1109 as Paragraph 1105 and amend to delete the words of "each of the several corporations," in the first line, and "legitimate business" in the third line, substituting for the matter so deleted in the third line the word operations, so that the Paragraph will read as follows:

"P. 1105. The income of The Methodist Publishing House shall be appropriated to no other purpose than its own operations, and the distribution of net produce, after setting up proper reserves as above provided."

Amend Paragraph 1106 by deleting the words "first elected under this Discipline," in the first and second line, so that the Paragraph will read as follows:

"P. 1106. The members of The Board of Publication, and their successors in office, are declared to be the successors of the incorporators named in the charters of The Methodist Book Concern issued by the States of New York and Ohio, and in the charter of the Board of Publication of the Methodist Protestant Church issued by the State of Pennsylvania. The Publishing Agents elected from time to time under this or any subsequent Discipline are declared to be the successors in office of the Book Agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, named in the charter issued to the corporation of that name by the State of Tennessee."

Insert a new paragraph to be designated as Paragraph 1107, which shall read as follows:

"P. 1107. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph 1103, and to the continuing control and direction of the General Conference of The Methodist Church as set forth from time to time in the Discipline, The Board of Publication is authorized, empowered and directed to cause the operations of The Methodist Publishing House to be carried on, and the objects defined in Paragraph 1102 achieved, in such manner, through or by means of such agencies or instrumentalities and by use of such procedures as such Board may from time to time determine to be necessary, advisable or appropriate, with full power and authority in the premises to take all such action and to do all such other acts and things as may be required or found to be advisable; in particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, The Board of Publication is authorized and empowered, for the purposes of this Chapter (1) to use, manage, operate and otherwise utilize all property and assets of every kind, character and description of the four existing corporations, namely—

The Methodist Book Concern,

a corporation existing under the laws of the State of New York,

The Methodist Book Concern,

a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Ohio,

The Board of Publication of the Methodist Protestant Church, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, and

The Book Agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Tennessee—as well as all income from such property and assets and the avails thereof, all with liability or obligation to account for such property and assets, the use thereof, the income therefrom and avails thereof only to the General Conference of The Methodist Church or as it shall direct; (2) in its discretion to cause to be created and established a new corporation to bear the name and style of The Methodist Publishing House, under the charter of which the operations and functions of The Methodist Publishing House may be carried on and executed; and (3) to cause each of said existing corporations to take all such action and to do all such things as the Board of Publication may deem necessary or advisable to carry out the intent and purposes of this Paragraph 1107. The governing body of each of said corporations from time to time shall take all action which The Board of Publication deems to be necessary or advisable to carry out the intent and purposes of this Paragraph 1107. The Board of Publication shall cause all legal obligations of said four corporations, now existing or hereafter incurred, to be met, fulfilled and performed.

Delete existing Paragraph 1108, reading as follows:

Paragraph 1108. The property and proceeds of each corporation shall be held and managed separately, without transfer of funds or obligations of credit between them. and insert a new Paragraph 1108, which shall read as follows:

"Par. 1108. In the event of the creation and establishment of The Methodist Publishing House, incorporated as authorized by Paragraph 1107, the property profits and income of such new corporation shall be held by it as an agency of The Methodist Church and shall be subject to the control and direction of the General Conference of The Methodist Church, as set forth from time to time in the Discipline. In carrying out and executing its operations and functions, such new corporation shall be entitled to use, manage, operate and otherwise utilize all property and assets of each of the four existing corporations, identified in Paragraphs 1106 and 1107, of every kind, character and description (other than its corporate powers and franchises) and all income therefrom and avails thereof, for the purposes and objects defined in Paragraph 1102, 1104, and 1105. The governing body of each of the four existing corporations from time to time shall take all such action which The Board of Publication deems to be necessary or advisable to carry out the intent and purposes of this Paragraph. Such new corporation shall assume all legal obligations of each of the four existing corporations in force at the time the new corporation commences operations. The new corporation and The Board of Publication shall be without obligation to account for principal or income to any of the four existing corporations or otherwise report to them, except that the new corporation shall return to each of the four existing corporations custody and control of the latter's real property and account for the net amount of any other assets received from such existing corporation, if and when such return and accounting shall be directed or required by The Board of Publication of the General Conference.

SUBJECT: CONSECRATION OF DIRECTORS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Page 652.

Supplementary Report and Recommendations of the Commission on Worship to the General Conference of The Methodist Church at San Francisco following the meeting of the Commission at Hollywood, California, April 20-21, 1952.

The Commission on Worship respectfully begs leave to bring to the attention of the General Conference these recommendations contained in its printed Report and additional recommendations formulated and adopted at its meetings since the preparation of the Report.

1. In accordance with Paragraph 1454 of the 1948 Discipline, viz.: "Certified Directors of Christian education may be consecrated and commissioned at a session of an Annual Conference or other suitable time, for which a ritual shall be provided and published in the Discipline of 1952." We recommend—the adoption and inclusion in the Ritual of The Methodist Church of an order for the Consecration of Certified Directors of Christian Education for use at Annual Conferences. (See exhibit A.)

It is specifically recommended that the order be used as stipulated at the time of the report of the Conference Board of Education, or other suitable time and place, subject to the approval of the Annual Conference Program Committee, but that it be not used in connection with the Conference Ordination Service.

2. In accordance with repeated requests, we recommend—the adoption and inclusion in the Ritual of The Methodist Church of an order Licensing to Preach. (See exhibit B.)

3. The Commission had before it an order for the Organization of a New Church (see exhibit C) prepared by the Rev. Allen T. Newby of Chattanooga, Tennessee. We recommend—

(a) that we recognize the value of having a proper form for the celebration for so important step as the Organization of a New Church.

(b) that further study be given to this matter by both the Committee on Ritual of the General Conference and the Commission on Worship.

(c) that when a suitable order has been prepared it be printed and made available for optional use pending its approval by the General Conference.

4. The Commission had before it a proposal which has also been submitted as a Memorial to the General Conference providing for the "Inclusion in The Book of Worship of The Psalter and Other Responsive Readings, Arranged in the Order of the Church Calendar; and Insertion in The Hymnal of an Index of These Scripture Passages in Like Order."

Although the Commission finds it impractical to incorporate these suggestions in any future printing of the present editions of either the Methodist Hymnal or the Book of Worship, we believe that they are well worthy of consideration and therefore we recommend that they be given further study.

5. In order to meet certain difficulties encountered in the present wording of the Order for the Reception of Members, namely, the confusion of the word "presence" with "presents," we recommend the following changes in the Order for Reception of Members in the Ritual of The Methodist Church—instead of the question:

"Will you be loyal to The Methodist Church and uphold it by your prayers, your presence, your gifts and your service?"

the question should read:

"Will you be loyal to The Methodist Church and uphold it by your attendance, your prayers, your gifts and your service?"

6. Because of the basic character of this concern of the Church we recommend—that in the organizational structure of the Church a Commission on Worship be continued, and that its scope of interest and responsibility be widened to include the fine arts in their service to the Church (the Commission might then be called “Commission on Worship and the Fine Arts”).

7. In response to a need repeatedly expressed, we recommend that one of the tasks to be undertaken by this Commission during the next quadrennium shall be the preparation of a Manual for the guidance of ministers in all matters pertaining to the conduct of public worship, the administration of the Sacraments, and other ordinances of the Church.

8. Since some Annual Conferences have Commissions or Committees on Worship, but the majority of Conferences do not, we recommend that the General Conference encourage the appointment of such a Standing Commission in each Annual Conference whose duty it shall be to foster the use of the best resources for worship at Annual Conference meetings and in all the churches of the Conference; and that the General Conference Commission on Worship offer to such Commissions its co-operation in the conduct of seminars or workshops on Worship on the Conference or other level.

Respectfully submitted,

AN ORDER OF SERVICE FOR THE CONSECRATION OF CERTIFIED DIRECTORS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

This service shall be in the charge of the presiding Bishop who will ask the Chairman of the Conference Board of Education and the candidates to come to the chancel. The Bishop should then declare what are the office and duty of a Director of Christian Education, as follows:

The Bishop: Dearly beloved, we rejoice that there is a vocation within the Church for those persons who have been called to serve Christ in the field of Christian Education. It is the office of a Director of Christian Education to assist the pastor in guiding the work of Christian Education in the local church. It is the duty of a Director of Christian Education, through personal endeavor and through the service of others, to lead the people to Christ, to inform them of the way of Christ, and to guide their growing understanding of how to live as Christians.

The Chairman of the Conference Board of Education shall then present those to be consecrated saying:

I present to you these persons, having been duly certified, to be consecrated Directors of Christian Education:—in The Methodist Church. (He shall then give the full name and church of each candidate.)

Their names having been read aloud, the Bishop shall say to the people to be consecrated:

Dearly beloved, we rejoice that you have purposed in your hearts to devote yourselves to this task. You are to be among those who serve and teach. Such a vocation confers a great privilege; it also lays upon you a solemn responsibility. What you have done alone with God in consecrating yourselves to this service, we now ask you to declare publicly in the presence of this congregation.

Do you believe in your heart that you have been led by the Spirit of God to engage in Christian Education and to assume its responsibilities?

I do so believe.

Will you be diligent in prayer, in the reading of the Holy Scriptures, and in other studies necessary to the development of a program of Christian education?

I will, the Lord being my helper.

Will you strive so to live that the power of God may be manifest in your life, enabling you through a program of Christian Education to bring others to an awareness of the presence of God and to become disciples of Our Lord Christ?

I will, by God's Grace.

Will you maintain and set forward, as much as lieth in you, quietness, peace, and love among all Christian people, and especially among them that shall be committed to your charge?

I will do so, the Lord being my helper.

Will you be loyal to the Church and accept the authority of those to whom the Church has committed the direction of your work?

I will, the Lord being my helper.

The candidates will kneel.

The Bishop's dedicatory prayer:

O eternal God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, look upon these thy servants whom we this day consecrate Directors of Christian Education.

Grant that they may have strength of body, mind, and soul for the fulfillment of Thy will, that they may worthily discharge the work committed to them, to the blessing of mankind and the glory of Christ our Savior. Amen.

EXHIBIT "B"

An Order of Service for Licensing Men to Preach in The Methodist Church.

The pastor of the church of which the candidate is a member shall arise and present his candidate (or candidates) to the District or Quarterly Conference: "Brethren, I present unto you to be licensed by you to preach the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ under the auspices of The Methodist Church."

District Superintendent: "Take heed that this person (these persons), whom you present unto us this day, is (are) fitted in character and skill for this sacred vocation."

Pastor of the church: "The church has inquired diligently concerning him (them) and has examined him (them) and found him (them) so to be."

District Superintendent: "Brethren, you have heard the recommendation of these men by your pastor. If there be any of you who knows any reason why any one of them should not be licensed to preach the gospel, let him arise now and declare the same. All vocations are sacred in the sight of the Lord who created all things and sanctified them by the power of his Spirit. Especially precious in his sight is the preaching of his Word."

Scripture Lesson:

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the godliness thereof is as the flower of the field: The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; because the spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand for ever. (Isaiah 40:1-8.)

Prayer:

Almighty God, whose word is truth and in the keeping of which is eternal life, we thank thee for these men whom we set aside in thy name today as preachers of thy gospel. Prepare them in body, mind, and spirit for their task and continue them in thy grace that they may increase and bless the Church through their labor. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the District Superintendent shall ask each of the candidates the following questions:

Question: "Do you believe you are moved by the Holy Spirit to preach the word of God?"

Answer: "I do."

Question: "Will you strive to live a life in keeping with what you preach?"

Answer: "I will."

District Superintendent: "Take thou authority to preach the truths of the Old and New Testament in The Methodist Church."

Benediction:

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

RITUAL FOR ORGANIZING A NEW METHODIST CHURCH

Prelude

Declaration of Purpose

Dear Friends: The Church is the household, established by Christ for the maintenance of Christian fellowship, the promotion of worship, the administration of his word and ordinances and the conversion of the world. All of every age and station stand in need of the strength and grace which His Church supplies.

As Christ called his disciples into a sacred fellowship, thus are we drawn together with that same bond of Christian love, to become a redeeming body in the society of men. We have assembled here for that high purpose, to form a new band of Christian believers, within the family of The Methodist Church yet a living part of Christ's Universal Church. To that end we dedicate ourselves and this hour.

Hymn 164—"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" (print words for congregation).

Scripture Reading (Jeremiah 32:37-41).

Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may love me forever, for the good of them, and of their children after them; and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my love in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soul.

Litany

O God, for the freedom to band together for Christian fellowship, worship and work,

We Lift Our Voices in Thanks.

For those courageous men and women who struggled and suffered that the Cross of Christ might be ours today,

We Lift Our Voices in Thanks.

As neighbors who yearn for a church in this community,

We Give Thee Our Thanks.

For the opportunity this church will afford people of all ages, classes, nationalities and races to share in Christian fellowship,

We Give Thee Our Thanks.

For the chance to share with Thee, O God, in the creative process of Thy Kingdom,

We Give Thee Our Thanks.

To the purpose of creating this church for the ages to come,

We Pledge Ourselves This Day.

To the end of making it a faithful member of the brotherhood in Christ, striving for justice, peace and righteous living,

We Pledge Ourselves This Day.

O God, our hearts rejoice with a great joy this hour, we feel Thy love and leadership, guiding us on in this enterprise of a new church that shall be a radiant center of Thy light, truth and love forever.

Reception of Members.

Before this new church is constituted it is fitting and proper that all persons desiring to share in its establishment should pledge their vows to Christ and to this Church. Therefore, you coming recommended by other churches, and you coming for the first time to the threshold of membership in God's house, should here publicly express your vows, confess your faith and declare your purposes, by answering the following questions:

Do you here in the presence of God and this congregation renew the solemn promise and vow that was made at your baptism?

I do.

Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Saviour and Lord, and pledge your allegiance to His Kingdom?

I do.

Do you receive and profess the Christian faith as contained in the New Testament of our Lord Jesus Christ?

I do.

Will you be loyal to The Methodist Church, and uphold it by your prayers, your presence, your gifts and your services?

I will.

Do you pledge yourself to work wholeheartedly in the establishment of this new Methodist Church?

I do.

Declaration of Organization.

In response to your eager desire for the establishment of this new church, and in accordance with the laws and Discipline of The Methodist Church, I hereby declare the Methodist Church of duly constituted and organized.

To you who have declared your vows, I rejoice to recognize you as members of the Church of God and of this new Society, and bid you welcome to all of its privileges. With God's love in your hearts and a will to work, you will not only bring joy and strength to yourselves but will also share in the creating of Christ's Kingdom in this community and throughout the world.

Second Scripture Reading (Isaiah 60, selections).

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people, but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see; all they that gather themselves together, they come to thee; thy sons shall come from afar, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee. Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought, for the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish.

Hymn—"Blest Be the Tie That Binds." (Print verses to be used.)

Address.

Hymn No. 279—"I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord." (Print verses.)

Benediction.

An urgent responsibility rests upon the Church to bring the total power of its spiritual and educational resources to bear upon the task of establishing and maintaining peace with justice. This is both basic to the Christian gospel and necessary to survival in a time of increasing tempo in the threat of further conflict. As in the Crusade for a New World Order, which did much to rally the support which prepared the way for the birth of the United Nations, the Church should now lead its people in the quest of the conditions of just and enduring peace, and specifically in the support of a Charter Revision Conference scheduled to be placed on the agenda of the General Assembly of the United Nations in 1955.

To this end, we request the Council of Bishops, utilizing the existing agencies of the Church, to implement the vital leadership toward peace embodied in their Episcopal Address by further leadership in a Crusade for World Order beginning in the fall of 1953, its objectives to include a study of the specific questions of adequate United Nations Charter revision, and the taking of all affirmative steps necessary to make the United Nations a more effective instrument of peace.

We refer the projected Crusade for World Order to the Council on World Service and Finance for special consideration from the Administration Fund.

SUBJECT: RACIAL DISCRIMINATION IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Calendar No. 60. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 646.

The General Conference of The Methodist Church urgently petitions officials responsible for the laws and ordinances governing the District of Columbia to take the necessary steps to remove all barriers of racial discrimination, to the end that all citizens of the United States may move with a sense of freedom, may enjoy full participation in the life of the nation's capital, and that visitors from all parts of the world may see democracy in practice in our capital city.

We request the Secretary of the General Conference to send copies of the above resolution to the following persons:

Mr. Matthew N. Neely Chairman of the Senate Committee of the District of Columbia;

Mr. John L. McMillan, Chairman of the House of Representatives Committee of the District of Columbia;

Mr. John Russell Young, President of the Board of Commissioners, District Building, Pennsylvania Ave. at 14th Street; and

Mr. T. Joseph Donahue and General Bernard L. Robinson, members of the Board of Commissioners.

We appeal to the Congress of the United States for legislation to eliminate racial ineligibility to citizenship, and the exclusion system based thereon, by the enactment of the following provisions:

1. That laws providing naturalization to citizenship in the United States shall apply hereafter to all aliens alike, irrespective of race, color, or place of birth.

2. That provisions governing Quota Immigrants from European and certain other countries shall be extended to include all persons native of Asia and the Islands adjacent thereto.

3. No person, otherwise admissible by law, shall be excluded or prevented from entering the United States, or be ineligible to citizenship, on account of race, color, or place of birth.

4. We earnestly request the Council of Bishops to urge the Congress of the United States to take in the United Nations Organization such affirmative steps as may be necessary to remove all inhuman practices, such as racial discrimination and segregation laws now practiced in the world, and in South Africa in particular.

REPORT NO. 6. STATE OF THE CHURCH

SUBJECT: THE CHRISTIAN HOME

MEMORIAL: SERIAL No. 1436

Amended May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 646.

Calendar No. 64. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 646.

The home is the foundation of society and is vital to the stability of both Church and State. We believe it is ordained of God as the place in which there is the greatest opportunity for the origin and development of stalwart Christian character.

The home is suffering today from the tensions created by the world situation and the uncertainties due to the present military demands upon youth, from inadequate housing, the unprecedented movement of populations, the subtle and effective entrance of unchristian ideas and practices conveyed by the power of mass media, by open attack of evil forces, high pressure advertising which creates an undue emphasis upon material things, and by sheer neglect.

We are faced with such a continuing high rate of divorces, juvenile delinquency, broken lives, and disregard of life's sanctities that the very existence of civilization is threatened. It is imperative therefore that all Christian people be aroused to action.

We conceive the Christian home to be one in which parents so practice the presence of God that children come to accept God as the greatest reality of life.

A Christian home seeks to bring every member into the Christian way of living. It accepts the responsibility of worship and instruction to the end of growing the spiritual life of each person.

The Christian home practices daily prayer, and grace at meals and is committed to behaviour in keeping with Christian ideals for home and community. The outgrowth of this will naturally be the participation of the family as a whole in the life of the Church. With the hope of stimulating the thinking of the members of our Church, and their efforts to make more vital the Christian living in their homes, we record the following convictions:

1. Worship in the Home

We believe it is the birthright of every child to have the emotional security of a stable Christian home in which there is a normal opportunity for self-development in a creative atmosphere. When parents abide in God's love day by day and children are conscious of that relationship that love becomes the basic security for the child. Family worship and grace at mealtime unite the parents and children through their love for God. Parents teach religion by example as well as through the holy habits of formal and informal worship in the home. We urge families to spend some time with God each day, seeking His guidance and blessing for each member of the family. We recommend the use of such resources for personal and family worship as are found in The Bible, The Christian Home, The Upper Room, and Power. Many families find that a worship center in the home, good religious pictures and Church periodicals lay the foundation for the natural inclusion of worship as a part of the family's daily life.

2. Teaching in the Home

We recognize that parents are constantly teaching in the home, in unrecognized ways as well as in their conscious efforts. A parent's position is one of great responsibility toward his children and toward God, as well as one of high privilege. There is great need for parents to interpret to their children in a Christian way world issues and needs, the politics of national and international relationships, the complex problems created by the use of beverage alcohol and narcotics, and the need for adhering to Christian moral standards amid the tensions and pressures of our present-day living. There is also need for parents to guide their children in learning how to evaluate the propaganda to which they are constantly subjected through newspapers, magazines, radio, television, and movies as well as through personal relationships. At these points the Church and family can support and strengthen each other in their ideals of personal conduct and social righteousness.

World peace begins at home. As parents teach democracy in the home through their relationships with each other and with their children, they build the foundations for democracy in the nation and in the world. The most effective education for world peace lies in the attitudes and ideas expressed through daily conversation. The efforts of the peoples of the world through United Nations to do those things which make for peace and more abundant life should be understood and appreciated.

To help parents understand these issues, and the best methods for guiding their children, we recommend that local churches make provision for study classes and discussion groups on child development, family relationships, and the teaching of religion in the home, making wider use of the helpful materials provided through the regular publications and channels of our Church.

Our children desire and have a right to know before adolescence the facts regarding the origin of life and the nature of their personalities as it relates to sex. Parents, if properly instructed, are best fitted to give this assistance; but if they are recreant to this duty, then qualified persons in the Church should teach reverently the beautiful truths of life to offset the obscene and all-too-prevalent misinformation to which our children are exposed. We endorse the growing tendency in our public schools to include sex education under competent teachers as a normal part of their curriculum.

3. Preparation for Marriage

We believe that a child's experience in his home lays the foundation for success or failure in his marriage and future home. Many parents feel themselves to be inadequate in the preparation and guidance of their children as they become of marriageable age. Therefore it is recommended that a regular course of instruction be given in each church for youth on the Christian ideals of love, courtship, and marriage, using the materials made available by our Church. All of our youth assemblies, camps and institutes should have qualified persons to give counsel on personal problems, and the duties and privileges of Christian marriage, and to make available to young people suitable books, pamphlets, and audio-visual resources. It is further recommended that courses of instruction for young married couples on home-building, income budgeting, child training, life adjustments, and personality problems be given by each church. We recommend that pastors prepare themselves to counsel and guide young people through pre-marital and post-marital counseling.

We recognize that divorce is not the answer to the problems that bring it about. As a Christian Church and ministry, we are obligated to aid by counsel those persons who have experienced broken marriage, to make those adjustments emotionally and otherwise that would prepare the way for successful family living.

We believe it is important for the churches to focus attention upon the family at frequent intervals during the year, but especially we recommend the observance of National Family Week as provided in Par. 233-5 of the Discipline. We further urge the parents in our churches to participate in the Methodist National Conference on Family Life planned for this quadrennium.

4. Legislation

To protect both the individual and society from hasty marriages we favor legislation requiring an interval of at least several days between the application for a license and the granting of it, to allow sufficient time for consideration.

We recommend laws requiring a medical examination of both contracting parties, and the refusal of a license to those unfitted physically or mentally by heredity or otherwise for the responsible state of matrimony.

We favor uniform marriage and divorce laws.

There is an increasing demand for the adoption of children in Christian homes, which we favor. We urge the churches to work for more uniform adoption laws.

5. Co-operation

We recommend that our churches fully co-operate with all other agencies in the community that are working for the improvement of family life and the strengthening of Christian character, such as the public schools, Hi-Y, Y-Teens, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Boys' Clubs, Camp Fire Girls, 4-H Clubs, and social service agencies.

In the local church we strongly urge co-operation as regards special courses of study to the end that the above provisions shall become a regular part of the education program of the Church.

We further recommend the continued correlation of the work of the Woman's Division of Christian Service and of the Boards of Education and of Evangelism.

Calendar No. 109. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 647.

Ours is a world Church. As such its responsibility is to unite in one fellowship men and women of all races and nations. As Christians we confess ourselves to be children of God, brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ. This being true there is no place in The Methodist Church for racial discrimination or racial segregation. "To discriminate against a person solely upon the basis of his race is both unfair and unchristian. Every child of God is entitled to that place in society which he has won by his industry and his character. To deny him that position of honor because of the accident of his birth is neither honest democracy or good religion." (The Episcopal Address, 1952.)

In our world, our nation and our Church however, racial discrimination and segregation do exist. As sincere followers of our Lord it is our business to help free our world and our nation from these evils. But it is more immediately our imperative duty to confess our failure to achieve God's will in Methodism and then resolutely to set about achieving a Christian brotherhood in the Church that will be free from racial discrimination and segregation.

We rejoice in the progress being made. The promulgation by the United Nations of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its acceptance, in principle, by the United States and other nations is indicative of a growing awareness of the dignity and sacredness of human personality. In America noteworthy advances have been made in many phases of the nation's life, business, sports, education, and religion. In Methodism many tangible gains can be seen, as for instance, in the opening of an increasing number of our schools to students without regard to race. Perhaps the intangible gains are even more significant. Attitudes at variance to basic Christian principles are yielding; we are coming to have a mutual appreciation and love and a willingness to work together which whisper of still better things to come. As was stated in the Episcopal Address: "We face the critical adjustment between the absolute Christian ideal and the human level upon which a retarded and hesitating Christian conscience moves; Christian Truth and strategy must reach us where we are and lead us by divine grace to where God would have us be."

The obstacles have been many, but progress is being made. Therefore, let us thank God and go forward.

The problem facing Methodism in the matter of race is perhaps the most crucial problem before our world today. Therefore, it presents to us a God-given opportunity. In keeping, therefore, with the thrilling challenge set forth in the Episcopal Address we propose that the Church seek to free itself utterly from racial discrimination and segregation. To this end we recommend the following as specific and feasible immediate steps.

1. Let there be opportunity without discrimination or segregation for full participation in all the activities of the Church by the many racial and national groups that make up our Methodist fellowship.

2. That there shall be equality of accommodations for all races at all National and International meetings of The Methodist Church.

3. Let the institutions of the Church, local churches, colleges, universities, theological schools, hospitals and homes carefully restudy their policies and practices as they relate to race, making certain that these policies and practices are Christian.

4. In keeping with the rapid advance being made in the direction of widening employment on democratic principles, let the agencies and the institutions of The Methodist Church employ their Staffs on the basis of character and qualifications, without racial discrimination.

5. In view of the fact that churches of the Central Jurisdiction may in some cases, very properly desire to become a part of another Jurisdiction in which they are located, we commend the proposal that enabling legislation be enacted making such readjustments easier of attainment. Meanwhile we call attention to the possibility of such readjustment being made, though with some difficulty, under existing disciplinary provisions. (Paragraphs 26, 28 and 29 and Judicial Decisions, Pages 82 and 162.)

6. We recommend that unless a General Board of Social Relations is set up by this General Conference, the legislation of the 1948 General Conference be re-enacted, which called for "A Continuing Commission to study the practices and organization of the world-wide Church (Methodist) to the end that racial discrimination shall ultimately be eliminated from our fellowship," and that the Council of Bishops be instructed to nominate such Commission to be composed of one Bishop, one minister from each Jurisdiction, two laymen from each Jurisdiction (one of whom shall be a woman), and two youth to be nominated at large. Furthermore that the Council on World Service and Finance shall provide the necessary funds for the work of the Commission. This Commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the General Conference of 1956.

Paragraph 1586 Amended and Referred to Co-ordinating Council to eliminate overlapping May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 690.

The Committee recommends establishment of a Board of Social and Economic Relations, and the amending of the Discipline by adding the following Paragraphs as Chapter IX; present Chapters IX and X would be renumbered as Chapters X and XI respectively.

CHAPTER IX

Board of Social and Economic Relations

Par. 1585. There shall be a Board of Social and Economic Relations. The Board shall be composed of one Bishop from each Jurisdiction, elected by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction for each 600,000 members, or major fraction thereof, in the Jurisdiction, elected by each Jurisdictional Conference upon nomination of the Jurisdictional Conference Nominating committee, provided that in all Jurisdictions in which two or more lay persons shall be thus elected they shall, as nearly as possible, be divided between laymen and laywomen; and one youth (18-23) elected by each Jurisdiction upon nomination of the Jurisdictional Conference Nominating committee from nominations submitted by the Annual Conferences and/or the Annual Conference Youth Organizations of the Jurisdiction; and provided further that there shall be a minimum of one minister, one layman, one laywoman, and one youth from each Jurisdiction. The Board may invite representatives from other agencies within the Church to meet with it as advisory members, without power to vote.

Par. 1586. It shall be the function of the Board to implement the actions of the General Conference and of the Methodist Social Creed (Discipline Par. 2020); to make available to the Church membership resource material relating to the field of social and economic relations, to respond to requests of local church groups for information and guidance; to encourage and stimulate interest and activity in the relation of the program of the Church to social and economic problems; to establish "service projects" where Methodist youth may render Christian service and express their Christian convictions in pioneering and other endeavors at home and abroad, subject to the provisions of Par. 1169; to co-ordinate such work with other general agencies of the Church; to work with other General Agencies in stimulating Christian social thinking and action. This Board shall work in co-operation with the Department of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities of the Woman's Board of Christian Service.

Par. 1587. The Board shall elect a Bishop as President, a Vice-president, a Recording Secretary, and a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. These officers, with four other elected members of the Board, shall constitute the Executive Committee. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings. Vacancies on the Board shall be filled at any regular or duly called meeting of the Board. The Executive Secretary shall be elected by the Board, and serve ex-officio. Staff personnel shall be approved by the Executive Committee upon the nomination of the President and the Executive Secretary.

Par. 1588 (1). Each Jurisdictional Conference may establish a Jurisdictional Board of Social and Economic Relations, auxiliary to the General Board, such Board to be composed of one Bishop from the Jurisdiction, chosen by the College of Bishops; one minister, one lay person, and one youth (18-23) from each Area in the Jurisdiction, and members of the General Board located in the Jurisdiction.

(2) Each Annual Conference may establish a Conference Board of Social and Economic Relations, auxiliary to the Jurisdictional Board and the General Board, which may report each year to the Annual Conference in such manner as the Conference may direct.

(3) Each charge may have, as a part of its quarterly conference, a Committee on Social and Economic Relations to serve the interest of Christ in the local situation and to cooperate with the General, the Jurisdictional, and the Conference boards. This Committee shall report to the Quarterly Conference, and may report to the Official Board of the church.

Par. 1589 (1). The Board of Social and Economic Relations shall meet annually, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one-fifth of its members.

(2) The work of the Board shall be supported from the General Benevolences of the Church, the amount to be determined by the General Conference, on recommendation of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

SUBJECT: THE CHURCH AND WAR AND PEACE

Calendar No. 175. Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 741, 747.

The Church and War and Peace

The world of our day is confronted by a crisis, profound in depth and global in scope. Although men have ever faced the problem of living together, today's crisis is the most acute in history. Man has developed weapons of mass destruction which, in the event of a third world war, might well result in the annihilation of man himself, and the obliteration of civilization as we now know it.

The Church cannot ignore nor evade this problem. Upon its solution rests our future. If that future is to fulfill the cherished prophesies of the Christian Church, there must be peace, permanent and eternal.

I. The Church and War

We rededicate ourselves to these statements incorporated in 1944 in The Methodist Social Creed (Paragraph 2020, Section 15) :

"We stand for these propositions: Christianity cannot be nationalistic; it must be universal in its outlook and appeal. War makes its appeal to force and hate, Christianity to love and reason. The influence of the Church must always be on the side of every effort seeking to remove animosities and prejudices which are contrary to the spirit and teaching of Christ. It does not satisfy the Christian conscience to be told that war is inevitable. It staggers the imagination to contemplate another war with its unspeakable horrors in which modern science will make possible the destruction of whole populations. The methods of Jesus and the methods of war belong to different worlds. War is a crude and primitive force. It arouses passions which in the beginning may be unselfish and generous, but in the end war betrays those who trust in it. It offers no security that its decisions will be just and righteous. It leaves arrogance in the heart of the victor, and resentment in the heart of the vanquished. When the teachings of Jesus are fully accepted, war as a means of settling international disputes will die, and dying will set the world free from a cruel tyrant."

Because war is contrary to every tenet of love and reason for which Christianity stands, the Church must continue to declare its sinfulness. It can decisively put an end to the exercise upon earth of those curative and creative forces which Christianity holds in its keeping. The Church must use its spiritual power to destroy war. More clearly than before, we now see that our only earthly security is in obedience to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ who has "made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth."

Since Christianity and war are utterly opposed, the Church as the body of Christ, the carrier of the Gospel, the institution that bears Christ's name must not become the agent of any government for its furtherance. The task of the Church is healing, reconciliation, the removal of prejudice and hate, the cementing of bonds of brotherhood, the exalting of God as the Father and Ruler of all mankind and Christ as the Saviour of all. This task it cannot perform if it becomes a partisan in international conflict and destruction. "Christianity cannot be nationalistic; it must be universal in its outlook and appeal."

Regarding the duty of the individual Christian, opinions sincerely differ. Faced by the dilemma of participation in war, he must decide prayerfully before God what is to be his course of action in relation thereto. What the Christian citizen may not do is to obey men rather than God, or overlook the degree of compromise in our best acts, or gloss over the sinfulness of war. The Church must hold within its fellowship persons who sincerely differ at this point of critical decision, call all to repentance, mediate to all God's mercy, minister to all in Christ's name.

II. The Church and Peace

(a) Moral and Spiritual Conditions

The primary conditions of peace lie in the attitudes of men. Since the Church in a unique way holds in its keeping the moral and spiritual forces for a peaceful world, the Church has a unique and God-given responsibility.

Among the fertile causes of war are: the claims of each State to absolute national sovereignty; the failure of nations to apply moral law and justice in international negotiations and action; the cancelling of distinctions of right and wrong, as more and more barbarous forms of cruelty are held to be legitimate; self-righteousness; the treating of persons as things; the condoning of human bondage; economic self-interest; the distortion of the truth by propaganda and deliberate falsehood; reliance on military force as the sole arbiter in conflict and instrument for the restraint of evil.

To each of these factors the Christian gospel has an answer. No earthly State, but God alone, is ruler of the universe. To His righteous law nations as well as individuals are subject, and no claims of military necessity can make what is evil good. By Him all men are judged and called to repentance. All persons were made in the image of God, and however sinful are infinitely precious in His sight. All men are children of God and brothers one of another; before Him no distinctions of nation, race, class, culture, or political alignment can stand. God wills all men to be free to work out their destinies in a just society amid conditions compatible with truth, and to share in the resources of the earth that He has provided for all. To us He has committed, not implements of destruction for the arrest of evil, but the words of reconciliation and of love.

But we have failed to employ these forces. We have simply affirmed them. Passive affirmation has failed to establish peace in the world. There is a very real necessity of transmuting our faith in the undying truths of Jesus Christ into works.

The Church can be an agency of great power for the establishment of a world community, as has been demonstrated by the missionary and ecumenical movements. That the bonds of brotherhood among Christians have held so firm during the recent years of war and international tension is occasion for humble thanksgiving to God. From the beginnings already made, a wider world community must be fashioned through co-operation with persons of all religious faiths.

(b) Relief of Suffering

Among the primary tasks of the Church is the duty to relieve human misery. When millions of our brothers for whom Christ died are hungry, cold, and homeless, and children die of starvation, no Christian can turn a deaf ear to the voice of Him who says, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." The command of Christ and political realism unite in making this ministry an essential condition of peace, for war walks on the heels of hunger.

Such relief should be given through various channels. We rejoice that governments, Churches, and individuals have made generous contributions for this purpose. Much more must be done. Since no private giving can be adequate in amount, there must be large-scale government appropriations on a non-partisan basis, given for the welfare of the recipients. The gifts of Methodists, through both Church World Service and the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, should be greatly increased. There is a place for personalized giving to individuals known to be worthy and in need, for through such personal connections ties of fellowship are cemented.

(c) Rejection of Preventive War

We reaffirm the conviction that war is not inevitable. We concur in the following quotation found in the Report of the Federal Council of Churches' Commission on the Christian Conscience and Weapons of Mass Destruction: "To avoid the physical and moral disaster of global war we must put behind us a satanic temptation the dangerous idea of a "preventive war," which is closely bound up with the faithless and defeatist idea that war is inevitable." We rejoice that responsible statesmen recognize this fact, and we call on all Methodists to support this stand by holding steady in goodwill and faith.

(d) Inter-National Co-operation

Yet neither is peace inevitable, and its cost is patient, continuous effort at Inter-National co-operation. Our best political hope of peace lies in the United Nations. There is emerging from it a larger vision of the total interests of mankind. In spite of obstacles, freedom of presentation and discussion still abides in its Assembly and Councils. Long before it took action to resist aggression in Korea, it had proved its usefulness for peacemaking in such troubled areas as Palestine, Kashmir, and Indonesia, and had taken large steps forward through its Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the work of such agencies as UNESCO, the World Health Organization, and the Food and Agriculture Organization. It has created a Center in which the official leaders of international affairs in sixty nations can meet for the presentation, analysis, and discussion of problematical issues. Both the actual efficiency and the possibility of strengthening the United Nations have been demonstrated in several crucial areas, such as the technical assistance program, provision for Observation Commissions in areas threatened by outbreak of violence, and the establishment of a twelve nation Disarmament Commission.

In spite of tensions within the United Nations, we believe that it must be kept united. We reject the proposal that the world should be split politically, as it is now ideologically, into two blocs. If the United Nations is to serve the interests of peace, it must not become the instrument of any bloc of nations. Regardless of difficulties that may be encountered in arriving at agreements or securing unanimity, the United Nations should be maintained for all nations.

One of the most significant factors of this decade has been the demand in many parts of the world for recognition and protection of the freedoms and rights of the individual. By forthright emphasis on the worth of the individual as a child of God, the Church has shared the responsibility for awakening this desire. Methodist churches everywhere can demonstrate their steadfast adherence to this belief by supporting the United Nations Genocide Convention and Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

We call upon Methodists in all lands to urge their governments to provide adequate financing and give their full support to the United Nations and its agencies.

(e) World Government

Peace can only come from God, expressed through all peoples. World peace is bigger than any single nation, single economic system, or single religion. The United Nations, if peace is to be achieved, must be developed into a world federation of nations. To insure such investment of national sovereignty as will lay the foundations for permanent world co-operation and peace, we must first have a wider recognition and acceptance of God as sovereign over all nations. We call for revision of the United Nations charter in such manner as to enable that body to enact, interpret, and enforce world law against aggression and war.

(f) Universal Disarmament

We rejoice that the sixth session of the General Assembly, meeting in Paris during the winter of 1951-52, established by unanimous vote a Disarmament Commission. To nations greatly over-burdened by the economic and moral strains of the present armament race, this action brings new hope of the possibility of reduction, control and eventual elimination of the implements of war. We pray for the success of this Commission and pledge it the support of our Church, because we stand for the promotion of a society fashioned upon a civilian basis.

We emphasize the following statement from the Episcopal Address: "We must keep disarmament before the nations as they seek an alternative to war. The theory upon which the western allies and their communist antagonists are operating is that their only security lies in amassing such a weight of armaments that nobody will dare challenge them. This theory has repeatedly been tested in history. It has never yet brought peace." Believing this to be true, we seek firmer grounds of security in mutual understanding, international co-operation, and the use of our economic resources for better standards of living throughout the world.

(g) Military Training

The General Conference and seven Church-wide organizations of The Methodist Church, led by the Council of Bishops, have declared their opposition to any system of peacetime universal military training. We reaffirm this stand. We appeal to the United States to give bold leadership looking toward the universal abolition of peacetime conscription by or through the United Nations.

(h) Reserve Officers Training Corps

To Methodist colleges considering the installation of

R.O.T.C. units, we call attention to the following points:

1. Methodists have always held to the principle of separation of Church and State. The installation of R.O.T.C. units in Church colleges is in violation of this principle.

2. Both Christian and democratic education seek to encourage an attitude toward government of patriotic loyalty joined with intelligent criticism. The presence of military institutions on a campus should not be permitted to inhibit freedom of individual thought and action.

3. We recognize the financial difficulties confronting many of our Church colleges and universities, and urge adequate support of them by the entire Church.

(i) Soviet-United States Relation

There can be no condoning of the ideology or practice of Communism though it hold out to underprivileged peoples promises of a release from want and oppression, these promises are for the most part deceptive and are accompanied, where power is seized, by new and terrible forms of tyranny. Its atheistic totalitarianism and its tendency to infiltration, clever deception and ruthless violence make it the major foe both of Christianity and of freedom in the world today. Recognition of these facts is essential to Christian Democracy.

It is equally essential to avoid fostering hatred. We should not charge the entire Russian people with being Communist. There are still many millions of Christians in Russia. They are not materialists for they believe that the Eternal Spirit, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, is the ultimate reality. Churches and cathedrals are open and people worship in them, traditional scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are used, and Christian hymns are sung. We should make every effort to communicate with these people and send a message of Christian fellowship and goodwill.

We believe that the best defense against Communism is not to be found in the use of military force or in the suppression of civil liberties. Rather, it is to be found in the preservation of democratic institutions by a more thorough-going practice of democracy. Such defense calls for the abatement of racial and class discrimination; the elimination of economic conditions which foster poverty, hunger and disease; more adequate provision for both the physical and the spiritual needs of persons of all lands.

It is our conviction that the peoples of neither the Soviet Union nor the United States desire war. We call upon all of our people promptly to undertake to change the prevailing mood which we believe conducive to war. We urge our respective governments to support a continuing process of negotiations through the United Nations and on their diplomatic high levels and to keep the door open to any proposal, from whatever source, that holds the possibility of peace.

(j) Colonial and Dependent Peoples

Old imperialisms are decaying and falling away. Non-self-governing territories are seeking independence, freedom, self-government. Furthermore, they are seeking the knowledge, the tools, the skills whereby they may transform their lands, providing more adequately for the food, health, housing, and other needs of higher standards of living. We proclaim our undying interest in freedom for all peoples. We urge the adoption of policies and practices which undergird the aspirations of retarded and non-self-governing peoples to freedom, the determination of their own forms of government, and the economic means required for the highest development of which they are capable.

(k) Technical Assistance and Point Four

The officially stated purpose of technical assistance programs is "to start where people are, to help them solve their own problems in their own way without imposing ideas or methods upon them which are alien to their character and desires; to work with others, to co-operate and not to dominate."

We believe that economic assistance which "... seeks to make the benefits of our scientific advances and industrial progress available for the improvement of underdeveloped areas ..." is the strongest combatant of the elements of revolution found in our times. There is a tragic shortage of food and other basic necessities in vast areas of our world. Even with present levels of food production maintained, millions of people will starve to death each year.

We urge that government funds and resources be increased for "Point Four" and Technical Assistance programs and that these be channeled through the United Nations' Technical Assistance Program as much as possible. We believe that the original purposes of the "Point Four" and Technical Assistance programs should be carefully guarded against use based primarily on military and/or political expediency.

The personnel employed in these projects should be of the highest character, and should seek through these channels the development of better human relations as well as better economic conditions. We also highly commend and urge increased support of technical assistance by and through denominational and interdenominational programs and other private foundations and agencies.

(1) Civil Liberties

The American Declaration of Independence declares that life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness are the inalienable rights of every human being. This implies that these rights are not the gifts of governments, but the gifts of God. Civil governments exist not to confer these rights, but to guarantee them to all men alike and to protect all men in the fullest possible enjoyment of them. The right to be free implies not only the freedom of the body, but the freedom of the mind.

In this time of fear, areas of freedom of speech and thought are being narrowed all over the world. Everywhere, there is increasing limitation of the expression of variant ideas and opinions, and even of factual information. In some lands, thought control uses the techniques of absolute censorship, surveillance by secret police, torture, imprisonment and death. In other lands, the techniques are those of social rejection, calling of names, demands for "loyalty oaths," denial of employment, irresponsible accusations, and assertion of "guilt by association."

In any of these cases, the results are false and inadequate information, degradation of the human mind, and shackling of the human spirit. In such an atmosphere, suspicion becomes fear, fear becomes hatred, and hatred becomes war. Our role is not to suppress ideas, but to open channels of communication, so that men can come to know the thoughts of their neighbors, and so that the best thoughts of all men can come to be possessions of all mankind.

We who are Christians profess that Christ came to demonstrate the character of God, and reveal that God is love. Love is the power of God at work in human relations. Against such power, no earthly barriers can stand, no earthly armies ultimately can prevail. This power can be ours. We need only dare to use it.

This resolution shall be printed in the appendix of the 1952 Discipline.

The General Conference directs the attention of the Church to the 250th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley, which date falls on the 17th of June, 1953. The Conference calls upon the churches and those responsible for our literature to take note of this significant event, and to insure fitting observance of the occasion by means of programs, sermons, and articles dealing specifically with John Wesley, his home, his life, and his influence.

Recently, in the United States and other countries there have been instances in which fundamental civil rights and religious liberties have been ignored and abrogated by military authorities with particular regard to the granting of passports and such other travel documents as entrance visas and military entry permits. This procedure has even interfered with plans for travel abroad by certain officials of our own Methodist Church and other Christian Churches for purposes of visitation and administration of missionary enterprises.

We urge all governmental authorities to avoid all attempts to restrict the legitimate activities of representatives of religious bodies engaged in the normal pursuits of their acknowledged tasks. We urge the placement in positions of accountability in government agencies of those who are competent to judge as to the responsible character of well-established religious organizations and the worthiness of their representatives to receive from the government the necessary facilities for travel and visitation in various parts of the world.

Be it resolved by the General Conference of The Methodist Church that the Methodist Social Creed as it appears in Paragraph number 2020 of the Discipline of 1948 be and the same is hereby amended by striking out paragraph numbered nine (9) thereof and substituting the following:

(9) We stand for the principle of the acquisition of property by Christian processes, and in the right of private ownership thereof with full acknowledgment of stewardship under God and accountability to Him for its use. We espouse no economic system, and refuse to identify Christianity with any economic order. We approach every economic order in the commands of our Christ and judge its practices by the Christian gospel. We firmly believe that it is not only our duty to bring Christ to the individual but also to bring the society within which we live more nearly in conformity with the teachings of Christ. We believe that the free democratic way of life ruled by Christian principles can bring to mankind a society in which liberty is preserved, justice established, and brotherhood achieved.

Be It Further Resolved by the General Conference that the Methodist Social Creed, as thus amended, be adopted as the Social Creed of The Methodist Church, and that it be printed in the 1952 Discipline.

M, 21; P, 21; F, 17; A, 3; N, 1

SUBJECT: REPORT ON MOTION OF REFERENCE DEALING WITH OFFICIAL BOARD IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

MEMORIAL: SERIAL No. REFERENCE BY GENERAL CONFERENCE

Calendar No. 170. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 636.

In the Report of the Commission on the Study of the Local Church the following was referred to the Committee on Temperance:

Chapter V the Official Board, pp. 38, 39, the two lines on top of said page 39:

Add after the word "church" the words "and shall be total abstainers from the use of intoxicating liquors" so that those two lines shall read: "all members of the Official Board shall be members of The Methodist Church and shall be total abstainers from the use of intoxicating liquors." Proposed by Chester A. Smith (*).

Substitution proposed by Edwin E. Voigt, Iowa-Des Moines Conference:

"And shall avow their readiness to adhere to Par. 95 of the General Rules," making this to read: "All lay members of the Board shall be members of the local Methodist Church and shall avow their readiness to adhere to Par. 95 of the General Rules."

James E. Skillington, Central Pennsylvania Conference, moved that the entire Paragraph, with amendments, be referred to the Committee on Temperance.

The Committee on Temperance submits the following: To amend Chapter V, Section I, Paragraph 182, number 4, page 39, after the word church in the second line, add the following: "and that in nominating and electing persons to such membership the utmost care shall be taken that only morally disciplined persons shall be so nominated, and with special reference to total abstinence from alcoholic beverages."

The amended subdivision 4, will then read:

4. The Trustees of the local church (Pg. 143), except such as may not be members of The Methodist Church. All lay members of the Board shall be members of the local Methodist Church, and that in nominating and electing persons to such membership the utmost care shall be taken that only morally disciplined persons shall be so nominated, and with special reference to total abstinence from alcoholic beverages. (See Par. 207.4 1952 Discipline.)

(See Report No. 3 State of the Church, pages 645, 739, 1409)

Par. 2022. Temperance. This Section to read as follows: The Methodist Church, as stated in the Episcopal Address to the 1952 General Conference, continues its "ancient and unceasing battle with intemperance." Our Church reasserts its long-established conviction that intoxicating liquor cannot be legalized without sin. The Church of Jesus Christ from its very nature, stands at variance with the liquor traffic. For it to be silent in its opposition would be to be disloyal in its function. Therefore, to be true to itself the Church must be militant in opposition to the liquor traffic.

Wine through the centuries has not ceased to be a mocker, destroying individuals and blighting society. Adequate relief can come only through total abstinence for the individual, and effective prohibition for the State.

Among the confused moral judgments of our age with respect to drinking and the liquor traffic, The Methodist Church lifts the clear voice of the Christian conscience. The teaching of Christ emphasizes as one of its basic principles, the sacredness of each human personality. The use of alcoholic beverages impairs the functions of the body and mind. It slows perception and judgment. It delays reaction. It not only impairs physical health, but more important, it impairs the tenderness of conscience. It deteriorates character. We are stewards of our bodies. We are stewards of an ability to think straight. Anything which blights and destroys human personality is fundamentally opposed to the Gospel of Christ. We therefore stand for the Christian principle of total abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages of any kind. Our people should regard abstinence as an essential part of witness to the faith we profess and as evidence of loyalty to the high ideals for which the Church stands.

The use of alcoholic beverages violates the Christian principle that we are each our brother's keeper. We are stewards of our influence upon others. He who uses alcoholic beverages may by his example lay a stumbling block in the path of a brother and thus contribute to the destruction of another human personality. The influence of personal example is a sacred trust. For a Christian, the use of intoxicating liquors is a fundamental moral question which must be answered in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The drinking of alcoholic beverages is increasingly responsible for the disintegration of the home as witnessed by social service records and those of divorce court proceedings. It is the major cause of public disorder. It causes poverty and produces inefficiency in industry and commerce. It is a corrupting influence upon the conduct of public affairs. It is the most formidable obstacle to the good life among all people. It is in short, as stated in the Episcopal Address to the 1952 General Conference, "an abominable social curse."

Since human welfare decreases as the drinking of alcohol increases, we stand strongly opposed to the continuation of the organized liquor traffic. The Church must be vigorous in its opposition to it. The truths taught by the Church concerning the personal and social evils of alcohol have been clouded by the falsehoods cleverly presented in liquor advertising and propaganda not only appearing in magazines, newspapers, and in motion pictures, but also presented through the media of radio and television. We denounce the continued invasion by these means of Christian homes by liquor advertisers who seek to indoctrinate even our children in the use of alcoholic beverages and we deplore governmental toleration of this practice. We call on the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to prevent the use of radio and television for such purposes.

Knowledge must always precede conviction and without conviction there can be no successful social action. We, therefore, as a matter of major importance, call upon our churches to vigorously declare and teach the truths concerning the personal and social evils resulting from the use of alcoholic beverages. To do this, we ask them to use and support all forms of educational processes, to use every educational agency of the Church, and to urge and support beverage alcohol education in the public schools. The Church must continue by this process of education and by all other available means to combat the liquor traffic. It is necessary that laws be enacted controlling and prohibiting the traffic in alcohol. The right of the people to enact such legislation to protect their homes and communities from the evils of the liquor traffic is a fundamental legal and moral right.

We commend our own Board of Temperance for its vigilant and effective activity.

Par. 2023. The Armed Services and Beverage Alcohol.

This Section to read as follows:

Christian mothers and fathers by the thousands were moved to deep concern during World War II by letters from their sons in service stating that in some places nothing was provided for them to drink except intoxicating beverages.

Christian compassion imposes upon us a deep concern for the sufferings of the tens of thousands of alcoholics who have come to their alcoholism through the mistaken policy of the Armed Services in co-operating with the brewers to make beer and, in some instances, other intoxicants available to the man in uniform.

On February 2, 1948, Dr. Harvey J. Thompkins, Chief of the Psycho-Neurotic Service of the Veterans Administration, said that 10% of all World War II patients discharged from Veterans Administration Facilities in 1947 entered with the primary diagnosis of alcoholism.

In June, 1945, Mr. John H. Connelly, Army Exchange Service Administrative Beer Co-ordinator, said: "Hundreds and thousands of new friends and young friends at that, are being acquired by the brewing industry."

The brewers' boast over this turn of events as is evidenced by their own publications. The following are direct quotations:

"Ten million GI's have learned to know and like BEER much earlier than they would have as civilians. For five years there has been no need to 'sell.' Uncle Sam has been your sales manager and the best you ever had."—Statement made by Kenneth Laird, advertising man, to the Wholesale Beer Association of Ohio, February 7, 1947, reported in Brewers' Journal, March, 1947. "They (the brewers) cheerfully followed every request of the military authorities who recognized the need for beer and ale to be available to our soldiers wherever they were sent and this need will be met again with no restraint."—Quoted from Brewers' Journal, July, 1950.

With the continuance of Selective Service the friends of sobriety look with alarm at this sinister strategy of the liquor interests. We believe it is high time for Christians everywhere to raise a loud cry of protest against this practice of causing young men to become addicts and drunkards, many of whom in civilian life would never have become users of beverage alcohol. We believe that most of the enlisted men, if given the opportunity, would much prefer soft drinks.

We commend the National Security Training Commission and the Armed Service Committees of the House of Representatives and of the Senate for the indications of their growing awareness to the exceedingly serious necessity of protecting young men who may be called into training from the possibilities of addiction to alcoholic beverages. We earnestly hope this concern may eventually be carried into the entire area of uniformed services.

We are grateful to the Chairmen and the members of these Committees and we earnestly hope that the concern they have manifested may soon affect the entire policy of the government in its attitude in regard to this matter.

Par. 2024. Public Morals.

This Section to read as follows :

We call attention to the fact that distressing corruption in the administration of public affairs is closely related to moral evil. The crimes of vice finance crimes of violence and institutionalize them. Our citizens should demand the most rigid integrity upon the part of public servants and should support this demand by full participation in public affairs. The great majority of public servants are not corrupt but corruption to any degree must be regarded as a menace to political freedom.

While alcohol is the narcotic drug most far-reaching in its evil effects upon our people, traffic in the opiates such as heroin and in marijuana has caused profound concern to all humane people. Apparently as a demoralizing result of the war, the distribution of the drugs ordinarily known as narcotics recently became much more prevalent with destructive results to body, mind and soul of many people, particularly those still in their formative years. We commend the efficiency of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics and the State legislatures and other authorities which met the recent emergency by commendable legislation and the various city police departments which have taken effective action and we rejoice in the improvement which has resulted. This, however, gives no cause for complacency; Christian compassion demands a continuing and intelligent concern.

Gambling is a menace to business integrity, it breeds crime and is destructive of the interests of good government.

The revelations of the Senatorial Committee for the Investigation of Crime in Interstate Commerce, by revealing the extent of gambling, the vast economic loss it imposes upon the nation and its demoralizing influence throughout all our society, has awakened our people to the intimate relationship between this vice and governmental corruption. The measures taken to disorganize this traffic in evil deserve warm approval from Christian citizens.

We strongly urge all of our churches to abstain from the use of raffles, lotteries and other forms of games of chance in the raising of money for the purposes of the Church and we urge them to protest against gambling practices by secular organizations in their communities.

Recognizing the insidious nature of the influences responsible for the increase of crime, we urge that individuals as well as organized units of the Church encourage such positive influences, activities, and programs as will promote good citizenship and obedience to law; and further, we encourage a scientific approach to the whole subject of crime with the object of redeeming criminals wherever possible and returning them to positions of respect and trust in society.

REPORT No. 3. TEMPORAL ECONOMY

M, 49; P, 39; F, 38; A, 1; N, 0

SUBJECT: EXPENSE ALLOWANCE TO PASTORS

MEMORIAL: SERIAL No. 854

Amended May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 593.

Calendar No. 150. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 593.

Par. 804:

Following the period after the last word of Paragraph 804 shall be added the following: "The total of all travel, automobile and other expense allowed and paid to the pastor in addition to his salary, shall be reported for insertion in the Annual Conference Journal in a separate column from that of pastor's salary and adjacent thereto." so that the entire Paragraph shall read:

Par. 804. "It shall be the duty of the Quarterly Conference of each pastoral charge or of the Official Board or Board of Stewards of the charge, as the Quarterly Conference may elect, at the session immediately preceding the Annual Conference, after consultation with the pastor, to agree upon the minimum salary of the pastor of the charge for the ensuing year. In charges of more than one organized congregation, the amount apportioned to each church shall be recorded in the minutes of the Quarterly Conference. The pastor's salary, thus agreed upon, shall not include the traveling and moving expenses of a new appointee to the charge. Where traveling and moving expenses of a new appointee to a charge are paid by the charge, this amount shall be a separate and additional item. The total of all travel, automobile and other expenses allowed and paid to the pastor in addition to his salary, shall be reported for insertion in the Annual Conference Journal in a separate column from that of pastor's salary and adjacent thereto.

SUBJECT: APPORTIONMENT OF EPISCOPAL FUND

MEMORIALS: SERIAL NOS. 776, 777, 798, 822,
874 and 1222

To deal with Memorials No. 776, 777, 822, 874, 1222 and 798 we propose the following: Delete Paragraph 763 and substitute in its place: Par. 763. The Council on World Service and Finance shall estimate what percentage of the total salaries paid pastors and associate pastors by the entire Church will yield an amount equal to the estimated Episcopal Budget, and shall make recommendations to the General Conference concerning the same for its action and determination. When such percentage has been approved by the General Conference, it shall be the basis of the Annual Apportionment to each Annual Conference of The Methodist Church for the Episcopal Fund. The Apportionment to each Annual Conference shall be an amount equal to the approved percentage of the total cash salaries paid to the pastors and associate pastors serving charges under Episcopal appointment or as Supply pastors, as reported at the last session of the Annual Conference. This Apportionment shall be distributed to the pastoral charges as the Conference may determine. In every case the amount apportioned to a charge for the Episcopal Fund shall be paid in the same proportion as the charge pays its pastor.

Amend Paragraph 802 by adding the following to line four after the words "support of," "the Episcopal Fund," so that the Paragraph as amended will read:

Par. 802. Each Annual Conference shall determine what plan and method shall be used in distributing the Apportionments to its several Districts and charges for the support of the Episcopal Fund, District Superintendents and Conference Claimants, and for the Minimum Salary Fund (Par. 806), whether by percentages based on the current cash salary paid to the ministers serving pastoral charges under Episcopal appointment and to Supply pastors, or by some other method. The Apportionment for the Episcopal Fund is described in Par. 763.

Amend Paragraph 786 as follows: delete "each charge in" in line 5; and add the following to the last sentence "and shall be distributed to the pastoral charges as the Conference may determine," so that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

Par. 786. The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall report to the Annual Conference at each session the standard percentage approved by the General Conference for the Episcopal Fund as an Apportionment to the Annual Conference. This apportionment is based on the annual cash salary as described in Par. 763 and shall be distributed to the pastoral charges as the Conference may determine.

In Paragraph 2001 of the Discipline of 1948, Section 11, substitute for the present legislation the following, which shall be:

"The Decisions of the Judicial Council on questions of law, with a summary of the facts and of the opinion, shall be filed with the Secretary of the General Conference, and shall be published in the following manner:

"All Decisions of the Council which have been handed down prior to the end of the General Conference of 1952, shall be published in the Journal of the General Conference of 1952. Subsequent decisions of the Judicial Council shall be published in the interim years, between sessions of the General Conference, as a part of the General Minutes of The Methodist Church.

"Future General Conferences are requested to give favorable consideration to the following plan: In a General Conference year, beginning with the General Conference in 1956, all Decisions of the Judicial Council handed down during the time which has elapsed since the last General Conference and those announced during the General Conference session shall be published in the Journal of the General Conference, so as to bring up to date at each General Conference, the record of the Decisions of the Judicial Council.

"Following each session of the Judicial Council the official publications of the Church shall publish an official summary, prepared by the Secretary of the Judicial Council, of the Decisions arrived at during that session of the Council.

"The Editors of the Discipline are requested, if they find it practicable, to call attention by footnotes throughout the Discipline to those Paragraphs which have been affected by a Decision of the Judicial Council. Calendar No. 153. Withdrawn May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 724.

Delete present Par. 754 and in its place substitute the following:

Par. 754. The General Commission on World Service and Finance shall establish "The Methodist Foundation."

It shall be the duty of The Methodist Foundation to (a) prepare materials, develop mailing lists, and employ such personnel and other means within budget limitations as may be deemed necessary to encourage Methodists to make gifts, devise and bequests to The Methodist Foundation as a means of continuing their interest in and support of World Service, a World Service Agency, or other institution, Agency or project of The Methodist Church; and (b) to receive, invest, and administer these gifts, devices and/or bequests within any restrictions imposed by the General Conference of The Methodist Church and in accordance with the expressed wishes of the donor. When a testator or donor makes a devise, bequest, or gift to The Methodist Foundation without instructions for its use, the Council on World Service and Finance shall recommend quadrennially to the General Conference, for its action and determination, the Agency (ies), project(s) or object(s), which shall receive the income from said undirected gift(s) and the amount or percentage of the income to be distributed to each. Such action as is taken by the General Conference shall be binding on The Methodist Foundation.

The Methodist Foundation shall be incorporated with fifteen Directors. Among these Directors there shall always be at least one chosen from each Jurisdiction. Of the fifteen Directors not less than three shall be ministers, not less than three shall be members of the Council on World Service and Finance and at least five shall be chosen for their knowledge and skill in the field of investments.

The Directors shall be nominated by the Council on World Service and Finance and elected by the General Conference. They shall serve for a period of eight years, or until their successors in office are elected and qualified, except that in the organization of The Methodist Foundation, seven shall be elected for four years and eight elected for eight years.

Vacancies shall be filled by the Council on World Service and Finance. The Executive Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance shall sit with the Directors of The Methodist Foundation and shall have the right to the floor, but without vote. The Council on World Service and Finance shall perform the treasury functions for the funds of The Methodist Foundation.

The funds to support the activity of the Methodist Foundation shall be provided from the General Administration Fund in such sum as may be determined by the General Conference, due consideration having been given to the amount recommended by the Council on World Service and Finance.

The Methodist Foundation shall have power at its discretion to invest, reinvest, buy, sell, manage, exchange, transfer and convey any and all funds and property which it may hold absolutely or in trust, subject always to the terms of the bequest, devise or donation, and subject to any restrictions imposed by the General Conference, but in exercising such power, The Methodist Foundation shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of their capital. Within the limitations of the foregoing standard, it is authorized to acquire and retain every kind of property, real, personal or mixed, and every kind of investment, including specifically but without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, bonds, debentures and other corporate obligations, stocks, preferred or common, and real estate mortgages, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence acquire or retain for their own account, and within the limitations of the foregoing standard, The Methodist Foundation is authorized to retain property properly acquired, without limitation as to time and without regard to its suitability for original purchase.

Delete Paragraph 1144 and replace as follows:

Par. 1144. 1. There shall be a Radio and Film Commission of The Methodist Church.

2. The membership shall be constituted from and elected by the following agencies: Two members from the Council of Bishops, three from the Board of Missions and Church Extension, three from the Board of Education, two from The Methodist Publishing House, and one each from the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Lay Activities, the Commission of World Peace, the Board of Temperance, the Board of Pensions, the Commission on Ministerial Training, the Commission on Public Information, the Association of Theological Schools, the Commission Chaplains, and the American Bible Society; and one from each Jurisdiction selected by the Council of Bishops; and three members at large elected by the Commission.

3. The officers of the Commission shall be a President, a Vice-President, and a Secretary-Treasurer, elected quadrennially as the Commission may determine.

4. The purpose and function of the Radio and Film Commission shall be as follows:

(a) To unify and co-ordinate the audio-visual aids programs of all Methodist Agencies dealing with pictures, recordings, transcriptions, radio and television and other audio-visual materials.

(b) To make the studies necessary for the development of a unified and comprehensive program for all age groups in the home, church and community.

(c) To produce and distribute such programs and materials in the areas of work of the member Agencies as they may request and finance.

(d) To represent The Methodist Church in the Central Department of Broadcasting and Films of The National Council of Churches, and other Inter-denominational Agencies working in the area of mass communication.

(e) To investigate ways and means whereby audio-visual aids may serve the program of the Church at large, and to look toward training qualified persons in this field of service.

5. The financial support of the Radio and Film Commission shall be provided from World Service funds, in such ratio as The Council on World Service and Finance shall determine. The Radio and Film Commission may recommend to the Council of World Service and Finance such allotment as should be made to the Central Department of Broadcasting and Films of The National Council of Churches of Christ in America—such funds to be included in the annual appropriation of our Church to the National Council.

Before your Committee were these five Memorials asking that the John Street Church in New York City and St. George's in Philadelphia be included in the General Administration Fund for support with some of the Memorials suggesting the sum of $5,000 annually for each of these churches.

Your Committee believes that these two significant historical monuments and many others over the nation should be maintained and kept open for our people. We do, however, believe that it is not practical nor advisable to support all such significant historical monuments from the General Administration Fund of The Methodist Church.

We therefore recommend that the General Conference urge our Jurisdictional Conferences, our Annual Conferences and our Methodist churches and members to give serious consideration to their responsibility for maintaining such historic monuments and that the Association of Methodist Historical Societies give consideration to listing all historical monuments of national Methodist significance.

A Minority Report concerning the Memorials listed above.

Subject: Financial Assistance for St. George's and John Street Churches.

We undersigned members of the Committee on Temporal Economy submit the following Minority Report to Committee Report Number 15 relative to financial assistance for St. George's and John Street churches:

Whereas a motion recommending non-concurrence in regard to Memorials numbered 800, 846 1220, 1239 and 1594 and substituting a Resolution therefor as set forth in report number 15 of this Committee on Temporal Economy was adopted by a majority of the members present and voting thereon, and

Whereas the undersigned members of the Committee believe that St. George's church at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and the John Street church in New York City, which have been heretofore designated as Methodist Shrines, require the financial assistance of the General Conference for necessary and proper repairs and maintenance, and

Whereas we believe that Methodism has a rich heritage as exemplified by said churches, and that said heritage should be preserved,

We, therefore, recommend that the 1952 General Conference of The Methodist Church adopt the following Resolution in the place and stead of the said Resolution adopted by the majority:

"Whereas, St. George's church in Philadelphia and the John Street church in New York City had an important role in early Methodism, and are today two of the outstanding shrines of our denomination, and

"Whereas the said churches are not now self-supporting,

"Therefore, Be It Resolved, that $5,000.00 a year for the quadrennium 1952-56 be appropriated from the General Administration Fund for each of these two shrines for repairs and maintenance."

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS

On Friday morning, May 2, 1952, the General Conference ordered a reduction in the membership of General Boards of the Church, as proposed by the Special Committee of Six on the Survey Report.

To accomplish the reduction, rewriting of the sections of the Discipline dealing with the make-up of each Board is necessary. The Conference asked that proposed revisions be submitted for each Board by appropriate Committee Chairmen.

Their Reports are printed here.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1957.

In line two of Paragraph 1326 of the 1948 Discipline delete the words "of all" and in their place substitute the word "seventeen" and after the words "United States" in line three insert the words "selected by the Council of Bishops" so that the sentence as amended shall read:

"The Board shall be constituted quadrennially and shall be composed of seventeen effective Bishops of The Methodist Church resident in the United States, selected by the Council of Bishops, together with additional members selected as follows," and so on to the end of the sentence.

Delete the sentence beginning in line 13 from the top of page 298 in the 1948 Discipline, and in its place substitute the following:

"In addition, upon nomination of its Committee on Education, each Jurisdictional Conference shall elect one minister and one layman for each 400,000 members or major fraction thereof within the Jurisdiction. The Board shall elect members at large, on nomination of the Council of Bishops, in sufficient number to bring the membership of the Board to a total of 91."

Committee on Education,

CLARENCE M. DANNELLY (*), Chairman;
F. BRINGLE MCINTOSH, Secretary.

THE BOARD OF WORLD PEACE

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1969.

(1) Amend Chapter VIII of the 1948 Discipline as follows: wherever the words Commission on World Peace occur in the title substitute the words "Board of" for "Commission on" so as to read "The Board of World Peace."

(2) Amend Paragraph 1575 as follows: "There shall be a Board of World Peace. The Board shall be composed of three Bishops, elected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one layman from each Jurisdiction, elected by the Jurisdictional Conference; three ministers and three laymen elected at large by the Council of Bishops, and two youth members, under twenty-one years of age at the time of their election, to be elected by the Board of World Peace upon nomination by the National Conference of Methodist Youth." The remainder of Paragraph 1575 to remain as at present except for the change from Commission to Board, the last sentence to be harmonized with new legislation.

RALPH W. SOCKMAN, Chairman;
CHARLES F. BOSS, JR., Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1960.

As amended the new Paragraph 1481 will read as follows: "The Board shall be composed of three effective Bishops, elected by the Council of Bishops; six effective ministers, one from each Jurisdiction; and thirty-two lay members, distributed among the several Jurisdictions on the basis of Church membership, provided that no Jurisdiction shall have fewer than two lay members. The six ministers and the thirty-two lay members shall be elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences on nomination of the Committees on Lay

Activities of the Jurisdictional Conferences; provided, that these lay members shall be selected from the Conference Lay Leaders of the several Annual Conferences in the Jurisdiction; provided, further, that retirement from the office of Conference Lay Leader shall automatically vacate membership on the Board. The headquarters of the Board shall be fixed by the General Conference. The Board shall be duly incorporated.

Committee on Lay Activities,

RAY H. NICHOLS (*), Chairman;

FRAN H. FABER (*), Secretary.

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1959.

Substitute for present wording of Paragraph 1523 in Discipline 1948 the following:

Paragraph 1523 Management

The management of the Board shall be vested in a Board of Managers of eighteen, consisting of two Bishops elected by the Council of Bishops; and one minister and one lay member from each Jurisdiction, to be elected by the Jurisdictional Conference; provided at least one member from each Jurisdiction shall be an active administrator of an institution under the general supervision of the Board; and four members, at large, elected by the Board.

All of the Board of Managers shall be members of The Methodist Church. Should a vacancy occur among those elected by the Jurisdictions, the College of Bishops where such vacancy occurs shall elect the person to fill the unexpired term. All other vacancies shall be filled by the electing body.

Committee on Hospitals and Homes,

FRANK PRENTZEL, JR., Chairman;

LEON S. MOORE, Secretary.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 737, 1959.

Reduce the membership of the Board from 56 to 46, by making the new Paragraph (1548) to read as follows:

Paragraph 1548—Article 3—Membership

The membership of the Board shall be composed of seven Bishops of The Methodist Church, one from each Jurisdiction and one from the Church at large, elected by the Council of Bishops at the time of the General Conference; two ministers, one layman, one laywoman from each Jurisdiction, elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences; three youth members elected by the National Conference of Methodist Youth; and twelve members from the Church at large, to be elected by the Board.

Vacancies occurring during the quadrennium shall be filled in the following manner: those occurring among the Bishops to be filled by the Council of Bishops; those occurring in the memberships of the Jurisdictions to be filled by the Bishops of the Jurisdiction in which the vacancy occurs; those occurring among the youth members to be filled by the National Conference of Methodist Youth; and those occurring in the membership at large to be filled by the Board itself.

Committee on Membership and Evangelism,

RAY W. RAGSDALE, Chairman;

ALBERT W. CLIFFE (*), Secretary.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1968.

To substitute the following for Paragraph 1462 in the 1948 Discipline on composition of the Board of Temperance.

Paragraph 1462 will then read:

"The Board shall consist of one Bishop from each Jurisdiction, elected by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction; one minister and one lay person elected by each Jurisdictional Conference; and five members at large to be elected by the Board."

PAUL D. WOMELDORF, Chairman;

MRS. ALVIN B. PFEIFFER (*), Secretary.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 737, 1963.

Chap. II, Sec. III—Constitution.

Par. 1172. The Board of Managers shall be composed as follows: (1) eighteen (18) effective Bishops of The Methodist Church resident in the United States, elected by the Council of Bishops; and in addition, six Bishops serving overseas to be designated by the Council of Bishops, shall have the status of members of the Board of Missions in meetings at which they may be able to be in attendance, subject to such travel regulations as are provided in the Discipline for overseas Bishops; (2) members elected quadrennially by the Jurisdictional Conferences—one minister and three lay members, two of whom shall be women, from each Jurisdiction for each 600,000 members, or major fraction thereof, in the Jurisdiction, and, in addition, one youth under twenty-one years of age from each Jurisdiction; provided that no Jurisdiction, in addition to the Bishops, shall have fewer than two ministers and six lay members, four of whom shall be laywomen and two laymen, and, in addition, one youth member under twenty-one years of age. In nominating and electing such members, the Jurisdictional Conference shall have as a basis for choice the following: (a) one minister and one layman designated by each Annual Conference of the Jurisdiction, on nomination of its Board of Missions; (b) and six additional names nominated by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction; (c) twice the necessary number of lay members, who shall be designated by the Jurisdiction Woman's Society from the three members nominated by each Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Jurisdiction; (d) and one youth from those nominated by the Youth Organization of each Annual Conference in the Jurisdiction. Vacancies in the Board of Managers shall be filled by the Bishops of the Jurisdiction in which the vacancies occur ad interim, having regard to the various classifications of members.

The Board, on nomination of the Council of Bishops, is authorized to elect quadrennially 27 laymen—at least four from each Jurisdiction, to be assigned as equally as possible to the Division of World Missions and to the Division of National Missions—who shall serve as members at large of the Board.

The Board, on nomination of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, is authorized to elect quadrennially twelve (12) women, two from each Jurisdiction, for the Division, who shall serve as members at large of the Division and of the Board. The Board shall elect to membership the Chairman of the Commission on Missions and World Friendship of Methodist Youth.

Par. 1175. The Board shall elect quadrennially, upon nomination of the respective Divisions, a General Executive Committee of thirty-eight (38) members, nine members from the Division of World Missions, two of whom shall be women; nine from the Division of National Missions, two of whom shall be women; nine women from the Woman's Division of Christian Service; ten members, five women and five men, from the Joint Section of Education and Cultivation. A majority of the members of the General Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum. The President of the Board shall be a member of and the Chairman of the General Executive Committee. This General Executive Committee shall exercise the powers of the Board ad interim.

Chap. II, Sec. IV—Division of World Missions.

Par. 1195. The Division shall be composed as nearly as possible of one-half of the effective Bishops who are members of the Board, and the remaining members shall be as follows: one-half of the ministers, one-half of the laymen, one-third of the laywomen, and one-third of the youth members of the Board. The Division may elect not to exceed one-third of its men members, other than Bishops, to be members of the Woman's Division of Christian Service. The Division shall meet annually at the time of the meeting of the Board, and at such other times as it may deem necessary.

Chap. II, Sec. V—Division of National Missions.

Par. 1210. The Division shall be composed as nearly as possible of one-half of the effective Bishops who are members of the Board, and the remaining members shall be as follows: one-half of the ministers, one-half of the laymen, one-third of the laywomen, and one-third of the youth members of the Board. The Division may elect not to exceed one-third of its men members, other than Bishops, to be members of the Woman's Division of Christian Service. The Division shall meet annually at the time of the meeting of the Board and at such other times as it may deem necessary.

Chap. II, Sec. VI—Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Par. 1240 3. The Division shall be composed of all the women members of the Board, one Bishop from each Jurisdiction who is a member of the Board, and one-third of the youth members of the Board. This Division may nominate for election by the Board quadrennially not to exceed twelve (12) women, two from each Jurisdiction, who shall serve as members at large of the Division and of the Board. The Division of World Missions and the Division of National Missions may elect not to exceed one-third of the men members of their Divisions, other than Bishops, to be members of the Division. The Division shall hold a regular annual meeting and such other meetings as shall be called by the Division or the Executive Committee.

Chap. II, Sec. VII—Joint Section of Education and Cultivation.

Par. 1268. The Joint Section of Education and Cultivation shall be composed of six Bishops, one from each Jurisdiction; six men and two women from the Division of World Missions, elected by that Division; six men and two women from the Division of National Missions, elected by that Division; eight women from the Woman's Division of Christian Service, elected by that Division. In all these selections there must be due regard to equitable representation from the Jurisdictions. This section shall undergird with education and cultivation the total program of the Board.

Committee on Missions and Church Extension,
MRS. FRANK G. BROOKS (*), Chairman;
JOSEPH S. PLOUGHE, Secretary.

TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1960.

Par. 711, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Board of Trustees incorporated under the name of "The Board of Trustees of The Methodist Church." This Board shall be composed of three ministers and four lay persons. They shall be nominated without reference to Jurisdictional membership by the Council of Bishops and be elected by the General Conference for a term of eight years, except as to the first such Board, of which one clerical and two lay members thereof shall be elected for a term of four years, and two clerical and two lay members thereof shall be elected for a term of eight years, and they shall serve until their successors . . . (to end of paragraph).

HARRY DENMAN (*), Chairman;
G. CLIFFORD PETTYGROVE, Secretary.

RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1966.

Amend Par. 1144, Sec. 2, by deletion.

Substitute the following:

2. The membership shall be constituted from and elected by the following agencies: Two members from the Council of Bishops; three members from the Board of Missions (including the two Executive Secretaries of the Joint Section of Education and Cultivation and one other elected by the Board); three from the Board of Education; two from The Methodist Publishing House; and one each from the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Lay Activities, the Commission on World Peace, the Board of Temperance, the Board of Social Relations, the Commission on Public Information, the Board of Pensions, and the American Bible Society; one from each Jurisdiction, elected by the College of Bishops of that Jurisdiction; and five members at large elected by the Commission.

Committee on Temporal Economy,
HARRY DENMAN (*), Chairman;
G. CLIFFORD PETTYGROVE (*), Secretary.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 736, 1966.

The officers of the Committee on Publishing Interests recommend that Paragraph 1110, Section II, Chapter I, Part VII, be deleted and that the following Paragraph be substituted:

Sec. II—Board of Publication

Par. 1110. The Board of Publication shall consist of forty-five members, two of whom shall be Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops for a term of four years, not eligible to succeed themselves. The remaining members shall be elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences on a ratio which will provide for an equitable distribution between the various Jurisdictions, based on the memberships thereof, provided that no Jurisdiction shall be represented by less than two members. Membership on the Board shall be equally divided, as far as practicable, between ministers and laymen, the Bishops being counted among the ministerial members from the Jurisdictions in which they serve. It shall be the duty of the Board of Publication to inform the various Jurisdictional Secretaries of the number of members to be elected from their Jurisdictions, the ratio of such representation being computed on the basis of the latest official membership statistics available. The term of office of any elected member of the Board of Publication shall be limited to eight years. In the first election one-half shall be elected for only four years, the other half for eight years, the Jurisdictional Conference determining the tenure of office of each member elected. In order to provide for a continuing Board, it is recommended that at least one-half the members to be elected shall be chosen from the present membership of the Board of Publication. In case a vacancy occurs between sessions of the Jurisdictional Conference for any cause, the Board shall fill the vacancy from that Jurisdiction in the representation of which the vacancy occurs. The Publishing Agents shall be ex-officio members of the Board, without vote.

Committee on Publishing Interests,

RUFUS C. BAKER, Chairman;

BRADSHAW MINTENER (*), Secretary.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1965.

Par. 1602, Sec. 1.

The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, hereinafter, for the sake of brevity, called the Board, shall be composed of one Bishop to be elected by the Council of Bishops for a term of four years, and one minister and one layman from each Jurisdiction for every 1,000,000 church members in the Jurisdiction, or major fraction of that number, to be elected for a term of eight years; provided, however, that there shall be at least one ministerial and one lay member from each Jurisdiction; and provided, furthermore, that at its first meeting following the General Conference in 1952, the Jurisdictional Conference shall elect one-half of its quota of members for a term of four years and one-half of its quota of members for a term of eight years so that thereafter the Jurisdictional Conference shall elect one-half of its quota of members each quadrennium for a term of eight years.

In addition there shall be two members at large to be elected by the other members of the Board for a term of four years.

The Executive Secretaries of the Board shall be ex-officio members of the Board without vote.

A member of the Board shall serve during the term of office for which he was elected or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Members elected by a Jurisdictional Conference need not be delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

Committee on Pensions,

LESTER L. ROUSH, Chairman;
HERBERT H. BROWER, Secretary.

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1955.

"There shall be a Commission on Chaplains, which shall represent The Methodist Church in the procurement, endorsement, and general oversight of all Methodist ministers serving as Chaplains in the Armed Forces, Veterans Administration and Federal Prisons. The duties of the Commission shall include also the general supervision of Chaplains in public and private institutions (other than those of The Methodist Church), and industry. The Commission shall render such other services to these Chaplains as may be referred to it by the Council of Bishops.

"The Commission shall be composed of six Bishops, one from each Jurisdiction; five ministers and five laymen, elected by the General Conference on nomination of the Council of Bishops. Vacancies shall be filled by the Council of Bishops. A member Bishop shall serve as Chairman. The Commission may elect one advisory member from each Department of the Armed Forces, Veterans Administration and from other fields of service where Methodist Chaplains are used."

Committee on Ministry,

OSCAR THOMAS OLSON, Chairman;
LESTER RUMBLE, Secretary.

THE METHODIST COMMITTEE FOR OVERSEAS RELIEF

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

(Note: For final action on MCOR see Report No. 5 Missions and Church Extension, pages 624, 1311. Editor.)

Six members, one person from each Jurisdiction to be nominated by each College of Bishops and elected by each Jurisdictional Conference.

The Council of Bishops is asked to appoint a Convener for the new Committee.

GAITHER P. WARFIELD, Associate Secretary.

COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1711, 1970.

Par. 734. There shall be a Council on World Service and Finance which shall be incorporated. Its members shall be elected quadrennially by the General Conference. It shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops, nominated by the Council of Bishops; two ministers and two lay persons from each Jurisdiction, to be nominated by the Bishops of that Jurisdiction; and seven members at large, at least three of whom shall be women, all nominated by the Council of Bishops without reference to Jurisdictions.

Survey Report, Daily Christian Advocate, April 23, 1952, page 28.

COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METH- ODIST INFORMATION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 739, 1966.

Paragraph 1590.

There shall be an Agency of Public Relations and Methodist Information which shall gather news of public interest concerning Methodist activities and opinion and disseminate it through the secular press, the religious press, radio, television and other legitimate media of public information.

This Agency shall be known as The Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information but in its relations with the media it serves and with the public generally the Commission may use such abbreviation of its name as it may deem appropriate.

The Commission shall be composed of nine persons, one of whom shall be a Bishop, the members to be elected by the General Conference upon nomination of the Council of Bishops. Care shall be taken to nominate persons whose experience in public relations, journalism, advertising, radio and television, business, or the Church particularly qualifies them for this service. The Bishop who shall be a member of the Commission shall act as its Chairman.

The Commission is authorized to employ an Executive Secretary who may be known as Executive Director and such other persons as may be necessary to give effect to its purpose.

The expense of the Commission shall be borne by the General Administration Fund. The Commission shall present a proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance for its consideration and action.

This Commission shall be the sole general news-gathering and distributing agency for The Methodist Church and its General Agencies. The Commission may arrange with other General Agencies for some persons in those organizations to represent the Commission in direct release of Methodist news items to the religious and/or secular press, but in the cases of Agencies which supported a news-gathering and distribution service during 1948-52, their Budgets shall continue to be provided by these Boards.

Vacancies occurring between sessions of the General Conference shall be filled by the Commission. Members of the Commission shall hold office until the next session of the General Conference or until their successors are elected.

The Commission shall have general supervision over planning publicity relationships and procedures for making releases throughout the Church in the United States. It may encourage and work with Area and Annual Conference Directors of Public Relations, may assist in Pastors' Schools and conduct seminars in public relations, and may prepare instruction materials for local church use concerning public relations.

The Commission shall maintain co-operative relationship with the Editors of the Board of Publication.

No. 2

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MATERIALS FOR TRAINING IN CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

Presented May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 658.

The General Conference of 1948 authorized the Board of Education and the Board of Evangelism to set up a Committee for the purpose of preparing suitable materials for the use of pastors in training children, youth and adults for membership in The Methodist Church. (Paragraph 1419, 1948 Discipline.) In accordance with instructions contained in this action, these Boards constituted a Committee composed of the following persons:

Bishops: W. Earl Ledden, W. W. Peele; Pastors: Weldon Crossland, Henry Bullock, Ray Ragsdale; Laymen: E. I. Pilchard, Charles A. Stuck, Mrs. Nathaniel P. Perry; Other "Qualified Persons": Mary Alice Jones, Mrs. Lester Rumble, Carrie Lou Goddard; Board Officials: Harry Denman, Nolan B. Harmon, C. A. Bowen, J. Richard Spann, John Q. Schisler.

The Committee met several times during the quadrennium and gave most serious consideration to its important assignment. After surveying all available materials it decided that three manuals should be prepared for members of the Pastors' Training Classes, and that a manual for pastors should contain teaching aids based upon the Pupil's Manuals as well as general suggestions on the Training Class. The Committee agreed upon a "core of content" which should be presented in each Manual, but gave considerable latitude to the writers in developing their manuscripts.

Writers were chosen with unusual care with a view of securing the service of persons peculiarly qualified by training and experience. The writers are:

Miss Mary Alice Jones, for several years Director of Children's Work in the International Council of Religious Education; author of numerous books for children. After her selection for this service, she was elected by the Board of Education to be Director of its Department of Christian Education of Children.

Mrs. Leila Bagley Rumble, pastor's wife; formerly Professor of Religious Education of Youth, Scarritt College for Christian Workers; leader in youth institutes and assemblies for many years.

Dr. James Chubb, pastor; formerly Conference Executive Secretary; for a time a member of the staff of the General Board of Evangelism; a leader of youth in many parts of the Church.

Dr. W. Emory Hartman, pastor; formerly Professor of Religion in Dickinson College; later pastor in the Central Pennsylvania Conference; now pastor in the Ohio Conference.

The Committee set up an Administrative Committee composed of the Executive Secretaries of the Board of Evangelism and the Division of the Local Church and the Editorial Division of the Board of Education, and the Educational Director of the Commission on Ministerial Training, and the Book Editor to guide the writers in carrying out the details of their plans in accordance with the decisions of the Committee as a whole. Dr. J. Richard Spann was selected as Editor of the Manuals. He was ably assisted by the Editorial Staff of the Abingdon-Cokesbury Press.

The Manuals are:

"Membership Manual of The Methodist Church for Boys and Girls," by Mary Alice Jones.

"Membership Manual of The Methodist Church for Teen Agers," by Leila Bagley Rumble.

"Membership Manual of The Methodist Church for Youth and Adults," by James Chubb.

"Membership Manual of The Methodist Church for Pastors," by W. Emory Hartman.

It is the hope of the Committee that the General Conference will receive these Manuals, and that they may find wide acceptance and use by pastors. They contain materials we believe to be of value to leaders of children, youth, and adults. Experience in the use of these Manuals will provoke helpful suggestions as to how they may be improved. The Committee recommends that the General Conference make some provision for these suggestions to be assembled and kept available for future revisions so that continuing progress may be achieved toward the attainment of the best possible materials for the use of pastors in the extremely important pastoral function of training for church membership.

Foreword

Joint conversations between the Methodist Commission on Church Union and the Episcopal Church's Commission on Approaches to Unity, in which we have been privileged to serve as Chairmen, have been encouraging and fruitful. Our Commissions wish to share those fruits with the wider membership of the two Churches. To that end we are offering this "Study" which we feel startlingly reveals the common heritage of our Communion.

From the same mother Church came our two Churches, born of the same labors of history in this country's day of revolution. To England and her Church both can look in gratitude for the precious heritage of language, thought and form which still today make us more truly children of one household than our members are perhaps aware. Each in the other's Church would hear the familiar and beloved language which bespeaks a common home of worship and belief. How true this is appears in the striking parallels of the following pages.

Such kinship seems to make our Churches one in many senses of the word. We are fully aware, however, of the differences and difficulties which lie in the path of the goal of re-union. Certain psychological and sociological barriers are real. Sacramental and theological emphases and interpretations divide us, though these are hardly greater between the Communion than those within the fellowship of either Church. The Ministry and, particularly, succession through the Historic Episcopate stand as fundamental differences. But we who have worked and prayed together in our Unity Commissions are convinced that there are no insuperable obstacles to the eventual union of The Methodist Church and the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

While ultimate organic union is obviously a distant goal, we believe that the road can be shortened and the day hastened by early steps leading to full Inter-communion. In the words of the Archbishop of Canterbury, to accomplish this, "If there were agreement on it, (we) would thankfully receive at the hands of (the other) their Commission in their accustomed form and in the same way confer our own." The purpose of this "Study" is to hasten "agreement on it."

That the members of our respective Churches may be moved by our same desire, we submit and commend this to their study and prayers.

Brief Statement of History

The Church of England

The Church in England takes its origin from earliest times. Bishops, priests and deacons from England were present at the Council of Arles in the year 314. Direct relation with the Church in Rome stems from the mission of Augustine, a Roman monk, who landed on the shores of Kent in 597. This work was united with the earlier Celtic Christianity to form the evolving Church in England and the organization of the national Church of England paralleled the growth of the English nation. This English Church while clearly an integral part of western Christendom, periodically reasserted its independence from developing papal tyranny and, from time to time, the attempted tyranny of the throne. The Magna Charta (1215) was the assertion of freedom from tyranny of pope or king, as shown in its opening words: "The Church of England shall be forever free." When basic reform of belief and practice became necessary in western Christendom, the Church of England undertook its reformation, in the course of which it severed its ties with papal jurisdiction in the sixteenth century.

The Church of England holds that its ministry is in unbroken continuity through the succession of Bishops, an Apostolic Succession dating from the earliest times. It has always maintained close relations with other Churches making similar claims, for example, the Eastern Orthodox Churches, which refused to submit to Rome and its theory of the papacy in 1054, the Church of Sweden, severing papal ties in the sixteenth century, and the Old Catholic Church of Europe which broke from Rome in 1878 when it refused to accept the new dogma of the Pope's infallibility.

During the latter part of the eighteenth century there were organized, within the Church of England, societies for special study of the Bible and prayer. Because many of these societies urged upon their members a methodical use of the hours of the day, giving thus more time for Bible reading, prayer and meditation, they became known as "Methodists." They were largely the work of two brothers, John and Charles Wesley, priests of the Church of England, and sons of the Church of England rector at Epworth.

The Church of England has been in the forefront of the ecumenical movement. Its Archbishop William Temple laid the groundwork for the coming into being of the World Council of Churches.

The Church of England in America

Sir Francis Drake, son of a British clergyman, brought his chaplain, Francis Fletcher, and the Church of England to the New World when, in 1579, he came ashore and claimed the new continent in the name of his Queen Elizabeth. The charters given Sir Humphrey Gilbert (1578) and Sir Walter Raleigh (1584 to 1587) provided for "public service according to the Church of England." With the dashing Captain John Smith came clergyman Robert Hunt, who at Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607, established the first permanent worship as a part of an established settlement. Captain John reported "We did hang an awning (which is an old saile) to three or four trees" and there built their rustic altar. Thus, with the settlers came the established Church. In Boston, Kings Chapel was opened in 1689 and in 1698 Trinity Church, New York, and a chapel at Newport, Rhode Island, were consecrated.

While British colonists were settling the eastern seaboard, Spanish explorers and settlers were colonizing Florida and threatening to move north under the banner of their King and their Pope. As a buffer, England sent out General Oglethorpe to build a fort and establish a garrison at Frederica, Georgia, in 1736. As his personal secretary and Chaplain, he brought Charles Wesley, and later John Wesley came to serve as Chaplain to the garrison and as missionary to the Indians. In 1742 a Spanish fleet of 51 vessels moved north and landed its attacking force of 3,000 men, but in the ensuing "Battle of the Bloody Marshes" the garrison at Fort Oglethorpe completely annihilated their adversaries and ended the threat of Spanish conquest of the British colonies.

At Frederica the Wesleys established a church of their faith which today continues as Christ Church of the Protestant Episcopal denomination. As in England, the Wesley brothers organized, within this new Church, a "Methodist Society." The Society, thus established, continues today on neighboring St. Simons Island as the Methodist Church of St. Simons.

The American revolution brought a crisis for the Church of England in America. Ministers could be ordained only in England and as a part of their ordination service were required to take an oath of allegiance to the King. Understandably, many of the clergy remained loyal to their King.

Some returned to England; the former established Church was roughly treated. With the war won, the people of the new nation found themselves largely without the benefit of clergy. Out of this situation came into being, almost simultaneously, The Methodist Episcopal Church and The Protestant Episcopal Church.

The Methodist Church (1784)

That the people in the Societies in America were without clergy to perform the sacraments was of great concern to John Wesley. The Church of England had refused to send a Bishop to America to ordain ministers. The Bishop of London even refused Wesley's personal request "to ordain a pious man" for service in America.

(a) Ordination of Bishop Asbury

In 1746 Wesley had studied a book by Lord King, published in 1691, in which it was argued that in the early Church there were only two orders, deacons and elders or presbyters, and that the Church of England was in error in holding that Bishops were of a special "third order." For almost forty years Wesley had been studying and pondering this problem. If the thesis were correct, then he as a presbyter or priest in the true Apostolic succession of the Church of England, had the power of ordination. He ultimately came to the conclusion that "Bishops and presbyters are (essentially) one order." Acting on this finding, Wesley and James Creighton, also an ordained minister of the Church of England and others, by the laying on of hands in a service of consecration, set apart as Superintendent for the work in America, Thomas Coke, a scholarly Anglican clergyman, who held his doctor's degree from Oxford University. This was in Bristol on September 2, 1784. Coke in turn was to go to America and ordain Francis Asbury, a lay-preacher in the Methodist Societies whom Wesley had suggested as permanent Superintendent for the work of the Societies in America. The credentials which Coke took to America was in handwriting, and read as follows:

To all to whom these Presents shall come John Wesley, late Fellow of Lincoln College in Oxford, Presbyter of the Church of England sendeth greeting:

WHEREAS many of the People in the Southern Provinces of North America who desire to continue under my care, and shall adhere to the Doctrines and Discipline of the Church of England are greatly distressed for want of Minister to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper according to the usage of the said Church. And whereas there does not appear to be any other way of Supplying them with Ministers

Know all men that I John Wesley think myself to be providentially called at this time to set apart some persons for the work of the ministry in America. And therefore under the Protection of Almighty God, and with a single eye to his glory, I have this day set apart as a superintendent, by the imposition of my hands and prayer, (being assisted by other ordained Ministers) Thomas Coke, Doctor of Civil Law a Presbyter of the Church of England & man whom I judge to be well qualified for that great work. And I do hereby recommend him to all whom it may concern as a fit person to preside over the Flock of Christ. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this second day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty four

On arrival in America, Dr. Coke met with Francis Asbury and other Methodist preachers (American and those sent by Wesley) in the famous Christmas Conference of 1784, held in Baltimore, at which time and place they organized the Methodist Episcopal Church. Asbury would not permit Coke to ordain him unless and until the Methodist preachers, in Conference assembled, should elect him for ordination and leadership. This they did unanimously. Then Coke, assisted by both Whatcoat and Vasey and also by Philip William Otterbein, a pietistic German Reformed minister, ordained Asbury, first as Deacon, then as Elder, and then set him a part as Superintendent. The Conference also elected Coke as a Superintendent. Asbury and Coke were at once called Bishops and all Methodist Bishops today stem from this heritage. Their succession has never been recognized by Lambeth and the Anglican communion.*

(b) Division in the Church

The Church has been unhappy in its many divisions, there being today 23 denominations in America bearing the name "Methodist." In 1828 as a protest against episcopal authority, a group broke away to form the Methodist Protestant Church. In 1844 the Church split north and south on the issue of slavery. Happily, these three branches were able to reunite in 1939 as The Methodist Church, its membership of 9,000,000 making it today the largest protestant denomination in America. There are in addition three large negro groups: The African Methodist Episcopal Church which organized in Philadelphia in 1787 and now has more than 1,100,000 members; the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church which organized in New York in 1796 and has over 500,000 members; and the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church which was organized in the South in 1870 and has about 385,000 members. Combining all groups, the "Methodists" in America number substantially over 11,000,000 members.

(c) World Connections

The Methodist Church is a member of the World Methodist Conference, formerly known as the Methodist Ecumenical Council, which was established in 1870. This Conference, composed of delegates from 24 Methodist Churches, having their seats of government in 17 different countries, meets every five years and maintains a Secretariat and office in London, for the eastern hemisphere, and in New York for the western hemisphere. Bishop Ivan Lee Holt serves as first President of the newly constituted World Methodist Conference.

The British Methodist Church does not have episcopal form of government. Generally speaking those churches which came into being through English missionary effort have followed their form and those from American effort the episcopal form.

The World Methodist Conference has no legislative control over its constituent members. It meets on a fraternal basis and makes plans for co-operative efforts in missionary work and world evangelism.

The Methodist Church has always been interested in the ecumenical movement and has taken an active part in the founding of the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam (1948) and the National Council of Churches in Cleveland (1950). A layman, Dr. John R. Mott, was one of the guiding spirits of the World Council and became its first Honorary President and Bishop Oxnam was elected to serve as one of the first Presidium.

The Protestant Episcopal Church (1789)

The Revolution that separated the colonies of the Atlantic seaboard from the English crown left the Anglican congregations isolated from the mother Church. The scattered parishes were completely disorganized and suffered acute financial distress. The civil establishments guaranteeing the support of the Church in the southern colonies were terminated by the new States; in the north the funds provided by the missionary body of the Church of England, the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, were necessarily withdrawn. Moreover, the flight of a large number of Loyalists from the central and New England States to Canada and the West Indies removed from the Church many of its ablest clergy and lay leaders.

Between 1780 and 1783, the Rev. William White of Philadelphia and the Rev. William Smith of Maryland took steps to organize the clergy and laymen of the Middle States into the Protestant Episcopal Church, appealing to parishes elsewhere to join them. Meanwhile, the clergy of Connecticut, firmly convinced that no national organization should be completed until an American episcopate had been secured, sent the Rev. Samuel Seabury to England to seek consecration as Bishop.

(a) Ordination of First Bishops

Though Seabury was courteously received, the existing ecclesiastical laws prevented the English Bishops from consecrating a man who could not take the statutory oaths of allegiance to the King and supremacy of the state. As a result, Seabury went to Scotland. There, on November 14, 1784, he was consecrated by three Bishops of the little independent Scottish Episcopal Church, a body which had continued an heroic and precarious existence in Presbyterian Scotland ever since the revolution of 1688 had swept episcopacy out of the Church of Scotland.

The legal obstacles which prevented Seabury's consecration in England aroused the English archbishops to action. Within two years parliament was persuaded to pass the enabling legislation that allowed William White and Samuel Provoost to be consecrated in Lambeth Palace Chapel in 1787 for the Dioceses of Pennsylvania and New York. In 1790 the American episcopate in the English line was completed by the consecration of James Madison.

The General Convention of 1789 saw the final achievement of national unity and organization in the Protestant Episcopal Church. Earlier conventions in 1785 and 1786, attacking the problems facing the Church, had laid the groundwork for their solution. In 1789 the adoption of the Prayer Book and the Constitution gave the American Church the formularies in which its doctrine, discipline and worship were enshrined. Anglicanism was no longer confined to Great Britain.*

(b) Division in the church

The Episcopalians have been peculiarly free from splits; only The Reformed Episcopal Church, a relatively small group, broke away in 1873. The Church even survived the Civil War, when the other major denominations, the Baptists, Presbyterians and Methodists, divided. New England rectors became abolitionists and one southerner, Bishop Polk, became a general under Lee, but they remained in the same Church. The name of every absent southern Bishop was called in the New York Convention of 1862; northern churchmen corresponded with southern throughout the war; Bishop McIlvane of Ohio and fighting Bishop Polk of Louisiana prayed for each other by name from their respective chancels every Sunday.

Today the Church numbers about 2,500,000 members.

(c) World Connections

The Protestant Episcopal Church is a member of the family of Episcopal Churches known as the Anglican Communion. All these Churches, tracing their ancestry from the Church of England, recognize each others ministries and interchange clergymen and communicants. Organizationally, each branch of the communion is independent but, because they are of one communion, there can never be any geographical overlapping of its Bishops' jurisdictions.

The Lambeth Conference is a meeting held approximately every ten years of all Bishops of the Anglican Communion under the presidency of the Archbishop of Canterbury. This Conference has no legislative power but great influence throughout the communion. The Anglican Communion is estimated at 38,000,000 members living in all parts of the world.

The Episcopal Church has always been interested in the ecumenical movement. Its Bishop Brent in 1910 took the lead in founding what became the Faith and Order movement and, with others, in founding the Life and Work movement, the two movements which merged in 1948 to form the World Council of Churches. Presiding Bishop Sherrill was elected first President of the new National Council of Churches, organized in Cleveland in 1950.

Attempts at Union

Some years before the Uniting Conference of Methodism in 1939 there were informal conversations between the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. and the Protestant Episcopal Church looking toward union. The Methodist Episcopal Church withdrew from these discussions to consummate Methodist Union; the other two still continue discussions.

In 1942 representatives of the Episcopal Church and The Methodist Church met in Cleveland and it was decided to renew Episcopal-Methodist discussions. The 1948 Methodist General Conference in Boston received a proposal from the Commission of the Episcopal Church for further discussions and this proposal had hearty endorsement from two Episcopal Bishops who spoke at the Conference—Presiding Bishop Sherrill and Bishop Nash of Massachusetts.

Each Church has a Commission of eighteen, six Bishops, six other clergymen and six laymen, and these Commissions are currently engaged in discussions. Their present memberships are:

The Order for

The Administration of the Lord's Supper

or

METHODIST

THE RITUAL

We call upon all our ministers to make faithful use of the forms and orders here provided, without other deviation than is here indicated.

We urge all ministers to encourage and train the people to participate audibly in those portions of the service provided for this purpose, particularly in the celebration of the Lord's Supper. The portions to be used as responses are especially indicated by bold face type.

THE LORD'S SUPPER OR HOLY COMMUNION

AN ORDER FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER OR HOLY COMMUNION I

The following is a complete order of public worship and is intended to replace the regular order of morning worship when the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered. The responses may be sung, if desired. See numbers 565-88 in The Methodist Hymnal.

At the Communion-time the Holy Table shall have upon it a fair white linen cloth. And the Priest, standing reverently before the Holy Table, shall say the Lord's Prayer and the Collect following, the People kneeling; but the Lord's Prayer may be omitted at the discretion of the Priest.

*The Lord's Table should have upon it a fair linen cloth.
Let the pure, unfermented juice of the grape be used.
It is our custom to receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper kneeling, but if persons so desire, they may receive the elements while seated or standing.*

Upon entering the church let the communicants bow in prayer and in the spirit of prayer and meditation approach the blessed Sacrament.

The people shall stand and join in singing the hymn, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty," or other suitable hymn, and remain standing until after the singing of the Gloria Patri.

God is a Spirit. They that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

Glory be to God on high.

God is Light. If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

Glory be to God on high.

God is Power. They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Glory be to God on high.

God is Love. Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us.

Glory be to God on high.

Then the Gloria Patri shall be said or sung:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Collect.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Then may the minister read the Ten Commandments, and the people, still in the attitude of prayer, shall in response ask God's mercy for their transgressions in times past and grace to keep the law in time to come.

Then shall the Priest, turning to the People, rehearse distinctly The Ten Commandments; and the People, still kneeling, shall, after every Commandment, ask God's mercy for their transgressions for the time past, and grace to keep the law for the time to come.

And NOTE, That in rehearsing The Ten Commandments, the Priest may omit that part of the Commandment which is inset. The Decalogue may be omitted, provided it be said at least one Sunday in each month. But NOTE, That whenever it is omitted, the Priest shall say the Summary of the Law, beginning, Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

The Decalogue.

God spake these words, and said:
I am the LORD thy God; Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the waters under the earth; thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them;

for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and show mercy unto thousands in them that love me and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not take the Name of the LORD thy God in vain;

for the LORD will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day.

Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work; thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

God spake these words and said: I am the LORD thy God:

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in the heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Honour thy father and thy mother;

that thy days may be long in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt do no murder.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not steal.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Thou shalt not covet.

thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Then may the Priest say,

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

Here, if the Decalogue hath been omitted, shall be said,

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

In place of or in addition to the Ten Commandments the minister may read the summary of the divine law in the words of Jesus, and the people, in the attitude of prayer, shall ask God's mercy and gracious aid.

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts, we beseech thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Then the Priest may say,

O Almighty Lord, and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern, both our hearts and bodies, in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments; that, through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Here shall be said,

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Let us pray.

Then shall the Priest say the Collect of the Day. And after the Collect the Minister appointed shall read the Epistle, first saying, The Epistle is written in the Chapter of—, beginning at the—Verse. The Epistle ended, he shall say, Here endeth the Epistle.

Then may the minister read the Epistle, to be followed by the Gospel.

Here may be sung a Hymn or an Anthem.

Then, all the People standing, the Minister appointed shall read the Gospel, first saying, The Holy Gospel is written in the Chapter of—, beginning at the—Verse.

Here shall be said,

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

And after the Gospel may be said,

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Then shall be said the Creed commonly called the Nicene, or else the Apostles' Creed; but the Creed may be omitted, if it hath been said immediately before in Morning Prayer; Provided, That the Nicene Creed shall be said on Christmas Day, Easter Day, Ascension Day, Whitsunday, and Trinity Sunday.

Here may the minister and people repeat the Apostles' Creed or some other of the authorized affirmations of faith, the people standing.

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God; Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God; Begotten, not made; Being of one substance with the Father; By whom all things were made: Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man: And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried: And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures: And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father: And he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord, and Giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; Who spake by the Prophets: And I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church: I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins: And I look for the Resurrection of the dead: And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

Then shall be declared unto the People what Holy Days, or Fasting-days, are in the week following to be observed; and (if occasion be) shall Notice be given of the Communion, and of the Banns of Matrimony, and of other matters to be published.

Here, or immediately after the Creed, may be said the Bidding Prayer, or other authorized prayers and intercessions.

Then followeth the Sermon. After which, the Priest, when there is a Communion, shall return to the Holy Table and begin the Offertory, saying one or more of these Sentences following, as he thinketh most convenient.

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx. 35.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. v. 16.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. St. Matt. vi. 19, 20.

Then may follow the sermon or communion meditation and a suitable hymn (see hymns 408-15). During the singing of this hymn the minister shall remove the linen cloth that covers the elements.

After the hymn has been sung, the minister, standing by the Lord's Table, shall announce the offering for the needy, using one or more of the following groups of sentences.

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. vii. 21.

He that soweth little shall reap little; and he that soweth plentifully shall reap plentifully. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Cor. ix. 6, 7.

While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and especially unto them that are of the household of faith. Gal. vi. 10.

God is not unrighteous, that he will forget your works, and labour that proceedeth of love; which love ye have showed for his Name's sake, who have ministered unto the saints, and yet do minister. Heb. vi. 10.

To do good, and to distribute, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Heb. xiii. 16.

Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 St. John iii. 17.

Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plentifully; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: for so gatherest thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity. Tobit iv. 8, 9.

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. St. Matt. xxv. 40.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? Rom. x. 14, 15,

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

II

They shall not appear before the LORD empty: every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plentifully: if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: for so gatherest thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity.

He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

III

To do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need,

Jesus said unto them, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest. St. Luke x. 2.

Ye shall not appear before the LORD empty; every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee. Deut. xvi. 16, 17.

and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

IV

Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

As the minister receives the offering, the people shall stand, and the following may be said or sung:

All things come of thee, O Lord, and of thine own have we given thee.

Then may the Minister say:

Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. I Chron. xxix. 11.

All things come of thee, O Lord, and of thine own have we given thee. I Chron. xxix. 14.

Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

And NOTE, That these Sentences may be used on any other occasion of Public Worship when the Offerings of the People are to be received.

The Deacons, Church-wardens, or other fit persons appointed for that purpose, shall receive the Alms for the Poor, and other Offerings of the People, in a decent Basin to be provided by the Parish; and reverently bring it to the Priest, who shall humbly present and place it upon the Holy Table.

And the Priest shall then offer, and shall place upon the Holy Table, the Bread and the Wine.

And when the Alms and Oblations are being received and presented, there may be sung a Hymn, or an Offertory Anthem in the words of Holy Scripture or of the Book of Common Prayer, under the direction of the Priest.

Here the Priest may ask the secret intercessions of the Congregation for any who have desired the prayers of the Church.

Then shall the Priest say,

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church.

Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to accept our [alms and] oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the Universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: And grant that all those who do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love.

We beseech thee also, so to direct and dispose the hearts of all Christian Rulers, that they may truly and impartially administer justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion, and virtue.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and other Ministers, that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

And to all thy People give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present; that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy Holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

And we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to grant them continual growth in thy love and service, and to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say to those who come to receive the Holy Communion.

Ye who do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, devoutly kneeling.

Then shall this General Confession be made, by the Priest and all those who are minded to receive the Holy Communion, humbly kneeling.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's

The people shall remain standing while the minister reads the invitation.

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and devoutly kneeling make your humble confession to Almighty God.

Then shall this general confession be made by the minister and those who are minded to receive the Holy Communion, the minister kneeling, facing the Lord's Table, and all the people in the attitude of prayer.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine majesty. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us sake, Forgive us all that is past;

And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name; Through
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest (the Bishop if he be present) stand up, and turning to the People, say,

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you;
pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all who truly turn to him.

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. St. Matt. xi. 28.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. St. John iii. 16.

Hear also what Saint Paul saith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, That Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. i. 15.

Hear also what Saint John saith.

If any man sin, we have an
Advocate with the Father, Jesus
Christ the righteous; and he is the Propitiation for our sins. *1 St.
John ii. 1, 2.*

After which the Priest shall proceed, saying,

Lift up your hearts.

Answer. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Priest. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

Answer. It is meet and right so to do.

all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Then shall the minister offer this prayer:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy great mercy hast promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto thee; have mercy upon us; pardon and deliver us from all our sins; confirm and strengthen us in all goodness; and bring us to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

Hear what the Scripture saith to those of a humble and contrite heart:

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus
Christ the righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

After which the minister and people may say:

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up unto the Lord.
Let us give thanks unto the Lord.

It is meet and right so to do.

Then the minister, still kneeling and facing the Lord's Table, shall say:

Then shall the Priest turn to the Holy Table, and say,

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Here shall the Proper Preface, according to the time, if there be any specially appointed; or else immediately shall be said or sung by the Priest,

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

HOLY, HOLY,
HOLY, Lord God of ^{Priest a n d} hosts, Heaven and ^{People.}
earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Amen.

(Here in the Book of Common Prayer follows a series of Proper Prefaces (note rubric above) for the major holy days of the Church Year.)

When the Priest, standing before the Holy Table, hath so ordered the Bread and Wine, that he may with the more readiness and decency break the Bread before the People, and take the Cup into his hands, he shall say the Prayer of Consecration, as followeth.

All glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there (by his own oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again; For in the night in which he was betrayed, (a) he took Bread; and when he

(a) Here the Priest is to take the Paten into his hands.

(b) And here to break the bread.

(c) And here to lay his hand upon all the Bread.

(d) Here he is to take the Cup into his hands.

(e) And here he is to lay his hand upon every vessel in which there is

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

Then shall be said or sung:

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praising thee, and saying: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High! Amen.

Then shall the minister offer the prayer of consecration:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there, by the one offering of himself, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy gospel command us to continue, this memorial of his precious death: hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee, and grant that we, receiving this bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion may also be partakers of the divine nature through him, who in the same night that he was betrayed took bread;¹ and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; had given thanks, ^{any Wine to be consecrated.} (b) he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, (c) this is my Body, which is given for you; Do this in remembrance of me. Likewise, after supper, (d) he took the Cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for (e) this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins; Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

¹ Here may the minister take the plate in his hands.

Wherefore, O Lord
a n d h e a v e n l y The Oblation.
Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, we, thy humble servants, do celebrate and make here before thy Divine Majesty, with these thy holy gifts, which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; rendering unto thee most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O ^{The Invocation.} merciful Father, to hear us; and, of thy almighty goodness, vouchsafe to bless and sanctify, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, these thy gifts and creatures of bread and wine; that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we, and all thy whole Church, may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, this is my body, which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me. Likewise after supper he took the cup; ² and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins; do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

Amen.

² Here may the minister take the cup in his hands.

O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that we, and all others who shall be partakers of this Holy Communion, may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him. And although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

And now, as our Saviour Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then shall the Priest, kneeling down at the Lord's Table, say, in the name of all those who shall receive the Communion, this Prayer following:

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his

(In the Methodist Ritual, as in the 1662 Prayer Book of the Church of England, this prayer follows the Communion of the people. See below.)

Then shall the minister, kneeling before the Lord's Table, unite with the people in this prayer:

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou are the same Lord, whose mercy is unfailing. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to partake of these memorials of thy Son Jesus Christ, that we may be filled with the fullness of his life, may grow into his likeness, and may evermore body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Here may be sung a Hymn.

Then shall the Priest first receive the Holy Communion in both kinds himself, and proceed to deliver the same to the Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, in like manner, (if any be present,) and, after that, to the People also in order, into their hands, all devoutly kneeling. And sufficient opportunity shall be given to those present to communicate. And when he delivereth the Bread, he shall say,

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

And the Minister who delivereth the Cup shall say,

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

If the consecrated Bread or Wine be spent before all have communicated, the Priest is to consecrate more, according to the Form before prescribed; beginning at, All glory be to thee, Almighty God, and ending with these words, partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood.

When all have communicated, the Priest shall return to the Lord's Table, and reverently place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, covering the same with a fair linen cloth.

dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Then shall the minister first receive the Holy Communion in both kinds himself, after which he shall proceed to deliver the same to other ministers in like manner, if any be present. After this, the minister shall administer the Holy Communion to the people, while they are devoutly kneeling.

Before giving the bread, the minister shall say:

Jesus said, "This is my body, which is given for you." Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

Likewise before giving the cup he shall say:

Jesus said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is shed for you." Drink this in remembrance that Christ died for you, and be thankful.

When all have communed, the minister shall place upon the Lord's Table what remains of the consecrated elements, covering the same with the linen cloth.

Then shall the minister and people say:

O Lord, our heavenly Father, we, thy humble servants, desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and thy whole Church may obtain forgiveness of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee that all we who are partakers of this Holy Communion may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses; through Jesus Christ Our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of his most precious death and passion. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Then shall be said the Gloria in Excelsis, all standing, or some proper Hymn.

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards

Then shall be said or sung the Gloria in Excelsis, the people standing.

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will toward men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty!

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Then come the People kneeling, the Priest (the Bishop if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing.

The Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

GENERAL RUBRICS.

In the absence of a Priest, a Deacon may say all that is before appointed unto the end of the Gospel.

Upon the Sundays and other Holy Days, (though there be no Sermon or Communion,) may be said all that is appointed at the Communion, unto the end of the Gospel, concluding with the Blessing.

And if any of the consecrated Bread and Wine remain after the Communion, it shall not be carried out of the Church; but the Minister and other Communicants shall, immediately after the Blessing, reverently eat and drink the same.

If among those who come to be partakers of the Holy Communion, the Minister shall know any to be an open and notorious evil liver, or to have done any wrong to his neighbours by word or deed, so that the Congregation be thereby offended; he shall advertise him, that he presume not to come to the Lord's Table, until he have openly declared himself to have truly repented and amended his former evil life, that the Congregation may thereby be satisfied; and that he hath recompensed the parties to whom he hath done wrong; or at least declare himself to be in full purpose so to do, as soon as he conveniently may.

The same order shall the Minister use men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty!

O Lord, the only-begotten Son Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Then shall the minister let the people depart with this blessing:

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

(In the Methodist Ritual, compare opening rubrics.)

with those, betwixt whom he perceiveth malice and hatred to reign; not suffering them to be partakers of the Lord's Table, until he know them to be reconciled. And if one of the parties, so at variance, be content to forgive from the bottom of his heart all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that wherein he himself hath offended; and the other party will not be persuaded to a godly unity, but remain still in his forwardness, and malice; the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the Holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate. Provided, That every Minister so repelling any, as is herein specified, shall be obliged to give an account of the same to the Ordinary, within fourteen days after, at the farthest.

(The Methodist Ritual contains the following alternative shorter form.)

HOLY COMMUNION II

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have showed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

To do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

(For comparison with this alternative shorter form see above. The Episcopal form is not here reprinted.)

Then shall the minister read this invitation:

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbors, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

Then shall this general confession be made by the minister and all those who are minded to receive the Holy Communion, both he and they humbly kneeling, and saying:

Almighty God, Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, judge of all men; we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine majesty, provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy son Our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

O Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy great mercy hast promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn to thee; have mercy upon us; pardon and deliver us from all our sins; confirm and strengthen us in all goodness; and bring us to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name, evermore praising thee, and saying: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high! Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful souls and bodies may be made clean by his death, and washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. AMEN.

Then the minister shall say the prayer of consecration as followeth:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there (by his oblation of himself once offered), a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of his precious death until his coming again: hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee, and grant that we, receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body and blood; who in the same night that he was betrayed took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat; this is my body, which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me. Likewise after supper he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this; for this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins; do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. AMEN.

(For comparison with this alternative shorter form see above. The Episcopal form is not here reprinted.)

Then shall the minister first receive the Holy Communion in both kinds himself, and then proceed to deliver the same to the other ministers in like manner, if any be present.

Then shall he say the Lord's Prayer, the people still kneeling and repeating after him every petition:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Then a hymn may be sung, and the communicants shall be invited to the Lord's Table. The minister shall deliver both kinds to the people into their hands.

When he delivereth the bread, he shall say:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving.

And the minister that delivereth the cup shall say:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy soul and body unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

When all have communed, the minister shall return to the Lord's Table, and place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated elements, covering the same with a fair linen cloth.

Then shall the minister and people say:

O Lord, our heavenly Father, we, thy humble servants, desire thy Fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee that all we who are partakers of this Holy Communion may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses; through Jesus Christ Our Lord; by whom, and with whom in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Then may be said or sung:

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, Good Will toward men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly king, God the Father almighty!

O Lord, the only-begotten Son Jesus Christ; O Lord God, lamb of God, son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Then the minister, if he see it expedient, may offer an extempore prayer; and afterward shall let the people depart with this blessing:

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. AMEN.

Confirmation or Receiving Persons into the Church

EPISCOPAL

The Order of Confirmation
Or Laying on of Hands upon Those that are Baptized, and come to Years of Discretion.

Upon the day appointed, all that are to be confirmed shall stand in order before the Bishop, sitting in his chair near to the Holy Table, the People all standing until the Lord's Prayer; and the Minister shall say, Reverend Father in God, I present unto you these persons to receive the Laying on of Hands.

Then the Bishop, or some Minister appointed by him, may say,

Hear the words of the Evangelist Saint Luke, in the eighth Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles.

When the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

Then shall the Bishop say,

Do ye here, in the presence of God, and of this congregation, renew the solemn promise and vow that ye made, or that was made in your name, at your Baptism; ratifying and confirming the same; and acknowledging yourselves bound to believe and to do all those things which ye then undertook, or your Sponsors then undertook for you?

METHODIST

The Order for Receiving Persons into the Church.

On the day appointed, all that are to be received into the Church shall be called forward, and the minister, addressing the people, shall say:

Dearly beloved, the Church is of God, and will be preserved to the end of time, for the promotion of his worship and the due administration of his word and ordinances, the maintenance of Christian fellowship and discipline, the edification of believers, and the conversion of the world. All, of every age and station, stand in need of the means of grace which it alone supplies.

Into this holy fellowship the persons before you who have received the Sacrament of Baptism, who have learned the nature of these privileges and these duties, and who have also been instructed in the teachings and the aims of The Methodist Church, come seeking admission. We now propose in the fear of God to question them as to their faith and purpose, that you may know that they are proper persons to be admitted into this church.

Then, addressing those seeking admission, the minister shall say:

Beloved in the Lord, you are come hither seeking union with the Church of God. We rejoice that you are minded to undertake the privileges and the duties of membership in the Church. Before you are fully admitted thereto, you should here publicly renew your vows, confess your faith, and declare your purpose, by answering the following questions:

Do you here in the presence of God and this congregation renew the solemn promise and vow that was made at you baptism?

I do.

And every one shall audibly answer,

I do.

Then shall the Bishop say,

Do ye promise to follow Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour?

And every one shall answer.

I do.

Bishop. Our help is in the Name of the Lord;

Answer. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Bishop. Blessed be the Name of the Lord;

Answer. Henceforth, world without end.

Bishop. Lord, hear our prayer.

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Bishop. Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these thy servants by Water and the Holy Ghost, and hast given unto them forgiveness of all their sins; Strengthen them, we beseech thee, O Lord, with the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, and daily increase in them thy manifold gifts of grace: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness; and fill them, O Lord, with the spirit of thy holy fear, now and for ever. Amen.

Then all of them in order kneeling before the Bishop, he shall lay his hand upon the head of every one severally, saying,

Defend, O Lord, this thy Child with thy heavenly grace; that he may continue thine for ever; and daily increase in thy Holy Spirit more and more, until he come unto thy everlasting kingdom. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say,

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Bishop. Let us pray.

Then shall the Bishop say the Lord's Prayer, the People kneeling and repeating it with him.

Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Saviour and Lord and pledge your allegiance to his Kingdom?

I do.

Do you receive and profess the Christian faith as contained in the New Testament of our Lord Jesus Christ?

I do.

Will you be loyal to The Methodist Church, and uphold it by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, and your service?

I will.

Then those to be received shall kneel, and the minister, who may lay his hand upon the head of every one severally, shall say:

N., The Lord defend thee with his heavenly grace and by his Spirit confirm thee in the faith and fellowship of all true disciples of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say,

Almighty and everliving God, who makest us both to will and to do those things which are good, and acceptable unto thy Divine Majesty;
We make our humble supplications unto thee for these thy servants, upon whom, after the example of thy holy Apostles, we have now laid our hands, to certify them, by this sign, of thy favour and gracious goodness towards them. Let thy fatherly hand, we beseech thee, ever be over them; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that in the end they may obtain everlasting life;
through our Lord Jesus Christ, who with thee and the same Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth ever, one God, world without end.
Amen.

O Almighty Lord, and everlasting
God, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern, both our hearts and bodies, in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments;
that, through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then the Bishop shall bless them saying thus,

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

*The Minister shall not omit earnestly to move the Persons confirmed to come, without delay, to the Lord's Supper.
And there shall none be admitted to the Holy Communion, until such time as he be confirmed, or be ready and desirous to be confirmed.*

The minister shall say to the candidates:

We rejoice to recognize you as members of the Church of Christ, and bid you welcome to all its privileges; and in token of our brotherly love we give you the right hand of fellowship, and pray that you may be numbered with his people here, and with his saints in glory everlasting.

And the minister shall say to the congregation:

Brethren, I commend to your love and care these persons whom we this day recognize as members of the Church of Christ. Do all in your power to increase their faith, confirm their hope, and perfect them in love.

Then may be sung one or more stanzas of a hymn, such as:

379—"I love thy kingdom, Lord."

380—"Jesus, with thy Church abide."

383—"How lovely is thy dwelling place!"

Then may the minister say:

The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Ordination of a Deacon

EPISCOPAL

The Form and Manner of Making Deacons

When the day appointed by the Bishop is come, there shall be a Sermon, or Exhortation, declaring the Duty and Office of such as come to be admitted Deacons; how necessary that Order is in the Church of Christ, and also, how the People ought to esteem them in their Office.

The Sermon being ended, a Priest shall present unto the Bishop, sitting in his chair near to the Holy Table, such as desire to be ordained Deacons, each of them being decently habited, saying these words, Reverend Father in God, I present unto you these persons present, to be admitted Deacons.

The Bishop.

Take heed that the persons, whom ye present unto us, be apt and meet, for their learning and godly conversation, to exercise their Ministry duly, to the honour of God, and the edifying of his Church.

The Priest shall answer,

I have inquired concerning them, and also examined them, and think them so to be.

Then the Bishop shall unto the People,

Brethren, if there be any of you who knoweth any Impediment, or notable Crime, in any of these persons presented to be ordered Deacons, for the which he ought not to be admitted to that Office, let him come forth in the Name of God, and show what the Crime or Impediment is.

And if any great Crime or Impediment be objected, the Bishop shall cease from Ordering that person, until such time as the party accused shall be found clear of that Crime.

Then the Bishop (commending such as shall be found meet to be Ordered, to the Prayers of the congregation) shall, with the Clergy and People present, say the Litany.

And Note, That after the Suffrage, That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, etc., shall be said the following Suffrage:

METHODIST

THE ORDER FOR THE ORDINATION OF DEACONS

When the day appointed by the Bishop is come, there shall be a sermon or exhortation declaring the duty and office of such as come to be admitted deacons, how necessary that order is in the Church of Christ, and also how the people ought to esteem them in their office: after which one of the elders shall present unto the Bishop all who are to be ordained, and say:

I present unto you these persons present to be ordained deacons: [names].

Their names having been read aloud, the Bishop shall say to the people:

Brethren, these are they whom we purpose, God willing, this day to ordain deacons. For, after due examination, we find that they are lawfully called to this office and ministry, and that they are persons meet for the same. But if there be any of you who knoweth any valid reason for which any one of them ought not to be received into this holy ministry, let him come forth in the name of God, and disclose what the impediment is.

If any impediment be alleged, the Bishop shall desist from ordaining that person until he shall be found to be innocent.

That it may please thee to bless these thy servants, now to be admitted to the Order of Deacons, and to pour thy grace upon them; that they may duly execute their Office, to the edifying of thy Church, and the glory of thy holy Name;

And Note further, That in the discretion of the Bishop, instead of the Litany appointed, may be said the Litany for Ordinations.

Then shall be said the Service for the Communion, with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, as followeth.

The Collect.

Almighty God, who by thy divine providence hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church, and didst inspire thine Apostles to choose into the Order of Deacons the first Martyr Saint Stephen, with others; Mercifully behold these thy servants now called to the like Office and Administration: so replenish them with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that, both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve thee in this Office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edification of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and for ever. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Timothy iii. 8.

Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Then shall be read the Collect:

Almighty God, who by thy divine providence hast appointed divers orders of ministers in thy Church, and didst inspire thine apostles to choose into the order of deacons thy first martyr, St. Stephen, with others; mercifully behold these thy servants, now called to the like office and administration; so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that by both word and good example they may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy name and the edification of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

Then shall be read the Epistle:

Likewise must the deacons be grave, holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. They that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

Then, the People being seated, the Bishop shall examine every one of those who are to be Ordered, in the presence of the People, after this manner following.

Do you trust that you are inwardly moved by the Holy Ghost to take upon you this Office and Ministration, to serve God for the promoting of his glory, and the edifying of his people?

Answer. I trust so.

Bishop. Do you think that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and according to the Canons of this Church, to the Ministry of the same?

Answer. I think so.

Bishop. Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ?

Answer. I am so persuaded.

Bishop. Will you diligently read

Then shall the Bishop, in the presence of the people, examine every one of those to be ordained, after this manner:

Do you trust that you are inwardly moved by the Holy Spirit to take upon you the office of the ministry in the Church of Christ, to serve God for the promoting of his glory and the edifying of his people?

I trust so.

Do you unfeignedly believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments?

I do believe them.

Will you diligently read and ex-the same unto the people assembled in the Church where you shall be appointed to serve?

Answer. I will.

Bishop. It appertaineth to the Office of a Deacon, in the Church where he shall be appointed to serve, to assist the Priest in Divine Service, and specially when he ministereth the Holy Communion, and to help him in the distribution thereof; and to read Holy Scriptures and Homilies in the Church; and to instruct the youth in the Catechism; in the absence of the Priest to baptize infants; and to preach, if he be admitted thereto by the Bishop. And furthermore, it is his Office, where provision is so made, to search for the sick, poor, and impotent people of the Parish, that they may be relieved with the alms of the Parishioners, or others. Will you do this gladly and willingly?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

Bishop. Will you apply all your diligence to frame and fashion your own lives, and the lives of your families, according to the Doctrine of Christ; and to make both yourselves and them, as much as in you lieth, wholesome examples of the flock of Christ?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you reverently obey your Bishop, and other chief Ministers, who according to the Canons of the Church, may have the charge and government over you; following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions?

Answer. I will endeavour so to do, the Lord being my helper.

Then, the People standing, the Bishop shall lay his Hands severally upon the Head of every one to be made Deacon, humbly kneeling before him, and shall say, pound the same unto the people whom you shall be appointed to serve?

I will.

It appertaineth to the office of a deacon to conduct divine worship and to assist the elder when he ministereth the Holy Communion, to help him in the distribution thereof; to read and expound the Holy Scriptures; to instruct the youth; and to baptize. And, furthermore, it is his office to search for the needy, that they may be visited and relieved. Will you do this gladly and willingly?

I will so do, by the help of God.

Will you apply all your diligence to frame and fashion your own lives and the lives of your families according to the teachings of Christ?

I will, the Lord being my helper.

Will you reverently heed them to whom the charge over you is committed, following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions?

I will so do.

Then those to be ordained shall kneel, and the Bishop, laying his hands severally upon the head of every one of them, shall say:

Take thou Authority to execute the Office of a Deacon in the Church of God committed unto thee; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop deliver to every one of them the New Testament, saying,

Take thou Authority to read the Gospel in the Church of God, and to preach the same, if thou be thereto licensed by the Bishop himself.

Then one of them, appointed by the Bishop, shall read the Gospel.

The Gospel. St. Luke xii. 35.

Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

Then shall the Bishop proceed in the Communion; and all who are Ordered shall tarry, and receive the Holy Communion the same day, with the Bishop.

The Communion ended, after the last Collect, and immediately before the Benediction, shall be said this Collect following.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who of thy great goodness hast vouchsafed to accept and take these thy servants unto the Office of Deacons in thy Church; Make them, we beseech thee, O Lord, to be modest, humble, and constant in their Ministration, to have a ready will to observe all spiritual Discipline; that they, having always the testimony of a good conscience, and continuing ever stable and strong in thy Son Christ, may so well behave themselves in this inferior Office, that they may be found worthy to be

Take thou authority to execute the office of a deacon in the Church of God; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop deliver to every one of them the Bible, saying:

Take thou authority to read the Holy Scriptures in the Church of God, and to preach the Word. Amen.

Then shall the bishop, or one appointed by him, read the Gospel:

Then shall the Bishop pray:

called unto the higher Ministries in thy Church; through the same thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, to whom be glory and honour, world without end. Amen.

your Jesus Christ, to whom be glory and honor, world without end. Amen.

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then may the Bishop say:

The Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

And here it must be declared unto the Deacon, that he must continue in that Office of a Deacon the space of a whole year (except for reasonable causes it shall otherwise seem good unto the Bishop), to the intent he may be perfect and well expert in the things appertaining to the Ecclesiastical Administration. In executing whereof if he be found faithful and diligent, he may be admitted by his Diocesan to the Order of Priesthood, at the times appointed in the Canon; or else, on urgent occasion, upon some other day, in the face of the Church, in such manner and form as hereafter followeth.

Ordination of a Priest or Elder

EPISCOPAL

The Form and Manner of Ordering Priests

When the day appointed by the Bishop is come, there shall be a Sermon, or Exhortation, declaring the Duty and Office of such as come to be admitted Priests; how necessary that Order is in the Church of Christ, and also, how the people ought to esteem them in their Office.

A Priest shall present unto the Bishop, sitting in his chair near to the Holy Table, all those who are to receive the Order of Priesthood that day, each of them being decently habited, and shall say,

Reverend Father in God, I present

METHODIST

THE ORDER FOR THE ORDINATION OF ELDERS

When the day appointed by the Bishop is come, there shall be a sermon or exhortation declaring the duty and office of such as come to be admitted elders, how necessary that order is in the Church of Christ, and also how the people ought to esteem them in their office; after which one of the elders shall present unto the Bishop all who are to be ordained, and say:

I present unto you these per- unto you these persons present, to be admitted to the Order of Priesthood.

The Bishop.

Take heed that the persons, whom ye present unto us, be apt and meet, for their learning and godly conversation, to exercise their Ministry duly, to the honour of God, and the edifying of his Church.

The Priest shall answer,

I have inquired concerning them, and also examined them, and think them so to be.

Then the Bishop shall say unto the People,

Good People, these are they whom we purpose, God willing, to receive this day unto the holy Office of Priesthood; for, after due examination, we find not to the contrary, but that they are lawfully called to their Function and Ministry, and that they are persons meet for the same. But yet, if there be any of you who knoweth any Impediment, or notable Crime, in any of them, for the which he ought not to be received into this holy Ministry, let him come forth in the Name of God, and show what the Crime or Impediment is.

And if any great Crime or Impediment be objected, the Bishop shall cease from Ordering that person, until such time as the party accused shall be found clear of that Crime.

Then the Bishop (commending such as shall be found meet to be Ordered, to the Prayers of the congregation) shall, with the Clergy and People present, say the Litany.

And NOTE, That after the Suffrage, That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, etc., shall be said the following Suffrage:

That it may please thee to bless these thy servants, now to be admitted to the Order of Priests, and to pour thy grace upon them; that they may duly exercise their Office, to the edifying of thy Church, and the glory of thy holy Name;

And NOTE further, That in the discretion of the Bishop, instead of the Litany appointed, may be said the Litany for Ordinations.

sons present to be ordained elders: [names].

Their names having been read aloud, the Bishop shall say to the people:

Brethren, these are they whom we purpose, God willing, this day to ordain elders. For, after due inquiry, we find that they are lawfully called to this office and ministry, and that they are persons meet for the same. But if there be any of you who knoweth any valid reason for which any one of them ought not to be received into this holy ministry, let him come forth in the name of God, and disclose what the impediment is.

If any impediment be alleged, the Bishop shall desist from ordaining that person until he shall be found to be innocent.

Then shall be said the Service for the Communion, with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, as followeth.

The Collect.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold these thy servants now called to the Office of Priesthood; and so replenish them with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that, both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve thee in this Office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edification of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. Ephesians iv. 7.

Unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

The Gospel. St. John x. 1.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep

Then shall be read the Collect:

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers orders of ministers in thy Church; mercifully behold these thy servants, now called to the office of elder, and so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that by both word and good example they may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy name and the advancement of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

Then shall be read the Epistle and the Gospel:

I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ. And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

Jesus said, I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; and know my sheep, and am known of mine, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd.

Then, the People being seated, the Bishop shall say unto those who are to be ordained Priests as followeth.

Ye have heard, Brethren, as well in your private examination, as in the exhortation which was now made to you, and in the holy Lessons taken out of the Gospel, and the writings of the Apostles, of what dignity, and of how great importance this Office is, whereunto ye are called.

dantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

Then shall the Bishop say unto the persons to be ordained elders:

Dearly beloved, you have heard of what dignity and of how great importance is this office whereunto you are called. And now again we exhort you, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you are to be messengers, watchmen, and stewards of the Lord; to teach and to admonish, to feed and to provide for the Lord's fam-

And now again we exhort you, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye have in remembrance, into how high a Dignity, and to how weighty an Office and Charge ye are called: that is to say, to be Messengers, Watchmen, and Stewards of the Lord; to teach, and to premonish, to feed and provide for the Lord's family; to seek for Christ's sheep that are dispersed abroad, and for his children who are in the midst of this naughty world, that they may be saved through Christ for ever.

Have always therefore printed in your remembrance how great a treasure is committed to your charge. For they are the sheep of Christ, which he bought with his death, and for whom he shed his blood. The Church and Congregation whom you must serve, is his Spouse, and his Body. And if it shall happen that the same Church, or any Member thereof, do take any hurt or hindrance by reason of your negligence, ye know the greatness of the fault, and also the horrible punishment that will ensue. Wherefore consider with yourselves the end of the Ministry towards the children of God, towards the Spouse and Body of Christ; and see that ye never cease your labour, your care and diligence, until ye have done all that lieth in you, according to your bounden duty, to bring all such as are or shall be committed to your charge, unto that agreement in the faith and knowledge of God, and to that ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ, that there be no place left among you, either for error in religion, or for viciousness in life.

Forasmuch then as your Office is both of so great excellency, and of so great difficulty, ye see with how great care and study ye ought to apply yourselves, as well to show yourselves dutiful and thankful unto that Lord, who hath placed you in so high a dignity; as also to beware that neither you yourselves offend, nor be occasion that others offend.

ily; to seek for Christ's sheep that are dispersed abroad, and for his children who are in the midst of this evil world, that they may be saved through Christ forever.

Have always, therefore, in your remembrance how great a treasure is committed to your charge. For they unto whom you are to minister are the sheep of Christ, for whom he gave his life. The Church which you must serve is his Bride and his Body. And if it shall happen the Church, or any member thereof, do take any hurt or hindrance by reason of your negligence, you know the greatness of the fault. Wherefore see that you never cease your labor, your care, and your diligence until you have done all that lieth in you, according to your bounden duty, to bring all such as shall be committed to your charge unto perfectness in Christ.

Forasmuch, then, as your office is both of so great excellency and of so great difficulty, consider how you ought to forsake, as much as you can, all worldly cares, and be studious in learning the Scriptures, and in acquiring such knowledge and skill as may help you to declare the living word of God.

Howbeit, ye cannot have a mind and will thereto of yourselves; for that will and ability is given of God alone; therefore ye ought, and have need, to pray earnestly for his Holy Spirit. And seeing that ye cannot by any other means compass the doing of so weighty a work, pertaining to the salvation of man, but with doctrine and exhortation taken out of the Holy Scriptures, and with a life agreeable to the same; consider how studious ye ought to be in reading and learning the Scriptures, and in framing the manners both of yourselves, and of them that specially pertain unto you, according to the rule of the same Scriptures; and for this self-same cause, how ye ought to forsake and set aside, as much as ye may, all worldly cares and studies.

We have good hope that ye have well weighed these things with yourselves, long before this time; and that ye have clearly determined, by God's grace, to give yourselves wholly to this Office, whereunto it hath pleased God to call you: so that, as much as lieth in you, ye will apply yourselves wholly to this one thing, and draw all your cares and studies this way; and that ye will continually pray to God the Father, by the mediation of our only Saviour Jesus Christ, for the heavenly assistance of the Holy Ghost; that, by daily reading and weighing the Scriptures, ye may wax riper and stronger in your Ministry; and that ye may so endeavour yourselves, from time to time, to sanctify the lives of you and yours, and to fashion them after the Rule and Doctrine of Christ, that ye may be wholesome and godly examples and patterns for the people to follow.

And now, that this present Congregation of Christ may also understand your minds and wills in these things, and that this your promise may the more move you to do your duties; ye shall answer plainly to these things, which we, in the Name of God, and of his

We hope that you have weighed and pondered these things with yourselves long before this time, and that you have clearly determined, by God's grace, to give yourselves wholly to this work whereunto it has pleased God to call you. Also that you will continually pray that the Holy Spirit may assist you to order the lives of you and yours after the rule and doctrine of Christ, that you may grow riper and stronger in ministry and be godly and wholesome examples for the people to follow.

And now, that this congregation of Christ here assembled may also understand your purpose in these things, and that this your promise may the more move to you to perform your duties, you shall answer plainly to these things which we, in the name of Church, shall demand of you touching the same.

Do you think in your heart, that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and according to the Canons of this Church, to the Order and Ministry of Priesthood?

Answer. I think it.

Bishop. Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined, out of the said Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the Scripture?

Answer. I am so persuaded, and have so determined, by God's grace.

Bishop. Will you then give your faithful diligence always so to minister the Doctrine and Sacraments, and the Discipline of Christ, as the Lord hath commanded, and as this Church hath received the same, according to the Commandments of God; so that you may teach the people committed to your Cure and Charge with all diligence to keep and observe the same?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of the Lord.

Bishop. Will you be ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's Word; and to use both public and private monitions and exhortations, as well to the sick as to the whole, within your Cures, as need shall require, and occasion shall be given?

Answer. I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you be diligent in Prayers, and in reading the God and his Church, shall ask of you touching the same:

Do you believe in your heart that you are truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, to the ministry of elders?

I do so believe.

Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all truth required for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures so to instruct the people committed to your charge that they may enter into eternal life?

I am so persuaded and determined, by God's grace.

Will you give faithful diligence duly to minister the doctrine of Christ, the Sacraments, and the discipline of the Church, and in the spirit of Christ to defend the Church against all doctrine contrary to God's word?

I will so do, by the help of the Lord.

Will you be diligent in prayer, in the reading of the Holy Scrip-

Holy Scriptures, and in such studies as help to the knowledge of the same, laying aside the study of the world and the flesh?

Answer. I will endeavour so to do, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you be diligent to frame and fashion your own selves, and your families, according to the Doctrine of Christ; and to make both yourselves and them, as much as in you lieth, wholesome examples and patterns to the flock of Christ?

Answer. I will apply myself thereto, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you maintain and set forwards, as much as lieth in you, quietness, peace, and love, among all Christian people, and especially among them that are or shall be committed to your charge?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you reverently obey your Bishop, and other chief Ministers, who, according to the Canons of the Church, may have the charge and government over you; following with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions, and submitting yourselves to their godly judgments?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Then, all standing, shall the Bishop say,

Almighty God, who hath given you this will to do all these things; Grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same, that he may accomplish his work which he hath begun in you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After this, the Congregation shall be desired, secretly in their Prayers, to make their humble supplications to God for all these things; for the which Prayers there shall be silence kept for a space.

After which, the Persons to be ordained Priests kneeling, and others standing, the Bishop shall sing or say the Veni, Creator tures, and in such studies as help to the knowledge of God and of his kingdom?

I will, the Lord being my helper.

Will you apply all your diligence to frame and fashion your own selves and the lives of your families according to the teachings of Christ?

I will, the Lord being my helper.

Will you maintain and set forward, as much as lieth in you, quietness, peace, and love among all Christian people, and especially among them that shall be committed to your charge?

I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Will you reverently heed them to whom the charge over you is committed following, with a glad mind and will their godly admonitions?

I will so do, by the help of the Lord.

Then shall the Bishop say:

Almighty God, who hath given you this will to do all these things, grant also unto you power to perform the same, that he may accomplish his work which he hath begun in you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the people shall be requested to make their earnest supplications in silent prayer to God for those who are to be ordained as elders, and silence shall be kept for a space: after which shall be said the Veni, Creator Spiritus, the Bishop beginning, and all others answering as followeth, both the bishop and the people uniting in the final couplet.

Spiritus; the Bishop beginning, and the Priests, and others that are present, answering by verses, as followeth.

Veni, Creator Spiritus.

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.

Teach us to know the Father,
Son,
And thee, of both, to be but One;
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

That done, the Bishop shall pray in this wise, and say,

Let us pray.

Almighty God, and heavenly Father, who, of thine infinite love and goodness towards us, hast given to us thy only and most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, to be our Redeemer, and the Author of everlasting life; who, after he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, sent abroad into the world his Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Doctors, and Pastors; by whose labour and ministry he gathered together a great flock in all the parts of the world, to set forth the eternal praise of thy holy Name: For these so great benefits of thy eternal goodness, and for that thou hast vouchsafed to call these thy servants here present to the same Office and Ministry, appointed for the salvation of mankind, we render unto thee most hearty thanks, we praise and worship thee; and we humbly beseech thee, by the same thy blessed Son, to grant unto all, which either here or elsewhere call upon thy holy Name, that we may continue to show ourselves thankful unto thee for these and all thy other benefits; that we may daily increase and go forwards in the knowledge and faith of thee and thy Son, by the Holy Spirit. So that as well by these thy Ministers, as by them over whom they shall be appointed thy Ministers, thy holy Name may be forever glorified, and thy blessed kingdom enlarged; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say:

Let us pray.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we bless and magnify thy holy name for the gift of thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Redeemer, and for all his apostles, prophets, evangelists, teachers, and pastors, whom he hath sent abroad into the world. For these here present whom thou hast called to the same holy office and ministry, we render unto thee our most hearty thanks. And now, O Lord, we humbly beseech thee to grant that by these thy ministers, and by those over whom they shall be appointed, thy holy name may be forever glorified, and thy blessed Kingdom enlarged; through thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

When this Prayer is done, the Bishop with the Priests present, shall lay their Hands severally upon the Head of every one that receiveth the Order of Priesthood; the Receivers humbly kneeling, and the Bishop saying, Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands. Whose sins thou dost forgive, they are forgiven; and whose sins thou dost retain, they are retained. And be thou a faithful Dispenser of the Word of God, and of his holy Sacraments; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Or this

Take thou Authority to execute the Office of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed to thee by the Imposition of our hands. And be thou a faithful Dispenser of the Word of God, and of his holy Sacraments; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then the Bishop shall deliver to every one of them kneeling, the Bible into his hand, saying,

Take thou Authority to preach the Word of God, and to minister the holy Sacraments in the Con-

Then shall the Bishop and the elders present lay their hands severally upon the head of every one that receiveth the order of elder, the receivers kneeling, and the Bishop saying:

The Lord pour upon thee the Holy Spirit for the office and work of an elder in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the authority of the Church through the imposition of our hands. And be thou a faithful dispenser of the Word of God, and of his holy Sacraments; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop deliver to every one of them, kneeling, the Bible into his hands, saying:

Take thou authority as an elder in the Church to preach the Word of God, and to administer the holy gregation, where thou shalt be lawfully appointed thereunto.

When this is done, the Nicene Creed shall be said, and the Bishop shall go on in the Service of the Communion, which all they who receive Orders shall take together, and remain in the same place where Hands were laid upon them, until such time as they have received the Communion.

The Communion being done, after the last Collect, and immediately before the Benediction, shall be said this Collect.

Most merciful Father, we beseech thee to send upon these thy servants thy heavenly blessing; that they may be clothed with righteousness, and that thy Word spoken by their mouths may have such success, that it may never be spoken in vain. Grant also, that we may have grace to hear and receive what they shall deliver out of thy most holy Word, or agreeable to the same, as the means of our salvation; that in all our words and deeds we may seek thy glory, and the increase of thy kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

And if, on the same day, the Order of Deacons be given to some, and the Order of Priesthood to others; the Deacons shall be first presented, and then the Priests; and it shall suffice that the Litany be once said for both. The Epistle shall be Ephesians iv. 7 to 13, as before in this Office. Immediately after which, they that are to be made Deacons, shall be examined and Ordained, as is above prescribed. Then one of them having read the Gospel, (which shall be either Saint Matthew ix. 36 to 38, as before in this Office; or else Sacraments in the congregation. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop pray:

Most merciful Father, we beseech thee to send upon these thy servants thy heavenly blessings, that they may be clothed with righteousness, and that thy Word spoken by them may never be spoken in vain. Grant also that we may have grace to receive what they shall deliver out of thy Word as the means of our salvation, and that in all our words and deeds we may seek thy glory, and the increase of thy kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then may the Bishop say:

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

If on the same day the order for deacon be given to some and that of elder to others, the deacons shall be first presented and then the elders. The Collect shall be said and the Epistle read, immediately after which they who are to be ordained deacons shall be examined and ordained as is above described. Then, the Gospel having been read, they who are to be ordained elders shall likewise be examined and ordained, as in this office before appointed.

Saint Luke xii. 35 to 38, as before in the Form for the Ordering of Deacons), they that are to be made Priests shall likewise be examined and Ordained, as is in this Office before appointed. The Collect shall be as followeth.

The Collect.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold these thy servants now called to the Office of Deacon and these thy servants now called to the Office of Priest; and so replenish them with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that, both by word and good example, they may faithfully serve thee in their Ministry, to the glory of thy Name, and the edification of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

¶ 1922. THE ORDER FOR THE CONSECRATION OF BISHOPS

When the time approved for the consecration of Bishops is come, the service shall begin with a hymn, after which the Collect shall be read:

Almighty God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy holy apostles, elders, and evangelists many excellent gifts, and didst charge them to feed thy flock; give grace, we beseech thee, to all the ministers and pastors of thy Church, that they may diligently preach thy Word and duly administer the godly discipline thereof; and grant to the people that they may faithfully follow the same, that they may receive the crown of everlasting glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall one of the elders read the Epistle:

From Miletus Paul sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: and how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me: how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from the house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the Holy Spirit witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn everyone night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

Then another Bishop shall read the Gospel.

The Gospel. St. John xxi. 15.

Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

Or this.

The Gospel. St. Matthew xxviii. 18.

Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

Then shall follow the Nicene Creed, and after that the Sermon; which being ended, the Elected Bishop, vested with his Rochet, shall be presented by two Bishops of this Church unto the Presiding Bishop, or to the Bishop appointed, sitting in his chair, near the Holy Table; the Bishops who present him saying,

Reverend Father in God, we present unto you this godly and well-

Then shall another elder read the Gospel:

So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus said unto him, Feed my sheep.

And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Then shall the elected person be presented by two elders unto the Bishop, the elders saying:

We present unto you this elder chosen to be consecrated a Bishop.

learned man, to be Ordained and Consecrated Bishop.

Then shall the Presiding Bishop demand Testimonials of the person presented for Consecration, and shall cause them to be read.

He shall then require of him the following Promise of Conformity to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

In the Name of God, Amen. I N., chosen Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in N., do promise conformity and obedience to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. So help me God, through Jesus Christ.

Then the Presiding Bishop shall move the Congregation present to pray, saying thus to them:

Brethren, it is written in the Gospel of Saint Luke, that our Saviour Christ continued the whole night in prayer, before he chose and sent forth his twelve Apostles. It is written also, that the holy Apostles prayed before they ordained Matthias to be of the number of the Twelve. Let us, therefore, following the example of our Saviour Christ, and his Apostles, offer up our prayers to Almighty God, before we admit and send forth this person presented unto us, to the work whereunto we trust the Holy Ghost hath called him.

And then shall be said the Litany; save only, that after this place, That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, etc., the proper Suffrage shall be,

That it may please thee to bless this our Brother elected, and to send thy grace upon him, that he may duly execute the Office whereunto he is called, to the edifying of thy Church, and to the honour, praise, and glory of thy Name;

Answer. We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

And NOTE, That in the discretion of the Presiding Bishop, instead of the Litany, may be said the Litany for Ordinations. Then shall be said this Prayer following.

Almighty God, giver of all good

Then shall the Bishop call upon the people present to pray, saying:

Dearly beloved, it is written in the Gospel of St. Luke that our Saviour Christ continued the whole night in prayer before he chose and sent forth his twelve apostles. It is written also in the Acts of the Apostles that the disciples who were at Antioch did fast and pray before they laid hands on Paul and Barnabas and sent them forth on their first mission to the Gentiles. Let us therefore, following the example of our Saviour Christ and his apostles, give ourselves to prayer before we admit and send forth this person presented to us, to the work whereunto we trust the Holy Spirit hath called him.

Then shall the Bishop pray:

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers Orders of Ministers in thy Church; Mercifully behold this thy servant, now called to the Work and Ministry of a Bishop; and so replenish him with the truth of thy Doctrine, and adorn him with innocency of life, that, both by word and deed, he may faithfully serve thee in this Office, to the glory of thy Name, and the edifying and well-governing of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

Then, the People being seated, the Presiding Bishop, sitting in his chair, shall say to him that is to be Consecrated,

Brother, forasmuch as the Holy Scripture and the ancient Canons command, that we should not be hasty in laying on hands, and admitting any person to Government in the Church of Christ, which he hath purchased with no less price than the effusion of his own blood; before we admit you to this Administration, we will examine you in certain Articles, to the end that the Congregation present may have a trial, and bear witness, how you are minded to behave yourself in the Church of God.

Are you persuaded that you are truly called to this Ministration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the order of this Church?

Answer. I am so persuaded.

Bishop. Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all Doctrine required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach or maintain nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the same?

Answer. I am so persuaded, and determined, by God's grace.

Bishop. Will you then faithfully things, who by thy Holy Spirit hast appointed divers offices in thy Church; graciously behold this thy servant now called to the office and ministry of a Bishop. So replenish him with the truth of thy doctrine, and so adorn him with innocency of life, that by both word and deed he may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy name and the edifying and well governing of thy Church; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say to him that is to be consecrated:

Brother, forasmuch as the Holy Scriptures command that we should not be hasty in admitting any person to government in the Church of Christ, before you are admitted to this ministration, you will, in the fear of God, give answer to these questions:

Are you persuaded that you are truly called to this ministration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ?

I am so persuaded.

Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all truth required for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the same Holy Scriptures so to instruct the people committed to your charge that they may enter into eternal life?

I am so persuaded and determined, by God's grace.

Will you then faithfully ex-exercise yourself in the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of the same; so that you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome Doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gain-sayers?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

Bishop. Are you ready, with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the Church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's Word; and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to the same?

Answer. I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

Answer. I will so show myself, by God's help.

Bishop. Will you maintain and set forward, as much as shall lie in you, quietness, love, and peace among all men; and diligently exercise such discipline as by the authority of God's Word, and by the order of this Church, is committed to you?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

Bishop. Will you be faithful in Ordaining, sending, or laying hands upon others?

Answer. I will so be, by the help of God.

ercise yourself in the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God through study and prayer for the true understanding of the same?

I will so do, by the help of God.

Are you ready with all faithful diligence to seek and to promote the truth of Christ and to defend the Church against all doctrine contrary to God's Word?

I am ready, the Lord being my helper.

Will you live soberly, righteously, and devoutly in this present world, that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, to the honor and glory of God?

I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Will you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake to poor and needy people, and to all strangers destitute of help?

I will, by the help of God.

Will you maintain and set forward, as much as lieth in you, quietness, love, and peace among all men; and faithfully exercise such discipline in the Church as shall be committed unto you?

I will so do, by the help of God.

Will you be faithful in ordaining and appointing others; and will you ever seek to deal justly and kindly with your brethren of the ministry over whom you are placed as chief pastor?

Then, all standing, the Presiding Bishop shall say,

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things; Grant also unto you strength and power to perform the same; that, he accomplishing in you the good work which he hath begun, you may be found perfect and irreprehensible at the latter day; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop elect put on the rest of the Episcopal habit, and shall kneel down; and the Veni, Creator Spiritus shall be sung or said over him; the Presiding Bishop shall begin, and the Bishops, and the others that are present, standing, shall answer by verses, as followeth.

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,

Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee, of both, to be but One;
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

That ended, the Presiding Bishop shall say,

Lord, hear our prayer.

Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, and most merciful Father, who, of thine infinite goodness, hast given thy only and

I will so do, by the help of God.

Then shall the Bishop pray:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hath given you a good will to do all these things, grant also unto you wisdom and power to perform the same, that he may accomplish in you the good work which he hath begun, that you may be found blameless; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the people shall be requested to make their earnest supplications in silent prayer to God for those who are to be consecrated as Bishops, and silence shall be kept for a space; after which shall be said the Veni, Creator Spiritus, the Bishop beginning, and all others answering as followeth, both the Bishop and the people uniting in the final couplet.

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.

Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee, of both, to be but One;

That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say:

Let us pray.

Almighty and most merciful Father, who of thine infinite goodness hast given thine only and dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, to be our Redeemer, and the Author of everlasting life; who, after that he had made perfect our redemption by his death, and was ascended into heaven, poured down his gifts abundantly upon men, making some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some Pastors and Doctors, to the edifying and making perfect his Church; Grant, we beseech thee, to this thy servant, such grace, that he may evermore be ready to spread abroad thy Gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with thee; and use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help: so that, as a wise and faithful servant, giving to thy family their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

Then the Presiding Bishop and Bishops present shall lay their hands upon the head of the Elected Bishop, kneeling before them, the Presiding Bishop saying, Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God, which is given thee by this Imposition of our hands; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

Then the Presiding Bishop shall deliver him the Bible, saying,

Give heed unto reading, exhortation, and doctrine. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men; for by so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer, and hast made some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to the edifying and making perfect of thy Church; grant, we beseech thee, to this thy servant such grace that he may evermore be ready to spread abroad thy gospel, the glad tidings of reconciliation with thee, and to use the authority given him, not to destruction, but to salvation; not to hurt, but to help; so that as a wise and faithful servant, giving to all their portion in due season, he may at last be received into everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who, with thee and the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

Then the Bishops and elders present shall lay their hands upon the head of the elected person kneeling before them, the consecrating Bishop saying:

The Lord pour upon thee the Holy Spirit for the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the authority of the Church through the imposition of our hands, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God which is in thee; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop deliver to him the Bible, saying:

Give heed unto reading, exhortation, and teaching. Think upon the things contained in this Book. Be diligent in them, that the increase coming thereby may be manifest unto all men. Take heed unto thyself and to thy teaching; for by so doing thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the

Then the Presiding Bishop shall proceed in the Communion Service; with whom the newly consecrated Bishop, with others, shall also communicate.

And immediately before the Benediction, shall be said this Prayer.

Most merciful Father, send down, we beseech thee, upon this thy servant thy heavenly blessing; and so endue him with thy Holy Spirit, that he, preaching thy Word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke, with all patience and doctrine; but also may be, to such as believe, a wholesome example in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that, faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive the crown of righteousness, laid up by the Lord Jesus, the righteous Judge, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop pray:

Most merciful Father, we beseech thee to send down upon this thy servant thy heavenly blessing, and so endue him with thy Holy Spirit that he, preaching thy word, not only may be earnest to reprove, beseech, and rebuke with all patience and doctrine, but also may be to such as believe a wholesome example in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that, faithfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receive the crown of righteousness laid up by the Lord, the righteous judge, who liveth and reigneth, one God with the Father and the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name, and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then may the Bishop say:

The Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Baptism

EPISCOPAL

METHODIST

The Ministration of Holy Baptism

The Minister of every Parish shall often admonish the People, that they defer not the Baptism of their Children, and that it is most convenient that Baptism should be administered upon Sundays and other Holy Days. Nevertheless, if necessity so require, Baptism may be administered upon any other day. And also he shall warn them that, except for urgent cause, they seek not to have their Children baptized in their houses.

There shall be for every Male-child to be baptized, when they can be had, two Godfathers, and one Godmother; and for every Female, one Godfather and two Godmothers; and Parents shall be admitted as Sponsors, if it be desired.

When there are Children to be baptized, the Parents or Sponsors shall give knowledge thereof to the Minister. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People with the children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the Second Lesson at Morning or Evening Prayer, or at such other time as the Minister shall appoint.

When any such Persons as are of riper years are to be baptized, timely notice shall be given to the Minister; that so due care may be taken for their examination, whether they be sufficiently instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselves, with Prayers and Fasting, for the receiving of this holy Sacrament. And NOTE, That at the time of the Baptism of an Adult, there shall be present with him at the Font at least two Witnesses.

The Minister, having come to the Font, which is then to be filled with pure Water, shall say as followeth, the People all standing, Hath this Child (Person) been already baptized, or no?

If they answer, No: then shall the Minister proceed as followeth.

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy he will grant to this Child (this Person) that which by nature he cannot have; that he may be baptized with

THE ORDER FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Let every adult person, and the parents of every child to be baptized, have the choice of sprinkling, pouring, or immersion.

It is proper and desirable that this Sacrament should not only be accompanied by prayer, admonition, and the reading of Scripture, as herein provided, but that it should be administered in the presence of the people, and most suitably in the house of God.

(The Methodist Ritual has a separate service for the baptism of adults as well as a separate service for children and youth. The Book of Common Prayer inserts the modifications for the baptism of adults into the service for infants.)

THE BAPTISM OF INFANTS

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as all men are heirs of life eternal and subjects of the saving grace of the Holy Spirit; and that our Saviour Christ saith, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant unto this child, now to be baptized, the continual replenishing of his grace that he become a worthy member of Christ's holy Church.

Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church and be made a living member of the same.

Then shall the Minister say,

Let us pray.

Almighty and immortal God, the aid of all who need, the helper of all who flee to thee for succour, the life of those who believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon thee for this Child (this thy Servant), that he, coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of sin, by spiritual regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall have; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. So give now unto us who ask; let us who seek, find; open the gate unto us who knock; that this Child (this thy Servant) may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Minister shall say as followeth,

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by Saint Mark, in the tenth Chapter, at the thirteenth Verse.

They brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

(In the Book of Common Prayer here follow two further scripture lessons—John 3:1-8 and Matthew 28:18-20—more appropriate for the baptism of adults.)

Then shall the Minister say,

And now, being persuaded of the good will of our heavenly

Then shall the minister say:

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we beseech thee that of thine infinite goodness thou wilt look upon this child and grant that by the aid of thy Holy Spirit he may be steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in love, and that he may so live the life which now is, that he may enter triumphantly the life which is to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

(In the Methodist Ritual, this lesson follows the examination of parents and sponsors. See below.)

Then shall the minister address the parents or sponsors as follows:

Dearly beloved, forasmuch as this child is now presented by you

Father toward this Child (this Person), declared by his Son Jesus Christ; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say, Almighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, We give thee humble thanks, That thou hast vouchsafed ^{Minister} to call us To the ^{and} ^{People.} knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, And confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this Child (this thy Servant), That he may be born again, And be made an heir of everlasting salvation; Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Spirit, Now and for ever. Amen.

When the Office is used for Children, the Minister shall speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise.

Dearly beloved, ye have brought this Child here to be baptized; ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive him, to release him from sin, to sanctify him with the Holy Ghost, to give him the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life.

Dost thou, therefore, in the name of this Child, renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all; and, by God's help, will endeavor not to follow, nor be led by them.

Minister. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Answer. That is my desire.

Minister. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

for Christian Baptism, and is thus consecrated to God and to his Church, it is your part and duty to see that he be taught, as soon as he shall be able to learn, the meaning and purpose of this holy Sacrament; that he be instructed in the principles of our holy faith and the nature of the Christian life; that he shall be trained to give reverent attendance upon the public and private worship of God and the teaching of the Holy Scripture; and that in every way, by precept and example, you shall seek to lead him into the love of God and the service of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Do you solemnly promise to fulfill these duties so far as in you lies, the Lord being your helper?

We do.

Answer. I will, by God's help.

Minister. Having now, in the name of this Child, made these promises, wilt thou also on thy part take heed that this Child learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

Minister. Wilt thou take heed that this Child, so soon as sufficiently instructed, be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him?

Answer. I will, God being my helper.

Then shall the people stand, and the Minister shall say:

Hear the words of the Gospel written by St. Mark:

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Let the little children come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

Then shall the Minister say,

O merciful God, grant that like as Christ died and rose again, so this Child (this thy Servant) may die to sin and rise to newness of life. Amen.

Grant that all sinful affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph, against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Minister. The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirit.

Minister. Lift up your hearts.

Answer. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Minister. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

Answer. It is meet and right so to do.

Then the Minister shall say,

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God, for that thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation; sanctify this Water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that this Child (this thy Servant), now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful children; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, now and evermore. Amen.

Then the Minister shall take the Child into his arms, and shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers, Name this Child.

And then, naming the Child after them, he shall dip him in the Water discreetly, or shall pour Water upon him, saying,

N. I baptize thee In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

But NOTE, That if the Person to be baptized be an Adult, the Minister shall take him by the hand, and shall ask the Witnesses the Name; and then shall dip him in the Water, or pour Water upon him, using the same form of words.

Then the Minister shall say,

We receive this Child (Person) into the congregation of Christ's

Then shall the Minister, who may take the child in his arms, say to the parents or sponsors:

What name shall be given to this child?

And then, repeating the name, he shall baptize the child, saying:

N., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. AMEN.

Then shall the Minister say:

Let us pray.

O God, our heavenly Father, grant that this child, as he grows in years, may also grow in grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, and that by the restrain-him with the sign of flock; and do* sign the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

* Here the Minister shall make a Cross upon the Child's (or Person's) forehead.

Then shall the Minister say,

Seeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that this Child (this Person) is regenerate, and grafted into the body of Christ's Church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits; and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that this Child (this Person) may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

Then shall be said,

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Then shall the Minister say,

We yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Child (this thy Servant) with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he, being dead unto sin, may live unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may also be partaker of his resurrection; so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritor of thine everlasting kingdom; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ing and renewing influence of thy Holy Spirit he may ever be a true child of God, serving thee faithfully all his days, through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

Almighty God, fount of all love and wisdom, source of all power; so guide and uphold the parents [or sponsors] of this child that, by loving care, wise counsel, and holy example, they may lead him into that life of faith whose strength is righteousness and whose fruit is everlasting joy and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

Or the Minister may offer extempore prayer.

Then may the Minister and the people say:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Then may be sung a hymn, such as:

406—"Friend of the home: as when in Galilee."
 407—"See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand."
 440—"I think when I read."

Then the Minister shall add,

The Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named; Grant you to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that, Christ dwelling in your hearts by faith, ye may be filled with all the fulness of God. Amen.

In the Book of Common Prayer certain rubrics follow here concerning Private Baptism, the Receiving of One Privately Baptized, and Conditional Baptism.

Then may the Minister say:

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, now and evermore. AMEN.

Appendix to Baptism Comparison

For comparison, the corresponding sections containing questions and answers for the baptism of adults, are here appended.

When the Office is used for Adults, the Minister shall address them on this wise, the Persons to be baptized answering the questions for themselves.

Well-beloved, you have come hither desiring to receive holy Baptism. We have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you, to release you from sin, to sanctify you with the Holy Ghost, to give you the kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life.

Dost thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Answer. I renounce them all; and by God's help, will endeavor not to follow, nor be led by them.

Minister. Dost thou believe in Jesus the Christ, the Son of the Living God?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Dost thou accept him, and desire to follow him as thy Saviour and Lord?

Then shall the Minister say to the persons to be baptized:

Dearly beloved, who have come hither desiring to receive holy Baptism, the congregation gives thanks to God for your coming, and prays that the Holy Spirit may dwell within you, and that your faith may not fail. In the hearing of this congregation you should now make known your purpose to accept the obligations of this holy Sacrament.

Do you truly repent of your sins and accept and confess Jesus Christ as your Saviour and Lord?

I do.

Will you earnestly endeavor to keep God's holy will and commandments?

I will.

Do you desire to be baptized in this faith?

I do.

Answer. I do.

Minister. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Answer. I do.

Minister. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Answer. That is my desire.

Minister. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Answer. I will, by God's help.

The Form of Solemnization of Matrimony

At the day and time appointed for Solemnization of Matrimony, the Persons to be married shall come into the body of the Church, or shall be ready in some proper house, with their friends and neighbours; and there standing together, the Man on the right hand, and the Woman on the left, the Minister shall say,

Dearly beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the face of this company, to join together this Man and this Woman in holy Matrimony; which is an honourable estate, instituted of God, signifying unto us the mystical union that is betwixt Christ and his Church: which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of Saint Paul to be honourable among all men: and therefore is not by any to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly; but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God. Into this holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. If any man can show just cause, why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now

¶ 1917 THE ORDER FOR THE SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY

At the time appointed, the persons to be married—having been qualified according to the law of the State and the standards of the Church—standing together facing the Minister, the Man at the Minister's left hand and the Woman at the right, the Minister shall say:

Dearly beloved, we are gathered here in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony; which is an honorable estate, instituted of God, and signifying unto us the mystical union which exists between Christ and his Church; which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence in Cana of Galilee. It is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly, but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God. Into this holy estate these two persons come now to be joined.

speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

And also speaking unto the Persons who are to be married, he shall say,

I require and charge you both, as ye will answer at the dreadful day of judgment when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed, that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joined together in Matrimony, ye do now confess it. For be ye well assured, that if any persons are joined together otherwise than as God's Word doth allow, their marriage is not lawful.

The Minister, if he shall have reason to doubt of the lawfulness of the proposed Marriage, may demand sufficient surety for his indemnification: but if no impediment shall be alleged, or suspected, the Minister shall say to the Man,

N. Wilt thou have this Woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour, and keep her in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

The Man Shall answer,

I will.

Then shall the Minister say unto the Woman,

N. Wilt thou have this Man to thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love him, comfort him, honour, and keep him in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

The Woman shall answer,

I will.

Then shall the Minister say,

Who giveth this Woman to be married to this Man?

Speaking to the persons to be married, the Minister shall say:

I require and charge you both, as you stand in the presence of God, to remember that love and loyalty alone will avail as the foundation of a happy and enduring home. No other human ties are more tender, no other vows more sacred than those you now assume. If these solemn vows be kept inviolate, and if steadfastly you endeavor to do the will of your heavenly Father, your life will be full of joy, and the home which you are establishing will abide in peace.

Then shall the Minister say to the Man, using his Christian name:

N., wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health; and forsaking all other keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

The Man shall answer:

I will.

Then shall the Minister say to the Woman, using her Christian name:

N., wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love him, comfort him, honor and keep him, in sickness and in health; and forsaking all other keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

The Woman shall answer:

I will.

Then may the Minister say:

Who giveth this woman to be married to this man?

The father of the Woman, or whoever giveth her in marriage, shall answer:

I do.

Then shall they give their troth to each other in this manner. The Minister, receiving the Woman at her father's or friend's hands, shall cause the Man with his right hand to take the Woman by her right hand, and say after him as followeth.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded Wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

Then shall they loose their hands; and the Woman with her right hand taking the Man by his right hand, shall likewise say after the Minister,

I N. take thee N. to my wedded Husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I give thee my troth.

Then shall they again loose their hands; and the Man shall give unto the Woman a Ring on this wise: the Minister taking the Ring shall deliver it unto the Man, to put it upon the fourth finger of the Woman's left hand. And the Man holding the Ring there, and taught by the Minister, shall say,

With this Ring I thee wed: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

And before delivering the Ring to the Man, the Minister may say as followeth.

Bless, O Lord, this Ring, that he who gives it and she who wears it may abide in thy peace, and continue in thy favour, unto their life's end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then, the Man leaving the Ring upon the fourth finger of the Woman's left hand, the Minister shall say,

Then the Minister (receiving the hand of the Woman from her father or other sponsor) shall cause the Man with his right hand to take the Woman by her right hand, and say after him:

I, N., take thee, N., to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, or worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance, and thereto I plight thee my troth.

Then shall they loose their hands; and the Woman, with her right hand taking the Man by his right hand, shall say after the Minister:

I, N., take thee, N., to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.

Then shall they again loose their hands; and the Man may give unto the Woman a Ring, on this wise: the Minister, taking the Ring, shall say:

This Ring is an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace, signifying unto all the uniting of this Man and this Woman in holy matrimony, through the Church of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Then the Minister may say:

Let us pray.

Bless, O Lord, the giving of this Ring, that he who gives it and she who wears it may abide forever in thy peace, and continue in thy favor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

The Minister shall then deliver the Ring to the Man to put upon the third finger of the Woman's left hand. The Man holding the Ring there, shall say after the Minister:

In token and pledge of the vow between us made, with this ring I thee wed; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In case of a double-ring ceremony, the Minister shall deliver the other Ring to the Woman to put upon the third finger of the Man's left hand; and the Woman, holding the Ring there, shall say after the Minister:

In token and pledge of the vow between us made, with this ring I thee wed; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Let us pray.

Then shall the Minister and the People, still standing, say the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then shall the Minister add,

O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life; Send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in thy Name; that they, living faithfully together, may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made, (whereof this Ring given and received is a token and pledge,) and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Minister may add one or both of the following prayers:

O Almighty God, Creator of mankind, who only art the well-spring of life; Bestow upon these thy servants, if it be thy will, the gift and heritage of children; and grant that they may see their

(In the Methodist Ritual, the Lord's Prayer follows the joining of hands. See below.)

Then shall the Minister say:

Let us pray.

O eternal God, creator and preserver of all mankind, giver of all spiritual grace, the author of everlasting life; send thy blessing upon this man and this woman, whom we bless in thy name; that they may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant between them made, and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws.

Look graciously upon them, that they may love, honor, and cherish each other, and so live together in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and a place of peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

children brought up in thy faith and fear, to the honour and glory of thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, who hast so consecrated the state of Matrimony that in it is represented the spiritual marriage and unity betwixt Christ and his Church; Look mercifully upon these thy servants, that they may love, honour, and cherish each other, and so live together in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and of peace; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Then shall the Minister join their right hands together, and say,

Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder.

Then shall the Minister speak unto the company.

Forasmuch as N. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth, each to the other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving a Ring, and by joining hands; I pronounce that they are Man and Wife, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then shall the Minister join their right hands together and with his hand on their united hands shall say:

Forasmuch as N. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have pledged their troth each to the other, and have declared the same by joining hands (and by giving and receiving a ring); I pronounce that they are husband and wife together, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Those whom God had joined together, let not man put asunder. AMEN.

Then, the husband and wife kneeling, the Minister shall say:

Let us pray.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The man and wife kneeling, the Minister shall add this blessing.

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with his favour look upon you, and fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace; that ye may so live together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

Then shall the Minister add this blessing:

God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, bless, preserve and keep you; the Lord graciously with his favor look upon you, and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and love that you may so live together in this life that in the world to come you may have life everlasting. AMEN.

In the name of the Holy Scripture we do understand those canonical Books of the Old and New Testament, of whose authority was never any doubt in the Church.

All the books of the New Testament, as they are commonly received, we do receive and account canonical.

The Book of Tobias,
 The Book of Judith,
 The rest of the Book of Esther,
 The Book of Wisdom,
 Jesus the Son of Sirach,

All the Books of the New Testament, as they are commonly received, we do receive, and account them Canonical.

VII. Of the Old Testament.

The Old Testament is not contrary to the New; for both in the Old and New Testament everlasting life is offered to Mankind by Christ, who is the only Mediator between God and Man, being both God and Man. Wherefore they are not to be heard, which feign that the old Fathers did look only for transitory promises. Although the Law given from God by Moses, as touching Ceremonies and Rites, do not bind Christian men, nor the Civil precepts thereof ought of necessity to be received in any commonwealth; yet notwithstanding, no Christian man whatsoever is free from the obedience of the Commandments which are called Moral.

VIII. Of the Creeds.

The Nicene Creed, and that which is commonly called the Apostles' Creed, ought thoroughly to be received and believed: for they may be proved by most certain warrants of Holy Scripture.

IX. Of Original or Birth-Sin.

Original sin standeth not in the following of Adam, (as the Pelagians do vainly talk;) but it is the fault and corruption of the Nature of every man, that naturally is engendered of the offspring of Adam; whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and is of his own nature inclined to evil, so that the flesh lusteth always contrary to the Spirit; and therefore in every person born into this world, it deserveth God's wrath and damnation. And this infection of nature doth remain, yea in them that are regenerated; whereby the lust of the flesh, called in Greek, ἐπιθυμία, (which some do expound the wisdom, some sensuality, some the affection, some the desire, of the flesh,) is not subject to the Law of God. And although there is no condemnation for them that believe and are baptized; yet the Apostle doth confess, that concupiscence and lust hath of itself the nature of sin.

X. Of Free-Will.

The condition of Man after the fall of Adam is such, that he cannot turn and prepare himself, by his own natural strength and good works, to faith, and calling upon God. Wherefore we have no power to do good works pleasant and acceptable to God, without the grace of God by Christ preventing us, that we may have a good will, and working with us, when we have that good will.

XI. Of the Justification of Man.

We are accounted righteous before God, only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by Faith, and not for our own works or deservings. Wherefore, that we are justified by Faith only, is a most wholesome Doctrine, and very full of comfort, as more largely is expressed in the Homily of Justification.

XII. Of Good Works.

Albeit that Good Works, which are the fruits of Faith, and follow after Justification, cannot put away our sins, and endure the severity of God's judgment; yet are they pleasing and acceptable to God in Christ, and do spring out necessarily of a true and lively Faith; insomuch that by them a lively Faith may be as evidently known as a tree discerned by the fruit.

VIII. Of Free Will.

The condition of man after the fall of Adam is such that he cannot turn and prepare himself, by his own natural strength and works, to faith, and calling upon God; wherefore we have no power to do good works, pleasant and acceptable to God, without the grace of God by Christ preventing us, that we may have a good will, and working with us, when we have that good will.

We are accounted righteous before God only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, by faith, and not for our own works or deservings. Wherefore, that we are justified by faith only is a most wholesome doctrine, and very full of comfort.

X. Of Good Works.

Although good works, which are fruits of faith, and follow after justification, cannot put away our sins, and endure the severity of God's judgments; yet are they pleasing and acceptable to God in Christ, and spring out of a true and lively faith, insomuch that by them a lively faith may be as evidently known as a tree is discerned by its fruit.

Christ, and the Inspiration of his Spirit, are not pleasant to God, forasmuch as they spring not of faith in Jesus Christ; neither do they make men meet to receive grace, or (as the School-authors say) deserve grace of congruity: yea rather, for that they are not done as God hath willed and commanded them to be done, we doubt not but they have the nature of sin.

XIV. Of Works of Supererogation.

Voluntary Works besides, over and above, God's Commandments, which they call Works of Supererogation, cannot be taught without arrogancy and impiety: for by them men do declare, that they do not only render unto God as much as they are bound to do, but that they do more for his sake, than of bounden duty is required: whereas Christ saith plainly, When ye have done all that are commanded to you, say, We are unprofitable servants.

XV. Of Christ alone without Sin.

Christ in the truth of our nature was made like unto us in all things, sin only except, from which he was clearly void, both in his flesh, and in his spirit. He came to be the Lamb without spot, who, by sacrifice of himself once made, should take away the sins of the world; and sin (as Saint John saith) was not in him. But all we the rest, although baptized, and born again in Christ, yet offend in many things; and if we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

XVI. Of Sin after Baptism.

Not every deadly sin willingly committed after Baptism is sin against the Holy Ghost, and unpardonable. Wherefore the grant of repentance is not to be denied to such as fall into sin after Baptism. After we have received the Holy Ghost, we may depart from grace given, and fall into sin, and by the grace of God we may arise again, and amend our lives. And therefore they are to be condemned, which say, they can no more sin as long as they live here, or deny the place of forgiveness to such as truly repent.

demned who say they can no more sin as long as they live here; or deny the place of forgiveness to such as truly repent.

XVII. Of Predestination and Election.

Predestination to Life is the everlasting purpose of God, whereby (before the foundations of the world were laid) he hath constantly decreed by his counsel secret to us, to deliver from curse and damnation those whom he hath chosen in Christ out of mankind, and to bring them by Christ to everlasting salvation, as vessels made to honour. Wherefore, they which be endued with so excellent a benefit of God, be called according to God's purpose by his Spirit working in due season: they through Grace obey the calling: they be justified freely: they be made sons of God by adoption: they be made like the image of his only-begotten Son Jesus Christ: they walk religiously in good works, and at length, by God's mercy, they attain to everlasting felicity.

As the godly consideration of Predestination, and our Election in Christ, is full of sweet, pleasant, and unspeakable comfort to godly persons, and such as feel in themselves the working of the Spirit of Christ, mortifying the works of the flesh, and their earthly members, and drawing up their mind to high and heavenly things, as well because it doth greatly establish and confirm their faith of eternal Salvation to be enjoyed through Christ, as because it doth fervently kindle their love towards God: So, for curious and carnal persons, lacking the Spirit of Christ, to have continually before their eyes the sentence of God's Predestination, is a most dangerous downfall, whereby the Devil doth thrust them either into desperation, or into wretchlessness of most unclean living, no less perilous than desperation.

Furthermore, we must receive God's promises in such wise, as they be generally set forth to us in Holy Scripture: and, in our doings, that Will of God is to be followed, which we have expressly declared unto us in the Word of God.

XVIII. Of obtaining eternal Salvation only by the Name of Christ.

They also are to be had accursed that presume to say, That every man shall be saved by the Law or Sect which he professeth, so that he be diligent to frame his life according to that Law, and the light of Nature. For Holy Scripture doth set out unto us only the Name of Jesus Christ, whereby men must be saved.

XIX. Of the Church.

The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men, in the which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments be duly ministered according to Christ's ordinance, in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same.

As the Church of Jerusalem, Alexandria, and Antioch, have erred; so also the Church of Rome hath erred, not only in their living and manner of Ceremonies, but also in matters of Faith.

XX. Of the Authority of the Church.

The Church hath power to decree Rites or Ceremonies, and authority in Controversies of Faith: and yet it is not lawful for the Church to ordain any thing that is contrary to God's Word written, neither may it so expound one place of Scripture, that it be repugnant to another. Wherefore, although the Church be a witness and a keeper of Holy Writ, yet, as it ought not to decree any thing against the same, so besides the same ought it not to enforce any thing to be believed for necessity of Salvation.

XXI. Of the Authority of General Councils.

[The Twenty-first of the former

XIII. Of the Church.

The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men in which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance, in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same.

Articles is omitted; because it is partly of a local and civil nature, and is provided for, as to the remaining parts of it, in other Articles.]

XXII. Of Purgatory.

The Romish Doctrine concerning Purgatory, Pardons, Worshiping and Adoration, as well of Images as of Relics, and also Invocation of Saints, is a fond thing, vainly invented, and grounded upon no warranty of Scripture, but rather repugnant to the Word of God.

XIV. Of Purgatory.

The Romish doctrine concerning purgatory, pardon, worshiping, and adoration, as well as of images as of relics, and also invocation of saints, is a fond thing, vainly invented, and grounded upon no warrant of Scripture, but repugnant to the Word of God.

XXIII. Of Ministering in the Congregation.

It is not lawful for any man to take upon him the office of public preaching, or ministering the Sacraments in the Congregation, before he be lawfully called, and sent to execute the same. And those we ought to judge lawfully called and sent, which be chosen and called to this work by men who have public authority given unto them in the Congregation, to call and send Ministers into the Lord's vineyard.

XXIV. Of Speaking in the Congregation in such a Tongue as the people understandeth.

It is a thing plainly repugnant to the Word of God, and the custom of the Primitive Church, to have public Prayer in the Church, or to minister the Sacraments, in a tongue not understood of the people.

XV. Of Speaking in the Congregation in such a Tongue as the People Understand.

It is a thing plainly repugnant to the Word of God, and the custom of the primitive Church, to have public prayer in the church, or to administer the Sacraments, in a tongue not understood by the people.

XXV. Of the Sacraments.

Sacraments ordained of Christ be not only badges or tokens of Christian men's profession, but rather they be certain sure witnesses, and effectual signs of grace, and God's good will towards us, by the which he doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken, but also strengthen and confirm our Faith in him.

There are two Sacraments ordained of Christ our Lord in the Gospel, that is to say, Baptism, XVI. Of the Sacraments.

Sacraments ordained of Christ are not only badges or tokens of Christian men's profession, but rather they are certain signs of grace, and God's good will toward us, by which he doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken, but also strengthen and confirm, our faith in him.

There are two Sacraments ordained of Christ our Lord in the Gospel; that is to say, Baptism and the Supper of the Lord, and the Supper of the Lord.

Those five commonly called Sacraments, that is to say, Confirmation, Penance, Orders, Matrimony, and Extreme Unction, are not to be counted for Sacraments of the Gospel, being such as have grown partly of the corrupt following of the Apostles, partly are states of life allowed in the Scriptures; but yet have not like nature of Sacraments with Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, for that they have not any visible sign or ceremony ordained of God.

The Sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about, but that we should duly use them. And in such only as worthily receive the same, they have a wholesome effect or operation: but they that receive them unworthily, purchase to themselves damnation, as Saint Paul saith.

Those five commonly called sacraments, that is to say, confirmation, penance, orders, matrimony, and extreme unction, are not to be counted for Sacraments of the Gospel; being such as have partly grown out of the corrupt following of the apostles, and partly are states of life allowed in the Scriptures, but yet have not the like nature of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, because they have not any visible sign or ceremony ordained of God.

The Sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about; but that we should duly use them. And in such only as worthily receive the same they have a wholesome effect or operation; but they that receive them unworthily, purchase to themselves condemnation, as St. Paul saith, I Cor. 11:29.

XXVI. Of the Unworthiness of the Ministers, which hinders not the effect of the Sacraments.

Although in the visible Church the evil be ever mingled with the good, and sometimes the evil have chief authority in the Ministration of the Word and Sacraments, yet forasmuch as they do not the same in their own name, but in Christ's, and do minister by his commission and authority, we may use their Ministry, both in hearing the Word of God, and in receiving the Sacraments. Neither is the effect of Christ's ordinance taken away by their wickedness, nor the grace of God's gifts diminished from such as by faith, and rightly, do receive the Sacraments ministered unto them; which be effectual, because of Christ's institution and promise, although they be ministered by evil men.

Nevertheless, it appertaineth to the discipline of the Church, that inquiry be made of evil Ministers, and that they be accused by those that have knowledge of their offences; and finally, being found guilty, by just judgment be deposed.

XXVII. Of Baptism.

Baptism is not only a sign of profession, and mark of difference, whereby Christian men are discerned from others that be not christened, but it is also a sign of Regeneration or New-Birth, whereby, as by an instrument, they that receive Baptism rightly are grafted into the Church; the promises of the forgiveness of sin, and of our adoption to be the sons of God by the Holy Ghost, are visibly signed and sealed; Faith is confirmed, and Grace increased by virtue of prayer unto God.

The Baptism of young Children is in any wise to be retained in the Church, as most agreeable with the institution of Christ.

XXVIII. Of the Lord's Supper.

The Supper of the Lord is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another; but rather it is a Sacrament of our Redemption by Christ's death: insomuch that to such as rightly, worthily, and with faith, receive the same, the Bread which we break is a partaking of the Body of Christ; and likewise the Cup of Blessing is a partaking of the Blood of Christ.

Transubstantiation (or the change of the substance of Bread and Wine) in the Supper of the Lord, cannot be proved by Holy Writ; but is repugnant to the plain words of Scripture, overthroweth the nature of a Sacrament, and hath given occasion to many superstitions.

The Body of Christ is given, taken, and eaten, in the Supper, only after an heavenly and spiritual manner. And the mean whereby the Body of Christ is received and eaten in the Supper, is Faith.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was not by Christ's ordinance reserved, carried about, lifted up, or worshipped.

XVII. Of Baptism.

Baptism is not only a sign of profession and mark of difference whereby Christians are distinguished from others that are not baptized; but it is also a sign of regeneration or the new birth. The baptism of young children is to be retained in the church.

XVIII. Of the Lord's Supper.

The Supper of the Lord is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another, but rather is a sacrament of our redemption by Christ's death; insomuch that, to such as rightly, worthily, and with faith receive the same, the bread which we break is a partaking of the body of Christ; and likewise the cup of blessing is a partaking of the blood of Christ.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was not by Christ's ordinance reserved, carried about, lifted up, or worshipped.

XXIX. Of the Wicked, which eat not the Body of Christ in the use of the Lord's Supper.

The Wicked, and such as be void of a lively faith, although they do carnally and visibly press with their teeth (as Saint Augustine saith) the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ; yet in no wise are they partakers of Christ: but rather, to their condemnation, do eat and drink the sign or Sacrament of so great a thing.

XXX. Of both Kinds.

The Cup of the Lord is not to be denied to the Lay-people: for both the parts of the Lord's Sacrament, by Christ's ordinance and commandment, ought to be ministered to all Christian men alike.

XXXI. Of the one Oblation of Christ finished upon the Cross.

The Offering of Christ once made is that perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction, for all the sins of the whole world, both original and actual; and there is none other satisfaction for sin, but that alone. Wherefore the sacrifices of Masses, in the which it was commonly said, that the Priest did offer Christ for the quick and the dead, to have remission of pain or guilt, were blasphemous fables, and dangerous deceits.

XXXII. Of the Marriage of Priests.

Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, are not commanded by God's Law, either to vow the estate of single life, or to abstain from marriage: therefore it is lawful for them, as for all other Christian men, to marry at their own discretion, as shall judge the same to serve better to godliness.

XXXIII. Of excommunicate Persons, how they are to be avoided.

That person which by open denunciation of the Church is rightly cut off from the unity of the Church, and excommunicated, ought to be taken of the whole multitude of the faithful, as an Heathen and Publican, until he be openly reconciled by penance, and received into the Church by a Judge that hath authority thereunto.

XXXIV. Of the Traditions of the Church.

It is not necessary that Traditions and Ceremonies be in all places one, or utterly like; for at all times they have been divers, and may be changed according to the diversity of countries, times, and men's manners, so that nothing be ordained against God's Word. Whosoever, through his private judgment, willingly and purposely, doth openly break the Traditions and Ceremonies of the Church, which be not repugnant to the Word of God, and be ordained and approved by common authority, ought to be rebuked openly, (that others may fear to do the like,) as he that offended against the common order of the Church, and hurteth the authority of the Magistrate, and woundeth the consciences of the weak brethren.

Every particular or national Church hath authority to ordain, change, and abolish, Ceremonies or Rites of the Church ordained only by man's authority, so that all things be done to edifying.

XXXV. Of the Homilies.

The Second Book of Homilies, the several titles whereof we have joined under this Article, doth contain a godly and wholesome Doctrine, and necessary for these times, as doth the former Book of Homilies, which were set forth in the time of Edward the Sixth; and therefore we judge them to be read in Churches by the Ministers, diligently and distinctly, that they may be understood of the people.

Of the Names of the Homilies.

- 1 Of the right Use of the Church.
- 2 Against Peril of Idolatry.
- 3 Of repairing and keeping clean of Churches.
- 4 Of good Works: first of Fasting.

XXII. Of the Rites and Ceremonies of Churches.

It is not necessary that rites and ceremonies should in all places be the same, or exactly alike; for they have been always different, and may be changed according to the diversity of countries, times, and men's manners, so that nothing be ordained against God's Word. Whosoever, through his private judgment, willingly and purposely doth openly break the rites and ceremonies of the Church to which he belongeth, which are not repugnant to the Word of God, and are ordained and approved by common authority, ought to be rebuked openly (that others may fear to do the like), as one that offendeth against the common order of the church, and woundeth the consciences of weak brethren.

Every particular Church may ordain, change, or abolish rites and ceremonies, so that all things may be done to edification.

- 5 Against Gluttony and Drunkenness.
- 6 Against Excesses of Apparel.
- 7 Of Prayer.
- 8 Of the Place and Time of Prayer.
- 9 That Common Prayers and Sacraments ought to be ministered in a known tongue.
- 10 Of the reverend Estimation of God's Word.
- 11 Of Alms-doing.
- 12 Of the Nativity of Christ.
- 13 Of the Passion of Christ.
- 14 Of the Resurrection of Christ.
- 15 Of the worthy receiving of the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ.
- 16 Of the Gifts of the Holy Ghost.
- 17 For the Rogation-days.
- 18 Of the State of Matrimony.
- 19 Of Repentance.
- 20 Against Idleness.
- 21 Against Rebellion.

[This Article is received in this Church, so far as it declares the Books of Homilies to be an explication of Christian doctrine, and instructive in piety and morals. But all references to the constitution and laws of England are considered as inapplicable to the circumstances of this Church; which also suspends the order for the reading of said Homilies in churches, until a revision of them may be conveniently made, for the clearing of them, as well from obsolete words and phrases, as from the local references.]

XXXVI. Of Consecration of Bishops and Ministers.

The Book of Consecration of Bishops, and Ordering of Priests and Deacons, as set forth by the General Convention of this Church in 1792, doth contain all things necessary to such Consecration and Ordering; neither hath it any thing that, of itself, is superstitious and ungodly. And, therefore, whosoever are consecrated or ordered according to said Form, we decree all such to be rightly, orderly, and lawfully consecrated and ordered.

XXXVII. Of the Power of the Civil Magistrates.

The Power of the Civil Magistrate extendeth to all men, as well Clergy as Laity, in all things temporal; but hath no authority in things purely spiritual. And we hold it to be the duty of all men who are professors of the Gospel, to pay respectful obedience to the Civil Authority, regularly and legitimately constituted.

XXIII. Of the Rulers of the United States of America.

The President, the Congress, the general assemblies, the governors, and the councils of state as the delegates of the people, are the rulers of the United States of America, according to the division of power made to them by the Constitution of the United States and by the constitutions of their respective States. And the said States are a sovereign and independent nation, and ought not to be subject to any foreign jurisdiction.

XXXVIII. Of Christian Men's Goods, which are not common.

The Riches and Goods of Christians are not common, as touching the right, title, and possession of the same; as certain Anabaptists do falsely boast. Notwithstanding, every man ought, of such things as he possesseth, liberally to give alms to the poor, according to his ability.

XXXIX. Of a Christian Man's Oath.

As we confess that vain and rash Swearing is forbidden Christian men by our Lord Jesus Christ, and James his Apostle, so we judge, that Christian Religion doth not prohibit, but that a man may swear when the Magistrate requireth, in a cause of faith and charity, so it be done according to the Prophet's teaching, in justice, judgment, and truth.

XXIV. Of Christian Men's Goods.

The riches and goods of Christians are not common, as touching the right, title, and possession of the same, as some do falsely boast. Notwithstanding, every man ought, of such things as he possesseth, liberally to give alms to the poor, according to his ability.

XXV. Of a Christian Man's Oath.

BUDGET COMMITTEE REPORT ON CRUSADE FOR CHRIST FUNDS

Presented May 5, 1952. Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 604.

The 1948 General Conference authorized the continuance of the Budget Committee of the Crusade for Christ during the current quadrennium and gave them authority to distribute whatever surplus was received above the $25,000,000 on requisition, to the purposes included in the original allocations and on the same percentage basis as the original allocations; this to be done as the agencies called for use of these funds.

In accordance with these instructions the Budget Committee has met at such times as necessary during the quadrennium and has given careful attention to the requisitions from the several agencies included in the original askings.

To the Budget Committee was given also the responsibility of distributing $1,344,726.06 in the Crusade Contingent Fund. We give you herewith a statement of our stewardship. Distribution of these contingent funds has been made to the following causes:

We call your attention to the complete financial statement of The Crusade for Christ as presented on pages 27, 28 and 37 of the report of the General Commission on World Service and Finance to the General Conference of 1952. The total receipts through February 29, 1952 amounted to $27,796,-758.83.

Believing that the work of the Budget Committee should be brought to a close with this General Conference, your Committee asks approval of the following recommendations:

1. Of The Crusade for Christ funds, $500,000 was allocated by the General Conference of 1944 to Gammon Theological Seminary at Atlanta, Georgia, for the purpose of making possible a first-class building in a new location. Conditions, however, have not seemed to make feasible the investment of this money in a new building up to this time, and plans for its development have not been agreed upon. Each year, $15,000 of interest has been appropriated to Gammon Seminary for use in operating expenses, and the remaining interest has been added to the principal fund which now amounts to approximately $550,000. Having given most careful consideration to the many factors involved, the Budget Committee believes it is desirable, in order that, if possible, the objectives for which this money was allocated may be achieved, that this capital fund should be held for a reasonable time until a definite program can be worked out.

Therefore, we recommend that it be directed by the General Conference that, as of May 31, 1952, all funds held by the General Commission on World Service and Finance as trustees of The Crusade for Christ for Gammon Theological Seminary be paid by the General Commission on World Service and Finance to the Treasurer of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church to be held by him and invested by the Finance and Investment Committee of said Board in proper trust securities. That the annual interest on these funds, up to the sum of $15,000 per year, shall be paid to Gammon Seminary for use in operating expenses, any remainder of interest being added to the principal capital fund which shall be held intact for the development program of Gammon Seminary when said program has been approved by the Trustees of Gammon Seminary, the Board of Education of The Methodist Church, and the Council of Bishops.

Should Gammon Seminary be discontinued as a theological school, the capital funds above referred to may be used for other educational purposes of The Methodist Church upon recommendation of the Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education, with the concurrence of the Board of Education and the Council of Bishops.

2. "That the General Conference authorize the Budget Committee to release to the participating Agencies any unpaid balance credited to them in the Crusade Budget, and that these Agencies respectively be charged with the responsibility to see that the funds are used in accordance with the intent of the Crusade and of the donors; that whatever amount remains in the undistributed funds of the Crusade be divided among the participating agencies in the ratio of their participation in the Crusade budget."

We have faithfully carried forward the requests of the Crusade for Christ Committee. We believe we have completed our assignment and we now in accordance with the principles approved by the General Conference and The Crusade for Christ Committee respectfully request the General Conference to release the Budget Committee from further responsibility.

CHARLES A. JONES (*), Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION TO STUDY
DEACONESS WORK

SEE REPORT NO. 7, COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS AND CHURCH
EXTENSION, PAGES 625-628. JOURNAL

Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 625.

By order of the General Conference of The Methodist Church, meeting in Boston, Massachusetts, in 1948, a Commission to Study Deaconess Work was authorized. The study was to be made "in the light of the total plan of enlistment and employment of women in the various Agencies of the Church" (P. 2014).

The members of the Commission included three Bishops, three ministers, two representatives from the Board of Missions and Church Extension, one representative from the Woman's Division of Christian Service, one representative from the Board of Education, one representative from the Board of Hospitals and Homes, one representative from the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel, two deaconess members and the Executive Secretary of the Bureau of Deaconess Work.

To aid in the study there were innumerable personal and group conferences; more than 2300 questionnaires were distributed to Bishops, ministers, deaconesses, directors of Christian education, members of General Boards, officers of Jurisdiction and Conference Woman's Societies of Christian Service and others.

The Commission submits the following Report which is divided into two parts: first, a brief statement of basic principles; second, legislative suggestions looking toward the implementation of these principles.

The office of deaconess has a long and honorable history in our Church. Only those acquainted with that story can fully appreciate the debt we owe to these consecrated and devoted women. For over two generations they have served their Lord through the open doors of the Church's many institutions with singular fidelity and devotion.

Our society is increasingly welcoming women into its industrial and commercial life. We believe that likewise the Church should take ever wider cognizance of the capabilities of women and open every possible avenue for their service. To that end we recommend:

1. That women be given ample opportunity to serve every Agency of the Church not requiring full clergy rights.

2. That the local church and Annual Conference emphasize the nature of this holy calling and by every means at their command seek to elevate the office to its appointed place.
3. That because of the breadth of the opportunities which face the Church and because of their urgency the entire Church through its several agencies should lend its efforts seriously and prayerfully to the task of enlistment for service in this office.
4. That ample opportunities for education and training be provided so that those who have pledged their lives in His service shall be provided with the best skills which our times afford and require.
5. That to these persons who have freely given their services to the Church we owe a more adequate compensation as well as a more nearly reasonable security for retirement.

In order that these basic principles may be kept before our people and that the office of deaconess may grow to the fullness of its stature we submit the following suggestions for legislative consideration:

LLOYD C. WICKE, Chairman;
MRS. FRED C. REYNOLDS (*), Vice-Chairman;
MISS MARY LOU BARNWELL (*), Secretary.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE RELATION OF THE EDITORIAL DIVISION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION TO THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION

SEE REPORT NO. 5, COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION, SEE JOURNAL, PAGES 508, 1200

Amended—Adopted May 3, 1952. See Journal, Pages 508, 1200.

The Committee to Study the Relation of the Editorial Division of the Board of Publication was formed by the General Conference of 1948 in adopting Report No. 14 of the Committee on Education.

This Report is as follows:

"The Committee requests the General Conference to authorize the appointment of a Committee of sixteen, five from the Board of Education, five from the Board of Publication, and six others (one from each Jurisdiction appointed by the College of Bishops), to Study the Relation of the Editorial Division of the General Board of Education to said Board and the Board of Publication, with a view to arriving at the soundest possible organization and administrative procedure, guaranteeing editorial freedom and consistently progressive educational policies. This Committee shall make a Report to each Board and a joint Report to the General Conference of 1952."

The members of the Committee are as follows: (See Paragraph 2173, the Discipline (1948))

Appointed by the College of Bishops: Rector W. Johnson (Minister) WJ, C. H. Dubra (Minister) CJ, Leroy A. Martin (Minister) NEJ, John C. Murphree (Layman) SCJ, C. E. Lundy (Minister) SEJ, C. A. McPheters (Minister) NCJ.

Appointed by the Board of Publication: (The election of Marvin Franklin to the Episcopacy created a vacancy in the Board of Publication group which has been filled by the Board of Publication Chairman William H. Swiggart's appointment of J. A. Bays. Judge Swiggart also appointed an Alternate on this Committee, Arthur R. Howard.) J. Lester Buford (Layman) NCJ, J. A. Bays (Minister) SEJ, Frank C. Probert (Layman) NEJ, Marshall T. Steel (Minister) SCJ, Rufus C. Baker (Minister) WJ, Arthur R. Howard (Minister) CJ.

Appointed by the Board of Education: Paul E. Martin (Bishop) SCJ, Leon M. Adkins (Minister) NEJ, C. M. Dannelly (Layman) SEJ, J. N. R. Score (Minister) SCJ, Frank D. Slutz (Layman) NCJ. (Lud H. Estes was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of J. N. R. Score.)

The Committee held two meetings during the quadrennium—the first in Cincinnati, Ohio, July 15, 1949; the second in Nashville, Tennessee, January 5, 1951.

The Committee organized with the following officers: Chairman, Bishop Paul E. Martin; Vice-Chairman, Marshall T. Steel; Secretary, Rector W. Johnson.

The convenor of the Committee, Bishop Paul E. Martin, brought to the first meeting a statement concerning the history of developments in Methodism which formed a background for the appointment of this Committee, certain developments in the Church regarding the concern for choosing and electing the Editor of Church School Publications, which led to a number of Memorials being presented to the Legislative Committee of the Board of Education, and finally to the General Conference of 1948. The convenor's statement included the statement above from the Education Committee Report No. 14, and a list of the members of the Committee as provided by Paragraph 2173, the Discipline 1948.

A statement concerning the plan and functioning of the Editorial Division of the Board of Education and the Board of Publication from unification to the year 1948 was made available by Dr. C. A. Bowen, Editor of Church School Publications, and the Publishing Agents, Dr. Roy L. Smith and Mr. Lovick Pierce. These men were asked to meet with our Committee to be available for information and resource data which might be required—the Committee to meet in executive session at any time it seemed necessary to the members.

Your Committee considered the reasons for its appointment, its duties and scope of its work, and the history, plan, work, and related functions of the Editorial Division and the Board of Publication. This covered some data previous to unification, and down to the present quadrennium.

The Committee considered the composition of and the work of the Curriculum Committee, the method of selecting the Editor of Church School publications, choosing of Editorial Assistants, and other personnel, and the problem of "time lag" in choosing Editorial Assistants in General Conference years. It sought to find answers to the following questions: Where does final authority rest in editorial policy? What are the distinct and separate functions and co-operative functions of the Editorial Division and the Board of Publication? Who nominates, and who elects the Editor of the Editorial Division and the Editorial Assistants? Is final authority with the Editor of the Editorial Division as to what shall be included in Church School publications, or is it in the Board of Publication? What is the financial relation of these two?

In addition the Committee made a thorough study and analysis of all the Memorials concerning the relation of the Editorial Division to the Board of Publication which were submitted from across the Church to the General Conference in 1948.

Therefore, the members of your Committee, following a unanimous vote of all members present (three members absent) at Nashville, Tennessee, January 5, 1951, desire to submit the following Reports:

1. That Paragraph 1132, the Discipline 1948, which reads:

"The assistants to the Editor of Church School publications shall be elected annually by the Board of Publication upon nomination of the Editor of Church School Publications. The Board of Publication shall fix and pay the salaries of the Editor of Church School Publications and his Assistants and shall have full financial responsibility for all other expenses connected with the work of the Editor of Church School Publications."

be changed to read as follows:

"The Assistants to the Editor of Church School Publications shall be appointed by the Editor of Church School Publications. The Board of Publication shall fix and pay the salaries of the Editor of Church School Publications and his Assistants and shall have full financial responsibility for all other expenses connected with the work of the Editor of Church School Publications."

2. That there be added to Paragraph 1130, the Discipline 1948, the following:

"The Editor of Church School Publications shall be responsible to the Board of Education through its Editorial Division for editorial policies and content, and preparation of curriculum materials, including periodicals, undated materials and books authorized for use in the program of Christian education; and in matters related to the publication and financing thereof he shall be responsible to the Board of Publication."

3. That the first sentence of paragraph 1423, the Discipline 1948, which reads:

"The Assistants in the Editorial Division shall be elected annually by the Board of Publication upon nomination of the Editor of Church School Publications."

be changed to read:

"The Assistants to the Editor of Church School Publications shall be appointed by the Editor of Church School Publications."

the second half of paragraph 1423, the Discipline 1948, to remain as it is.

Paragraph 1425. After "responsible" in line 5 delete the remainder of the sentence, and add the words "to the Board of Education through its Editorial Division for editorial policies and content, and preparation of curriculum materials, including periodicals, undated materials, and books authorized for use in the program of Christian education; and in matters related to the publication and financing thereof he shall be responsible to the Board of Publication."

Then add a sentence: "He shall also be responsible for the preparation of visual education materials relating to the curriculum."

The Paragraph shall then read as follows:—Through the Editorial Division, working in co-operation with the Curriculum Committee, the General Board of Education shall provide all curriculum materials necessary for carrying on its work. The Editor of Church School Publications shall be responsible TO THE BOARD OF EDUCATION THROUGH ITS EDITORIAL DIVISION FOR EDITORIAL POLICIES AND CONTENT, AND PREPARATION OF CURRICULUM MATERIALS, INCLUDING PERIODICALS, UNDATED MATERIALS, AND BOOKS AUTHORIZED FOR USE IN THE PROGRAM OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION; AND IN MATTERS RELATED TO THE PUBLICATION AND FINANCING THEREOF TO THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION. HE SHALL ALSO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PREPARATION OF VISUAL EDUCATION MATERIALS RELATING TO THE CURRICULUM. The circulation of the literature prepared by this Division shall be a joint responsibility of the Board of Education and the Board of Publication.

By action of our Committee a copy of the foregoing recommendations were conveyed to Mr. Thomas A. Harwood of George Fry & Associates, Management Engineers, employed to make a research study of the administrative organization and procedures of The Methodist Church.

Respectfully submitted

PAUL E. MARTIN, Chairman;
RECTOR W. JOHNSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE STUDY OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

To the 1952 General Conference,

The Methodist Church, San Francisco, California.

Pursuant to the action of the General Conference of 1948 continuing the Commission on the Study of the Local Church (which had been constituted by the General Conference of 1944), and directing the Commission to continue its "studies with a view to presenting in detail to the General Conference of 1952, a simplified, clarified, and effective pattern for the local church within the bonds of our world-wide Methodist fellowship" (Journal of 1948 General Conference, p. 630, Daily Advocate, p. 116), the Commission herewith presents its Report.

During the quadrennium the Commission has had four full membership meetings, each lasting for a period of three to four days. At these meetings proposed legislation drafted by Committees, previously named, was considered in detail by the Commission, amended and finally approved, and is now presented as ordered by the 1948 General Conference.

Your Commission has given careful study to every detail of the local church's life and work, and this Report is the result of its best thinking and planning. In conformity to the directive of the General Conference, "the Executive Secretaries of the General Boards and Commissions of the Church, and the Executive Secretaries of the main Divisions of the General Boards" have sat with the Commission and have made many valuable contributions.

The organization of The Methodist Church has proved its effectiveness. One element in its ability to achieve is its connectionalism. From the General Conference, the Council of Bishops, and our General Boards and Agencies the program of the Church is transmitted through our Jurisdictional, Annual Conference, and District organizations to the great body of our membership. Our Bishops, District Superintendents, pastors and laymen, as organized, are effective links in the chain. The words of a popular hymn are especially applicable to The Methodist Church, "Like a mighty army moves the Church of God."

It is apparent, however, that on the level of the local church our closely knit organization loses much of its effectiveness. The legislation relating to the local church is in some places contradictory and confused. This is the result of our attempt to put together, at the time of unification, the procedures of the three constituent Churches. To this time no thoroughgoing attempt has been made to fit the parts into a definite and clear-cut pattern. Much of the legislation was apparently written with the large city church in view, and without clear provision for the small church in the city and in the open country—and this notwithstanding the fact that a considerable majority of our local churches have less than 300 members. The Commission has endeavored to correlate and simplify the legislation, and to present a plan sufficiently flexible to meet the requirements of local churches of every size and situation.

We have recognized that the local church is the fountain-head of the great organization which we call The Methodist Church. The test of any plan for organizing a local church is whether it provides a channel through which the creative energies of our loyal people may move to the enrichment and strengthening of the larger body. In every detail we have sought to open such a channel.

The Commission has attempted in all matters to follow the specific directive of the General Conference, as written in the Resolution of 1948 (Daily Advocate, 1948 General Conference, p. 116). The plan herein submitted adheres to the main line of our historical development, and proposes no radical change in our established pattern. The Commission is agreed that any attempt to re-organize the local church de novo would confuse our people, and would not serve the ends we have in view. It appears further that our long-established pattern, with certain revisions and simplifications, provides a plan that is most effective and workable.

The Commission has not been able to abbreviate the legislation as was originally hoped. The Methodist Church is made up of local churches of many varieties—in cities, towns, and open country—in America and in lands across the sea—small churches and large churches—the Mount Moriahs in the open country and the St. Johns on the Avenues. We have attempted to write legislation broad enough in its scope to cover the activities of the large church and at the same time simple enough to meet the requirements of a small congregation, whether in an American village or in the heart of the Congo.

We direct the attention of the Conference especially to certain proposed changes and adjustments with a brief statement of the reasons underlying them:

1. It appears to the Commission that there should be in every church a permanently bound membership roll, with provision in the same volume for a permanent record of marriages and baptisms. Some churches keep such record, but it appears that many more rely on card index and loose-leaf records which are easily scattered and lost. A permanent record, kept year after year in a substantial book—commonly called in Methodist parlance “the chronological roll”—contributes to preserving a sense of continuity in the local church and is of lasting historical value. The proposed legislation requires that every local church shall keep such a roll as its basic and continuing membership record, and a card index or loose-leaf roll in alphabetical order.

2. In the proposed legislation, the Commission has eliminated the requirement that membership records be kept under two categories, active and inactive, and so reported to the Annual Conference. For this proposal there are several reasons. The legislation as now written in the Discipline is not clear, and in some particulars it appears contradictory (see 1948 Discipline, Pars. 116, 127, 138, 139, 140). The process of keeping two rolls and transferring names from one to the other is cumbersome, and it would be most confusing in a permanently bound record book. The terms “active” and “inactive” are not truly descriptive of the two categories of members. To count a person as “active” who lives in a distant place and does no more than send an occasional contribution to the home church is hardly justifiable. From limited investigation it appears that the present law is not generally observed; that the names of persons recommended for the inactive relationship are not usually brought to the Quarterly Conference for its action; that separate rolls are the exception rather than the rule; that most frequently the number of inactive members reported to the Annual Conference is the pastor’s estimate. The figures appearing in the statistical report under the categories of active and inactive members are therefore not reliable. No provision is made in the Discipline for restoring an “inactive” member to “active” status. Neither is provision made for the transfer of an “inactive” member.

As a substitute for the entire procedure, the Commission proposes a Commission on Membership and Evangelism in every church, whose duty shall be to search out and restore negligent members, leaving to the Commission, the pastor and the Quarterly Conference the disposition of the membership of persons who persist in disregarding their vows. (Pg. 120, 192-194) *

* Observe that “Pg.” whenever appearing, indicates a cross reference to a paragraph in this Report. “Par.” indicates a cross reference to the 1948 Discipline.

3. In the judgment of the Commission the Quarterly Conference is an indispensable link in connectional Methodism, and essential to the life and program of the local church. Through the instrumentality of the District Superintendent and the Quarterly Conference the program of the whole Church is transmitted to each local congregation. By means of the Quarterly Conference the local church is bound to the whole body of the Church, and thus is our connectionalism preserved.

In the proposed legislation the Commission has endeavored to make clear the functions of the Quarterly Conference as differentiated from the Official Board. We have made the Quarterly Conference, in line with our established custom and procedure, the basic body of control in the local church and Official Board the administrative body. In defining the duties and setting up the Committees of each we have adhered to this general line of demarcation.

4. The legislation as now written in the Discipline provides for alternate plans in the administration of the local church—the Official Board or the Board of Stewards. The two are rooted in the practices of the different branches of the Church prior to unification. The Commission is convinced that the time has arrived when the two should be merged. The Commission proposes that certain officials in the local church who hitherto, under one plan of organization, held membership on the Official Board, be made Stewards ex-officio, and that these with the elective Stewards and the Trustees compose the Board. By this plan the actual personnel of the Official Boards in every part of the church would remain practically unchanged, the term "Steward" would regain its historical standing and significance, and our nomenclature and procedures would be considerably simplified. (Pg. 181-184.)

5. Below the level of the Official Board the legislation as now in the Discipline is considerably confused. The Commission has endeavored to clear up the confusions, arrange the material in logical order so that it can be more easily understood, and to provide a plan of organization adaptable to large and small churches alike. In the proposed legislation we have lifted up four major concerns as essential to the life and ministry of every church—evangelism, education, missions, and finance. We propose that every local church be required to constitute four Commissions, auxiliary to the Official Board, to promote and administer these four interests respectively. The smallest church should neglect none of the four indispensables mentioned above; the largest should be free to expand its ministries as every situation might require. We propose as the basic administrative organization in the local church, the Official Board with four Commissions auxiliary to the Board. Beyond this minimum requirement the local church is free to expand its ministry without limitation, but always under the direction of the Official Board (Pg. 191). A section has been added on organizing a new church (Pg. 140). The Paragraph relating to the Pastoral Relations Committee has been recast. (Pg. 135-p2.)

6. When the Commission reviewed the legislation relating to the local church Trustees, property, and titles, the question of incorporating local churches presented itself. A Committee was appointed, and the whole matter received careful study. We had the benefit of competent legal counsel from different sections of the Church. We have attempted to write legislation in this sphere sufficiently flexible to be adaptable to a great variety of civil laws, and at the same time sufficiently definite to guide our local churches, whether incorporated or unincorporated, in safeguarding their property rights.

The members of the Commission are grateful to the General Conference for this opportunity to study the life and program of the local church. Amid the exacting and sometimes monotonous details of our work we have found continuing joy. Within the Commission we have experienced a "fellowship of kindred minds" which we recognize to be the fellowship we have with one another in Christ Jesus. We have sought to perform our duty with as small expense to the Church as was consistent with the efficient performance of our task. Our dominant desire has been to present to the General Conference a plan of organization that would enrich the life of the local church and strengthen it more effectively to serve the purposes of God and the need of mankind.

PART II

Chapter I

THE PASTORAL CHARGE

Adopted April 28, 1952. See Journal, Pages 299-301.
Section I

101. The visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful men in which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinance, in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same (Par. 73).

102. The local church is a connectional society of persons who have professed their faith in Christ, have been baptized, have assumed the vows of membership in The Methodist Church, and are associated in fellowship as a local Methodist Church in order that they may hear the Word of God, receive the Sacraments, and carry forward the work which Christ has committed to His Church. Such a society of believers, being within The Methodist Church and subject to its Discipline, is also an inherent part of the Church Universal, which is composed of all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and which in the Apostles' Creed we declare to be the holy catholic Church.

103. In order that each local church may be an effective connectional unit in The Methodist Church, it shall be the duty of all District Superintendents and pastors to organize and administer the charges and churches committed to their care in accordance with the plan hereinafter set forth.

104. A pastoral charge shall consist of one or more churches organized under, and subject to, the Discipline of The Methodist Church with a single pastoral charge Quarterly Conference, and to which a minister is or may be duly appointed or appointable as preacher in charge. A pastoral charge of two or more churches is a Circuit.

Chapter II

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

Adopted April 28, 1952. See Journal, Page 302.

105. The membership of a local Methodist church shall consist of all persons who have been received into its fellowship on profession of their faith (Pg. 107-109), by transfer from some other church (Pg. 110, 111), or by restoration (Pg. 119, 120, Par. 977), and whose membership has not been terminated by death, transfer (Pg. 116, 117), withdrawal (Pg. 118, 119), expulsion (Par. 974), or by action of the Quarterly Conference (Pg. 120). A member of a local Methodist church is a member of The Methodist Church.

Section I

ADMISSION INTO THE CHURCH

107. All persons seeking to be saved from their sins and sincerely desiring to be Christian in faith and practice are proper candidates for membership in The Methodist Church. When such persons offer themselves for membership, it shall be the duty of the pastor, or of proper persons appointed by him, to instruct them in the meaning of the Christian faith, the history, organization, and teaching of The Methodist Church, to explain to them the baptismal and membership vows (Par. 1912, 1914), and to lead them to commit themselves to Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. When they shall have given proof of the genuineness of their faith in Christ and of their desire to assume the obligations and become faithful members of The Methodist Church, and after the rite of baptism has been administered to those who have not been previously baptized, he shall bring them before the congregation, administer the vows (Par. 1914, 1915) and shall receive them into the fellowship of the Church, and duly enroll them as members.

108. A duly authorized minister of The Methodist Church while serving as chaplain of any organization, institution or military unit, or while otherwise present where a local church is not available may receive a person into the membership of The Methodist Church when such person shall have given proof of the genuineness of his faith in Christ and of his desire to assume the obligations and become a faithful member of the Church. After the vows of membership have been administered (Par. 1914, 1915), such minister shall issue a statement of membership to the local church of the choice of the person concerned, and the pastor thereof on receiving such statement shall duly enroll him as a member.

109. Any candidate for church membership who for good reason is unable to appear before the congregation, may, at the discretion of the pastor and with the approval of the Official Board, be received elsewhere in accordance with the ritual of The Methodist Church (Par. 1914, 1915); provided, that in the event of a clear emergency the pastor may receive such person without the approval of the Board, in which case he shall report his action to the Board at its next meeting.

110. A person who is a member of The Methodist Church may have his membership transferred from one local church to another by a proper certificate of transfer.

111. A member in good standing in any Christian denomination who has been baptized and desires to unite with The Methodist Church may be received into membership by a proper certificate of transfer from his former Church or by his own declaration of Christian faith, and upon affirming his willingness to be loyal to The Methodist Church, and after he and the members of the church have entered into solemn covenant with one another as provided in the Ritual. (Par. 1916.)

112. A member of The Methodist Church, residing for an extended period in a city or community at a distance from his home church, may on his request be enrolled as an affiliate member of a Methodist church located in the vicinity of his temporary residence (Par. 1916). His home pastor shall be notified of his affiliate membership. Such membership shall entitle him to the fellowship of that church, to its pastoral care and oversight, and to participation in its activities, including the holding of office, except as otherwise provided (Pg. 128), but he shall be counted and reported only as a member of his home church. A member of another denomination may under the same conditions become an affiliate member of a Methodist church, except as he may not hold any office that would carry with it membership in the Official Board or Quarterly Conference.

Section II

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Adopted April 28, 1952. See Journal, Pages 307, 308.

113. Membership in a local church may be terminated by transfer (Pg. 116, 117), withdrawal (Pg. 118, 119), expulsion (Par. 974), death, or by action of the Quarterly Conference (Pg. 120). It shall be the duty of the pastor of the charge or of the Membership Secretary to keep an accurate record of all terminations of membership and to report to each Quarterly Conference the names of all persons whose membership has been terminated since the Conference preceding, in each instance indicating the reason for such termination.

114. If a member of a Methodist church shall change his place of residence to another community, so far removed from his home church that he cannot participate regularly in its worship and activity, he shall be encouraged to transfer his membership to a Methodist church in the community of his newly established residence. As soon as his pastor is reliably informed of his change of residence, actual or contemplated, it shall be the pastor's duty and obligation to assist him to establish himself in the fellowship of a church in the community of his future home, and to send to a Methodist pastor in such community, or to the District Superintendent, or if neither is known to the General Board of Evangelism, a letter of notification, giving the latest known address of the person (or persons) concerned and requesting local pastoral oversight. The above procedure is based on the recognition that absentee membership is not good for the individual or the Church, and it is essential that we recognize that the care of souls and the building up of the whole Church is more important than retaining membership in a particular congregation, whether for sentimental or other reasons.

115. When a pastor discovers a member of The Methodist Church residing in his community whose membership is in a church so far removed from his place of residence that he cannot participate regularly in its worship and activity, it shall be his duty and obligation to give pastoral oversight to such person, and to persuade him, if possible, to transfer his membership to a Methodist church in the community where he resides.

116. When a pastor shall receive from another pastor of a Methodist church or from the person concerned a request for Certificate of Transfer for a member of his church, he shall issue the same in the following form, and shall make proper entry on his church roll of the transfer of such person and his membership is thereby transferred:

This is to certify that A.B., who resides at _____, has been a member of the _____ Methodist Church in _____. On request his (her) membership is hereby transferred to the _____ Methodist Church in _____, and he (she) is affectionately commended to its care and fellowship. Notice of this Certificate of Transfer has been sent to the person above named.

Date _____, Pastor
Address _____

The original Certificate shall be accompanied by a blank for the acknowledgment of the same in the following form:

This Certificate of Transfer of the membership of A.B. from the _____ Methodist Church in _____ to the _____ Methodist Church is hereby acknowledged. He (she) has been duly received into our fellowship and recorded as a member in this church.

_____, Pastor

Date _____ Address _____

Notice shall be sent to the person whose membership is thus being transferred in the following form:

This day I have issued a certificate of transfer of your membership to the _____ Methodist Church in _____, commending you to its care and fellowship. In your new relationship we bid you Godspeed.

_____, Pastor
Date _____ Address _____

The Certificate of Transfer shall be sent directly to the pastor of the Methodist church to which the certificate is issued, or to the District Superintendent if there is no pastor. On receipt of such certificate of transfer, the pastor or the District Superintendent receiving the same shall record on the membership roll of the church the name of the person thus transferred, and he shall be a member thereof; whereupon the pastor or District Superintendent shall certify to the pastor issuing the certificate that the name appearing on said certificate has been duly entered on his membership roll.

117. A pastor upon receiving a request from a member of his church to transfer to a church of another denomination, or upon receiving such request from a pastor or duly authorized official of another denomination, shall issue a Certificate of Transfer, shall properly record the transfer of such person on the membership roll of the local church, and his membership is thereby terminated. For the transfer of a member of The Methodist Church to a church of another denomination, forms similar to those described in Paragraph 116 of the Commission's Report shall be used, with the substitution of the name of the other denomination for the word "Methodist" used in those forms.

118. If a pastor is informed that a member of his church has, without notice, united with a church of another denomination, he shall make diligent inquiry and if the report is confirmed, he shall enter "Withdrawn" after the person's name on the membership roll, and shall report the same to the next Quarterly Conference.

119. If a member proposes to withdraw from The Methodist Church, he shall communicate his purpose in writing to the pastor of the local church in which his membership is held. On receiving such notice of withdrawal, the pastor shall properly record the fact of withdrawal on the membership roll. If requested, the pastor shall give a statement of withdrawal to such member. Such person, on his written request, may be restored to membership on recommendation of the pastor and by vote of the Quarterly Conference.

120. If a member of a local church is for a period of two years persistently negligent of his vows or without good and sufficient reason continuously absents himself for such period from the worship of the church, or has persistently refused for such period without just reason to support the church, or if his address has been unknown to the members of the congregation for two years, his name may be removed from the church membership roll by vote of the Quarterly Conference on recommendation of the pastor and of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism. Before such action is taken, the pastor or the Commission shall visit or otherwise communicate with such person, if his address is known, and entreat him to become a faithful member. If he refuses to give heed to such entreaty, the Quarterly Conference may proceed as above indicated, and order to be entered on the membership roll after his name, the following: "Removed by order of the Quarterly Conference." The membership of such person is thereby terminated, and the record thereof shall be retained; provided, he may be restored to membership by vote of the Quarterly Conference on his request and on recommendation of the pastor. The Commission on Membership and Evangelism shall review annually the membership roll of the church, and shall make recommendations to the fourth Quarterly Conference according to the above provisions.

Section III

CHILDREN AND THE CHURCH

Adopted April 29, 1952. See Journal, Page 321.

121. We hold that all children, by virtue of the unconditional benefits of the atonement, are members of the family of God, and are therefore graciously entitled to baptism. It shall be the duty of the pastor of every charge earnestly to exhort parents and guardians within his constituency to dedicate their children to the Lord in baptism, as early as practicable. Before baptism is administered, he shall instruct the parents or guardians concerning the meaning of this Sacrament and the vows which they assume, and he shall exhort them to be ever faithful therein (Par. 1910). After baptism has been administered, the name of the child (children) shall be entered on the permanent records of the church, recording date and place of birth, date of baptism, and the names of parents or guardians. The pastor shall deliver to the parents or guardians a Certificate of Baptism, in proper form.

122. The names of all baptized children within the local church shall be kept on the Preparatory Membership Roll (Pg. 126). When a Certificate of Transfer is issued for parents of any baptized child who has not assumed the vows of full membership, a Preparatory Membership Transfer for such child shall be issued at the same time and to the same church, and proper record shall be made on the Preparatory Membership Roll. When children on the Preparatory Membership Roll shall have reached the age of sixteen without becoming members of any church, they shall be transferred to the constituency roll (Pg. 126).

123. It shall be the duty of the pastor, in co-operation with their parents and the officers and teachers of the Church School, to lead the children of the church to an understanding of the Christian faith, to an appreciation of the privileges and obligations of church membership, and to a personal commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. The pastor or a person appointed by him shall, at least annually, organize the children who have arrived at the age of decision into classes of instruction for church membership. When they shall have given evidence of their understanding and of their sincerity of purpose, and shall have completed a course of study approved by The Methodist Church, they shall be brought before the congregation and admitted into the full membership of the Church (Par. 1915) and their names shall be duly recorded on the membership roll.

124. The pastor shall report to each Quarterly Conference the names of persons received into the membership of the church or churches of the pastoral charge since the Quarterly Conference preceding, and the names of persons whose membership in the church or churches of the pastoral charge has been terminated during the same period, indicating in the case of each how he was received or how his membership was terminated.

Section IV

MEMBERSHIP RECORDS

Adopted April 29, 1952. See Journal, Page 321.

125. The basic membership records in each local church shall consist of (1) a permanent church register, and (2) a card index or loose-leaf book.

1. The permanent church register shall be a bound volume of durable material, prepared by The Methodist Publishing House, at a reasonable price, in the form approved by the Commission on Records, Forms and Statistical Blanks (Par. 1139-1141). Space shall be provided for record of members, showing the full name of each, how each was admitted into the church, the date, by whom received, and how the membership of each is terminated, with the date. Space shall also be provided for recording marriages, baptisms, deaths, pastoral terms, and such other matters as may be essential to a permanent record of the church's membership and ministry, as may be determined by the Commission on Records, Forms and Statistical Blanks. The names shall be recorded chronologically as each person is received into the fellowship of that church, and without reference to alphabetical order. Each name shall be numbered, in regular numerical order, and the number of each shall appear on the corresponding card or page in the card index or loose-leaf membership roll. This provision is for the purpose of insuring facility in locating any name on the permanent church register.

2. The card index or loose-leaf membership record shall be kept on a form approved by the Commission on Records, Forms, and Statistical Blanks (Par. 1139-1141), or on other forms that include the items approved by the said Commission. Space shall be provided for the name and address, how and when received, and such other information as may be determined by the Commission. This record of membership shall be filed in alphabetical order, and shall show the number appearing opposite each name on the permanent register so that such name may be promptly located. The pastor shall report annually to the Annual Conference the total membership of his charge as shown on his membership records.

126. The pastor or Membership Secretary shall also keep a Constituency Roll, containing the names and addresses of such persons as are not members of the church concerned, including unbaptized children, for whom the local church has pastoral responsibility, and a Preparatory Membership Roll containing the names of all baptized children in the church who have not been received into full membership (Pg. 121). Such other Membership Rolls, including affiliate members (Pg. 112), shall be maintained as may be judged necessary for proper pastoral care and the general work of the Church.

Chapter III

THE QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Adopted April 29, 1952. See Journal, Page 322.

PART I

THE WORK AND PROGRAM OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

127. Within the pastoral charge (Pg. 104) the Quarterly Conference is the basic body of control uniting it to connectional Methodism, and through the Quarterly Conference the pastoral charge functions in its relationship thereto. The Quarterly Conference shall therefore be organized in every pastoral charge, as provided in the Constitution of the Church (Par. 31, 32). The membership thereof, and its authority, powers, duties, and responsibilities shall be as hereinafter set forth.

128. The following shall constitute the membership of the Quarterly Conference, insofar as the officers and relationships exist within the pastoral charge:

1. The pastor, the associate pastor or pastors; the retired and supernumerary preachers residing in that place who elect to hold membership therein, provided that each such person may be a member of one Quarterly Conference only; traveling preachers who, because they are assigned to special work, have been attached to the Quarterly Conference concerned by appointment of the Bishop (Par. 432);

2. The local preachers and exhorters holding their membership in the pastoral charge, and deaconesses appointed to labor therein;

3. The Stewards, elective and ex-officio (Pg. 183, 184) and the Trustees of the church, or churches, in the pastoral charge (Pg. 143); provided, however, that all lay members of the Quarterly Conference shall be members of a local church within the charge, and shall be not less than eighteen years of age, provided, however, that limitation of age shall not apply to the President of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, or the President of the Youth Council.

129. The District Superintendent or an elder designated by him shall preside. The District Superintendent shall fix the time for the meeting of the Quarterly Conference, but the Conference may appoint the place; provided, that should necessity arise the District Superintendent and the pastor may change the place of meeting. A special session of the Quarterly Conference may be called by the District Superintendent or by the pastor with the written consent of the District Superintendent. Quarterly Conferences for two or more pastoral charges may be held at the same time and place, as the District Superintendent may determine.

130. There shall be held for each pastoral charge a first and a fourth Quarterly Conference. The second and third Quarterly Conference may be held at the discretion of the District Superintendent. A Recording Steward shall be elected annually, who shall keep an accurate and permanent record of the proceedings and shall be the custodian of all records and reports, and who with the presiding officer shall sign the minutes.

131. The Quarterly Conference, after a period of worship, shall transact the business committed to it by the Discipline, following the order indicated on the form bearing the title "Minutes of The Quarterly Conference," approved by the Committee on Records, Forms, and Statistical Blanks of the Council on World Service and Finance, and published by The Methodist Publishing House. The District Superintendent is required insofar as possible to keep his record of each Quarterly Conference on this official form. It shall also be his duty to see that other Quarterly Conference and church records and reports are written on our approved forms.

If the observance of the order of business as provided in these forms seems likely to protract a session beyond a reasonable limit, the presiding officer may, with the approval of the Quarterly Conference, select the more important matters and bring them forward.

Section I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Adopted April 29, 1952. See Journal, Page 323.

132. To the Quarterly Conference is committed the following powers and duties: (1) To have general oversight of the Official Board(s), which is the administrative body of the Quarterly Conference; (2) To receive Reports from the pastor (Par. 352, p. 20), from church officers, and from the Commissions, Committees, and Societies of the church or churches of the pastoral charge as the Quarterly Conference may require; (3) To elect the officers of the church or churches, constituting a pastoral charge (Par. 32), unless otherwise provided, in harmony with the provisions of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, and to constitute the required Commissions for each local church (Pg. 134) and such Committees as may be determined by the Quarterly Conference (Pg. 135); (4) in cases where the Discipline permits one or more courses of action in the administration and work of a pastoral charge, to determine what course shall be taken (Par. 31, 161, 167, 242); (5) to recommend proper persons for license to preach or in the event there is no District Conference to license the same, and to license exhorters (Pg. 136); (6) to fix the salary of the pastor or pastors (Pg. 139, p6; 190, p2); (7) to determine annually the amount accepted by the charge for World Service and Conference Benevolences (Pg. 137); (8) such other powers and duties as have been or may be duly committed to it.

Section II

ELECTIONS

Adopted April 29, 1952. See Journal, Page 323.

133. The Quarterly Conference shall elect annually the following officers for the pastoral charge, on nomination of the Committee on Nominations or on nomination of the pastor if there is no such Committee (Pg. 135, p1: 132, p3), unless otherwise provided in the Discipline; or it shall authorize the Annual Church Conference to elect such officers, in which case it shall issue a call for an Annual Church Conference for that purpose (Par. 32, Pg. 177-180); provided, that in no case shall nominations from the floor be denied: (1) The elective Stewards of the church or churches of the pastoral charge (Pg. 183-186); (2) The Charge Lay Leader of the Circuit (Pg. 222); (3) the District Steward and Reserve District Steward, provided, that the Committee on Nominations or the pastor shall confer with the District Superintendent before any nomination is made; (4) The Lay Member of the Annual Conference, annually or quadrennially, as the Annual Conference may direct, and one or more reserve members. If the charge's Lay representative to the Annual Conference shall cease to be a member of the charge or shall for any reason fail to serve, a Reserve Member in the order of his election shall serve in his place; (5) The General Superintendents of the Church Schools (Pg. 201, (1)); (6) Elective members of the District Conference, if any (Par. 667); (7) The Director of Christian education, on nomination of the pastor with the concurrence of the Commission on Christian Education (Pg. 206); (8) The Communion Steward, or Stewards, whose duty it shall be to provide the elements for Holy Communion, under the direction of the pastor, and properly to arrange the Communion Table; (9) Any other officer of the church, or churches, as directed by the General, Jurisdictional, Annual, or District Conferences, or as determined by the Quarterly Conference; provided, that all such are in harmony with the provisions of the Discipline. Consult Paragraphs 142, 143 for the election of Trustees.

134. The Quarterly Conference shall elect annually from the membership of the church or churches in the charge, on nomination of the Committee on Nominations, or of the pastor if there is no such Committee, four Commissions: a Commission on Membership and Evangelism, a Commission on Education, a Commission on Missions, and a Commission on Finance; provided, that in pastoral charges of more than one church the four Commissions shall be nominated by the Official Board of each church respectively with the concurrence of the pastor (or, if the Board fails to make such nominations, they shall be made by the pastor). In every case the elected membership of each Commission shall not be less than three, and as many additional members as the Quarterly Conference may determine. Each Commission shall work under the authority and direction of the Official Board, the duties of each being hereinafter defined and set forth (Pg. 192-215). Such Commissions shall be elected at the fourth Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge, and shall serve from the beginning of the ensuing Conference year. Should the Quarterly Conference fail to elect the above-named Commissions, the Official Board(s) shall elect them and report to the District Superintendent.

135. The Quarterly Conference shall select from the Committees designated hereunder such Committees as it determines to be necessary to the work of the Quarterly Conference, the same to be nominated by the Committee on Nominations, or by the pastor, if there is no such Committee, unless otherwise provided in the Discipline, and elected by the Quarterly Conference; or it may authorize the Annual Church Conference to elect the Commissions named above and such Committees as may be necessary to the efficiency of the Quarterly Conference, in which case it shall authorize a call for an Annual Church Conference for that purpose (Par. 32, Pg. 177-180); provided, that in no case shall nominations from the floor be denied.

1. The Committee on Nominations, of which the pastor shall be Chairman, which shall nominate to the Quarterly Conference or to the Annual Church Conference such officers and members of Quarterly Conference Commissions and Committees as the law of the Church requires or as the Quarterly Conference may determine as necessary to its work (Pg. 134); provided, that all the elective members of the Committee on Nominations shall be nominated from the floor.

2. The Committee on Pastoral Relations, which shall consist of not less than three nor more than nine persons, provided, that in a Circuit each church shall have not less than one representative on the Committee.

The primary function of the Pastoral Relations Committee is to aid the pastor in making his ministry most effective by being available for counsel, and keeping him advised concerning conditions within the congregation as they affect relations between pastor and people; and by keeping the people informed concerning the nature and function of the pastoral office.

When the pastor is to be absent, the Committee shall cooperate with him to secure suitable supply ministers for preaching and other pastoral service during his absence.

Since a responsibility of the Committee is to be at all times sensitive to the relationship between pastor and people, should it become evident to the Committee that the best interests of the charge and pastor will be served by a change in pastoral relations, the Committee shall confer with the pastor and furnish him with this information. The Committee shall co-operate with the pastor, the District Superintendent and the Bishop in arranging for a change of pastors. The Committee shall be amenable to the Quarterly Conference and its relation to the District Superintendent and Bishop is advisory only.

3. The Committee on Records and History, which shall be responsible for assisting the pastor to see that all church and Quarterly Conference records are kept on the official record blanks as provided by The Methodist Publishing House, under the direction of the Committee on Records, Forms and Statistical Blanks of the Council on World Service and Finance. This Committee shall examine the Quarterly Conference records annually after the fourth Quarterly Conference and shall report the results of its examination to the first Quarterly Conference of the ensuing year. The Committee, with the pastor, shall be responsible for preparing, where it does not already exist, and after the Quarterly Conference has approved such an undertaking, a history of the local church or churches from the time of organization, and provide for preserving the same in permanent form. At the close of each Conference year it may add to this record facts concerning important activities and achievements of the church and its organizations. The Committee shall see that any and all minute or record books no longer in current use are deposited with the Recording Steward. The Committee shall co-operate with the Recording Steward in providing a permanent place for the safekeeping of the Quarterly Conference records and all other historical material belonging to the church.

4. The Committee on Co-operation, which shall be responsible for co-operation with other churches and constructive agencies and groups in the community; provided, that in each instance such co-operation has been approved by the Quarterly Conference or the Official Board.

5. The Committee on Policy, which, after a careful survey of the work and needs of the pastoral charge, shall make recommendations concerning its improvement or extension; provided, that the pastor shall nominate this Committee and shall be its Chairman. On charges of more than one church, each church shall have at least one member on this Committee, and as far as practicable each of the local church Commissions shall be represented thereon.

6. The Parsonage Committee, which, with the approval of the Trustees, shall provide an adequate and comfortable residence for the pastor and maintain the proper upkeep and furnishing of the same; provided, on charges of only one church this Committee shall be named by the Official Board, in which event it shall be responsible to the Board (Pg. 216, p7).

7. The Farm and Home Committee, composed of both men and women, which shall have the responsibility of assisting young couples to become established on the land and in small businesses inherent in the economy of the community, for the purpose of maintaining and strengthening the church community.

8. The Committee on Wills and Legacies, whose duty it shall be to keep before Methodist people and any others, by such means as the Committee may determine, the desirability of leaving bequests to the local church, or to other causes and institutions of The Methodist Church. The Committee shall seek legal counsel to the end that bequests may be made in proper legal form.

9. The Committee on Apportionments (if the pastoral charge is a Circuit) whose duty it shall be to recommend to the Quarterly Conference for its action and determination, a proper schedule of apportionments among the churches of the pastoral charge for salaries, benevolences and other items properly apportioned to the charge, or assumed by it. Each church in the pastoral charge shall have representation on this Committee.

10. Any other Committees which the Quarterly Conference may determine to be necessary to its work, provided, the same are in harmony with the provisions of the Discipline.

Section III

LICENSING PREACHERS AND EXHORTERS

Adopted April 29, 1952. See Journal, Page 325.

136. The Quarterly Conference shall recommend persons for license to preach, and shall license proper persons as exhorters, as follows:

1. It shall, on application of a proper person, whose membership is within the charge, for license to preach, recommend such person to the District Conference, if in its judgment his gifts, graces and potential usefulness warrant such action. In the event no District Conference is authorized by the Annual Conference (Par. 30, 666), the Quarterly Conference shall license such person to preach if in its judgment his gifts, graces, and potential usefulness warrant such action, provided, that the applicant has previously conformed with the requirements of the Discipline. (Par. 303, 675.) In either instance, the vote shall be taken by written, secret ballot, and the recommendation or license shall be signed by the presiding officer.

2. It shall, on application of a proper person, whose membership is within the charge, license him to exhort if in its judgment his gifts, graces and potential usefulness warrant such action, provided, that the applicant has previously received the written approval of the Official Board of the church of which he is a member. The license shall be signed by the presiding officer of the Conference. The duties of an exhorter shall be to hold meetings for prayer and exhortation whenever opportunity is afforded, subject to the direction of the pastor; to attend all the sessions of the Quarterly Conferences; and to present annually a written Report to the same. The Quarterly Conference shall each year inquire into the gifts and labors of all exhorters on the charge, and examine their characters. If the Conference is satisfied as to an exhorter's usefulness and Christian character, it may renew his license for another year, such renewal to be signed by the presiding officer thereof.

3. It shall certify proper persons to serve as lay speakers, and inquire annually into the gifts, labors, and usefulness of lay speakers on the Circuit, station, or mission. Lay speakers shall be constituted by the Official Board of the church of which they are members and certified by the Quarterly Conference, the Certificate to be signed by the President of the Quarterly Conference. The duties of the lay speaker are to conduct services of worship, to hold meetings for prayer and exhortation whenever opportunity is afforded, subject to the direction of the pastor, to attend all the sessions of the District and Quarterly Conferences, and to present a written Report to the same. A lay speaker shall be subject to an annual examination of character in the Quarterly Conference, and a renewal of Certificate, to be signed by the President thereof.

Section IV

SUNDRY DUTIES

Adopted April 30, 1952. See Journal, Pages 336, 337.

137. The Quarterly Conference shall determine the amount accepted annually by the charge for World Service and Conference Benevolence by the following procedure: As soon as practicable after the session of the Annual Conference, each District Superintendent shall notify each pastoral charge in his District what amounts have been apportioned to it for World Service and Conference Benevolence (Par. 782-783). It shall be the responsibility of the pastor and the respective Church Lay Leaders to present to a meeting of each local church in the pastoral charge a statement of the apportionments for World Service and Conference Benevolences, explaining the causes supported by each of these funds, and their place in the total program of the Church. Such presentation to each local church shall be made before the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge shall set the amount of its acceptances. The first or second Quarterly Conference may accept, increase, or decrease the amount apportioned for World Service and Conference Benevolences (Pg. 132, p7). The amount voted by the Quarterly Conference shall be the amount assumed by the pastoral charge for this cause. Should the amount contributed during the year for World Service and Conference Benevolences exceed the charge's acceptance, the entire amount so contributed shall be remitted in regular order to the Conference Treasurer before the end of the Conference year. (Pg. 213, p6.) The District Superintendent shall also notify each pastoral charge of all other amounts properly apportioned to it.

The apportionments to the pastoral charge for the General Administration Fund, for the Episcopal Fund, for District Superintendents, for Conference Claimants, and for the Minimum Salary Fund are not subject to change or alteration by the Quarterly Conference or by the local church.

138. Annually at its fall meeting the pastor shall answer the following questions, and the answers thereto shall be transmitted to the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, or, if there is no Executive Secretary, to the President thereof: (1) Who are the young people of this pastoral charge who are members of the senior class in high school? (2) Who are the young people of this pastoral charge who are members of the second year in junior college? (3) Has a list of their names been sent to the admissions officers of the Methodist colleges or colleges related to the Annual Conference for their information? (4) Who are the young people now in university, college, schools of nursing? What is being done by the local church to extend and maintain its ministry to them? Who of these are recruits for life service in a church vocation, and in what educational institutions are they enrolled? (5) What young people from this pastoral charge are now in theological schools, and in what school is each enrolled? (6) What young people from this pastoral charge are in the armed service, and what is being done to extend and maintain the church's ministry to them?

139. In addition to the duties and responsibilities herein-before mentioned, the Quarterly Conference shall be charged with the following:

1. Through the Official Board as its administrative agent, supervise and promote the financial interests of the charge, including the support of the ministry, the payment of World Service and Conference Benevolences, and prompt discharge of financial obligations for the building, repair, and the general physical maintenance of the church houses and parsonage of the charge.

2. Promote all the spiritual as well as temporal interests of the church—evangelistic, educational, missionary and benevolent.

3. Each year at the first Quarterly Conference, the following questions shall be asked: (1) How many persons have been received into the fellowship of the Church on this pastoral charge during the past twelve months? (2) How many persons will this pastoral charge set as a minimum number to be received on profession of faith this Conference year and what means will it adopt to win them? (3) What program has been adopted for assimilating new members in the life of the Church, and training them in Christian living and activity?

4. Receive reports of the work of the pastor, other officers and of all the organizations of the church or churches of the pastoral charge, as the Quarterly Conference may determine.

5. Fix the place of the next session of the Quarterly Conference. (Pg. 130.)

6. Fix the salary and other remuneration of the pastor, or pastors, after the following procedure: At the session of the Quarterly Conference next preceding the regular annual session of the Annual Conference, on recommendation of the Official Board(s) and after consultation with the pastor, the Conference shall set the minimum salary of the pastor for the ensuing Conference year. In pastoral charges of more than one church, the amount apportioned to each church shall be recorded in the minutes of the Quarterly Conference. The pastor's salary thus agreed upon shall not include the traveling and moving expenses of a new appointee to the pastoral charge. These expenses, when provided for, shall be a separate and additional item.

7. Such duties and responsibilities as the General Conference may from time to time commit to it.

8. The District Superintendent shall secure the names and addresses of the Church School Superintendents on the charge and transmit them to the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education on blanks furnished by the General Board of Education,

Section V

ORGANIZING A LOCAL CHURCH

Adopted April 30, 1952. See Journal, Page 337.

140. 1. When a local church is to be organized, the District Superintendent, after consultation with the District Board of Church Location and Building (Par. 704-707), shall call the persons interested in the proposed church to meet at an appointed time and place, or he may by written authorization designate any pastor in his District to call such a meeting.

2. The District Superintendent, or the pastor holding authority from him, shall preside, and shall appoint a Secretary to keep a record of the meeting. Following a period of worship, opportunity shall be given those in attendance to present themselves for membership by proper Certificates of Transfer. Pastors issuing such Certificates to a church not yet organized shall describe therein the proposed new church to which it is issued—as, for instance, “the proposed new church on Boston Avenue.”

3. Opportunity shall also be given persons desiring to become members on profession of their faith in Christ to present themselves for membership. When the presiding minister is satisfied as to the genuineness of their faith and purpose (Pg. 107), they shall be received into the membership of the Church in accordance with our prescribed form (Par. 1914).

4. A list shall be made of all the persons received into the membership of the proposed church, by transfer and on profession. These persons, eighteen years of age and over, shall be members of the constituting Church Conference, and each shall be entitled to vote.

5. The constituting Church Conference shall then be called to order, and it shall proceed to choose the elective Stewards of the church (Pg. 133, p1), on nomination of a Committee on Nominations. Such Committee shall be appointed by the presiding minister or elected on nomination from the floor as the Conference may determine. In either case the presiding minister shall be Chairman. When the elective Stewards have been chosen in proper number (Pg. 183), the presiding minister shall declare the church properly constituted.

6. He shall then adjourn the Church Conference and call to order the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge. The membership of said Quarterly Conference shall be the newly elected Stewards and any others entitled to membership under the provisions of the Discipline (Pg. 128). The Quarterly Conference shall then elect such officers of the church as the Discipline requires, including Trustees of church property (Pg. 143) and shall set up Commissions and Committees as provided in the Discipline (Pg. 135). When such officers have been duly elected and the proper Commissions and Committees constituted, the church is duly organized, and from this point its work shall proceed as described in the Discipline; provided, that when a newly organized church is attached to a Circuit, the pastoral charge Quarterly Conference shall not be held until such time as representatives from all the churches of the charge can be properly assembled for that purpose.

7. The Quarterly Conference may take action, at its discretion, authorizing and directing the newly elected Trustees to incorporate the newly organized church in accordance with local laws and the provisions of the Discipline.

PART II

CHURCH PROPERTY

Adopted April 30, 1952. See Journal, Page 337.

141. In a pastoral charge (Pg. 104) consisting of one local church, the Quarterly Conference as constituted in Pg. 128 shall be vested with authority and power in matters relative to the real and personal property of the local church concerned as hereinafter set forth (Pg. 142-163). In a pastoral charge consisting of two or more local churches, a Local Church Quarterly Conference shall be organized in each local church therein, and such Local Church Quarterly Conference shall be vested with authority and power in matters relating to the real and personal property of the local church concerned, as hereinafter later set forth (Pg. 164-167).

Section I. A Pastoral Charge Consisting of One Local Church.

142. In a pastoral charge consisting of one local church, the Quarterly Conference, constituted as set forth in Pg. 128, shall be vested with power and authority as hereinafter set forth in connection with the property, both real and personal, of the said local church, viz.: (1) If it so elects, to direct the Board of Trustees to incorporate the local church expressly subject, however, to the Discipline of The Methodist Church (Pg. 161-163), and in accordance with the pertinent local laws, and in such manner as will fully protect and exempt from any and all legal liability the individual officials and members, jointly and severally, of the local church, and the Quarterly, Annual, Jurisdictional, and General Conferences and The Methodist Church, and each of them, for and on account of the debts and other obligations, of every kind and description, of the local church; (2) To direct the Board of Trustees with respect to the purchase, sale, mortgage, incumbrance, construction, repairing, remodeling, and maintenance of any and all property of the local church; (3) To direct the Board of Trustees with respect to the acceptance or rejection of any and all conveyances, grants, gifts, donations, legacies, bequests, or devises absolute or in trust, for the use and benefit of the local church, and to require the administration of any such trust in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof and of the local laws appertaining thereto; (4) To elect the Trustees of the local church, unless otherwise provided (Par. 32), in harmony with provisions of the Discipline; (5) To do any and all things necessary to exercise such other powers and duties relating to the property, real and personal, of the local church concerned as may be committed to it by the Discipline.

1. LOCAL CHURCH BOARD OF TRUSTEES

143. In each local church there shall be a Board of Trustees consisting of not less than 3 nor more than 9 persons, each of whom shall be not less than 21 years of age, and at least two-thirds of whom shall be members of The Methodist Church.

144. The members of the Board of Trustees shall be divided into three classes and each class shall, as nearly as possible, consist of an equal number of members. At the fourth or final meeting of the Quarterly Conference for the Annual Conference Year, upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations (Pg. 135, p1), of which the pastor shall be Chairman (or if the Committee fails to nominate, upon nomination of the pastor) it shall elect, to take office at the beginning of the ensuing Conference year, to serve for a term of three years or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified, the required number of Trustees to succeed those of the class whose terms then expire, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the election of a Trustee to succeed himself.

The Quarterly Conference may determine that the Board of Trustees shall be elected by the members of the local church who are not less than 18 years of age, at a meeting arranged and called for that purpose by the Quarterly Conference, provided, however, that at least 10 days' notice of such meeting and the purpose thereof shall be given from the pulpit of the local church or in its weekly bulletin (Par. 32).

145. Any vacancy in the Board of Trustees may be filled until the next annual election, as hereinbefore provided, by the Quarterly Conference in any regular or special session upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations, or by the pastor; provided that nominations from the floor shall not be denied.

146. Within 30 days after the beginning of the ensuing Conference year, the Board of Trustees shall convene at a time and place designated by the President, or by the Vice-President in the event that the President is not re-elected a Trustee, or because of his absence or disability is unable to act, for the purpose of electing officers of the said Board for the ensuing year and transacting any other business properly brought before it.

The Board of Trustees shall elect from the membership thereof to hold office for a term of one year or until their successors shall be elected a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and if need requires, a Treasurer; provided, however, that the President and Vice-President shall not be members of the same class, and provided further, that the offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person. The duties of each officer shall be the same as are generally connected with the office held and which are usually and commonly discharged by the holder thereof.

Where necessity requires, as a result of the incorporation of a local church, the corporation directors, in addition to electing officers as provided in this Paragraph, shall, by appropriate action, ratify and confirm, and if necessary elect, as officers of the corporation the Treasurer or Treasurers, as the case may be, elected by the Official Board in accordance with the provisions of Pg. 187 and 214, whose duties and responsibilities shall be as therein set forth. If more than one account is maintained in the name of the corporation in any financial institution or institutions, each such account, and the Treasurer thereof, shall be appropriately designated.

147. The Board of Trustees shall meet at the call of the pastor or of its President, at such times and places as shall be designated in a notice which shall be mailed to each trustee at least five days prior to the appointed time of the meeting; however, waiver of notice may be used as a means to validate meetings legally where the five (5) day notice is impracticable.

The Quarterly Conference may, if it is necessary to conform to the local laws, substitute the designations "Chairman" and "Vice-Chairman" for and in place of "President" and "Vice-President."

148. The Board of Trustees shall have such authority, powers, duties, and responsibilities as shall be vested in it by the provisions of the Discipline, and shall be subject to the directions of, and be responsible to the Quarterly Conference, and make a written Report to the fourth or last Quarterly Conference, in which shall be included the following: (1) The legal description and the reasonable valuation of each parcel of real estate owned by the Church; (2) The specific name of the grantee in each deed of conveyance of real estate to the local church; (3) An inventory and the reasonable valuation of all personal property owned by the local church; (4) The amount of income received from any income producing property and a detailed list of expenditures in connection therewith; (5) The amount received during the year for building, rebuilding, remodeling, and improving real estate, and an itemized statement of expenditures; (6) Outstanding capital debts and how contracted; (7) Detailed statement of the insurance carried on each parcel of real estate, indicating whether restricted by co-insurance or other limiting conditions, and whether adequate insurance is carried; (8) The name of the custodian of all legal papers of the local church, and where they are kept; (9) A detailed list of all trusts in which the local church is the beneficiary, specifying where and how the funds are invested and in what manner the income therefrom is expended or applied.

149. Subject to the direction of the Quarterly Conference as hereinbefore provided, the Board of Trustees shall receive and administer all bequests made to the local church; shall receive and administer all trusts; shall invest all trust funds of the local church in conformity with laws of the Country, State, or like political unit in which the local church is located; and shall have the supervision, oversight, and care of all real property owned by the local church and of all property and equipment acquired directly by the local church and/or by any Society, Board, Class, Commission, or similar organization connected therewith; provided however, it shall not violate the rights of any local church organization elsewhere granted by the Discipline (Par. 189) and provided further that the Board of Trustees shall not prevent or interfere with the pastor in the use of any of the said property (Pg. 159), for religious services or other proper meetings or purposes recognized by the law, usages, and customs of The Methodist Church, nor shall the Trustees permit the use of said property for religious, or other meetings, without the consent of the pastor, or in his absence the consent of the District Superintendent.

150. (1) "Trustee," "Trustees," and "Board of Trustees," as used herein or elsewhere in the Discipline, shall be construed to be synonymous with "Director," "Directors," and “Board of Directors.” (2) “Local laws” shall be construed to mean the laws of the Country, State, or other like political unit within the geographical bounds of which the church property is located.

151. All provisions of the Discipline relating to property, both real and personal, and relating to the formation and operation of any corporation, are conditioned upon their being in conformity with the local laws, and in the event of any conflict therewith, the local laws shall prevail, but effect shall be given, as far as possible, to the provisions of the Discipline, and the local laws shall be construed as far as possible in such manner as will give effect thereto.

2. ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY—

UNINCORPORATED LOCAL CHURCHES

152. If the local laws do not prescribe that title to property, both real and personal, shall be otherwise taken and held, in which event the provisions thereof shall take precedence and shall be observed and the provisions hereof subordinated thereto, the title to all real property, now owned or hereafter acquired by an unincorporated local church and any organization, Board, Commission, society or similar body connected therewith, shall be held by and/or conveyed and transferred to its duly elected Trustees, who shall be named in the written instrument conveying or transferring title, and their successors in office and their assigns, as the Board of Trustees of such local church (naming it), in trust, nevertheless, for the use and benefit of such local church and of The Methodist Church. Every instrument of conveyance of real estate shall contain the appropriate Trust Clause, as hereinafter set forth in Pg. 159.

153. Prior to the purchase by the local church of any real estate a Resolution authorizing such action shall be passed at a meeting of the Quarterly Conference, by a majority vote of its members present and voting, at a regular meeting or a special meeting of the Quarterly Conference called for that purpose; provided, however, that not less than 10 days' notice of such meeting and the proposed action has been given from the pulpit or in the weekly bulletin of the church and provided, further, that the written consent to such action shall be given by the pastor and the District Superintendent.

3. ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY—

INCORPORATED LOCAL CHURCHES

154. If the local laws do not prescribe that title to real property of an incorporated local church shall be otherwise taken and held, in which event the provisions thereof shall take precedence and shall be observed, and the provisions hereof subordinated thereto, the title to all property, both real and personal, now owned or hereafter acquired by an incorporated local church and any organization, Board, Commission, society, or similar body connected therewith, shall be held by and/or conveyed to the corporate body in its corporate name, in trust, nevertheless, for the use and benefit of such local church and of The Methodist Church. Every instrument of conveyance of real estate shall contain the appropriate Trust Clause, as hereinafter set forth in Pg. 159.

155. Prior to the purchase by a local church corporation of any real estate, a Resolution authorizing such action shall be passed by the Quarterly Conference in corporate session, or such other corporate body as the local laws may require, with the members thereof acting in their capacity as members of the corporate body, by a majority vote of those present and voting, at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose; provided, that not less than ten (10) days' notice of such meeting and the proposed action shall be given from the pulpit or in the weekly bulletin of the local church; and provided, further, that the written consent to such action shall be given by the pastor and the District Superintendent, and further provided that all such transactions shall have the approval of the Quarterly Conference.

4. SALE, TRANSFER, AND MORTGAGE OF PROPERTY— UNINCORPORATED LOCAL CHURCHES

156. Any property, real, owned by or in which an unincorporated local church has any interest, may be sold, transferred, and/or mortgaged subject to the following procedure and conditions: (1) Notice of the proposed action and the date and time of the regular or special meeting of the Quarterly Conference, at which it is to be considered, shall be given at least fourteen (14) days prior thereto from the pulpit of the church or in its weekly bulletin; (2) A Resolution authorizing the proposed action shall be passed by a majority vote of the Quarterly Conference members present and voting at any regular or special meeting thereof called to consider such action and by a majority vote of the members of said church present and voting at a special meeting called to consider such action; (3) The written consent of the pastor of the local church and the District Superintendent to the proposed action, shall be necessary and shall be affixed to the instrument of sale, transfer, and/or mortgage; (4) The Resolution authorizing such proposed action shall direct that any contract, deed, bill of sale, mortgage, or other necessary written instrument be executed by and on behalf of the local church by any two of the officers of its Board of Trustees, who, thereupon, shall be duly authorized to carry out the direction of the Quarterly Conference, and any written instrument so executed shall be binding and effective as the action of the local church (Pg. 158).

5. SALE, TRANSFER, AND MORTGAGE OF PROPERTY INCORPORATED LOCAL CHURCHES

157. Any real property owned by or in which an incorporated local church has any interest, may be sold, transferred, and/or mortgaged subject to the following procedure and conditions: (1) Notice of the proposed action and the date and time of the regular or special meeting of the members of the corporate body, i.e., members of the Quarterly Conference, at which it is to be considered, shall be given at least fourteen (14) days' notice prior thereto from the pulpit of the church or in its weekly bulletin; (2) A Resolution authorizing the proposed action shall be passed by a majority vote of the members of the corporate body present and voting at any regular or special meeting thereof called to consider such action; (3) The written consent of the pastor of the local church and the District Superintendent to the proposed action, shall be necessary, and shall be affixed to the instrument of sale, conveyance, transfer, and/or mortgage; (4) The Resolution authorizing such proposed action shall direct and authorize the corporation's Board of Directors to take all necessary steps to carry out the action so authorized, and to cause to be executed, as hereinafter provided, any necessary contract, deed, bill of sale, mortgage, or other written instrument; (5) The Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting shall take such action and adopt such Resolutions as may be necessary or required by the local laws; (6) Any required contract, deed, bill of sale, mortgage, or other written instrument necessary to carry out the action so authorized shall be executed in the name of the corporation by any two of its officers, and any written instrument so executed shall be binding and effective as the action of the corporation (Pg. 158).

6. LIMITATIONS ON USE OF PROCEEDS

158. No real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to provide for the current (or budget) expense of a local church, nor shall the principal of the proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

7. TRUST CLAUSES AND RELEASE THEREFROM

159. (1) Except in conveyances from governmental agencies or subdivisions which require that the real property so conveyed shall revert to the grantor if and when its use as a place of divine worship has been terminated, all written instruments of conveyance by which premises are held or hereafter acquired, for use as a place of divine worship for members of The Methodist Church or for other church activities shall contain the following Trust Clause:

"In Trust, that said premises shall be used, kept, and maintained as a place of divine worship of the Methodist ministry and members of The Methodist Church; subject to the Discipline, usage and ministerial appointments of said Church as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Conference and by the Annual Conference within whose bounds said premises are situated. This provision is solely for the benefit of the grantee, and the grantor reserves no right or interest in said premises."

(2) All written instruments by which premises are held or hereafter acquired as a parsonage for the use and occupancy of the ministers of The Methodist Church shall contain the following Trust Clause:

"In Trust, that such premises shall be held, kept, and maintained as a place of residence for the use and occupancy of the ministers of The Methodist Church who may from time to time be entitled to occupy the same by appointment; subject to the Discipline and usage of said Church, as from time to time authorized and declared by the General Conference and by the Annual Conference within whose bounds the said premises are situated. This provision is solely for the benefit of the grantee, and the grantor reserves no right or interest in said premises."

(3) However, the absence of the Trust Clause stipulated in Sec. 1 or Sec. 2 of this Paragraph, in deeds and conveyances previously executed, shall in no way exclude a local church from or relieve it of its Methodist connectional responsibilities. Neither shall it absolve a local congregation or Board of Trustees of its responsibility to The Methodist Church, provided that the intent and the desire of the founders and/or the later congregations and Boards of Trustees is shown by any or all of the following indications:

a. The conveyance of the property to the Trustees of a local Methodist church, or any of its predecessors.

b. The use of the name, customs and polity of The Methodist Church in such a way as to be thus known to the community as a part of this denomination.

c. The acceptance of the pastorate of ministers appointed by a Bishop of The Methodist Church, or employed by the Superintendent of the District in which it is located.

160. Real property acquired by a conveyance containing either or both of the foregoing Trust Clauses may be sold in conformity with the provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church (Pg. 156-158) when its use as a church building or parsonage, as the case may be, has been or is intended to be terminated, and when such real estate is sold or mortgaged in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, the written acknowledged consent of the proper District Superintendent representing The Methodist Church to the action taken shall constitute a release and discharge of the real property so sold and conveyed from either or both of the foregoing Trust Clauses, or, in the event of the execution of a mortgage, such consent of the District Superintendent shall constitute formal recognition of the priority of such mortgage lien and the subordination of the foregoing trust provisions thereof, and no bona fide purchases or mortgagee relying upon the foregoing record shall be charged with any responsibility with the respect to the disposition by such local church of the proceeds of any such sale or mortgage, but the Board of Trustees receiving such proceeds shall manage, control, disburse, and expend the same in conformity to the order and direction of the Quarterly Conference, subject to the provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church with respect thereto.

8. INCORPORATION OF LOCAL CHURCHES

161. When so authorized and directed by its Quarterly Conference, the Board of Trustees of a local church shall immediately take and perform any and all necessary steps and actions to incorporate the local church under and in conformity with the laws of the Country, State or like political unit in which it is located. The necessary Articles to be filed with the proper Governmental officials to secure a Charter and any and all Amendments thereto that at any time may be contemplated shall be submitted to the District Superintendent having jurisdiction for his written approval as to the conformity of the same with the provisions of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, and shall contain the following provisions:

(1) The corporation shall support the Doctrine, and it, and all its property, both real and personal, shall be subject to the laws, usages, and ministerial appointments of The Methodist Church as are now or shall from time to time established, made, and declared by the lawful authority of the said Church.

(2) That the Board of Directors of the corporation shall be the Board of Trustees of the local church, elected and organized as prescribed in the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

(3) The corporation shall have the power to acquire and hold title in fee simple, in trust, or otherwise, to both real and personal property, and to improve, incumber, sell, convey, and dispose of all such property in conformity with the Discipline of The Methodist Church.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the Discipline, the corporation shall have the power to erect and maintain buildings for the worship of God, for training in Christian faith and conduct, and for Christian social intercourse, and to acquire and/or build and maintain a residence(s) for the use and occupancy of its minister(s).

(5) The by-laws of the corporation shall include the Discipline of The Methodist Church as from time to time enacted, authorized, and declared by its General Conference, and no other by-law shall be adopted inconsistent with the provisions of the Discipline.

(6) The members of the corporation shall be the members of the Quarterly Conference or such other body of the local church as the local laws may permit or require.

(7) If, for any reason, the corporation shall cease to exist as a legal entity and its charter shall expire or be terminated, the title to all its property, both real and personal, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Annual Conference, if unincorporated, in the same manner as it holds title to any other real estate, or in the Annual Conference, in its corporate name, if incorporated, and all such property shall be held in trust for the benefit of the local church.

(8) Such other provisions as may be required by the local laws.

162. The provisions of Pg. 143-151 hereof entitled "Boards of Trustees" shall be applicable to all corporations formed hereunder as fully and to the same extent as set forth and incorporated herein, provided, however, that "Trustee," "Trustees," and "Board of Trustees" shall be construed to be synonymous with "Director," "Directors," and "Boards of Directors," as applied to corporations.

163. In the event that the title to any property, both real and personal, of a local church shall vest in the Trustees of the Annual Conference or in its corporate body as a result of the corporation ceasing to exist, then, and in that event, the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference, if unincorporated, or the Board of Directors of its corporate body, shall be and are hereby authorized and directed at the request of the Quarterly Conference of the local church and without any action by the Annual Conference, to reconvey the title to the local church property in such manner as shall be requested by the Quarterly Conference with the approval of the District Superintendent.

Section II

A PASTORAL CHARGE OF TWO OR MORE LOCAL CHURCHES

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 358.

164. In a pastoral charge (Pg. 104) consisting of two or more local churches, a local church Quarterly Conference shall be organized in each local church therein, and such local church Quarterly Conference shall be vested with authority and power in matters relating to the real and personal property of the local church concerned, as hereinafter set forth.

165. The following shall constitute the membership of the local church Quarterly Conference, insofar as the offices and relationships exist within the local church, these members being the same persons who are members of the pastoral charge Quarterly Conference from the local church concerned: (1) The pastor; the associate pastor or pastors; the retired and supernumerary preachers residing in that place who elect to hold membership therein; ministers or traveling preachers, who, because they are assigned to special work, have been attached to the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge, and who are affiliated with the said local church; (2) the local preachers and exhorters holding their membership in the local church, and deaconesses appointed to labor therein; (3) the Stewards of the local church, elective and ex-officio, and the Trustees of the local church; provided, however, all lay members of the local church Quarterly Conference shall be members of the said local church, and shall be not less than eighteen years of age.

166. The District Superintendent or an elder designated by him shall preside. The District Superintendent shall fix the time and place of meeting. The District Superintendent may at his discretion call the respective local church Quarterly Conferences to meet at the same time and place as the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge to which the said local churches are attached; in which case he shall adjourn the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge, and shall call to order the respective local church Quarterly Conferences for the transaction of business specifically committed to them, in which event each local church Quarterly Conference shall sit as a separate and distinct entity. Or the District Superintendent may call a local church Quarterly Conference to meet at such other time and place as he may designate; provided, that at least 10 days' notice is given of such meeting. The actions of all local church Quarterly Conferences shall be recorded in spaces included in the "Minutes of the Quarterly Conference" (Pg. 131) of the pastoral charge. This is for the purpose of permanent record only, and the Quarterly Conference of the said pastoral charge shall have no voice in the decisions of any local church Quarterly Conference of any local church attached to it in matters specifically committed to the said local church Quarterly Conference, or Conferences.

167. A local church Quarterly Conference, constituted and organized under the Discipline of The Methodist Church as hereinbefore set forth, shall elect the Board of Trustees of such local church in number and manner described in Pg. 143-145, both inclusive, and the duties of such Trustees, duly elected, shall be the same as and identical with the duties described in Pg. 146 to 149, both inclusive. The duties, authority and power vested in the local church Quarterly Conference, insofar as they relate to the property, real and personal, of the local church concerned, are the same as and identical with the authority and power vested in the Quarterly Conference of a pastoral charge of one local church as set forth in Pg. 142 and 150-165 both inclusive, and the authority, power and limitations therein set forth shall be applicable to the local church Quarterly Conference as fully and to the same extent as if incorporated herein. The effect of the provisions for a local church Quarterly Conference is to give to each local church in a pastoral charge of two or more churches, rather than to the pastoral charge Quarterly Conference, supervision over and control of its own property, subject to the limitations hereinbefore prescribed by the Discipline with regard to local church property.

CIRCUIT AND JOINT BOARDS OF TRUSTEES

168. In the event that a Circuit (Pg. 104) shall own or acquire a parsonage for the use of the pastor appointed to serve the local churches comprising such Circuit, or shall own or acquire any other real estate for any common use of its churches, the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge may elect a Circuit Board of Trustees, to be composed of not less than three (3) nor more than nine (9) members, all of whom shall be not less than 21 years of age; provided, however, that each local church in the Circuit shall have at least one representative on the Board. The members of the Circuit Board of Trustees shall be divided into three classes, and each class shall, as nearly as possible, consist of an equal number of members. Nominations shall be made by the Quarterly Conference Committee on Nominations (or if the Committee fails to nominate, by the Pastor). At the first election under the provisions hereof, one class shall be elected for a term of one year, one class for a term of two years, and one class for a term of three years, and thereafter, at the fourth or final meeting of the Circuit Quarterly Conference for the Annual Conference Year it shall elect, to take office at the beginning of the ensuing Conference year to serve for a term of three years or until their successors have been elected and qualified, the required number of Trustees to succeed those of the class whose terms then expire; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the election of a Trustee to succeed himself.

The provisions of Pg. 142 and 145-148, both inclusive, shall be applicable to the Circuit Board of Trustees to the same extent as if incorporated herein.

PART III

SUNDRY PROVISIONS

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 359.

Section I

MERGED OR CONSOLIDATED CHURCHES

169. When two or more local churches are united, merged, or consolidated, the Quarterly Conferences of the constituent churches shall respectively take action to legally effectuate the same, and direct the respective Boards of Trustees with respect to the transfer, or disposition of the property, real and personal, as the local laws and the Discipline may require.

Section II

DISCONTINUED OR ABANDONED CHURCHES

170. 1. With the consent of the presiding Bishop and of a majority of the District Superintendents and of the District Board of Church Location and Building (Par. 704-7) of the District in which the action is contemplated, the Annual Conference may declare any church within its bounds discontinued or abandoned. It shall be the duty of its Board of Trustees (Pg. 171, p3), to make such disposition of the property thereof as the Annual Conference shall direct, and if no such lawful Trustees remain or if for any reason said Trustees fail to make such disposition, then it shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Annual Conference or sell or dispose of said property in accordance with the direction of the Annual Conference. In the event of loss, damage to or destruction of such local church property, the Trustees of the Annual Conference are authorized to collect and receipt for any insurance payable on account thereof, as the duly and legally authorized representative of such local church.

2. All the deeds, records, and other official and legal papers of a Methodist church that is so declared to be abandoned or otherwise discontinued shall be collected by the District Superintendent in whose District said church was located and shall be deposited for permanent safekeeping with the Secretary of the Annual Conference.

3. Any gift, legacy, devise, annuity or other benefit to a pastoral charge or church that accrues or becomes available after said charge or church has been discontinued or abandoned shall become the property of the Trustees of the Annual Conference within whose jurisdiction the said discontinued or abandoned church was located.

4. When a church property has been abandoned by its membership and no abandonment action has been taken by the Annual Conference, and circumstances make immediate action necessary, the Annual Conference Trustees may take control of the property, with the consent of the Bishop of the Area and the District Board of Church Location and Building of the District in which the property is located. And in the event of the sale or lease of said property the Trustees of the Annual Conference shall recommend to the Annual Conference at its next session the disposition of the proceeds derived from such sale or lease.

Section III

DEEDING PROPERTY TO A FEDERATED CHURCH OR TO ANOTHER DENOMINATION

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 360.

171. 1. With the consent of the presiding Bishop, and of a majority of the District Superintendents, and of the District Board of Church Location and Building, and at the request of the Quarterly Conference, or of a meeting of the membership of the church, where required by civil law, and in accordance with the said law, the Annual Conference may instruct and direct the Board of Trustees of a local church to deed church property to a federated church.

2. With the consent of the presiding Bishop and of a majority of the District Superintendents and of the District Board of Church Location and Building, and at the request of the Quarterly Conference, or of a meeting of the membership of the church, where required by civil law, and in accordance with said law, the Annual Conference may instruct and direct the Board of Trustees of a local church to deed church property to another evangelical denomination under an allocation, exchange of property, or comity agreement; provided, that such agreement has been committed to writing and signed and approved by the duly qualified and authorized representatives of both parties concerned.

3. The Quarterly Conference and the Trustees or Board of Trustees of such local church shall fully comply with the instructions of the Annual Conference issued under the provisions of Pg. 170 and 171; and in the event of failure or refusal so to do, the Trustees of the Annual Conference shall be vested with full power and authority to convey such property, and to carry out the instructions of the Annual Conference with regard to the disposal of the proceeds thereof.

Section IV

PROPERTY ADJUSTMENT WHEN A PASTORAL CHARGE IS DIVIDED

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 361.

172. When two or more local churches comprise a single pastoral charge having a parsonage and one or more thereof is separated from such charge and established as a pastoral charge, or united with another pastoral charge which does not own a parsonage, each such local church shall be entitled to receive its just share of the then reasonable value of the parsonage, in which it has invested funds, and the amount of such value and just share shall be determined by a Committee of three persons, appointed by the District Superintendent, who shall be members of The Methodist Church but not of any of the interested local churches. Such Committee shall hear all interested parties, and shall take into account the investment of any church in any such property before arriving at a final determination. From any such determination there is reserved unto each of the interested churches the right of appeal to the next succeeding Annual Conference, the decision of which shall be final and binding. Any sum received as or from such share shall not be applied to current expense or current budget.

Section V

REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES FROM OFFICE

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 361.

173. Should a Trustee of a local church or a Director of an incorporated local church refuse to properly execute a legal instrument relating to any property of the church, when duly directed so to do by the Quarterly Conference, and when all legal requirements have been satisfied with reference to such execution, the said Quarterly Conference, may by majority vote declare his membership on the Board of Trustees or Board of Directors vacated, and elect his successor for the unexpired term. (See Paragraphs 164-167.)

Section VI

BUILDING OR REMODELING CHURCH PROPERTY

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 362.

174. Any local church planning to purchase, build, or remodel a church property shall first secure the District Superintendent's written consent thereto and the Quarterly Conference's authorization after not less than ten days' notice of such proposed action shall have been given from the pulpit or published in the church bulletin. Thereupon the Quarterly Conference shall appoint a Committee of not less than three members of such church, who shall make an estimate of the amount required to complete such understanding or enterprise; and such estimate, amount, and proposed undertaking shall be submitted for approval to the members of the church not less than eighteen years of age, at a meeting called for that purpose. The purchase price of the lot, or lots, on which such church is to be erected shall be paid in full, and before any such building is begun or contract is entered into for the construction thereof or for the purchase or remodeling of an already erected church, it shall be the duty of the Quarterly Conference to acquire a fee simple title to such premises by deed of conveyance executed in the form and manner as in this chapter provided (Pg. 152-155; 159); and to secure in cash and tangible assets at least one-half of said estimated cost, provided, that before beginning or contracting for the building or remodeling of church property, the plans, specifications, and location of such building or remodeling, and the probable cost thereof shall be submitted to the Board of Church Building and Location of the District in which the property is located. The purchase price paid for the lot or lots on which the church is to be erected may be credited as a tangible asset secured. The provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply to any repairs or remodeling the cost of which will not exceed ten per cent of the value of the building affected. The procedure for purchasing, building, or remodeling an education building, parish house, parsonage, or other church unit shall be as set forth above for a church property. Trustees or other members of local church shall not be required to guarantee personally any loan made to the particular church by any Board created by or under authority of the General Conference.

The Quarterly Conference may commit to the Board of Trustees of the church concerned any building or remodeling program, or it may elect a Building Committee, as the Quarterly Conference may determine.

175. Upon acquisition or completion of any church building, parsonage or other church unit a service of consecration may be held (Par. 1930). Before any church building, parsonage, or other church unit is formally dedicated, all indebtedness against the same shall be discharged (Par. 1929).

Section VII

CENTRAL AND PROVISIONAL CENTRAL CONFERENCES, PROVISIONAL ANNUAL CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Pages 364 and 381.

175-A. The provisions herein written concerning the organization and administration of the local church, including the procedure for acquiring, holding, and transferring property, both real and personal, shall not be mandatory in Central Conferences, Provisional Central Conferences, Provisional Annual Conferences or Missions, and in such instances the legislation in Pars. 551 to 613 inclusive shall apply.

CHAPTER IV

THE CHURCH CONFERENCE

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Page 364.

176. There may be a Church Conference of any local church, composed of the members of such church who are eighteen years of age or over. The pastor shall call such Conference and shall be its Chairman. The Conference shall elect a Secretary whose minutes shall be reviewed by the Committee on Records and made a part of the Quarterly Conference records.

The Conference may review the work of the church and adopt plans for the promotion of various phases of the church's work, subject to the limitations of the Discipline.

177. The Quarterly Conference may authorize and constitute in any pastoral charge an Annual Church Conference, composed of members of the church or churches of the charge, in conjunction with the fourth Quarterly Conference. The District Superintendent shall preside, or in his absence the pastor with the written consent of the District Superintendent shall preside. The Recording Steward shall be the Secretary of the meeting, or in his absence a Secretary pro tem, may be elected. The minutes shall be recorded in the records of the Quarterly Conference.

178. The Quarterly Conference of a Circuit, with the consent of the District Superintendent, may authorize and constitute such an Annual Church Conference in any Church of the Circuit, subject to such additional qualifications as the District Superintendent may specify.

179. An Annual Church Conference thus authorized by the Quarterly Conference may review the work of the year, and receive the reports of the officers, Committees, and organizations of the charge as arranged in the order of business of the fourth Quarterly Conference. The Annual Church Conference may also, when such authority has been specifically granted it by the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge, elect such officers of the charge as would otherwise be elected by the Quarterly Conference (Par. 32, Pg. 134).

180. If matters presented in the Annual Church Conference are restricted to the action of the Quarterly Conference, only members of the Quarterly Conference may vote thereon.

CHAPTER V

THE OFFICIAL BOARD

Adopted May 1, 1952. See Journal, Pages 365, 377.

181. In every church of every pastoral charge, there shall be an administrative body called the Official Board, hereinafter designated as the Board, and it shall be the duty of the pastor and District Superintendent to see that such organization is set up in every church as hereinafter set forth. The Board shall be responsible to the Quarterly Conference, and shall report to the Quarterly Conference in such detail as the Conference may request.

Section I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

182. The Board shall be constituted of the following persons:

1. The pastor of the local church and the duly appointed associate pastor or pastors.
2. The Stewards of the local church, duly elected (Pg. 183).
3. The ex-officio Stewards of the local church (Pg. 184).
4. The Trustees of the local church (Pg. 143), except such as may not be members of The Methodist Church.

All lay members of the Board shall be members of the local Methodist Church, and that in the nominating and electing persons to such membership the utmost care shall be taken that only morally disciplined persons shall be so nominated, and with special reference to total abstinence from alcoholic beverages.

183. The elective Stewards shall be not less than eighteen years of age and shall be elected annually by the Quarterly Conference at the regular session next preceding the regular session of the Annual Conference, on nomination of the Nominations Committee (Pg. 216, p. 3), or of the pastor if the Quarterly Conference does not constitute such Committee; or they may be elected by the members of the local church eighteen years of age and older, at a Church Conference called for that purpose as may be arranged by the Quarterly Conference (Pg. 179). Stewards elect shall take office at the beginning of the Conference year following their election; provided, that in cases where a Steward is elected to fill a vacancy in the Board, he shall take office immediately after election.

Each local church shall be entitled to not less than three or more than thirty-five Stewards, exclusive of ex-officio and honorary Stewards; provided, that in churches of more than five hundred members one Steward may be elected for each thirty additional members.

A Steward shall be a person of genuine Christian character who loves the Church and is competent to administer its affairs.

184. The following officers in the local church shall be ex-officio Stewards during their respective terms of office, and shall exercise all the rights and privileges which belong to a Steward in The Methodist Church; the Director of Christian Education or the Educational Assistant (Pg. 133, p. 7); the General Superintendent of the Church School (Pg. 133, p. 5); the Chairman of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism; the Chairman of the Commission on Education (Pg. 196); the Chairman of the Commission on Missions (Pg. 208); the Chairman of the Commission on Finance; the Lay Member of the Annual Conference if a member of the local church (Pg. 133, p. 4); the President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service (Pg. 218, p. 5); the President of Methodist Men (Par. 1513, 1514); the Charge Lay Leader, if a Circuit and if such Lay Leader is a member of the local church (Pg. 222); the church Treasurer or Treasurers (Pg. 214); the President of the Young Adult Fellowship; and the President of the Methodist Youth Fellowship (Pg. 202, p. 4), or the President of the Youth Council if more than one fellowship is organized.

185. With the approval of the Quarterly Conference, any church or charge may provide for rotation in the office of elective Stewards. In the event such rotation in office is proposed, a Resolution shall be presented to the Quarterly Conference, for its action and determination, setting forth in detail the plan and the method proposed.

186. In each church the Quarterly Conference may make provision for the recognition of the faithful service of those Stewards on the Board who have reached the age of seventy-two, or who may have become physically incapacitated, by electing them honorary Stewards. An honorary Steward shall be entitled to all the privileges of a Steward, except the right to vote.

187. The Board shall be organized annually by the election of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer or Treasurers (Pg. 214) and a Church Lay Leader (Pg. 222). These officers shall be elected by the members of the Board on the nomination of a Nominations Committee. Additional nominations may be made from the floor.

188. To the Board is committed the administration of the affairs of the local church both spiritual and temporal, as hereinafter set forth. It shall be responsible to the Quarterly Conference, and shall report regularly to the sessions of the Conference as its work and the occasion may require, and as the Conference may request. The Board shall meet monthly at a time determined by the Board. Special meetings may be ordered by the Board, or called by the Chairman or by the pastor or by a majority of the membership of the Board.

189. The Board shall not deny or take from any organization in the local church a right or power granted it by the Discipline.

190. It shall be the duty of the Board:

1. As the administrative agency of the Quarterly Conference, to promote and to have general administrative oversight of the work of the local church both spiritual and temporal under the direction of the pastor, including the receiving of Reports from all the organizations of the church.

2. After consultation with the pastor, to recommend to the Quarterly Conference (Pg. 139, p. 6), at the session next preceding the Annual Conference the salary of the pastor, and of the associate pastor or pastors, if any. In recommending the salary, careful consideration shall be given to all matters pertaining to the efficiency of the minister. No pastor shall be entitled to any claims for unpaid salary against any church or pastoral charge he has served after his pastoral connections with the church or charge has ceased. The Board shall also make ample provision for other financial needs of the church (Pg. 210).

3. To promote through an educational program interest in all the benevolent causes authorized by the General, Jurisdictional, Annual and District Conferences, and to see that the fourth Sunday of each month is observed as World Service Sunday, for the purpose of supporting World Service and Conference Benevolences, co-ordinating the same with the observance in the Church School.

4. In co-operation with the pastor and the Lay Leader, to promote the program of lay activities (Par. 1508-1518), in harmony with the plan and program of the General Board of Lay Activities.

5. To arrange for a program of visitation of the entire constituency of the Church, particularly strangers in the community and members of the congregation who may be ill or in distress (Pg. 194, p. 7).

6. Under the direction of the pastor, to plan and approve the program and work of the local church; to promote the spiritual and temporal interests of the church; to discharge faithfully any and all duties and responsibilities committed to the Board by the Quarterly Conference or by the law of the Church; to take such action as it may determine to be for the well-being and progress of the Church; provided, all such actions shall be in harmony with the provisions of the Discipline.

Section II

COMMISSIONS

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Pages 381 and 411.

191. Four phases of activity are essential to the spiritual life and ministry of every local church: evangelism, education, missions and finance. No local church however small is adequately and effectively organized unless definite provision is made for continuous participation in these four major concerns of the Church Universal.

To the Official Board, in co-operation with the pastor, is especially committed the promotion and administration of these essentials of the church's life and ministry. It shall be the duty of the Board to give continuous leadership and oversight therein, through four Commissions, duly constituted, whose respective duties are hereinafter defined (Pg. 192-215): (1) the Commission on Membership and Evangelism; (2) the Commission on Education; (3) the Commission on Missions; (4) the Commission on Finance, provided, that when desired, a Commission on Worship, and a Commission on Social and Recreational Activities may be constituted for the promotion and supervision of related functions of the Church. Each Commission shall be elected by the Quarterly Conference, or by the Board if the Quarterly Conference fails to do so, and shall be auxiliary to the Board. The Church Lay Leader shall be an ex officio member of each Commission.

COMMISSION ON MEMBERSHIP AND EVANGELISM

192. In each local church there shall be a Commission on Membership and Evangelism (Pg. 134), which shall be auxiliary to the General Board of Evangelism and the Jurisdictional, Conference, and District Boards of Evangelism. It shall be the duty of this Commission to seek out the unsaved and the unchurched in the community, and to exercise all diligence that they may be led into a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and into the fellowship of the Church. It shall also be the duty of the Commission to seek out the inactive and negligent members of the local church, and to use all laudable means to restore them to active participation in the church's life and fellowship.

193. The Commission on Membership and Evangelism shall be composed of not less than two laymen, two women, two young people, elected annually by the Quarterly Conference, and as many additional persons as the Conference may determine; provided that all members of the Commission shall be members of The Methodist Church. In addition the following shall be ex officio members: the pastor, the Secretary of Spiritual Life of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Chairman of the Commission on Missions, the Church School Superintendent, the President of Methodist Men, the Chairman of the Commission on Worship and Fellowship of the local Methodist Youth Fellowship, and such members of the District Board of Evangelism as have membership in the local church.

1. At the beginning of each Conference year the pastor shall call together the members of the Commission for organization. The Commission shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-

Chairman, a Secretary, and such other officers and Committees as may be determined.

2. The Commission shall meet monthly in order to review its work and receive Reports. The pastor of a Circuit may organize the several local church Commissions into a single Commission, in which case its work shall be projected on a charge-wide basis. The pastor shall be permanent Chairman.

194. To the Commission on Membership and Evangelism in co-operation with the pastor is committed the following specific duties:

1. To promote the total program of evangelism within the church and its community (Par. 1544).

2. To take, at appropriate intervals, an annual religious census of the community, in which the co-operation of other Churches in the community shall be sought, and to seek the co-operation of the Church School, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and other church organizations in making a list of persons, from these and other sources, who should be won to Christ and His Church.

3. To recommend to the Quarterly Conference a minimum goal of persons to be received during the year on profession of faith, and to work diligently toward the attainment of the same.

4. To promote the use of the recommended Special Days, weeks, and seasons for evangelistic purposes.

5. To use all laudable means to create an evangelistic spirit within the membership, and, under the leadership of the pastor, to assist in planning and promoting special evangelistic preaching services at least annually.

6. To promote attendance upon the public worship of God (Par. 97) and through friendly visitation, distribution of literature, and other means to lead indifferent members to active participation in the life and work of the Church.

7. To arrange for the visitation of strangers in the community and those members of the congregation who may be ill or in distress, and those who are negligent in attending worship or in participating in the church's life and work.

8. To organize and promote prayer groups.

9. To distribute evangelistic and devotional literature, and to use all means for acquainting the community with the church and its program.

10. To encourage private and family worship, to promote the reading of the Holy Scriptures, the use of The Upper Room, and other devotional literature.

11. To promote organized visitation evangelism during one or more periods each year, to secure new commitments to Christ, and the transfer of Methodists in the community whose memberships are elsewhere.

12. To encourage such groups as Fisherman's Club, Fellowship of Evangelism, The Twelve, or kindred organizations and to co-operate with them in their work.

13. To assist the pastor, when requested, in training classes for church membership.

14. To co-operate with the Commission on Education and the Commission on Missions, in organizing new churches.

15. To develop an adequate program for assimilating new members into the life and work of the church, and its organizations.

THE COMMISSION ON EDUCATION

195. In order that a local church may be so organized and administered as to provide effectively for the Christian education of its entire constituency, there shall be a Commission on Education in each local church (Pg. 134). In a small church the Commission on Education and the Workers' Conference (Pg. 203) may function as one body except in the election of the officers and teachers of the Church School. The Commission on Education shall be auxiliary to the Division of the Local Church, of the General Board of Education, and to the Jurisdictional and Annual Conference Boards of Education.

196. The following persons are, by virtue of their offices, members of the Commission on Education: The Pastor, Church School Superintendent, Division Superintendents, Assistant Superintendent for Missionary Cultivation, Director of Christian Education (or Educational Assistant) if any, and the Church School Secretary. The Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Methodist Youth Fellowship shall elect one representative each to membership in the Commission on Education. In addition, members at large, the number to be determined by the Quarterly Conference, may be elected upon nomination of the Committee on Nomination or the pastor after consultation with the Church School Superintendent, and the Chairman of the Commission on Education. The Commission shall elect annually from its membership the following officers: a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary, and such other officers as it may determine.

197. The functions and duties of the Commission on Education shall be as follows:

1. It shall determine the policies for the Church School as a whole and in its parts, and shall give general direction to all the educational work of the church.

2. It shall study the educational needs of the church and shall provide for the organization, guidance, and supervision of the Church School and of its three Divisions.

3. It shall be responsible for counseling with officers and teachers regarding the literature used by the classes and departments of the Church School, shall see that the literature used is appropriate for each class and group, and that it is selected from the literature approved by the Curriculum Committee of the General Board of Education.

4. In order that the statistical records of Church Schools in The Methodist Church may be reliable and uniform, each Commission on Education shall follow the standards of membership, attendance, and maintenance of the roll which are established by the General Board of Education, and shall use the forms and record books prepared by the Board.

5. The Commission on Education and other official bodies in the local church shall encourage and maintain opportunities for initiative and expression on the part of youth as well as opportunity for adult counsel.

6. Other duties of the Commission on Education are as follows:

a. Enlisting and training the necessary officers, counselors, teachers and other leaders.

b. Electing certain officers and teachers as required by the Discipline (Pg. 201), filling vacancies in these positions, and upon the recommendation of the pastor or the Church School Superintendent, removing any officer or teacher for habitual neglect or improper conduct.

c. Planning the work of the Church School by holding regular meetings of the Commission and of all Church School workers together and by Divisions and Departments.

d. Providing for the proper observance of the Special Days and occasions in the church year, giving particular attention to the Special Days that are authorized by the General Conference for observance in the Church School (Pg. 205).

e. Providing study groups in marriage and Christian home-making for parents and young people.

f. Informing the Church School members concerning our Church-related institutions of higher learning, and Wesley Foundations and other student activities.

g. Planning the financial program of the Church School, budgeting all Church School funds and giving careful supervision to expenditures.

h. Allocating space for departments and classes and controlling the equipment provided for the use of the Church School.

198. In each local church there shall be a Church School for the purpose of discharging the church's responsibility for instructing and guiding its entire constituency in Christian faith and living. The Church School shall provide for worship, fellowship, study and service, including social, recreational, evangelistic and missionary activities, and education in the Holy Scriptures, the Christian religion and the Christian church.

199. In a community where there is need of a Methodist Church School, one may be organized with the written consent of the District Superintendent. The Church School, when organized, shall be under direction of the Commission on Education of the church organizing it, or, if organized independent of a local church, it shall be under the direction and supervision of the District Superintendent.

200. The Church School shall include the following activities and organizations: Sunday School; extended sessions for children; Sunday evening and week-day meetings of children, youth, and adults; nursery and home roll; nursery schools and kindergartens; children, youth, and adult home members; vacation Church School; leadership education agencies; parent study groups; and the Methodist Sunday Evening Fellowship. Each local church shall have a Sunday School and such other activities of the Church School as the local church Commission on Education, in consideration of the needs of the church and community, may determine. When one has become a member of any one of these groups in the Church School, he thereby becomes a member of the Church School.

201. Great care should be exercised in the selection of the teachers, officers and other workers in the Church School. They shall be elected annually prior to the beginning of the Church School year in the following manner:

1. The Quarterly Conference shall elect: (a) the Church School Superintendent (Pg. 133, p. 5); (b) Assistant Superintendent for Membership Cultivation, and the three Divisional Superintendents, all to be nominated by the Church School Superintendent elect; (c) a Director of Christian education or Educational Assistant, if desired (Pg. 133, p. 7).

2. Each class or group concerned shall elect: (a) youth officers in the youth division; (b) officers in the adult division, and (c) the teachers of adult classes after consultation with the Church School Superintendent. Teachers of adult classes shall be subject to confirmation by the church Commission on Education.

3. The Commission on Education shall elect all teachers, officers and workers not otherwise provided for on nomination of the Church School Superintendent in consultation with the pastor, the Director of Christian education and the Divisional Superintendents.

4. Upon recommendations of the pastor, the Quarterly

Conference shall have power to remove from office for unsatisfactory service, habitual neglect, or improper conduct, officers elected or confirmed by it.

202. 1. The Church School shall be organized in three divisions: Children's Division, from birth through eleven years, inclusive; Youth Division (Methodist Youth Fellowship), from twelve through twenty-three years, inclusive; Adult Division, twenty-four years and over, provided that the General Board of Education may, at its discretion, modify these age provisions. In small churches each Division may be composed of one or more classes. In larger churches each Division may be divided into Departments with classes in each Department.

2. The Commission on Education shall follow the Manual issued by the Division of the Local Church of the General Board of Education, describing the organization of schools of various sizes.

3. Classes, departments, and divisions shall develop their work in harmony with the disciplinary provisions and with the standards established by the Conference and General Boards of Education. Each Department and Division shall include in its total program Sunday morning, Sunday evening, and such other meetings and activities as may be determined by the Commission on Education for the Christian education of the children, youth, and adults of the church; provided that the results shall be a unified or correlated program of work.

4. The youth of The Methodist Church between the ages of twelve and twenty-three inclusive, including all organizational units, shall be known as the Methodist Youth Fellowship. When one becomes a member of the Youth Division in a local church, he is thereby a member of this Church-wide movement known as the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

5. Youth serving agencies shall be included in the Church School provided their program is a part of the program of the Church School and is under the direction of the Commission on Education and the pastor.

6. The Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Commission on Education shall co-operate in the missionary education of children and youth.

7. The Secretaries of Children's Work and of Youth Work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service shall be members of the Division Council for the age groups concerned.

8. The Charge Lay Leader and the President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and of Methodist Men, and the Chairman of the Commission on Missions and such other adult groups as the Commission on Education may determine, shall be members of the Adult Division Council.

203. To provide opportunity for fellowship, study and discussion of educational work of the church, there shall be held quarterly a general meeting of all the officers, teachers, and leaders in the Church School to be known as the Workers' Conference. The Chairman shall be the Church School Superintendent, who, with the pastor, and the Director of Christian education, if any, shall be responsible for planning the program of the Workers' Conference. There may also be meetings of the officers and teachers of Departments in those Church Schools that are organized by Departments.

204. In the educational work of the church the following relationships shall be observed:

1. The local Church School shall be auxiliary to the Annual Conference Board of Education and the Division of the Local Church of the General Conference Board of Education. The Christian education program of the local Church School shall be the program set up and authorized by the Annual Conference Board of Education and the Division of the Local Church of the General Conference Board of Education.

2. In the program of work herein outlined, the pastor is, as elsewhere, in all the work of the pastoral charge, the preacher in charge, and is responsible for the total educational program of the church. Nothing in this plan is to be construed as interfering with his authority and responsibility.

3. The Church School Superintendent is the administrative officer of the Church School. It shall be his duty to co-operate with the pastor and with the Director of Christian education, if any, to stimulate, encourage, and help the other officers and teachers, to plan with them for the work of the school as a whole and in all its parts. He shall carry out the policies of the Commission on Education.

4. Under the direction of the Commission on Education the Church School shall engage in co-operative enterprises with other Methodist Church Schools in the same District, and with schools of other communions, looking toward community betterment and community service and other Christian activities.

5. The Christian education of Church School members calls for curricula which is graded and adapted to the needs of the pupils. The curricula shall be based on sound educational principles and the universal gospel of the living Christ. Methodist connectionalism requires curricula which contain and present Methodist traditions, purposes, programs, and movements. Each Church School shall provide and teach the courses of study set out in the curricula approved by the Curriculum Committee of the General Board of Education of The Methodist Church.

205. The following Special Days shall be observed in the Church School:

1. In order that the members of the Church School may be informed concerning the World-wide Service Program of Methodism and share in its support, the fourth Sunday in each month shall be observed in the Church School as World Service Sunday. An offering shall be taken in the School for World Service and Conference Benevolences. This offering shall be sent with other offerings of the local church for this cause to the Annual Conference Treasurer. The amount raised annually in the Church School for World Service and Conference Benevolences shall be reported by the pastor and recorded in a column so designated in the Statistical Reports of the Annual Conference.

2. Church School Rally Day shall be observed in each school for the purpose of emphasizing the importance of Christian education and for receiving an offering for the Annual Conference Board of Education for the program of its Local Church Division. The funds raised on this day shall be remitted as may be determined by the Annual Conference. These funds shall be recorded in a column in the pastor's Report to the Annual Conference, but shall not be charged to the share of the Conference Board of Education in the Conference Apportioned Benevolences. The fixing of the date of this observance shall be the responsibility of the Division of the Local Church of the General Board of Education which may delegate this responsibility to the Conference Board of Education.

3. Race Relations Sunday shall be observed in every local church on the second Sunday in February of each year. This shall be an occasion for creating better relations among all races and particularly for informing our people concerning the needs of Negro schools. An offering shall be received for the benefit of Negro schools related to the General Board of Education, due recognition being given to the historic responsibility of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for aid to the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church (Par. 44).

4. Methodist Student Day shall be observed annually in every local church, preferably the second Sunday in June. If not that date, it shall be observed on some other Sunday designated by the Annual Conference or the Church Commission on Education. On this day emphasis shall be given to the work of higher education in Church-related institutions. An offering shall be received for the support of National Methodist Scholarships and the Student Loan Fund for Methodist students in our Methodist colleges through the Wesley Foundations.

5. Each local church shall observe National Family Week from the first to the second Sunday of May. It shall be the purpose of this week to focus attention upon the importance of religious living. Ministers are urged to preach upon the importance of Christian teaching in the home and the need for close co-operation between the Church School and home and the use of religious literature in the home. Opportunity shall be given for parents to dedicate themselves to the teaching of religion in the home by precept and example. Because of the close relationship of the Church School and the home in the teaching of children, youth, and adults, the promotion of the observance of National Family Week shall be the responsibility of the Division of the Local Church of the General Board of Education in co-operation with other Boards and Agencies of the Church.

The sole purpose of this observance shall be to strengthen family life in keeping with the Resolution of the General Conference concerning the Christian home (Par. 2021). Therefore a special offering should not be taken in connection with National Family Week.

The first Sunday of National Family Week, or some other day selected by the Annual Conference, may be designated as Children's Day, with the purpose of emphasizing the responsibility of the Church for our children, the same to be observed without a Church-wide offering. The program for such a day shall be the concern of the Division of the Local Church of the General Board of Education and the Boards of Education of the various Annual Conferences of the Church.

206. On nomination of the pastor, with the concurrence of the Commission on Education, the Quarterly Conference may employ annually a Director of Christian education, who, in co-operation with the pastor and Church School Superintendent, shall direct the educational program of the local church in accordance with the standards of the General Board of Education. In the event the person so elected is not a duly certified Director of Christian education, he shall bear the title Educational Assistant. Two or more churches may join in the employment of such a Director.

207. The Commission on Education shall organize and administer the Church School in harmony with the provisions of the Discipline and in accordance with standards and procedures as set forth in the Manuals for Church Schools of various types and sizes, which Manuals shall be prepared by the Division of the Local Church of the General Board of Education under the authority of the General Conference.

THE COMMISSION ON MISSIONS

208. There shall be organized in each local church a Commission on Missions composed of not less than three persons, and as many more as the Quarterly Conference may determine (Pg. 134). It shall be auxiliary to the General Board of Missions and to the Jurisdictional and Conference Boards of Missions and shall co-operate with these Agencies in their plans and programs for missionary education and cultivation. The Commission shall organize by electing annually a Chairman, a Secretary, and such other officers as it may determine.

209. It shall be the duty of the Commission on Missions:

1. To provide for the diffusion of missionary information, the distribution of missionary literature, the circulation of the general missionary periodical, and the use of missionary visual education materials in the church.

2. To plan each year, under the leadership of the pastor with the co-operation of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Commission on Education, for a church-wide school of missions in order that the entire congregation, adults, youth, and children may be drawn into a period of intensive study, using the study book and other materials issued or recommended by the Division of Education and Cultivation.

3. To co-operate with other Agencies in the survey and study of the needs of the community and to recommend to the Quarterly Conference plans whereby the local church may undertake missionary projects for the purpose of Christianizing the total life of its own community.

4. To study the missionary program of the General Board of Missions and to recommend to the Quarterly Conference and the Official Board such special projects, both home and foreign, as should be supported by the local church.

5. To co-operate with the pastor, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Church School officers, and other organizations and Agencies in the local church in all plans for the development of the missionary life and spirit of the local church, especially in programs and offerings for missions on fourth Sundays, plans for raising funds for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and the support of missionary "specials" by individuals, organizations, and the whole Church.

6. To confer annually with the Local Church Commission on Finance and the Quarterly Conference to the end that in setting up the local budget adequate provision shall be made for the Benevolence Causes of the Church.

7. To co-operate with the pastor and the local church Commission on Finance in an effort to insure an effective every-member canvass each year, with emphasis on stewardship and missions.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

210. It shall be the responsibility of the Official Board to make proper and adequate provision for the financial needs of the church, including ministerial support (the pastor, the District Superintendent, Conference Claimants, and Bishops), approved items of local expense, World Service and Conference Benevolences, and other items apportioned the church by the proper authority, and all obligations assumed by the local church.

211. There shall be in every local church, a Commission on Finance, which Commission shall under the authority and direction of the Official Board promote and administer the financial program of the church. The Commission shall be composed of not less than three elective members, and as many more as may be determined (Pg. 134). In addition the following shall be ex-officio members: the pastor, Church Lay Leader, Financial Secretary, Church Treasurer or Treasurers, and the Chairman of the Commission on Missions. The Commission shall elect annually a Chairman, a Secretary, and such other officers as it may determine.

212. The Commission on Finance in collaboration with the Financial Secretary or Treasurer, and with the pastor and other proper officials, shall each year set up a Budget for the local church, and shall submit the same to the Board for its action and determination. It is recommended that the local church expense and Benevolence Causes be set up separately, and that the people be given opportunity to subscribe to each respectively.

213. When the annual budget has been approved by the Board, the Commission on Finance shall, under the direction of the Board, proceed to insure an income sufficient to cover the same, and shall administer the funds received after the following plan with such adaptations and adjustments as the Board may determine:

1. There shall be an annual every-member canvass, by which all members of the local church shall be given an opportunity to make their individual pledges to the support of the church. Every member of a local church is obligated to support the entire program of the church. Pledges should be, as far as practicable, on a weekly basis, and in proportion to one's income,

2. Should the probable income appear insufficient to meet the Annual Budget, steps shall be taken at the beginning of the year to provide for the deficit.

3. All payments on pledges shall be credited to the donors, and a proper account shall be kept of each subscriber and contributor.

4. Funds received shall be deposited promptly in a bank approved by the Board, and the account therein shall be in the name of the local church.

5. Funds received shall be disbursed as the Board directs and to the objects for which they are contributed.

6. Contributions to specific causes and objects, and so designated, shall be promptly forwarded according to the intent of the donor, and shall not be used, even temporarily, for any other purpose. When the Budget of the local church has been approved, additional appropriations or items shall not be added thereto without the consent of the Official Board; and payments to no cause or item in the Budget shall exceed the Budget allowance except by order of the Board.

7. As far as practicable, and under the direction of the Commission, the Treasurer shall prorate the income received each month among the respective items and causes represented in the Budget, according to the proportional share of each; provided, the pastor's salary shall be excepted and given priority claim.

8. Report shall be made by the Treasurer or Treasurers to the Board each month, and to the Quarterly Conference when requested, of all receipts and disbursements, and of unpaid obligations against the Budget.

9. It shall be the continuing duty of the Commission to inform the congregation of the financial needs of the church.

214. The Treasurer of Treasurers, elected by the Board (Pg. 187), shall receive and disburse all money contributed to causes represented in the local church budget, and such other funds and contributions as the Board may determine; or it may elect a Treasurer to receive and disburse funds and contributions for local expense and a Benevolence Treasurer who shall receive and disburse funds and contributions for Benevolences and similar causes, in every case under the supervision and direction of the Board. The Treasurer shall remit each month to the Conference Treasurer all World Service and Conference Benevolence Funds then on hand.

215. The Commission on Finance shall make provision for an annual audit of the records of the Treasurers of the church and all its organizations, and shall report to the Quarterly Conference.

Section III

COMMITTEES

Adopted May 3, 1952. See Journal, Pages 477 and 479.

216. For the promoting of other interests and activities in the local church the Official Board shall create from its own membership and from the membership of the local church such Committees as it may judge necessary. At least one member of each Committee shall be a member of the Board. Other members may be from the general membership of the church or from the Board, as the Board may determine. Except where the Discipline provides otherwise, each Committee shall elect its officers, provided, that the Chairman of each shall be a member of the Official Board.

The Official Board may create from the following such Committees as it may determine, and may add others, as may appear advisable for the proper prosecution of its work:

1. The Committee on Church Rolls, which shall assist the pastor in acquiring and keeping an accurate record of the church's membership and constituency (Pg. 125, 126).

2. The Committee on Christian Stewardship which shall correlate and promote stewardship in the local church, as planned and set forth by the General Board of Lay Activities (Par. 1515-1518).

3. The Nominations Committee elected by the Board on nomination from the floor, or by ballot without nomination, which Committee shall nominate to the Board the officers thereof, and the members of its respective Committees. The right of nomination from the floor for officers and Committee members shall in no case be denied. The pastor shall be Chairman of the Nominations Committee (Pg. 187).

4. The Committee on Christian Vocations which shall be composed of the pastor, a layman elected by the Quarterly Conference, a representative of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Superintendent of the Church School, and the Superintendent of the Youth Division. It shall co-operate with the Annual Conference Commission on Christian Vocations.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to see that the philosophy of Christian vocation and the opportunities in Church vocations are regularly presented to the youth and adults of the church; to advise interested young people and adults of the necessary qualifications for all Church vocations; and to give encouragement and guidance to candidates for the pastoral ministry, and other Church-related vocations. The Committee shall report annually to the fall meeting of the Quarterly Conference, and to the Annual Conference Commission on Christian Vocations (Pg. 138).

5. The Committee on Temperance, which shall promote temperance and kindred causes in co-operation with the General, Jurisdictional, and Conference Boards of Temperance (Par. 1460-1471). It shall promote a vigorous program of temperance education in the local church, with especial emphasis on the appeal that individuals pledge themselves to total abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. It shall also, in co-operation with the pastor, promote in the local church the observance of such special temperance days as the General Board of Temperance and other Church authorities may designate.

6. The Music Committee, which shall encourage the use of suitable music in the worship service of the church and with the approval of the Board make provision for proper musical leadership.

7. The Parsonage Committee, which shall take proper action in co-operation with the Board of Trustees (Pg. 148) to provide an adequate and suitable residence for the pastor (Pg. 135, p6).

8. The Committee on Church Property, unless otherwise provided by the Trustees, which shall have supervision of the maintenance and upkeep of the sanctuary and other church units.

9. The Committee on World Peace, which shall provide for the promotion of world peace, co-operating with the General, Jurisdictional, and Annual Conference Commissions and Committees on World Peace (Par. 1576-1583).

10. The Committee on Good Literature, whose duty it shall be to call attention to the publication of new books of worth in forming and building the Christian life, arrange for exhibits of books and pamphlets relating to our work, promote the observance of Bible Sunday, secure subscriptions to the Christian Advocate, and Conference and Area publications, and promote the use of our publications in our Church Schools.

11. The Committee on Social Life, which shall provide in and through the church, social functions and forms of recreation unquestionably wholesome and compatible with the mind and teachings of Christ.

12. The Committee on Hospitals and Homes, whose duty it shall be to promote in co-operation with the General, Jurisdictional, and Annual Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes (Par. 1521-1531) the interests of hospitals and homes of The Methodist Church and the particular hospitals and homes for whose support they are respectively responsible. This Committee, upon request of the pastor, shall have charge annually of the Golden Cross enrollment and the dissemination of literature to assist in relating the congregation not only to the greater philanthropy of the Church but to the social welfare organizations represented in the local parish and community.

13. Committee on Men's Work, which shall promote the training and active participation of men in the work of the local church, under the leadership of the General Board of Lay Activities.

14. Other Committees as the Board may determine.

All Committees shall be responsible to the Official Board, and shall report to the Board regularly, and to the Quarterly Conference as requested. Care should be exercised that the Official Board Committees do not overlap or conflict with the Committees elected by the Quarterly Conference.

Section IV

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Adopted May 3, 1952. See Journal, Page 479.

217. In every local church there shall be a Woman's Society of Christian Service. The following is the authorized Constitution for such a society.

218. Article 1, Name. There shall be a Woman's Society of Christian Service in the local church, auxiliary to the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service. A Wesleyan Service Guild, auxiliary to the Woman's Society of Christian Service, composed of gainfully employed women, may also be organized in a local church.

Article 2, Purpose. The purpose of the Woman's Society of Christian Service shall be to unite all the women of the church in Christian living and service; to help develop and support Christian work among women and children around the world; to develop the spiritual life; to study the needs of the world; to take part in such service activities as will strengthen the local church, improve civic, community and world conditions. To this end this organization shall seek to enlist women, young people, and children in this Christian fellowship, and to secure funds for the activities in the local church and the support of the work undertaken at home and abroad for the establishment of a world Christian community.

Article 3, Membership. A woman may become a member of this society by giving prayer, service, and an annual contribution of money to the total Budget through membership offerings, or dues, pledges, or gifts. She shall contribute to, educate for, and promote the total program of the women of Methodism.

Article 4, Funds. (1) All funds from whatsoever source secured by this Society belong to this organization and shall be disbursed only in accordance with its Constitution and by its order.

(2) The total Budget to be secured and administered by a Woman's Society of Christian Service in the local church shall include pledges to missions to be directed through the regular channels of finance of the Society and also funds for local church and community activities.

(3) All undesignated funds channeled to the Woman's Division shall be divided in the office of the Treasurer of the Woman's Division on a basis to be determined by the Division. There shall be no division of such funds by the local society.

(4) Funds for local church and community activities shall be secured and administered by the Woman's Society of Christian Service in the local church.

(5) Each society in the local church shall make an annual pledge to the total Budget adopted by the Conference Society.

(6) Each society in the local church shall include in its Budget a definite amount for a cultivation fund.

Article 5, Officers and Elections. The officers of the society shall be a President, one or more Vice-presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and Secretaries of Promotion, of Missionary Education and Service, of Christian Social Relations and Local Church activities, of Student Work, of Children's Work, of Spiritual Life, of Literature and Publications, of Supply Work, of the Status of Women, and such other officers in charge of lines of work as may be required. These officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Society. Where a simpler form of organization is necessary in a small church, there shall be five officers or more, as determined by the local Society. These officers shall share the responsibility for promoting the work of the full quota of officers as listed in this Paragraph.

Article 6, Meetings. The Society shall hold one or more meetings during a month for the transaction of its business and for the study of the work.

Article 7, Amendments. Proposed amendments to this Constitution may be sent to the Recording Secretary of the Woman's Division of Christian Service at least forty days before the last annual meeting of the Division in the quadrennium. Proposed amendments may also be sent directly to the General Conference.

219. For a description of the Woman's Division of Christian Service and its subsidiary organizations see Pars. 1240-1258.

Section V

LAY ACTIVITIES IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

Adopted May 3, 1952. See Journal, Page 479.

220. The Official Board, in co-operation with the pastor, shall be responsible for the program of lay activities in the local church as outlined under the direction of General, Jurisdictional, Annual Conference and District Boards of Lay Activities (Par. 1480-1501). In the program of lay activities the pastor is as in all the work of the pastoral charge the preacher in charge, and is responsible for the total program of the church. Nothing in this plan is to be construed as interfering with his general authority and responsibility.

221. The program of lay activities in the local church shall include the interests and causes that have been committed to the General Board of Lay Activities by the Discipline (Par. 1482).

222. There shall be a Lay Leader in each local church, elected by the Official Board from its membership, who shall promote, in co-operation with the pastor and the Board Chairman, the program of Lay Activities of The Methodist Church. If the Chairman of the Official Board is a Layman, he may also be elected the Church Lay Leader. In a pastoral charge of one church the Church Lay Leader is the Charge Lay Leader. In a Circuit charge there shall be a Charge Lay Leader elected by the pastoral charge Quarterly Conference.

223. The pastor of a Circuit with the consent of the Official Boards of the charge, shall organize the several Official Boards into a single Board of Lay Activities. The Charge Lay Leader shall be Chairman this Board of Lay Activities of the pastoral charge (Pg. 128).

This Board shall promote the program of lay activities on a charge-wide basis and encourage harmony and Christian fellowship among the churches of the Circuit, to the end that the charge may render a more effective service.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION TO STUDY
THE ADVISABILITY OF THE ESTABLISH-MENT OF A METHODIST CENTER OR GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, AND SIMILAR JURISDICTIONAL FACILITIES

To the General Conference of The Methodist Church of 1952:

The General Conference of 1948 created a Commission to study the advisability of the establishment of a Methodist Center or general headquarters, and similar Jurisdictional facilities, the members of the same to be nominated by the Council of Bishops and elected by the Conference. Pursuant to said action, the following persons were elected to membership on the Commission:

Bishop Clare Purcell, Convener, Bishop J. Ralph Magee, Bishop Robert N. Brooks, S. M. Riley, H. L. Dickason, Owen J. Beadles, E. C. Harrah, Margaret Currie, B. F. Allgood, M. L. Sims, Charles Stuck, M. T. Freeman, Oscar Horton, Aubrey S. Moore, Howard C. Baldwin.

The Commission met for organization in Chicago, Illinois, December 16, 1948, at the call of Bishop Clare Purcell, Convener, and organized as follows: Chairman, Bishop Clare Purcell; vice-chairman, Bishop J. Ralph Magee; Secretary, Margaret Currie; Treasurer, Thomas B. Lugg, Treasurer of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

The Commission carried on its work as effectively as it was possible under the handicap of a limited budget and the lack of a generally accepted blueprint of the requirements involved.

A number of cities were contacted and studied as to: (1) Their location with respect of transportation and Methodist population of the United States; (2) Transportation facilities—rail, bus and air; (3) Parking areas; (4) Acreage available near city; (5) Present office and auditorium accommodations; (6) Hotel accommodations; (7) Meeting rooms for Boards and Committees; (8) Social aspects of the community.

In addition to the cities contacted and the studies made by four Committees, a questionnaire was sent to 344 church leaders, including the Bishops, Secretaries and one minister and one layman from each delegation to the last General Conference. One hundred seventy-five replies were received and were carefully tabulated.

As an alternative to the establishment of a general headquarters, the Commission also studied the possibility of acquiring a hotel or entering into an agreement with an existing hotel for the accommodation of meetings of Boards, Commissions and other Church gatherings. After careful study it was the unanimous opinion of the Commission that neither suggestion was practical.

The Commission gave thorough consideration to the Reports of the Committees, as well as the replies to the questionnaire referred to above.

The following conclusions represent the consensus of opinion of the members of the Commission:

1. If the major advantages of a central headquarters for the Boards and Agencies are desired, we would recommend that serious consideration be given to the possibility of locating the General Agencies of the Church in the Middle West within an area which would make each Agency readily accessible to others by overnight travel.

2. The disadvantages of establishing a central headquarters in a single city seem to outweigh the advantages.

3. At present there is too much opposition to the idea among Church leaders to make it advisable.

The Commission would, therefore, recommend: That no immediate action be taken.

Very respectfully submitted,

CLARE PURCELL, Chairman;

MARGARET CURRIE (*), Secretary.

A REPORT

Ordered by the General Conference of 1948

"SUPPORT OF METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS"

Presented April 24, 1952. See Journal, Page 248.

TO Delegates of the 1952 General Conference

FROM the Committee to Study the Support of Methodist Theological Schools

The General Conference of 1948 created a Committee on Theological Education charged with the following responsibilities.

1. To continue the study of our Methodist Theological Schools and review the entire question of their support.
2. Conduct a Church-wide campaign of information concerning the work and needs of these ten schools of theology.
3. Make a financial appeal to all the local churches of Methodism if in the judgment of the Committee such a plan seemed wise and practicable. (For a complete statement of these responsibilities, see the 1948 Discipline, paragraph 2013.)

The Needs

The needs of Methodism's ten schools of theology are determined by the numbers of young men Methodism expects our schools to train and the quality of training we desire them to receive.

What does Methodism need? In the first forty-seven years of this century Methodism doubled its membership and declined in the number of its ministers who were in full connection as members of an Annual Conference. During this forty-seven-year period the level of education among the people of our country lifted markedly, requiring a better-trained ministry if adequate moral and spiritual leadership was to be given. During this period the training offered to doctors, engineers, and educators was enriched and extended with material results evident to us all. The numbers of our ministers and the quality of training have not similarly kept pace; which is one of the causes of our present dilemma. More and more churches want a thoroughly trained minister; hundreds of large churches want and need to add another minister to their staff; churches now on Circuits desire to become stations and need a thoroughly trained minister. We do not assume that a country doctor can be quite properly an untrained doctor nor should we assume this concerning a rural minister, for example.

Your Committee found a widespread awareness of this urgent need of more and better-trained ministers. Efforts to acquaint our youth with the strategic opportunity for serving Christ and our war-torn world through the Christian ministry has resulted in our finest youth hearing and answering God's call in gratifying numbers.

The bottleneck is our schools of theology. There are ten of them in number. They came into being through the vision and generosity of individuals and groups within the Church and almost grew like Topsy without encouragement or guidance from the Church at large. Inevitably they have been handicapped in their development and today they cannot perform the task we must assign them unless they receive prompt and generous financial aid from the Church at large.

In 1947 an able committee, headed by Dr. John L. Seaton, President Emeritus of Albion College, Examiner in the North Central Association of Colleges, and President of the University Senate of The Methodist Church, conducted a survey of theological education in our denomination. Their survey constitutes the basis of our Committee's continued study. Dr. Seaton and his Survey Committee said that of the 200 theological seminaries in this country the work done in several of our Methodist theological schools was of such outstanding quality that these would have to be included in any listing of the first ten: high praise indeed. But the Seaton report continued: "It must be admitted, however reluctantly, that none (of our ten Methodist schools) would rank with the first two of the American theological schools." It seems to be the Survey Committee's judgment that our schools are good, but not good enough.

Too Few Faculty Members

One of the major reasons why they are not good enough lies in the large number of students for which each faculty member is responsible in our schools. How many students on the average should a teacher in a school of theology attempt to develop and train? Quoting Dr. Seaton's report, "For colleges, a ratio of one faculty member for every ten to twelve students is regarded as standard. Graduate work is everywhere understood as requiring more time both for instruction and supervision than undergraduate." Since the theological seminaries are all graduate in level, a ratio of at least one teacher to ten students would be a conservative and obligatory expectation. In the Indiana School of Medicine the ratio is one full-time faculty member for every five to seven students; and counting scores of part-time teachers, one full-time faculty member to each two or three students.

How do our schools of theology compare with the first two theological seminaries of which Dr. Seaton speaks, in the matter of ratio of faculty to students? The first had in 1950 219 students working for a B.D. degree and 24 full-time faculty plus ten part-time. That is one faculty member for each 10 students. The second of these schools mentioned by the Seaton report had 237 students working for a B.D. degree and 27 full-time faculty plus a large number of part-time faculty; that it, more than one faculty member for each 10 students.

A Comparison

Taking three of our own better schools of theology in 1950, number one had 296 candidates for a B.D. degree and 13 full-time faculty members; or, one faculty member for 22 students. A second had 350 students working for a B.D. degree and 18 full-time faculty, or just under 20 students for each faculty member. A third had 237 candidates for a B.D. degree and 15 full-time faculty, or approximately 15 students for each faculty member. When one adds, in the case of each seminary, about one third more in numbers of other graduate students who look to this same faculty for guidance, and the increase in enrollment beyond the figures of 1950, it becomes evident that we are asking our schools of theology to do the impossible.

One of our Committee members read a term paper written by a young man in one of the so-called best two schools of theology in America. He was impressed by the quality of the material in the paper, but particularly impressed with the fact that this paper had been read with real care by the professor. It was evident by his comments written on the paper that the professor knew the mind, the habits, the strength and weaknesses of this young man and was taking the time to give personal guidance and inspiration. The Committee members were saddened when we realized that the numbers involved made this sort of guidance and inspiration practically impossible in most of our schools of theology today.

Such facts lead us to the conviction that Methodism's schools of theology need help, need it desperately, and need it now.

Financial Help Needed?

How much financial help do our schools of theology need in the quadrennium 1952-1956? Your Committee asked each of our ten schools to submit an estimate of its needs for the quadrennium, 1952-1956, in the following categories:

1. Salary increases of present faculty.
2. Increase in the numbers of faculty.
3. Increase in pensions.
4. Other personnel.
5. Operational requirements.

After studying the replies carefully and conferring with the Council of Bishops we arranged to supplement these estimates with an added survey of each of the schools by an objective, qualified person to ascertain the minimum amount these schools must have to accomplish the task assigned them. We were fortunate in securing Dr. John O. Gross, Executive Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education who, with the assistance of an expert in institutional accounting, visited these schools and made a careful, on-the-spot analysis of their budgets, size of faculty and student body, and capacity of each school to increase its own income. This resulted in reducing the figure originally asked by the schools by more than $100,000.

Dr. Gross gave your Committee as the minimum figure required by our schools of theology for effective operation during the quadrennium 1952-1956 $800,000 per year from the Church at large. Since our schools now receive $300,000 from World Service, they would require $500,000 in addition annually. The schools of theology would still have to raise on their own $1,800,000 annually toward a total budget of $2,600,000.

When your Committee made known its findings of $800,000 annual support from the Church at large and the method used in coming to this conclusion to the Council of Bishops, The Committee of Nine, The Committee of Twenty-Eight, The General Commission of World Service and Finance, and The Council of Secretaries, there was wholehearted agreement that our churches could, and should, raise this amount and put into the hands of our schools of theology the tools with which to meet our Church's need for more and better-trained ministers.

How Raise These Funds?

Our Committee felt that the logical and ideal way to raise this $800,000 was by apportionment to the churches of 11½ per cent on basis of the minister's salary. We believe that logically the enlistment and training, support in active years, and pension upon retirement of pastors, District Superintendents, and Bishops are all vital parts of one process and belong together in relation to an apportionment to the local church.

So much objection, however, arose from many quarters to adding any percentage by proration on the pastor's salary that your Committee asked The Committee of Twenty-Eight and The General Conference Commission on World Service and Finance to settle upon a method which in their judgment would be best for all the interests of the Church.

Their conclusion, involving the raising of $800,000 annually for these schools, will be presented as a part of their Report to you and has our wholehearted endorsement.

The action of the Council of Secretaries in giving their unanimous endorsement to the proposed method, despite the fact that this coming quadrennium a large portion of these funds will come out of the current incomes of the General Boards and Agencies, was a demonstration of unselfish and wise statesmanship of which Methodism should be proud.

We recommend, further, that the General Conference of 1952 shall provide for the establishment of a Commission on Theological Education within the framework of the Board of Education, Division of Educational Institutions, composed as follows: six Bishops, six pastors, and six laymen, with the President of the Board of Education, the Chairman and Executive Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions, and the Executive Secretary of this said Commission as ex officio members.

The funds made available by the general Church will be paid to the Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education and distributed by that body, under the supervision of the above-mentioned Commission. The legislation required to meet the needs outlined will come as a part of the report of the General Commission on World Service and Finance and the Board of Education.

Use of Funds

It is your Committee's conviction that no part of the $800,000 should be used by the schools of theology for endowment, building, or scholarships, nor should any of it be used to reduce the amounts now contributed by the universities where a school may be a part of a given university.

It is your Committee's conviction further that the money thus made available by the general Church should be used to actually enrich and improve theological education and make available for the Methodist churches a larger number of carefully trained ministers. Further, while the $800,000 will permit our schools of theology to use to the maximum efficiency the present facilities, even so our schools of theology will not be able to graduate during the coming quadrennium enough Methodist ministers to meet our needs; and we recommend that a further study should be made to ascertain what if any additional facilities may be needed.

Campaign of Information

The second responsibility with which your Committee was charged was to conduct a Church-wide campaign of information concerning the work and needs of our ten schools of theology. Through the Chairman of the Committee the work and needs of the schools of theology were presented to the Council of Bishops for their advice and counsel. Many valuable suggestions were received. Through its Executive Secretary the same procedure was followed with the Council of Secretaries. These officers also laid the total program before the General Commission on World Service and Finance at each of its annual meetings.

Practically every Annual Conference was visited by speakers from our schools of theology who not only addressed the Annual Conference sessions, but likewise in most instances held conferences with joint sessions of the Annual Conference Board of Education and of Ministerial Training; thus reaching essentially the entire leadership of our denomination.

Each of the Bishops presiding over an Annual Conference session was asked to share with the Conference his own convictions concerning the importance and the needs of our theological schools. We are most grateful to our leaders for the very valuable help given us in this and other aspects of our endeavor.

Various pamphlets and mimeographed materials were made available. Addresses were made in behalf of theological education at the quadrennial meeting of the District Superintendents and other significant gatherings of Methodist leaders.

The program of information has been widened and intensified through the cordial co-operation of other agencies. The Editor of the Christian Education Magazine gave most of the space in a special issue to the presentation of the work of the various schools and the total program of theological education. The Director of the Advance for Christ and His Church co-operated by making it possible to publish and distribute 50,000 copies of a graphic and richly illustrated pamphlet. This Agency also published and distributed widely a brochure in which several Bishops stressed the necessity for recruiting young men for the ministry, and thus aided our cause.

The Editor of The Christian Advocate has given wholehearted co-operation throughout the quadrennium. In February, 1952 a special issue was devoted largely to theological education with a two-page spread of photographs of the ten schools and two leading articles dealing with the schools and their needs.

Through the Council of Secretaries there was developed and distributed throughout the Church a motion picture entitled "Cross Roads." This body also made it possible for two issues of the church bulletins, of which a million or more copies each were distributed throughout the Church, to carry an emphasis upon theological education.

Finally the National Association of Schools and Colleges has recently issued a brochure in which the appeal to support theological education is given space along with that of the colleges, universities, and Wesley Foundations. We have sought to make use of already existing channels and thus have been able to do our work with a minimum of expense and a maximum of effectiveness.

We are grateful to find that the cause of theological education is on the minds of "the people called Methodists" as it has never been before. There is an increasing number of laymen and ministers who feel that the most urgent need of our Church is for an increased number of fully trained ministers.

Financial Appeal?

The third responsibility with which the Committee was charged was to make a financial appeal to all local churches of Methodism, if in the judgment of the Committee such a plan seemed wise and practicable. Your Committee came to the conclusion that the launching of a Church-wide financial campaign during the quadrennium was likely to prove disruptive to the plans of The Advance for Christ and His Church, and that the needs of the schools of theology could not be met adequately in this way. This judgment was confirmed by the Council of Bishops and other leaders of the Church whose advice was sought.

We Are Grateful

We desire to express our heartfelt gratitude to the Council of Bishops, the General Commission on World Service and Finance, the Council of Secretaries, those in charge of The Advance, for their counsel and co-operation; to the Presidents and Deans of our schools of theology, the Association of Methodist Theological Schools, and the Board of Education for underwriting our budget; to Dr. John O. Gross for personally visiting each of our schools and making a check-up study of their needs; and especially to our Executive Secretary, Dr. Corliss Hargraves, whose experience, wise counsel, and diligent efforts have been of inestimable value throughout the quadrennium.

This Report is placed on your desk the first day of the General Conference, as we were charged with the responsibility of making this Report not later than the second day of the 1952 General Conference; and is respectfully submitted by your Committee.

Authorized by the General Conference of 1948
TO REPORT TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF 1952

PREFACE

The General Conference of 1948 took the following action: "There shall be a Commission to study the ministry of the Church in all of its orders and offices . . . To this Commission shall be referred all matters concerning the ministry of the Church, including the Non-concurrent matters from the Committee on Ministry in the General Conference of 1948, and the Commission shall report to the General Conference of 1952 . . ." The Commission to Study the Ministry herewith submits its Report.

The members of the Commission were: Bishops William C. Martin, Clare Purcell, and Gerald Kennedy. Bishop Martin was Chairman during the first three years, and Bishop Kennedy has served as Chairman during the last year of the quadrennium. President J. N. R. Score was Secretary until his death, and at that time, Dr. W. Kenneth Pope was appointed in his place and elected Secretary. The other members are W. T. Jones, Adrian Foote, J. S. Scott, Lester Rumble, George Roseberry, J. Richard Spann, Oscar T. Olson, Gerald O. McCulloch, and Nolan Harmon who has served as a consulting member.

While the first draft of the Report was the work of the Chairman, the whole Commission worked on it, modifying and amending so it can be said truly that it is the result of our composite efforts. We found ourselves in agreement to a surprising degree and where there was a difference of opinion, we decided to find a meeting place as satisfactory as possible, and then abide by the decision of the majority.

We have issued the Report in two sections. The first part is what follows and deals with the history and philosophy of the Methodist Ministry. The second part contains the Disciplinary legislation necessary to carry out the suggestions made by the Commission and, in addition, the editing and harmonizing of the sections in the Discipline having to do with the Ministry. The first part is intended for each delegate to the 1952 General Conference, and the second part will be placed in the hands of each member of the Committee on Ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

GERALD KENNEDY, Chairman
W. KENNETH POPE, Secretary

THE METHODIST MINISTRY

A vital, enthusiastic religious movement has neither the time nor the inclination to give much consideration to definition of its functions or to formulation of its philosophy. It is too busy expressing itself through evangelization to be concerned about the status of its ministry or the nature of its orders. But the time comes inevitably when such matters must be dealt with to consolidate what the Church has gained and to prevent a watering down of its essential nature. Such a task should not be considered a matter of congealing a Church's life in unchangeable patterns, but rather of making secure the base from which the next great advance is to be made. We ought not to cabin and confine the historical freedom of our ministry, but we ought not to assume that vagueness of attitude toward the meaning of our ministry is a virtue. We believe that it was in a spirit of adventure and not caution that the General Conference of 1948 appointed a Commission to Study the Ministry, and it is in that spirit that we submit our Report.

The Ministry and the Church

Methodism has always had a sense of belonging to the Church Universal. This heritage comes to us through the Church of England and while we in Methodism have never accepted the doctrine of "apostolic succession" through a tactual transmission, we have never doubted that our ministry was in the "endless line of splendor" which began with the Apostles. John Wesley as late as 1745 held to the three-fold orders of ministers as substantiated by the apostolic succession and the written word. He came to feel later, however, that elders and Bishops were of the same order. Acting upon this he designated an elder as General Superintendent or Bishop. We therefore retain the two orders as an historical link with the Apostolic Church.

Methodism has never shown itself willing to cut itself off from the historic Christian stream. We trace our heritage back to the New Testament and we claim our right to every gift which God has given to the Body of Christ, which is the Church Universal. Among those gifts is a ministry created by the bestowal of valid orders verified by experience and history. We believe that the Reformation was not a departure from but a returning to the Church created by Christ. And we believe that Methodism was not a turning away from the main stream of the Christian Church, but the re-opening of springs which had been clogged by neglect. With all the emphasis on liberty which has characterized Methodism from the beginning, we have been profoundly zealous in maintaining a ministry validated by an ordination rooted in the Church of the Apostles.

There is a sense in which our ministry represents a middle ground between what may be called the sacerdotal and the evangelical concepts of orders. An order has carried historically the idea of a supernatural endowment bestowed on the candidate by the one who performs the ordination ceremony. Office, on the other hand, suggests an ecclesiastical status, granted to one who has demonstrated he has the spiritual gifts to perform a certain function in the Church. Do Methodists believe in orders or offices? The answer is that they believe in both and there is no possibility of a strict differentiation either in our attitudes or our practices. In the days ahead, when Church union will be increasingly a real option, it will be good that Methodism can be a middle ground where the two points of view can meet. This is not a mere expediency, but a simple recognition that there is so much truth and value in both concepts of orders and offices that we ought not to surrender either one.

We must not in any way despise or discount the divine meaning of ordination. The ministry cannot continue to be regarded as a holy calling if the ordinance which symbolizes its historical relationship to Jesus Christ and the Apostles, is degraded. We do not hold that ordination will automatically make a man a good minister. But we are committed to the belief that ordination must mean proper intellectual preparation and adequate spiritual discipline so that no ordained Methodist minister shall ever regard his vocation lightly. We believe that the test of valid orders is primarily the quality of the minister's work. But to give all ministers the same authority and function as those who have accepted the obligations of ordination, can only weaken the Church.

The Methodist belief that its ministry must be not only historically valid but also contemporaneously relevant is nowhere more clearly brought out than in its concept of the itineracy. Methodist ministers have inherited from John Wesley and the American frontier the idea that they are travelers. They are appointed for one year at a time with the assumption that they are ready and willing to move to another field of service whenever and wherever the need is greatest. It is written deeply into our tradition that the ministry is to go to the people and be sensitive to the needs of the people. Methodist ministers are not supposed to "settle down" until they retire. It is significant that, when a minister terminates his membership in an Annual Conference, we say he has "located." Methodist ministers are influenced by the sense of being pilgrims without a permanent habitation on the earth, and their ministry assumes an unsettled life of traveling. Horace Bushnell once referred to the Methodists as "the Lord's light artillery," and he spoke of their mobile ability. Which is to say that, while we have our roots deep in the Christian tradition, we have our faces toward the new day. It is a hope that this concept of an itinerant ministry may help to save a large, wealthy, and respectable institution from becoming a victim of extreme caution and visionless reaction.

The Ministry and the Conference

The Methodist Annual Conference is something unique in Church organization, though many Methodist ministers who have grown up in it are now unaware of its uniqueness. It is noteworthy, for example, that through the years, American Methodism has tended to make Admission on Trial and Acceptance into full Membership in the Conference more important than ordination. Local preachers, including women, can be ordained, but that does not automatically admit them into Conference membership. When a man is admitted into Conference membership, he enters one of the greatest fraternities in the world. He has submitted to the discipline of the Church and he has agreed to go to whatever service the Bishop and his Cabinet may appoint him. While in effective relationship he is assured an appointment. He has become a part of a connectional Church which means he has an obligation to the whole Church and not only to his local field of work.

No one would claim that our itinerant system is perfect, but we believe it to be the best way so far devised of dealing fairly with both minister and church. There are times when a minister does not receive the appointment he prefers and there are times when a church is not pleased. But on the whole, we believe that both men and churches reach their maximum efficiency under the appointive system. Pastoral Relations Committees as representatives of the congregations are playing an increasingly influential part in the appointment of the minister. Bishops and District Superintendents increasingly take ministers into their confidence and deal with their personal wishes and problems democratically. There is probably no Church where the individual minister has a greater sense of belonging to, and being responsible to, the whole Church than in Methodism. A good Methodist minister cannot be other than a world Christian.

Our ministry does not live unto itself, for there is a constant stimulation through the very genius and organization of The Methodist Church. Beginning with the General Conference, the program of the whole Church comes to each local congregation through its minister. Now and then a man may question these demands of the greater program and prefer to confine himself to his local situation only. Intentionally or unintentionally such a minister forces his brethren to carry his share of the burden and thus he becomes a ministerial parasite. In Methodism, every minister must be concerned for all and loyal to all, for he may expect the support and loyalty of the whole brotherhood.

Methodism is a movement. It is not to be thought of essentially as an ecclesiastical institution or a theological system though it is expressed in institutional life and declared in ordered theology. It was born out of a deep sense of urgency that scriptural holiness must be spread throughout the land, and that meant a crusade willing to go out from church buildings into the fields and the mines. The men who responded to the call were men who put service above status and were bound together in a discipline that put the whole cause before everything else. There was no place for the prima donna temperament or the isolationist spirit. They were expected to go where they were needed and undertake the task which most needed doing. They were not to think of a comfortable living first nor bargain for some preferential appointment. They believed that the Christian Gospel has power to change men and societies.

The Methodist ministry must never be willing to exchange this heritage for some less heroic ideal. The great word is still, "Here am I; send me." The greatest example is still the gifted man who is willing to serve where the need is greatest. The secret of our strength is always the strong helping to bear the burdens of the weak. And the hope for continued advance lies in every Methodist minister finding his freedom in complete devotion to the program of his Conference and the whole Church.

The Ministry and the Congregation

The minister in all his offices is the servant of the Church. Preaching is an act of the Church, and hence a service participated in by both minister and congregation. No man can consider himself a good minister of Jesus Christ if he fails to build up the Body of Christ on earth, and there is no place for the egotist who considers the Church as a background for the spectacular exhibition of his own brilliance.

On the other hand, the congregation must not be unmindful of its responsibilities to the ministry. Many a preacher would have been great if he had found a great congregation, and many an outstanding minister owes his success to the love and loyalty of his laymen. Because Methodism attempts to fulfil the obligation of providing every minister with a church and every church with a minister, our churches sometimes minimize their obligations to the minister. Even though they treat him shabbily, they are sure to get another pastor next Conference, while in some denominations they would be unable to find a man who would accept their call. The minister is a man called of God and ordained to challenge every Christian layman to his service for Christ. He has not yet been made perfect, but as long as he is the minister of the Church, he deserves the sympathy, the prayers and the loyalty of his people.

The Methodist minister is the leader of his people. Ours is a layman's movement and Methodist laymen have entered more and more into the life of the Church. They have accepted places of leadership and responsibility. They hold a place of honor and authority in the Conferences of the Church. Their minister, however, has been trained to give leadership to the whole Church program. He is a man who sees the whole enterprise across the world and he is able to interpret the aims and goals of the Methodist movement. It is a wise church which respects this leadership and gives it careful consideration and prayerful co-operation.

Every Methodist church has at least three ministers. Besides the pastor in charge who resides in the parsonage and is on call twenty-four hours a day, there is the District Superintendent who also is on call and visits each congregation. He is the man who stands ready to consult with the minister about any problems or question. Any layman may call on him in regard to the program and welfare of the church. Finally, there is the Bishop of the area who is a pastor to the preachers, a counselor to the churches, and the leader who has oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church at large.

All of this means that both minister and congregation have recourse to a more or less objective point of view in regard to plans and problems. The congregation is not forced to continue with a ministerial leadership that has lost its effectiveness simply because there seems to be no way to make a change. The minister is not at the mercy of a small segment of the congregation which does not truly represent the church. It may be that the ease with which ministers may be moved can become a weakness in our polity.

There are times when a minister ought to deal with his problems instead of running away from them. There are times when a congregation needs the word of a prophet even though it makes them uncomfortable and ill at ease. Bishops and District Superintendents need to be aware of this danger and be on their guard lest their chief aim be peace rather than Christian growth.

The freest platform in the whole world is a Methodist pulpit. It is free because of our heritage and tradition. It is free because Methodists think and let think. It is free because congregations on the whole demand that a preacher shall speak according to his conscience. It is free because our appointive system gives every Methodist preacher protection against the small, vocal, narrow, intolerant minorities which are certain to appear from time to time. A Methodist minister represents the whole Church, and when he does not abuse the privileges of this status, the whole Church stands behind him. This, we believe, is one of the most precious gifts of the Methodist ministry and should be preserved at all costs.

Ordination and the Sacraments

One of the live issues before the General Conference of 1948 was the question of unordained men administering the Sacrament of the Holy Communion. The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, adopted legislation at its General Conference in 1926, permitting unordained Supply Pastors to administer the sacrament within the bounds of their own parishes. At the Uniting Conference in 1939 this policy of the Southern Branch of the Church was adopted by The Methodist Church. But the General Conference of 1948 reaffirmed the historic position of Methodism and made it unlawful for unordained ministers to administer the Sacrament of the Holy Communion. However, the resident Bishop may give an unordained pastor serving a church in his area, permission to administer the sacrament of baptism and perform marriages within his parish where the law of the State allows it.

This has brought the whole question of Ordination and the Sacraments before us afresh, and considerable discussion has been going on concerning this important matter. In some sections of the Church, there has been agitation in favor of rescinding the action of the last General Conference. Certainly no Commission assigned to study our ministry could fulfil its instructions without studying carefully all the implications of this significant subject, and setting forth its conclusions as plainly as possible.

Historically, the matter is clear enough, and we ought not to deal with a matter affecting so profoundly the life and nature of the Church, without finding the long perspective. The witness of history is clear—the Church from the beginning has set aside its ministers by a public act of ordination and it has not allowed men who have not received this sign of its approval to administer the central act of Christian worship, which is the Sacrament of Holy Communion. This is not to say that the ordination ceremony has been always the same. It has grown more elaborate and complex as the Church spread geographically and increased in numbers. By necessity it became less spontaneous and direct. But the central significance of this act by which the Church announces its conviction that God has called certain men into the ministry has never been diminished.

Nor did the Reformation minimize the meaning of Ordination. It took no supernatural view of the rite of Ordination itself, and it definitely rejected the Catholic belief that an ordained priest ceased to be a man and became possessed of powers to turn wine into blood and bread into flesh. The Reformers believed in the priesthood of all believers and they did not recognize priests or pastors as infallible. But they never ceased to regard Ordination as having a central place in the life of the Church. No unordained pastor was allowed to administer the Holy Communion. This was true in the congregational polity so prominent in Switzerland, France, Holland, and Scotland. It was true also of the Lutheranism of Germany and Scandinavia as well as the Anglicanism of Britain.

This has been the faith and practice of Methodism. We cannot read our history without being aware of John Wesley's willingness to adjust his ideas to fit practical situations. With the need of men to hear the Gospel as his ruling passion, he would preach in the fields if necessary, even if he felt he had become vile in so doing. As someone said, Wesley was like an oarsman on the Thames with his eye on St. Paul's Cathedral, but drawing farther away from it with every stroke. Yet—and this becomes of astounding significance when observed within the framework of Wesley's free spirit—he never suggested that the Sacrament of Holy Communion could be administered by any but a duly ordained elder of the Church.

John Wesley could hear Thomas Maxfield preach, and though reluctant to have unordained men preaching, say, "It is of the Lord; let him do what seemeth to him good." He could say, "When we renounce everything but faith and get into Christ, then, and not until then, have we any reason to believe that we are Christians." He renounced the sacerdotal element in both Ordination and the Sacraments, but he was so constant in both administering and receiving the Sacrament, that most modern Methodist preachers and laymen would consider him extreme in this practice. He never deviated from the historic Christian tradition in his attitude toward Ordination and the Sacraments. Perhaps one of our deepest needs today is for effective measures which will increase the significance of the Holy Communion in the thought and practice of ministers and laymen in The Methodist Church.

So far as Methodism is concerned, we have never considered our ministers to be initiated into a private cult. They are ordained ministers of the holy catholic Church. In a letter written on September 10, 1784, to "Our Brethren in America," Mr. Wesley defended his setting apart "Dr. Coke and Mr. Francis Asbury to be Joint Superintendents over our brethren in North America . . ." and said later in the same letter, "Lord King's 'Account of the Primitive Church' convinced me many years ago that Bishops and presbyters are the same order and have the same right to ordain." It is little wonder that this letter has been called "The Magna Charta of American Methodism." In a letter to his brother Charles written on August 19, 1785, John Wesley said, "I firmly believe that I am a scriptural 'episkopos' as much as any man in England or Europe; for the uninterrupted succession I know to be a fable, which no man ever did, or can, prove." From the beginning, therefore, we have had two orders, deacon and elder, and we have regarded the Episcopacy not as a third order but as a special office. Which is to say that Methodism is Episcopal in polity but not in doctrine. And the right to administer the central act of worship has been from the beginning reserved for those who have received Ordination as an elder in The Methodist Church.

The whole matter of unordained men being allowed to administer the Holy Communion was not seriously discussed until recent years. In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, it was not an issue. That a man must bear witness to his faith, and in a sense preach the Gospel, is an obligation upon minister and layman alike. Even the Roman Church recognizes that under unusual circumstances, an unordained man may baptize. But the whole weight of Christian tradition is against unordained men administering the Sacrament of the Holy Communion.

There are those among us, however, who will say that we ought not to be too much influenced by tradition. They would suggest that if the present day has created special situations, we ought to face them in the spirit of service rather than in the spirit of tradition. Because of this not inconsiderable outcry some have assumed that the denial of the right to administer the Sacrament by unordained men is working a real hardship in the Church. It has been said, for example, that large numbers of our people are being denied the Sacrament, and we ought to lower the standard of ministerial requirements in the name of expediency.

The Commission, after careful study of the situation, is of the opinion that the difficulty has been greatly exaggerated. We do not mean to deny that in Conferences where there are large numbers of unordained Supply Pastors serving the churches, the problem is real. But where the matter has been faced carefully, the Sacrament has been provided for every congregation a proper number of times each year. Some Supply Ministers who were in the habit of administering the Communion have been offended by the General Conference's action in making it necessary for them to do the work for Ordination. We sympathize with these men, but many of us remember the joy which came to us after we had done what was necessary to receive our elder's orders. It is hard for us to see how Ordination can retain any real meaning if unordained men without putting forth any effort or following any discipline, have all the rights and privileges of Ordination, even if they should promise to fulfill the requirements for Ordination at a later date.

But even more important than this, is the picture set before us by our Commission on Ministerial Training. The Church will be interested in knowing what effect the 1948 legislation has had on our Supply Pastors. In 1947, forty-two (42) Supply Pastors passed Courses of Study for Ordination as deacon and elder. In 1951, there were about one thousand (1,000) Approved Supply Pastors taking work in pastor's schools in preparation of becoming ordained men. In other words, under the stimulus of the regulation making it necessary for a man to become an elder before he can administer the Holy Communion, a vastly greater number of our Supplies are preparing themselves for Ordination. Any man who deals with Methodist ministers knows how difficult is the study problem for many of us. Whatever stimulates study and discipline of mind, needs to be maintained.

In 1950, sixty per cent of our regular Approved Supply Pastors were ordained deacons and forty per cent of them were ordained elders. Since about thirteen per cent of our Supplies are retired members of Conferences, and about forty per cent are students who are preparing for Ordination, the actual proportion of Approved Supplies who are unordained, is relatively small. And by far the greater number of this small group can be ordained if they will put their minds and wills to it.

However, in order to ease the problem for these men who may find some difficulty in finishing the Course for elder's Ordination, the Commission recommends that after receiving deacon's Ordination, the candidate may receive elder's orders upon the satisfactory completion of one further year of study. This takes one year off the Ordination study period, and makes it possible, almost without exception, for our Supply Pastors to become fully ordained, if they have a sincere desire for it.

The whole problem of unordained men serving our churches is a diminishing one. There were 6,400 Approved Supplies in 1947 and 5,422 in 1950. There is reason to believe that this trend will not only continue but accelerate in the next years ahead. In 1951, there were 8,397 Methodist theological students in our seminaries and other accredited schools. In 1950, 90 per cent of all men received on trial were seminary graduates or students in schools of theology, while 80 per cent of all men received into full membership had received B.D. degrees, or were students in theological seminaries. The program of enlistment being carried on by The Methodist Church promises to provide ordained ministers for nearly every pulpit. It would seem to the Commission, therefore, that it would be the height of folly to change our wise legislation in regard to Ordination and the Sacraments, in an attempt to deal expediently with a situation which is losing its urgency with every passing year.

Methodism is a Church and not a sect. To deny the significance of Ordination is to withdraw from the historic fellowship of the Christian Church. In a time when the Churches are drawing closer together within the fellowship of the ecumenical spirit, we dare not become a hindrance to that movement. Because of heritage and polity, we are a bridge-Church, and we may provide a meeting place between congregational and episcopal polities. If we have any responsibility to the ecumenical Church, we must not deny our own tradition in regard to ministerial orders and the sacrament. It may be that God has called us to fill a central role in the great drama of a growing unity of the Churches of Christ. The General Conference of 1948 had a profound insight into the past and a clear vision of the future when it recovered the significance of Ordination and restored the Sacrament of the Holy Communion to the central place.

The Minister's Personal Habits

Unlike our Roman Catholic brethren, we do not believe that Ordination works its miracle apart from personal response and co-operation. We test a man before he is ordained, and the quality of his life afterward is the proof of our wisdom or lack of it in believing that God had called this man to His special service. We put great stress on the minister as a leader and an example. No Methodist minister can have an influence beyond the personal quality of his own life. He must expect to go farther than other men in disciplining himself mentally, spiritually, and physically. We expect him to be the kind of man that any mother or father in the community may point to as an attractive and noble example to their sons. We cannot escape the certainty that every Christian, and especially the minister, must be an incarnation of his message, if the message is to be more than sounding brass.

This does not mean that we believe life ought to be bound by legalisms. Our whole tradition of freedom in the pew and in the pulpit, would place Methodists on the side of the Gospel rather than the Law. The negative approach which makes Christianity a matter of not doing this and abstaining from that, is not our approach. We are convinced that Christianity means fulness of life and joy unspeakable. When men follow Christ with their whole hearts, they are so filled with the excitement of the adventure that they escape many of the temptations which plague their half-committed brethren. This is the faith and spirit of Methodism.

In the American church, however, there has been one exception to this general attitude in regard to the use of tobacco by our ministers. Candidates for our ministry have been required to file with the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications in duplicate, satisfactory answers to several questions among them being, "Will you abstain from the use of tobacco and other indulgences which may injure your influence?" This has been much discussed during the past years for several reasons. It seems to single out one indulgence and leave unmentioned any number of weightier matters. It raises to central importance, an indulgence which does not merit such a place of honor. It has made hypocrites or liars out of some men who may sincerely believe they were coerced. It is an open secret that in some parts of the Church the rule is broken so flagrantly as to make it a derision and thus it weakens the whole meaning of our Discipline.

Yet there are many Methodists who feel strongly about this matter and believe that smoking among our ministers ought never to be encouraged. They feel that at best, the use of tobacco is a habit which tends to enslave its victim until strictly speaking, he is no longer a free man. They feel that in a time when there is a general moral laxness in the world, it would be unwise to lower our standards of personal cleanliness and health, especially as they affect the ministry. Without any exception, the members of this Commission agree with this point of view and we are not in favor of doing anything to encourage the use of tobacco on the part of Methodist preachers.

Therefore, we are recommending that we hold our standards of personal discipline as high as always, but that we place this matter on a higher level than the legal. We recommend that no man be required to sign a promise that he will not smoke. But in Paragraph 321, we would insert the following section just before the part dealing with the written question: "Before a license to preach is granted to any applicant, the Committee shall call upon him to make a complete dedication of himself to the highest ideals of the Christian Ministry.

"The Committee shall insist that the applicant recognize the great importance of living an exemplary life free from all harmful practices which would discount his ministry such as the use of intoxicants, narcotics, and tobacco, and urge that he consecrate himself to purity of life in body, mind and spirit."

As a substitute for question 4 in this same Paragraph, we recommend a question in harmony with the above.

Supply Pastors

Methodism will never be able to pay its debt to the Supply Pastors who have served it in such large numbers from the beginning. John Wesley could never have accomplished his task without the devoted help given to him by lay preachers and unordained ministers. It has been one of Methodism's glories that she has discovered the ministry of laymen and used that ministry in her rapid expansion across this nation and around the world. We rejoice in the continuing service of our Approved Supply Ministers and we believe that these men should have a permanent place of honor within our polity.

There has been an increasing concern shown for the status of our Approved Supply Pastors. Many Conferences have taken steps toward providing a more adequate retirement for these men, and there is a continuing effort to provide a higher minimum salary scale. We commend and we urge the continuance of such efforts. In sections of the Church which have not yet shown this concern, we urge the appointment of a Commission to bring practical suggestions before the Annual Conferences as to how the status of the Approved Supply Pastor may be raised and his support increased.

There have been some voices raised urging that we give any Supply Pastor full Conference membership after serving a certain number of years. Some have suggested that every Supply Pastor giving full-time service be given the right to vote in the Annual Conference. We sympathize with the spirit back of these suggestions, but we believe that they are misguided. It will not serve the Church to lower the standards of Conference membership any more than to lower the standards for Ordination or administration of the Holy Communion. The problem will not be solved by assuming that Methodism can be strengthened by weakening the requirements for full membership in the Annual Conferences.

The matter ought to be approached from the other end. Any Approved Supply Pastor who has served long enough to have his work completely tested, and who is willing to pay the price for Admission into an Annual Conference, should be given every encouragement and assistance to attain that goal. We ought not to assume that there is only one possible road into our ministry. We shall expect the vast majority of our ministers to make their choices early enough so that they may attend college and take three years of graduate study in one of our approved seminaries. But now and again there will be a man who ought to be a full member of the Annual Conference and yet circumstances have made it impossible for him to follow this prescribed course. We commend our Commission on Ministerial Training for the outstanding work it has done in providing Pastor's Schools for our Supply men, and we hope it will be able to continue and even extend this important part of its task. Thus the Approved Supply Pastor who is willing to do the equivalent work, may be able to complete the Course of Study which will make him eligible for Conference membership.

It is not easy to become a Methodist minister. We do not believe it ever ought to be easy. We have inherited a tradition which regards the ministry as the highest calling of God. In a day when every profession is raising its standards, it would be madness for us to move in the other direction. Through the years we have been lifting our requirements faster than some have thought practical. But the number of our young men who have heeded God's call to our ministry, would indicate that they have not been seeking something easy and cheap. But whenever a man knocks at our door who has proved that he has the mental, physical and spiritual gifts necessary to be an effective minister of Christ, we should be able to open the door wide enough to welcome him inside. And always we shall keep close to our hearts and central in our concern, the men who may never enter into full Conference membership, but who continue to serve Christ and The Methodist Church with their best devotion.

FOREWORD

The Commission on Ministerial Training, in co-operation with the Methodist theological schools, is given the responsibility by ¶ 1389 of the 1948 Discipline, to "continue study on the ministry, and report on the subject to each General Conference."

We have asked Dr. Murray H. Leiffer, director of the Bureau of Social and Religious Research, Garrett Biblical Institute, to make this study for us, as he did in the two previous quadrennia.

This information, concerning the ministry of The Methodist Church, is revealing, encouraging and challenging.

The impact of the Church upon today's secularism and paganism is measured by the number of its consecrated and adequately trained ministers.

The Commission on Christian Vocations has been operating only three and a half years. But the wisdom and effectiveness of its work is manifested in this study.

Thoughtful readers will want to compare the data given here with that in our 1948 report.

—J. RICHARD SPANN

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The cordial co-operation which has been given the Director of this study by, literally, thousands of persons has been of fundamental importance in the preparation of the report. Every Bishop in the South Central and Southeastern Jurisdictions responded to requests for assistance, as did most of the Secretaries or other officers in the Annual Conferences of these two Jurisdictions. Without this aid a comprehensive and reliable picture of the age distribution of Methodist ministers would have been unobtainable. The Secretaries and Staff of the Chicago office of the Board of Pensions also graciously made records available for this purpose. The deans of theological schools furnished information on seminary enrollments and graduation statistics. More than 5,000 Supply Pastors took the trouble to reply to the request for information concerning their age, status, training, and so forth.

Particularly helpful has been the assistance of J. Richard Spann, Educational Director of the Commission on Ministerial Training, and A. C. Hoover, Director of the Statistical Office. The research assistants in the Bureau have carried forward various phases of the study with patience and skill; especial mention should be made of A. Van Stavern, who prepared the charts which appear in this Report.

To all these persons and to others who have contributed directly or indirectly, the author expresses his sincere appreciation and gratitude.

THE METHODIST MINISTRY IN 1952 AND THE RECRUITMENT NEEDS OF THE CHURCH

I. REPORT: PROGRESS

Everyone recognizes the importance of the ministry for the life and growth of the Church. The annual accession of consecrated, competent men to the profession is of major importance not only to the Commission on Ministerial Training and the theological schools, but also to the General Conference and the whole Church.

In 1944 when the first Quadrennial Report on Retirement and Recruitment in the Methodist Ministry was presented to the General Conference the picture was far from encouraging. Although most were then unaware of it, an unfortunate condition had been permitted to develop. The number of men in the ministry of The Methodist Church (or its three predecessors) had dropped to its lowest point since 1900, in spite of the increase in both total population and Church membership. A decline in recruitment caused a rise in the average age of the ministers; by 1944 half of all those in the effective relation had passed their forty-ninth birthday. This median age for Methodist ministers (49.0 years) was higher than that of any other professional group except the veterinarians (50.1 year).^{*} The study in 1943-44 of the age distribution of Methodist ministers made it plain that retirement and death rates would rise in the ten years immediately ahead and that, unless a drastic change occurred in recruitment, the Church would face far greater leadership problems than it had yet known.

The report on The Methodist Ministry in 1948 showed that a significant beginning had been made in stemming the downward recruitment trend which had existed for twenty-five years. Now, in 1952, there is clear evidence that these long-term adverse trends have been reversed. Thanks to the recruitment efforts of the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations, of Conference Committees and of individual ministers and laymen, more young men and women than ever before in the history of the Church are now in training for its work.

The full result of the reversal of trends cannot be felt for at least another eight years. The number of men retiring by virtue of age has, as was predicted in 1944, risen steadily to 1949-50. The rate will continue high, at from 450 to 500 per year, for several years, because of the relatively large number of ministers who are now past fifty-five years of age. And recruitment efforts take from three to eight years before they are reflected in the statistics of full membership in Annual Conferences.

While the outlook is now encouraging for the first time since the formation of The Methodist Church the task of recruitment is not and will never be completed. It is like the Preaching of the Word, which must be continued week after week and year after year. The Church can never afford to become complacent. Each year and each generation must bring its own ample supply of new recruits for the ministry of the Church.

II. MEMBERS, MINISTERS, AND POPULATION CHANGE

The membership of The Methodist Church, like the population of the United States, has shown a long-continued

^{*} The median age for physicians and surgeons was 44.1 years; for lawyers and judges, 42.0; and for chemists and metallurgists, 33.6. Ordinarily the more dynamic a profession, the larger the number of young men in it and the lower the median age.

and healthy rate of growth, as indicated in the figures in Table 1. In fact, it has increased more rapidly than the total population, which is now double what it was in 1900. The most recent membership statistics indicate an accession of 1.5 per cent per year for the past quadrennium. The rise in the active membership, however, has been at a slower pace, 1.0 per cent per year, 7,388,739 active members being reported in 1951. The growing proportion of inactive, non-resident members is due in part to the increasing mobility of the American people which itself constitutes a mounting challenge to ministerial and lay leadership.

In 1951, for the first time since unification, the number of ministers ("effective" and "on trial" members of Annual Conferences) is larger than it was in 1939. The long decline, resulting from low recruitment and rising retirement rates, ended in 1948, when there were 18,077 men. The substantial upturn which began in 1949 has continued through 1951 and it is to be hoped that the climb out of the trough will be steady and persistent. The Church may be grateful that it has more than regained all ground lost since the time of union.

III. PASTORAL CHARGES AND MINISTERS

Ministers, in The Methodist Church, perform many different functions. In 1951, 38 were on active duty as Bishops, 572 as District Superintendents, 1,173 under appointment "to attend school," and 1,942 under "special appointment" as missionaries, teachers in our colleges and seminaries, Secretaries of Board, or in some other capacity. By far the largest number of ministers, 15,035 of them, were under appointment as pastors of local churches—the primary function of the ministry. The fact that 7,436 churches were listed as "supplied or to be supplied" is an indication that a serious shortage of effective members of Conferences still exists. In spite of the fact that the need for qualified ministers remains large progress has been made, as evidenced by the statistics in Table 2.

The growth of the Church is reflected not simply in the increase in membership (Table 1) but in the steady expansion in the total number of charges* from 1943 to the present. Since the number of ministers under episcopal appointment decreased from the time of union until 1948, it is not surprising that there was a corresponding increase both in the number of "charges supplied or to be supplied" and in the number of Accepted Supply Pastors to fill the gap. Since 1949, however, the figures for each of these last two items have turned downward. Although there were in 1951 approximately 500 more charges than in 1949, fewer were left to be supplied and fewer Accepted Supply Pastors were needed. This reversal of the long-time trend signifies a better state of health for the denomination and is traceable to the vigorous recruitment efforts which were begun in 1944.

* "A pastoral charge consists of one or more churches organized under the Discipline, with a single Quarterly Conference and to which a minister has been duly appointed as preacher in charge or pastor." (Discipline, 1948, ¶ 104.)

IV. ACCESSIONS TO THE EFFECTIVE MINISTRY

According to the Methodist statistical office, the number of men in the "effective" ministry (that is, members in full connection in Annual Conferences under episcopal appointment) dropped from 16,908 in 1947 to 16,413 in 1951. All Jurisdictions except the Western registered a net loss in the quadrennium, ranging from 76 in the Southeastern to 192 in the Northeastern. This decline is due to the continued aging of the men in the effective ministry and the fact that accessions to full membership during the quadrennium were fewer than the losses by withdrawal, death, and retirement (see Table 8).

Nevertheless, the number of men subject to episcopal appointment actually increased, as indicated in Table 1. The sole reason for this contrast is the sharp rise in the number of men received On Trial in each of the past two years but not as yet received into Full Connection. Column one of the table below reveals the amazing improvement in this respect from 1946 to the present, the number of men received on trial in 1951 being almost three times that of 1946. The Discipline requires that a man remain on trial two years before being received into full membership, and a longer interval may elapse. Consequently, the number of men currently on trial in any given year includes not only those "received on trial this year," but also those received in the preceding year and some from a year or two before that. This accounts for the variations in rate of growth between those received on trial and the total number on trial.

to serve as part-time pastors in their own Conferences and are listed in Conference records as "pastors under episcopal appointment." Others are attending college or seminary at some distance from the home Conference, and are "appointed to attend school"; many of these are serving as Supply Pastors in other Conferences. The growing number appointed to attend school is reflected in the expansion of enrollments in our Methodist schools of theology (Table 4).

The first marked increase of men entering into Full Conference membership occurred in 1951. All of these were received on trial in 1949 or earlier. In the large majority of cases, the men made their decision to enter the ministry sometime between 1944 and 1948.

These data illustrate the fact that the program of recruitment initiated in the quadrennium from 1944 to 1948 (and carried forward since 1948 under the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations) has only now begun to show results in terms of accessions into the full ministry of the Church. Similarly the improvements in methods of recruitment and training developed during the quadrennium just closed will not bear much fruit for another three or four years. Although the number of men in the effective ministry actually declined in the past quadrennium by more than 500, the ministerial potential of the Church has been greatly strengthened.

V. GRADUATES OF METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS

The ten graduate schools of theology of The Methodist Church do not train all who enter the Methodist ministry, but by far the larger proportion of these men have degrees from one of them. A study made by Dr. A. C. Hoover, the Official Statistician of the Church, based on questionnaires sent to all persons received into full Annual Conference membership in 1949 and 1950, testifies to this fact. Replies were received from 1,074 men. Of these, 1,044 were college graduates and 896 (83.4 per cent of all respondents) had graduated from both college and seminary. And of those having seminary training, 627 or 70.0 per cent were graduated from one of the ten Methodist seminaries.

According to figures supplied by Dr. J. Richard Spann, Educational Director of the Commission on Ministerial Training, there has been a steady increase during the quadrennium in the total number enrolled in our Methodist seminaries. This is the logical result of the recruitment program begun by the Church in 1944 and carried forward by more and more Conferences. Presumably the trend will continue upward for some years. Part of the increase in the enrollment is accounted for by the number of young women seeking training as directors of religious education and other men and women preparing to be missionaries or teachers (working for the Master of Arts or the Doctor of Philosophy degrees). Yet most seminary students are planning to enter the regular pastoral ministry, following the three-year professional course leading to the Bachelor of Divinity degree or its equivalent (Bachelor of Sacred Theology or Master of Theology).

The men who enrolled in the seminaries in 1948 and were graduated in 1951 made up the large proportion of those received into Full Connection in Methodist Annual Conferences in the latter year. The rise in enrollment reported in Table 4 promises a much larger number of seminary-trained candidates for Conference membership in the years immediately ahead. This begins to show up in the number of graduates in 1951 and even more in the anticipated number for 1952. The seminaries, according to their estimates for 1952 (and even allowing for a shrinkage of 10 per cent) will this June record the greatest number of graduates in their history. (See Chart 1.)

VI. EFFECTIVE MINISTERS: AGE DISTRIBUTION

Persons who have been admitted into Full Membership in an Annual Conference and are serving under episcopal appointment either as pastors or in detached service are termed "effective" ministers. A minister is automatically retired from the effective relationship at the first Annual Conference after reaching his seventy-second birthday, although he may retire at his own option any time after reaching sixty-five, or earlier for reasons of health and by Conference action. The effective relationship may also be broken by voluntary or involuntary withdrawal from the Conference or by taking the "supernumerary" relationship.

Few candidates are received into Full Connection before the age of twenty-three, but most are by the time they are thirty-five. As a matter of fact, the majority of Conferences have a maximum age limit (at 35, 40 or 45 years) beyond which a man may not become a member, although even these Conferences occasionally set aside their rule for a "special case." Assuming that there is continuous recruitment at a pace which will replace men as they retire or drop out, there should always be a larger percentage of the ministry in the five-year age span 38-42 than in any other five-year period. In each successive five-year age group, after the 38-42, the proportion would be somewhat less, because death and withdrawal remove more than are added.

On the bottom line of Table 6 is printed the approximate age distribution which should obtain if the total number of ministers is to remain constant over a generation and the accession rate is the same year after year. If, on the other hand, the number of effective ministers is to be increased, the proportion in the younger ages must be higher than that which is shown and in the later years correspondingly lower.

In 1943 the age distribution of effective ministers varied widely from the "distribution for normal replacement"

* Information was secured on the birth years of 14,313 ministers in the effective relationship. This may be considered an adequate and representative sample (87.4 per cent) of the 16,375 effective ministers reported by the Statistician of The Methodist Church for 1951. The 38 active bishops are not included in this total.) Age data (96.8 per cent complete) for the Central, North Central, Northeastern, and Western Jurisdictions were secured from the Chicago office of the Board of Pensions. In the South Central and Southeastern Jurisdictions, age data were secured through the good offices of the Bishops and Secretaries of the Annual Conferences. Coverage of 74.3 per cent was obtained from the South Central Jurisdiction and of 72.3 per cent from the Southeastern. In each of the six Jurisdictions the coverage was more complete than four years ago. The percentages shown in Chart 2 are based on the assumption that the age distribution of those for whom information was available in each Jurisdiction was representative of the age distribution for the entire body of effective ministers in that particular Jurisdiction.

shown in Table 6. The peak of the 1943 distribution occurred in the 53-57 year group; the next largest number was in 58-62 range. From the standpoint of the Church the age distribution at present is more satisfactory than it was a decade earlier. The majority of the men past 55 years of age, who constituted the topheavy part of the age spread in 1943, have already retired, and recruitment is increasing the proportion at the younger end of the scale. It should be pointed out that the figures for 1952 do not include the young men received on trial in 1950 and 1951.

Jurisdictional Age Distributions

History and traditions, recruitment practices, requirements for Admission to the Annual Conference unite to produce appreciable differences in the age distributions of effective ministers within the six Jurisdictions of The Methodist Church. Indeed, Conference differs from Conference. In order to give a more detailed picture of the distance each Jurisdiction has to go before achieving a "normal distribution" in the ages of ministers, charts have been prepared showing the percentage of effective ministers in each five-year age group.

Since 1948 three of the six Jurisdictions have lowered their average (median) age even before the full impact of the recruitment program has been felt. This median is the age which divides the younger half of the men in the ministry from the older half ; the lower the median, the larger the proportion of young men in the Jurisdiction. Table 7 shows the median age for each Jurisdiction as of the beginning of the present year and also for four years earlier. The sharpest decrease in median age was achieved by the South Central Jurisdiction. This was due even more to the abnormally heavy retirements of older men than to the recruitment of young men. In fact, there was a net decline of 117 in the total number of effective ministers from 1947 to 1951. This decline, which was forecast in both 1944 and 1948, would have been much steeper had not the Jurisdiction conducted what was perhaps the most effective recruitment program of any of the Jurisdictions. Median ages were also lowered in the North Central and Western Jurisdictions.

The Northeastern Jurisdiction showed the greatest loss in the number of effectives, due to the combination of an abnormally high retirement rate with a low recruitment rate, the total number of ministers declining in the quadrennium from 3,566 to 3,374 (5.4 per cent in four years). It is not surprising, therefore, that the median age of ministers rose from 48.2 to 48.8 years.

The Central Jurisdiction showed, proportionately, an even greater net loss, with the number of effective ministers dropping from 1,349 to 1,244 (7.8 per cent in four years). While no unit within The Methodist Church has room for complacency, the Central Jurisdiction is faced with the most serious problem. Of the 1,139 men in that Jurisdiction for whom age data were secured (91.6 per cent of all effectives) only 146 are under thirty-eight years of age. If the program of The Methodist Church for Negro people is to be an expanding, rather than a contracting one, there should be approximately twice as many ministers in this age range as we now have. The situation is probably due to a number of factors which should be of concern to the entire Church. Few young Negroes who have completed college training are interested in preparing for the ministry. This is in part due to the low salary which even seminary-trained young Negroes must expect (much less than that received by men with comparable training in the other Jurisdictions). Further, the ministry no longer has the same status that it once had among Negroes, particularly in urban areas and in the North. The 1948 study on the Methodist ministry showed that the proportion of college- and seminary-trained men in the Central Jurisdiction was less than half that found in other Jurisdictions. A poorly trained ministry is less able to interest college students and graduates in the pastorate as a lifework. The relative poverty, isolation, and sensitivity of the Negro group, all of which are involved in this problem, can be removed only through thoughtful planning and co-operation among both Negroes and whites.

Table 7, which supplements the Charts on the several Jurisdictions, has two significant summary figures for 1952. The first, the median age, has been discussed above. The other is the percentage of all effective ministers who are under 48 years of age, i.e., within the first half of the possible maximum period of service for a minister. Approximately 51 per cent of all effective ministers should be under 48 years of age if a "normal" distribution is to be maintained and the number of ministers is to remain stable, year after year. Since the Church is growing and aims to reach still more people, the percentage of ministers under 48 years of age should be proportionately higher. In other words, the "plus factor" above the minimum of 51 per cent needed to maintain a continuing program is an index of the growth potential. It will be noted that, although the median age in three Jurisdictions has declined in the last quadrennium, only one Jurisdiction has more than 51 per cent of its ministers in the youngest half of the service years: the Western with 54.2 per cent. The smallest proportion of young men is in the Central Jurisdiction, only 36.6 per cent of whose members are under 48 years of age. The average for the Church as a whole is 48.5 per cent, compared with 47.0 per cent at the beginning of 1948. The quadrennium ahead should see a pronounced increase in the number of younger men in the effective relation, with a corresponding rise in the proportion under 48 years of age.

VII. EFFECTIVE MINISTERS: RETIREMENT AND OTHER LOSSES

The dangerous lack of balance which has existed for more than a decade within The Methodist Church between recruitment and retirement (or, to speak more exactly, between accessions to the effective ministry and losses from it) is well illustrated in the figures which follow, showing the difference between the number admitted in Full Connection and the number lost from the effective relationship for various reasons. The serious net losses of 1949 and 1950 (similar to those of the preceding decade) would cause the greatest concern were it not for the fact that we know remedial influences, in the form of improved recruitment and increased Admissions on Trial, are already at work. The encouraging decrease in the rate of loss in 1951 is the first evidence of this improvement, in so far as the effective ministry is concerned. The current year will witness a change from a net loss to a net gain of between 100 and 200 men.

VIII. SUPPLY PASTORS: TYPES AND AGES

Supply Pastors perform an important function in The Methodist Church, serving as pastors of local churches which otherwise would have no pastor because the number of ministers under episcopal appointment is inadequate. These men and women are placed in charge of a church by a District Superintendent during the Conference year, to serve as the pastor. Many of them are well educated; some have not gone beyond grammar school; they range in age from young to old. If one is to understand the changes which occur in the Supply Pastorate it is necessary to recognize the different categories of persons within it. Even though the total number of these pastors may remain constant, the composition of the group may be greatly altered.

A thorough study of the Supply Pastorate, made in 1947, was reported to the General Conference in 1948. To discover what changes have taken place since then a follow-up study was undertaken during 1951. A simple questionnaire was mailed out (with a return business-reply envelope) to every Supply Pastor or to the person in charge of any church which was reported "left to be supplied" in five Jurisdictions (North Central, Northeastern, South Central, Southeastern, and Western). * Usable schedules were returned by 5,075 **

*The Central Jurisdiction was not included in this study, since an investigation of the Supply Pastorate in that Jurisdiction had been initiated independently. The data from the latter study (which was not parallel with the present one) have not been received and therefore cannot be included.

 The total number of schedules returned was 5,359—an excellent response of 76.5

Student pastors are persons who are continuing their educational training and who at the same time are serving as the pastor of a church. Nearly all of these expect to enter the Methodist ministry and join a Conference.

Retired ministers are members of an Annual Conference who are not eligible for regular appointment but who wish to continue to preach the gospel and are still able to serve as the pastor of a church. Since these men are still members of the Annual Conference, they have a somewhat different status than other types of Supply Pastors.

Conference members who are serving in a Conference other than their own are Methodist ministers who, usually for reasons of health, find it desirable to hold a church in some other section of the country. They generally are in a supernumerary relation with, or on leave of absence from, the home Conference. (Students who are members of a Conference but studying in a different section of the country are classified in this study as student pastors, and not under the present heading.)

Ministers in other denominations may be serving in federated churches on an agreement that the two or more denominations involved shall take turns in furnishing the minister, per cent to the 7,006 letters which were delivered. Of these returns, 39 either arrived too late to be included or were unusable, and 245 others were sent in by men who were in fact members On Trial or in Full Connection with the Annual Conference where they were serving. On the assumption that these latter men replied in the same proportion as the others, one must conclude that not fewer than 320 of the charges which were reported as "supplied or to be supplied" were actually filled by episcopal appointment between the time of the Annual Conference session and when the questionnaire was sent out—in most cases this interval was not more than a month or six weeks.

or they may have elected to preach to a Methodist congregation rather than to one of their own communion.

Part-time Supply Pastors are persons who serve a church while earning the major portion of their living in some other occupation. This may be farming, teaching, factory work, or business.

Full-time Supply Pastors (not including retired ministers or members of other Conferences or denominations) have been regarded as constituting the core of the Supply Pastorate. For many of them this is their lifework. Some are taking the regular Conference Course of Study and will in time qualify for Conference membership. Others, particularly those past 55 years of age, will remain in this status until retirement. The majority, however, remain as Supply Pastors for a relatively short span of time. Half of the 1,499 full-time Supply Pastors have served fewer than eight years.

It will be noted that the two largest groups of Supply Pastors are the student pastors and the full-time Supply Pastors. These together constitute two thirds of the entire number.

The period from 1947 to 1951 has brought a surprising change in the composition of the Supply Pastorate, as the percentages shown in Table 10 make clear. The greatest change is the sharp decrease in the number of full-time Supply Pastors. For this there are several reasons: Many who were Supply Pastors in 1947 have been stimulated to meet the educational requirements and have qualified for Conference membership. Some, because of the relatively poor salary on the charge and the availability of other jobs, have become "part-time" Supply Pastors (the major factor in accounting for the increase in the latter group). Still others have retired. Fewer have joined the ranks of full-time Supply Pastors than have dropped out. Instead, candidates have enrolled as student pastors, which of course is to the advantage both of themselves and of the Church. The increase in the percentage of student pastors is encouraging. It is a direct result of the recruitment program which has been influencing the Methodist ministry in so many respects and forecasts a larger number of effective ministers in the years ahead.

The increase in the number of retired members of Conferences who are serving as supply pastors reflects the larger number of men who are now in the retired relationship and also the rising cost of living, which has made it advantageous if not necessary for many of them to supplement their pension with the salary which may be secured by serving a small charge.

In brief, these changes since 1947 are related to the improved recruitment program of the Church and the national economic situation which has raised living costs and also increased the availability of well-paid jobs in all sections of the country.

The following table compares the age distribution of the student pastors and the full-time Supply Pastors, as shown both in the 1947 study and the current one. Here again the effect of the recruitment program of the past several years is shown in the sharp increase in the percentage of student pastors who are under 23 years of age. The war, which delayed millions of young men and women in their educational program, probably accounted for the disproportionate number in 1947 who were past 32. The present distribution by age is surely a more satisfactory one.

There has been less change in the age distribution of the full-time Supply Pastors. It is probable that a majority of those now under 42 years of age will attempt to qualify themselves for full Conference membership. They are in the age range where this is still possible and therefore they can be encouraged to seek the necessary training.

IX. SUPPLY PASTORS: ORDINATION AND TRAINING

The General Conference of 1948, returning to the older pattern in Methodism, restricted to persons who are ordained elder the authority to administer the communion service. An unordained pastor serving as an Accepted Supply may, on the recommendation of his District Superintendent and with the written consent of the Bishop in charge, administer the Sacrament of Baptism and also perform the marriage ceremony (if the laws of the State permit) within the bounds of his charge. However, in order to have a communion service for his people if he is not ordained elder, he must arrange to have an ordained minister in charge. This provision has created some misunderstanding and considerable debate. Consequently in the 1951 study of the Supply Pastorate it was thought desirable to gather information as to how many were ordained deacon and elder.

It was evident at the start that all retired ministers, nearly all members of other Annual Conferences, and most ministers from other denominations have full Ordination and therefore are able to administer the Lord's Supper. Few students who are in college have either deacon's or elder's orders; in contrast, a substantial proportion (one in three) of seminary students who are now serving charges have deacon's orders, but only a few (11 per cent) have received elder's orders.

Part-time Supply Pastors have shown little interest in qualifying themselves to secure Ordination, and although half of these persons have been serving churches for at least four years, only 24.8 per cent of them have deacon's orders and 16.6 per cent have elder's orders.

Of chief interest in the discussion has been the ability of the full-time or "career" Supply Pastor to conduct the Sacraments. The table below shows the per cent of such men in each of the five Jurisdictions who have deacon's orders and the per cent with elder's orders. Also shown are similar percentage figures for all classes of Supply Pastors.

Over half of the full-time Supply Pastors now have deacon's orders and approximately two out of five have elder's orders. There has been a decided increase of interest on the part of Supply Pastors in securing Ordination because of the restrictive legislation of the 1948 General Conference. Many noted on their returned questionnaires that they would be receiving elder's orders at the next session of the Annual Conference.* With continued encouragement on the part of the Commission on Ministerial Training and the members of the Annual Conferences, it may be expected that the number with deacon's orders and also elder's orders will continue to rise. The Commission on Ministerial Training has established nine Supply Pastors' Schools where most of the Supply Pastors who qualify for ordination take their courses of study. These schools are three to five weeks in length.

A further indication of the desire of "career" Supply Pastors to equip themselves to serve more effectively is the extent to which they participate in Pastors' Schools. All Supply Pastors were asked, "Did you attend a session of the Pastors' School in one of the past three years?" Approximately one fourth of the part-time Supply Pastors answered, "Yes." In contrast, almost two thirds of the full-time Supply Pastors had attended at least one school.

Out of the 1,446 full-time Supply Pastors who furnished information on the subject, 532 (36.8 per cent) stated that they had already completed the Course of Study and 588 (40.7 per cent) more are currently enrolled in it. This means that 326 have not begun this method of equipping themselves for pastoral service. A comparison with the 1947 study is illuminating. In 1947, 35.5 per cent of the full-time Supply Pastors reported that they had completed the prescribed Course of Study and 37.2 per cent were currently enrolled in it.

* These figures are for the "career" supply pastors and do not include retired ministers or members of other Conferences or denominations.

 All retired ministers and nearly all members of other Methodist Annual Conferences and ministers in other denominations have both deacon's and elder's orders. In contrast, the large majority of students do not.

 The smaller percentages of ordained Supply Pastors in the Southeastern Jurisdiction may be due either to less vigorous encouragement of these pastors to qualify for ordination or to greater readiness on the part of Annual Conferences to admit to membership men who have qualified for ordination as elder.

* Since this study was initiated in the early part of 1951, most of these men would by now have received ordination. It is reasonable to assume that currently a larger proportion of Supply Pastors are ordained than is indicated in the table.

X. RECRUITMENT NEEDS FOR THE NEXT FIVE YEARS

The preceding sections of the Report offer much encouragement. Nevertheless, it is evident that, because of anticipated retirements and other losses, as well as earlier inadequate recruiting, The Methodist Church will continue to operate with too few ministers until the great groundswell of new recruits replenishes the profession. Recognizing that the neglect of the decades cannot be fully remedied even with earnest efforts over a few years, what are the current recruitment needs of the Church?

Obviously it is impossible to arrive at an exact figure since the Church is so large, its records are not always accurately kept, and the factors involved may change with alterations in organizational policies as well as in social and economic conditions. Nevertheless, it is possible to secure a reasonably reliable estimate of the number of men who should be recruited to meet the growing needs of the Church.

First it is necessary to determine what the probable losses will be. The figures presented in Table 8 show, for the years 1949 to 1951, the number of persons lost to the effective relationship by location, withdrawal, retirement, and death while in the effective relationship. The statistics indicate an average loss of 732 men for each of the three indicated years. (No comparable data are available for earlier years.)

Another method of computation is possible: By deducting from the reported number of effective ministers in 1951 the total number admitted to Full Membership during the preceding quadrennium, one obtains the number of persons who were in the effective relationship in 1947 and were still in it in 1951. Deducting the latter number from the number of effective ministers in 1947 gives the total loss in the quadrennium. By this method the net loss in the quadrennium is shown to be 649. The higher of the two estimates of losses, 732, is employed in Table 13 in determining the minimum ministerial needs.*

Further, because of the growth of the total population of the United States, the rapid development of suburban areas around most metropolitan centers, and the unprecedented movement of population to sections of the south and far west, The Methodist Church has been steadily establishing

* It is not feasible to employ the technique used in the 1948 report to estimate recruitment needs by showing the anticipated losses by five-year age groups. There is ample evidence that a large number of men have been received into membership during the past quadrennium who were past fifty years of age, and some almost sixty. This large addition of older men makes it impossible to determine the percentage of loss by five-year brackets unless one has available the record for each man in each Conference, for 1947 and for 1951. Therefore, the alternative methods noted above are more satisfactory.

new congregations. In 1951 there were 991 more pastoral charges than five years earlier, or 198 per year. Each charge calls for one more minister. If financial conditions are favorable and additional ministers are available, churches on a number of Circuits would unquestionably like to become full-time charges, each with its own minister. Conversely, if the nation should be faced with a depression, especially in farmers' income, many charges would be recombined into Circuits. Therefore, in Table 13, where the minimum ministerial recruitment needs are estimated, the number 200 opposite "Personnel needs for new charges" should be adequate. While more than 200 new churches are established each year, others are being closed. The net gain is what the Church must take account of, and 200 is slightly above the average for 1947-1951, a period of unusual "prosperity."

In addition, there has been within the past five years an increase in the number of men serving under "special appointment." In the past year alone, 1950-1951, there was an increase of 103, largely due to the expansion of the armed forces and the consequent demand for more military Chaplains. The likelihood is that more, rather than fewer, Chaplains will be needed. Consequently, by conservative estimate fifty additional men will be placed under special appointment each year for some time to come. (If the world scene should suddenly be altered and the armed forces be decreased in size, the growing missionary program of the Church which would then be possible would more than absorb under special appointment any men who were released from the Chaplaincy.)

Finally, there is the problem of the Supply Pastorate. There has been a decrease in the number of charges "supplied or to be supplied" (Table 2), but the number is still too high. Methodism would be stronger if the present total of 7,436 were eventually cut by at least 1,500. This cannot and should not be done suddenly. But part-time, non-student Supply Pastors can be replaced to advantage and, as "career" Supply Pastors drop out or reach retirement, it would be well if in many cases their work could be taken over by full-time, trained and ordained members of an Annual Conference. To this end, it may be urged that a desirable recruitment program should provide for the replacement of at least 125 Supply Pastors per annum for the next ten years.

On the basis of the preceding estimates it is now possible to state the number of ministers who should be received into full membership in the Annual Conferences of the United States for each of the next five years.

TABLE 13

MINIMUM MINISTERIAL RECRUITMENT NEEDS
FOR METHODIST ANNUAL CONFERENCES IN THE UNITED STATES
1952-1956

Replacements to fill vacancies occasioned by retirement, death, location, and withdrawal (maximum estimate)	732
Personnel needs for new charges	200
Increased number under special appointment	50
Replacement of retiring supply pastors and others	125
Total	1,107

From 1940 to 1949 inclusive, 5,591 men were received On Trial. From 1942 through 1951 inclusive (allowing the two years which is the minimum time required on trial) 5,032 men were received into Full Connection, exactly 90 per cent of the number received On Trial two years earlier. If this 10 per cent loss rate between "On Trial" and "Full Connection" is typical and if 1,107 are to be received into Full Connection year by year, the Annual Conferences together should aim to receive On Trial approximately 1,200 men each year.

It is highly encouraging to note that the number received On Trial last year was 1,110—almost the number desired. If the rate continues to rise, this number may readily be provided during the present calendar year.

Equally encouraging is the safe prediction that in 1952 over 800, and in 1953 probably 1,000, will be Admitted into Full Conference Connection. This latter number is more than two times the average annual accession rate from unification through 1950.

The Methodist Church, faced with serious decline in the numbers of its ministry in 1944, has through wise and determined efforts reversed the trend. The future is one of bright promise—provided complacency is not allowed to return.

Thus far the emphasis in recruitment has necessarily been on securing an adequate number of candidates for the ministry. Now that the primary numerical requirements are on the way to being met increasing attention may well be directed to the selection and training of the men who are to become the pastors of our churches in the tomorrow.

No. 12

REPORT OF THE QUADRENNIAL COMMITTEE TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Pages 590-592.

Jesus Christ is Lord. He is the same yesterday, today and forever. In Him, the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. Through him God has spoken. In His name we are commissioned to preach the Gospel to every creature, in the certainty that He is with us always, and in the knowledge that if He be lifted up, He will draw all men unto Himself.

Under his leadership, the people called Methodists united in a Crusade for Christ and an Advance for Christ and His Church. These movements have spiritually blessed and strengthened the Church.

Under his guidance, we plan for a new quadrennium in which the spiritual life may be deepened, the local church strengthened, the missionary and educational enterprise of the Church extended, and evangelism made central in our endeavor. The spiritual values and the financial benefits derived from The Crusade for Christ and The Advance for Christ and His Church should be conserved and extended. Our people should be summoned to a deepening of their spiritual life and of their social consciousness. Our Boards and Commissions should intensify their work in the areas of service assigned them by the General Conference.

To these ends, we believe it wise to release the creative powers of the Areas, the Conferences, and the churches. Therefore, instead of following the pattern of the last two quadrenniums, in which the General Conference outlined a Quadrennial Program with particular emphases and united action, we recommend that the local church, the Annual Conference and the Area consider their primary needs and opportunities and upon their own initiative take such steps as are necessary to meet these needs and to capitalize the Church should co-operate in these creative endeavors upon these opportunities. The Boards and Commissions of and make their resources available to Area and Conference Programs.

One of the primary needs is that of Church Extension. The Area and Conferences should determine their programs, call upon the Board of Missions and Church Extension for co-operation, and set aside a reasonable percentage of their funds for Church Extension in sections less favored economically.

The World-wide yearnings of the people for peace should be brought to the Areas at such times as the Areas may determine, and the people should be educated in the principles of peace, the program for peace, and the support of the United Nations.

Similarly, such great emphases as stewardship, evangelism, our healing ministry, and social service, may become the endeavors of the Areas, as the Areas may determine.

Thousands of Methodist youth in our colleges and universities to whom the Church must turn for leadership tomorrow, summon the Areas to provide adequate support for our educational institutions and Wesley foundations, thereby insuring close relationship of Church and school, and with its youth in all institutions of learning.

We believe that significant contributions may be made to the Church at large when the thinking of the local church, the District, and the Conference is thus focused upon immediate and compelling problems. In such a procedure we believe the Church will benefit by experimentation and the Church-wide thought of its creative leadership. It is not too much to hope that the achievements of The Crusade for Christ and of The Advance for Christ and His Church may be matched and even surpassed in the coming quadrennium.

The response of our people to The Crusade for Christ and to The Advance for Christ and His Church during the past two quadrenniums is proof abundant that the spirit of militant Methodism has not departed from us.

By tradition and by conviction we are a crusading and advancing Church. When the Crusade challenged the Church, near the end of World War II, to contribute $25,000,000 toward rebuilding the institutions destroyed by the madness of war and to undergird our expanding ministry at home and abroad, we answered with $27,000,000. Four years later, The Advance was inaugurated. The Church was asked to contribute on a purely voluntary basis to the missionary program of the Church over and beyond regular World Service giving, as each local church might determine.

The General Conference expressed the hope that the benevolent giving for 1948-1952 would be at least equal the total for the quadrennium preceding. Again we have exceeded the goal that the General Conference set before us. During the quadrennium now ending The Advance has brought into the treasury of the Church for the support of our world-wide missionary enterprise approximately $14,000,000, not including Conference initiated Specials administered on the Conference level. During the two quadrenniums, 1944-1952, the General Treasury of the Church received, through The Crusade and The Advance, over and above all World Service contributions, a sum in excess of $41,000,000. This represents but a fraction of the financial ability of our people, but let it be said with emphasis that in each instance they have done what the Church asked of them—and more!

The world's need of Christ is no less urgent than four years ago. The commission of our risen Lord still rings in our ears: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." We believe that our people desire and expect that we shall keep the channels open through which they may continue to support the Church's expanding program at home and abroad.

Our recommendations to the General Conference follow.

I.

Section I, "Section III Promotion and Cultivation," and "Section IV The Advance Committee" of the Report of the Quadrennial Committee were amended and adopted by the adoption of Report No. 4 of the Special Committee of Six on the Report of the Survey Commission, which was adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, pages 570-584.

The Introductory Statement, pages 1690-1692, and Section II, page 1699 were adopted, May 5, 1952, See Journal, pages 590-592. Editor.

It is the judgment of your Committee that adequate provision for informing the membership of The Methodist Church, through a central promotional office of the work of our General Boards and Agencies and of their financial needs, should be written into the legislation of the Church, and that like provision should be made for continuing and conserving the essential features of the financial phase of the Advance. We accordingly recommend that Pars. 750-755, both inclusive, of the Discipline be deleted, and that immediately after Par. 749 the following be inserted:

Section III. PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION

¶ 750. To the end that duplication, overlapping, and competition may be eliminated in the financial promotion of the general causes of the Church and to the end that our people may be informed and may adequately support the General Agencies of the Church, there shall be a Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, which shall establish and maintain a Central Promotional Office for the purpose of promoting throughout the Church World Service, Advance specials, Week of Dedication, and other general financial causes except as otherwise directed by the General Conference. The Central Promotional Office shall operate under the authority and direction of the Commission on Promotion, and Cultivation, elected quadrennially and constituted as follows: Three Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops; one member each from the Division of the Local Church and the Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education; one each from the Joint Section (General) of the Division of Education and Cultivation and the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Board of Missions; one each from the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Temperance, the Board of World Peace, the Board of Social and Economic Relations, the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Publication, the Commission on Chaplains, the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, the Commission on Public Information, the Radio and Film Commission and The Advance Committee.

The Executive Secretaries of General Agencies (including one to be named by the Woman's Division of Christian Service and one to be named by the Board of Publication) shall be ex officio members of the Commission without vote.

¶ 751. The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation shall elect quadrennially the following officers: a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, and an Executive Director. The Executive Director shall be Secretary of the Commission, and the Executive Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance shall be its Treasurer.

¶ 752. The Executive Director of the Commission on Promotion shall, under the authority and direction of the Commission, co-ordinate and promote on a Church-wide basis World Service, Advance Specials, the Week of Dedication, and all other general financial causes except as otherwise directed by the General Conference. The Commission shall set the Director's salary, and shall make provision for office equipment and clerical help. The Director shall co-operate with the Executive Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance. He shall by such plans as shall be authorized by the Commission on Promotion, promote the general financial causes of the Church through the Bishops, District Superintendents, pastors, lay officials, and General, Jurisdictional, and Annual Conference Boards and Agencies.

¶ 753-A. In view of the fact that there is an inseparable relationship between education in stewardship and giving, we recommend that during the quadrennium the Boards of Education and Lay Activities, and the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation co-operate in a Church-wide program of Stewardship Education with special emphasis upon the stewardship of possessions which shall be closely related to giving to the Benevolence Causes which Methodists will be called upon to support. Stewardship of possessions shall be interpreted to mean that the tithe is the minimum standard for giving for Methodist members, and shall be promoted by the Board of Education and the Board of Lay Activities, by providing appropriate literature for the use of our churches and pastors in enlisting our Methodist people in tithing.

¶ 753-B. To this Commission are given the following responsibilities: to review at least annually, and as often in addition as may be necessary, the several and combined plans of the General Boards and Agencies for the production, and distribution of all free literature and promotional and resource periodicals (except Church School literature) for the purpose of co-ordinating the content, distribution, and timing of the release of such materials. In case of inability to work out adequate plans and procedures for content, timing, and distribution, the matter shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council.

This Commission shall study the problems of co-ordinating and simplifying the methods of and facilities for distribution of materials and may arrange for improved and more efficient distribution of literature.

To this Commission is referred the recommendation of the Survey Commission calling for a monthly local church Program Journal for Pastors, members of Commissions and Committees, Lay Leaders and other local church workers. This includes the recommendation regarding the merging of certain periodicals. This periodical shall contain program and resource materials for use in planning and carrying out a unified program in the local church. The Commission may employ a Secretary to serve as Editor of the Program Journal and such other literature as it may decide upon. The objectives, policies and content of the Program Journal shall be determined by the Commission in consultation with the General Agencies. The initial plans of the Commission regarding the merging of these periodicals into a local church Program Journal shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council for consideration and approval.

Instead of each General Board and Agency issuing separate materials, this monthly local church Program Journal shall contain in a co-ordinated way as much as possible of the combined program of the World Service Agencies. Correlation and representation shall be done equitably so far as the Agencies are concerned.

Bulletins and leaflets now being issued by General Boards and Agencies separately shall be incorporated in this monthly. What under present practices are separate general mailings of promotional letters, bulletins, pamphlets, and reports to pastors and other local church leaders shall be incorporated in this monthly.

An article relating to the work of a World Service Agency which is to appear in the monthly Program Journal shall receive editorial approval by that Agency before its publication.

The expenses of this Commission and of the editing, publishing and distribution of the local church Program Journal shall be paid out of World Service Funds and by constituent Agencies that do not participate in World Service Funds upon a pro rata basis to be determined by the Commission and approved by the Council on World Service and Finance. The Budget of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation recommended by the Council on World Service and Finance and approved by the General Conference shall be a prior charge against World Service Funds.

Section IV. THE ADVANCE COMMITTEE

(See Note under Section I)

¶ 753-C. The General Conference shall constitute a quadrennium Advance Committee as follows:

1. The Quadrennial Advance Committee shall be constituted by the Council of Bishops.
2. The Advance Committee shall have an advisory relationship to the Central Promotion office in connection with the promotion of Advance Specials, the Week of Dedication offering, and Conference-Initiated specials.
3. Any changes that are to be made in the Agencies participating in Advance Specials and the Week of Dedication, or the ratio of receipts shall be determined by the Council on World Service and Finance after consultation with the Advance Committee and the Agencies concerned.
4. The Budget for Promotion of Advance projects shall be recommended by the Advance Committee to the Council on World Service and Finance for its consideration and approval. The approved Budget shall be a prior claim on receipts.

¶ 753-D. The Advance Committee shall have general administrative oversight of The Advance program, in accordance with the following plan and procedure: The Advance appeal shall consist of Advance Specials, Week of Dedication Offerings, and Conference Initiated Specials.

¶ 753-E. The participating Agencies in Advance Specials shall be the Division of World Missions, the Division of National Missions, of the Board of Missions, and the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

1. As far as practicable Advance Specials shall be specific objects that may be visualized and described. Each such special shall be approved by The Advance Committee (or by a Committee on Specials appointed by it) on recommendation of the Agency concerned. An Annual Conference, local church, or individual may assume an undesignated foreign, home, or MCOR special, in which case the Agency concerned shall determine where such special shall be allocated, shall inform the donor where his gift has been invested, and shall as far as practicable establish communication between donor and recipient.

2. Contributions to general Advance Specials shall be sent by the local church Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer. The Conference Treasurer shall make remittance each month to the General Treasurer. The General Treasurer shall remit monthly to the respective participating Agencies the amount received for each.

3. Each participating Agency shall administer the Advance Specials contribution received by it in harmony with procedures approved by The Advance Committee, and shall report the same to The Advance Committee at such intervals and in such detail as the Committee may request. The Advance Committee shall report in detail to the 1956 General Conference.

4. Each participating Agency shall, on receipt of a general Advance Special contribution, communicate with the donor, whether Conference, local church, or individual, and as far as practicable establish communication between donor and recipient.

¶ 753-F. The Week of Dedication appeal shall be under the general supervision of The Advance Committee, in accordance with the following directives:

1. The participating agencies shall be the Division of World Missions, the Division of National Missions, and the Woman's Division of Christian Service, Board of Missions, and the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, and they shall participate by ratios determined by The Advance Committee.

2. The objects included in the Week of Dedication askings and the amount designated for each shall be approved by The Advance Committee on recommendations from the respective agencies. The recommendations from the participating Agencies shall include only urgent situations not otherwise provided for, and except in the case of the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief and Crusade scholarships (if any) shall include non-recurring items only; and in each instance assurance shall be given that the amount requested will complete the project.

3. Week of Dedication offerings shall be promptly remitted by the local church Treasurer to the Conference Treasurer, who shall remit monthly to the General Treasurer. The General Treasurer shall remit to the participating Agencies in accordance with the ratios determined by The Advance Committee. Each participating Agency shall administer funds so received by the following rules: Each object under its administration included in the Week of Dedication Budget, in the order of its priority, as determined by The Advance Committee, shall be provided for in full the amount allotted it before any amount is apportioned to the object next succeeding.

4. The Expense Budget for the Week of Dedication shall be approved annually by The Advance Committee, and such Expense shall be a prior claim on the Week of Dedication offering.

5. The Week of Dedication shall be observed annually during the week preceding the first Sunday in Lent. The first Sunday in Lent shall be designated as Dedication Sunday. The spiritual emphases of the Week of Dedication, as determined by The Advance Committee, shall receive prior consideration.

¶ 753-G. Conference-Initiated Specials for Missionary and Church Extension causes within the Conference are authorized for each Annual Conference as each may determine.

1. Conference-Initiated Specials for objects within an Annual Conference shall be approved by the Conference Board of Missions.

2. Conference-Initiated Specials may be administered by the Conference Board of Missions or they may be administered by the Division of National Missions on request of the Annual Conference concerned. When such Specials are administered by the Division of National Missions they shall be administered and reported separate from General Advance Specials administered by the Division.

3. In Annual Conference report forms spaces shall be provided for reporting "Advance Specials (General)" and "Conference-Initiated Specials," and local churches shall report accordingly.

4. An Annual Conference may promote Conference-Initiated Specials by a Conference-wide campaign to provide for its own church extension needs. It is recommended that each Conference undertaking such a Conference-wide appeal for church extension within its bounds set aside 10 per cent of the amount received for the weaker and more urgent situations outside the Conference, such funds to be remitted to the Division of National Missions, and administered by it as a General Special.

¶ 753-H. The following general directives shall be observed in the promotion and administration of The Advance:

1. In the appeal and promotion of Advance Specials and Week of Dedication offerings there shall be no Area or Conference goals or quotas, except as they may be set by an Area or Conference for itself.

2. The Treasurer of the Advance shall be the Executive Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance.

3. The expense of promotion for Advance Specials shall be borne by the respective participating Agencies in proportion to the amount received by each in Advance Specials contributions. The causes of The Advance shall be correlated with other financial appeals and shall be promoted by the Central Promotional Office.

4. The appeal for Advance Specials shall be channeled as heretofore through Bishops, District Superintendents, and pastors, the details of the procedure to be determined by the Central Promotional Office in consultation with The Advance Committee.

5. Should a clear emergency arise, any feature of this entire plan may be altered by The Advance Committee on the approval of a majority of the Council of Bishops and of the Council on World Service and Finance.

6. In each Annual Conference, the Bishop, the District Superintendents, the Conference Missionary Secretary, the President and Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Missions, and the President of the Conference Board of Lay Activities, the Chairman of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training, the President and Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Evangelism, the President and Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, the President of the Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Executive Secretary of the Joint Division of Education and Cultivation of the Conference Board of Missions, and six other laymen, three of whom shall be women, to be selected by the Bishop and District Superintendents, shall constitute the Conference Advance Committee. It shall be the special duty of the District Superintendents to encourage the churches in their respective Districts to undertake an Advance Special in some amount, either General or Conference-Initiated, and they shall also further and promote the Week of Dedication in their respective Districts, giving full emphasis to both its spiritual and financial aspects. Each Annual Conference may enlarge its Conference Advance Committee as it may determine.

7. Each District Superintendent shall at each Quarterly Conference ask for a report from the pastor covering the following items: (1) What Advance Specials and Conference-Initiated Specials have been assumed by the church or churches of this pastoral charge, and in what amount; (2) What amount has been collected on the same this Conference year, and what amount has been remitted to the Conference Treasurer; (3) What is the report concerning the observance of the Week of Dedication.

II.

Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Pages 590-592.

The Committee recommends that the General Conference take the following action with reference to the continuance of the Advance emphasis on Christian family life:

The National Conference on Family Life, which was one of the most significant projects of the teaching and preaching endeavor of the Advance, made an extraordinary contribution to the Church.

We therefore recommend that the organization of a Family Life Committee shall be committed to the Division of the Local Church of the Board of Education. The Staff of the Division of the Local Church of the Board of Education and two representatives from each of the following Boards and Agencies shall constitute this Family Life Committee: Board of Evangelism; Division of World Missions, Division of National Missions, and the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Board of Missions; Board of Temperance; Board of Lay Activities; Board of Hospitals and Homes.

The Council of Bishops shall name one of its number as Chairman of the Family Life Committee. The Committee thus constituted may enlarge its membership as it may determine.

This Family Life Committee shall promote and administer a special program of Family Life emphases during the ensuing quadrennium, including a National Methodist Conference on Family Life.

We further recommend that $35,000 of the balance held by the teaching and preaching endeavor of the Advance for Christ and His Church shall be appropriated and remitted to the Division of the Local Church of the Board of Education as a Special Fund restricted for this purpose, as already approved by The Advance Committee.

REPORT NO. 1

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION

Subject, Co-ordinating Council

Adopted April 28, 1952. See Journal, Pages 261, 264, 272, 293, 296, 297, 572.

Your Committee recommends the following changes in the proposed legislation regarding the Co-ordinating Council as it appears in The Daily Christian Advocate on April 23, page 27, beginning with paragraph 1 at the bottom of column 2:

Amend paragraph 1 by deleting the first two lines and substituting "On request of a General Board or Agency, or of an Annual Conference, it shall review"; by deleting lines 1, 2, 3 and 4 at the top of column 3 and substituting in their place "and make recommendations to the Boards or Agencies involved for resolving such issues. In the event of non-compliance, the recommendations shall be reported to the next General Conference"; by deleting in line 5, column 3, the words "such decisions" and substituting in their place the word "recommendations," so that paragraph 1, as amended shall read:

Paragraph 1: "On request of a General Board or Agency, or of an Annual Conference, it shall review questions involving overlapping in activity, or lack of co-operation among or within General Agencies of The Methodist Church, and make recommendations to the Boards or Agencies involved for resolving such issues. In the event of non-compliance, the recommendations shall be reported to the next General Conference. A record of all recommendations shall be kept; a report of each shall be forwarded to the Council of Bishops, the Council on World Service and Finance, and the Secretary of the General Conference."

Amend paragraph 2, column 3, by deleting in the first line the words "continue the" preceding "study," and the word "of" following "study," so that the paragraph as amended shall read:

Paragraph 2: "It shall study the general organizational structure of The Methodist Church and recommend to the General Conference such changes as it considers essential to maintain effective and economical operation."

Amend paragraph 3, column 3, by deleting the word "and" before "the Executive Secretary," and by deleting the words "or other administrative officer" following "Executive Secretary," and by inserting after the word "Agency" the following phrase "and the President and the Treasurer of the Woman's Board of Christian Service," so that the paragraph as amended shall read:

Paragraph 3: "In consultation with the Council of Bishops, the Executive Secretary of each General Agency, and the President and the Treasurer of the Woman's Board of Christian Service, it shall formulate and present to the General Conference, for its action and determination, plans for a unified, on-going program for the Church, including long range objectives. The financial objectives shall be recommended by the Council on World Service and Finance to the General Conference for its action."

Add a new paragraph reading as follows:

"The expenses of the Co-ordinating Council shall not exceed a total of Ten thousand dollars annually, and shall be paid out of the General Administration Fund."

CHARLES C. PARLIN (*).

REPORT NO. 2

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION

Subject, Council on World Service and Finance

Adopted April 30, 1952. See Journal, Pages 333-336.

Your Committee recommends the following changes in the proposed legislation regarding the Council on World Service and Finance as it appears in the Daily Christian Advocate on April 23, Page 28:

Defer for later consideration: Paragraph 735, column 1, under Paragraph 737, column 2, the first paragraph in bold face type, the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund in paragraph 1 and paragraph 2.

Paragraph 5 in column 3 is deleted.

Renumber paragraph 6 to be paragraph 5.

Delete paragraph 7 and substitute as paragraph 6 the following:

"Maintain and supervise the Statistical Office of The Methodist Church. It shall be the duty of the Statistical Office to prepare the material for the General Minutes, and such other related publications and yearbooks as may be ordered by the Council. The specialized services of the Statistical Office shall be available to any official agency of the Church for the conduct of special surveys, researches, and studies as may be required in its work, by agreement with and subject to the approval of the Council. The General Minutes, and other materials authorized by the Council, shall be printed by The Methodist Publishing House.

"The expense of the Statistical Office, including the printing of the General Minutes and other approved publications shall be borne by the General Administration Fund."

Renumber paragraph 8 to be paragraph 7 and insert after the word "school" in the fifth line "and forms used by the Woman's Board of Christian Service)," so that paragraph 7 as amended shall read:

"Prepare and edit all official statistical blanks, record forms, and record books required for use in The Methodist Church (except official records for use in the local Church School and forms used by the Woman's Board of Christian Service.) In the preparation of these forms the Council on World Service and Finance shall consult with a Committee which shall utilize the experience of persons who have served on the Commission on Records, Forms and Statistical Blanks (Par. 1139, 1948 Discipline), and which in its composition shall include representatives of the Council of Bishops, of Annual Conferences, of The Methodist Publishing House, and with representatives of General Boards whose programs are directly involved. All official blanks, record forms, and record books required for use in The Methodist Church shall be printed and published by The Methodist Publishing House."

Renumber present paragraph 9 to be paragraph 8.

Delete paragraph 10 and add a substitute paragraph which should be numbered 9, to read as follows:

"The Council on World Service and Finance shall operate, under the supervision of its Executive Secretary, a Department known as 'The File of Pastors and Church Officials.' It shall be the function of this Department to maintain an accurate record of the main addresses of all Bishops, ministers, in the effective relation. Supply pastors (including retired ministers) serving charges, Conference Lay Leaders, and such lists of General, Jurisdictional, Conference and District Boards, Commissions or Committees and such officers of the same as may be deemed necessary.

"The cost of maintaining such a file shall be a charge against the Central Treasury. The Executive Secretary is authorized and directed to make equitable charges for its use by various bodies. No use of the file shall be permitted for others than authorized bodies or officers of The Methodist Church."

Add:

"The Council on World Service and Finance may maintain a Personnel Registration Bureau, which shall serve as a clearing center for persons seeking positions with the General Agencies and supply information about such candidates to interested Agencies."

Refer to Page 45 of the Daily Christian Advocate for April 23, under the heading PART V, Temporal Economy, Chapter II, Church Finance. Your Committee recommends the following changes in the proposed legislation regarding the Council on World Service and Finance, beginning in column 2:

Under Paragraph 733, postpone for further consideration number (4), the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund.

Under Paragraph 737, section 1, amend the second paragraph by eliminating after the word "and" in the 5th line the words "that of" and inserting the word "for" so that the paragraph as amended shall read:

"The Council shall submit to each quadrennial session of the General Conference for its action and determination a Budget of annual expense for its own operation and for the World Service Agencies for the ensuing quadrennium. The expenses of the Council, including the expense of the Central Office, shall be a first claim against the World Service Fund, the General Administration Fund, the Episcopal Fund, and the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, and the total . . . (end of Par. 737, Sec. 1.)"

Under Paragraph 737, section 3, eliminate in line 5 after the word "judgment" the words "or that of the Co-ordinating Council" so that as amended Paragraph 737, section 3, shall read:

"The Council on World Service and Finance shall withhold approval of any item or items for inclusion in the World Service Budget which in its judgment represents unnecessary duplication of activities or programs within a World Service Agency or between two or more of them."

Under Paragraph 737, section 8, on page 46, insert after the word "perform" in the second line the words "or arrange facilities for handling," omit "(See Sec. 10.)" and at the end of the paragraph insert the sentence "The cost of such service shall be charged to the Agency," so that Paragraph 737, section 8, as amended shall read:

"After consultation with the Agency, it shall perform or arrange facilities for handling the treasury functions for any World Service Agency which is not large enough to have a full-time Treasurer. The cost of such service shall be charged to the Agency" whose financial policies are not approved by the Council.

Under Paragraph 737, section 9, insert in the first line the words "On the request of a World Service Agency," delete after the word "to" in the second line the words "any World Service Agency" and insert after the word "to" the pronoun "it"; eliminate the 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th lines and the first word of the 10th line and "(See Sec. 10.)" so that Paragraph 737, section 9, as amended shall read:

"On the request of a World Service Agency it shall hold and invest funds allocated to it when such funds are not intended for current expenditure by that Agency. It shall also hold and invest funds for any General Agency which does not have an investment program approved by the Council on World Service and Finance."

Delete Paragraph 737, section 10.

Under Paragraph 737, renumber sections 11 through 14 as 10 through 13.

Under Paragraph 737, new section 10 (present section 11) add at the end "Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as limiting or superseding the authorization granted to World Service Agencies by Paragraph 744 of the 1948 Discipline."

In column 2 under SECTION II, The World Service Fund, eliminate in Paragraph 742 the first paragraph in bold face type, postpone consideration of last paragraph in column 2 beginning "The Division of Promotion," etc.; in column 3 eliminate the first full paragraph in bold face type beginning "Up to the full amount," etc.

Under Paragraph 771 at the bottom of column 3 eliminate the words "revise so as to read": and all of the paragraph in bold face type and substitute therefor the following:

"Par. 771, No change." (This retains Par. 771 of 1948 Discipline.)

CHARLES C. PARLIN (*).

REPORT NO. 3

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION

Subject, Revised Legislation

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Pages 389, 399, 411, 413, 584, 586.

(See Page 28 Daily Christian Advocate, April 23, 1952.)

Inter-Board Commission on the Local Church

Section I. Organization of the Inter-Board Commission

There shall be an Inter-Board Commission on the Local Church, whose function shall be to act as the co-ordinator of the policies and activities of its Boards, namely:

Board of Education

Division of the Local Church

Editorial Division

Division of Educational Institutions

Department of Secondary and Higher Education

Department of Ministerial Education

Board of Evangelism

Board of Lay Activities

The Inter-Board Commission in carrying out its function of co-ordinating the work of the Boards which it represents shall see that plans and programs relating to the local church and to higher education do not overlap or duplicate in activity and literature. Any questions between the constituent Boards of overlapping or duplication which cannot be resolved by the Inter-Board Commission on the Local Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activities between one of the constituent Boards and another Agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Where in the judgment of the Inter-Board Commission it would facilitate co-ordination among its Boards, the Commission may authorize Inter-Board Staff Committees.

The membership of the Inter-Board Commission on the Local Church shall consist of eighteen members, six from each of the three Boards: the Chairman and five other persons from among the membership of its Executive Committee elected by each Board.

Implementing the work of the Inter-Board Commission on the Local Church there shall be a Secretarial Council, consisting of the Executive Secretaries of the Divisions of the constituent Boards or of the Board itself if there are no Divisions within the Board. It shall be the function of this Council to facilitate co-operation among the Boards in the creative planning of programs and in avoiding overlapping of function or duplication of activity. The Chairmanship of the Secretarial Council shall rotate annually among the several Secretaries.

Proposed changes concerning Chapter VIII in the legislation of the Survey Report, as it appears in the Daily Christian Advocate beginning on page 41 and continuing through page 43—

The Conference Committee of Six proposes that the same terminology which appears in the 1948 Discipline be here continued. The effect of this is to substitute in the legislation as it appears in the Daily Advocate the word "Division" for the word "Board," so that Chapter VIII deals with the Division of Educational Institutions, which is to continue as a part of the Board of Education and parallel to the Division of the Local Church and the Editorial Division.

Therefore, throughout the legislation as it appears in the Daily Advocate substitute:

Division for Board and Department for Division.

Further changes:

Page 41, col. 3, Par. 1351, in the second line of the bold-face type, add, after the word "Institutions," the words "within the Board of Education."

Page 41, col. 3, defer action on the paragraph beginning at the foot of the column and continuing to page 42. Also defer action on the following paragraph, which begins, "The Board shall convene. . ."

Page 42, col. 1, Par. 1356, place a period after the words "no change" and delete the rest of the sentence.

Par. 1359, place a period after the words "no change" and delete the rest of the sentence.

Par. 1366, place a period after the words "no change" and delete the rest of the sentence.

Page 42, col. 2, Section II, change title to "Department of General Education." Defer action on the first two paragraphs under the section title.

In the third paragraph, substitute "The Department of Secondary and Higher Education" for "it" at the beginning of the first line, so that the paragraph begins, "The Department of Secondary and Higher Education shall elect a Chairman."

At the end of the fourth paragraph, which begins "The Director of the Department . . . ,” defer action on the words “subject to confirmation by the Board of Cultivation.”

Page 42, col. 2, Par. 1353, line 3, after the word “Institutions” add “and the Board of Education.”

Page 42, col. 3, line 1, substitute “Board of Education” for “it.” line 2, substitute “this” for “its,” and after “Budget” add the words “as part of its total Budget.”

Page 42, col. 3, line 6, substitute “Board of Education” for “General Conference.”

The total Paragraph (1353) as amended will then read: The department shall prepare a Budget for its work which it shall submit to the Division of Educational Institutions and the Board of Education to be reviewed and passed upon. Subsequently the Board of Education shall submit this proposed Budget as part of its total Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance (see Par. 737, sec. 2, 4, p. 45 below). The Division shall disburse such funds as are approved by the Board of Education for the maintenance and promotion of the work committed to it.”

Page 43, col. 1, lines 1, 2, substitute “Division of the Local Church” for “Board of Christian Education.”

Page 43, col. 1, Par. 1364, delete the last three and one-half lines and place a period after the word “paragraph.”

Void the legislation adopted on Thursday, May 2, from Report No. 3 of the Committee of Six beginning in the middle of page 3. “Page 43, Col. 1, Section III,” and ending with “World Service and Finance” at the end of the next paragraph.

The legislation voided is as follows, in italics:

Page 43, col. 1, Section III, change title to “Department of Ministerial Education.”

Defer action on the last two paragraphs in that column, dealing with the composition of the Department and the Annual Meeting.

Page 43, col. 2, paragraph marked “New,” lines 2, 3, add, after the word “Secretary,” the words “of the Division.”

In the next paragraph which begins “The Department shall prepare . . . ,” line 3, after the word “Institutions” add “and the Board of Education.”

In line 4, substitute “the Board of Education” for “it.”

In line 5, substitute “this” for “its.”

The first sentences of the paragraph, as amended, will then read: “The Department shall prepare a Budget for its work which it shall submit to the Board of Educational Institutions and the Board of Education to be reviewed and passed upon. Subsequently the Board of Education shall submit this proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance.

and substitute for it, the following:

1384. In the Division of Educational Institutions there shall be a Department of Ministerial Education which shall provide for the training of the ministry of the Church. The Department shall be composed of 12 persons, 6 Bishops, and 6 Ministers, selected from the membership of the Division. The Division shall have authority to select 5 advisory members from the faculties of our Methodist Theological Schools to assist in preparing the prescribed Courses of Study. The Division shall also have authority to select from the Methodist Theological Association 6 of its members as advisory members to consider with it the fiscal affairs of the theological seminaries, but these shall not be present when allocations for theological schools are under consideration.

The Division shall elect, upon nomination of the Executive Secretary, a Director of Ministerial Education, who shall serve as a liaison officer between the Division and Methodist theological schools. He shall be responsible for the promotion of theological education in the Church and maintaining the relationship with and among Methodist theological schools.

The Division shall elect a Director who shall have primary responsibility for the program of in-service training, including the supervision of the Conference Course of Study and the Pastor's School in Annual Conferences in the United States, its territories and dependencies, and Correspondence Courses.

1385. The Division of Educational Institutions shall recommend to the Council on World Service and Finance, as an item apart from its own Budget the amount of financial support which should be allocated for Methodist theological schools and the "in-service training program." It shall have the further responsibility of recommending to the Council on World Service and Finance the distribution of such funds among the accredited schools of theology related to The Methodist Church.

1386. The work of the Department of Ministerial Education shall be supported from the General Benevolences of the Church, the amount to be determined by the authoritative body.

1387. The Department of Ministerial Education shall prescribe the Course of Study to be pursued by those applying for License to Preach, for Orders as Local Preachers, and for Admission on Trial, respectively; also a Course of Study extending through four years to be pursued by those who have been Admitted on Trial in the Annual Conference, and a simplified Four-year Course which, if the Annual Conference shall so determine, may be used for the Accepted Supply Pastors in lieu of the regular Conference Course. (See Course of Study under Appendix.) It shall recommend Courses of Reading and also provide Graduate Correspondence Courses of Study for preachers who have finished their undergraduate Courses of Study.

1388. The Department insofar as it relates to in-service training, shall have a direct relationship with the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications (See Pars. 639-42). It shall co-operate with these and other Conference Boards in organizing, financing, and conducting short-term Schools for Ministers, which shall be known as Pastors' Schools. These Schools shall provide instruction for all ministers and where advisable shall offer work in the curriculum of the Courses of Study for Undergraduate and Accepted Supply Pastors.

Within a Conference the administration of these Courses of Study, which shall require extensive written work in addition to instruction in a Pastor's School, shall be under the supervision of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training.

Where so agreed by the Department and the Boards involved, the supervision of this work may be delegated to a Correspondence School. All such Correspondence Schools shall be related to one of our established schools of theology. The Director of each Correspondence School shall be elected quadrennially by the Commission on Ministerial Training on nomination of the faculty of the related school of theology. The assisting Staff shall be chosen by the Director from the active members of the faculty of the school.

1389. The Department of Ministerial Training, the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations, and the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall co-operate in the development of effective methods of selective recruiting for the ministry. The Boards shall exercise control over the numbers to be enlisted in order to provide an adequate supply of trained ministers.

The Department, in co-operation with the theological schools, shall continue study on the ministry, and report on the subject to each General Conference.

Page 43, col. 2, Par. 1389, line 1, substitute "Division of the Local Church" for "Board of Education."

Board of Social and Economic Relations

The Committee of Six recommends the adoption of Section IV, Board of Social and Economic Relations as set forth in the proposed legislation DCA-36, columns 2 and 3, and DCA-37, column 1, subject to the following:

1. Defer consideration of the membership of the Board.
2. Eliminate the 3rd paragraph of column 2, relating to annual meetings.
3. Delete the 5th paragraph of column 3 and substitute:
"The Board shall prepare its Budget and present it to the Council on World Service and Finance."
4. Change the wording in the last paragraph of column 3, so that the terminology of other agencies corresponds with names as adopted by the General Conference.

Inter-Board Commission on Christian Social Relations

(See Page 35, Daily Christian Advocate, April 23, 1952.)

Section I. Organization of the Inter-Board Commission

There shall be an Inter-Board Commission on Christian Social Relations, whose function shall be to act as the co-ordinator of the policies and activities of its Boards, namely:

Board of Temperance.

Board of World Peace.

Board of Social and Economic Relations.

The Inter-Board Commission in carrying out its function of co-ordinating the work of the Boards which it represents shall see that plans and programs in the fields of temperance, peace, and social and economic relations do not overlap or duplicate in activity and literature. Any questions between the constituent Boards of overlapping or duplication of activities which cannot be resolved by the Inter-Board Commission on Christian Social Relations shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activities between one of the constituent Boards and another Agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Where in the judgment of the Inter-Board Commission it would facilitate co-ordination of its Boards, the Commission may authorize Inter-Board Staff Committees.

The changes in the legislation which are now proposed by the Committee of Six, retaining the general structure of the present Board of Education, make it possible to delete all of the legislation which had been proposed under Section IV (University Senate) and Section V (Jurisdictional and Annual Conference Boards) which appears in col. 3 on page 43 of the Daily Advocate.

The membership of the Inter-Board Commission on Christian Social Relations shall consist of eighteen members, six from each of the three Boards: the Chairman and five other persons from among the membership of its Executive Committee elected by each Board.

Implementing the work of the Inter-Board Commission on Christian Social Relations there shall be a Secretarial Council consisting of the Executive Secretaries of the three Boards. It shall be the function of this Council to facilitate co-operation among the Boards in creative planning of programs and in avoiding overlapping of function or duplication of activity. The Chairmanship of the Secretarial Council shall rotate annually among the three Executive Secretaries.

Board of Missions and Church Extension

1. Delete the words "Church Extension" from the name of this Board wherever it appears in the Discipline.
2. Change the name "Division of Foreign Missions" to "Division of World Missions" wherever it appears in the Discipline.
3. Change the name "Division of Home Missions and Church Extension" to "The Division of National Missions" wherever it appears in the Discipline.
4. Change the name "Division of Education and Cultivation" to "Joint Section on Education and Cultivation" at all places where it appears in the Discipline.
5. In the event seeming insurmountable legal difficulties should arise in connection with the foregoing proposed changes in corporate names the matter shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council which shall have power to determine suitable names.

Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief

The Board of Missions shall have the responsibility for supervising the administration of the work of Overseas Relief. The Board shall constitute a Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, which shall carry on the functions, activities and relationships of the present Committee for Overseas Relief. Financial appeals for this cause shall be in the name of Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

Amend Par. 2009 (1) of the 1948 Discipline by substituting "1952-56" for "1948-52" in lines 2 and 3; by changing "The General Commission on World Service and Finance" in lines 3 and 4 to "The Council on World Service and Finance"; by inserting "after consultation with the Board of Missions" before the word "decide" in line 4, so that the Paragraph when amended shall read:

"The Committee for Overseas Relief shall be continued; provided that, if at any time during the quadrennium of 1952-56 the Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance decide after consultation with the Board of Missions that the specific work of the Committee is no longer needed, the Committee shall be discharged and its responsibilities and assets be transferred to such Agency as those two bodies may determine.

Delete Par. 2009, (2)

Par. 2009—no change in (3), (4) and (5).

Annual Assembly

In order to try out the recommendation of the Survey Commission for an annual assembly of World Service Agencies and the Woman's Division of Christian Service, there shall be held during the 1952-56 quadrennium at least one assembly at which the programs of the Agencies are presented with the understanding that at the same time and place each Board or Agency will meet separately, either prior to or after the assembly for the transaction of its business. After consultation with the Executive officers of the General Agencies and the Council of Bishops, the Council on World Service and Finance shall fix the date and place of the assembly.

REPORT NO. 3-A SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION MATTERS RELATING TO MEMBERSHIP OF GENERAL AGENCIES

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Pages 413-426.

1. Tenure on any Division, Board, Commission, or Council shall hereafter be limited to eight consecutive years, this provision to begin with 1952 but not to be retroactive.

2. No person who receives compensation for services rendered or commissions of any kind from a Board or other Agency shall be eligible for membership.

3. Whether in principle there shall be any reduction in the size of membership of the General Boards and Agencies?

4. Whether a Bishop may serve as a member of either the Co-ordinating Council or the Council on World Service and Finance and at the same time be a member of a General Agency?

5. Whether the Bishops who are not members of the Coordinating Council, or the Council on World Service and Finance, may be members of the Board of Missions and the Board of Education, in order that the Committee of Six may bring you a specific recommendation.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION

Subject, General Agencies—Membership and Functions

Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Pages 570-588.

(See Pages 26 and 27 of the Daily Christian Advocate April 23, 1952)

The membership of the General Agencies of The Methodist Church shall be constituted as to total number as shown below. Specific legislation covering details of membership of each Agency shall be published in the Daily Christian Advocate and thereafter considered and approved by the General Conference.

General provisions:

1. Except for Bishops, a person may not serve on more than one Board or Agency; a Bishop may not serve at the same time on more than three Agencies, except this does not apply to a Division of a Board, the Commission on Chaplains, the Commission on Camp Activities, and an Inter-Agency Commission. (See number 5 below.)
2. No person who receives compensation for services rendered or commissions of any kind from a Board or other Agency shall be eligible for membership on that Board or Agency.
3. Tenure on any Division, Board, Commission, or Council (Council of Bishops and Judicial Council excepted) shall hereafter be limited to eight consecutive years. This provision shall not be retroactive.
4. A Bishop elected to the Council on World Service and Finance shall not serve on any other Board or Agency during his term on the Council.
5. In assigning members of the Council of Bishops to membership on the General Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church, the Council of Bishops is hereby authorized to designate Alternate Members, with the privilege of vote, in case the Regular Members assigned to the various General Boards and Agencies, are unable to be present.

Motion for Amendment of Discipline Regarding Co-ordinating Council

6. Legislation adopted by the General Conference on April 28, 1952 (on the basis of Report No. 1 of the Special Committee of Six on the Report of the Survey Commission, distributed to the delegates in mimeographed form), is hereby amended by striking out of the second paragraph of said legislation the following sentence:

"Members shall serve until their successors are appointed or elected, and during their term of service shall not be eligible to membership on any other Agency."

and by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"Members shall serve until their successors are appointed or elected. No person, other than a Bishop, shall be eligible to membership on any other General Agency. In a review of any question involving overlapping of activity or lack of co-operation among or within the General Agencies, a Bishop who is a member of an Agency involved shall be disqualified on the particular review."

Nothing in the Report shall be construed to prevent this General Conference from considering on its merit Report No. 9 of the General Standing Committee on the State of the Church in reference to establishing a Board of Social and Economic Relations.

There shall be not to exceed eighteen Bishops included in the membership of the Board of Missions, and in addition six Bishops serving overseas, designated by the Council of Bishops, who shall have the status of members of the Board in meetings which they may be able to attend, subject to such travel regulations as are provided in the Discipline for overseas Bishops, and not to exceed seventeen Bishops included in the membership of the Board of Education. These memberships shall be determined by the Council of Bishops. (Paragraphs 1172 and 1326). The following is recommended for incorporation in the Discipline under Chapter II, Board of Missions and Church Extension which begins with Paragraph 1166, page 249, with the understanding existing legislation in the 1948 Discipline shall be amended to conform:

In constituting the membership of its Divisions, the Board of Missions may elect from the membership of the Divisions of National Missions and World Missions respectively, to the Woman's Division of Christian Service a number not to exceed the number of members which the Woman's Division of Christian Service has on the Division of National Missions and the Division of World Missions.

Methodist Committee on Overseas Relief

The Methodist Committee on Overseas Relief shall be composed of 19 persons constituted as follows:
One person from each Jurisdiction elected by the Jurisdiction.

Six persons elected by the Board of Missions.

Seven members at large elected by the Agency.

Daily Christian Advocate, page 27, April 23, 1952.

Column 1—adopt: (new)

Where the membership of a General Agency is determined in part by the size of the church membership of the Jurisdictions, the latest official report preceding the General Conference (as shown in the General Minutes) of the Jurisdictional membership shall be used to determine the size of the Jurisdictional representation for the ensuing quadrennium.

Column 3—adopt:

(New) Unless otherwise specified, vacancies on Divisions and Boards occurring during the quadrennium shall be filled as follows: Episcopal vacancies shall be filled by the Council of Bishops; a vacancy in the Jurisdictional representation shall be filled by the College of Bishops of that Jurisdiction; a vacancy in the membership at large shall be filled by the Agency itself.

Board of Hospitals and Homes

Substitute for Paragraph 1521 of the Discipline the following:

There shall be a Board of Hospitals and Homes of The Methodist Church which shall have an advisory relationship to Methodist philanthropic interests and institutions, such as hospitals, homes for the aged, homes for children, and homes for youth, located in the United States, its territories, and dependencies. This advisory relationship shall apply also to a hospital or home which is owned or supervised by any Agency of The Methodist Church in the United States, its territories, or dependencies.

There shall be a consultative Inter-agency Staff Committee between the Board of Hospitals and Homes and the Woman's Division of Christian Service, established by the Agencies.

Cultivation and Publication Recommendations

I. The Board of Publication and The Methodist Publishing House shall continue to have the responsibilities, activities and relationships as provided in the 1948 Discipline subject to whatever amending legislation is adopted by the General Conference.

II. The Report of the General Conference Committee to study the relation of the Editorial Division of the Board of Education to the Board of Publication shall be adopted.

III. 1. The Committee proposes that the General Conference recommend to the Board of Publication for its consideration and determination the proposal of the Survey Report that there should be one Publishing Agent instead of two and that the matter of title for the function should be determined by the Board of Publication.

2. The Committee recommends that the General Conference refer to the Board of Publication with power to act the recommendations of the Survey Report regarding a periodical for pastors, and periodical for the family.

IV. Commission on Promotion and Cultivation

The Committee recommends that the General Conference adopt the Report of the Quadrennial Committee as it appears in the Daily Christian Advocate, April 25, 1952, beginning on page 109 with the following amendments:

The name of the Commission on Promotion shall be changed to Commission on Promotion and Cultivation. Its membership and functions shall be as follows:

Membership: Three Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops; one member each from the Division of the Local Church and the Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education; one each from the Joint Section (General) of the Division of Education and Cultivation and the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Board of Missions; one each from the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Temperance, the Board of World Peace, the Board of Social and Economic Relations, the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Publication, the Commission on Chaplains, the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, the Commission on Public Information, the Radio and Film Commission and the Advance Committee.

The Executive Secretaries of General Agencies (including one to be named by the Woman's Division of Christian Service and one to be named by the Board of Publication) shall be ex officio members of the Commission without vote.

To this Commission are given the following responsibilities: to review at least annually, and as often in addition as may be necessary, the several and combined plans of the General Boards and Agencies for the production, and distribution of all free literature and promotional and resource periodicals (except Church School literature) for the purpose of co-ordinating the content, distribution, and timing of the release of such materials. In case of inability to work out adequate plans and procedures for content, timing, and distribution, the matter shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council.

This Commission shall study the problems of co-ordinating and simplifying the methods of and facilities for distribution of materials and may arrange for improved and more efficient distribution of literature.

To this Commission is referred the recommendation of the Survey Commission calling for a Monthly Local Church Program Journal for pastors, members of Commissions and Committees, Lay Leaders and other local church workers. This includes the recommendation regarding the merging of certain periodicals. This periodical shall contain program and resource materials for use in planning and carrying out a unified program in the local church. The Commission may employ a Secretary to serve as Editor of the Program Journal and such other literature as it may decide upon. The objectives, policies and content of the Program Journal shall be determined by the Commission in consultation with the General Agencies. The initial plans of the Commission regarding the merging of these periodicals into a Local Church Program Journal shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council for consideration and approval.

Instead of each General Board and Agency issuing separate materials, this Monthly Local Church Program Journal shall contain in a co-ordinated way as much as possible of the combined program of the World Service Agencies. Correlation and representation shall be done equitably so far as the Agencies are concerned.

Bulletins and leaflets now being issued by General Boards and Agencies separately shall be incorporated in this Monthly. What under present practices are separate general mailings of promotional letters, bulletins, pamphlets, and reports to pastors and other local church leaders shall be incorporated in this Monthly.

An article relating to the work of a World Service Agency which is to appear in the Monthly Program Journal shall receive editorial approval by that Agency before its publication.

The expenses of this Commission and of the editing, publishing and distribution of the Local Church Program Journal shall be paid out of World Service Funds and by constituent Agencies that do not participate in World Service Funds upon a pro rata basis to be determined by the Commission and approved by the Council on World Service and Finance. The Budget of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation as recommended by the Council on World Service and Finance and approved by the General Conference shall be a prior charge against World Service Funds.

The recommendations of the Report of the Quadrennial Committee, Section IV, The Advance on page 110 of the Daily Christian Advocate April 25, 1952 shall be adopted except for the following amendments:

1. The Quadrennial Advance Committee shall be constituted by the Council of Bishops.
2. The Advance Committee shall have an advisory relationship to the Central Promotion office in connection with the promotion of Advance Specials, the Week of Dedication offering, and Conference initiated specials.
3. Any changes that are to be made in the agencies participating in Advance Specials and the Week of Dedication, or the ratio of receipts shall be determined by the Council on World Service and Finance after consultation with the Advance Committee and the Agencies concerned.
4. The Budget for promotion of Advance projects shall be recommended by the Advance Committee to the Council on World Service and Finance for its consideration and approval. The approved Budget shall be a prior claim on receipts.
5. Substitute for Paragraph 753-A. In view of the fact that there is an inseparable relationship between education in stewardship and giving, we recommend that during the quadrennium the Boards of Education and Lay Activities, and the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation co-operate in a Church-wide program of Stewardship Education with special emphasis upon the stewardship of possessions which shall be closely related to giving to the Benevolence Causes which Methodists will be called upon to support.

Inter-Agency Commission on Cultivation, Promotion, and Publication

There shall be an Inter-Agency Commission on Cultivation, Promotion and Publication whose function shall be to act as the Co-ordinator of the policies and activities of the following:

Commission on Promotion and Cultivation
Radio and Film Commission
Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information
Board of Publication

The Inter-Agency Commission in carrying out its function of co-ordinating the work of the Agencies which it represents shall see that plans and programs relating to cultivation, promotion, films, radio, television, public relations, Methodist information and publishing do not overlap or duplicate. Any questions of overlapping or duplication which cannot be resolved by the Inter-Agency Commission on Cultivation, Promotion, and Publication shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. When in the judgment of the Inter-Agency Commission it would facilitate co-ordination among its Agencies, the Commission may authorize Inter-Board Staff Committees.

The membership of the Inter-Agency Commission on Cultivation, Promotion and Publication shall consist of the following members from its respective agencies:

Commission on Promotion and Cultivation—Four
Radio and Film Commission—Two Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information—One
Board of Publication—Two

Implementing the work of the Inter-Agency Commission on Cultivation, Promotion and Publication there shall be a Secretarial Council, consisting of the Executive Secretary, Director, or other representative of each constituent Agency. It shall be the function of this Council to facilitate co-operation among the Agencies in the creative planning of their respective programs and in avoiding overlapping of function or duplication of activity. The Chairmanship of the Secretarial Council shall rotate annually among its members.

Resolution for Adoption Establishment of One Office for the Board of Pensions

The Board of Pensions is hereby directed to study, prepare and submit for the consideration of the General Conference of 1956, together with any comments and suggestions by the Board, a plan for merging the two separate offices of the Board, now maintained in Saint Louis, Missouri, and Chicago, Illinois, so that the Board may operate as a single agency, preserving the three present legal corporate entities (The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, Incorporated in Illinois; The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, Incorporated in Maryland; and the Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, Incorporated in Missouri) and recognizing all separate pension fund obligations to Annual Conferences and such other legal requirements as may exist.

Methodist Information

The name of the Commission on Public Information shall be changed to Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information. It shall be understood that in its relations with the press, radio and television and with the public generally the Commission may use such abbreviation of its name as it deems appropriate.

The membership of the Commission shall continue to be in accordance with Paragraph 1590 in the 1948 Discipline.

The expense of the Commission shall be borne by the General Administration Fund.

It shall be the function of this Commission to gather news of public interest concerning Methodist activities and opinion and to disseminate it through the secular press, the religious press, radio, and television. This Commission shall be the sole general news-gathering and distributing agency for The Methodist Church and its General Agencies.

The Commission may arrange with another General Agency for some person in that organization to represent the Commission in direct release of Methodist news items to the religious and/or secular press. However, the Commission shall have general supervision over planning publicity relationships and procedures for making releases throughout the Church in the United States. The Commission may work with Area and Annual Conference Directors of Public Relations, may assist in Pastors' Schools with courses in Public Relations, and may prepare instruction materials for local church use concerning Public Relations.

The Commission shall maintain co-operative relationship with the Editors of the Board of Publications, and may assist in the gathering of news for Church periodicals.

The recommendations contained in the Survey Report do not exhaust the opportunities for improvements and economies in organization, co-operative relationships and functioning of general agencies. During the 1952-56 quadrennium the General Agencies should study their respective functions, programs and internal operations and institute such improvements and economies in their work as they find to be feasible and practicable. The General Agencies shall co-operate with the Council on World Service and Finance in working out, in advance of these studies, the general areas to be included and methods of carrying out this objective. The General Agencies shall report their accomplishments in improvements and economies at the close of each fiscal year during the 1952-56 quadrennium to the Council on World Service and Finance. The Council shall prepare from the information received from the General Agencies a combined report for the 1956 General Conference.

During the 1952-56 quadrennium the Co-ordinating Council shall have power to consider and decide what, if any, action shall be taken in regard to those recommendations in the Survey Report which have not been specifically covered in legislation adopted by the 1952 General Conference.

REPORT NO. 5

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON REPORT OF SURVEY COMMISSION

See statement of Harold C. Case, Journal, page 584, as follows:

"We turn now to Report No. 6. This is not an error. There was originally a Report No. 5; however you have now covered the matter in that Report. Report No. 6 is before you."

REPORT NO. 6

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON THE REPORT

Subject, Amending Report No. 3 of the Committee of Six
Adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Pages 584-586.

The Committee of Six makes the following recommendations:

- (a) Delete Paragraphs 1384 to 1388 inclusive in the Discipline, and
- (b) Void the legislation adopted on Friday, May 2, from Report No. 3 of the Committee of Six beginning in the middle of page 3. "Page 43, Col. 1, Section III," and ending with "World Service and Finance" at the end of the next paragraph.
and substitute for both, the following:

1384. In the Division of Educational Institutions there shall be a Department of Ministerial Education which shall provide for the training of the ministry of the Church. The Department shall be composed of 12 persons, 6 Bishops, and 6 ministers, selected from the membership of the Division. The Division shall have authority to select 5 Advisory Members from the faculties of our Methodist Theological Schools to assist in preparing the prescribed Courses of Study. The Division shall also have authority to select from the Methodist Theological Association 6 of its members as Advisory Members to consider with it the fiscal affairs of the theological seminaries, but these shall not be present when allocations for theological schools are under consideration.

The Division shall elect, upon nomination of the Executive Secretary, a Director of Ministerial Education, who shall serve as a liaison officer between the Division and Methodist theological schools. He shall be responsible for the promotion of theological education in the Church and maintaining the relationship with and among Methodist theological schools.

The Division shall elect a Director who shall have primary responsibility for the program of in-service training, including the supervision of the Conference Course of Study and the Pastor's Schools in Annual Conferences in the United States, its territories and dependencies, and correspondence courses.

1385. The Division of Educational Institutions shall recommend to the Council on World Service and Finance, as an item apart from its own Budget the amount of financial support which should be allocated for Methodist theological schools and the "in-service training program." It shall have the further responsibility of recommending to the Council on World Service and Finance the distribution of such funds among the accredited schools of theology related to The Methodist Church.

1386. The work of the Department of Ministerial Education shall be supported from the General Benevolences of the Church, the amount to be determined by the authoritative body.

1387. The Department of Ministerial Education shall prescribe the Course of Study to be pursued by those applying for license to preach, for orders as local preachers, and for Admission on Trial, respectively; also a Course of Study extending through four years to be pursued by those who have been Admitted on Trial in the Annual Conference (and a simplified four-year course which, if the Annual Conference shall so determine, may be used for the Accepted Supply Pastors in lieu of the Regular Conference Course). (See Course of Study under Appendix.) It shall recommend Courses of Reading and also provide Graduate Correspondence Courses of Study for preachers who have finished their undergraduate courses of study.

1388. The Department insofar as it relates to in-service training, shall have a direct relationship with the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications (See Pars. 639-42). It shall co-operate with these and other Conference Boards in organizing, financing, and conducting short-term schools for ministers, which shall be known as Pastors' Schools. These Schools shall provide instruction for all ministers and where advisable shall offer work in the curriculum of the Courses of Study for Undergraduate and Accepted Supply Pastors.

Within a Conference the administration of these Courses of Study, which shall require extensive written work in addition to instruction in a Pastors' School, shall be under the supervision of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training.

Where so agreed by the Department and the Boards involved, the supervision of this work may be delegated to a Correspondence School. All such Correspondence Schools shall be related to one of our established schools of theology. The Director of each Correspondence School shall be elected quadrennially by the Commission on Ministerial Training on nomination of the faculty of the related school of theology. The assisting Staff shall be chosen by the Director from the active members of the faculty of the school.

1389. The Department of Ministerial Training, the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations, and the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall co-operate in the development of effective methods of selective recruiting for the ministry. The Boards shall exercise control over the numbers to be enlisted in order to provide an adequate supply of trained ministers.

The Department, in co-operation with the theological schools, shall continue study on the ministry, and report on the subject to each General Conference.

NO. 14

REPORT OF COMMITTEE APPOINTED AT THE DIRECTION OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF 1948 TO STUDY THE FIELD FOR SOCIAL ACTION

(See Journal, pages 274-277)

The General Conference of 1948 directed the Council of Bishops to appoint a Special Committee to Study the Field for Social Action and to report its findings to the 1952 session of the General Conference of The Methodist Church. Pursuant to this direction by the General Conference the Council of Bishops named the following as the committee:

Alexander, Virgil	(SC)	Ardmore, Oklahoma, Vice-Chairman
Brawley, James P.	(C)	Atlanta, Georgia, Secretary
Buckingham, Harold C.	(NE)	Oneonta, New York
Echols, Timothy B.	(C)	Austin, Texas
Ervin, Paul R.	(SE)	Charlotte, North Carolina
Lewis, Vernon E.	(W)	Fort Benton, Montana
Loring, Fred P. (deceased)	(NE)	Orono, Maine
McCrea, Archie E. (deceased)	(NC)	Muskegon, Michigan
McGowan, Guy B.	(SE)	Birmingham, Alabama
Reitz, T. Russell	(SC)	Manhattan, Kansas
Smith, W. Stanley	(NC)	Columbus, Ohio
Throckmorton, Dillon Wesley	(W)	Sacramento, California, Chairman

In the interim between the 1948 session of the General Conference and the 1952 session of the General Conference, several meetings were held by this Committee and a careful study was made by members of the Committee, individually and collectively, with reference to the task which had been assigned to it. As a result of these studies this Committee desires to make the following recommendation concerning action by our Church in the Field for Social Action.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND CONCLUSIONS

This Committee recommends:

I. That there be created by the General Conference a new Commission to be known as "The Methodist Commission on Social and Human Relations."

II. That it shall be the duty of this Commission to do study and research in the field of social and human relations; to quicken the mind of the Church in our Social and industrial relations; to make the social creed of our Church effective through the promotion of racial justice; the furtherance and protection of human rights, civil and religious liberties, public morals, social welfare and Christian social service.

III. The membership of this Commission shall be:

Three active Bishops elected by the Council of Bishops; two ministers, one layman, and one youth (18-23), elected by each Jurisdiction upon nomination of the Jurisdictional Nominating Committee. Such elections shall be held quadrennially. This Commission shall be authorized to fill any vacancies occurring during the quadrennium, upon nomination made by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction in which the vacancy occurs.

IV. The Commission shall meet at such times during the quadrennium as it may deem advisable, with at least one meeting annually.

V. The work of the Commission shall be supported from the General Benevolences of the Church, the amount to be determined by the General Conference, on recommendation of the Council on World Service and Finance.

VI. The officers of the Commission shall be a President, who shall be a Bishop, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected quadrennially of and by the Commission. These officers with four other elected members of the Commission shall constitute the Executive Committee. Vacancies shall be filled at any regular or duly called meeting of the Commission. The Executive Secretary shall be ex officio.

VII. The Executive Secretary shall be elected by the Commission. The Staff Personnel shall be approved by the Executive Committee upon the nomination of the President and the Executive Secretary.

VIII. It shall be the function of the Commission on Social and Human Relations:

(A) To help make effective the Social Creed of the Church.

(B) To present to the Council of Bishops and other bodies of the Church, such human, social, economic, and industrial problems that should have attention.

(C) To plan and co-ordinate programs of social action within the Church.

(D) To channel problems for study and action to appropriate agencies.

(E) To establish "Service Committee" work at home and abroad, where Methodist Youth may find expression for their Christian idealism within our Church.

(F) To respond to requests from local Church groups for information and guidance and

(G) To make available such resource material as may be helpful.

IX. Each Jurisdictional Conference may establish a Jurisdictional Commission on Social and Human Relations, auxiliary to the General Commission on Social and Human Relations, such Commission to be composed of one Bishop from the Jurisdiction, chosen by the College of Bishops; one minister, one lay person, and one youth (18-23) from each Area in the Jurisdiction, and members of the General Commission from the Jurisdiction.

X. Each Annual Conference may establish a Conference Commission on Social and Human Relations auxiliary to the Jurisdictional Commission and the General Commission, which shall report each year to the Annual Conference in such manner as the Conference may direct.

XI. Each charge may have, as part of its Quarterly Conference, a Committee on Social and Human Relations to serve the interests of our Christ in local situations and to co-operate with the General, the Jurisdictional, and the Conference Commissions. This Committee shall report to the Quarterly Conference, and may report to the Official Board of the Church Conference.

* * * * *

The interest of The Methodist Church in the social and economic problems affecting the welfare of people is historic, extending back to the labors of John Wesley. This interest is evidenced in the statement of the Social Creed of the Church, recorded in the Discipline of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 2020, Discipline, 1948).

From its studies your Committee has become convinced that the concern of many people of The Methodist Church goes beyond a mere statement of the Social Creed, and calls for action by the Church in dealing with social and economic problems, affecting human welfare. As stated in the Social Creed: "The Methodist Church aims to view the perplexing times and problems which we face today in the light of the teachings of JESUS." Therefore, The Methodist Church should implement its Social Creed by providing an official and co-ordinated channel of study, expression and action within the organizational structure of the Church.

Respectfully submitted to the General Conference of The Methodist Church.

Chairman: DILLON WESLEY THROCKMORTON (California-Nevada);

Vice-Chairman: VIRGIL ALEXANDER (East Oklahoma);

Secretary: JAMES P. BRAWLEY (*), (Atlanta).

NO. 15

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE STRUCTURE OF METHODISM OVERSEAS

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 702, 711, 784.

(Note: The following Memorials are covered in this Report: Numbers 2, 15, 42, 949, 950, 956, 957, 968, 993, 1624.)

Your Commission met in accordance with Paragraph 2008.

Your Commission recommends the following:

I. Changes in Legislation

Par. 438. Following the word "provided" in line 2 add the following "the age of retirement shall not exceed that fixed for Bishops elected in the Jurisdictions."

The Paragraph shall then read:

"Each Central Conference shall determine the rules for retirement of its Bishops; provided the age of retirement shall not exceed that fixed for Bishops elected in the Jurisdictions. In the event of retirement allowances being paid from the Episcopal Fund, these rules shall be subject to the approval of the General Conference."

Par. 556. This is a new Paragraph and shall read:

"In a Central Conference where Term Episcopacy prevails, a Bishop whose term of office expires prior to the time of compulsory retirement because of age and who is not re-elected by the Central Conference, is returned to membership as a traveling elder in the Annual Conference, or its successor, of which he ceased to be a member when elected Bishop. His term of office expires at the close of the Central Conference at which his successor is elected and he is, therefore, entitled to participate as a Bishop in the consecration of his successor."

The credentials of his office as Bishop shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Central Conference, who shall make thereon the notation that he has honorably completed the term of service for which he was elected and has ceased to be a Bishop of The Methodist Church."

Par. 580. In the last line, after the word "members" place a period, and delete the words "after the General Conference of 1952." The paragraph shall then read:

"A Central Conference shall fix the boundaries of the Annual Conferences, Provisional Annual Conferences, and Missions within its bounds, proposals for changes first having been submitted to the Annual Conferences concerned as prescribed in the Discipline of The Methodist Church; provided, however, that the number of Annual Conferences which may be organized within the bounds of a Central Conference shall first have been determined by the General Conference. No Annual Conference shall be organized with fewer than thirty-five ministerial members. Nor shall an Annual Conference be continued with fewer than twenty-five ministerial members."

Par. 602. Line 6 of the introduction. Change the dates from 1948-52 to 1952-56. The Paragraph shall then read:

"For the purpose of providing Presidential, Visitational, and Residential Episcopal Supervision of territory embraced in Provisional Central Conferences, and in emergency situations in Central Conferences, it is recommended that provision be made for the quadrennium 1952-56 according to the following arrangement:

Par. 602, 1. Substitute the following for the present Paragraph:

"The Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference shall provide Presidential Supervision for the Central and Southern Europe Provisional Central Conference without election of a Bishop."

Par. 602 shall then read:

For the purpose of providing Presidential Visitational, and Residential Episcopal Supervision of territory embraced in Provisional Central Conferences, and in emergency situations in Central Conferences, it is recommended that provision be made for the quadrennium 1952-56 according to the following arrangement:

1. The Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference shall provide Presidential Supervision for the Central and Southern Europe Provisional Central Conference without the election of a Bishop.

2. The Central Jurisdictional Conference shall provide Residential and Presidential Supervision for the work in Liberia and is hereby authorized according to the provisions of Par. 8, Article 4 and Par. 439 to have one Bishop in addition to its membership quota (Par. 534) in order to provide for this supervision.

3. The Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference shall provide Residential and Presidential Supervision for the work in Angola, Belgian Congo, Portuguese East Africa, Southern Rhodesia and the Union of South Africa of the Africa Provisional Central Conference, and is hereby authorized according to the provisions of Par. 8, Article 4 and Par. 439 to have one Bishop in addition to its membership quota (Par. 534) in order to provide for this supervision.

4. The South Central Jurisdictional Conference shall provide for Episcopal Visitation to the Latin American Central Conference and to the Affiliated Autonomous Churches of Latin America.

Inasmuch as the territory in which is located the work for which the foregoing provides the Episcopal Supervision is not in any case included in the geographical boundaries of the Jurisdictional Conference which elects the Bishop or Bishops involved, therefore it is recommended that the said Bishops be directed to report on the supervision of their fields to the Council of Bishops as well as to the Central Conferences or Provisional Central Conferences to which they are related.

If during the ensuing quadrennium any emergency in Episcopal Supervision should arise in any of the mission fields covered by the foregoing provisions, the Council of Bishops shall provide the necessary Episcopal Supervision.

CHAPTER V

Affiliated Autonomous Churches, Par. 605.

1. Change title of Chapter V to read "Affiliated Autonomous Churches, Methodist and Non-Methodist."
2. Add a new Paragraph number 3.
3. Present Paragraph number 3 to be number 4.
4. Add a new Paragraph number 5.

Chapter V shall then read:

CHAPTER V

Affiliated Autonomous Churches, Methodist and Non-Methodist

Par. 605, 1. A self-governing Church in whose establishment The Methodist Church has assisted and with which it is co-operating through its Board of Missions shall be known as an Affiliated Autonomous Church. Relations between The Methodist Church and an Affiliated Autonomous Church shall be such as may be mutually agreed upon by the two Churches. The Board of Missions shall serve as the agent of The Methodist Church in conferring with Affiliated Autonomous Churches.

2. Contractual agreements with The Methodist Church of Mexico, The Methodist Church of Brazil, The Methodist Church or its legitimate successor in Korea, and The United Church of Christ in Japan or its legitimate successor, entered into by the former Methodist Episcopal Church and/or the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shall be continued until changed or modified by mutual agreement.

The Board of Missions is authorized to harmonize and make uniform the present agreements and practices with respect to the four churches named above by extending to each of them any provision contained in the present agreement with any one of them if such change is desired by the Affiliated Autonomous Church concerned and judged to be advisable by the Board of Missions and Church Extension.

3. The contractual agreements between The Methodist Church and The Methodist Church of Brazil, The Methodist Church of Korea, and The Methodist Church of Mexico include the following provisions:

(a) Certificates of Church membership given by ministers in one Church shall be accepted by ministers in the others.

(b) It shall be lawful for a minister to be transferred from an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference of The Methodist Church to an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference of the above-mentioned Affiliated Autonomous Methodist Churches, and from an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference of any of the above-mentioned Churches to an Annual or Provisional Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, with the approval and consent of the Bishops involved in the transfer.

(c) Each Affiliated Autonomous Church shall be entitled to two delegates, a national and a missionary, elected by the Central Council or Council of Co-operation of the Affiliated Autonomous Church, to the General Conference of The Methodist Church, with all the rights and privileges of delegates, including travel, and per diem paid from the General Administration Fund, except the right to vote.

(d) The Board of Missions of The Methodist Church may appoint two delegates to the General Conference of each of the above mentioned Affiliated Autonomous Methodist Churches who shall be entitled to all the privileges of delegates, except the right to vote.

4. The Council of Bishops may assign one or more of their number for Episcopal Visitation to the Affiliated Autonomous Churches.

5. United or other Non-Methodist Autonomous Churches recognized by the Board of Missions as an area of its activity

(in 1952 only the United Church of Christ in Japan) are authorized to send to the General Conference of The Methodist Church non-voting delegates consisting of one national representative of the recognized church and one missionary of the Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, with travel and per diem allowance to be paid from the General Administration Fund.

Par. 2008. Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas.

Page 578. Line 2 after the words "it" add the following: "Those members of the Commission representing Central Conferences or Provisional Central Conferences who are not Delegates to the General Conference or who are not in the United States at the time the Commission will meet, shall be replaced by someone who is in the United States upon nomination of the Bishop or Bishops of the Central Conference or Provisional Central Conference they represent."

This Paragraph shall then read as follows:

Par. 2008. Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas.

There shall be a Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas for the quadrennium 1952-56. Recognizing the difference in conditions that exist in various fields of the world, and the changes taking place in those fields, this Commission shall continue to study the structure and supervision of The Methodist Church in its work outside of the United States and its territories, and its relationship to other Church bodies; and shall prepare such recommendations as it considers necessary for presentation to the General Conference of 1956.

This Commission shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops administering in Jurisdictional Conferences, two Bishops administering in Central Conferences, one person from each Jurisdictional Conference, one person from each Central and Provisional Central Conference, all to be nominated by the Council of Bishops and approved by the General Conference. There shall be added to the Commission by the Board of Missions four persons, two from the Division of World Missions and two from the Foreign Department of the Woman's Division of Christian Service. Bishops having supervision of work outside the United States and its territories and Bishops of Affiliated Autonomous Churches shall be considered consultive members of the Commission and shall be called in, when available, at the time of meeting of the Commission. When a representative of a Central or a Provisional Central Conference cannot be present to represent his field, the Bishop or Bishops of that field shall designate someone to represent it. Those members of the Commission representing Central Conferences or Provisional Central Conferences who are not Delegates to the General Conference or who are not in the United States at the time the Commission will meet will be replaced by someone who is in the United States upon the nomination of the Bishop or Bishops of the Central Conference or Provisional Central Conference they represent. The Commission shall meet at least twice, once immediately following election and once immediately before the General Conference of 1956. The expenses of this Commission shall be paid from the General Conference Expense Fund.

Par. 1887. Delete this Paragraph.

III. Recommendations

1. We recommend the continuing of the plan of the Council of Bishops for visitation to the Methodist work overseas.

2. We recommend approval of an Amendment to the Constitution as follows: "We recommend that Sec. VI, Par. 20, Article 2 of the 1948 Discipline be amended whereby Central Conference Bishops will have equal voting privileges on all matters in the Council of Bishops."

3. We recommend that six Bishops serving overseas shall be members of the Board of Missions, their attendance at meetings to be subject to such travel regulations as appear elsewhere in the Discipline.

4. We recommend in relation to Europe:

(a) That an Enabling Act be approved granting permission for the formation of the Central and Southern Europe Central Conference in the quadrennium 1952-56 and the election of one Bishop from the present constituent Conferences and Missions or a part thereof, provided they have twenty ministerial delegates on the regular disciplinary method of representation.

(b) If the Central and Southern Europe Provisional Central Conference cannot be organized into a Central Conference, then Switzerland and any other constituent Annual or Provisional Annual Conference or Mission shall have permission upon vote of the Conference or Mission involved to unite with the Germany Central Conference to form the Central Europe Central Conference and that then the Central Europe Central Conference be authorized to elect an additional Bishop.

(c) If there are any remaining Annual or Provisional Annual Conferences or Missions of the Central and Southern Europe Provisional Central Conference, they shall continue under the presidency of the Bishop appointed by the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

(d) Further we recommend that the Bishops of the three Areas in Europe consult together and with their respective Conferences, looking forward toward the ultimate formation of an all-Europe Central Conference made up of these three Areas.

(e) That necessary legislation be enacted.

5. We recommend the following Enabling Acts be granted:

ENABLING ACTS

1. Election of Bishops by the China Central Conference, during the Quadrennium.

2. Election of Bishops for South America during the Quadrennium.

3. To continue the Provisional Annual Conference of Bolivia, with 4 instead of 6 ministerial delegates, for quadrennium ending 1956.

4. To continue the Provisional Annual Conference of Central America with 4 instead of 6 ministerial delegates for the quadrennium ending in 1956.

5. To continue the Burma Annual Conference for the quadrennium ending in 1956.

6. To authorize The Methodist Church in Sarawak (Borneo) to organize into a Provisional Annual Conference during the quadrennium ending in 1956, upon full compliance with the requirements of the Discipline of 1952.

7. To authorize the Methodist work in Mindanao to organize into a Provisional Annual Conference during the quadrennium ending in 1956 upon full compliance with the requirements of the Discipline of 1952.

8. To authorize during the quadrennium 1952-56 the Austria Mission to function under its constitution approved by the government of Austria.

9. To authorize the Southeast Africa Provisional Annual Conference to organize into an Annual Conference during the quadrennium upon meeting the requirements of the Discipline of 1952.

10. To authorize the Southern Congo Provisional Annual Conference to organize into an Annual Conference during the quadrennium upon meeting the requirements of the Discipline of 1952.

11. The Central and Southern Europe Provisional Central Conference shall have such powers of a Central Conference as are indicated in Par. 601.

12. Enlarged rights and privileges for the Switzerland Annual Conference.

13. To authorize the Polish Provisional Annual Conference to organize into an Annual Conference during the quadrennium ending in 1956 upon meeting the requirements of the Discipline of 1952.

14. To authorize the Central Conference of Southern Asia to increase the number of Annual Conferences by one, during the quadrennium ending in 1956 in accordance with the provisions of Par. 580.

1738 Journal of the 1952 General Conference

15. To continue the Baltic and Slavic Annual Conference.
16. To organize a Central and Southern Europe Central Conference during the quadrennium with twenty ministerial delegates.
17. To continue the Belgium Annual Conference.
18. To authorize Uruguay to become a Provisional Annual Conference upon meeting the requirements of the 1952 Discipline.
19. To continue the Northeast Germany Annual Conference.
20. To continue the Czechoslovakia Annual Conference.
21. To continue the Annual and Provisional Annual Conferences in the China Central Conference as listed in Par. 1875.

Vice-Chairman: BISHOP FRED P. CORSON,
Secretary: LEON T. MOORE.

NO. 16

PROPOSED LEGISLATION*
TO IMPLEMENT THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION

(See Daily Christian Advocate, pages 25-48)

The recommendations of the Survey Commission, if they are to become effective in the life of The Methodist Church, need to be incorporated in the Discipline as part of the law of the Church. To achieve this end, certain new Chapters and Sections, concerning such matters as the authorizing of the Co-ordinating Council and specifying its functions, should be enacted and numerous other revisions made in the existing legislation. The proposed legislation deals with the Administrative Agencies of the Church. The major portion of it, therefore, relates to Part VII of the Discipline (Administrative Agencies), which is dealt with first, in its entirety, in the accompanying legislation. Following this are certain proposed changes in Part V (Temporal Economy), most of which are Chapter II; these set forth in detail the fiscal responsibilities of the proposed Council on World Service and Finance. This is followed by proposed changes in Part VIII (Pensions and Permanent Funds), chiefly in the composition of the Board of Pensions.

In the final Section of the legislation are (a) a proposed authorization by the General Conference to instruct the Editors of the Discipline to bring the nomenclature of the Agencies of the Church in other parts of the Discipline into harmony with the actions of the General Conference; and (b) certain supplemental or Enabling Acts, stating in legislative form other recommendations of the Survey Commission. Because of their nature, these recommendations can be enacted separately, and should not become a part of the regular body of permanent law included in the Discipline.

The major portions of the proposed revision of Part VII of the Discipline are identical in phraseology with Paragraphs in the 1948 Discipline.

Only such changes in existing legislation are proposed as are necessary to bring the present law into harmony with the recommendations of the Commission, except that minor changes in wording are sometimes made in order to achieve clarity and uniformity. It has been necessary to rearrange the order of the Paragraphs which are to be retained from the 1948 legislation, because of the proposed reorganization of Boards and establishment of Departments. However, every Paragraph in the present legislation is accounted for and noted below, by being incorporated as it is, retained with such changes as are noted, or deleted because the function is in conflict with one or more of the recommendations. At the end of the legislation is an Index showing where each Paragraph in Part VII of the 1948 Discipline is dealt with.

* Minor changes made since the release of the Legislation in November, 1951, have been incorporated in the legislation as here presented.

All Paragraph numbers used below refer to the Paragraphs in the 1948 Discipline. All new legislation is shown in boldface type. If a whole Paragraph is to be retained as it is or if it is to be entirely deleted, it is not printed below; the reader can refer to a copy of the 1948 Discipline.

The Survey Commission has recommended that at least a minimum number of women and of youth be included in the membership of practically all organizations. (It should be noted that the term "lay persons" which is generally used in the description of Board membership refers to men or women.) To insure equal total representation from the six Jurisdictions, and at the same time avoid excessively large Boards, a plan has been worked out for the minimum woman and youth representation from certain specified Jurisdictions on particular Boards (see the Report, pp. 51, 52).

The following legislation is submitted to the General Conference and its delegates for thoughtful consideration and with the recommendation of the Commission that it be adopted.

Note: "The portions of this Report which were not presented to and acted upon by the General Conference appear in small sized type (8 point). The following action was taken by the General Conference concerning these sections, see last paragraph of Report No. 4 of the Special Committee of Six, page 1721, which reads as follows:

"During the 1952-56 quadrennium the Co-ordinating Council shall have power to consider and decide what, if any, action shall be taken in regard to those recommendations in the Survey Report which have not been specifically covered in legislation adopted by the 1952 General Conference."

Harold C. Case, one of the Co-chairmen, made the following statement regarding the above paragraph, upon its adoption; see journal, page 577. It reads as follows:

"Third, on page 9, the final paragraph does not give the Co-ordinating Council authority to write in any legislation. It does give the Co-ordinating Council responsibility for carrying out provisions which may be indicated as procedural only."

Also see 1952 Discipline, Paragraph 1115, section 8.

The portions of this Report which were presented to and acted upon by the General Conference appear in larger sized type (10 point). All amendments, either accepted or adopted, appear in Bold Face Capitals type, with the word or words for which the amendment, or amendments, were made immediately following the amendment, or amendments, and printed in italics within parentheses (). PART VII

ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES

CHAPTER I

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

(New) The Administrative Agencies of The Methodist Church, hereinafter called the General Agencies, shall include all Committees, Commissions, Bureaus or Sections, Divisions, Boards, Departments, and Councils (except the Council of Bishops and the Judicial Council) created by the General Conference for the purpose of performing a specific function or functions.

The Administrative Agencies of The Methodist Church shall be organized in accordance with the following plan. Each major function shall be assigned to a Board. Boards performing closely related functions shall be grouped together to form a Department. Sub-functions within a Board may be assigned to Divisions. A subordinate unit, other than a Division, is in certain instances designated as a Bureau or Section. Boards not included in Departments are listed separately. It is the responsibility of each Board to integrate the work of its subordinate Divisions and of each Department to integrate the work of its Boards.

In order to insure a co-ordinated and unified program among these Agencies of The Methodist Church, two Councils are established: the Co-ordinating Council (Chap. II) and the Council on World Service and Finance (Chap. III).

The General Conference of The Methodist Church hereby establishes the following General Agencies, which are described in subsequent chapters:

Co-ordinating Council

Council on World Service and Finance

Department of Church Life

Board of Christian Education

Board of Evangelism

Board of Lay Activities

Department of Missions

Board of World Missions

Board of National Missions

Woman's Board of Christian Service

Department of Christian Social Relations

Board of Temperance

Board of World Peace

1742 Journal of the 1952 General Conference

Board of Social and Economic Relations

Department of Cultivation and Publication

Board of Cultivation

Division of Devotional Literature

Division of Promotion

Division of Films, Radio, and Television

Division of Methodist Information and Public Relations

Board of Publication

Board of The Methodist Publishing House

Board of Educational Institutions

Division of HIGHER AND SECONDARY (General) Education

Division of Ministerial Education

Board of Hospitals and Homes

Board of Pensions

Board of Trustees

Commission on Chaplains

Commission on Camp Activities

The General Conference of The Methodist Church hereby recognizes the following Inter-Denominational Agencies:

American Bible Society

Ecumenical Methodist Conference (World Methodist Council)

National Council of Churches

World Council of Churches

Of the preceding General Agencies the following shall be considered World Service Agencies: Board of Christian Education, Board of Evangelism, Board of Lay Activities, Board of World Missions, Board of National Missions, Board of Temperance, Board of World Peace, Board of Social and Economic Relations, Division of Devotional Literature, Division of Promotion, Division of Films, Radio, and Television, Division of Methodist Information and Public Relations, Division of HIGHER AND SECONDARY (General) Education, Division of Ministerial Education, Board of Hospitals and Homes, Board of Pensions, Commission on Chaplains, and the American Bible Society.

Each Department shall be the co-ordinator of the policies and activities of its Boards. This responsibility includes reviewing and passing upon the Budgets of the Boards for administration, service, and promotion expense; providing for the co-ordination of the activities of its Boards, to avoid duplication and overlapping among them and with other Departments; and making decisions in the event differences arise among them. In similar manner, where a Board has Divisions, it shall co-ordinate their work and review their Budgets. Allocations are made to Boards or, where there are Divisions, directly to the Divisions within the Board. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

Each Board shall carry on its administrative activities within the limits of its assigned functions and responsibilities and shall make its own decisions without having them reviewed and approved by the Department, except that conflicts, if any, are subject to review and decision by the Department. Each Division shall function similarly in relation to the Board of which it is a part.

Each Board shall elect its own Executive Secretary and, if any be needed, its Associate Secretaries on nomination of the Executive Secretary, and shall determine the powers and duties of its officers and staff and their remuneration, in keeping with the standards established by the Council on World Service and Finance. Where there are Divisions, as constituent parts of a Board, these functions, except for that of election, shall be performed by the Division.

Members of Divisions, Boards, and Departments shall be concerned primarily with formulating policies, objectives, and program plans, and reviewing results achieved by their respective Agencies, and shall delegate to the Executive Staff the responsibility for carrying out policies and plans.

Where a General Agency deems it advisable, it may establish an Executive Committee, which shall consist of the elected officers of the Agency and not more than five additional members. The Executive Secretary or, in the case of a Division, the Director shall be an ex officio member of the Executive Committee, without vote. The Executive Committee may function for the full membership of the Agency between annual meetings, but it shall report its actions to the next general meeting of the Agency.

All General Agencies of the Church shall observe a uniform fiscal year, ending on May 31st, and shall prepare their Budgets on that basis.

The General Agencies (Departments, Boards, and Divisions) may authorize small Inter-Agency Committees of Staff members where these are necessary in order to achieve a special purpose.

There shall be an Annual Meeting of all General Agencies at a time and place determined by the Council on World Service and Finance after consultation with the Executive officers of the General Agencies. At the same time and at the same place each Agency shall hold its own annual meeting. At some time during the period of the Annual Meeting, either before or after the separate business sessions of the General Agencies, there shall be an Assembly in which the members of all Agencies shall participate and the programs of the Agencies shall be presented. In advance of the annual meetings, and at other times if they desire, the Executive Secretaries of the various Agencies may convene to discuss problems of mutual concern.

The following regulations concerning membership in the General Agencies shall apply to all Agencies. Where there are Divisions within a Board, persons are elected to these Divisions. These Divisions elect persons from their membership to the Board. The Board in turn elects persons from its own number to the Department which includes that Board. A person who is a member of a Division may, therefore, also be a member of the encompassing Board and Department. Where there are no Divisions, election is directly to the Board.

Unless otherwise stipulated in the legislation ministerial and lay members, except members at large, of Boards, and of Divisions where such exist, shall be nominated by the Jurisdictional Nominating Committee and elected by the Jurisdictional Conference.

Paragraph in BOLD FACE at the top of this page, 1744, was adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, Page 584. Also See Report No. 4, Special Committee of Six, Page 1713.

Where the membership of a General Agency is determined in part by the size of the Church membership of the Jurisdictions, the latest official report preceding the General Conference (as shown in the General Minutes) of the Jurisdictional membership shall be used to determine the size of the Jurisdictional representation for the ensuing quadrennium.

Unless otherwise specified, the Agency shall elect the members at large. In its election of members at large an Agency may select either ministers or lay persons. However, in order to insure an representation of women in the several Agencies, a specification is made as to the minimum number of women to be included. Likewise, in order to insure a representation of youth, a specification is made as to the minimum number of youth to be included. Nominations of the youth members on the General Agencies shall be as follows: The Youth Work Staff of the Board of Christian Education shall nominate persons who are to represent the Methodist Youth Fellowship, and the Student Work Staff of the Division of HIGHER AND SECONDARY (General) Education of the Board of Educational Institutions shall nominate the persons who are to represent the Methodist Student Movement. Youth members shall be elected by the several Agencies from the proposed nominees or others, as part of the membership at large.

(Note: For final action on the next three paragraphs see Report No. 4 Co-ordinating Council, page 1713.

A person, other than a Bishop, who is a member of the Co-ordinating Council or the Council on World Service and Finance or of any Board or Division, is not eligible for election to any other General Agency, with the following three exceptions: that a person may be elected by his Agency to an encompassing Board or Department, that members of the Council on World Service and Finance may also be members of the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Church, and that two members from the Board of World Missions and two from the Board of National Missions shall be elected to membership in the Woman's Board of Christian Service (§ 1240, p. 34, below). A Bishop may be a member of two General Agencies, except that if he is a member of the Co-ordinating Council or the Council on World Service and Finance he shall not be a member of any other General Agency. However, membership on the Commission on Camp Activities shall not be counted as a membership on a General Agency.

No person who receives compensation or commissions of any kind from a Board or other Agency shall be eligible for membership on that Board or Agency.

Tenure on any Division, Board, Commission, or Council shall hereafter be limited to eight consecutive years.

¶ 734, last sentence, no change except in name:

Should a Jurisdictional representative on an Agency move either his legal residence or his church membership to a place outside the bounds of the Jurisdiction he represents, his membership on the Agency shall cease and the President (or Chairman) shall declare a vacancy.

Paragraph in BOLD FACE below adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal Page 584. Also See Report No. 4, Special Committee of Six, Page 1713.

(New) Unless otherwise specified, vacancies on Divisions and Boards occurring during the quadrennium shall be filled as follows: Episcopal vacancies shall be filled by the Council of Bishops; a vacancy in the Jurisdictional representation shall be filled by the College of Bishops of that Jurisdiction; a vacancy in the membership at large shall be filled by the Agency itself.

Chapter II, Co-ordinating Council adopted April 28, 1952. See Journal, pages 293-297. Reconsidered and readopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, page 572. Also see Report No. 1 Special Committee of Six, page 1700.

CHAPTER II

CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL

(New) There shall be a Co-ordinating Council, responsible directly to the General Conference. It shall co-ordinate the work of the General Administrative Agencies of The Methodist Church.

The membership of the Co-ordinating Council shall consist of one Bishop, one minister, one lay man, and one lay woman from each Jurisdiction, plus one minister and one lay person for each additional million members or major fraction thereof above the first million members in a Jurisdiction ALL NOMINATED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS AND ELECTED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE; AND TWO ADDITIONAL PERSONS APPOINTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS FROM AMONG THE MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH OVERSEAS WHO ARE IN THE UNITED STATES AT THE TIME OF THE MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL; PROVIDED, THAT THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS SHALL REPLACE THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CHURCH OVERSEAS WHEN THEY LEAVE THE UNITED STATES. (The Council of Bishops shall nominate and the General Conference shall elect the members of the Co-ordinating Council.) The term of membership shall be four years. No person shall be eligible to serve for more than two consecutive terms. MEMBERS SHALL SERVE UNTIL THEIR SUCCESSORS ARE APPOINTED OR ELECTED. NO PERSON, OTHER THAN A BISHOP, SHALL BE ELIGIBLE TO MEMBERSHIP ON

ANY OTHER GENERAL AGENCY. IN A REVIEW OF ANY QUESTION INVOLVING OVERLAPPING OF ACTIVITY OR LACK OF CO-OPERATION AMONG OR WITHIN THE GENERAL AGENCIES, A BISHOP WHO IS A MEMBER OF AN AGENCY INVOLVED SHALL BE DISQUALIFIED ON THE PARTICULAR REVIEW. (Members shall serve until their successors are appointed or elected and, during their term of service, shall not be eligible to membership on any other General Agency.) Staff members of General Agencies are not eligible to membership. Vacancies which occur during the quadrennium shall be filled by action of the College of Bishops of the appropriate Jurisdiction.

The Co-ordinating Council shall convene annually, and at such other times as are necessary on the call of the President, or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

It shall elect a President, a Vice-president, and a Recording Secretary who shall keep a permanent record of its meetings and of any decisions reached. Certified copies of the minutes shall be filed with the Secretary of the General Conference and with the Council on World Service and Finance.

All decisions of the Co-ordinating Council shall require a majority vote of the entire membership.

The Co-ordinating Council shall have the following responsibilities:

1. ON REQUEST OF A GENERAL BOARD OR OF AN ANNUAL CONFERENCE, IT SHALL REVIEW. (It shall review, either on request of an Agency or on its own initiative), questions involving overlapping in activity, or lack of co-operation among or within General Agencies of The Methodist Church, AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE BOARDS OR AGENCIES INVOLVED FOR RESOLVING SUCH ISSUES. IN THE EVENT OF NON-COMPLIANCE, THE RECOMMENDATIONS SHALL BE REPORTED TO THE NEXT GENERAL CONFERENCE. (Its decisions concerning such issues shall be binding upon the Agencies involved and it shall place responsibility on the appropriate Agencies for carrying out the decisions.) A record of all RECOMMENDATIONS (such decisions) shall be kept; a Report of each shall be forwarded to the Council of Bishops, the Council on World Service and Finance, and the Secretary of the General Conference.

2. It shall [DELETE (continue the)] study [DELETE (of)] the general organizational structure of The Methodist Church and recommend to the General Conference such changes as it considers essential to maintain effective and economical operation.

3. In consultation with the Council of Bishops, [DELETE (and)] the Executive Secretary (or other Administrative Officer) of each General Agency, AND THE PRESIDENT AND TREASURER OF THE WOMAN'S BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE, it shall formulate and present to the General Conference, for its action and determination, plans for a unified, on-going program for the Church, including long-range objectives. The financial objectives shall be recommended by the Council on World Service and Finance to the General Conference for its action.

4. It shall recommend to the General Conference, after consultation with the Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance, the number and timing of all Special Days which are to be observed on a Church-wide basis, except that the Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance may authorize a special financial appeal in an emergency.

5. It shall designate the Agency which shall undertake any special study authorized by the General Conference when such agency has not been indicated by the General Conference.

6. It may incur expense necessary to the performance of its functions, subject to such budgetary control as may be specified by the General Conference provided, THE EXPENSES OF THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL SHALL NOT EXCEED A TOTAL OF FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ANNUALLY, AND SHALL BE PAID OUT OF THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATION FUND. (Expenditures incurred shall be chargeable to the General Administration Fund.)

7. Each General Agency proposing to acquire real estate or erect a building for housing its administrative activities or related operations, in continental United States, shall present its plans in the formative stage to the Co-ordinating Council. The Council shall determine whether such proposed acquisition or erection is in the best interest of The Methodist Church. On the basis of that determination it shall approve or disapprove the project. If it disapproves, the Agency shall delay the project until the matter can be considered by the next General Conference.

COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Chapter III Council on World Service and Finance amended and adopted April 30, 1952. See Journal, pages 333-336. See also Report No. 2 of the Special Committee of Six. This Report amended May 5, 1952. See Journal, page 569.

[Ed. Note: Materials in ¶¶ 734-36 and the first two sentences of ¶ 737 are dealt with here. The description of the fiscal functions of the Council on World Service and Finance remains in Part V, Chap. II.]

¶ 734, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Council on World Service and Finance which shall be incorporated. Its members shall be elected quadrennially by the General Conference. It shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops, nominated by the Council of Bishops; two ministers and two lay persons from each Jurisdiction, to be nominated by the Bishops of that Jurisdiction; and seven members at large, at least three of whom shall be women, all nominated by the Council of Bishops without reference to Jurisdictions.

Members of the Council on World Service and Finance shall not be eligible to membership on any other General Agency except the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Church. Members of the Council shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the Council between sessions of the General Conference shall be filled by the Council, the nomination for such vacancy being made by the Bishops of the Jurisdiction concerned or, in the event of a vacancy among the members at large, by the Council of Bishops.

[Editorial Note: Last sentence of ¶ 734 is placed in Chapter I and will apply same rule to all Agencies.]

DEFER FOR LATER CONSIDERATION PARAGRAPH 735. SEE REPORT COMMITTEE OF SIX NO. 2, PAGE 1701 AND REPORT NO. 4 PAGE 1713 ¶ 735, delete the second sentence so that the Paragraph will read as follows:

No member of any other General Board or Agency or employee of the same shall be eligible to membership on the Council on World Service and Finance. The Bishops serving on the Council shall not be present in the sessions of the Council when the salaries of the Bishops or their expense or rental allowance are under consideration.

¶ 736, delete the last two sentences, the first of these being superfluous and the second being included above, and add a new sentence at end, beginning, "The employed personnel . . ." so that the entire Paragraph as revised will read:

The officers of the Council on World Service and Finance shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, and an Executive Secretary, who shall also be the Treasurer of the Council, all of whom shall be elected by the Council. They shall serve until the adjournment of the next succeeding quadrennial session of the General Conference after their election and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The President, Vice-president, and Recording Secretary shall be elected from the membership of the Council. The Executive Secretary shall not be a member of the Council (¶ 735). He shall, however, sit with the Council and its Executive Committee at all sessions of the same, and shall have right to the floor without the privilege of voting. The employed personnel of the Council shall be selected by and shall work under the direction of the Executive Secretary.

¶ 737, revise first sentence; second sentence, no change. Delete remainder of the Paragraph, which is dealt with in Part V, Chap. II.

The Council shall convene annually and at such other times as are necessary on call of the President or on written request of one fifth of the members. Sixteen members shall constitute a quorum.

(New) The Council on World Service and Finance shall have the authority and responsibility to perform the following functions:

1. Receive and disburse, in accordance with Budgets approved by the General Conference, the general funds of the Church for the World Service Agencies and also the General Administration Fund, the Episcopal Fund, the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, and any other funds as directed by the proper authority. (These responsibilities are described in Part V, Chapter II, pp. 45-46, below.)

2. ANNUAL ASSEMBLY. IN ORDER TO TRY OUT THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION FOR AN ANNUAL ASSEMBLY OF WORLD SERVICE AGENCIES AND THE WOMAN'S DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE, THERE SHALL BE HELD DURING THE 1952-56 QUADRENNIUM, AT LEAST ONE ASSEMBLY AT WHICH THE PROGRAMS OF THE AGENCIES ARE PRESENTED, WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT AT THE SAME TIME AND PLACE EACH BOARD OR

AGENCY WILL MEET SEPARATELY, EITHER PRIOR TO OR AFTER THE ASSEMBLY FOR THE TRANSACTION OF ITS BUSINESS. AFTER CONSULTATION WITH THE EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF THE GENERAL AGENCIES AND THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS, THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE SHALL FIX THE DATE AND PLACE OF THE ASSEMBLY. SEE REPORT NO. 3, COMMITTEE OF SIX, PAGE 1705 (Set the date and place for the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies of The Methodist Church after consultation with the Executive Officers of the General Agencies. The Division of Promotion shall be responsible for any necessary arrangements for the meeting.)

3. Require each World Service Agency to follow uniform policies and practices in the employment and remuneration of personnel, recognizing differences in local employment conditions.

4. Establish titles for the employed executive staff of world service agencies in the interest of uniformity and consistency.

DELETE 5. (Maintain and supervise the Personnel Registration Bureau, which shall serve as a clearing center for persons seeking positions with the General Agencies and supply information about such candidates to interested Agencies. This Bureau shall be under the supervision of a Director of Personnel, especially qualified in the field of personnel administration. He shall be a member of the staff of the Council on World Service and Finance.)

5. Provide legal counsel where this is necessary in order to protect the interests of the Church, and as the council deems advisable, at the request of a World Service Agency or of a Bishop.

6. MAINTAIN AND SUPERVISE THE STATISTICAL OFFICE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH. IT SHALL BE THE DUTY OF THE STATISTICAL OFFICE TO PREPARE THE MATERIALS FOR THE GENERAL MINUTES, AND SUCH OTHER RELATED PUBLICATIONS AND YEARBOOKS AS MAY BE ORDERED BY THE COUNCIL. THE SPECIALIZED SERVICES OF THE STATISTICAL OFFICE MAY BE AVAILABLE TO ANY OFFICIAL AGENCY OF THE CHURCH FOR THE CONDUCT OF SPECIAL SURVEYS, RESEARCHES, AND STUDIES AS MAY BE REQUIRED IN ITS WORK, BY AGREEMENT WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE APPROVAL OF THE COUNCIL. THE GENERAL MINUTES AND THE MATE-

RIALS AUTHORIZED BY THE COUNCIL SHALL BE PUBLISHED BY THE METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE. THE EXPENSE OF THE STATISTICAL OFFICE, INCLUDING THE PRINTING OF THE GENERAL MINUTES, AND OTHER APPROVED PUBLICATIONS SHALL BE BORNE BY THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATION FUND. (Maintain and supervise the Statistical Bureau which shall assembly the membership and financial statistics of the churches and publish the General Minutes. It may conduct research studies and surveys, within the limits of its approved Budget, and special projects as ordered by the General Conference. The expense of the office shall be borne by the General Administration Fund. [From ¶¶ 1139, 1141.])

7. PREPARE AND EDIT ALL OFFICIAL BLANKS, RECORD FORMS, AND RECORD BOOKS REQUIRED FOR USE IN THE METHODIST CHURCH (EXCEPT OFFICIAL RECORDS FOR USE IN THE LOCAL CHURCH SCHOOL, AND FORMS USED BY THE WOMAN'S BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE). IN THE PREPARATION OF THESE FORMS THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE SHALL CONSULT WITH A COMMITTEE WHICH SHALL UTILIZE THE EXPERIENCE OF PERSONS WHO HAVE SERVED ON THE COMMISSION ON RECORDS, FORMS AND STATISTICAL BLANKS (PARAGRAPHS 1139, 1948 DISCIPLINE) AND WHICH IN ITS COMPOSITION SHALL INCLUDE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS, OF ANNUAL CONFERENCES, OF THE METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE, AND WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF GENERAL BOARDS WHOSE PROGRAMS ARE DIRECTLY INVOLVED. (Prepare and edit all official statistical blanks, record forms, and record books required for use in The Methodist Church (except official records for use in the local Church School.) In the preparation of these forms it shall consult with a Committee appointed by the Council of Bishops from that body and with representatives of The Methodist Publishing House.) All official blanks, record forms, and record books required for use in The Methodist Church shall be printed and published by The Methodist Publishing House. [From ¶ 1140.]

8. Maintain and supervise the Transportation Bureau. The Council shall determine its Budget and the proportion of that Budget which shall be paid by the World Service, General Administration and Episcopal Funds.

9. THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE SHALL OPERATE, UNDER THE SUPERVISION

OF ITS EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, A DEPARTMENT KNOWN AS "THE FILE OF PASTORS AND CHURCH OFFICIALS." IT SHALL BE THE FUNCTION OF THIS DEPARTMENT TO MAINTAIN AN ACCURATE RECORD OF MAIL ADDRESSES OF ALL BISHOPS, MINISTERS IN EFFECTIVE RELATION, SUPPLY PASTORS (INCLUDING RETIRED MINISTERS) SERVING CHARGES, CONFERENCE LAY LEADERS, AND SUCH LISTS OF GENERAL, JURISDICTIONAL, CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT BOARDS, COMMISSIONS OR COMMITTEES, AND SUCH OFFICERS OF THE SAME AS MAY BE DEEMED NECESSARY.

THE COST OF MAINTAINING SUCH A FILE SHALL BE A CHARGE AGAINST THE CENTRAL TREASURY. THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY IS AUTHORIZED AND DIRECTED TO MAKE EQUITABLE CHARGES FOR ITS USE BY VARIOUS BODIES. NO USE OF THE FILE SHALL BE PERMITTED FOR OTHERS THAN AUTHORIZED BODIES OR OFFICERS OF THE METHODIST CHURCH. (Maintain and supervise the Pastors' File. This file shall contain the names and addresses of all persons who are under episcopal appointment and also any others who are serving as pastors of Methodist churches. This file shall be kept up to date in so far as possible and shall be available for use by the authorized agencies of The Methodist Church. It shall be maintained at the headquarters of the Council on World Service and Finance.)

10. THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE MAY MAINTAIN A PERSONNEL REGISTRATION BUREAU, WHICH SHALL SERVE AS A CLEARING CENTER FOR PERSONS SEEKING POSITIONS WITH THE GENERAL AGENCIES, AND SUPPLY INFORMATION ABOUT SUCH CANDIDATES TO INTERESTED AGENCIES.

Chapter IV

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Report No. 3, Committee of Six, Journal, Pages 388-411, 1713.

INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON THE LOCAL CHURCH

SECTION I. ORGANIZATION OF THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION

THERE SHALL BE AN INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON THE LOCAL CHURCH, WHOSE FUNCTION SHALL BE TO ACT AS THE CO-ORDINATOR OF THE POLICIES AND ACTIVITIES OF ITS BOARDS, NAMELY:

BOARD OF EDUCATION
DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH
EDITORIAL DIVISION
DIVISION OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS
DEPARTMENT OF SECONDARY AND HIGHER EDUCATION
DEPARTMENT OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION IN CARRYING OUT ITS FUNCTION OF CO-ORDINATING THE WORK OF THE BOARDS WHICH IT REPRESENTS SHALL SEE THAT PLANS AND PROGRAMS RELATING TO THE LOCAL CHURCH AND TO HIGHER EDUCATION DO NOT OVERLAP OR DUPLICATE IN ACTIVITY AND LITERATURE. ANY QUESTIONS BETWEEN THE CONSTITUENT BOARDS OF OVERLAPPING OR DUPLICATION WHICH CANNOT BE RESOLVED BY THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON THE LOCAL CHURCH SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL. ANY OVERLAPPING OF FUNCTIONS OR DUPLICATION OF ACTIVITIES BETWEEN ONE OF THE CONSTITUENT BOARDS AND ANOTHER AGENCY OF THE METHODIST CHURCH SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL. WHERE IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION IT WOULD FACILITATE CO-ORDINATION AMONG ITS BOARDS, THE COMMISSION MAY AUTHORIZE INTER-BOARD STAFF COMMITTEES.

THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON THE LOCAL CHURCH SHALL CONSIST OF EIGHTEEN MEMBERS, SIX FROM EACH OF THE THREE BOARDS: THE CHAIRMAN AND FIVE OTHER PERSONS FROM AMONG THE MEMBERSHIP OF ITS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ELECTED BY EACH BOARD.

IMPLEMENTING THE WORK OF THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON THE LOCAL CHURCH THERE SHALL BE A SECRETARIAL COUNCIL, CONSISTING OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARIES OF THE DIVISIONS OF THE CONSTITUENT BOARDS OR OF THE BOARD ITSELF IF THERE ARE NO DIVISIONS WITHIN THE BOARD. IT SHALL BE THE FUNCTION OF THIS COUNCIL TO FACILITATE CO-OPERATION AMONG THE BOARDS IN THE CREATIVE PLANNING OF PROGRAMS AND IN AVOIDING OVERLAPPING OF FUNC-TION OR DUPLICATION OF ACTIVITY. THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE SECRETARIAL COUNCIL SHALL ROTATE ANNUALLY AMONG THE SEVERAL SECRETARIES.

DEPARTMENT OF THE LOCAL CHURCH

Section I. Organization of the Department

(New) (There shall be a Department of the Local Church, whose primary function shall be to aid local churches in carrying on their programs. The Department shall operate through three constituent boards: the Board of Christian Education, the Board of Evangelism, and the Board of Lay Activities.

The main function of the Department of the Local Church shall be to act as the co-ordinator of the policies and activities of its Boards. Each Board, within the area of its responsibility, shall make its own decisions. Any questions between its constituent Boards or duplication of activities which cannot be resolved by the Department of the Local Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activity between one of its constituent Boards and another Agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Where, in the judgment of the Department, it would facilitate co-ordination among its Boards, the Department may authorize Inter-Board Staff Committees. The Department shall also review and pass upon the Budgets of its Boards before their presentation to the Council on World Service and Finance (§ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below).

The membership of the Department of the Local Church shall consist of twenty-one persons, seven from each of its three constituent Boards. Of these seven, one shall be a Bishop. He and the other six persons shall be elected by the Board from its own membership without reference to jurisdictions.

The Department shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Department shall elect a President, a Vice-President, and a Recording Secretary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

There shall be a Departmental Secretarial Council, consisting of the Executive Secretaries of the three constituent Boards. It shall be the function of this Council, on an informal basis, to facilitate co-operation among the Boards of the Department and to prevent unnecessary overlapping. The Chairmanship of this Council shall rotate annually among the several Executive Secretaries.

The Boards of the Department of the Local Church, in consultation with their respective Executive Secretaries, shall jointly elect an Associate Secretary for Promotion, subject to confirmation by the Board of Cultivation. He shall serve in the Division of Promotion. It shall be the function of this person to serve the Division of Promotion of the Board of Cultivation as the liaison Editor with the Boards of the Department of the Local Church. He shall provide material from the three Boards of the Department for the general promotional journal of the Board of Cultivation, and for pamphlets, leaflets, and booklets to be distributed as part of the total promotion program. He and the Woman's Board of Christian Service shall co-operate in preparing promotional literature for the local church.

The Department of the Local Church shall be responsible for preparing materials on training for church membership.)

SECTION II. Board of Christian Education

¶ 1325, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Board of Christian Education which shall have general oversight of the program of Christian education in local Methodist churches in the United States. It may co-operate with the Board of World Missions for the advancement of Christian education in other lands. The Board shall be incorporated.

¶¶ 1326-27, 1329-49, delete.

¶ 1328, revise so as to read:

In accordance with the provisions of their several charters, the Board of Christian Education and the Board of Educational Institutions shall jointly from their memberships elect such Directors, Trustees, or members as may be required to maintain the legal continuance so long as may be necessary of the following and any other necessary corporations affiliated with the Boards and shall provide for the corporate meetings thereof:

The General Board of Education of The Methodist Church.

The General Board of Christian Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Board of Education of the Methodist Protestant Church.

The Board of Education for Negroes of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Board of Christian Education and the Board of Educational Institutions jointly may co-operate with such corporations in the interest of their consolidation with either the Board of Christian Education or the Board of Educational Institutions or with each other, or the Boards jointly may act as successor to such corporations whenever any such action may be found expedient or necessary and be within the charter powers of such corporations or in accordance with the laws of the States in which they are respectively incorporated.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

IN LINE TWO OF PARAGRAPH 1326 OF THE 1948 DISCIPLINE DELETE THE WORDS "OF ALL" AND IN THEIR PLACE SUBSTITUTE THE WORD "SEVENTEEN" AND AFTER THE WORDS "UNITED STATES" IN LINE THREE INSERT THE WORDS "SELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS" SO THAT THE SENTENCE AS AMENDED SHALL READ:

"THE BOARD SHALL BE CONSTITUTED QUADRENNIALLY AND SHALL BE COMPOSED OF SEVENTEEN EFFECTIVE BISHOPS OF THE METHODIST CHURCH RESIDENT IN THE UNITED STATES, SELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS, TOGETHER WITH ADDITIONAL MEMBERS SELECTED AS FOLLOWS," AND SO ON TO THE END OF THE SENTENCE.

DELETE THE SENTENCE BEGINNING IN LINE 13 FROM THE TOP OF PAGE 298 IN THE 1948 DISCIPLINE, AND IN ITS PLACE SUBSTITUTE THE FOLLOWING:

"IN ADDITION, UPON NOMINATION OF ITS COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION, THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE SHALL ELECT ONE MINISTER AND ONE LAYMAN FOR EACH 400,000 MEMBERS OR MAJOR FRACTION THEREOF WITHIN THE JURISDICTION. THE BOARD SHALL ELECT MEMBERS AT LARGE, ON NOMINATION OF THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS, IN SUFFICIENT NUMBER TO BRING THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD TO A TOTAL OF 91."

((New) The Board of Christian Education shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, plus one minister and one lay person for each additional million members above the first million members in the Jurisdiction, and three women, one from the North Central Jurisdiction, one from the Southeastern, and one from the Western. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be nine members at large, elected by the Board of Christian Education. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the South Central Jurisdiction and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Northeastern.)

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all of the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Board shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The Board shall elect an Executive Secretary who shall not be a member of the Board but shall meet with the Board, with the privilege of the floor but without vote; it may also elect Associate Secretaries, if any be needed, upon nomination of the Executive Secretary. The Executive Secretary shall be the administrative officer responsible for carrying out the program of the Board. The staff of the Board shall be under his direction.

The Board shall prepare its Budget which shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Department of the Local Church. Subsequently it shall present its proposed budget to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

¶ 1397, revise so as to read:

The Board shall develop a comprehensive and unified program of Christian education which shall lead to a knowledge of the Holy Scriptures, the Christian religion, and the Christian Church. It shall provide for worship, fellowship, study and service, and education in the Christian way of life. It shall be the responsibility of the Board to provide guidance in the organization and administration of Church Schools; to assist in the training of Church School leaders; to work with the Curriculum Committee and the Editor of Church School publications in developing a comprehensive and unified program of Christian education, including curriculum and leadership training courses; and to formulate standards for the work of Christian education in the local church (¶¶ 181-99). It shall also formulate standards for the office of Director of Christian education in the local church and for Directors of Adult, Youth, and Children's Work.

The Board shall seek ways and means of promoting the attendance of children, youth, and adults in all Church School organizations, and shall establish standards defining membership and attendance in the Church Schools and governing the maintenance of the membership roll. The Board of Christian Education shall have the sole responsibility for work with youth (this does not include work with students under the auspices of the Methodist Student Movement) except for the work of the Woman's Board of Christian Service, which shall integrate its activities in this field with those of the Board of Christian Education.

(New) The youth work of the Board of Christian Education shall embrace the Methodist Youth Fellowship and youth of student age who are not attending colleges or universities, and also programs for local churches ministering to college and university students apart from organized work at campuses. The youth work of the Board of Christian Education and the student work of the Board of Educational Institutions shall be correlated by the Executive Secretaries of the two Boards.

The Board of Christian Education shall work in co-operation with the Joint Committee on Personnel of the Department of Missions in its program of enlistment, cultivation, training, and recommendation of candidates for missionary work at home and abroad.

The Board of Christian Education shall elect the Editor of Church School Publications subject to confirmation by the Board of Publications.

¶ 1426, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Curriculum Committee which shall have the function of determining the curriculum for use in Church Schools. The membership of this Committee shall consist of seventeen persons: the Editor of Church School publications, the Book Editor, the Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education, the General Manager of The Methodist Publishing House, three Bishops named by the Council of Bishops, and ten other persons, five to be appointed by the Board of Publication and five by the Board of Christian Education. The Curriculum Committee shall have power to invite other individuals to act as consulting members without vote. It shall consult Executive Secretaries of Boards and Directors of Divisions in their respective fields of interest and responsibility, as resource persons who may contribute to and participate in the development of program outlines for Church School materials.

¶ 1397 (end of old paragraph), revise so as to read:

Through the Curriculum Committee and in co-operation with the Editor of Church School publications, the Board of Christian Education shall determine the curriculum of the Church School, including the courses in leadership education. It shall provide for instruction concerning the significance and work of the Church and the functions of its various officers and Boards.

¶ 1398, no change except to correct name of Board.

¶ 1399, no change except to correct name of Board, and add the following:

The Board shall co-operate, through the Associate Secretary for Promotion representing the Department of the Local Church on the Staff of the Board of Cultivation, in the preparation of promotional literature.

¶ 1400, delete.

¶ 1401, no change except revise the first line to read: The Board shall organize such work as may be necessary . . . (and so on to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1402, no change except to correct names.

¶ 1403, no change.

¶ 1404-6, no change except to correct name.

¶ 1407, no change, except name, as far as word, "work," in line 3. Delete remainder of Paragraph.

¶ 1408, no change except in lines 3, 4 substitute "Board of Christian Education and the Council on World Service and Finance" for "Divisional Committee on the Local Church."

¶ 1350, no change except add at end of Paragraph after "congregations," "(subject to ¶ . . .)." [Co-ordinating Council, item 4, p. 27.]

¶ 1415, revise so as to read:

The Board shall develop plans and correlate efforts for the more effective enlistment and guidance of persons in vocations in the Church and its Agencies, and seek to interpret to the Church through its several Agencies the total field of vocation. . . . (continue to the end of the first sub-paragraph; delete the remainder of the Paragraph, beginning, "The Inter-Board Committee . . .").

¶ 1409, no change except in names.

¶¶ 1410-12, delete.

¶ 1413, no change in the first long sub-paragraph, but delete the second sub-paragraph, beginning, "The Inter-Board Committee . . ."

¶ 1414, delete. Material placed under Board of National Missions.

¶¶ 1416-19, delete.

¶ 1429, no change.

¶¶ 1421-25, delete here. Covered under Board of Publications.

¶ 1427, delete.

Jurisdictional Boards

¶ 1428, no change except, in line 6, substitute "Board of Christian Education" for "General Board of Education."

¶ 1429, revise so as to read:

The Jurisdictional Board shall be auxiliary to the Board of Christian Education and the Board of Educational Institutions and shall co-operate with them in advancing the interests of educational institutions, of Wesley Foundations, and similar work in Methodist colleges, and of the entire program of Christian education in the local church. It also shall conduct training schools, assemblies, and other gatherings for religious purposes.

¶¶ 1430-35, no change.

¶ 1436, no change, except, in line 13, substitute "Board of Christian Education," for "General Board of Education," and in line 20 add the word "Jurisdictional" before the word "Board" and substitute "the Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education and the Executive Secretary of the Board of Educational Institutions," for "each of the three Executive Secretaries of the General Board of Education" so that the lines will read: to the Jurisdictional Board annually and to the Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education and the Executive Secretary of the Board of Educational Institutions.

¶ 1437, no change except in lines 8-9 delete "to the Executive Secretaries of the three divisions of the General Board of Education" and substitute "to the Executive Secretaries of the Board of Christian Education and the Board of Educational Institutions"; and in lines

11-12 delete the words "by the Board of Education" and place a period after the word "required."

¶ 1438, no change except in line 8 delete the word "General" and substitute "the Board of Christian Education, the Board of Educational Institutions."

¶ 1439, no change.

Annual Conference Boards

¶ 1441, no change except, in line 6, substitute "Board of Christian Education" for "General Board of Education."

¶ 1442, no change except, in line 3, substitute "Board of Christian Education and the Board of Educational Institutions" for "General Board"; and in lines 10-11 delete "and to promote intelligent use of the literature of the General Board."

¶¶ 1443-47, no change.

¶ 1448, no change except in lines 27-28 substitute "the Executive Secretaries of the Board of Christian Education and the Board of Educational Institutions" for "each of the three Executive Secretaries of the General Board of Education."

¶¶ 1449-51, no change.

¶ 1452, delete here.

¶ 1453, no change except, in line 4, substitute "Board of Christian Education, the Board of Educational Institutions" for "General."

¶ 1454, no change except in line 3 and line 13. In each case substitute "Board of Christian Education" for "General Board."

SECTION III. Board of Evangelism

¶ 1544, no change.

¶ 1545, no change, except omit "General" from name of Board of Evangelism.

¶ 1546, no change, except to correct name.

¶ 1547, no change, except in line 5, after the word "property" add "(subject to the restrictions set forth in ¶)" [Co-ordinating Council, item 7, p. 27.]

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 737.

REDUCE THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD FROM 56 TO 46, BY MAKING THE NEW PARAGRAPH (1548) TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

PARAGRAPH 1548—ARTICLE 3—MEMBERSHIP

THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD SHALL BE COMPOSED OF SEVEN BISHOPS OF THE METHODIST CHURCH, ONE FROM EACH JURISDICTION AND ONE FROM THE CHURCH AT LARGE, ELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS AT THE TIME OF THE GEN-ERAL CONFERENCE; TWO MINISTERS, ONE LAYMAN, ONE LAYWOMAN FROM EACH JURISDICTION, ELECTED BY THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES; THREE YOUTH MEMBERS ELECTED BY THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF METHODIST YOUTH; AND TWELVE MEMBERS FROM THE CHURCH AT LARGE, TO BE ELECTED BY THE BOARD.

VACANCIES OCCURRING DURING THE QUADRENNIUM SHALL BE FILLED IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER: THOSE OCCURRING AMONG THE BISHOPS TO BE FILLED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS; THOSE OCCURRING IN THE MEMBERSHIPS OF THE JURISDICTIONS TO BE FILLED BY THE BISHOPS OF THE JURISDICTIONS IN WHICH THE VACANCY OCCURS; THOSE OCCURRING AMONG THE YOUTH MEMBERS TO BE FILLED BY THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF METHODIST YOUTH; AND THOSE OCCURRING IN THE MEMBERSHIP AT LARGE TO BE FILLED BY THE BOARD ITSELF.

(¶ 1548 first sub-paragraph, revise so as to read:

The membership of the Board shall be composed of two Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, plus one minister and one lay person for each additional million members above the first million members in the Jurisdiction, and three women, one from the Central Jurisdiction, one from the Northeastern, and one from the South Central. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition there shall be nine members at large, elected by the Board of Evangelism. Of these members at large, two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Southeastern Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the North Central Jurisdiction.)

¶ 1548, second sub-paragraph, no change.

¶ 1549, delete.

¶ 1550, revise so as to read:

The Board shall elect from its membership a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of meetings. It may elect an Executive Committee of seven members, including the President of the Board of Evangelism . . . (to end of paragraph).

¶ 1551, revise so as to read:

The Board shall elect an Executive Secretary who shall not be a member of the Board but shall meet with the Board, with the privilege of the floor but without vote; it may also elect Associate Secretaries, if any be needed, upon nomination of the Executive Secretary. The Executive Secretary shall be the administrative officer responsible for carrying out the program of the Board. The Staff of the Board shall be under his direction.

(New) The Board shall elect the Editor in charge of the Division of Devotional Literature, subject to confirmation by the Board of Cultivation. The Editor shall have responsibility for the publication of The Upper Room and other devotional literature.

¶ 1552, revise so as to read:

The Board shall prepare its Budget which shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Department of the Local Church. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

¶ 1553, revise so as to read:

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of the members.

¶ 1554, no change.

¶ 1555, revise so as to read:

The Board shall co-operate with the various Agencies of the Church in the training of our ministers for leadership in the field of evangelism and, with the Board of Cultivation through the Divisions of Devotional Literature and Promotion, in creating a literature to serve the cause of evangelism.

¶¶ 1556-64, no change, except to correct names.

¶ 1565, delete here. (Transferred to Division of Devotional Literature.)

SECTION IV. Board of Lay Activities

¶ 1480, no change.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

AS AMENDED THE NEW PARAGRAPH 1481 WILL READ AS FOLLOWS: "THE BOARD SHALL BE COMPOSED OF THREE EFFECTIVE BISHOPS, ELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS; SIX EFFECTIVE MINISTERS, ONE FROM EACH JURISDICTION; AND THIRTY-TWO LAY MEMBERS, DISTRIBUTED AMONG THE SEVERAL JURISDICTIONS ON THE BASIS OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP, PROVIDED THAT NO JURISDICTION SHALL HAVE FEWER THAN TWO LAY MEMBERS. THE SIX MINISTERS AND THE THIRTY-TWO LAY MEMBERS SHALL BE ELECTED BY THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES ON NOMINATION OF THE COMMITTEES ON LAY ACTIVITIES OF THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES; PROVIDED, THAT THESE LAY MEM-BERS SHALL BE SELECTED FROM THE CONFERENCE LAY LEADERS OF THE SEVERAL ANNUAL CONFERENCES IN THE JURISDICTION; PROVIDED, FURTHER, THAT RETIREMENT FROM THE OFFICE OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER SHALL AUTOMATICALLY VACATE MEMBERSHIP ON THE BOARD. THE HEAD-QUARTERS OF THE BOARD SHALL BE FIXED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE. THE BOARD SHALL BE DULY INCORPORATED.

(¶ 1481, revise so as to read:

The Board shall be composed of Two bishops, selected by the Council of Bishops, one minister and two lay men from each Jurisdiction, plus one lay man for each additional million members above the first million members in the Jurisdiction, and three women, one from the Northeastern Jurisdiction, one from the South Central, and one from the Southeastern. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition there shall be five members at large, elected by the Board of Lay Activities. Of these members at large, two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the North Central Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Western Jurisdiction.)

¶ 1482, no change.

¶ 1483, as it now appears, except add, after "Laymen's Day" in line 3, the words "subject to the provisions of ¶ —." [Co-ordinating Council, item 4, p. 27.]

¶ 1484, revise so as to read:

The Board shall elect an Executive Secretary who shall not be a member of the Board but shall meet with the Board, with the privilege of the floor but without vote; it may also elect Associate Secretaries, if any be necessary, upon nomination of the Executive Secretary. The Executive Secretary shall be the administrative officer responsible for carrying out the program of the Board. The Staff of the Board shall be under his direction.

¶ 1485, no change except delete, in lines 1-2, "to solicit and create special funds."

¶ 1486, no change except to correct name, and substitute for the last sentence in the Paragraph the following sentences:

The Board shall prepare its Budget which shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Department of the Local Church. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

¶ 1487, as it now appears, except: in lines 4-5, delete phrase, "including the fixing of the time for its annual sessions," and substitute a new sentence:

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 737.

Chap. II, Sec. III—Constitution.

Par. 1172. The Board of Managers shall be composed as follows: (1) eighteen (18) effective Bishops of The Methodist Church resident in the United States, elected by the Council of Bishops; and in addition, six Bishops serving overseas to be designated by the Council of Bishops, shall have the status of members of the Board of Missions in meetings at which they may be able to be in attendance, subject to such travel regulations as are provided in the Discipline for overseas Bishops; (2) members elected quadrennially by the Jurisdictional Conferences—one minister and three lay members, two of whom shall be women, from each Jurisdiction for each 600,000 members, or major fraction thereof, in the Jurisdiction, and, in addition, one youth under twenty-one years of age from each Jurisdiction; provided that no Jurisdiction, in addition to the Bishops, shall have fewer than two ministers and six lay members, four of whom shall be laywomen and two laymen, and, in addition, one youth member under twenty-one years of age. In nominating and electing such members, the Jurisdictional Conference shall have as a basis for choice the following: (a) one minister and one layman designated by each Annual Conference of the Jurisdiction, on nomination of its Board of Missions; (b) and six additional names nominated by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction; (c) twice the necessary number of lay members, who shall be designated by the Jurisdiction Woman's Society from the three members nominated by each Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Jurisdiction; (d) and one youth from those nominated by the Youth Organization of each Annual Conference in the Jurisdiction. Vacancies in the Board of Managers shall be filled by the Bishops of the Jurisdiction in which the vacancies occur ad interim, having regard to the various classifications of members.

The Board, on nomination of the Council of Bishops, is authorized to elect quadrennially 27 laymen—at least four from each Jurisdiction, to be assigned as equally as possible to the Division of World Missions and to the Division of National Missions—who shall serve as members at large of the Board.

The Board, on nomination of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, is authorized to elect quadrennially twelve (12) women, two from each Jurisdiction, for the Division, who shall serve as members at large of the Division and of the Board. The Board shall elect to membership the Chairman of the Commission on Missions and World Friendship of the National Conference of Methodist Youth.

Par. 1175. The Board shall elect quadrennially, upon nomination of the respective Divisions, a General Executive Committee of thirty-eight (38) members, nine members from the Division of World Missions, two of whom shall be women; nine from the Division of National Missions, two of whom shall be women; nine women from the Woman's Division of Christian Service; ten members, five women and five men, from the Joint Section of Education and Cultivation. A majority of the members of the General Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum. The President of the Board shall be a member of and the Chairman of the General Executive Committee. This General Executive Committee shall exercise the powers of the Board ad interim.

Chap. II, Sec. IV—Division of World Missions.

Par. 1195. The Division shall be composed as nearly as possible of one-half of the effective Bishops who are members of the Board, and the remaining members shall be as follows: one-half of the ministers, one-half of the laymen, one-third of the laywomen, and one-third of the youth members of the Board. The Division may elect not to exceed one-third of its men members, other than Bishops, to be members of the Woman's Division of Christian Service. The Division shall meet annually at the time of the meeting of the Board, and at such other times as it may deem necessary.

Chap. II, Section V—Division of National Missions.

Par. 1210. The Division shall be composed as nearly as possible of one-half of the effective Bishops who are members of the Board, and the remaining members shall be as follows: one-half of the ministers, one-half of the laymen, one-third of the laywomen, and one-third of the youth members of the Board. The Division may elect not to exceed one-third of its men members, other than Bishops, to be members of the Woman's Division of Christian Service. The Division shall meet annually at the time of the meeting of the Board and at such other times as it may deem necessary.

Chap. II, Sec. VI—Woman's Division of Christian Service.

Par. 1240 3. The Division shall be composed of all the women members of the Board, one Bishop from each Jurisdiction who is a member of the Board, and one-third of the youth members of the Board. This Division may nominate for election by the Board quadrennially not to exceed twelve (12) women, two from each Jurisdiction, who shall serve as members at large of the Division and of the Board. The Division of World Missions and the Division of National Missions may elect not to exceed one-third of the men members of their Divisions, other than Bishops, to be members of the Division. The Division shall hold a regular annual meeting and such other meetings as shall be called by the Division or the Executive Committee.

Chap. II, Sec. VII—Joint Section of Education and Cultivation.

Par. 1268. The Joint Section of Education and Cultivation shall be composed of six Bishops, one from each Jurisdiction; six men and two women from the Division of World Missions, elected by that Division; six men and two women from the Division of National Missions, elected by that Division; eight women from the Woman's Division of Christian Service, elected by that Division. In all these selections there must be due regard to equitable representation from the Jurisdictions. This section shall undergird with education and cultivation the total program of the Board.

CHAPTER V

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

¶ 1166, no change.

SECTION I. Organization of the Department

¶ 1167, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Department of Missions. It shall conduct its operations through three Administrative Boards, each of which shall be incorporated: the Board of World Missions, the Board of National Missions, and the Woman's Board of Christian Service.

¶ 1168, no change except, in line 1, substitute "Department through its constituent Boards" for "Board"; and at the end of line 2 add "the Board of Missions and Church Extension of The Methodist Church."

(New) The major function of the Department of Missions shall be to act as the co-ordinator of the policies and activities of its Boards and of the total missionary program of The Methodist Church. Each Board, within the area of its responsibility, shall make its own decisions. Any questions between its constituent Boards or duplication of activities which cannot be resolved by the Department of Missions shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activity between one of its constituent Boards and another Agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Where, in the judgment of the Department, it would facilitate co-ordination among its Boards, the Department may authorize Inter-Board Staff Committees. The Department shall also review and pass upon the Budgets of its Boards before their presentation to the Council on World Service and Finance. (¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

The membership of the Department of Missions shall consist of twenty-one persons, seven from each of the three constituent Boards. Of these seven, one shall be a Bishop. He and the other six persons shall be elected by the Board from its own membership without reference to Jurisdictions.

The Department shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Department shall elect a President, a Vice-President, and a Recording Secretary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

There shall be a Departmental Secretarial Council, consisting of the Executive Secretaries of the Board of World Missions and the Board of National Missions, and the President of the Woman's Board of Christian Service or the person delegated by her. It shall be the function of this Council on an informal basis to facilitate co-operation among the Boards and Divisions of the Department and to prevent unnecessary overlapping. The Chairmanship of this Council shall rotate annually among its several members.

The Board of World Missions and the Board of National Missions after consultation with their respective Executive Secretaries, shall jointly elect an Associate Secretary for Promotion, subject to confirmation by the Board of Cultivation, who shall serve in the Division of Promotion. The Associate Secretary for Promotion shall have his office in the same city with the Department of Missions and shall have such Staff as the Budget of the Division of Promotion provides. He shall have the following functions: He shall serve the Division of Promotion of the Board of Cultivation as a liaison Editor with the Board of World Missions and the Board of National Missions. He shall provide material from the two Agencies for the general promotional journal of the Board of Cultivation and for pamphlets, leaflets, and booklets to be distributed as part of the total promotional program. He shall promote the missionary interests of the Boards through various conferences and institutes, including Annual Conference visitation. He and the Woman's Board of Christian Service shall co-operate in arranging institutes and in preparing promotional literature. The Division of Promotion shall have primary responsibility for publicizing the missionary enterprise in local churches.

¶¶ 1169-86, delete. (Last sentence of ¶ 1169 is used under Board of World Missions.)

¶ 1189, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel of the several Boards of the Department which shall be responsible for the enlistment, cultivation, training, and recommendation of candidates for missionary service at home and abroad. This Committee shall perform this function for the three Boards of the Department and shall work in co-operation with the other General Agencies, particularly with the Department of the Local Church and its Board of Christian Education. (See ¶¶ 1409 and 1415 as revised.) Its Budget shall be met by the three Boards of the Department of Missions.

¶¶ 1190-92, no change.

SECTION II. Board of World Missions

There shall be a Board of World Missions. It shall be incorporated.

The Board of World Missions shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, plus one minister and one lay person for each additional million members above the first million members in the Jurisdiction, and three women, one from the North Central, one from the Southeastern, and one from the Western Jurisdiction. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be nine members at large, elected by the Board of World Missions. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Northeastern Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the South Central Jurisdiction.

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

¶¶ 1193-95, delete.

¶ 1201, revise so as to read:

The Board shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The Board shall elect an Executive Secretary who shall not be a member of the Board but shall meet with the Board, with the privilege of the floor but without vote. The Board may also elect Associate Secretaries if any be needed, on nomination of the Executive Secretary. The Executive Secretary shall be the administrative officer in charge of the Staff and responsible for carrying out the program of the Board.

All employed officers and other Staff members, whether elected or appointed, quadrennially or annually, shall retire upon reaching the retirement age as fixed by the pension plan of the Board. [From ¶ 1181.]

¶ 1196, revise so as to read:

The Board shall have authority to recommend fields of labor; to accept, train, and maintain missionaries and special workers, utilizing the services of the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel; to buy and sell property, subject to the restrictions set forth in ¶ — [Coordinating Council, item 7, p. 27]; to receive and administer funds for the support of all work under its charge; to receive contributions subject to annuity under the Board's regulations (¶ 770). It shall present its Budget to the Department of Missions to be reviewed and passed upon. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance (¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below).

It shall be responsible for emergency overseas relief which is carried on in the name of The Methodist Church. Such funds as are raised for this purpose shall not be chargeable against the Budget or ratio of the Board of World Missions. [From ¶ 1169, last sentence.]

THE METHODIST COMMITTEE FOR OVERSEAS RELIEF

*The two Paragraphs in Bold Face Adopted May 6, 1952.
See Journal, Page 739.*

SIX MEMBERS, ONE PERSON FROM EACH JURISDICTION TO BE NOMINATED BY EACH COLLEGE OF BISHOPS AND ELECTED BY EACH JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE.

THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS IS ASKED TO APPOINT A CONVENER FOR THE NEW COMMITTEE.

Other Agencies of The Methodist Church shall conduct work in foreign fields only with the consent of and in co-operation with the Department of Missions.

¶ 1197, no change, except to correct name, substitute in lines 2-3 the words "territories and possessions," for "dependencies," and add, after "formerly administered by" the words "the Division of Foreign Missions of The Methodist Church,".

¶ 1198, revise so as to read:

The Board shall estimate the needs of the work under its care and present the same to the Department of Missions to be reviewed and passed upon. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance (see ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below). It shall appoint to its various fields of service missionaries who have been approved by the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel.

¶ 1199, § 1, as it now appears, except correct names in lines 1 and 2.

¶ 1199, § 2, delete.

¶ 1200, revise so as to read:

The Board shall establish an emergency or contingent fund of not less than three per cent nor more than five per cent of the total amount appropriated. The Board shall not recommend for appropriation, including the emergency fund, for a fiscal year more than the total amount received for this Board from all sources during the preceding fiscal year.

¶ 1188, revise so as to read:

The Treasurer and all employees . . . (to end of paragraph).

¶ 1202, as it now appears, except correct titles of Boards.

Also, reword item 1 to read:

1. To elect its Chairman and Secretary; to forward its minutes and the Report of its recommendations promptly to the respective Boards for approval.

¶¶ 1203-07, as they now appear, except for correcting of names of Boards.

SECTION III. Board of National Missions

(New) There shall be a Board of National Missions, which shall be incorporated. It shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, plus one minister and one lay person for each additional million members above the first million members in the Jurisdiction, and three women, one from the Northeastern Jurisdiction, one from the North Central, and one from the South Central. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be nine members at large, elected by the Board of National Missions. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Southeastern Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Western Jurisdiction.

¶¶ 1208-10, delete.

(New) The Board shall administer and promote the work of missions and church extension within the United States and its territories and dependencies formerly administered by the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Board of Missions and Church Extension of The Methodist Church.

¶ 1211, revise so as to read:

The Board shall have authority to recommend fields of labor; to accept, train, and maintain missionaries and special workers, utilizing the services of the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel; to buy and sell property, subject to the restrictions set forth in ¶ — [Co-ordinating Council, item 7, p. 27]; to receive and administer funds for the support of all work under its charge; to receive contributions subject to annuity under the Board's regulations (¶ 770).

It shall present its Budget to the Department of Missions to be reviewed and passed upon. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance (¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below).

¶ 1187, no change.

(New) The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

¶ 1212, revise so as to read:

The Board shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

¶ 1213, no change except, in line 1, substitute "Board" for "Division," and add the following Paragraph:

The Board may, if it deems it advisable, divide its membership into two Committees, one of which shall have primary responsibility for the various aspects of the work of national missions other than church extension, and the other for the work of church extension.

(New) The Board shall elect an Executive Secretary who shall not be a member of the Board but shall meet with the Board, with the privilege of the floor, but without vote. The Board may also elect Associate Secretaries, on nomination of the Executive Secretary. It shall determine the powers and duties of its officers and Staff and shall recommend to the Department as part of its Budget, their remuneration, in keeping with the standards established by the Council on World Service and Finance. The Executive Secretary shall be the administrative officer in charge of the Staff and responsible for carrying out the program of the Board.

All employed officers and other Staff members, whether elected or appointed, quadrennially or annually, shall retire upon reaching the retirement age as fixed by the pension plan of the Board. [From ¶ 1181.]

¶ 1214, delete.

¶ 1215, § 1, revise so as to read:

An Associate Secretary for Home Missions shall be responsible for co-ordination of all aspects of the work of national missions, other than church extension, including city work, town and country work, Goodwill Industries, Negro work, and Spanish-speaking and Indian work in the Southwest. The Board may also establish other similar administrative units which are considered necessary. Each of these areas of work may be under the supervision of a Director nominated by the Associate Secretary for Home Missions and the Executive Secretary and elected by the Board. These staff members shall work in close co-operation with one another.

¶ 1215, § 2, delete.

¶ 1215, § 3, no change, except substitute "Board of National Missions" for "Division of Home Missions and Church Extension" in line 5.

¶ 1216, no change, except delete "or secretaries" in line 1, and make rest of language conform.

¶ 1217, no change, except substitute "Director in charge of" for "Department of" in line 1, and make rest of wording conform.

¶¶ 1218-30, no change, except to correct titles to conform to pattern in ¶ 1217.

¶ 1231, delete.

¶¶ 1232-35, no change, except to correct names of Boards and titles.

¶ 1236, delete here (used below).

¶ 1237, revise so as to read:

The Board shall have the responsibility for church extension in the United States, its territories, and its possessions. It shall have an Associate Secretary or Secretaries who, with a Staff, shall be responsible for carrying forward the work of church extension under the following provisions and regulations:

¶ 1237, § 1, no change, except substitute "Board" for "Section of Church Extension" in line 1.

¶ 1237, § 2, revise so as to read:

The Board shall appropriate money for the various types of work in the field and the conduct of the office. It shall decide what amount should be donated or lent . . . (to end of section).

¶ 1237, § 3, no change.

¶ 1237, § 4, revise so as to read:

All applications for aid from the Board shall be made through the Annual Conference Board of Missions, or a similar Board in the Jurisdiction. Grants shall be made by the Board of the Executive Committee upon recommendation of the Associate Secretary or Secretaries.

¶ 1237, §§ 5, 6, no change, except substitute "Board" for "Division" and for "Section of Church Extension."

¶ 1237, § 7, as it now appears, except: correct name; make line 8 read: "under the supervision of the Board of National Missions."

¶ 1237, § 8, as it now appears, except: correct name; in line 3 add, after the word "annuity," the words "(See ¶ 770)."

¶ 1237, § 9, no change, except correct name.

¶ 1237, § 10, revise so as to read:

The Board shall have a Bureau of Finance and Field Service. A fund may be set up by the Board to be secured from gifts and legacies, the income to be used in supporting the work of this Bureau. The purposes of the Bureau shall be: . . . (to end of sub-paragraph).

¶ 1238, no change, except to correct name.

¶ 1414, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Bureau of Church Architecture functioning under the Associate Secretary or Secretaries responsible for the program of church extension. It shall work in co-operation with the Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education in making plans for Church School facilities. This Bureau shall prepare standards for the architecture of churches and educational buildings and recommend them to the co-operating Agencies, namely, the Board of National Missions and the Board of Christian Education. It shall, under such provisions as the Agencies may agree upon, offer counsel in the erection of such buildings.

¶ 1236, revise so as to read:

The Board shall maintain a co-operative relationship with the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church and may appoint a Committee to work with a like representation from the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church for study and consideration of any problems of mutual concern.

¶ 1239, delete.

SECTION IV. Woman's Board of Christian Service

¶ 1240, §§ 1-3, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Woman's Board of Christian Service within the Department of Missions. It shall be incorporated.

The Board shall be composed as follows: two Bishops, selected by the Council of Bishops; four women elected by each of the six Jurisdictions, plus one woman from each Jurisdiction for each five hundred thousand members or major fraction thereof above the first five hundred thousand members; and twelve members at large, of whom two, one minister and one lay man, shall be nominated by the Board of World Missions from its membership, and two, one minister and one lay man, shall be nominated by the Board of National Missions from its membership, and elected by the Woman's Board of Christian Service. Of the members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Central Jurisdiction and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Northeastern Jurisdiction.

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

¶ 1240, § 4, as it now appears, except add, in line 3 after "administered by" the words "the Woman's Division of Christian Service."

¶ 1241, revise so as to read:

The Board shall have authority to recommend fields of labor; to accept, train, and maintain workers, utilizing the services of the Joint Committee on Missionary Personnel; to buy and sell property, subject to the restrictions set forth in ¶ —[Co-ordinating Council, item 7, p. 27]; to secure and administer funds for the support of all work under its charge; to receive contributions subject to annuity under the Board's regulations (¶ 770); to organize Jurisdiction, Conference, District, and local-church societies for adults, young people, and children as auxiliary to the Board; and to recommend constitutions and by-laws for the same.

¶ 1242, no change except, in line 2, substitute "Board" for "Division."

¶ 1243, revise so as to read:

The Board shall elect quadrennially a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a Recording Secretary, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings. The Board shall also elect such Associate Secretaries as the need may require and may elect an Executive Secretary. The Board shall determine the powers and duties of its officers and Staff and shall recommend their remuneration.

All employed officers and other staff members, whether elected or appointed, quadrennially or annually, shall retire upon reaching the retirement age as fixed by the pension plan of the Board. [From ¶ 1181.]

¶ 1244, no change except, in lines 1, 10, 11, 12, and 15, substitute "Board" for "Division"; and in lines 2, 3, 4, 5, 12, and 14, substitute "Section" for "Department"; and in line 13, substitute "Associate" for "Executive."

¶ 1245 through § 1, no change except, in lines 1 and 7, substitute

"Section" for "Department"; and, in line 6, substitute "Associate" for "Executive."

¶ 1245, § delete.

¶ 1246, no change except, in line 2, substitute "Board" for "Division."

¶ 1247 through § 1, no change except, in lines 1, 4, 5, and 6, substitute "Section" for "Department"; and in line 7, substitute "Associate" for "Executive."

¶ 1247, §§ 2, 3, delete.

¶ 1247, § 4, no change except, in line 1, substitute "Section" for "Department."

¶ 1248, no change except, in lines 1, 18, 20, and 23-24, substitute "Section" for "Department"; and in lines 3, 23, substitute "Board" for "Division"; and in line 19, substitute "Associate" for "Executive."

¶ 1249, § 1 and first independent clause of § 2, as they now appear, except for correcting names. Delete the remainder of the sub-paragraph and substitute the following:

The Board may continue to edit and distribute its own literature. It shall maintain liaison relationship with the Division of Promotion of the Board of Cultivation, in order to maintain the fullest measure of co-ordination between these organizational units in the formulation of plans and programs. The editing and promotion of World Outlook shall be a joint responsibility of the Division of Promotion and the Woman's Board of Christian Service.

¶ 1249, § 3, delete.

(New) The Board shall co-operate with the Boards in the Department of the Local Church; with the Board of Christian Education, particularly with reference to work with youth and in the area of recruiting for Christian vocations; with the Board of Evangelism and with the Board of Lay Activities, so that the work of lay men and lay women in the local church shall be correlated and integrated to the fullest practicable degree. To this end it shall co-operate in the joint promotion of study courses for men and women.

The Board shall co-operate with the Department of Christian Social Relations.

The Board shall co-operate with the Board of Educational Institutions in student work, and in the integration of youth and student work on the part of the General Agencies. It shall also recognize the interest of the Division of Educational Institutions in such institutions as are related to the Woman's Board of Christian Service, and the interest of the Board of Hospitals and Homes in establishing and maintaining standards for hospitals and homes for children and the aged.

The Woman's Board of Christian Service shall occupy the same co-operative relationship as other organizational units to the Official Board and the Quarterly Conference in the local church.

The Board shall be amenable to the Co-ordinating Council in the same manner as are the other General Agencies of the Church.

¶ 1250, as it now appears, except for correction of names; also add: It shall follow the practices in accounting and investments recommended for World Service Agencies by the Council on World Service and Finance and shall report to that Council its financial support of Inter-Denominational agencies.

¶ 1187, no change.

¶ 1251, no change except to correct name.

INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

See Report No. 3 of the Special Committee of Six on the Report of the Survey Commission, page 1705.

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 411.

SECTION I. ORGANIZATION OF THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION

THERE SHALL BE AN INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS, WHOSE FUNCTION SHALL BE TO ACT AS THE CO-ORDINATOR OF THE POLICIES AND ACTIVITIES OF ITS BOARDS, NAMELY:

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE.

BOARD OF WORLD PEACE.

BOARD OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS.

THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION IN CARRYING OUT ITS FUNCTION OF CO-ORDINATING THE WORK OF THE BOARDS WHICH IT REPRESENTS SHALL SEE THAT PLANS AND PROGRAMS IN THE FIELDS OF TEMPERANCE, PEACE, AND SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS DO NOT OVERLAP OR DUPLICATE IN ACTIVITY AND LITERATURE. ANY QUESTIONS BETWEEN THE CONSTITUENT BOARDS OF OVERLAPPING OR DUPLICATION OF ACTIVITIES WHICH CANNOT BE RESOLVED BY THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL. ANY OVERLAPPING OF FUNCTIONS OR DUPLICATION OF ACTIVITIES BETWEEN ONE OF THE CONSTITUENT BOARDS AND ANOTHER AGENCY OF THE METHODIST CHURCH SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL. WHERE IN THE JUDGMENT OF

THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION IT WOULD FACILITATE CO-ORDINATION OF ITS BOARDS, THE COMMISSION MAY AUTHORIZE INTER-BOARD STAFF COMMITTEES.

THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS SHALL CONSIST OF EIGHTEEN MEMBERS, SIX FROM EACH OF THE THREE BOARDS: THE CHAIRMAN AND FIVE OTHER PERSONS FROM AMONG THE MEMBERSHIP OF ITS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ELECTED BY EACH BOARD.

IMPLEMENTING THE WORK OF THE INTER-BOARD COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS THERE SHALL BE A SECRETARIAL COUNCIL CONSISTING OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARIES OF THREE BOARDS. IT SHALL BE THE FUNCTION OF THIS COUNCIL TO FACILITATE CO-OPERATION AMONG THE BOARDS IN CREATIVE PLANNING OF PROGRAMS AND IN AVOIDING OVERLAPPING OF FUNCTION OR DUPLICATION OF ACTIVITY. THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE SECRETARIAL COUNCIL SHALL ROTATE ANNUALLY AMONG THE THREE EXECUTIVE SECRETARIES.

Chapter VI

Department of Christian Social Relations

Section I. Organization of the Department

(New) There shall be a Department of Christian Social Relations. It shall conduct its operations through three administrative Boards: The Board of Temperance, the Board of World Peace, and the Board of Social and Economic Relations.

The main function of the Department of Christian Social Relations shall be to act as the co-ordinator of the policies and activities of its Boards. Each Board, within the area of its responsibility, shall make its own decisions. Any questions between its constituent Boards or duplication of activities which cannot be resolved by the Department of Christian Social Relations shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activity between one of its constituent Boards and another Agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Where, in the judgment of the Department, it would facilitate co-ordination among its Boards, the Department may authorize Inter-Board Staff Committees. The Department shall also review and pass upon the Budgets of its Boards before their presentation to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

The membership of the Department of Christian Social Relations shall consist of twenty-one persons, seven from each of the three constituent Boards. Of these seven, one shall be a Bishop. He and the other six persons shall be elected by the Board from its own membership without reference to Jurisdictions.

The Department shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Department shall elect a President, a Vice-President, and a Recording Secretary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

There shall be a Departmental Secretarial Council, consisting of the Executive Secretaries of the three constituent Boards. It shall be the function of this Council on an informal basis to facilitate co-operation among the Boards in the Department and to prevent unnecessary overlapping. The Chairmanship of this Council shall rotate annually among the several Executive Secretaries.

The three constituent Boards, after consultation with the three Executive Secretaries, shall jointly elect an Associate Secretary for Promotion, subject to confirmation by the Board of Cultivation, who shall serve on the staff of the Division of Promotion, and be located with the Department of Christian Social Relations. He shall have such Staff as the Budget of the Division of Promotion provides.

The Associate Secretary for Promotion shall have the following functions: He shall serve the Division of Promotion of the Board of Cultivation as a liaison Editor with the Boards of the Department of Christian Social Relations. He shall provide material from the three Boards for the promotional journal of the Board of Cultivation and for pamphlets, leaflets, and booklets to be distributed as part of the total promotional program. He and the Section of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities of the Woman's Board of Christian Service shall co-operate in preparing promotional literature in the areas of their mutual responsibility which can be used for general Church purposes.

SECTION II. Board of Temperance

¶ 1460, no change except, in line 5, delete the words, "with headquarters in Washington, D. C."

¶ 1461, no change.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

TO SUBSTITUTE THE FOLLOWING FOR PARAGRAPH 1462 IN THE 1948 DISCIPLINE ON COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE.

PARAGRAPH 1462 WILL THEN READ:

"THE BOARD SHALL CONSIST OF ONE BISHOP FROM EACH JURISDICTION, ELECTED BY THE COLLEGE OF BISHOPS OF THE JURISDICTION; ONE MINISTER AND ONE LAY PERSON ELECTED BY EACH JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE; AND FIVE MEMBERS AT LARGE TO BE ELECTED BY THE BOARD."

¶ 1462, revise so as to read: (The Board shall be composed of one Bishop selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each of the Jurisdictions, and three lay women, one from the Central Jurisdiction, one from the Northeastern, and one from the South Central. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be six members at large, elected by the Board. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Western Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Southeastern Jurisdiction.)

¶ 1463, delete.

¶ 1464, as it now appears, except, in line 2, delete "who shall be a Bishop," and in line 8 change "seven" to "five."

¶ 1465, as it now appears, except, in line 3 after "member of the Board" add, "without vote."

¶ 1466, revise so as to read:

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Board shall be authorized to receive gifts and bequests; to hold properties and securities in trust; and to administer all these financial affairs in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline.

The Board shall prepare its Budget which shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Department of Christian Social Relations. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

¶¶ 1467-1472, no change except delete word "General" in "General Board of Temperance."

SECTION III. Board of World Peace

THE BOARD OF WORLD PEACE

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

(1) AMEND CHAPTER VIII OF THE 1948 DISCIPLINE AS FOLLOWS: WHEREVER THE WORDS COMMISSION ON WORLD PEACE OCCUR IN THE TITLE SUBSTITUTE THE WORDS "BOARD OF" FOR "COMMISSION ON" SO AS TO READ "THE BOARD OF WORLD PEACE."

(2) AMEND PARAGRAPH 1575 AS FOLLOWS: "THERE SHALL BE A BOARD OF WORLD PEACE. THE BOARD SHALL BE COMPOSED OF THREE BISHOPS, ELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS; ONE MINISTER AND ONE LAYMAN FROM EACH JURISDICTION, ELECTED BY THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE; THREE MINISTERS AND THREE LAYMEN ELECTED AT LARGE BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS, AND TWO YOUTH MEMBERS, UNDER TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE AT THE TIME OF THEIR ELECTION, TO BE ELECTED BY THE BOARD OF WORLD PEACE UPON NOMINATION BY THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF METHODIST YOUTH." THE REMAINDER OF PARAGRAPH 1575 TO REMAIN AS AT PRESENT EXCEPT FOR THE CHANGE FROM COMMISSION TO BOARD, THE LAST SENTENCE TO BE HARMONIZED WITH NEW LEGISLATION.

¶ 1575, revise to read: (There shall be a Board of World Peace. It shall be composed of one Bishop, selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, and three women, one from the North Central Jurisdiction, one from the Southeastern, and one from the Western. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be six members at large, elected by the Board. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Northeastern Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Central Jurisdiction.)

The Board may invite representatives from other Agencies within the Church to meet with it as advisory members, without power to vote. It is authorized to appoint consultants and correspondents in Conferences outside the United States.

¶ 1576, as it now appears, except for correction of name ("Board of World Peace" for "Commission on World Peace").

¶ 1577, revise so as to read:

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Board shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

¶ 1578, revise so as to read:

The Board shall prepare its Budget which shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Department of Christian Social Relations. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45.)

¶¶ 1579-83, no change except for correction of names.

SECTION IV. Board of Social and Economic Relations

From Report No. 3 of the Special Committee of Six on the Report of the Survey Commission, adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, page 411.

THE COMMITTEE OF SIX RECOMMENDS THE ADOPTION OF SECTION IV, BOARD OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS AS SET FORTH IN THE PROPOSED LEGISLATION SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING:

- 1. DEFER CONSIDERATION OF THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD.
- 2. ELIMINATE THE 3RD PARAGRAPH OF COLUMN 2, RELATING TO ANNUAL MEETINGS.
- 3. DELETE THE 5TH PARAGRAPH OF COLUMN 3 AND SUBSTITUTE:
"THE BOARD SHALL PREPARE ITS BUDGET AND PRESENT IT TO THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE."
- 4. CHANGE THE WORDING IN THE LAST PARAGRAPH OF COLUMN 3, SO THAT THE TERMINOLOGY OF OTHER AGENCIES CORRESPONDS WITH NAMES AS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Also See Report No. 9 of the General Standing Committee on the State of the Church, adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, pages 685-690. Report No. 9 follows immediately after this section, page 1784.

Defer consideration. For composition of Board see Report No. 9 of the General Standing Committee on the State of the Church, which follows this section.

(New) (There shall be a Board of Social and Economic Relations. It shall be composed of one Bishop, selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, and three women, one from the North Central Jurisdiction, one from the Southeastern, and one from the Western. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be six members at large, elected by the Board. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the South Central Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Central Jurisdiction.)

The Board may invite representatives from other Agencies within the Church to meet with it as advisory members, without power to vote.

It shall be the function of the Board to make available to the church membership resource material relating to the field of social and economic relations and to respond to requests from local church groups for information and guidance; to interpret and encourage the implementation of the ideals set forth in the Social Creed of the Church (§ 2020), including work in the field of industrial relations; to co-operate with other General Agencies in conducting service projects where Methodist youth may render Christian service and express their Christian convictions in pioneering and other endeavors; to work with other General Agencies in stimulating Christian social thinking and action. This Board shall work in co-operation with the Section of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities of the Woman's Board of Christian Service.

[DELETE (The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.)]

The Board shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

THE BOARD SHALL PREPARE ITS BUDGET AND PRESENT IT TO THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE

AND FINANCE. (The Board shall prepare its budget which shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Department of Christian Social Relations. Subsequently it shall present its proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45.))

The Board shall have authority to elect an Executive Secretary who shall be in charge of the program and of the Staff.

The Board may establish such advisory or co-operative relationships with the Board of Christian Education, the Board of Missions, and other Agencies of the Church as may be mutually agreed upon.

COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH

(2) THE WORK OF THE BOARD SHALL BE SUPPORTED FROM THE GENERAL BENEVOLENCES OF THE CHURCH, THE AMOUNT TO BE DETERMINED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE, ON RECOMMENDATION OF THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE.

CHAPTER VII

DEPARTMENT OF CULTIVATION AND PUBLICATION

From Report No. 4 of the Special Committee of Six on the Report of the Survey Commission, adopted May 5, 1952. See Journal, pages 570-588.

CULTIVATION AND PUBLICATION RECOMMENDATIONS

I. THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND THE METH-

ODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE SHALL CONTINUE TO HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITIES, ACTIVITIES AND RELATIONSHIPS AS PROVIDED IN THE 1948 DISCIPLINE SUBJECT TO WHATEVER AMENDING LEGISLATION IS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

II. THE REPORT OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE RELATION OF THE EDITORIAL DIVISION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION TO THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION SHALL BE ADOPTED.

III. 1. THE COMMITTEE PROPOSES THAT THE GENERAL CONFERENCE RECOMMEND TO THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION FOR ITS CONSIDERATION AND DETERMINATION THE PROPOSAL OF THE SURVEY REPORT THAT THERE SHOULD BE ONE PUBLISHING AGENT INSTEAD OF TWO AND THAT THE MATTER OF TITLE FOR THE FUNCTION SHOULD BE DETERMINED BY THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

2. THE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS THAT THE GENERAL CONFERENCE REFER TO THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION WITH POWER TO ACT THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SURVEY REPORT REGARDING A PERIODICAL FOR PASTORS, AND A PERIODICAL FOR THE FAMILY.

IV. COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION.

THE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS THAT THE GENERAL CONFERENCE ADOPT THE REPORT OF THE QUADRENNIAL COMMITTEE AS IT APPEARS IN THE DAILY CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, APRIL 25, 1952, BEGINNING ON PAGE 109 WITH THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENTS:

THE NAME OF THE COMMISSION ON PROMOTION SHALL BE CHANGED TO COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION. ITS MEMBERSHIP AND FUNCTIONS SHALL BE AS FOLLOWS:

MEMBERSHIP: THREE BISHOPS SELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS; ONE MEMBER EACH FROM THE DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH AND THE DIVISION OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION; ONE EACH FROM THE JOINT SECTION (GENERAL) OF THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION AND THE WOMAN'S DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS; ONE EACH FROM THE BOARD OF LAY

ACTIVITIES, THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM, THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE, THE BOARD OF WORLD PEACE, THE BOARD OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS, THE BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES, THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION, THE COMMISSION ON CHAPLAINS, THE METHODIST COMMITTEE FOR OVERSEAS RELIEF, THE COMMISSION ON PUBLIC INFORMATION, THE RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION AND THE ADVANCE COMMITTEE.

THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARIES OF GENERAL AGENCIES (INCLUDING ONE TO BE NAMED BY THE WOMAN'S DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND ONE TO BE NAMED BY THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION) SHALL BE EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION WITHOUT VOTE.

TO THIS COMMISSION ARE GIVEN THE FOLLOWING RESPONSIBILITIES: TO REVIEW AT LEAST ANNUALLY, AND AS OFTEN IN ADDITION AS MAY BE NECESSARY, THE SEVERAL AND COMBINED PLANS OF THE GENERAL BOARDS AND AGENCIES FOR THE PRODUCTION, AND DISTRIBUTION OF ALL FREE LITERATURE AND PROMOTIONAL AND RESOURCE PERIODICALS (EXCEPT CHURCH SCHOOL LITERATURE) FOR THE PURPOSE OF CO-ORDINATING THE CONTENT, DISTRIBUTION, AND TIMING OF THE RELEASE OF SUCH MATERIALS. IN CASE OF INABILITY TO WORK OUT ADEQUATE PLANS AND PROCEDURES FOR CONTENT, TIMING, AND DISTRIBUTION, THE MATTER SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL.

THIS COMMISSION SHALL STUDY THE PROBLEMS OF CO-ORDINATING AND SIMPLIFYING THE METHODS OF AND FACILITIES FOR DISTRIBUTION OF MATERIALS AND MAY ARRANGE FOR IMPROVED AND MORE EFFICIENT DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE.

TO THIS COMMISSION IS REFERRED THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION CALLING FOR A MONTHLY LOCAL CHURCH PROGRAM JOURNAL FOR PASTORS, MEMBERS OF COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES, LAY LEADERS AND OTHER LOCAL CHURCH WORKERS. THIS INCLUDES THE RECOMMENDATION REGARDING THE MERGING OF CERTAIN PERIODICALS. THIS PERIODICAL SHALL CONTAIN PROGRAM AND RESOURCE MATERIALS FOR USE IN PLANNING AND CARRYING OUT A UNIFIED PROGRAM IN THE LOCAL CHURCH. THE COM-

MISSION MAY EMPLOY A SECRETARY TO SERVE AS EDITOR OF THE PROGRAM JOURNAL AND SUCH OTHER LITERATURE AS IT MAY DECIDE UPON. THE OBJECTIVES, POLICIES AND CONTENT OF THE PROGRAM JOURNAL SHALL BE DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSION IN CONSULTATION WITH THE JOURNAL AGENCIES. THE INITIAL PLANS OF THE COMMISSION REGARDING THE MERGING OF THESE PERIODICALS INTO A LOCAL CHURCH PROGRAM JOURNAL SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL FOR CONSIDERATION AND APPROVAL.

INSTEAD OF EACH GENERAL BOARD AND AGENCY ISSUING SEPARATE MATERIALS, THIS MONTHLY LOCAL CHURCH PROGRAM JOURNAL SHALL CONTAIN IN A CO-ORDINATED WAY AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE OF THE COMBINED PROGRAM OF THE WORLD SERVICE AGENCIES. CORRELATION AND REPRESENTATION SHALL BE DONE EQUITABLY SO FAR AS THE AGENCIES ARE CONCERNED.

BULLETINS AND LEAFLETS NOW BEING ISSUED BY GENERAL BOARDS AND AGENCIES SEPARATELY SHALL BE INCORPORATED IN THIS MONTHLY. WHAT UNDER PRESENT PRACTICES ARE SEPARATE GENERAL MAILINGS OF PROMOTIONAL LETTERS, BULLETINS, PAMPHLETS, AND REPORTS TO PASTORS AND OTHER LOCAL CHURCH LEADERS SHALL BE INCORPORATED IN THIS MONTHLY.

AN ARTICLE RELATING TO THE WORK OF A WORLD SERVICE AGENCY WHICH IS TO APPEAR IN THE MONTHLY PROGRAM JOURNAL SHALL RECEIVE EDITORIAL APPROVAL BY THAT AGENCY BEFORE ITS PUBLICATION.

THE EXPENSES OF THIS COMMISSION AND OF THE EDITING, PUBLISHING AND DISTRIBUTION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH PROGRAM JOURNAL SHALL BE PAID OUT OF WORLD SERVICE FUNDS AND BY CONSTITUENT AGENCIES THAT DO NOT PARTICIPATE IN WORLD SERVICE FUNDS UPON A PRO RATA BASIS TO BE DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSION AND APPROVED BY THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE. THE BUDGET OF THE COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION AS RECOMMENDED BY THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE AND APPROVED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE SHALL BE A PRIOR CHARGE AGAINST WORLD SERVICE FUNDS.

THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE REPORT OF THE QUADRENNIAL COMMITTEE, SECTION IV, THE ADVANCE ON PAGE 110 OF THE DAILY CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, APRIL 25, 1952, SHALL BE ADOPTED EXCEPT FOR THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENTS:

1. THE QUADRENNIAL ADVANCE COMMITTEE SHALL BE CONSTITUTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS.

2. THE ADVANCE COMMITTEE SHALL HAVE AN ADVISORY RELATIONSHIP TO THE CENTRAL PROMOTION OFFICE IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMOTION OF ADVANCE SPECIALS, THE WEEK OF DEDICATION OFFERING, AND CONFERENCE-INITIATED SPECIALS.

3. ANY CHANGES THAT ARE TO BE MADE IN THE AGENCIES PARTICIPATING IN ADVANCE SPECIALS AND THE WEEK OF DEDICATION, OR THE RATIO OF RECEIPTS SHALL BE DETERMINED BY THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE AFTER CONSULTATION WITH THE ADVANCE COMMITTEE AND THE AGENCIES CONCERNED.

4. THE BUDGET FOR PROMOTION OF ADVANCE PROJECTS SHALL BE RECOMMENDED BY THE ADVANCE COMMITTEE TO THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE FOR ITS CONSIDERATION AND APPROVAL. THE APPROVED BUDGET SHALL BE A PRIOR CLAIM ON RECEIPTS.

5. SUBSTITUTE FOR PARAGRAPH 753 A. IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT THERE IS AN INSEPARABLE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN EDUCATION IN STEWARDSHIP AND GIVING, WE RECOMMEND THAT DURING THE QUADRENNIUM THE BOARDS OF EDUCATION AND LAY ACTIVITIES, AND THE COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION CO-OPERATE IN A CHURCHWIDE PROGRAM OF STEWARDSHIP EDUCATION WITH SPECIAL EMPHASIS UPON THE STEWARDSHIP OF POSSESSIONS WHICH SHALL BE CLOSELY RELATED TO GIVING TO THE BENEVOLENCE CAUSES WHICH METHODISTS WILL BE CALLED UPON TO SUPPORT.

INTER-AGENCY COMMISSION ON CULTIVATION, PROMOTION AND PUBLICATION

THERE SHALL BE AN INTER-AGENCY COMMISSION ON CULTIVATION, PROMOTION AND PUBLICATION

WHOSE FUNCTION SHALL BE TO ACT AS THE CO-ORDINATOR OF THE POLICIES AND ACTIVITIES OF THE FOLLOWING:

COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION
RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METH-ODIST INFORMATION

BOARD OF PUBLICATION

THE INTER-AGENCY COMMISSION IN CARRYING OUT ITS FUNCTION OF CO-ORDINATING THE WORK OF THE AGENCIES WHICH IT REPRESENTS SHALL SEE THAT PLANS AND PROGRAMS RELATING TO CULTIVATION, PROMOTION, FILMS, RADIO, TELEVISION, PUBLIC RELATIONS, METHODIST INFORMATION AND PUBLISHING DO NOT OVERLAP OR DUPLICATE. ANY QUESTIONS OF OVERLAPPING OR DUPLICATION WHICH CANNOT BE RESOLVED BY THE INTER-AGENCY COMMISSION ON CULTIVATION, PROMOTION, AND PUBLICATION SHALL BE REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL. WHEN IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE INTER-AGENCY COMMISSION IT WOULD FACILITATE CO-ORDINATION AMONG ITS AGENCIES, THE COMMISSION MAY AUTHORIZE INTER-BOARD STAFF COMMITTEES.

THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE INTER-AGENCY COMMISSION ON CULTIVATION, PROMOTION AND PUBLICATION SHALL CONSIST OF THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS FROM ITS RESPECTIVE AGENCIES:

COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION—
FOUR

RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION—TWO

COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METH-ODIST INFORMATION—ONE

BOARD OF PUBLICATION—TWO

IMPLEMENTING THE WORK OF THE INTER-AGENCY COMMISSION ON CULTIVATION, PROMOTION AND PUBLICATION THERE SHALL BE A SECRETARIAL COUNCIL, CONSISTING OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, DIRECTOR, OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVE OF EACH CONSTITUENT AGENCY. IT SHALL BE THE FUNCTION OF THIS COUNCIL TO FA-CILITATE CO-OPERATION AMONG THE AGENCIES IN THE CREATIVE PLANNING OF THEIR RESPECTIVE PROGRAMS AND IN AVOIDING OVERLAPPING OF FUNCTION OR DUPLICATION OF ACTIVITY. THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE SECRETARIAL COUNCIL SHALL ROTATE ANNUALLY AMONG ITS MEMBERS.

CHAPTER VII

DEPARTMENT OF CULTIVATION AND PUBLICATION

SECTION I. Organization of the Department

There shall be a Department of Cultivation and Publication, which shall have responsibility for the cultivation, promotion, and publishing activities of The Methodist Church. This Department shall be responsible for the co-ordination and editing of all materials to be used for cultivation, information, promotion, publicity, and public relations. The Department shall operate through its three constituent Boards, namely: the Board of Cultivation, the Board of Publications, and the Board of The Methodist Publishing House. It shall act as the co-ordinator of the policies and activities of its constituent Boards.

Any questions between its constituent Boards or duplication of activities which cannot be resolved by the Department of Cultivation and Publication shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activity between one of its constituent Boards and another Agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council. Where, in the judgment of the Department it would facilitate co-ordination among its Boards, the Department may authorize Inter-Board Staff Committees. The Department shall also review the Budgets of its Boards and make appropriate Report to the Council on World Service and Finance.

The membership of the Department of Cultivation and Publication shall consist of twenty-one persons, seven from each of the three constituent Boards. Of these seven, one shall be a Bishop. He and the other six persons shall be elected by the Board from its own membership without reference to Jurisdictions.

The Department shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of the members.

The department shall elect a President, a Vice-President, and a Recording Secretary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

There shall be a Departmental Secretarial Council, consisting of the Chairman of the Council of the Board of Cultivation, the Chairman of the Council of Editors of the Board of Publications, and the General Manager of The Methodist Publishing House. It shall be the function of this Council on an informal basis to facilitate co-operation among the Boards and Divisions of the Department and to prevent unnecessary overlapping. The Chairmanship of this Council shall rotate annually among the three members.

SECTION II. Board of Cultivation

There shall be a Board of Cultivation which shall have responsibility for editing and preparing devotional literature, promotional literature, and audio-visual materials and for directing publicity and public relations for The Methodist Church. The Board of Cultivation shall operate through four Divisions: the Division of Devotional Literature; the Division of Promotion; the Division of Films, Radio, and Television; and the Division of Methodist Information and Public Relations.

The Board of Cultivation shall consist of twenty-six persons, selected as follows: two of the four Bishops who are selected by the Council of Bishops to serve on the four subordinate Divisions of the Board shall be designated by the Council of Bishops to serve on the Board of Cultivation. Each of the Divisions shall elect six persons as members of the Board of Cultivation. These members are to be chosen without reference to their Jurisdictions.

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Board shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, and such other officers as are necessary. The recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The Board of Cultivation shall represent the General Agencies of the Church in promotional and public relations matters. An Associate Secretary for Promotion for the Department of the Local Church, another for the Department of Christian Social Relations, and a third for the Boards of World Missions and of National Missions jointly, shall be elected by the respective Agencies subject to confirmation by the Board of Cultivation. These three Associate Secretaries shall serve on the Staff of the Division of Promotion and shall have such Assisting Staffs as the Division provides. The promotional activities of all the General Agencies of The Methodist Church, except those of the Woman's Board of Christian Service, shall be directed and correlated by the Board of Cultivation through its several Divisions. The Staff personnel of these General Agencies shall provide source material, news items, and other data for the use of the Divisions of the Board. The Woman's Board of Christian Service shall maintain liaison with the Board of Cultivation to co-operate in developing a unified promotional program for The Methodist Church.

The Board has the responsibility for co-ordinating the work of its constituent Divisions and preventing unnecessary duplication in their functioning. Any problems arising between its constituent Divisions or duplication of activities which cannot be resolved by the Board shall be referred to the Department of Cultivation and Publication. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activity between one of its constituent Divisions and another Agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council.

The Board shall review and pass upon the Budgets of its four constituent Divisions. Subsequently the divisions shall present their proposed Budgets to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.) The Division of Devotional Literature shall be self-supporting; the other three Divisions shall receive support from World Service Funds.

The Board shall elect an Editor or Director for each Division, except that the Editor of the Division of Devotional Literature shall be elected by the Board of Evangelism and confirmed by the Board of Cultivation. Each of the other three Divisions shall nominate its own Director to the Board of Cultivation. Each Editor or Director shall serve as the administrative officer in charge of that Division.

There shall be a Board Council consisting of the Editor of the Division of Devotional Literature, the Director of the Division of Promotion, the Director of the Division of Radio, Films, and Television, and the Director of the Division of Methodist Information and Public Relations. It shall be the function of this Council on an informal basis to facilitate co-operation between the four Divisions and to prevent unnecessary overlapping. The Chairmanship of the Council shall rotate annually among the Editor and the Directors.

Division of Devotional Literature

There shall be, within the Board of Cultivation, a Division of Devotional Literature, which has the responsibility for the preparation of devotional literature.

The Division shall be composed of one Bishop, selected by the Council of Bishops, six ministers and eight lay persons, at least two of whom shall be women, one lay woman from the Northeastern Jurisdiction, and one from the Southeastern, provided that each Jurisdiction shall be represented by at least one person. They shall be nominated by the Council of Bishops, on the basis of their specialized experience and abilities, and elected by the General Conference. In addition there shall be four members at large, elected by the Division. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Central Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the South Central Jurisdiction.

The Division shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the Chairman or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

It shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

¶ 1565, revise so as to read:

An Editor, who shall be elected by the Board of Evangelism and confirmed by the Board of Cultivation, shall be the administrative officer of the Division. The responsibility for supervision of the Staff and promotion of the program of the Division rests with the Editor. The Division shall be responsible for editing, printing, and distributing The Upper Room, and producing and distributing other devotional literature for the cultivation of the spiritual life.

The Division of Devotional Literature and the Board of Evangelism shall maintain a liaison relationship in the preparation of devotional booklets and study books.

The net income and accumulated assets derived from the publication of The Upper Room or other devotional and related literature shall be conserved and used exclusively for preparing and circulating devotional literature, provided, however, that this shall not prevent the setting up of a reserve fund out of such earnings as a protection against unforeseen emergencies.

(New) It shall prepare an annual Budget which shall be reviewed by the Board of Cultivation and the Department of Cultivation and Publication and shall file its audited annual financial statements with the Council on World Service and Finance.

Division of Promotion

There shall be within the Board of Cultivation a Division of Promotion which has responsibility for the preparation of printed materials used for promotion and cultivation throughout the Church.

The Division shall be composed of one Bishop, selected by the Council of Bishops, six ministers and eight lay persons, at least two of whom shall be women, one lay woman from the Central Jurisdiction and one from the Western, provided that each Jurisdiction shall be represented by at least one person. They shall be nominated by the Council of Bishops on the basis of their specialized experience and abilities, and elected by the General Conference. In addition, there shall be four members at large, elected by the Division. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the North Central Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Southeastern Jurisdiction. The Executive Secretary of each World Service Agency, one administrative officer from the Woman's Board of Christian Service, and the General Manager of The Methodist Publishing House shall be members, ex officio, without vote.

The Division shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the Chairman or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Division shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The Division of Promotion shall nominate to the Board of Cultivation for election a person to serve as Director of the Division with administrative responsibility for supervising its Staff and program.

The functions of the Division of Promotion shall be: preparing printed materials designed for cultivation and promotion of the work of the World Service Agencies of the Church; co-ordinating the issuance of printed matter to avoid duplication and excess; maintaining a complete record and file of pamphlets, booklets, and leaflets as they are issued; encouraging the circulation and sale of promotional printed materials; arranging with The Methodist Publishing House to provide centralized service facilities (separate from Branch Houses) for filling and shipping orders for printed materials and for handling collections from sales; serving as a clearing center for the Church Calendar of meetings; co-operating with General Agencies in arranging their annual meetings; promoting the regular World Service Program, the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, authorized Special Days, and also any special emphasis approved by the General Conference for the quadrennium. It shall maintain one address file to be used for all general mailings to pastors.

Each Board and Division shall have the responsibility for proposing the editorial content of publications to be prepared by the Division of Promotion. The Division of Promotion shall consult the Board or Division regarding proposed writers and projected literature and shall receive editorial approval by the Agency concerned of the content of the educational or promotional literature before its publication.

The Woman's Board of Christian Service shall co-operate with the Division in preparing promotional literature. The editing and promotion of World Outlook shall be a joint responsibility of the Division of Promotion and the Woman's Board of Christian Service.

The Division shall also be responsible for planning and editing a monthly periodical for pastors, lay leaders, Church School Superintendents, members of the General Agencies, and other church leaders, which is designed to inform the readers concerning the various interests represented by the General Agencies. This periodical shall contain the program aid promotional materials of the various Boards and Divisions and shall replace such publications as the Pastor's Journal, Christian Education Magazine, Shepherds, Methodist Layman, The Voice, and Church School. Under this procedure direct general mailings to pastors and other church leaders of promotional letters, bulletins and pamphlets from the Departments, Boards, and Divisions of the Church will be unnecessary. However, each World Service Agency shall have a limited budgetary allowance for free printed materials or for financing the preparation of literature for sale. This allowance shall be subject to approval, as part of its total Budget, by the Council on World Service and Finance and the General Conference.

When a World Service Agency is financing literature from its own budget it shall prescribe the content, and shall utilize the services of the Division of Promotion for its preparation, issuance and circulation. Net receipts from the sale of such literature shall accrue to the Budget of the agency concerned.

The Division shall also edit and promote the magazine motive, as a publication for students. The Editor of motive shall be elected by the Division of General Education of the Board of Educational Institutions and confirmed by the Board of Cultivation.

The Division of Promotion shall be responsible for preparing two Budgets. The one, which shall be known as the General Budget, shall cover expenditures for the headquarters office, the staff, the monthly promotional journal, and related items; this shall be a fixed budget and shall not be on a ratio basis. It shall be prepared for the quadrennium and shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Board of Cultivation and the Department of Cultivation and Publication. Subsequently the Division shall present this General Budget, together with the Special Budget, to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

The second Budget, which shall be known as the Special Budget, shall cover expenditures which have a direct relation to the encouraging of giving for World Service causes. The amount allowed for this Budget shall be fixed for the first year of the quadrennium by the General Conference, but thereafter shall be subject to annual review by the Council on World Service and Finance and may be raised or lowered. The Budgets of the Division of Promotion shall constitute a prior claim on world service funds.

Division of Films, Radio, and Television

There shall be within the Board of Cultivation a Division of Films, Radio, and Television, which has the responsibility for creating and producing audio-visual materials and also for passing upon all audio-visual materials used by General Agencies, from the standpoint of their acceptability for use in the Church.

RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

AMEND PAR. 1144, SEC. 2.

SUBSTITUTE THE FOLLOWING:

2. THE MEMBERSHIP SHALL BE CONSTITUTED FROM AND ELECTED BY THE FOLLOWING AGENCIES: TWO MEMBERS FROM THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS; THREE MEMBERS FROM THE BOARD OF MISSIONS (INCLUDING THE TWO EXECUTIVE SECRETARIES OF THE JOINT SECTION OF EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION AND ONE OTHER ELECTED BY THE BOARD); THREE FROM THE BOARD OF EDUCATION; TWO FROM THE METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE; AND ONE EACH FROM THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM, THE BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES, THE BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES, THE BOARD ON WORLD PEACE, THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE, THE BOARD OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS, THE COMMISSION ON PUBLIC INFORMATION, THE BOARD OF PENSIONS, AND THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY; ONE FROM EACH JURISDICTION, ELECTED BY THE COLLEGE OF BISHOPS OF THAT JURISDICTION; AND FIVE MEMBERS AT LARGE ELECTED BY THE COMMISSION.

(The Division shall be composed of one Bishop, selected by the Council of Bishops, six ministers and eight lay persons, at least two of whom shall be women, one lay woman from the Central Jurisdiction and one from the Western, provided that each Jurisdiction shall be represented by at least one person. They shall be nominated by the Council of Bishops, on the basis of their specialized experience and abilities, and elected by the General Conference. In addition, there shall be four members at large, elected by the Division. Of these members at large at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the South Central Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the North Central Jurisdiction.)

The Division shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the Chairman or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

It shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The Division shall nominate to the Board of Cultivation for election a person to serve as the director in charge of the Division. It shall be his responsibility to supervise the Staff and program of the Division.

The Staff of the Division shall be specialists in creating films and radio and television programs and in the related techniques. The Director shall be in charge of and co-ordinate the editorial preparation and production of all audio-visual materials for the various Boards of the Church and their subordinate Divisions. He shall also be responsible for passing upon the acceptability of all audio-visual materials which the General Agencies of the Church, including The Methodist Publishing House, propose to use or to release for use by the Church.

The Division shall be supported from World Service Funds and from receipts from rentals and sales of films and other materials. In planning its Budget the Division shall consult with the General Agencies and receive their suggestions concerning materials which should be developed. The Budget shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Board of Cultivation and the Department of Cultivation and Publication. Subsequently the proposed Budget shall be presented to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

The Staff shall co-operate with Inter-Denominational Agencies, including the Central Department of Broadcasting and Films of the National Council of Churches.

¶ 1144, delete.

COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

PARAGRAPH 1590

THERE SHALL BE AN AGENCY OF PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION WHICH SHALL GATHER NEWS OF PUBLIC INTEREST CONCERNING METHODIST ACTIVITIES AND OPINION AND DISSEMINATE IT THROUGH THE SECULAR PRESS, THE RELIGIOUS PRESS, RADIO, TELEVISION AND OTHER LEGITIMATE MEDIA OF PUBLIC INFORMATION.

THIS AGENCY SHALL BE KNOWN AS THE COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION BUT IN ITS RELATIONS WITH THE MEDIA IT SERVES AND WITH THE PUBLIC GENERALLY THE COMMISSION MAY USE SUCH ABBREVIATION OF ITS NAME AS IT MAY DEEM APPROPRIATE.

THE COMMISSION SHALL BE COMPOSED OF NINE PERSONS, ONE OF WHOM SHALL BE A BISHOP, THE MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE UPON NOMINATION OF THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS. CARE SHALL BE TAKEN TO NOMINATE PERSONS WHOSE EXPERIENCE IN PUBLIC RELATIONS, JOURNALISM, ADVERTISING, RADIO AND TELEVISION, BUSINESS, OR THE CHURCH PARTICULARLY QUALIFIES THEM FOR THIS SERVICE. THE BISHOP WHO SHALL BE A MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION SHALL ACT AS ITS CHAIRMAN.

THE COMMISSION IS AUTHORIZED TO EMPLOY AN EXECUTIVE SECRETARY WHO MAY BE KNOWN AS

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND SUCH OTHER PERSONS AS MAY BE NECESSARY TO GIVE EFFECT TO ITS PURPOSE.

THE EXPENSE OF THE COMMISSION SHALL BE BORNE BY THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATION FUND. THE COMMISSION SHALL PRESENT A PROPOSED BUDGET TO THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE FOR ITS CONSIDERATION AND ACTION.

THIS COMMISSION SHALL BE THE SOLE GENERAL NEWS-GATHERING AND DISTRIBUTING AGENCY FOR THE METHODIST CHURCH AND ITS GENERAL AGENCIES. THE COMMISSION MAY ARRANGE WITH OTHER GENERAL AGENCIES FOR SOME PERSONS IN THOSE ORGANIZATIONS TO REPRESENT THE COMMISSION IN DIRECT RELEASE OF METHODIST NEWS ITEMS TO THE RELIGIOUS AND/OR SECULAR PRESS, BUT IN THE CASES OF AGENCIES WHICH SUPPORTED A NEWS-GATHERING AND DISTRIBUTION SERVICE DURING 1948-52, THEIR BUDGETS SHALL CONTINUE TO BE PROVIDED BY THESE BOARDS.

VACANCIES OCCURRING BETWEEN SESSIONS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE SHALL BE FILLED BY THE COMMISSION. MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION SHALL HOLD OFFICE UNTIL THE NEXT SESSION OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OR UNTIL THEIR SUCCESSORS ARE ELECTED.

THE COMMISSION SHALL HAVE GENERAL SUPERVISION OVER PLANNING PUBLICITY RELATIONSHIPS AND PROCEDURES FOR MAKING RELEASES THROUGHOUT THE CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES. IT MAY ENCOURAGE AND WORK WITH AREA AND ANNUAL CONFERENCE DIRECTORS OF PUBLIC RELATIONS, MAY ASSIST IN PASTORS SCHOOLS AND CONDUCT SEMINARS IN PUBLIC RELATIONS AND MAY PREPARE INSTRUCTION MATERIALS FOR LOCAL CHURCH USE CONCERNING PUBLIC RELATIONS.

THE COMMISSION SHALL MAINTAIN CO-OPERATIVE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE EDITORS OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

† 1590, revise so as to read:

(There shall be a Division of Methodist Information and Public Relations, under the Board of Cultivation. The Division shall be composed of one Bishop, selected by the Council of Bishops, six ministers, and eight lay persons, at least two of whom shall be women, one lay woman from the Central Jurisdiction and one from the Western, provided that each Jurisdiction shall be represented by at least one person. They shall be nominated by the Council of Bishops, on the basis of their specialized experience and abilities, and elected by the General Conference. In addition, there shall be four members at large, elected by the Division. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Southeastern Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Northeastern Jurisdiction.

The Division shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the Chairman or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

The Division shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The Division shall nominate to the Board of Cultivation for election a person to serve as the Director in charge of the Division. It shall be his responsibility to supervise the Staff and program of the Division.

It shall be the function of this Division to gather news of public interest concerning Methodist activities and opinion and to disseminate it through the secular press, the religious press, radio, and television. This Division shall be the sole general news-gathering and distributing agency for The Methodist Church and its General Agencies.

The Division of Methodist Information and Public Relations may arrange with another General Agency for some person in that organization to represent the Division in direct release of Methodist news items to the religious and/or secular press. However, the Division shall have general supervision over planning publicity relationships and procedures for making releases throughout the Church in the United States. The Division shall work with Area and Annual Conference Directors of Public relations, shall assist in Pastors' Schools with courses in public relations, and shall prepare instruction materials for local church use concerning public relations.

The Division shall maintain a co-operative relationship with the Editors of the Board of Publications, and assist in the gathering of news for Church periodicals. The Division shall be supported from World Service Funds. It shall prepare a Budget which shall be reviewed and passed upon by the Board of Cultivation and the Department of Cultivation and Publication. Subsequently the proposed Budget shall be presented to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

SECTION II. Board of Publication

There shall be a Board of Publication which shall have the responsibility for the editing of books which are planned for publication by The Methodist Publishing House, except those issued by other agencies of the Church (the Division of Promotion and the Division of Devotional Literature), for editing and preparing Church School publications (as outlined by the Curriculum Committee), and for the editing of official church publications other than The Upper Room, World Outlook, motive, and the promotional periodical issued by the Division of Promotion. The Board shall have under its direction the Book Editor, the Editor of Church School Publications, the Editor of the Periodical for Pastors, and the Editor of the Monthly Magazine for the Christian family.

¶ 1110, revise so as to read:

Sec. II—BOARD OF PUBLICATION

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 736.

PAR. 1110. THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION SHALL CONSIST OF FORTY-FIVE MEMBERS, TWO OF WHOM SHALL BE BISHOPS SELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS FOR A TERM OF FOUR YEARS, NOT ELIGIBLE TO SUCCEED THEMSELVES. THE REMAINING MEMBERS SHALL BE ELECTED BY THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES ON A RATIO WHICH WILL PROVIDE FOR AN EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION BETWEEN THE VARIOUS JURISDICTIONS, BASED ON THE MEMBERSHIPS THEREOF, PROVIDED THAT NO JURISDICTION SHALL BE REPRESENTED BY LESS THAN TWO MEMBERS. MEMBERSHIP ON THE BOARD SHALL BE EQUALLY DIVIDED, AS FAR AS PRACTICABLE, BETWEEN MINISTERS AND LAYMEN, THE BISHOPS BEING COUNTED AMONG THE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS FROM THE JURISDICTIONS IN WHICH THEY SERVE. IT SHALL BE THE DUTY OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION TO INFORM THE VARIOUS JURISDICTIONAL SECRETARIES OF THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED FROM THEIR JURISDICTIONS, THE RATIO OF SUCH REPRESENTATION BEING COMPUTED ON THE BASIS OF THE LATEST OFFICIAL MEMBERSHIP STATISTICS AVAILABLE. THE TERM

OF OFFICE OF ANY ELECTED MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION SHALL BE LIMITED TO EIGHT YEARS. IN THE FIRST ELECTION ONE-HALF SHALL BE ELECTED FOR ONLY FOUR YEARS, THE OTHER HALF FOR EIGHT YEARS, THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE DETERMINING THE TENURE OF OFFICE OF EACH MEMBER ELECTED. IN ORDER TO PROVIDE FOR A CONTINUING BOARD, IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT AT LEAST ONE-HALF THE MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED SHALL BE CHOSEN FROM THE PRESENT MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION. IN CASE A VACANCY OCCURS BETWEEN SESSIONS OF THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE FOR ANY CAUSE, THE BOARD SHALL FILL THE VACANCY FROM THAT JURISDICTION IN THE REPRESENTATION OF WHICH THE VACANCY OCCURS. THE PUBLISHING AGENTS SHALL BE EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS OF THE BOARD, WITHOUT VOTE.

(The Board of Publication shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops, elected by the Council of Bishops, six ministers, and fourteen lay persons, at least two of whom shall be women, one lay woman from the Northeastern Jurisdiction and one from the Southeastern, provided that each Jurisdiction shall be represented by at least one person. They shall be nominated by the Council of Bishops, on the basis of their specialized experience and abilities, and elected by the General Conference. In addition there shall be four members at large, elected by the Board. Of these members at large, at least two shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the Western Jurisdiction, and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Central Jurisdiction.)

¶ 1111, revise so as to read:

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the Chairman or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

(New) It shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The Board has the responsibility for supervising and co-ordinating the work of the four Editorial offices (¶ . . .). Any problems arising among them or duplication of activities which cannot be resolved by the Board shall be referred to the Department of Cultivation and Publication. Any overlapping of functions or duplication of activity between one of its Editorial offices and another agency of The Methodist Church shall be referred to the Co-ordinating Council.

The Board shall elect the Book Editor, the Editor of the Periodical for Pastors, and the Editor of the Periodical for the Christian Family.

The Board of Christian Education shall elect the Editor of Church School Publications, subject to confirmation by the Board of Publications.

The Board shall supervise the work of the four Editors, each of whom shall be responsible for the selection of his own Staff. This supervisory relationship shall be carried forward in part through four Advisory Committees of not fewer than five persons each, selected by the Board from its own membership, one Committee being assigned to each Editorial function.

The four Editors shall form a Council of Editors for co-operation in their work. The Council shall elect one of its number Chairman. The office shall rotate annually among the Editors.

The Board of Publications shall review the proposed Budgets of the Book Editor, the Editor of Church School Publications, the Editor of the Periodical for Pastors, and the Editor of the Periodical for the Christian Family. The Board shall provide a fund in the annual Budget of the Book Editor to be used by him under special circumstances in underwriting the publication of religious books (see ¶ 1127, below). After this review of the proposed Budgets, the Board shall then recommend the Budgets to the Board of The Methodist Publishing House. The two Boards shall report to the Department of Cultivation and Publication either their concurrence in the Budgets or their differences concerning them. The Budgets proposed then shall be reviewed by the Department of Cultivation and Publication. The Budgets approved by that Department shall become a part of the financial operations of The Methodist Publishing House.

Book Editor

¶ 1127, revise so as to read:

The Book Editor, under the direction of the Board of Publications, shall edit or arrange for the editing of books which are planned for publication by The Methodist Publishing House, except those issued by other Agencies of the Church (the Division of Promotion and the Division of Devotional Literature) and the books approved by the Curriculum Committee which shall be edited by the Editor of Church School Publications. In the preparation of general textbooks in the field of Christian education the Book Editor shall consult and collaborate with the Editor of Church School Publications.

He shall work in co-operation with The Methodist Publishing House in ascertaining the need for various types of books and in appraising manuscripts for publication. He shall have joint responsibility with the General Manager of The Methodist Publishing House in passing on book manuscripts considered for publication. He shall also be the Editor in charge of Religion in Life.

Generally, no book shall be approved for publication unless both the Book Editor and the General Manager of The Methodist Publishing House consider it advisable. However, if the Book Editor and also his Advisory Committee consider a religious book to be important for publication, and the General Manager does not concur, the Book Editor may draw on the fund provided by the Board of Publications to subsidize such publication. Any profits realized from the sale of the book shall be returned to the fund.

¶ 1128, delete.

Church School Publications

¶ 1129, delete.

¶ 1130, revise so as to read:

The Editor of Church School Publications, under the direction of the Board of Publications, shall have responsibility for editing the Church School literature as outlined by the Curriculum Committee. The Editor shall be elected by the Board of Christian Education, subject to confirmation by the Board of Publication. He shall have a Staff of Associate Editors and writers, who shall be under his appointment. The Staff shall be large enough to permit its members to have field contacts with leaders in Church Schools, so that they may be acquainted with the procedures and needs of local Church Schools and that the Church School materials which they write may have a maximum usefulness in local situations. To this end, the Staff of the Editor of Church School Publications and the Staff of the Board of Christian Education of the Department of the Local Church shall work in close co-operation.

¶ 1131, revise so as to read:

The Curriculum Committee shall determine the curriculum of the Church School and outline the body of literature which is to be prepared under the Editor of Church School Publications, including the materials for use by the Methodist Youth Fellowship and Teacher Training Schools. The membership of the Curriculum Committee shall consist of seventeen persons: the Editor of Church School Publications, the Book Editor, the Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education, the General Manager of The Methodist Publishing House, three Bishops, selected by the Council of Bishops, and ten other persons, five of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Publications, and five by the Board of Christian Education. The Committee shall have power to invite other individuals to act as consulting members, without vote. It shall consult the Executive Secretaries of Boards and Directors of Divisions in their respective fields of interest and responsibility as resource persons who may contribute to and participate in the development of program outlines for Church School materials. The expenses of the Curriculum Committee shall be borne jointly by the Board of Christian Education and the Board of Publication.

¶ 1132, delete.

¶ 1134, revise so as to read:

There shall be one complete co-ordinated system of Church School literature, prepared under the direction of the Editor of Church School literature, as outlined by the Curriculum Committee, and published by The Methodist Publishing House, for the entire Methodist Church. This literature is to be of such type and variety as to meet the needs of all groups of our people.

¶ 1133, revise so as to read:

Church School publications shall be manufactured, published, and distributed through The Methodist Publishing House.

¶¶ 1136-37, delete.

Official Church Publications

The Board of Publication, subject to the approval of the Department of Cultivation and Publication shall determine the character, policies, and subscription prices of official Church publications (not including The Upper Room, World Outlook, motive, and the promotional monthly edited by the Division of Promotion).

There shall be a monthly periodical designed to serve the professional needs of pastors.

There shall be a general Church periodical for the Christian family, containing religious news and articles in sufficient variety and attractiveness to appeal to all members of the family. The Board of Publications shall determine the name and the frequency of issue of this proposed general Church publication.

For each of these two latter publications the Board of Publications shall elect the Editor and approve the Budget. These Budgets, when reviewed and approved by the Department of Cultivation and Publication, shall become part of the financial operations of The Methodist Publishing House, in accordance with the provisions of ¶ . . (p. 40, col 1, last sub-paragraph).

SECTION IV. Board of The Methodist Publishing House

¶ 1101, no change.

¶ 1102, no change, except to pull up the phrase, "the promotion of Christian education" to line 3, so that the Paragraph will read:

The objects of The Methodist Publishing House shall be: the advancement of the cause of Christianity and the promotion of Christian education by disseminating religious knowledge and useful literary and scientific information in the form of books, tracts, and periodicals; the transaction of any and all business properly connected with the publishing . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1103, revise so as to read:

The Methodist Publishing House shall be under the direction and control of the Board of The Methodist Publishing House, acting through a General Manager elected by the Board and through such other officers as the Board may find it necessary or expedient to elect.

¶ 1104, no change, except delete the words "of Publication" in line 3.

¶ 1105, no change, except delete the words "of Publication" in line 11 and substitute "of The Methodist Publishing House" in their place.

¶ 1106, as it now appears, except: delete "of Publications in line 1; in line 8, substitute "General Manager" for "Publishing Agents"; in line 9, change "are" to "is"; in line 10, substitute "successor" for "successors."

¶ 1107, no change, except substitute "The Methodist Publishing House" for "Publication" in line 5.

¶¶ 1108-9, no change.

(New) The operating Budget of The Methodist Publishing House shall be subject to review and approval by the Department of Cultivation and Publication, of which it is a part. When approved, such Budget and the Budgets of the Board of Publications shall become the total operating financial plan for The Methodist Publishing House for the fiscal year.

¶ 1110, revise so as to read:

The Board of The Methodist Publishing House shall be constituted as follows: two Bishops, selected by the Council of Bishops; six ministers and fourteen lay persons, at least two of whom shall be women, one lay woman from the North Central Jurisdiction and one from the South Central, and provided that each Jurisdiction shall be represented by at least one person. They shall be nominated by the Council of Bishops on the basis of their specialized experience and abilities, and elected by the General Conference. In addition, there shall be four members at large, elected by the Board.

The term of office of the members of the Board shall be eight years, except that in the first election one Bishop shall be selected for four years and one for eight; three ministers and six lay persons shall be elected for four years and three ministers and six lay persons for eight; and, in the first election, the lay woman from the North Central Jurisdiction shall be elected for four years and the one from the South Central Jurisdiction for eight. The General Manager shall be an ex officio member of the Board without vote.

¶ 1111, revise so as to read:

The Board shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of all the general agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on written request of one fifth of its members. At all meetings of the Board a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum.

¶ 1116, revise so as to read:

The members of the Board and all officers elected by it shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified.

¶ 1112, no change.

¶ 1113, delete (see ¶ 1119).

¶ 1114, delete (covered under Book Editor).

¶ 1115, delete.

¶ 1117, revise so as to read:

The Board of The Methodist Publishing House shall elect from its membership an Executive Committee of twelve members, including the President of the Board, who shall serve as Chairman of the Executive Committee. Not more than three members of the Executive Committee shall be from any one of the six Jurisdictions. In addition, the General Manager shall be an ex officio member of the Executive Committee without vote. Any vacancy occurring in the membership . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1118, as it now appears, except: delete "of Publication" in lines 2, 3; in line 8, substitute "one fifth of the" for "five."

¶ 1119, revise so as to read:

The Board of The Methodist Publishing House shall elect, quadrennially, a General Manager and shall fix his salary.

¶ 1120, no change except, in lines 3 and 5, substitute "General Manager" for "Publishing Agents."

¶ 1121, no change except, in line 2, substitute "General Manager" for "Publishing Agents."

CHAPTER VIII

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Pages 389, 399, 411, 413, 584, 586.

DIVISION (BOARD) OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

SECTION I. Organization of the DIVISION (Board)

¶ 1351, revise first sub-paragraph (remainder of ¶ 1351 appears below) so as to read:

There shall be a DIVISION (Board) of Educational Institutions WITHIN THE BOARD OF EDUCATION which shall have an advisory relationship to the institutions of higher education affiliated with The Methodist Church, Methodist theological schools, in-service training programs for pastors, and organized work for Methodist students at college and university campuses. It shall also have an advisory relationship to the educational institutions, in the United States, its territories, and dependencies, owned or supervised by the several Agencies of The Methodist Church. It shall operate through its two constituent DEPARTMENTS (Division): the DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER General Education and the DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education.

DEFER ACTION ON THIS PARAGRAPH (New) The membership of the DIVISION (Board) of Educational Institutions shall consist of twenty-one persons. Three of these shall be Bishops, one of whom shall be elected by the DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER (General) Education and two by the DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education; the DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER (General) Education and the (Division) of Ministerial Education shall each elect nine other persons, chosen without reference to Jurisdiction.

DEFER ACTION ON THIS PARAGRAPH: The DIVISION (Board) shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

It shall elect a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings.

The DIVISION (Board) shall elect an Executive Secretary who shall meet with the DIVISION (Board), but without vote. He shall be responsible for the supervision of the program of the DIVISION (Board) and shall serve as the Director of the DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER (General) Education. The DIVISION (Board) shall elect, on nomination of the DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER (General) Education after consultation with the Executive Secretary, an Associate Director in charge of the work of The Methodist Church with students at college and university campuses. It shall also elect, on nomination of the DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education after consultation with the Executive Secretary, the Director and Associate Director of that DEPARTMENT (Division).

¶ 1356, no change. [DELETE except, in line 1, substitute DIVISION (Board) for DEPARTMENT (Division).]

¶ 1358, revise so as to read:

No institution hereafter established or acquired shall be aided by the DIVISION (Board) or its DEPARTMENTS (Divisions) unless the appropriate DEPARTMENTS (Division) and the DIVISION (Board) shall have been consulted and shall have approved the expenditures involved in the establishment or acquisition of such institution, and the University Senate shall have approved its proposed classification before the project was undertaken.

No institution receiving an annual appropriation from either DEPARTMENT (Division) shall incur debt obligations—bonded or otherwise—for expansion programs without first submitting its proposed plans to the DEPARTMENT (Division) and the DIVISION (Board) for consideration and counsel. Any such institution failing to observe this regulation relinquishes its right to appropriations until the debt so incurred is liquidated.

In no case shall the DIVISION (Board) or its DEPARTMENTS (Divisions) aid an institution which announces a change in its classification until the University Senate shall have approved the new classification.

¶ 1359, no change. DELETE except, in line 1, substitute DIVISION (Board) DEPARTMENT (Division).

¶ 1366, no change. DELETE except, in line 3, substitute “(Board) of Educational Institutions” for “General Board of Education”; and in lines 7 and 9, substitute (Board) for (Division).

¶ 1367, as it now appears, with addition: “(subject to the legislation concerning special days, ¶ —).” [Co-ordinating Council, item 4, p. 27.]

¶ 1368, revise so as to read:

The DIVISION (Board) shall promote and administer the Student Loan and Scholarship Fund and other funds established for the aid of students.

Section II. DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER (General) Education

DEFER ACTION ON THIS PARAGRAPH: The DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER (General) Education shall be composed of two Bishops selected by the Council of Bishops, one minister and one lay person from each of the Jurisdictions, and two women, one from the Central Jurisdiction and one from the South Central. All Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition there shall be ten members at large, elected by the DEPARTMENT (Division) without reference to Jurisdiction, provided that at least two of these members at large shall be youth under twenty-four years of age, one a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship from the North Central Jurisdiction and one a member of the Methodist Student Movement from the Western Jurisdiction.

DEFER ACTION ON THIS PARAGRAPH: The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the Chairman or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

THE DEPARTMENT OF SECONDARY AND HIGHER EDUCATION (It) shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings. It may divide its membership into two Committees, the one to have primary supervision over the work with institutions of higher education and the other over the work with students at college and university campuses.

The Director of the DEPARTMENT (Division), who shall also be the Executive Secretary of the DIVISION (Board) of Educational Institutions, shall have the administrative responsibility for the DEPARTMENT (Division). He shall have charge of the relationship of the (Division) to colleges, universities, and other educational institutions of The Methodist Church except the theological schools. The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall nominate, after consultation with the Executive Secretary, for election by the DIVISION (Board) an Associate Director whose primary responsibility shall be the work of The Methodist Church for students at college and university campuses, including the Wesley Foundation program. The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall elect the Editor of motive, [DEFER ACTION on "subject to confirmation by the Board of Cultivation"].

¶ 1353, revise so as to read:

The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall prepare a Budget for its work which it shall submit to the Board of Educational Institutions AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION to be reviewed and passed upon. Subsequently THE BOARD OF EDUCATION (it) shall submit THIS (its) proposed Budget AS PART OF ITS TOTAL BUDGET to the Council on World Service and Finance (see ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below). The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall disburse such funds as are approved by the BOARD OF EDUCATION (General Conference) for the maintenance and promotion of the work committed to it.

¶ 1351, revise so as to read:

The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall have an advisory relationship to the business and educational management of all universities, colleges, training schools, junior colleges, and secondary schools, in the United States, its territories, and dependencies, affiliated with The Methodist Church and to the Wesley Foundations. This advisory relationship shall also obtain in connection with the educational institutions which are owned or supervised by General Agencies of The Methodist Church.

The object of this advisory relationship shall be . . . (to end of sub-paragraph).

The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall devise ways and means for the aid of such educational institutions; shall receive and disburse funds which may be committed to it or to the DIVISION (Board) on its behalf; may serve as a Board of Reference or Arbitration; and may take all necessary measures to protect its investments and to secure or recover or collect any capital funds contributed or expense incurred for any program of such institutions in case they discontinue operation or attempt to sever their relations with The Methodist Church.

The DEPARTMENT (Division) May establish and conduct schools in the United States in communities in which facilities for education are not adequately provided. It shall promote the cause of education throughout the Church by collecting and distributing statistics and other information, in co-operation with the (Division) of CULTIVATION AND Promotion, by giving counsel concerning the planning of educational buildings and the location and organization of educational institutions. It shall seek to promote the religious training and activities of students at institutions . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1352, revise so as to read:

Subject to the approval of the DIVISION (Board), the DEPARTMENT (Division) may appoint such Committees as are necessary for the proper discharge of its business.

¶ 1354, as it now appears, except, in line 4, after the word "to" add "it or to."

¶ 1355, as it now appears, except revise the first sentence to read:

The DEPARTMENT (Division), through its officers and Committees, shall provide for . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1357, no change.

¶ 1360, no change.

¶ 1361, no change, except add at end of Paragraph:

The Director of the DEPARTMENT (Division) and the Staff engaged in student work shall co-operate with the Executive Secretary of the DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH (Board of Christian Education) and its Staff for youth work in churches, to the end that there shall be an integrated and correlated program of youth and student work.

¶ 1362, delete first sub-paragraph. Retain second sub-paragraph as it is.

¶ 1363, no change.

¶ 1364, as it now appears, except revise first two sentences to read:

The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall administer institutions for Christian education among Negroes, except those institutions owned by other Agencies. The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall develop plans by which schools sponsored by it . . . (to end of Paragraph) ; DELETE also, in line 11, substitute (DIVISION) for (Board); and, in lines 13-14, delete the words ("on the recommendation of the Division)."

¶ 1365, delete.

(New) The DEPARTMENT (Division) of SECONDARY AND HIGHER (General) Education shall be responsible for the Association of Methodist Historical Societies and shall include in its Budget provision for that Association.

Section III. DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education

¶ 1384, revise so as to read:

1384. IN THE DIVISION OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS THERE SHALL BE A DEPARTMENT OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION WHICH SHALL PROVIDE FOR THE TRAINING OF THE MINISTRY OF THE CHURCH. THE DEPARTMENT SHALL BE COMPOSED OF 12 PERSONS, 6 BISHOPS, AND 6 MINISTERS, SELECTED FROM THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE DIVISION. THE DIVISION SHALL HAVE AUTHORITY TO SELECT 5 ADVISORY MEMBERS FROM THE FACULTIES OF OUR METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS TO ASSIST IN PREPARING THE PRESCRIBED COURSES OF STUDY. THE DIVISION SHALL ALSO HAVE AUTHORITY TO SELECT FROM THE METHODIST THEOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION 6 OF ITS MEMBERS AS ADVISORY MEMBERS TO CONSIDER WITH IT THE FISCAL AFFAIRS OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES, BUT THESE SHALL NOT BE PRESENT WHEN ALLOCATIONS FOR THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS ARE UNDER CONSIDERATION.

THE DIVISION SHALL ELECT, UPON NOMINATION OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, A DIRECTOR OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION, WHO SHALL SERVE AS A LIAISON OFFICER BETWEEN THE DIVISION AND METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS. HE SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PROMOTION OF THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION IN THE CHURCH AND MAINTAINING THE RELATIONSHIP WITH AND AMONG METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

THE DIVISION SHALL ELECT A DIRECTOR WHO SHALL HAVE PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE PROGRAM OF IN-SERVICE TRAINING, INCLUDING THE SUPERVISION OF THE CONFERENCE COURSE OF STUDY AND THE PASTORS' SCHOOLS IN ANNUAL CONFERENCES IN THE UNITED STATES, ITS TERRITORIES AND DEPENDENCIES, AND CORRESPONDENCE COURSES.

FOR EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS FOR THE MINISTRY, ADMISSION ON TRIAL, AND ADMISSION INTO FULL CONNECTION, SEE PARS. 315-48 UNDER PART III, THE MINISTRY.

1385. THE DIVISION OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS SHALL RECOMMEND TO THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE, AS AN ITEM APART FROM ITS OWN BUDGET THE AMOUNT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT WHICH SHOULD BE ALLOCATED FOR METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS AND THE "IN-SERVICE TRAINING PROGRAM." IT SHALL HAVE THE FURTHER RESPONSIBILITY OF RECOMMENDING TO THE COUNCIL ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE THE DISTRIBUTION OF SUCH FUNDS AMONG THE ACCREDITED SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY RELATED TO THE METHODIST CHURCH.

1386. THE WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION SHALL BE SUPPORTED FROM THE GENERAL BENEVOLENCES OF THE CHURCH, THE AMOUNT TO BE DETERMINED BY THE AUTHORITY BODY.

1387. THE DEPARTMENT OF MINISTERIAL EDUCATION SHALL PRESCRIBE THE COURSE OF STUDY TO BE PURSUED BY THOSE APPLYING FOR LICENSE TO PREACH, FOR ORDERS AS LOCAL PREACHERS, AND FOR ADMISSION ON TRIAL, RESPECTIVELY; ALSO A COURSE OF STUDY EXTENDING THROUGH FOUR YEARS TO BE PURSUED BY THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN ADMITTED ON TRIAL IN THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, AND A SIMPLIFIED FOUR-YEAR COURSE WHICH, IF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SHALL SO DETERMINE, MAY BE USED FOR THE ACCEPTED SUPPLY PASTORS IN LIEU OF THE REGULAR CONFERENCE COURSE. (SEE COURSE OF STUDY UNDER APPENDIX.) IT SHALL RECOMMEND COURSES OF READING AND ALSO PROVIDE GRADUATE CORRESPONDENCE COURSES OF STUDY FOR PREACHERS WHO HAVE FINISHED THEIR UNDERGRADUATE COURSES OF STUDY.

1388. THE DEPARTMENT INsofar AS IT RELATES TO IN-SERVICE TRAINING, SHALL HAVE A DIRECT RELATIONSHIP WITH THE CONFERENCE BOARDS OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS (SEE PARS. 639-42). IT SHALL CO-OPERATE WITH THESE AND OTHER CONFERENCE BOARDS IN ORGANIZING, FINANCING, AND CONDUCTING SHORT-TERM SCHOOLS FOR MINISTERS, WHICH SHALL BE KNOWN AS PASTORS' SCHOOLS. THESE SCHOOLS SHALL PROVIDE INSTRUCTION FOR ALL MINISTERS AND WHERE ADVISABLE SHALL OFFER WORK IN THE CURRICULUM OF THE COURSES OF STUDY FOR UNDERGRADUATE AND ACCEPTED SUPPLY PASTORS.

WITHIN A CONFERENCE THE ADMINISTRATION OF THESE COURSES OF STUDY, WHICH SHALL REQUIRE EXTENSIVE WRITTEN WORK IN ADDITION TO INSTRUCTION IN A PASTORS' SCHOOL, SHALL BE UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING.

WHERE SO AGREED BY THE DEPARTMENT AND THE BOARDS INVOLVED, THE SUPERVISION OF THIS WORK MAY BE DELEGATED TO A CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL. ALL SUCH CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS SHALL BE RELATED TO ONE OF OUR ESTABLISHED SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY. THE DIRECTOR OF EACH CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL SHALL BE ELECTED QUADRENNIALLY BY THE COMMISSION ON MINISTERIAL TRAINING ON NOMINATION OF THE FACULTY OF THE RELATED SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY. THE ASSISTING STAFF SHALL BE CHOSEN BY THE DIRECTOR FROM THE ACTIVE MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY OF THE SCHOOL.

1389. THE DEPARTMENT OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING, THE INTER-BOARD COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS, AND THE CONFERENCE BOARDS OF

MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS SHALL CO-OPERATE IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF EFFECTIVE METHODS OF SELECTIVE RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY. THE BOARDS SHALL EXERCISE CONTROL OVER THE NUMBERS TO BE ENLISTED IN ORDER TO PROVIDE AN ADEQUATE SUPPLY OF TRAINED MINISTERS.

THE DEPARTMENT, IN CO-OPERATION WITH THE THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS, SHALL CONTINUE STUDY ON THE MINISTRY, AND REPORT ON THE SUBJECT TO EACH GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Section III DEPARTMENT of Ministerial Education was substituted May 5, 1952, for the following nine paragraphs appearing in italics. See Report No. 6 of the Special Committee of Six on the Report of the Survey Commission, page 1722.

The DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education and the theological seminaries of The Methodist Church shall provide for the training of the ministry of the Church.

(New) The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall have an advisory relationship to the theological seminaries in the development of their educational program and in financial support, and shall develop and conduct educational programs for Supply Pastors and for persons engaged in the regular ministry.

(For educational standards for the ministry, Admission on Trial, and Admission into Full Connection, see ¶¶ 315-48, under Part III, The Ministry.)

DEFER ACTION ON THE NEXT TWO PARAGRAPHS (New) The DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education shall be composed of four Bishops, selected by the Council of Bishops, one minister and one lay person elected by each Jurisdictional Conference, and ten members at large, elected by the DEPARTMENT (Division) without reference to Jurisdiction, provided that six of the members at large shall be selected from the faculties of our Methodist schools of theology and provided further that at least two members of the DEPARTMENT (Division) shall be women. Members of the theological faculties who are serving as members at large on the DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education shall not be present when allocations for theological schools are under consideration.

The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies, and at such other times as may be necessary, on the calls of the Chairman or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

It shall elect a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, and such other officers as are necessary. The Recording Secretary shall keep a permanent record of its meetings. It may divide its membership into two Committees, the one to have primary supervision over the relationships with theological schools and the other over the program of in-service training for pastors, including the pastors' schools.

¶¶ 1385-86, delete.

(New) The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall nominate, after consultation with the Executive Secretary, a Director and Associate Director for election by the DIVISION (Board) of Educational Institutions. The Director, who shall have general oversight of the program for the DEPARTMENT (Division), shall be specifically responsible for maintaining the relationships with and among the Methodist theological schools. The Associate Director shall have primary responsibility for the program of in-service training, including the supervision of the Conference Course of Study and the Pastors' Schools in Annual Conferences in the United States, its territories, and dependencies (see ¶¶ 1169, 1197) and Correspondence Courses. [From ¶ 1386.]

The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall prepare a Budget for its work which it shall submit to the DIVISION (Board) of Educational Institutions AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION to be reviewed and passed upon. Subsequently THE BOARD OF EDUCATION (it) shall submit THIS (its) proposed Budget to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.) The work of the Division shall be supported from the General Benevolences of the Church.

The DEPARTMENT (Division) shall recommend to the Council on World Service and Finance, as an item apart from its own Budget, the amount of financial support which should be allocated for Methodist theological schools which are approved by the University Senate. It shall have the further responsibility of recommending to the Council on World Service and Finance the distribution of such funds among the several schools.

¶ 1387, no change, except substitute "Division" for "Commission" in line 1.

¶ 1388, no change, except substitute "Division" for "Commission" in lines 1 and 15, and for "Commission on Ministerial Training" in lines 20-21.

¶ 1389, revise so as to read:

The DEPARTMENT (Division), the DIVISION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH (Board of Christian Education), the theological schools, and the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training . . . (to end of sub-paragraph).

The DEPARTMENT (Division) in co-operation with the theological . . . (to end of sub-paragraph).

(New) The DEPARTMENT (Division) of Ministerial Education, in co-operation with the Association of Methodist Theological Schools, shall encourage the development of Courses for the training of Chaplains for Church-related institutions and for prisons, reformatories, hospitals, sanatoriums, and charitable institutions, and shall establish standards of qualification and a procedure for certification to indicate that these standards have been met by candidates for the Chaplaincy.

¶ 1391, as it now appears, except in line 12, substitute DEPARTMENT "(Division) of Ministerial Education" for DEPARTMENT "(Division) of Educational Institutions" and in lines 14-20, delete the sentence, "The amount necessary for such support . . . schools of theology."

¶¶ 1392-93, no change.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THE BOARD SHALL BE VESTED IN A BOARD OF MANAGERS OF EIGHTEEN, CONSISTING OF TWO BISHOPS ELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS; AND ONE MINISTER AND ONE LAY MEMBER FROM EACH JURISDICTION, TO BE ELECTED BY THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE; PROVIDED AT LEAST ONE MEMBER FROM EACH JURISDICTION SHALL BE AN ACTIVE ADMINISTRATOR OF AN INSTITUTION UNDER THE GENERAL SUPERVISION OF THE BOARD; AND FOUR MEMBERS, AT LARGE ELECTED BY THE BOARD.

ALL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS SHALL BE MEMBERS OF THE METHODIST CHURCH. SHOULD A VACANCY OCCUR AMONG THOSE ELECTED BY THE JURISDICTIONS, THE COLLEGE OF BISHOPS WHERE SUCH VACANCY OCCURS SHALL ELECT THE PERSON TO FILL THE UNEXPIRED TERM. ALL OTHER VACANCIES SHALL BE FILLED BY THE ELECTING BODY.

(The management of the Board shall be vested in a Board of Managers of twenty-six persons, consisting of two Bishops, selected by the Council of Bishops; one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, and two women, one from the Central Jurisdiction and one from the Northeastern. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be ten members at large, elected by the Board, provided that one member from each Jurisdiction shall be an active administrator of an institution under the general supervision of the Board. All of the Board of Managers shall be members of . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1524, no change, except delete "elected by said Board from among the Bishops who are members of the Board of Managers" from lines 2-4.

¶ 1525, § 1, revise so as to read:

The Board shall convene ANNUALLY (for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies,) and at such other times as may be necessary, on the call of the President or on the written request of one fifth of its members.

¶ 1525, § 2, no change except add "without vote" after the words "ex officio" in line 7.

¶ 1526, no change.

¶ 1527, no change except, in lines 5-6, insert "and" between "wills" and "bequests" and delete "and from administration of trust funds"; and at end of Paragraph (line 8) add a new sentence, The Board shall prepare its Budget and present it to the Council on World Service and Finance. (See ¶ 737, §§ 2, 4, p. 45, below.)

¶ 1528, §§ 1, 2, no change.

¶ 1528, add new sub-paragraph, as follows:

The Board may recommend the acceptance or rejection by an Annual Conference of property or management responsibility for any hospital or home.

¶ 1528, § 3, delete.

¶ 1528, § 4, revise so as to read:

As an advisory, standardizing, and educational agency of The Methodist Church, the Board of Hospitals and Homes shall co-operate with the Division of Promotion in preparing interpretative literature . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1528, §§ 5, 6, no change.

OTHER METHODIST AGENCIES

SECTION I. BOARD OF PENSIONS

For the description of the Board of Pensions, its organization and functions, see ¶¶ 1601-60.

SECTION II. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

For the description of the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Church, its organization and functions, see ¶¶ 711-17.

TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

PAR. 711, REVISE SO AS TO READ:

THERE SHALL BE A BOARD OF TRUSTEES INCORPORATED UNDER THE NAME OF "THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH." THIS BOARD SHALL BE COMPOSED OF THREE MINISTERS AND FOUR LAY PERSONS. THEY SHALL BE NOMINATED WITHOUT REFERENCE TO JURISDICTIONAL MEMBERSHIP BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS AND BE ELECTED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE FOR A TERM OF EIGHT YEARS, EXCEPT AS TO THE FIRST SUCH BOARD, OF WHICH ONE CLERICAL AND TWO LAY MEMBERS THEREOF SHALL BE ELECTED FOR A TERM OF FOUR YEARS, AND TWO CLERICAL AND TWO LAY MEMBERS THEREOF SHALL BE ELECTED FOR A TERM OF EIGHT YEARS, AND THEY SHALL SERVE UNTIL THEIR SUCCESSORS . . . (TO END OF PARAGRAPH).

SECTION III. COMMISSION ON CHAPLAINS

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

¶ 1595, revise so as to read:

"THERE SHALL BE A COMMISSION ON CHAPLAINS, WHICH SHALL REPRESENT THE METHODIST CHURCH IN THE PROCUREMENT, ENDORSEMENT, AND GENERAL OVERSIGHT OF ALL METHODIST MINISTERS SERVING AS CHAPLAINS IN THE ARMED FORCES, VETERANS ADMINISTRATION AND FEDERAL PRISONS. THE DUTIES OF THE COMMISSION SHALL INCLUDE ALSO THE GENERAL SUPERVISION OF CHAPLAINS IN PUBLIC AND PRIVATE INSTITUTIONS (OTHER THAN THOSE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH), AND INDUSTRY. THE COMMISSION SHALL RENDER SUCH OTHER SERVICES TO THESE CHAPLAINS AS MAY BE REFERRED TO IT BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS.

"THE COMMISSION SHALL BE COMPOSED OF SIX BISHOPS, ONE FROM EACH JURISDICTION; FIVE MINISTERS AND FIVE LAYMEN, ELECTED BY THE GENERAL CONFERENCE ON NOMINATION OF THE COUN-CIL OF BISHOPS. VACANCIES SHALL BE FILLED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS. A MEMBER BISHOP SHALL SERVE AS CHAIRMAN. THE COMMISSION MAY ELECT ONE ADVISORY MEMBER FROM EACH DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMED FORCES, VETERANS ADMINISTRATION AND FROM OTHER FIELDS OF SERVICE WHERE METHODIST CHAPLAINS ARE USED."

(There shall be a Commission on Chaplains, which shall represent The Methodist Church in securing Chaplains for active duty in the armed services and in federal institutions, in granting the required ecclesiastical endorsement, in maintaining contact with such Chaplains, and in rendering such service to them as may be suggested by the Council of Bishops. The duties of the Commission on Chaplains shall include also the general supervision of Chaplains in all branches of the armed services, veterans' hospitals, and all other federal institutions, provided that they serve in a religious capacity.

The Commission on Chaplains shall be composed of three Bishops, one of whom shall serve as Chairman; six ministers and six lay persons (one minister and one lay person being from the Central Jurisdiction); and one advisory member from each branch of the armed services and the Veterans Administration. Members shall be elected by the General Conference, on nomination of the Council of Bishops. Vacancies shall be filled by the Council of Bishops.)

The Commission shall be a World Service Agency, subject to the supervision of the Council on World Service and Finance as to its Budget and financing. In so far as possible its support shall come from the Fellowship of Suffering and Service Fund.

SECTION IV. Commission on Camp Activities

(New) There shall be a Commission on Camp Activities to provide for service men and women in military camps. The Commission shall consist of six Bishops named by the Council of Bishops.

This program shall be supported from funds provided by the Fellowship of Suffering and Service. If such funds are either insufficient or discontinued, a request for support for this program may be made to the Council on World Service and Finance. An annual audit of receipts and disbursements shall be made to the Council on World Service and Finance.

CHAPTER XI

INTER-DENOMINATIONAL CO-OPERATION

(New) The Methodist Church has historically participated in co-operative activities with other denominations and will continue this practice. To this end the American Bible Society shall be considered a World Service Agency of The Methodist Church and shall receive support in accordance with the recommendation of the Council on World Service and the action of the General Conference. The Council shall name members from The Methodist Church who will serve on the Advisory Council of the American Bible Society.

For the support of Inter-Denominational Agencies such as the Ecumenical Methodist Conference (World Methodist Council), the National Council of Churches, and the World Council of Churches (but not including the American Bible Society, which is a World Service Agency), there shall be a separate fund known as the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund. This Fund shall be kept separate from the regular World Service Fund, but shall be administered by the Council on World Service and Finance. The amount to be raised for this Fund shall be recommended by the Council on World Service and Finance and approved by the General Conference. The Council shall apportion the approved amount to the several Annual Conferences to be raised by them.

The contributions of The Methodist Church for the support of Inter-Denominational Agencies shall consist primarily of allocations determined by the Council on World Service and Finance. Any other support for such Agencies from the Budgets of the Methodist General Agencies shall be carefully considered in the light of the giving of the Church as a whole and shall be reported by the donors to the Council on World Service and Finance. The Council shall obtain from the Inter-Denominational Agencies periodic Reports of receipts from Methodist sources.

Staff representation of a General Agency of The Methodist Church on an Inter-Denominational organization shall be limited to the smallest practicable number. The persons, other than Staff members, selected for Methodist representation on Inter-Denominational Agencies shall be selected by the Council of Bishops.

CHAPTER I

CHURCH PROPERTY

SECTION VII. INCORPORATED TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

See pages 714, 739, 1474 and 1960 for action on Par. 711.

¶ 711, revise so as to read:

There shall be a Board of Trustees incorporated under the name of "The Board of Trustees of The Methodist Church." This Board shall be composed of three ministers and four lay persons. They shall be nominated without reference to Jurisdictional membership by the Council of Bishops and be elected by the General Conference for a term of eight years, except as to the first such board, of which one clerical and two lay members thereof shall be elected for a term of four years, and two clerical and two lay members thereof shall be elected for a term of eight years, and they shall serve until their successors . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 712, as it now appears, except: delete the last two sentences; add two new sentences at the end of the Paragraph, as follows:

The Board shall have power in its discretion to invest, reinvest, buy, sell, transfer, and convey any and all funds and properties which it may hold in trust, subject always to the terms of the legacy, devise, or donation.

¶ 713, no change except, in lines 10-12, delete the words "society, institution, . . . General Conference" and at the end of the Paragraph add the sentence: The Board of Trustees is authorized and instructed to turn over any funds which it is holding for a beneficiary which is an Incorporated Agency of The Methodist Church, to the Board or Agency which is responsible for investing funds for such beneficiary, unless otherwise authorized or directed. Add a new subparagraph, as follows:

The Board of Trustees shall present an annual audit and shall report the distributable income from undesignated funds to the Council on World Service and Finance; the Council shall recommend to the General Conference how such income should be distributed.

¶ 714, no change.

¶ 715, no change.

PART V

TEMPORAL ECONOMY

¶ 716, as it now appears, except: delete final six words of Paragraph, and add the following sentence to the Paragraph: It shall make available to a beneficiary on request the information from the Reports of the auditors relating to the beneficiary.

¶ 717, no change.

CHAPTER II

CHURCH FINANCE

Adopted April 30, 1952. See Journal, Pages 333-336.

(Note: Action on the item of the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund in Pars. 732, 733 and 737-1 below was postponed when action was taken on the Council on World Service and Finance, April 30, 1952. Final action was taken May 2, 1952. See Journal pages 450-454 and 1935. Editor).

¶ 731, no change.

¶ 732, no change except, in line 10, after "episcopal budget" add "Inter-Denominational Co-operation Budget"; and, in line 20, after "Episcopal Fund" add "Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund."

SECTION I. Council on World Service and Finance

¶ 733, revise so as to read:

The General Conference at each quadrennial session shall elect a Council on World Service and Finance. This Council shall through its central office receive and disburse in accordance with the directions hereinafter set forth all funds raised throughout the church for (1) the World Service Fund, (2) the General Administration Fund, (3) the Episcopal Fund, (4) the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, and (5) any other Fund or Funds so directed by the proper authority.

¶¶ 734-736, and ¶ 737, § 1, first two sentences only, delete here, as material is covered in Part VII, Chap. III.)

¶ 737, § 1, revise so as to read:

The Council on World Service and Finance shall be elected quadrennially by the General Conference and organized in accordance with the provisions of ¶¶ 1116-1120 (Part VII, Chap. III).

The Council shall submit to each quadrennial session of the General Conference for its action and determination a Budget of annual expense for its own operation and FOR (that of) the World Service Agencies for the ensuing quadrennium. The expenses of the Council, including the expense of the Central Office, shall be a first claim against the World Service Fund, the General Administration Fund, the Episcopal Fund, and the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, and the total . . . (to end of ¶ 737, § 1).

¶ 737, § 2 (new). It shall require annually, or as often as is deemed necessary, statements of proposed Budgets one month in advance of the annual meeting of the Council on World Service and Finance. It shall also require certified public accountant audits annually of all treasuries receiving General Church funds through the Central Treasury. It shall review in each World Service Agency Budget the amount for administration, service, and promotion, with a view to maintaining a proper balance among the various parts of the Budgets.

Budgets are to be submitted by, and World Service allocations are to be made to, the several Divisions within a Board, provided there are such Divisions. In this case, divisional Budgets shall be reviewed by the Board and the Department, if there is a Department, before they are submitted to the Council. Where there are no such Divisions, Budget allocations are to the Boards whether or not they are within Departments; Board Budgets shall be reviewed by the appropriate Department before they are submitted to the Council. Expenses of members of Divisions serving on Boards and Departments shall be borne by the Division. Where there are no Divisions, the Board shall carry the expense for its members at Department meetings.

¶ 737, § 3 (new). The Council on World Service and Finance shall withhold approval of any item or items for inclusion in the World Service Budget which in its judgment [~~DELETE~~ (or that of the Co-ordinating Council)] represents unnecessary duplication of activities or programs within a World Service Agency or between two or more of them.

¶ 737, § 4 (revision of old § 2). It shall recommend to the General Conference for its action and determination a World Service Program outlining the general financial objectives of the Church for the forthcoming quadrennium, and proposing the ratio distribution of World Service Funds among the participating Agencies. It shall indicate the proportion of World Service Funds to be used for administration, service, and promotion. It shall also recommend apportionments to the Annual Conference, subject to the approval of the General Conference.

¶ 737, § 5 (new). It shall consult with the Co-ordinating Council and the Council of Bishops relative to the number and timing of all Special Days which are to be observed on a Church-wide basis. After such consultation the Co-ordinating Council shall make appropriate recommendations to the General Conference. Between sessions of the General Conference the Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance may, in an emergency, authorize a financial appeal.

¶ 737, § 6 (new). It shall have authority to employ a Comptroller. It shall require World Service Agencies to follow uniform accounting classifications and procedures and to submit a yearly audit following such auditing procedures as the Council may specify. The Council shall have the authority to pass upon the acceptability of any auditing firm proposed by a World Service Agency for handling its yearly audit. All General Agencies of the Church shall observe a uniform fiscal year ending on May 31.

¶ 737, § 7 (new). It shall review the investment policies of each World Service Agency with respect to permanent funds and shall require that Christian as well as sound economic principles in the handling of investment funds be observed.

¶ 737, § 8 (new). After consultation with the Agency, it shall perform OR ARRANGE FACILITIES FOR HANDLING the treasury functions for any World Service Agency which, [DELETE (in the judgment of the Council)], is not large enough to have a full-time Treasurer AND WHOSE FINANCIAL POLICIES ARE NOT APPROVED BY THE COUNCIL. [DELETE (See § 10).] THE COST OF SUCH SERVICE SHALL BE CHARGED TO THE AGENCY.

¶ 737, § 9 (new). ON THE REQUEST OF A WORLD SERVICE AGENCY it shall hold and invest funds allocated to IT (any World Service Agency) when such funds are not intended for current expenditure by that Agency.

[DELETE (This relates to allocations where funds are being "earmarked" for future use for specific causes or are being set up as reserves which are to be applied to projects that are expected to develop later.) It shall also hold and invest funds for any General Agency which does not have an investment program approved by the Council on World Service and Finance.]

¶ 737, § 10 [(DELETE (new). Where funds are handled by the Central Treasury for an Agency, the Central Treasury may charge that Agency for the cost of handling those funds.)]

¶ 737, § 10 (revision of ¶ 754). The Council on World Service and Finance is authorized to set up a Committee on Wills, Bequests, and Gifts. This Committee shall take such actions as may be deemed necessary to encourage Methodists to provide for their continued interest in World Service, or in one or more of the World Service Agencies, through bequests and gifts. The income from these sources, where the recipient Agency is not designated, shall be used as determined by the Council on World Service and Finance. The expenses of this Committee shall be a part of the prior claim for promotion of World Service causes.

NOTHING IN THIS PARAGRAPH SHALL BE CONSTRUED AS LIMITING OR SUPERSEDING THE AUTHORIZATION GRANTED TO WORLD SERVICE AGENCIES BY PARAGRAPH 744 OF THE 1948 DISCIPLINE.

¶ 737, § 11 (new). The Council on World Service and Finance shall receive from the General Agencies their recommendations as to the amount of financial support to be given to Inter-Denominational Agencies, such as the Ecumenical Methodist Conference (World Methodist Council), the National Council of Churches, and the World Council of Churches, but not including the American Bible Society, which is a World Service Agency. After taking into account the financial contributions of the Woman's Board of Christian Service and The Methodist Publishing House to such Inter-Denominational Agencies, it shall recommend to the General Conference for its action the amount to be contributed to such Agencies. The amount determined by the General Conference shall be apportioned to the Annual Conferences as an Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund. Further, the Council on World Service and Finance shall obtain from Inter-Denominational Agencies periodic Reports of receipts from Methodist sources. (Part VII, Chap. XI.)

¶ 737, § 12 (new). It shall administer the General Administration Fund (§§ 757-60), the Episcopal Fund (§§ 761-68), and the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund (Part VII, Chap. XI).

§ 737, § 13 (new). It shall receive from the Board of Trustees a Report of the distributable income from undesignated funds held by the Board of Trustees, and shall recommend to the General Conference how such income should be distributed.

§ 738, no change, except substitute "Council" for "General Commission" and, in lines 9 and 13, after "Episcopal Fund," add "Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund."

§§ 739-40, no change, except substitute "Council" for "General Commission."

SECTION II. The World Service Fund

§ 741, no change except substitute "Council" for "General Commission."

§ 742, as it now appears, except: correct name; substitute "Boards, Divisions, and other Agencies" for "Boards and Agencies" wherever these words occur; delete last five lines of Paragraph.

[DELETE: (New) The Council on World Service and Finance may recommend to the General Conference a budgetary ceiling for a World Service Agency which is performing only an administrative and staff service function.]

(See Report No. 2 of the Special Committee of Six on the Report of the Survey Commission, page 1701.)

DEFER CONSIDERATION of next paragraph "Division of Promotion of the Board of Cultivation." For final action see REPORT NO. 2 SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF SIX ON THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY COMMISSION, Page 333, AND SECTION IV OF REPORT NO. 4 OF THE SAME COMMITTEE, page 570.

The Division of Promotion of the Board of Cultivation is responsible for the promotion of World Service causes. Therefore the Council on World Service and Finance shall recommend to the General Conference a specific amount for the General Budget of this Division and, in addition, a Special Budget for the promotion of World Service causes, with the stipulation that the Special Budget after the first year of the quadrennium shall be subject to annual review and revision by the Council. Each year the amount budgeted shall constitute a prior claim on World Service Funds.

[DELETE: (New) Up to the full amount of the receipts available from the yearly World Service Apportionment, World Service Agencies, with the exception of the Division of Promotion, shall participate in World Service income according to their respective ratios. World Service receipts in excess of the full amount of the yearly Apportionment, at the discretion of the Council on World Service and Finance, may be held as a reserve in whole or in part against a later decline, or may be distributed to those Agencies which are authorized to receive World Service Funds for Benevolence Causes, namely, the Board of World Missions, the Board of National Missions, and the Board of Educational Institutions. Such distribution to each of these Agencies shall be in proportion to their respective ratio participation in World Service Funds after deducting the allocations made for operating Budgets.]

¶¶ 743-44, no change, except correct name and insert "Boards, Divisions, and other Agencies" as in ¶ 742 above.

¶ 745, delete.

¶¶ 746-49, no change, except correct name and insert "Boards, Divisions, and other Agencies" as in ¶ 742 above.

(Delete "Section III" and "Promotion.")

¶ 750, no change.

¶ 751, first sentence, line 1, substitute "Boards, Divisions, and other Agencies" for "boards and agencies"; then add the entire sentence to preceding Paragraph.

¶ 751 (remainder) through ¶ 753, delete.

¶ 754, revised and used above.

¶ 755, no change.

¶¶ 757-70, no change, except substitute "Council on World Service and Finance" (or "Council") for "General Commission on World Service and Finance" (or "Commission") wherever it occurs.

¶ 771, NO CHANGE [DELETE (revise, so as to read)]:

DELETE: The Council on World Service and Finance shall receive from the Co-ordinating Council a Report of its decisions in all cases of unnecessary duplication of activities or lack of correlation in the programs of the several Boards, Divisions, or other Agencies, either within or between such Agencies. In the event that the Agency or Agencies involved have not complied with the decision of the Co-ordinating Council, the Council on World Service and Finance or its Executive Committee may decline to supply from the World Service Treasury money to continue activities which have been held by the Co-ordinating Council to duplicate each other unnecessarily or which plainly violate the principle of correlation as applied to the total Benevolence Program of the Church.

¶ 772, no change, except correct name and, in line 5, add "or Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund" after "Episcopal Fund."

¶¶ 773-74, no change, except correct name.

¶ 777, no change.

¶¶ 778-811, no change, except substitute "Council" for "General Commission."

Part VIII

PENSIONS AND PERMANENT FUNDS

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 739.

¶ 1601, no change.

¶ 1602, § 1, revise so as to read:

THE BOARD OF PENSIONS OF THE METHODIST CHURCH, HEREINAFTER, FOR THE SAKE OF BREVITY, CALLED THE BOARD, SHALL BE COMPOSED OF ONE BISHOP TO BE ELECTED BY THE COUNCIL OF BISHOPS FOR A TERM OF FOUR YEARS, AND ONE MINISTER AND ONE LAYMAN FROM EACH JURISDICTION FOR EVERY 1,000,000 CHURCH MEMBERS IN THE JURISDICTION, OR MAJOR FRACTION OF THAT NUMBER, TO BE ELECTED FOR A TERM OF EIGHT YEARS; provided, HOWEVER, THAT THERE SHALL BE AT LEAST ONE MINISTERIAL AND ONE LAY MEMBER FROM EACH JURISDICTION; AND provided, FURTHERMORE, THAT AT ITS FIRST MEETING FOLLOWING THE GENERAL CONFERENCE IN 1952, THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE SHALL ELECT ONE-HALF OF ITS QUOTA OF MEMBERS FOR A TERM OF FOUR YEARS AND ONE-HALF OF ITS QUOTA OF MEMBERS FOR A TERM OF EIGHT YEARS SO THAT THEREAFTER THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE SHALL ELECT ONE-HALF OF ITS QUOTA OF MEMBERS EACH QUADRENNIUM FOR A TERM OF EIGHT YEARS.

IN ADDITION THERE SHALL BE TWO MEMBERS AT LARGE TO BE ELECTED BY THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE BOARD FOR A TERM OF FOUR YEARS.

THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARIES OF THE BOARD SHALL BE EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS OF THE BOARD WITHOUT VOTE.

A MEMBER OF THE BOARD SHALL SERVE DURING THE TERM OF OFFICE FOR WHICH HE WAS ELECTED OR UNTIL HIS SUCCESSOR SHALL HAVE BEEN ELECTED AND QUALIFIED. MEMBERS ELECTED BY A JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE NEED NOT BE DELEGATES TO THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE.

(The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, hereinafter called the Board, shall be composed of two Bishops, selected by the Council of Bishops, one minister and one lay person from each Jurisdiction, plus one minister and one lay person for each additional million members above the first million members in the Jurisdiction, and, in addition, two laywomen, one from the North Central Jurisdiction and one from the South Central. These Jurisdictional representatives shall be elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. In addition, there shall be six members at large, elected by the Board of Pensions. Members elected by the Jurisdictional Conference need not be delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

The term of office of the members of the Board shall be eight years, except that the members elected in the first election after the General Conference in 1952 shall be divided into two equal classes, the members of one class to be elected for a term of four years and the members of the other class to be elected for a term of eight years, so that thereafter one half of the number of members of the Board shall be elected each quadrennium for a term of eight years. In the first election following the General Conference in 1952, one Bishop shall be elected for a term of four years and one Bishop shall be elected for a term of eight years; one half of the members from each Jurisdiction shall be elected for a term of four years and one half for a term of eight years; one laywoman from the South Central Jurisdiction shall be elected for a term of four years and one laywoman from the North Central Jurisdiction shall be elected for a term of eight years; three members-at-large shall be elected for a term of four years and three members-at-large shall be elected for a term of eight years.

Add: The Executive Secretary (or Secretaries) shall be an ex-officio member of the Board without vote).

¶ 1602, § 2, no change.

¶ 1602, § 3, first sentence, no change. Revise second sentence to read: THE BOARD SHALL MEET ANNUALLY FOR THE REVIEW AND CONSIDERATION OF THE WORK COMMITTED TO ITS CARE; *provided, HOWEVER, THAT SPECIAL MEETINGS OF THE BOARD MAY BE CALLED BY ANY TWO OF THE OFFICERS MENTIONED IN PARAGRAPH 1603, SECTION 1. (It shall convene for its annual meeting at the time and place of the Annual Meeting of the General Agencies for the review and consideration of the work committed to its care . . . (to end of Paragraph).

¶ 1603, no change except, in lines 6-7, delete the sentence, "The Executive Secretaries of the Board shall be members thereof by virtue of their office."

¶¶ 1604-40, no change.

INDEX OF USE OF LEGISLATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES APPEARING IN 1948 DISCIPLINE

(PART VII)

Each Paragraph appearing in Part VII (Administrative Agencies, ¶¶ 1101-1595) of the 1948 Discipline is accounted for in the following Index, which has been prepared to show the disposition which is proposed for each Paragraph: whether it is to be retained as it is, revised, or deleted. If only the name of an Agency or an office is changed, it is listed as "no change." The Index lists the page on which reference to the Paragraph is made.

PROPOSED SUPPLEMENTAL LEGISLATION

The following recommendations to the General Conference if adopted will not become part of the permanent law of the Church and, unless the General Conference so directs, will not be incorporated in the Discipline. Each involves the assignment of a specific responsibility or a particular grant of authority to be exercised during the 1952-56 quadrennium.

HARMONIZING OF LEGISLATION

The Book Editor, the Secretary of the General Conference, and the General Manager of The Methodist Publishing House are charged with editing and publishing the Discipline. The Editors in the exercise of their judgment shall have authority to make such changes in phraseology as may be necessary to harmonize legislation without changing its substance.

TRANSFER OF ASSETS TO THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

The General Board of Education shall turn over to the new Board of Christian Education and the new Board of Educational Institutions existing assets belonging respectively to the Division of the Local Church and the Division of Educational Institutions. For corporate purposes the General Board of Education shall be continued.

INTEGRATION OF TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The Staffs of the Division of the Local Church and the Board of National Missions shall study, during the 1952-1956 quadrennium, the problems peculiar to the Church in town and country communities, including the distribution of missionary funds and the provision of special educational aids and facilities suitable for the smaller church. They shall work out procedures for integrating the present town and country work of the Board of National Missions and the activities of the Division of the Local Church and shall report their recommendations to their respective Boards. The two Agencies shall make a joint recommendation to the 1956 General Conference of a plan for the placement of responsibility for the carrying on of these functions in an integrated and efficient manner.

CORRELATION OF YOUTH AND STUDENT WORK

The Board of Christian Education and the Board of Educational Institutions shall appoint a Joint Committee, including the Executive Secretaries, composed of an equal number from each Board. They shall consult with the officers and other representatives of the National Conference of Methodist Youth and shall work out the organizational relationships of that group to the two Boards concerned with youth and student work. This Committee shall also study the needs for publications for youth and student members of the Church, giving particular attention to the possible combining of the magazines which are now being published, Concern, Power, and motive.

ESTABLISHMENT OF ONE OFFICE FOR THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Board of Pensions is hereby directed to merge the two separate offices which have been maintained, into one operating office by the time of the 1956 General Conference, or as soon thereafter as is practical. It shall then function as a single agency, preserving the three present legal corporate entities (The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, Incorporated in Illinois; The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, Incorporated in Maryland; and The Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church, Incorporated in Missouri) and recognizing all separate pension fund obligations to Annual Conferences.

After the merging of these offices there shall be one and not two Executive Secretaries for the Board of Pensions. Appropriate changes shall be made in the wording of ¶ 1603.

LOCATION OF THE HEADQUARTERS OF GENERAL AGENCIES

The Co-ordinating Council and the Council on World Service and Finance, by majority vote in joint session, shall have the responsibility to approve changes in location of General Agencies during the 1952-1956 quadrennium, to carry out the revised plan of organization adopted by the General Conference, except where the General Conference determines otherwise. The two Councils shall appoint a Joint Committee consisting of seven representatives from the Co-ordinating Council and six from the Council on World Service and Finance to consult with the General Agencies concerned, to study the problem and to report back to the Councils. The two Councils shall meet and act as one body when considering the recommendations of the Joint Committee. They shall present a report regarding the completion of such relocations to the 1956 General Conference.

CONCERNING READJUSTMENT OF ALLOCATIONS TO WORLD SERVICE AGENCIES

The Council on World Service and Finance shall have authority to make any necessary readjustments of budgetary ratios and allowances for the World Service Agencies of the Church in order to allow for changes in functions, transfer of responsibilities, and establishment of new Agencies, required by the adoption, in whole or in part, by the General Conference of the recommendations of the Survey Commission, provided that provisions for such readjustments are not made by specific action of the General Conference itself.

GENERAL ENABLING ACT

Any and all corporations heretofore organized or incorporated under the laws of any State, under or pursuant to authority heretofore granted by any General Conference of The Methodist Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, or the Methodist Protestant Church shall be, and they, and each of them, hereby are authorized and directed to make, or cause to be made, any change or changes, amendment or amendments, in and to their respective Charters, Constitutions, or Articles of Incorporation that may be necessary to conform them to the actions of the 1952 General Conference of The Methodist Church, relating to such corporations, or to any of them, in order that any and all rights, interests, and property of said corporations, or any of them, may be properly safeguarded and preserved.

Additional and specific enabling acts may be presented at the time of the 1952 General Conference, pursuant to and not inconsistent with the recommendations of the Survey Commission, provided that said recommendations are adopted by the General Conference.

1952

To the General Conference of The Methodist Church:

In accordance with the directives of the Discipline and the 1948 General Conference, the General Commission on World Service and Finance submits herewith its Reports.

The Reports of the Commission will be presented in five parts, as follows:

PART I. A statement of the duties committed to the Commission by the General Conference; the functions performed; a listing of the general funds of the Church and receipts of each fund from June 1, 1948 to February 29, 1952, together with a brief statement concerning each fund.

(Corrected by order of the General Conference, to May 31, 1952.)

PART II. Reports of receipts and disbursements for the World Service Fund, the Advance for Christ and His Church Fund, the Episcopal Fund, the General Administration Fund, the Fellowship of Suffering and Service, the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief; and all other financial operations of The Methodist Church for the quadrennium.

PART III. Uniform Annuity Rates. (1948 Discipline, Par. 770.)

PART IV. A Survey of Benevolences of The Methodist Church, covering the period from 1940 to 1952.

PART V. Recommendations for the ensuing quadrennium relative to the World Service Funds, the Episcopal Fund, the General Administration Fund and other General Funds and Special Offerings.

PART I

GENERAL COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

The General Commission on World Service and Finance is an Agency created by and responsible to the General Conference.

The thirty-one members of the Commission are nominated by the Council of Bishops and elected by the General Conference. Two ministers and two laymen are elected from each Jurisdiction; seven are chosen at large, two of whom are Bishops.

Primary functions of the General Commission on World Service and Finance include:

(1) Recommendations to the General Conference relative to the General Funds of the Church, and (2) the reception and disbursing of these Funds as authorized by the General Conference.

The 1948 Discipline requires the General Commission on World Service and Finance to bring the following recommendations to the General Conference:

1. A Budget of annual expense of the Commission and the Central Office for the ensuing quadrennium. (Paragraph 737.)

2. After consultation with the Council of Bishops and the Council of Secretaries in a special called meeting, the General Commission on World Service and Finance shall submit to each quadrennial session of the General Conference, for its action and determination, a World Service program outlining the general financial objectives of the Church for the forthcoming quadrennium.

3. After diligent and detailed study of the needs of all the general causes or authorized Agencies of the Church asking to be included in the World Service Budget, the General Commission on World Service and Finance shall recommend to the General Conference for its action and determination the amount to be apportioned in the annual World Service Budget for each Board and authorized Agency.

4. A plan and schedule for the distribution of the receipts for the World Service Budget among the several Boards and Agencies. (Paragraph 742.)

5. A Report of the Agency or Agencies desiring to make a general Church-wide appeal for funds and recommendations concerning the same. (Paragraph 743.)

6. A recommendation of the days in connection with the Church-wide observance of which the taking of special offerings shall be authorized. (Paragraph 747.)

7. A statement outlining an equitable schedule of apportionments for distributing the World Service Budget to the several Annual Conferences.

8. A Report to the General Conference of (a) Agencies desiring to be included in the Budget of the General Administration Fund, with recommendations concerning the same, and (b) an annual General Administration Budget, indicating any prior or preferred claims and the plan or ratios for the distribution of the same.

9. A plan for apportioning the General Administration Fund among the several Annual Conferences.

10. A recommendation of (a) the amounts to be fixed as salaries of the effective Bishops; (b) a schedule of such amounts as may be judged adequate to provide for the expense of house, office, and travel; (c) the amounts to be fixed as annual pensions for the support of retired Bishops; and (d) a schedule of allowances for widows and for the support of minor children of deceased Bishops and (e) a total Budget necessary to meet these schedules.

11. An estimate of the percentage of the total ministerial salaries needed to yield an amount equal to the Episcopal Fund Budget.

The General Conference has authorized the General Commission on World Service and Finance to perform the following functions through its Treasurer:

1. The Treasurer of the General Commission on World Service and Finance shall, not less than thirty days prior to the session of each Annual Conference, transmit to the presiding Bishop thereof, to the Chairman of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, and to the Conference Treasurer a statement of the apportionments to the Conference for the World Service Fund, the General Administration Fund, and the Episcopal Fund.

2. The Treasurer shall keep an account of all Funds remitted to him by the Annual Conference Treasurers and from other sources intended (1) for the World Service Fund, (2) for the General Administration Fund, (3) for the Episcopal Fund, and (4) for any other Fund so directed by the proper authority, and shall disburse the same as authorized by the General Conference and directed by the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

3. The Treasurer shall report annually to the General Commission on World Service and Finance and to the respective Annual Conference Commissions as to all amounts received and disbursed during the year.

4. The Treasurer shall make to each quadrennial session of the General Conference a full Report of the financial transactions of the Commission for the preceding quadrennium.

5. Establish uniform annuity rates.

6. Act as arbiter in all cases of Inter-Board disagreement in financial matters.

7. Consider all complaints from contributors.

DEFINITION OF FUNDS

The World Service Fund

The World Service Fund furnishes the basic support for all the World Service Agencies included in the General Benevolences.

This Fund, after having being apportioned to the Annual Conferences, is combined with the Annual Conference Benevolences and is then called the World Service and Conference Benevolences. The local church contribution is made to "World Service and Conference Benevolences."

The following World Service Boards and Agencies are included in World Service: The Board of Missions and Church Extension, the Board of Education, the Theological Schools, the Commission on Ministerial Training, the Board of Temperance, the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Pensions, the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Evangelism, the Commission on World Peace and the American Bible Society.

The Episcopal Fund

The Episcopal Fund is raised by an apportionment of one and three quarters per cent of the total cash salary of all ministers serving churches. From this fund are paid the salaries, house allowance and travel expense of the Bishops, the pensions of retired Bishops, widows of Bishops and minor children of deceased Bishops.

The General Administration Fund

The General Administration Fund provides for the expense of the General Conference, the Judicial Council, the Statistical office, Methodist Information and of such General Commissions and Committees as are constituted by the General Conference. It also includes the Methodist co-operation with Inter-Denominational Agencies.

The annual Administration Fund budget for the 1948-52 quadrennium has been—

General Conference Expense	$157,500.00
Federal Council of Churches	90,000.00
World Council of Churches	35,000.00
Methodist Information	75,000.00
Public Relations Study	60,000.00
	<hr/>
	$417,500.00

OTHER FUNDS HANDLED BY THE CENTRAL TREASURY

During this quadrennium there has been an almost complete distribution of the Crusade Funds which remained in the Central Treasury at the beginning of the quadrennium.

The Advance for Christ and His Church fund, frequently spoken of as "The Advance Fund" includes the special gifts for the Division of Foreign Missions, the Division of Home Missions and the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

The Week of Dedication is a part of the special program of "The Advance" and the money comes from a free will offering taken in the churches on or near the closing Sunday of that week.

The Fellowship of Suffering and Service is the name given to the Communion Day offerings. This fund is divided, 50% for the Methodist Committee on Overseas Relief, 25% for the Commission on Chaplains, and 25% for the Commission on Camp Activities.

The Committee on Overseas Relief, commonly known as M.C.O.R., is the Methodist overseas relief program. During this past quadrennium it has been particularly active in placing D.P.'s (displaced persons) in this country.

The Commission on Chaplains is the channel through which the Council of Bishops maintains contact with the Armed Forces in the appointment and control of Methodist Chaplains.

The Commission on Camp Activities furnishes aid to Methodist churches adjacent to military camps.

Flood Relief money has been received as an emergency offering to assist churches destroyed by floods in Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri in the summer of 1951.

WORLD SERVICE ON APPORTIONMENT GIVING PER ACTIVE MEMBER

Year Ending May 31

DOLLARS & CENTS

BUYING POWER*

Prepared by the Council on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church.

★The giving per active member to World Service on Apportionment has shown a substantial rise over the past decade. But the buying power of these dollars and cents has fluctuated, as shown on the right side of the chart. This is because ever-increasing costs have meant continual shrinkage in the dollar's buying power, until the $1.10 per member in the year ending May 31, 1952 can buy only as much as 59¢ bought in 1940. (Based on U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics "Cost of Living Index").

PART III—UNIFORM ANNUITY RATES

The General Conference of 1948 made it the duty of the General Commission on World Service and Finance to "establish standardized annuity rates and formulate policies for writing of annuities by institutions and Agencies under auspices of The Methodist Church" (Paragraph 770, 1948 Discipline).

Each General Board, Educational Institution, Hospital, Home, Ministerial Pension Fund and Wesley Foundation was questioned in detail about its annuity practices. The results of this study are available on request.

Annuity rates are set in co-operation with the other denominations of the National Council of Churches. These rates are listed on the next page.

Information regarding taxation and reporting of income from annuities has been sent to all institutions which reported interest in an annuity program. This Report is available on request.

All organizations issuing annuities are cautioned to use the rates on the following page, and to be guided by the recommendations of the National Council of Churches. These recommendations are in the booklets, "Annuity Agreements of Charitable Organizations," especially No. 45 (50c), No. 46 ($1.00), and No. 47 ($1.00). They may be secured from the National Council of Churches, 297 Fourth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y. Organizations of limited resources should exercise extreme care in their annuity program, and may shift the responsibility by reinsuring annuity contracts, using only the gift portion of the purchase price for organization purposes.

METHODIST GIVING INCREASES

The chart on the following page, "METHODIST GIVING PER ACTIVE MEMBER," shows the total giving per active Methodist, compared with the income of the average American over 15.

Since the value of the dollar fluctuated between 1940 and 1951, the only way to compare the various years was to express the data in dollars of the same buying power.

The U. S. Department of Labor's "Cost of Living Index," now called the "Consumer's Price Index," was used to convert all figures into dollars of 1935-39 buying power.

You will notice that the average American's total income went up 57%, income after taxes went up 33%, while the total giving was increasing 79%.

Methodist giving increased from 1.44% to 1.65% of total income.

After taxes, Methodist giving went up from 1.87% to 2.52% of income.

WORLD SERVICE DECREASES

The chart on next page, "WORLD SERVICE GIVING PER ACTIVE METHODIST," shows that the World Service share of total Methodist giving has decreased from 5.64% to 3.05%!

The World Service share of total benevolences has decreased from 36.99% to 20.39%!

On the basis of giving per active member (dollars of equal buying power),

Total giving has almost doubled!

Local church expenditures have almost doubled!

Other Benevolences have more than doubled!

But World Service has actually declined!

METHODIST BENEVOLENCES

The phase of Methodist activities which ministers to needs outside the local church parish is called Benevolences. The Methodist Benevolence program beyond the local church may be divided into two major groups:

I. World Service and Conference Benevolences

II. Non-ratio Benevolences

I. World Service and Conference Benevolences are those which constitute the basic continuing Benevolence program of The Methodist Church beyond the local church.

A. The World Service program is the Methodism-wide Benevolent activity of our Church. The causes to be supported, the relative amounts (ratio) for each cause, the total amount to be raised annually, and the method of apportionment in allotting this goal among the Annual Conferences are determined by the General Conference. The World Service Agencies and the plan of division of World Service receipts for the 1948-52 quadrennium are:

1. First claims: The General Commission on World Service and Finance

The Central Receiving Treasury
The Co-operative Work of the Boards
Board of Pensions (fixed amount)
Deaconess Pensions (fixed amount)

2. The balance is distributed:

Board of Missions and Church Extension	71.5%
Board of Education	15.2%
Theological Schools	4.08%
Commission on Ministerial Training	1.05%
Board of Temperance	2.2%
Board of Hospitals and Homes97%
Board of Lay Activities	1.65%
Commission on World Peace9%
Board of Evangelism	1.2%
American Bible Society	1.25%

B. The Conference Benevolence program is the basic continuing Benevolence program within the Annual Conference. The Budget for each cause is approved by the Annual Conference. The receipts are distributed on a ratio determined by vote of the Annual Conference.

The World Service Apportionment (as determined by the General Conference) is sent to the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance. This Commission combines the approved Conference Benevolence Budget and the World Service Apportionment into one sum called "World Service and Conference Benevolences." This amount is apportioned among the charges in the manner determined by the Annual Conference.

II. Non-ratio Benevolences are funds raised outside the World Service and Conference Benevolence Budget. They are usually raised for specific causes.

A. Methodism-wide non-ratio Benevolences are for causes anywhere in our Church. Special gifts may be made by individuals, churches, or Conferences to the General Boards and Agencies of the Church for the over-all program of the Boards, or for specified projects of the Boards.

Included are :

- Advance Fund Specials
- Week of Dedication
- World Service Specials
- Youth Fund
- Student Day
- Race Relations Day
- Overseas Relief
- Commissions on Chaplains
- Camp Activities

B. Conference non-ratio Benevolences are raised outside the Conference's apportioned Benevolence Budget for additional support of its Boards, Agencies and Institutions.

C. The Woman's Society of Christian Service raises Benevolences for its world-wide Benevolent Activities. These funds are from the local Woman's Societies, including Wesleyan Service Guilds and one-half the Youth Fund. The monies are sent through the District and Conference Treasurers. They are disbursed by the Woman's Division of Christian Service or the Board of Missions and Church Extension. The departments of the Woman's Division are :

The top section of the chart, "Boards and Agencies—by Source," next page, shows how each of the causes of the Church secured its funds. Each cause includes the Conference level Boards and Agencies, as well as the general level Boards. The total amount received and the amount from each source are shown for each cause.

The bottom section, "Source of Benevolences—by Boards and Agencies" shows how the major fund raising efforts of the Church distributed their gifts among the Benevolent Causes. This is the reverse of the above, with the same data presented in the opposite manner. The total amount raised and distributed to each cause is shown for each fund raising method.

On the left, "Total Giving in Dollars," the giving for the first three years of each quadrennium of The Methodist Church is shown in dollars. The total amount of money collected by these various means is listed, just as their reports show.

On the right, "Total Giving in Buying Power," the same information is presented, but we have adjusted for the fluctuations in the value of the dollar. Rapidly rising costs over the last decade require that we consider not only the number of dollars contributed, but also the buying power of these contributions. Each dollar in each three-year period will buy the same amount of goods and services as the others, as shown here. The U. S. Department of Labor's "Cost of Living Index" was used to convert all figures to the buying power of the 1935-39 dollar.

The total giving for the General Benevolences as shown on the left side is compared with the buying power of those gifts on the right side.

BENEVOLENCES ON APPORTIONMENT

Division between World Service and Conference Benevolences
By Conference Years

Does Not Include Crusade

CONCLUSIONS

This brief study of the General Benevolences of The Methodist Church covers the period from 1940 to 1952.

At the close of the first quadrennium, the Report of the General Commission on World Service and Finance to the General Conference stated, "It is apparent from a study of the distribution of the Benevolence income of the whole Church that there does not exist in The Methodist Church any consistent plan for making a Benevolence policy applicable to the Church as a whole."

Two things of great importance occurred during the 1944-48 quadrennium. In the first place, the Crusade, with its goal of $25,000,000.00, set the Church to a common task and revealed the strength and resources of the membership. In the second place, the Church became World Service-conscious. With most of the money for the Crusade raised in the first two years of the quadrennium, the local churches continued their enlarged giving by substantial increases in their gifts to World Service and Conference Benevolences. This is evidenced by the fact that the receipts for 1947-48 were 25.5% above those of 1944-45.

The quadrennium now closing has been distinguished by a further rise in World Service and in significant giving for "The Advance for Christ and His Church," and for "The Week of Dedication."

The following facts may indicate a trend in the general Benevolence giving of the Church. In 1948-49, forty-four Annual Conferences paid in full or overpaid their Apportionment for World Service. In 1949-50, this had increased to fifty-six and in 1950-51 to sixty-one. Of these sixty-one Annual Conferences, thirteen decreased their overpayments. At the same time, gifts for "Advance Specials" totaled $4,350,940.92 for 1950-51.

In 1948-49, with World Service Apportionments increased one third, the Church paid 97.08% of the Apportionment. In 1949-50, 98.86% of the Apportionment was paid, and in 1950-51, it was paid 102.95%.

The trend would seem to be toward payment of the World Service Apportionment in full, with additional gifts directed to "Advance Specials."

In view of this probable trend, it is well to note:

- a. The average Methodist increased his support to the local church during the past decade.
- b. Mr. Average Methodist has increased his support to his Conference Benevolences.
- c. The giving of Mr. Average Methodist to World Service has decreased both in terms of per cent of total giving and in terms of the purchasing power of his World Service gifts.

At the Annual Conference level, it should be noted that :

- a. An increasing number of prior claims are being placed in the World Service and Conference Benevolence Budget and are being paid from first receipts before the World Service and Conference Benevolence dollar is divided. Some of these items, such as the General Administration Fund, should be apportioned separately from World Service and Conference Benevolences. Other items should be included in Conference Benevolences.
- b. Annual Conferences are including many new projects in their Conference Expenses. These include many of an administrative nature which should be apportioned separately.
- c. A more defensible plan of apportioning World Service to the Annual Conferences should be adopted by the General Conference. The present plan of apportioning to each Annual Conference a percentage increase over the preceding quadrennium brings many inequities into the Apportionments.
- d. There is a gradual leveling of the ratio between World Service and Conference Benevolences with an average ratio of 59% for World Service and 41% for Conference Benevolences.

Further conclusions are :

- a. The dollar in 1952 will buy about 13% less than in 1948.
- b. In the past four years, the active membership of our Church has increased by 5%.
- c. Many new avenues of work are opening to our World Service Agencies.

All of the foregoing points to the need for a substantial increase in our World Service goals for the next quadrennium.

Here is what you actually pay out in cash for your charitable gift. The first line below is the amount of your gift. That gives you a tax saving according to your income. Find your income at the left, then the table to the right shows you the real cost of each gift. It is the initial cash outlay, less the tax saved by making the gift.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church, Chicago, Illinois. We have examined the balance sheet and statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the World Service Fund of The Methodist Church for the year ended May 31, 1952. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the above balance sheet and accompanying statement of cash receipts and disbursements present fairly the financial position of the General Commission on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church at May 31, 1952, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church, Chicago, Illinois.

We have examined the balance sheet of the Advance for Christ and His Church of The Methodist Church as of May 31, 1952 and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the above balance sheet and accompanying statements of cash receipts and disbursements present fairly the financial position of the fund at May 31, 1952, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 437.

PART V.—No. 1

WORLD SERVICE BUDGET RECOMMENDATION

In compliance with Paragraphs 741-743 of the 1948 Discipline, The General Commission on World Service and Finance presents to the 1952 General Conference of The Methodist Church the following Report:

The General Commission on World Service and Finance is pleased to report that The Methodist Church has responded splendidly to the increased World Service Budget for the 1948-52 quadrennium. The request was for a 33 1/3 per cent increase above the amount apportioned for 1944-48.

Here is the record for the first three years of the quadrennium:

World Service Apportioned

Annual	$ 7,903,379.00
Total for three years	$23,710,137.00

World Service Paid

1948-49	$ 7,672,359.89
1949-50	7,813,597.68
1950-51	8,136,170.59
Total for three years	$23,522,128.16

Unpaid	$ 188,008.84
--------------	---------------

If the present rate of giving is maintained through May 31, 1952, the Apportionment for the four years will be paid in full.

The World Service Budget is basic to the total connec-tional program of Methodism. The Program Planning Com-mittee, composed of the Bishops, the Executive Secretaries, the General Commission on World Service and Finance and representatives of the Woman's Division of Christian Ser-vice adopted this statement:

"We regard the World Service Fund as basic in the Church's financial program. World Service Apportionments represent the minimum need of the General Agencies of the Church, and the payment in full of these Apportionments by local churches and Conferences has prior claim over other Benevolent Appeals."

In preparing this recommendation, The General Commission on World Service and Finance gave careful consideration to the following:

(a) The annual askings of the several World Service Agencies, as presented to the General Commission, totaled $18,086,964.77. Your Commission carefully studied the several requests and concluded that all were proposing worthwhile and desirable extensions of their programs.

(b) During the quadrennium there has been a 10 per cent increase in the cost of living.

(c) The active membership of the Church has increased about 4 per cent.

(d) The approved plan for General Benevolences points toward a tendency for the World Service giving to level off at the amount apportioned.

(e) The Apportionments must "be made on the basis of actual expectation and within reasonable reach of our churches." (Recommendation from Planning Committee.)

(f) The Apportionments must be within the limits of a defensible plan of objective Apportionments to the Annual Conferences.

Having given prayerful and sympathetic consideration to all the involvements concerned, the General Commission on World Service and Finance recommends to the General Conference that the annual World Service Budget for the 1952-1956 quadrennium be fixed at $9,660,000.00.

(See Part V, Number 2 for Plan of Apportionment to the Annual Conference.)

The General Commission on World Service and Finance recommends that all World Service money received beginning with June 1, 1952, be distributed in accordance with the following schedule:

I. First claims shall be made on the World Service on Apportionment Funds for (a) the expense of promotion, and (b) for the World Service share of the costs of the Central Treasury and (c) the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

II. Fixed sums shall be paid annually from the World Service receipts as follows:

1918 Journal of the 1952 General Conference

To the Board of Pensions, Illinois Corporation	$115,000.00
To the Board of Pensions, Missouri Corporation	71,000.00
To the Woman's Division of Christian Service for Pensions for Deaconesses	45,000.00
To the American University	50,000.00

The Treasurer shall pay one twelfth of the foregoing amount each month to the Boards, Division or Institution indicated.

Allocation for the American University is conditional upon

(1) Title to the institution being vested in The Methodist Church; (2) provision being made in the Charter that it shall not be amended nor shall Trustees be elected except with approval of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church; and (3) that $50,000 additional shall be provided annually by the Board of Education from monies outside those of the World Service Funds. The $50,000 shall not be distributed to the American University until all of these conditions have been complied with.

III. The balance of the receipts for the regular World Service Program shall be distributed according to the following ratios:

Board of Missions and Church Extension	62.35%
Board of Education	16.01%
*Theological Schools	8.90%
*Scarritt College	.56%
Ministerial Training	.95%
Board of Temperance	2.06%
Board of Hospitals and Homes	1.11%
Board of Lay Activities	1.67%
Commission on World Peace	.94%
Board of Evangelism	2.22%
American Bible Society	1.39%
Radio, Film and Television	1.84%
	<hr/> 100.00%

* Theological Schools and Scarritt College are limited in any one year to $800,000 and $50,000 respectively.

In presenting these recommendations, the General Commission has followed the counsel given it by the Planning Committee as to the needs of our theological schools and of Scarritt College. The Commission on Radio, Films and Television was authorized by the 1948 General Conference, but no funds were provided for its operation. It is believed that the percentage recommended for this Commission affords a minimum operating budget.

In considering the readjustment made with regard to the Board of Missions, it should be pointed out that this Board is the sole beneficiary of the Advance Special gifts which is being recommended for the coming quadrennium, such special gifts having averaged $3,000,000 per year during the quadrennium just closing. A proposal to open Advance Special gifts to all the Boards and Commissions was seriously considered by the Planning Commission and decision reached to limit these to the one Board so as not to confuse the Church or minimize the especial importance of missions. Such source of additional income having been so limited, it is the judgment of the Commission that some provision for minimum increases must be made for the other worthy Boards and Commissions included in World Service causes.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance, in presenting this recommendation, states most emphatically that it does not consider the sum of $9,660,000.00 an adequate sum for the work of the World Service Agencies. It therefore calls upon all Annual Conferences and all local churches to consider their Apportionments as a base below which they will not fall rather than a ceiling above which they will not go. The figure of $9,660,000.00 is given the Church as a minimum challenge. Your Commission expresses the sincere hope that the effort will everywhere be made to enlarge the services of the Church through the help of greatly increased giving to Methodist World Service.

SPECIAL REQUESTS TO ANNUAL CONFERENCES

Adopted, May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 438.

I. Support of Schools, Colleges and Wesley Foundations

The General Commission on World Service and Finance joins with the Council of Bishops, The Council of Secretaries and representatives of the Woman's Division of Christian Service in calling attention to the crisis confronting our Methodist schools and colleges and our Wesley Foundations. They must look to their constituent Conferences for moral and financial support. We believe the cause of Christian higher education should be laid on the conscience of our people, and that each Annual Conference should be encouraged of its own initiative to provide annually, as a minimum, a sum equivalent to 50 cents per church member for the schools and colleges, and 15 cents for the Wesley Foundations, which are its particular responsibility.

We, therefore, recommend: (1) that the General Conference set 50 cents per church member for the schools and colleges and 15 cents for the Wesley Foundations as a minimum goal for each Annual Conference; (2) that each Annual Conference determine its participation in this endeavor, and administer the funds thus raised for its schools, colleges, and Wesley Foundations; and student work approved by the Annual Conference and the General Board of Education; (3) that each Annual Conference set aside a percentage of funds so raised for aid in special and emergency situations, as may be determined by the Annual Conference concerned, the same to be remitted through the Central Treasury to the Division of Educational Institutions of the General Board of Education for administration by them. Such gifts shall receive World Service Special Gift credit.

II. Need for Church Extension

The General Commission calls the attention of the General Conference to the urgent necessity of establishing and housing new congregations if Methodism is to maintain its position of leadership in America and around the world. We found that 600 newly organized congregations are in temporary quarters; that 1,500 new churches should be organized within the quadrennium; and that an adequate building program calls for $219,215,900.00.

We therefore recommend a Conference-initiated financial program as provided in suggested legislation known as Par. 784B.

PART V.—No. 2

RECOMMENDATION FOR WORLD SERVICE APPORTIONMENTS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCES

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 439.

Par. 749 of the 1948 Discipline: "The General Commission on World Service and Finance shall after careful study prepare an equitable schedule of Apportionments by which the total World Service Budget (Par. 742) shall be distributed to the several Annual Conferences and shall present the same to the General Conference for its action and determination."

After a quadrennium of study, inquiry and deliberation, the General Commission on World Service and Finance submits the following recommendations with the hope that they may provide a method for arriving at an equitable plan for making Apportionments to the Annual Conferences.

These recommendations are made after experimentation with almost a score of possible methods of distribution. The plan followed during the preceding two quadrenniums, of placing a percentage increase upon the giving of the fiscal year 1943-44 has been based only upon the willingness and ability of an Annual Conference to give to World Service in that one year. Succeeding years bring changes in strength of membership and of financial ability. We are aware of the difficulties in planning Apportionments which will be satisfactory to all the Conferences of our extensive connection, but we believe the plan hereinafter proposed comes nearer to solving the problems of fair Apportionments than any previously devised.

We have endeavored to formulate a plan which will present a challenge to the Church, and at the same time will not discourage our people nor weaken the fine World Service morale we have achieved. The plan is simple, equitable and defensible. Our suggested Apportionment, while a figure that represents an increase in amount, is really no more proportionately than was asked during the last quadrennium when allowance is made for inflation and increase in membership.

Our recommendations are:

1. That the apportionment for World Service for the 1952-56 quadrennium be set at $9,660,000.00 annually.

2. That each Annual Conference shall have the right to fix its acceptance, after the apportionment has been presented and explained by the Bishop and the Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance.

3. We recommend that the World Service Apportionment be distributed to the Annual Conferences on a decimal derived from the following factors:

- (a) One third on the basis of active membership.

- (b) One third on the basis of total non-building giving (i.e., total for all purposes less amounts paid for debts, buildings, and improvements), and

- (c) One third on the basis of World Service giving on Apportionment. The figures for computing the decimal shall be those covering the first three years of the quadrennium. The figures for (a) and (b) shall be taken from the General Minutes and for (c) from the Reports of The General Commission on World Service and Finance.

4. We recommend, in the interest of fairness as we attempt this first basic schedule of Apportionments since the Uniting Conference, the schedule of Apportionments shall be so adjusted that no Annual Conference shall be apportioned an increase of less than ten per cent, and no Annual Conference shall be apportioned an increase of more than thirty-five per cent above its Apportionment during the quadrennium 1948-1952.

5. We recommend all Annual Conferences be urged to assume the entire increase in their Apportionment the first year. If an Annual Conference decides it cannot assume the entire amount the first year, we recommend that it take as large a portion of the increase as its faith permits and that it lay plans for assuming the full Apportionment (as computed on the decimal) as early in the quadrennium as possible. The thirty-five per cent maximum increase allows Annual Conferences with large raises in Apportionments to take that step now and then to achieve the full Apportionment as computed as soon as their faith and works permit.

6. That the Apportionments for World Service shall become effective immediately upon the adjournment of the 1952 General Conference.

THE EPISCOPAL FUND BUDGET

(See "Discipline," Paragraphs 761 to 768)

The General Commission on World Service and Finance presents to the General Conference the following recommendation concerning the Episcopal Fund Budget for the quadrennium beginning June 1, 1952.

I. Bishops Elected by Jurisdictional Conferences

1. The salary of an effective Bishop shall be $10,000.00 per year.

2. The allowance of a retired Bishop or Missionary Bishop shall be $4,000.00 per year.

3. The allowance for the widow of a deceased Bishop or Missionary Bishop shall be $2,400.00 per year provided that prior to the death of her husband she had been his wife for a period of at least fifteen years while he was in the effective ministry of The Methodist Church as a Bishop or a traveling preacher. The allowance for the widow of a deceased Bishop or Missionary Bishop, who, prior to the death of her husband has been his wife for a shorter period than fifteen years while he was an effective minister of The Methodist Church, shall be determined on the basis of that fraction of the said fifteen years during which she was his wife. (See Par. 768, 1948 "Discipline.")

4. The General Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine the amounts to be allowed for the support of minor children of deceased Bishops and for children who are, at the time of the Bishop's death, of evident mental or physical incapacity to provide for their own self-support.

5. For an Episcopal Residence furnished an effective Bishop, where the residence is held for The Methodist Church by a Board of Trustees there shall be allowed annually the sum needed to cover the cost of maintenance; provided however, that during the period when an Area or Conference is paying off a lien against an Episcopal Residence the fair rental value of the Residence may be paid to the Trustees monthly; the total for the year not to exceed $2,400.00. When a Conference or Area Committee furnishes an Episcopal Residence, or a Residence is secured by the Bishop himself, there shall be allowed annually the sum needed to cover actual rental cost, provided this shall not exceed $2,400.00 per year.

6. For Secretarial and office expense each effective Bishop shall be allowed annually a sum not to exceed $4,000.00.

7. Cost of "official travel" of each effective Bishop shall be paid upon presentation of an itemized statement of expense. "Official travel" shall be interpreted to include all official travel within the assigned Area including the cost of long distance telephone calls, telegrams, and postage, and such official travel outside the Area for the work of The Methodist Church as are not paid for by the General Boards and Commissions. The General Boards, Commissions and Committees of the Church shall pay the travel expense of its Episcopal membership on the same basis as the travel of other members. Travel outside the Area for addresses and lectures for which honorarium is received is not "official travel."

8. Bishops elected by a Jurisdictional Conference and assigned to Areas outside the United States shall be paid the expense of travel of the wife and minor children to the Area headquarters. The travel expense of the Bishop will be paid to one meeting of the Council of Bishops in the interim between General Conferences. One round-trip passage for his wife will be paid in each quadrennium. Travel expense of minor children will be paid when returning to the United States for college.

9. Travel expense incurred by a retired Bishop resident in the United States in attending the meetings of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences and of the semi-annual meetings of the Council of Bishops shall be paid from the Episcopal Fund.

10. The Council of Bishops shall determine and schedule the travel of its members on official visits to overseas Conferences. The expense of such travel is to be paid from the Episcopal Fund.

11. When the necessity arises, the Council of Bishops may send one of its number to organize and/or to hold an overseas Annual Conference or Conferences and Central Conference or Conferences with the expense for the same paid from the Episcopal Fund.

12. The General Commission on World Service and Finance may authorize, upon certification of need by the Council of Bishops, a Budget providing for the employment of a special stenographer and the other additional expenses incurred by the Secretary of the Council of Bishops in the performance of the special duties of this office.

II. Bishops Elected by Central Conferences

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 445.

1. The General Commission on World Service and Finance, in compliance with Paragraph 574 of the 1948 "Discipline," shall make to the Bishops elected by the Central Conferences, or to the Treasurer of the Central Conference Episcopal Fund when so authorized, such remittances as the General Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine. Due consideration shall be given to the representation made by the Central Conferences concerning the needs of each. Each Treasurer of a Central Conference Episcopal Fund shall furnish the Central Treasury with an annual certified public accountant audit of the funds received and disbursed by him. Annual adjustments of balances remaining in the Central Conference treasuries shall be made by the Central Treasury.

2. The General Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine what sum shall be paid from the Episcopal Fund for the support of a minister or the widow of a minister who, having been elected by a Central Conference to serve as a Bishop for one or more terms or for life, shall have reached the time of retirement. Where term episcopacy has been established, the pension provided from the Episcopal Fund shall be only for those years during which a minister has served as a Bishop. Retirement allowances from the Episcopal Fund shall be made only after a minister, elected as a Bishop by a Central Conference, shall have reached the age of retirement as set by the Central Conference or shall have been retired for physical disability. In no case shall automatic retirement take effect before his sixty-fifth birthday.

3. Travel expenses will be paid each effective Bishop of a Central Conference attending the sessions of the General Conference and the meeting of the Council of Bishops held in connection therewith, and one other meeting of the Council of Bishops, during the ensuing quadrennium.

4. Travel expense for one round trip to the United States during the quadrennium will be paid a wife of an effective Bishop of a Central Conference. Delete: (providing the original home of the wife is in the United States).

III. Reserve for Pensions of Retired Bishops

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 445.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance requests authority from the General Conference to set aside from the current Episcopal Fund the sum of $250,000.00, the same to be carefully invested in compliance with the Prudent Man Act so the interest therefrom may be added to the principle during the 1952-56 quadrennium. This money is to be the first step in the funding of an adequate reserve for the payment of the pensions of retired Bishops, their widows and minor children. Furthermore, the General Commission on World Service and Finance in co-operation with counsel from the Board of Pensions, requests authority to bring the 1956 General Conference a plan for the funding of an Episcopal Pension Reserve Fund.

IV. Increase or Decrease During Quadrennium

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 445.

The amounts above authorized in I and II are subject to increase or decrease during the quadrennium, if, in the judgment of a three-fourths majority of the General Commission on World Service and Finance, economic conditions make necessary a change.

V. Travel Expense Vouchers

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 445.

Any and all travel expense will be paid only upon the presentation of an itemized statement.

VI. Apportionment for the Episcopal Fund

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 445.

The Apportionment for the quadrennium shall be a sum equal to two per cent of the cash salary (not including house allowance) paid to the minister or ministers of each charge throughout the entire Church, the same to become effective in each Annual Conference at its first session after August 1, 1952. For the Annual Conferences meeting between the adjournment of the General Conference and August 1, 1952, the annual apportionment for the quadrennium 1948-1952 shall apply for the Conference year of 1952-1953. The General Commission on World Service and Finance shall be authorized to increase or decrease the rate of apportionment during the quadrennium as may become necessary or advisable, providing that the rate shall not be increased above $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.

The estimated annual requirement for this Fund during the ensuing quadrennium is $1,178,700.00. The estimated return upon the foregoing proposed apportionment is $1,116,810.00. Any annual deficit will be paid from the reserve.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance is directed to alter the provisions of Section VI so as to conform to any legislation that may be adopted by this General Conference.

VII. Determination of Validity of Claims

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 445.

The Executive Committee of the General Commission on World Service and Finance shall act for the Commission, within the authority conferred upon it by the Commission, in determining the validity of any claims upon the Episcopal Fund which may be presented during the ensuing quadrennium.

PART V.—No. 4THE GENERAL ADMINISTRATION FUND

(Par. 757-760 of 1948 Discipline)

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Pages 446-450.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance recommends the following Annual Budget for the General Administration Fund for the quadrennium beginning June 1, 1952.

1. General Conference Expense	$105,000
2. Methodist Information	75,000
3. The Statistical Office	32,500

1932 Journal of the 1952 General Conference

4. The Transportation Bureau	15,000
5. Methodist Historical Societies	12,000
6. Commission on Church Union	1,500
7. The Judicial Council	5,500
8. World Methodist Council	25,000
9. Religion in American Life	20,000
10. United Church Canvass	2,000
11. Commission on Pensions	750
12. Commission on Worship and Fine Arts	2,500
13. Co-ordinating Council (*)	10,000
14. General Expenses	25,000
TOTAL	$331,750

() See question raised by Charles C. Parlin () and Harold C. Case, bottom of page 447, and reply of Foye G. Gibson at top of page 448. Editor.

Items in Budget

1. So many unpredictable factors enter into the cost of a meeting four years hence that your Commission believes it should set aside annually the sum of $100,000.00 in order to anticipate all of the costs of the 1956 General Conference.

2. Methodist Information is requesting the same annual sum as for the past quadrennium.

3. The primary function of The Statistical Office is the preparation and publication of The General Minutes.

4. The Transportation Bureau is the agency of the Church through which the railroads make available the clergy fares and passes. The railroads have been most co-operative with the Methodist Clergy Bureau.

5. The Methodist Historical Societies requested that their allotment be increased from $6,000.00 annually to $25,000.00. For the current quadrennium the Commission recommends $12,000.00 annually.

6. If the Commission on Church Union is continued by the General Conference, $1,500.00 annually, or a sum not to exceed $6,000.00 for the quadrennium is recommended.

7. The Judicial Council is supported from the General Administration Fund.

8. The World Methodist Council is the new name for the Ecumenical Methodist Council.

9. Religion in American Life which sponsors the annual November campaign on church attendance and the place of religion in everyday living in co-operation with the National Advertising Council is recommended for a yearly grant of $20,000.00.

10. The United Church Canvass is recommended for $2,000.00.

(Note: The Section below on The Methodist Foundation was deleted and referred to the Co-ordinating Council for study and report to the 1956 General Conference. See Resolution of Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois), Journal, page 675. For Report No. 9, Section V of the Commission on World Service and Finance, see Journal, page 1947, Section 12. Editor.)

The Methodist Foundation as recommended by the Joint Committee for the Council of Bishops and the General Commission on World Service and Finance is included for $65,000.00 per annum.

11. The Commission on Pensions is recommended for $750.00.

(Note: See Journal, pages 562, 1379. Editor.)

12. The Commission on Worship and Fine Arts is recommended for $2,500.00.

(Note: See Report No. 7, General Standing Committee on Ritual and Orders of Worship. Journal pages 653 and 1406. Editor.)

13. Expense of Co-ordinating Council is recommended for $10,000.00 (See note on page 1932 concerning this fund. Editor).

14. Twenty-five thousand dollars is placed in this budget to cover the General Administration Fund share of the operation on World Service and Finance and such other costs as may be a charge against the General Administrative Fund.

The above Budget of fourteen items, totaling $331,750.00, is recommended as the annual amount to be included in the General Administration Fund Budget for the quadrennium beginning June 1, 1952. This Budget is subject, however, to such adjustment as may be made necessary because of the establishment by this General Conference of additional Quadrennial Commissions or Committees.

Recommendations

In connection with the General Administration Fund, the General Commission on World Service and Finance makes the following recommendations:

1. That, as a measure of economy and of co-ordination, The Statistical Office now under the Board of Publication (Par. 1141) be merged with the Department of Surveys and Apportionments of the Central Treasury and that the responsibility for operating this office be placed with the General Commission on World Service and Finance through its Executive Secretary.

2. That the Transportation Bureau be placed under the supervision of the General Commission on World Service and Finance and administered by its Executive Secretary, and that its support be drawn from the General Administration Fund. It is further recommended that, so far as possible, the purchase of tickets and the planning of revenue travel be placed upon a self-supporting basis.

3. That the Judicial Council have available an annual sum of $5,500.00, it being understood that if this amount is insufficient in any one year, such additional funds as may be necessary shall be drawn from the General Conference Expense Fund.

4. That the authorized allowance for travel to meetings of the Church shall be first class rail fare, roomette, and meals en route. If travel is by air or automobile, the basis of payment of travel shall be by rail, unless air or auto is less. Travel expense for ministers shall be on the basis of clergy rail fare, when such fare is available.

5. That the accepted mode of travel from overseas to sessions of the General Conference shall be the same as is authorized by the Board of Missions for missionaries and shall be by the most direct route from the place of residence to the seat of the General Conference. Travel in the United States in reaching the seat of the General Conference shall be the same as for residents of the United States.

6. That the several interests included in the Annual Budget of the General Administration Fund shall draw upon the Administration Fund receipts as needed each year, within the limitations of their Budgets and as funds are available for the same; provided that if inflation or deflation during the quadrennium radically changes the costs upon this fund or the receipts for this fund, adjustments may be made within the total framework of the Budget as may be deemed necessary upon a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

7. That an Annual Conference which in any year overpays its apportionment for the General Administration Fund shall be given credit for the same in the succeeding year and any Conference which fails to pay its apportionment in full for any one or more years shall have the deficit added to the Apportionment of the succeeding year.

8. That the General Administration Fund Budget be apportioned to the Annual Conferences on the basis of one-third of one per cent of the average of the total giving (not including payment of debts, or for building and improvements) as recorded in the 1949, 1950 and 1951 General Minutes and that this apportionment shall go into effect immediately upon the adjournment of the General Conference.

PART V.—No. 5

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Pages 450-454.

THE INTER-DENOMINATIONAL CO-OPERATION FUND

Careful consideration has been given to the askings of The National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and of The World Council of Churches. These agencies provide the channel through which The Methodist Church may work co-operatively with the Protestant Churches in the United States and the world. Your Commission believes The Methodist Church should contribute its full share in the leadership and financial support of both Agencies. The General Conference can well rejoice in the advance of Inter-Denominational Co-operation. As an aid toward further growth in co-operation, it is recommended that the Budgets of the National Council of Churches in the U.S.A. and of The World Council of Churches be apportioned separately from either the World Service Budget or the General Administration Budget. Through a separate apportionment each local church may have the consciousness of being a part of this Inter-Denominational fellowship.

Your Commission, therefore, makes the following recommendations:

A. That the General Conference authorize the rewriting of paragraph 2030 of the 1948 Discipline so as to give official recognition of the newly organized National Council of Churches in the United States of America.

B. That the General Conference authorize that a separate Apportionment, to be known as "The Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund," be made to the Annual Conferences; said Apportionment to be the fair Methodist share of support of the two Agencies.

C. That the Commission on Records, Forms and Statistical Blanks be authorized to include two columns in the Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference, the general heading to be "Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund" and the second column the words "Amount Paid."

D. That the General Conference authorize an annual Apportionment of $285,515.00 to the Annual Conferences, to be divided—

The National Council of Churches of Christ

in the U.S.A.	$200,000.00
The World Council of Churches ($5,000.00 is for travel of Methodists on the Executive Committee)	85,515.00
Total	$285,515.00

These funds to be paid to the respective Agencies on requisition to the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

E. The apportionment of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. of $200,000.00 is to be applied: $120,000.00 to the "General Purposes" program; $50,000.00 to be paid on order of the Methodist Radio, Films, and Television Commission; $5,000.00 to cover the travel of Methodist members of the Executive Committee of the National Council; and $25,000.00 to be held in a Reserve Fund to be paid by the General Commission on World Service and Finance, on recommendation of the Council of Secretaries. (applied on programs approved by the General Commission on World Service and Finance).

F. That the basis for Apportionment to each Annual Conference be a sum equal to $1/5$ of 1 per cent of the average annual amount of the Annual Conference's total giving for all purposes (not including sums paid on debts or for building and improvements) as reported in the General Minutes for the first three years of the 1948-52 quadrennium.

G. That all Methodist Agencies including Annual Conferences and local churches, contributing to either the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. or the World Council of Churches shall channel their contributions through the Central Treasury.

H. Due to differences in terminology, fiscal years, and methods in handling accounts between our Church and the National Council, it has been extremely difficult to determine the full amount of our payments to that body. In an endeavor to bring the facts before you we have had the fullest co-operation of our Boards and of officers of the National Council. The total Methodist giving last calendar year to the on-going or home base program, the payments from our Boards for purchased services or contributions to home or foreign co-operative Inter-Denominational projects amounted to some $550,000.00.

We expect the Board of Missions, the Board of Education, M.C.O.R., the Board of Lay Activities, The Methodist Publishing House, and other Methodist Agencies as they may elect, to continue to purchase services as in the past year and/or to enter into co-operative projects as they may deem desirable or in the best interests of efficiency and economy. However, any and all contributions or payments from The Methodist Church will be channelled as above directed so that we can have an exact and complete record of the total Methodist participation in the work of the National Council of Churches in the U.S.A.

PART V.—No. 6

SPECIAL DAYS

(Paragraph 747)

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 457.

In compliance with Paragraph 747 of the 1948 Discipline which reads—

“The General Commission shall also recommend to the General Conference the days in connection with the Church-wide observance of which the taking of special offerings shall be authorized, and in the case of each shall recommend whether or not the receipts derived therefrom shall be credited to the contributing church as a part of its World Service apportionment, and charged against the claims of the Board or Agency receiving the same. All such recommendations are subject to the approval of the General Conference.”

The General Commission recommends the observance of the following special days:

(1) “The Week of Dedication.” Observed near the beginning of Lent, has an offering for which a special Week of Dedication voucher is issued.

(2) “The Fellowship of Suffering and Service.” The offering is taken on World Communion Sunday (first Sunday in October). At the subsequent observances of the Sacrament of The Lord’s Supper, the local church is requested to give one third of its Communion offering for The Fellowship of Suffering and Service. A Fellowship of Suffering and Service voucher is issued for these gifts.

(3) “World Service Sunday.” Observed on the fourth Sunday in the month, at which time an offering is taken for World Service and Conference benevolences. Full World Service and Conference benevolence credit is given for this offering.

(4) "Church School Rally Day." An offering in the Church School for the Conference Board of Education, receives Annual Conference credit only.

(5) "Race Relations Sunday." An offering on the second Sunday in February for the benefit of Negro schools related to the Board of Education, receives a Board of Education receipt.

(6) "Methodist Student Day." An offering taken (preferably the second Sunday in June) for the support of the Student Loan and Scholarship Fund receives a Board of Education receipt.

PART V.—No. 7

WAR EMERGENCY APPEALS

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 460.

(1) The Fellowship of Suffering and Service. Established by the Council of Bishops as a war emergency near the beginning of the Second World War, this Fund continues to be needed. The appeal is for all or a portion of the Communion offering on World Communion Sunday and subsequent observances of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. This offering is sent through the Conference Treasurer to the Central Treasury, where it is divided 50 per cent for Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, 25 per cent for the Commission on Chaplains and 25 per cent for the Commission on Camp Activities.

The General Commission on World Services and Finance recognizes the splendid service rendered by The Methodist Church through this program; commends the Council of Bishops for their leadership and recommends to the General Conference the continuance of "The Fellowship of Suffering and Service Offerings" through 1952-56.

(2) The Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, better known as M.C.O.R. Foresighted leaders of the 1940 General Conference saw the need for a relief program for Europe. Rapidly the need for relief spread until M.C.O.R. was sending aid to many parts of the world. The funds distributed by M.C.O.R. have brought untold blessings to suffering peoples, especially in the war-devastated areas.

Money for M.C.O.R. comes from (a) The Fellowship of Suffering and Service, (b) Advance Specials, (c) and individual and local church gifts. A limited mail circularization is maintained throughout the year.

The General Commission commends the work of M.C.O.R. and recommends the continuation of this work for the quadrennium 1952-56.

PART V.—No. 8

MISCELLANEOUS RECOMMENDATIONS

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 460.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance presents the following recommendations for which it requests the approval of this General Conference.

1. Annual Conference Benevolences. We view with concern the increasing number of items included under the heading of Conference Benevolences in the World Service and Conference Benevolence Budget and the decreasing percentage being allocated to World Service. In view of this trend, we call upon the Annual Conference Commissions on World Service and Finance to (a) include in the Conference Benevolences only such causes as are clearly of a Benevolence, Educational or Missionary character and (b) urge that money needed for the administrative program of the Conference be apportioned and raised separately from the World Service and Conference Benevolence budget.

2. Budgets. We recommend that the Annual Budget for the General Commission on World Service and Finance be $15,000.00 and that the Annual Budget for the Central Receiving Treasury be $72,547.00. In order to permit the Commission to meet changing conditions or emergencies, we recommend that the General Commission be authorized to adjust the foregoing Budgets as the emergencies or needs may require.

3. General Administration Fund. We recommend that the Central Receiving Treasurer keep a record of payments of the General Administration Fund as made by each Annual Conference, and that the deficit or surplus of one or more years be added or subtracted (as the case may be) to the Apportionment of the next succeeding year, the same to be based upon the World Service fiscal year, so that each Annual Conference shall be called upon to pay in full the amount apportioned for the quadrennium. We recommend that any credit or deficit accruing to an Annual Conference at the close of the current fiscal year, May 31, 1952, shall be credited as a surplus or deficit (as the case may be) against the Apportionment for the 1952-56 quadrennium. We further recommend that the General Commission on World Service and Finance, through its Central Treasury, inform the Church of the items included in the General Administration Fund. The payments made to this fund by the Annual Conferences shall be reported to the Bishops, District Superintendents, members of the Conference Commissions on World Service and Finance and Conference Treasurers as may be deemed necessary by the Central Treasury.

4. The Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund. We recommend that the Central Receiving Treasury be authorized to prepare information concerning the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund and present the same and such Reports of receipts for this Fund to the leadership of the Church, including the Conference Lay Leaders, as may be deemed necessary by the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

5. Validity of Claims. We recommend that the General Commission on World Service and Finance be authorized to determine the validity of claims in all matters involving the World Service Fund, the Episcopal Fund, the General Administration Fund and the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund where these are not specifically set forth or determined by the General Conference.

LEGISLATION

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Pages 460-464.

Reconsidered May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 674.

Readopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Pages 674-681.

Recommendations for changes in legislation as made by the General Commission on World Service and Finance to the 1952 General Conference.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance has given careful consideration, through its Committee on Legislation, to the laws of the Church affecting its operations. Certain changes in legislation, none of them of a major nature, are recommended. Some of these are in the interest of clarity. Some will make for greater effectiveness in the working of the Commission.

There follow the recommended changes which are submitted for your consideration and action.

1. Insert in Paragraph 1299 of the 1948 Discipline a new section (3) reading as follows:

At least quadrennially each Annual Conference and District shall survey its Church Extension needs placing special emphasis upon the unchurched areas, with a view to determining in each what should be the over-all financial objective. Due consideration shall be given to the responsibility of the Division of National Missions for Areas requiring Home Missions and Church Extension aid beyond that which the Conference is able to provide. From this study an adequate Conference-initiated Financial Program shall be formulated with a view to meeting these needs. (See Paragraph 1299-3.)

Sections (3) and (4) as numbered in the 1948 Discipline should, after the insertion of this new section, be re-numbered (4) and (5) respectively.

2. Amend Paragraph 746 which reads as follows:

Paragraph 746. Individual donors or local churches may make special gifts to the support of any cause or project which is a part of the work of any one of the World Service Boards or Agencies. Special gifts shall not apply on the Benevolence Apportionment of any local church, and shall not be charged against the Board or Boards receiving them in the ratio distribution of the On-apportionment Benevolences. They shall be acknowledged by Special-Gift World Service Vouchers. World Service Boards and Agencies or any individual, Committee, Commission, Agency, or Board authorized to make a Church-wide appeal for funds, not equipped to issue Special-gift World Service Vouchers, shall channel all special gifts through the Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance. Such special-gift vouchers shall be credited in the Special Gift World Service column in the Conference minutes. Special gifts may be sent directly to the Board or Agency concerned or to the Central Treasury of the Council on World Service and Finance. The Board or office issuing a special-gift voucher shall send at the same time a duplicate voucher to the Central Treasury for forwarding to the Conference Treasurer. Bequests, gifts on the annuity plan, gifts to permanent funds, and gifts for property shall be classified as special gifts. Individuals soliciting funds for World Service Projects shall channel the money received through the Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance or the Treasurer of the appropriate Board or Agency, which Board or Agency shall issue the proper vouchers.

So that the same shall read:

Individual donors or local churches may make special gifts to the support of any cause or project which is a part of the work of any one of the World Service Boards or Agencies. Special gifts shall not apply on the Benevolence Apportionment of any local church, and shall not be charged against the Board or Boards receiving them in the ratio distribution of the On-apportionment Benevolences. They shall be acknowledged by Special-gift World Service Vouchers, provided that special gifts for the World and National Divisions of the Board of Missions and for the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief shall be issued vouchers entitled "Advance Specials." World Service Boards and Agencies, or any individual Committee, Commission, Agency, or Board authorized to make a Church-wide appeal for funds, not equipped to issue Special-gift World Service Vouchers, shall channel all special gifts through the Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance. Such Special-gift Vouchers shall be credited in the Special Gift World Service column in the Conference minutes. Special gifts may be sent directly to the Board or Agency concerned, or to the Central Treasury of the Council on World Service and Finance. The Board or office issuing a Special-gift Voucher shall send at the same time a duplicate voucher to the Central Treasury for forwarding to the Conference Treasurer. Requests, gifts on the annuity plan, gifts to permanent funds, and gifts for property shall be classified as special gifts. Individuals soliciting funds for World Service Projects shall channel the money received through the Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance or the Treasurer of the appropriate Board or Agency, which Board or Agency shall issue the proper vouchers.

3. Add an additional section to Paragraph 750, which reads as follows:

Paragraph 750. To the Bishops in their Areas, the District Superintendents in their Districts, the pastors in their charges, and the official laymen, with the co-operation of the various General, Jurisdictional, and Annual Conference Boards and Agencies, shall be committed the responsibility to make diligent effort to raise the full amount of the Apportionments accepted by the charge.

So that the same shall read:

To the Bishops in their Areas, the District Superintendents in their Districts, the pastors in their charges, and the official laymen, with the co-operation of the various General Jurisdictional and Annual Conference Boards and Agencies, shall be committed the responsibility to make diligent effort to raise the full amount of Apportionments accepted by the charge. In each Annual Conference there MAY (shall) be constituted a Commission on Promotion to make the foregoing effective. This Commission shall be composed of one representative of the Cabinet, the Missionary Secretary of the Conference, the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and a representative of each of the following Conference Boards elected by these Boards respectively: Board of Missions, Board of Education, Board of Evangelism, and Board of Lay Activities. The Budget for this Commission shall be provided by the Conference through its Commission on World Service and Finance.

4. Delete Paragraph 1141 in the 1948 Discipline reading as follows:

Paragraph 1141. The Board of Publication and the Publishing Agents through the Book Editor of the Church, are to be responsible for establishing and operating the official Statistical Office of The Methodist Church. The expenses of operation, including the publishing of the General Minutes, shall be borne by the General Administration Fund.

And instead insert, following Paragraph 760, a new Paragraph as follows:

Paragraph 760A. The Council on World Service and Finance through its Executive Secretary shall be responsible for establishing and operating the Official Statistical Office of The Methodist Church. The expenses of operation including publishing of the General Minutes shall be borne by the General Administration Fund.

5. Insert following Paragraph 760A a new paragraph as follows:

Paragraph 760B. "The General Administration Fund."

The Council on World Service and Finance is authorized to establish a Transportation Bureau and administer the same through its Executive Secretary. The Transportation Bureau shall represent the Church in its relations with the responsible person(s) or concerns operating the several modes of public transportation. The purchase of tickets and the securing of space reservations for travel shall be placed as nearly as possible on a self-supporting basis. The costs of the office shall be a charge against the General Administration Fund.

6. Amend Section 3, Paragraph 435 of the 1948 Discipline, which reads as follows:

Paragraph 435. A Bishop who by reason of impaired health is temporarily unable to perform full work may be released by the Jurisdictional Conference from the obligation to travel through the connection at large. He may choose the place of his residence, and the Council of Bishops shall be at liberty to assign him to such work as he may be able to perform. He shall receive his support as provided by the Discipline. This release shall not be granted for more than one year in any quadrennium. At the end of such a year his support for the remainder of the quadrennium shall be determined by the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

So that the section shall read:

A Bishop who by reason of impaired health is temporarily unable to perform full work may be released by the Jurisdictional Conference from the obligation to travel through the connection at large. He may choose the place of his residence, and the Council of Bishops shall be at liberty to assign him to such work as he may be able to perform. He shall receive his support as provided in Paragraph 766 of the Discipline.

7. Amend Paragraph 766 of the 1948 Discipline which reads as follows:

Paragraph 766. Should an effective Bishop in the interim of the quadrennial sessions of his Jurisdictional Conference be relieved by the College of Bishops of his Jurisdiction from the performance of regular Episcopal duties (Paragraph 431), on account of ill health or for any other reason, the Chairman of the said College of Bishops shall so notify the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund. Beginning thirty days after such retirement, he shall receive the regular pension allowance of a retired Bishop, and such pension allowance shall continue until he resumes the regular status of an effective Bishop, or until his status shall have been determined by his Jurisdictional Conference.

So that the Paragraph shall read:

Should an effective Bishop in the interim of the quadrennial sessions of his Jurisdictional Conference be relieved by the College of Bishops of his Jurisdiction from the performance of regular Episcopal duties (Paragraph 431) on account of ill health or for any other reason, the Chairman of said College of Bishops shall so notify the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund. Beginning ninety days after such notification he shall receive the regular pension allowance of a retired Bishop, and such pension allowance shall continue until he resumes the regular duties of an effective Bishop or until his status shall have been determined by his Jurisdictional Conference. Assignment of another Bishop or Bishops to perform the regular Episcopal duties of a Bishop so disabled or otherwise incapacitated, for a period of sixty days or more, shall be interpreted as a release of the said Bishop from the performance of his regular Episcopal duties.

8. Amend Paragraph 722 which reads as follows :

Paragraph 722. All persons holding trust funds, securities, or monies of all kinds belonging to the General Conference or to Annual or Provisional Annual Conferences or to those organizations under the control of the General, Annual, or Provisional Annual Conferences shall be bonded in a reliable company in such good and sufficient sum as the Conference may direct. The accounts of such persons shall be audited at least annually, preferably by a certified public accountant or a competent Auditing Committee carefully chosen by the Commission on Finance, and the findings of such audit shall be published in the Conference minutes.

So that the same shall read :

All persons holding trust funds, securities or monies of any kind belonging to the General Conference or to Annual or Provisional Annual Conferences or to those organizations under control of the General, Annual or Provisional Annual Conferences shall be bonded in a reliable company in such good and sufficient sum as the Conference may direct. The accounts of such persons shall be audited at least annually by a certified public accountant carefully chosen by the Commission on Finance, and the findings of such audit shall be published in the Conference minutes.

9. Amend Paragraph 739 of the 1948 Discipline which reads as follows :

Paragraph 739. The Treasurer shall report annually to the Council on World Service and Finance and to the respective Annual Conference Commissions as to all amounts received and disbursed during the year. He shall also make to each quadrennial session of the General Conference a full report of the financial transactions of the Commission for the preceding quadrennium. The Treasurer shall be bonded for such an amount as may be determined by the Commission. The books of the Treasurer shall be audited annually by an accountant approved by the Executive Committee.

So that the same shall read:

The Treasurer shall report annually to the Council on World Service and Finance and to the respective Annual Conference Commissions as to all amounts received and disbursed during the year. He shall also make to each quadrennial session of the General Conference a full report of the financial transactions of the Commission for the preceding quadrennium. The Treasurer shall be bonded for such an amount as may be determined by the Commission. The books of the Treasurer shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant approved by the Executive Committee.

10. Amend Paragraph 790 which reads as follows:

Paragraph 790. Each Annual Conference on nomination of its Commission on World Service and Finance, shall, at the first session of the Conference after the adjournment of each quadrennial session of the General Conference, elect a Conference Treasurer. He shall serve for the quadrennium or until his successor shall be elected and qualify. If a vacancy shall occur during the quadrennium, the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall fill the vacancy until the next session of the Annual Conference. The Commission shall have authority and supervision over the Treasurer. After consultation with the Bishop in charge, it may remove him from office for cause, and fill the vacancy until the next session of the Conference. The Commission shall have the accounts of the Conference Treasurer for the Conference year preceding audited within forty days after the close of each session of the Annual Conference.

So that the same shall read:

Each Annual Conference on nomination of its Commission on World Service and Finance, shall, at the first session of the Conference after the adjournment of each quadrennial session of the General Conference, elect a Conference Treasurer. He shall serve for the quadrennium or until his successor shall be elected and qualify. If a vacancy should occur during the quadrennium, the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall fill the vacancy until the next session of the Annual Conference. The Commission shall have authority and supervision over the Treasurer. After consultation with the Bishop in charge, it may remove him from office for cause, and fill the vacancy until the next session of the Conference. The Commission shall have the accounts of the Conference Treasurer for the Conference year preceeding audited by a certified public accountant within ninety days after the close of each session of the Annual Conference.

11. Insert a new paragraph in the 1948 Discipline under Section VI, Pages 191-192 under the heading "Miscellaneous" to read as follows:

Paragraph 773A. The Council on World Service and Finance shall operate, under the supervision of its Executive Secretary, a Department known as "the File of Pastors and Church Officials." It shall be the function of this Department to maintain an accurate record of the mail addresses of all Bishops, ministers in the effective relation, Supply pastors (including retired ministers) serving charges, Conference Lay Leaders, and such list of General, Jurisdictional, Conference and District Boards, Commissions or Committees and such officers of the same as may be deemed necessary.

The cost of maintaining such a file shall be a charge against the Central Treasury. The Executive Secretary is authorized and directed to make equitable charges for its use by various bodies. No use of the file shall be permitted for others than authorized bodies or officers of The Methodist Church.

12. PARAGRAPH 754 OF THE 1948 DISCIPLINE TO REMAIN AS IS, AND THE PROPOSED LEGISLATION IN SECTION 12 OF THIS REPORT IS HEREBY REFERRED TO THE CO-ORDINATING COUNCIL FOR CONSIDERATION, AND A REPORT TO THE 1956 GENERAL CONFERENCE.

DELETE Paragraph 754 of the 1948 Discipline which reads as follows:

The Council on World Service and Finance is authorized to set up a Committee on Wills, Bequests and Gifts composed of three of its members and two members of the Council of Secretaries. This Committee shall prepare materials, develop mailing lists, and take such actions as may be deemed necessary to encourage Methodists to provide for their continued interest in world service, or one or more of the World Service Agencies, through bequests and gifts. The expense of this Committee shall be a part of the prior claim for promotion of the World Service Fund as indicated in Paragraph 751.

Substitute the following:

Paragraph 754. The Council on World Service and Fi- nance shall establish an organization known as "The Methodist Foundation" with the following provisions:

It shall be the duty of The Methodist Foundation to (a) prepare materials, develop mailing lists, and employ such personnel and other means within budget limitations as may be deemed necessary to encourage Methodists to make gifts, devises and bequests to The Methodist Foundation as a means of continuing their interest in and support of World Service, a World Service agency, or other institution, agency or project of The Methodist Church; and (b) to receive, invest, and administer these gifts, devises and/or bequests within any restrictions imposed by The General Conference of The Methodist Church in accordance with the expressed wishes of the donor. It shall also have power to decline any proffered gift(s) if in its judgment such declination would be in the best interests of the Church.

WHERE THE INCOME FROM A GIFT, DEVISE, OR BEQUEST TO THE FOUNDATION IS DESIGNATED FOR AN AGENCY WHICH HAS PERMANENT AND TRUST FUNDS OF ITS OWN, SUCH GIFT, DEVISE, OR BEQUEST SHALL BE TURNED OVER TO SUCH AGENCY, provided, IT BE DONE UNDER THE TERMS AND PROVISIONS OF THE GIFT, DEVISE, OR BEQUEST, AND OF THE LAWS UNDER WHICH SAID GIFT, DEVISE, OR BEQUEST IS ADMINISTERED. When a testator or donor makes a devise, bequest, or gift to The Methodist Foundation without instructions for its use, The Council on World Service and Finance shall recommend quadrennially to The General Conference, for its action and determination, the Agency(ies), project(s) or object(s), which shall receive the income from said undirected gift(s) and the amount or percentage of the income to be distributed to each. Such action as is taken by The General Conference shall be binding on The Methodist Foundation. CARE SHALL BE TAKEN BY THE OFFICERS OF THE FOUNDATION TO AVOID SOLICITATION OF FUNDS WHICH INTERFERE WITH SOLICITATION OF FUNDS ALREADY APPROVED BY AN ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

The Methodist Foundation shall be incorporated with fifteen Directors. Among these Directors there shall always be at least one chosen from each Jurisdiction. Of the fifteen Directors, not less than three shall be ministers, not less than three shall be members of The Council on World Service and Finance and at least five shall be chosen for their knowledge and skill in the field of investments.

The Directors shall be nominated by the Council on World Service and Finance and elected by The General Conference.

They shall serve for a period of eight years, or until their successors in office are elected and qualified, except that in the initial organization of The Methodist Foundation, seven shall be elected for four years and eight elected for eight years. Vacancies occurring shall be filled by The Council on World Service and Finance. The Executive Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance shall sit with the Directors of The Methodist Foundation and shall have the right of the floor, but without vote. The Council on World Service and Finance shall perform the treasury functions for the funds of The Methodist Foundation.

The funds to support the activity of The Methodist Foundation shall be provided from The General Administration Fund in such sum as may be determined by The General Conference, due consideration having been given to the amount recommended by The Council on World Service and Finance.

The Methodist Foundation shall have power at its discretion to invest, reinvest, buy, sell, manage, exchange, transfer and convey any and all funds and property which it may hold absolutely or in trust, subject always to the terms of the bequest, devise or donation, and subject to any restrictions imposed by The General Conference, but in exercising such power, The Methodist Foundation shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation, but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of their capital. Within the limitations of the foregoing standard, it is authorized to acquire and retain every kind of property, real, personal or mixed, and every kind of investment, including specifically but without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, bonds, debentures and other corporate obligations, stocks, preferred or common, and real estate mortgages, which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence acquire or retain for their own account, and within the limitations of the foregoing standard, The Methodist Foundation is authorized to retain property properly acquired, without limitation as to time and without regard to its suitability for original purchase.

13. Amend Paragraph 733 which reads as follows:

The General Conference at each quadrennial session shall elect a Council on World Service and Finance, which Council shall through its Central Office receive and disburse in accordance with the directions hereinafter set forth all funds raised throughout the Church for (1) the World Service Fund, (2) the General Administration Fund, (3) the Episcopal Fund, (4) any other Fund or Funds so directed by the proper authority.

So that the Paragraph shall read:

The General Conference at each quadrennial session shall elect a Council on World Service and Finance, which Council shall through its Central Office receive and disburse in accordance with the directions hereinafter set forth all funds raised throughout the Church for (1) the World Service Fund, (2) the General Administration Fund, (3) the Episcopal Fund, (4) the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, and (5) any other Fund or Funds so directed by the proper authority.

14. Insert a new Section VI after Paragraph 768 to read as follows:

15. Delete: Paragraph 745, which reads as follows:

Pastoral charges, individuals and groups may make designated gifts to the work of any General or Conference Board or Agency, or to one or more projects or types of work under its direction: provided, that said gifts shall be designated for projects or types of work which have been included in the approved program of the Boards or Agencies. Before making remittance the donor is requested to ascertain from the Board, or Agency concerned whether the proposed gift applies to a project included in the approved program. Designated gifts shall be credited upon the Benevolence Apportionment of the local church and shall be applied upon the ratio share of the receiving Boards or Agencies in the Apportioned Benevolence Funds.

THE INTER-DENOMINATIONAL CO-OPERATION FUND

The Council on World Service and Finance shall recommend to The General Conference the sum which the Church shall undertake to provide as its share of the Budget of the National Council of Churches AND WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES. The sum approved by the General Conference for this purpose shall be known as the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund Budget. The Council on World Service and Finance shall recommend to the General Conference for its consideration and determination, appropriate measures to be employed in order to provide the approved sum. The money contributed by the churches, Boards or other Agencies for this purpose shall be received and held by the Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance and disbursed as the General Conference shall direct.

C. A. JONES (*), Secretary.

PART V.—No. 10

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 794.

The General Commission on World Service and Finance had before it the request of the General Conference to present a Budget for the Methodist Commission on Social and Economic Relations. In compliance with this request we present the following as a Budget, which we believe will allow the Commission to begin its work and to carry on an Annual Program for the coming quadrennium.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO THE COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE RELATIVE TO THE BUDGET OF METHODIST COMMISSION ON SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RELATIONS

We recommend the following Budget:

Office Rent	$ 3,000.00
General Secretary	6,500.00
General Secretary House Rent	1,500.00
Asst. Secretary	4,800.00
Asst. Secretary House Rent	1,200.00
Stenographic Help	6,000.00
Mailing and Literature	7,000.00
Social Security and Pension Hospital and Workman's Compensation, etc.	2,000.00
Stationery and Office Expense	1,000.00
Postage and Express	2,500.00
Telephone and Telegraph	1,000.00
Travel	2,000.00
Meeting of Commission	2,500.00
Contingent Fund	4,000.00

Adopted $45,000.00

If the General Conference creates the Methodist Commission on Social and Economic Relations and authorizes such a Budget, our further recommendation is that this money be secured by establishing a new ratio for the World Service agencies not including the Board of Missions, Theological Schools, Scarritt College.

On the basis of our recommendations, the new ratios will be as follows:

1952 Journal of the 1952 General Conference

Education	15.71%
Ministerial Training93
Temperance	2.02
Hospitals & Homes	1.09
Lay Activities	1.64
World Peace92
Evangelism	2.18
American Bible Society	1.36
Social and Economic Action50
The Ratios unchanged are:
Missions	62.35
*Theological Schools	8.90
*Scarritt College56
Radio, Films and Television	1.84
	100.00%

* Theological schools and Scarritt College are limited in any one year to $800,000.00 and $50,000.00 respectively.

Respectfully submitted,

CLARE PURCELL, Chairman;
C. A. JONES (*), Secretary.

BUDGET CRUSADE FOR WORLD ORDER

Adopted May 6, 1952. See Journal, Page 682.

On May 2, 1952, there was referred to the General Commission on World Service and Finance a Resolution relative to the objective Crusade for World Order, asking special consideration from the General Administration Fund. The Commission has carefully considered this request, but believes that the Budget for such a Crusade properly should be a responsibility of the supporting Agencies, to be supplemented in due course by collections taken throughout the Church in connection with meetings which would be held. The Commission, therefore, does not recommend that an Appropriation for this cause be made from the General Administration Fund.

Part VI.

WORLD SERVICE MANUAL

Adopted May 2, 1952. See Journal, Page 468.

The 1948 General Conference directed the General Commission on World Service and Finance to prepare a Manual for the guidance of Annual Conference Commissions on World Service and Finance submitting the same to the 1952 session of this Conference for approval.

The Commission reports that after having made some studies looking to the publication of such a Manual, it postponed completion of the work in view of proposed changes in legislation relating to World Service matters. The Commission recommends to the General Conference that the latter shall direct it to prepare and publish such a Manual, when in the judgment of the Commission it is wise to do so.
